Roberta High rites held Friday in Haskell

- Big Country area loses a friend and supporter -

Roberta Lee Williams High of Haskell died suddenly Tuesday, November 10, at Brackenridge Hospital in Austin. She was 54.

Mrs. High worked as a pharmacy consultant for the Knox County Hospital.

Services were held at 10:30 a.m., Friday, November 13, at the First Baptist Church in Haskell with the Rev. Jim Turner officiating. He was assisted by the Revs. Randy McLelland of Granbury and Jeffrey Steenson of St. Andrews Episcopal Church in Fort Worth. The Rev. Lacy Sellars of First Presbyterian Church in Bellaire assisted at the interment.

Graveside service was at 4:00 p.m. at Walters Cemetery in Walters, Oklahoma. Burial was directed by Holden-McCauley Funeral Directors of Haskell.

Born in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, on March 21, 1944, Roberta was the daughter of the late Burnis Aaron and Roberta Roddy Williams. She graduated from Southwestern Oklahoma State University with a degree in pharmacy and was a member of Sigma Kappa Sorority. She was a licensed pharmacist in both Texas and Oklahoma.

She currently worked as a pharmacy consultant for the Knox County Hospital. She had also been a consultant pharmacist for Albany, Aspermont, Haskell and Throckmorton hospitals.

Roberta was a wife, mother, pharmacist, homemaker, singer and speaker. She married Doyle Eugene High in 1964 in Fort Cobb, Oklahoma, and in 1969 they purchased Oates Drug Store in Haskell. In 1976, they moved the pharmacy to its current location and renamed it The Drug Store.

Roberta was a presence in the pharmacy community and was active in local, regional, state and national pharmacy associations. Roberta was appointed by Gov. George W. Bush to the Texas State Board of Pharmacy for a six-year term in February 1996. At the time of her death, she was vice-president of the board. She was former president of the Big Country Pharmacy Association and a member of the board of directors for the West Texas Pharmacy Association.

ROBERTA HIGH

Roberta was also president of Talkin' Across Texas Toastmasters, a member of the First Baptist Church Adult 3 Sunday School Class, the choir and the Haskell Book Club.

One of her many gifts was her singing ability. In the 1976 bicentennial year, she entertained with fellow Yankee Doodle Girls, Mary Kennedy, Nelda Lane and Becky Richardson Tubbs. In 1986, she, Patsy Blakley, Pam Gibson and Susan Pope Jones recorded an album of religious songs, "The Four Friends". In 1994, she co-authored The Redneck and the High Maintenance Woman with her husband. The duo currently were using material from the book, which is in its second printing, to give motivational and inspirational speeches across Texas and other states.

Roberta was deeply committed to her faith, family, friends and profession. She took personal joy in helping others whether singing special music at church, encouraging young pharmacy students, or contributing her expertise to worthy causes. She loved the Lord, bright colors, high tea, talking with people, singing, stray animals, reading, jewelry and writing notes.

Because of her attention to detail she balanced her family life, a demanding career, community activities, and professional obligations with dignity, decorum and grace. Affectionately known as Precious, the nickname given to her by her husband, her indomitable spirit was perhaps best exemplified by her reluctant willingness to support her husband's bookwriting and bicycling treks.

Outside of their family, Doyle said he and Roberta were most proud of the 34 young people from the Haskell area who have chosen to become pharmacists. The Highs encouraged and supported these students in pursuing the profession which Roberta so dedicatedly represented.

Roberta is survived by her husband; a son and daughter-in-law, Kirk William and Laura Manning High of Fort Worth; a daughter, Holli Anne High of Austin; a brother, Robert Dee Williams of West Palm Beach, Florida; and four aunts, Grace Frank of Carnegie, Oklahoma; Pearle Kirk of Binger, Oklahoma; Katherine Meeck of Houston and Kathleen Roddy of Fort Cobb, Oklahoma.

Pallbearers were Ben Brophy of Amarillo, Paul Cox of Fort Worth, Bill Jones of Rule, Matt Lane of Austin, Charles Chapman, Bob Earles, Tommy Matthews and Dr. Cliff Ray of Haskell.

