Boys Ranch meeting to be Monday at 7:00

A June 4, 2001, meeting at 7:00 p.m. at the W.R. Baker Auditorium is scheduled to assess the community's support for the location of an extension campus of Ben Richey's Boys Ranch of Abilene.

Ben Richey's is planning a new campus to be located in a rural Big Country community and Knox City is a potential location. School, community and county representatives as well as economic development specialists are in support of the expansion to Knox City. The community's support is a crucial element to Ben Richey's Boys Ranch.

Ben Richey's can bring a dynamic economic impact to the area. The school district, area businesses and service providers will see a significant boost from Ben Rickey's expansion. Citizens are asked to show their support by attending the June 4 meeting.

FBC planning annual VBS June 4 thru 8

The First Baptist Church of Knox City will hold its annual Vacation Bible School, June 4-8 from 6:00 to 8:30 p.m.

Build around an action adventure journey through the deserts of Egypt and the Middle East, the week will be filled with exciting Bible stories, a search for the Secret of the Stone Tablets, a kiosk of crafts, fun music in the Music Courtyard, and theme-related refreshments and recreation for all Truth Trackers.

The expedition is open to all three year olds through sixth grad-

A VBS parade, kickoff party and pre-registration will be Friday, June 1 at 6:00 p.m. All those interested in being a part of the parade should gather with their decorated bicycle, tricycle, scooter, wagon, etc, in front of City Hall at 6:00 p.m. on Friday evening, June 1.

The VBS'ers will parade downtown to the Family Life Center at FBC where they will have a hot dog supper, games and pre-registration for VBS.

For an awesome expedition to Track Down the Truth and find the Secret of the Stone Tablets, call the FBC at 658-3141 or Brandi Manning at 658-5397 for more information.

Letter to the editor

May 25, 2001

Dear Editor,

On May 25, 1996, we lost a dear friend Jake Propps. His friends did a memorial in Jake's memory for a baseball field in Benjamin because he had so much love for kids. There was a fund set up to go toward this field. After so long a time I am proud to let the people know there was $3,392.24 that we turned over to the Benjamin School. The school faculty took the bull by the horns last summer and this season we had kids playing baseball on the field. It is a wonderful sight to see. This is just the beginning, there is more plans to get done. I apologize to Jake's family and friends for being so long. I feel you needed to know how much and what happened to this money. After five years I was not going to let it go any longer. I know Jake is looking down and he is proud to see the kids having a good time.

It's official! VRJC is now Vernon College

The Vernon Regional Junior College Board of Trustees with a unanimous vote officially changed the college's name to Vernon College on May 23.

"The new name reflects what we do now," said Dr. Steve Thomas, college president. "It is a good move for where we want to go as a community college serving north central Texas."

When the college was founded in 1970, the major mission was to provide freshman and sophomore classes that would transfer to a university for a bachelor's degree.

"With the expansion of programs at the college into workforce training and continuing education, the college is really a comprehensive community college," Dr. Thomas said.

Many of the college's students move into their career fields with a certificate earned in one year, such as licensed vocational nursing, or a two-year degree, such as an associate degree in nursing.

Vernon College has a main campus at Vernon with three centers in Wichita Falls. The college's twelve-country service area, designated by the state, reaches from Hardeman, Cottle and King counties on the west to Clay County on the east, and Haskell and Throckmorton counties on the south. The college has 36 high schools in its service area and 29 towns.

Many of high schools in the college's service area are provided college classes through distance learning classrooms at their high schools. Over thirty online classes provide opportunites for education for students who prefer to stay at home.

"Two years ago, the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools accrediting agency recommended the name," Ed Garnett, the trustee who made the motion to change the name, said.

"Two-year schools provide a financial advantage to students as the tuition is half the coast of four-year state institutions," Dr. Thomas said.

"The name Vernon College is now being used, but the transition to change signage, sports uniforms, printed material, and other things will be phased in during the next year," the president said.

Obituaries

Mrs. E. Hob (Lois) Smith

Funeral services for Mrs. E. Hob (Lois) Smith of Knox City were held Friday, May 25, 2001, at First Baptist Church in Knox City. The Rev. Cyle Clayton and Jim McCurley officiated. Burial was in the Rochester Cemetery with Mansell-Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Smith, 96, died Wednesday, May 23, 2001, in the Knox County Hospital following a lengthy illness.

Veterans News Notes New VA facility dedicated

Texas Land Commissioner David Dewhurst today dedicated the Clyde W. Cosper Texas State Veterans Home in Bonham, in a ceremony featuring dramatic eyewitness accounts of the last heroic actions of the home's name-

"I can't think of a better day to dedicate a veterans home than Memorial Day," Dewhurst said. "Clyde Cosper sacrificed his life to save others, just like countless American soldiers, sailors, airmen and Marines, who must never be forgotten."

Dewhurst said 2nd Lt. Clyde W. Cosper, of Dodd City, nicknamed "Sparky," faced a difficult choice the morning of Nov. 13, 1943. The nine-man crew of his stricken B-17 bomber had just bailed out while Cosper struggled to fly the craft straight and level for them. The bomber, named Miriam after his mother, would impact the ground in seconds, but he still had time to save himself. Then Cosper saw the small English town of Princes Risborough, its population swollen by refugees, many of them children, from the Nazi bombing of London. He knew what would happen if his three ton bomb load and thousands of gallons of fuel struck the sleepy community. Disregarding his own safety, Cosper stayed put, barely avoiding the town as he crashed in an open field and died in the resulting blast. For his actions that day, he was honored with the Silver Star, the Distinguished Flying Cross, the Air Medal and the Purple Heart. "America has always been blessed with selfless heroes like Sparky Cosper," Dewhurst said. "He and his fellow veterans protected us from tyranny, often at the cost of their young lives. I can think of no words that do proper justice to their memory." Dewhurst welcomed a number of special guests to the Memorial Day ceremony, including Chuck Vondrachek, of Two Rivers, Wisconsin, the last living member of Cosper's crew. Vondrachek, who survived 25 bomber missions and was decobears a deep respect for Cosper.

"I'm sure he could have bailed out if he wanted to," Vondrachek said. "I think he was trying to clear the town. He wanted to save the townsfolk. He wanted to park that plane where it wouldn't take anyone's life. He was a hero; all of us thought that. No man could go through that without being a hero."

Maureen Knopp, an eyewitness to Cosper's heroics, traveled from England to attend today's event in Bonham. Knopp was 11 years old when she rushed outside and saw Miriam skimming just above the rooftops, and heard it explode moments later. That memory made such an impression that decades later, in 1991, she tracked down Cosper's identity and led a successful campaign to establish a memorial to him in Princes Risborough. "I always remembered this pilot; he was my pilot," Knopp said. "If he had jumped out with his crew, that plane could have landed on

Jimmie Lois Cosper, a childhood friend of Cosper and his sister-in-law, also attended the ceremony. She remembers Cosper as a handsome young man with dark brown eyes and auburn hair. "He was a good student who loved hunting and fishing, and played catcher on his high school baseball team," she said. "He was a very determined person, and just 21 years old when he died."

Dewhurst's father also was a highly decorated World War II bomber pilot. On one memorable mission in his B-26 Marauder, legendary journalist Edward R. Murrow hitched a ride. Dewhurst said American bomber pilots in World War II had a life expectancy of about 15 missions.

"Young men, like Sparky, always suffer disproportionately in war," Dewhurst said. "We must never forget the price they paid to preserve our freedom. That's why Memorial Day, and programs that help our veterans, like the new Texas State Veterans Home here in Bonham, are so important." Dewhurst said each of the Temple, Floresville, Big Spring and Bonham have 160 beds in large private and semi-private rooms. Dewhurst said each state veterans home offers a wide array of health care services, a comprehensive rehabilitation program, special diets, recreational activities, social services, a library, a gift shop and a secure 32-bed Alzheimer's wing.

"This home is a win-win for Texas veterans, Texas taxpayers and the people of Fannin County," Dewhurst said. "Veterans will receive affordable, skilled-nursing care in a home designed for their needs; taxpayers won't pay a dime for the home's operation; and the county and city will get an economic infusion."

Dewhurst, a U.S. Air Force veteran and Chairman of the Texas Veterans Land Board (VLB), said approximately 500,000 of Texas' 1.6 million veterans are 65 or older. "America owes so much to brave veterans like Sparky Cosper and Chuck Vondrachek," Dewhurst said. "They and their fellow veterans have given so much and asked for so little in return. We must always remember that the peace we enjoy today was made possible through their sacrifices."

Dewhurst was joined at the ceremony by Sen. David H. Cain, D-Dallas; Rep. Mark S. Homer, D Paris; Rep. Ron Clark, R-Sherman; and Texas Veterans Land Board Members Ladd Pattillo and Mike Ussery.

Boy Scout Troop 260 carried out the posting of the colors at the ceremony, and Clyde Cosper's great nephews, Caleb and Simon Cosper, led the audience in the pledge of allegiance.

Dewhurst said detailed information on Texas State Veterans Homes, as well as VLB home, land and home improvement loans for Texas veterans, can be obtained by calling (800) 252-VETS, or by accessing the Texas General Land Office Web site at www.glo.state.tx.us/vlb.

Benjamin news

By Gladene Green, Benjamin Correspondent

I start - once again - with an apology for no news last week. Was in Fort Worth to be with my sister who was and still is in the hospital and quite ill. And with circumstances like that, a lot of things that need doing - go undone. Maybe I can make it up with two weeks of 'goings on'.

Seems most of our ill are sort of holding their own. No real big problems at this time. Was sorry to learn that Pat Benson fell at home Friday night and broke her arm. She had just returned from Shamrock where she had attended her grandson, Aaron Kuehler's graduation. Got out of the car and fell and the result was the broken limb. We hope she mends quickly and will be feeling well again very soon. Pat had gone to Shamrock Thursday with Aaron's other grandmother, Dayle Kuehler of Munday, to attend Thursday night graduation of Aaron's brother, Seth into high school.