Honorary pallbearers were R.V. and Violet Earles, Ruby Holt, Lonnie and Nancy Hollingsworth of Lubbock, Joe Harper, Doc and Joy Jones of Rule, Ruthie Randle and Margaret Ratliff.

Memorials may be made to the Haskell Educational Foundation, P.O. Box 937, Haskell TX 79521 or to the West Texas Pharmacy Association, Student Scholarship Fund, 5119 34th Street, Lubbock, TX 79410.

Stock show entries are due

By Paul A. Weiser
CEA - Ag

Each year Knox County is represented by many youth at junior livestock shows all across Texas. Such shows take place in cities like Fort Worth, San Antonio, Houston and San Angelo. However, in order to enter and show at these stock shows the youth must follow very specific rules.

Two of the most important rules are validation and completing entry forms. Validation for show steers took place in June. Sheep and goats were validated in October. Now, in November, all showings were validated. Animals like broilers and turkeys are not validated but must be ordered at one time from one hatchery. Rabbits also do not require validation. For the Knox County Junior Livestock Show it is the responsibility of the supervisor, ag science instructor or county extension agent, to verify ownership.

Entry forms and fees, the second most important part of entering a show, must be completed in November. All spring major shows must be postmarked by December 1. In order to do this on time - due to the Thanksgiving holiday - most ag teachers and county agents request that entries be completed before Thanksgiving.

Anyone wishing to show under Knox County 4-H must have a current 4-H enrollment card on file in the extension office, so those who have not filled out an enrollment card since September 1998, they will need to request a form, fill it out and return it.

Anyone wishing to show under Knox County 4-H must submit their completed entries and entry fees to Paul Weiser in the Knox County Extension office by 5:00 p.m. on Friday, November 10. All entries must be mailed at one time. They will be mailed on Monday, November 23.

Youth interested in exhibiting under FFA must consult their local ag science instructor for deadlines. Each instructor may vary with their deadlines.

All Knox County Jr. Livestock Show entries are due to their supervisor by December 21. Once again, there may be differences according to each supervisor. Knox County 4-H entries must be in the Knox County Extension office by this date, Monday, December 21, at 5:00 p.m.

Anyone with questions or concerns related to livestock show entries should contact Paul Weiser in the Knox County Extension office in Benjamin at 454-2651 or their local ag science instructor.

Educational programs of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service are open to all citizens without regard to race, color, sex, disability, religion, age or national origin. Individuals with disabilities who require an auxiliary aid, service or accommodation in order to participate in a meeting or program are encouraged to contact the Knox County Extension office at 940-454-2651.

Annual toy drive for Child Welfare Board kicks into high gear as Christmas approaches

As in years past, the Knox County Child Welfare Board is appealing to the public to help bring the true meaning of Christmas spirit to children in Knox County who need a 'love touch' this holiday season.

With the Christmas tree in the front window of The Knox County News office at 110 North Central in downtown Knox City, the Child Welfare Board is kicking off their campaign for Christmas, 1998. This project is a long time, well known campaign throughout Knox County that serves more than one hundred children with toys, clothing and food.

While the members of the Child Welfare Board donate hundreds of hours of time, they are not able to celebrate a successful campaign without the help of so many more in Knox County who take the time to donate something every year.

This year, the board is asking for the donation of toys (new, but not wrapped), clothing and non-perishable food items in non breakable containers. For those who are unable to shop due to time constraints, transportation, or even physical handicaps, the board members urge donations of money into a special account that has been established at Citizens Bank here in Knox City. While these valuable donations of funds can be taken to the bank and deposited directly into the Knox County Child Welfare Fund, they may also be given to any board member or mailed to Jaunita Wilcox, Treasurer, at 509 South Central in Knox City, Tx. 79529.

This year, those wishing to donate toys may do so by leaving them under the tree in the front window of the News office. Food items can be taken to Jaunita Wilcox at 509 South Central. We discourage the leaving of food items at the News office because of a problem in the downtown area with small ants in the buildings.

While the board appreciates all donations, there has to be a cut off date set in order to allow enough time for processing of the items for distribution to kids throughout the county. This year, the cut off date will be the same day as the annual Knox City Christmas Parade, set for Saturday, December 12 at 2:00 in the afternoon.

Won't you take the time to donate and help a child this Christmas?

Benjamin news

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

Sorry to have missed the News last week but was out of town til late Sunday and just didn't get any gathered up. So some of this week's column is a combination of "two weeks happenings".

More encouraging news from Bill Ryder today. He spent several days last week in the Wichita Falls hospital but returned home Thursday and is feeling better.

Joe Trepanier returned home Friday after several days in a Grapevine hospital after suffering some broken vertebrae in his back a couple of weeks ago and surgery to repair the damage. He's making progress everyday and sure glad to be home! And we are glad he is.

George Parrish came home last Wednesday after a three week stay in the Munday nursing center for some therapy following a stroke and several days in the Haskell hospital. He's much improved and that too, is good to report.

Joe Nunley of Seymour, well known to Benjamin folks, was in Wichita Falls Friday to see his doctor and learned he will be having surgery in early December. He has a problem with fluid buildup and the surgery will be to help deal with that. We wish Joe well.

We're glad to hear that our friend Carol Felts of Knox City has received his new heart and that his progress is coming along nicely. It's been several weeks of waiting for his family, as well as his friends and this news is indeed well received. We just urge your continued prayers in his and his family's behalf.

Here 'N There - I spent last weekend, November 7 and 8, in Denton and Fort Worth and attended a 40th birthday party for my niece Cindy Thornton and her husband Mike. Both turned 40 within two weeks of each other and their gift to teach other was a party at the WestForkDudeRanch at Fort Worth for all their friends and family to enjoy. And we did just that! A delicious barbecue dinner and all the ranch activities - rodeo, hayride, live music and dancing - provided for an evening of fun.

Christi Ross and little daughter Kate of Mills Valley, Oklahoma, is here for a few days visit with Christi's parents, Jack and Judie Whitten and other relatives and friends. Her husband, Ryan, was in Amarillo for the weekend for the world championship ranch rodeo competition.

My weekend guests were my sister and brother-in-law, Glenda and Norris "Mac" McNeely of Aubrey. On Saturday, we attended a Yeager "cousins" reunion at the Community Center in Munday. "Kin" from Hurst, Mineral Wells, Burleson, Weatherford, Bartlesville, Oklahoma, San Angelo, Wichita Falls, Knox City, Aubrey and Benjamin gathered for a day of visiting, good food and lots of fun. And we are already looking forward to the next one in 1999.

Lorene Powers of Midland was a recent guest of Debbie Clower and family, Leroy and Gloria West and other relatives and friends.

Bud Conner, Katrine King and Lynda Brooke Hudson spent last weekend with Keith, Pam and Casey Conner in Big Spring.

Weekend guests of Jane Gideon and Weldon Gideon was Mike Gideon of Bryan. On Sunday, Lana Mendoza and family of Seymour were here and all celebrated Lana (and Oscar's) birthday. Of course, Oscar was unable to be here.

Gary and JoAnn Hamilton attended an Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Denton recently.

Dutch and Imagean Young and Jack and Mary Young spent last weekend at their deer lease near Putnam. Three out of the four got a deer - Jack didn't get one but he enjoyed the "outing" (I guess).

Harvey G. Albright called me Saturday night. He's doing better since his heart attack but his eyesight is worsening every day. His wife had received a bad burn from spilling scalding water on her upper leg but it is healing and the don't think they will have to graft skin so they are very thankful for that.

Remember to call in your news! Thanks.

O'Brien happenings

By Audie Johnston, O'Brien Correspondent

"One of my first jobs was with a company that installed swimming pools. My boss called me into his office after a few days to tell me he appreciated my hard work. 'As a reward, I'm going to give you a new company vehicle,' he said. At first I was in shock, and then my excitement grew as he talked about the independent front-wheel suspension, air conditioning and the color - cherry red. 'This baby will really haul,' he said. The next morning my boss drove up and unloaded my new set of wheels - a bright-red wheelbarrow."

Here and There - Royce Manning of Abilene spent some time with his parents, Orval and Helen Manning last week and he and his father enjoyed playing golf.

Bernice Rowan was in Haskell Saturday morning to visit with her daughter, Debbie Burson, granddaughter Traci Oglesby and son Cutter.

Donnie and Diane Roberts were in Lubbock Saturday to attend the Texas Tech football game. It was a good game but kinda edgy at times.

Ranzzy and Adelle Herring has some visitors last week. Adelle's sister, Claudia Reed of Rochester and the Herring's grandson, Kevin Urbanczyk of Munday.

O'Brien Baptist Church held church services at the Brazos Valley Care Home on Sunday. There was a good group of patients who seemed to have enjoyed the good music by LaUna Hester pianist and song leader Donnie Roberts. Those from our church attending were Helen Manning, Bernice Rowan, Billie Walker, two friends and me. Bro. Trice enjoyed his sermon he presented them.

Gary and Deborah Steinman of Dallas, friends of Billie Walker's, are visiting for a few days. The Steinmans have just returned from mission work in Honduras where they spent a week helping doctors and dentists treat the people there.

A Mayo Clinic study says that depressed people tend to recover less well from heart attacks, coronary bypasses and other heart condition problems than people without emotional problems. The study followed 310 men and 70 women entering cardiac rehabilitation programs.

Researchers know that the protein ApoE is involved in Alzheimer's. Some Duke researchers say people who inherit a variant called ApoE are at risk before age 70.

'Smokeout' is Thursday

Thursday, November 19, the American Cancer Society's 22nd Great American Smokeout will help millions of smokers kick the habit and help youth understand the importance of never starting to smoke.

The promotion is the American Cancer Society's annual, nationally recognized day when tobacco consumers are asked to put down their cigarettes, cigars, spit tobacco, or any tobacco product as they all have the potential to cause cancer.

It is known that approximately 32 million smokers, out of 47 million current smokers, want to quit smoking completely.

The promise of an addiction free life has encouraged many smokers to join in and provide to themselves that they can live a day without cigarettes and that they can therefore live the rest of their lives without them.

Bride-elect honored with shower

A bridal shower honoring Nicole Zeitler, bride-elect of Andrew Williams, was held Saturday, October 24, in the home of Susan Emerson. Calling hour was from one-thirty until three o'clock in the afternoon.

Greeting guests in addition to the honoree were the prospective bridegroom's mother, Cathye Williams; and Pat Zeitler of San Angelo, mother of the bride-elect.

Special guests included Nicole's sister, Sarah Zeitler of UT at Austin; and her aunt, Marian Seidenberger of Stamford.

Special guests from Andrew's family were his grandmother, Eva Ross of Burkburnett; his aunt, Doyla Motley of Burkburnett; his aunt and cousins, Pam Alvidrez, Katlin and Madison of Lewisville; his aunt, Dianne Ross of Lewisville; his grandmother, Dorothy Williams of San Antonio; his great-aunt, Veronica Soyars of San Antonio; and his sister and niece, Jessica and Ryann Williams of Wichita Falls.

The bride's chosen colors of rum pink and burgundy were carried out in the decor. An ivory brocade lace cloth covered the serving table which was centered with a bouquet of porcelain roses and alstromeria lilies. Jennifer Emerson of Abilene and Jennifer DeVillie of Knox City served refreshments of holiday breads, pecan pie, hot apple cider, banana punch, nuts and mints. Appointments were crystal and silver.

Hostesses were Barbara A. Barnard, Sandra Bradley, Doris Crownover, Jennifer DeVillie, Susan Emerson, Esther Grindstaff, Dorethy Harrison, Vickie Huffman, Judy Lain, Cathy Marion, Sue Marion, Kay Pepper, Judy Perdue, Barbara Pratt, Beth Staggs, Kim Stafford, Estelle Skiles and Sharon Wainscott.

Nov. 12 was school 'Parents Day'

NOVEMBER 12, 1998, was declared Parent Day for Texas schools. Knox City Elementary celebrated this day by inviting families and friends of Elementary students to Parent Night. All met in the auditorium where Maribeth Williams, principal, explained the new use of Title I funds by participation in the Schoolwide plan. A review of S.W.I.M. (Students With Impeccable Manners), Project L.A.M.P. (Letters to American Military Personnel), and Accelerated Reader were given. Families visited classrooms of their children where they were led through a mini-school-day by the homeroom teacher. They also visited the Computer Lab and were well entertained in the auditorium by demonstrations of Physical Education skills led by Greta Waldrip and singing in Spanish led by Kay Adkisson, shown in above photo. 'Get into action', it's good for heart

You've heard that being physically active is good for your health. But here are two more reasons from the American Heart Association to get off the couch and into the action: You'll feel better and have a more positive outlook on life.

"We are encouraging everyone - young and old, fit and not so fit - to include physical activity in their daily routines," Peggy Guinn, president of the American Heart Association's Knox County Division, says. "Everyone can benefit from being active."

Physical inactivity is a major risk for heart disease. And when combined with overeating, physical inactivity can lead to obesity and high blood pressure - two more risks for heart disease.

Physical activity builds healthy bones, muscles and joints and reduces the risk of diabetes and color cancer. It also reduces feelings of depression and anxiety, improves mood and promotes a feeling of well-being.

For health benefits to the heart, lungs and circulation, perform any vigorous activity at least 30 minutes a day each week at 50-75 percent of maximum heart rate. Moderate physical activities for 30 minutes on most days provide some benefits.

"Physical activity need not be strenuous to bring health benefits," Mrs. Guinn says. "What is important is to include activity as part of a regular routine."

Activities that are especially beneficial when performed regularly include brisk walking, hiking, stair-climbing, aerobic exercise, jogging, running, bicycling, rowing and swimming and activities such as soccer and basketball that include continuous running.

For people not able to exercise vigorously or who are sedentary, even moderate and low-intensity activities, when performed daily, have some long-term health benefits. These include waling for pleasure, gardening and yard work, house work, dancing and prescribed home exercise, recreational activities such as tennis, racquetball, soccer, basketball and touch football.

In general, those beginning any program should talk to their physician before beginning an exercise program.

'For I was hungry and you gave me food, I was thirsty and you gave me a drink, a stranger and you welcomed me, naked and you clothed me, ill and you cared for me, in prison and you visited me.'

Be sure to call for pipeline locations before you dig.

The number one cause of natural gas pipeline incidents is excavation-related activity. The great majority of these are unintentional and can be avoided. At least 48 hours before digging, leveling land or drilling, be sure to place a toll-free call to 1-800-344-8377 to locate any pipeline that may be in the area. After your call is received, a representative will be sent to mark the location of the line at no cost to you.

Making this call is important to the public, you and the pipeline. It can prevent dangerous situations, property damage, disruption of service and work delays.

How to recognize a natural gas leak.

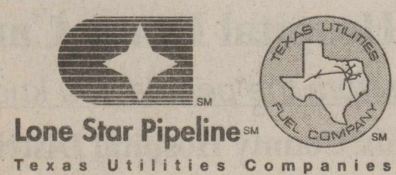

There are several signs that can indicate a pipeline leak. They include:

- ◆ Distinctive odor associated with natural gas.
- ◆ Dead vegetation in an otherwise green area.
- ◆ A hissing or roaring sound.

What to do if you find a leak.

If you find a pipeline leak, your first concern should be for your own safety and the safety of those around you. It is important to take the following steps:

- ◆ Leave the area immediately on foot.
- ◆ Avoid creating sparks that could ignite the gas.
- ◆ Do not light a match, start an engine or switch electrical equipment on or off.
- ◆ Immediately call the pipeline operator. If it is a Lone Star Pipeline Company line, call us collect at (214) 741-1671.
- ◆ If it is a Texas Utilities Fuel Company pipeline, call us collect at (214) 969-7221.
- ◆ Call 911 or the local fire and police departments.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER
Michael A. Guido
Metter, Georgia

A woman enjoyed sitting on the floor with children, coloring books and playing with them.

A boy was asked, "Do you enjoy your aunt's visits?" "Yes," he answered, "but it's not so much the coloring I like, it's the loving."

Every heart hungers for love. Nothing else satisfies. When you feel unloved always remember that God loves you. There isn't anyone He loves more than you, and He wants to love others through you.

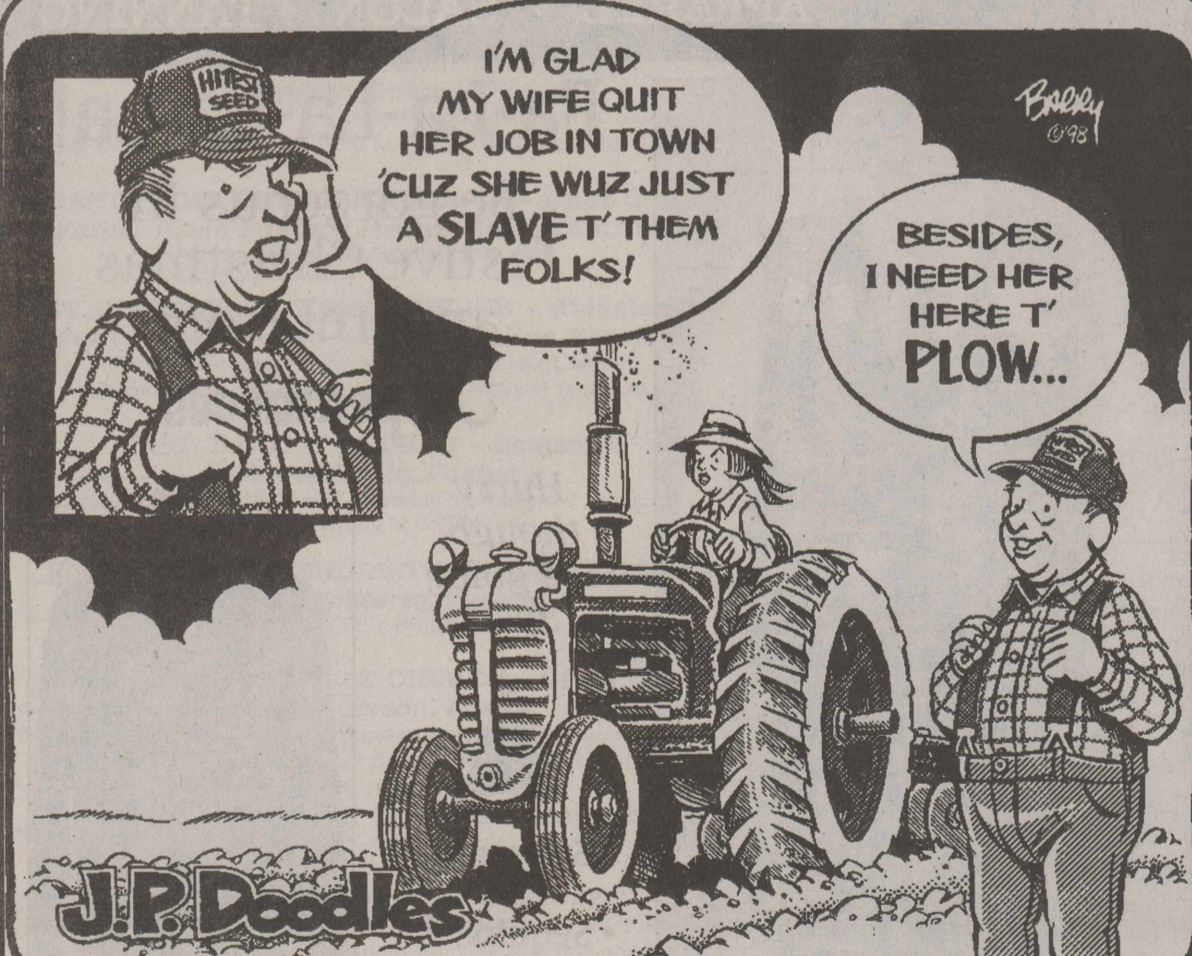

None of us can love perfectly, but He can and does. It's only as you let the God of love fill your heart that the love of God will flow from your life.

One day I noticed some trousers dancing in the breeze. Just above them was a sign that read, "Slightly soiled, greatly reduced in price." How like people.

Your mind becomes soiled by evil thoughts. Then your evil thoughts ripen into evil actions. And before you know it, you're greatly reduced in price.

Look at the word "evil." It's "live" spelled backwards. Evil is a life that's lived against God, gladness and all that's good. It not only soils, it's stupid.

Why continue with your stains and shame? Your case isn't hopeless. Come to Christ. He'll cleanse you and make life worth living.