I did just learn however, that Bill Ryder is a patient in the Knox County Hospital. We hope his stay there is short and that he will soon be able to return to the Munday Nursing Center where he and Pearl now reside.

Sympathy to the family and friends of Ruth House Idol. Ruth passed away Thursday in the Munday Nursing Center having been there several months. She was a wonderful person and certainly an inspiration to all who knew her. Remained very active tho past 90 until she suffered a stroke a couple or so years ago.

Also my personal sympathy to the family of Charles Yost of Munday. Charles died last Monday after a short illness. He was a classmate and good friend. He will also be missed by many. His funeral was Wednesday in Munday.

Honored on birthday - Odessa Cox had a surprise on Sunday when all of her kids, grandkids and great-grands "landed" here to honor her on her 90th birthday. She has 5 children, 9 'grands' and 8 greatgrands and all were here except one grandson, Steve, whose wife is in residency training at the Conroe Hospital and was on weekend duty. Her kids are Harry Cox and wife Erlene of Prairie Hill, Reba Morrill and husband Charlie of Benjamin, Glenda Bearly and husband Larry of Erie, CO, Jim Cox and wife Nelda and Linda Cox of Cornith. And grandchildren and families, Richard Cox of Dallas, Sara and Emilie Cox of Garland, Dale and Jerenda Cox, Zachary and Kaitlyn of Forney. Kaitlyn shares her great-grandmother birthday. She was 6 Sunday. Barbara and John Paul Jones, Eric and Justin of Ammansville, Leslie Morrill and friend, Steve Bennett of Houston, Sherri and Kerri Cox of Eric, Colorado; and Chris and Tammy Cox, Brittney and Michael of Wellington, CO; and James Cox of Cornith. Mrs. Cox said this was the first birthday party she has ever had and she surely did enjoy it. Don Morrill of Benjamin also joined them for lunch and cake and lots of friends called to wish her well on her special day.

Bride-elect honored - A brunch honoring Amanda Terpening, bride-elect of Zeke Duke, was held last Saturday morning in the home of Debbie Clower.

The serving table was centered with a spring bouquet and was laden with various casseroles, fruit and breads. Coffee and punch completed the refreshment

Receiving guests with the bride-elect were the prospective bridegroom's mother, Pam Duke and his grandmother, Jessie Roberts.

Many useful gifts were received by the honoree. The young couple will be married June 2 in Artesia, NM.

Hostesses were Jonnie Williams, Susan Carver, Jimmie Kay Ryder, Carol Dickson, Belle Grill, Mary Jane Young, Susan Cartwright, Lori Bufkin, Judy Conner, Janice Tolson, Janet Reed, Charlotte Welch, Becky Moorhouse, Laura McCanlies, Gladene Green and Debbie

Graduation - Baccalaureate was last Sunday night at the Methodist Church. Program was processional, Debbie Clower; invocation, Jessica Shaw; introduction of speaker, Hunter Meinzer; address, Dennis Duke; benediction, Juli Larned; recessional, Debbie Clower. Ushers and programs, Elizabeth Moorhouse, Ashley Cartwright, Sandra Acevedo, Dwayne Reed and Clayton Conner.

Commencement was Friday night. Program was processional, Debbie Clower; invocation, Hunter Meinzer; salutatory, Christi Phillips; valedictory, Juli Larned; speaker, former resident and BHS grad Fred Louis Crenshaw; presentation of awards, Supt. Ben Grill; presentation of diplomas, Tracy Cartwright; graduation poem, Juli Larned; special music, Jessica Shaw; benediction, Christi Phillips; recessional, senior song. A slide presentation of the graduates preceded the graduation program.

Each grad received a copy of the Constitution of the U.S. and a certificate of congratulations from State Rep. David Counts. The valedictorian received the honor graduate scholarship and Hunter Meinzer received a $1000 scholarship from Citizens Bank. Graduates were Garrett Favor, Juli Larned, Hunter Meinzer, Christi Phillips and Jessica Receiving perfect attendance were 2nd grade, Robert Acevedo; 3rd grade, Raquel Acevedo, Dillon Benson: 5th grade, Judit Acevedo, Julio Acevedo, Joe Bufkin; 7th - Tomas Acevedo; 8th - Maria Acevedo, Jessica Moorhouse, Nancy Siemens; 9th - Enrique Acevedo, Ashley Bufkin, Tyler Collins, Anthony Lamb; 11th - Sandra Acevedo, Clayton Conner. Students receiving trophies for highest averages in high school and junior high were Ashley Cartwright in high school and Jessica Moorhouse in junior high. These girls had exact averages of 95.7142.

Special recognition was given Carol Dickson, who is retiring after 21 years in Benjamin ISD. She was also awarded a plaque from Supt. Grill.

On Thursday night, kindergarten and 8th grade commencement was held. Three little boys "graduated" into first grade. They were Jonathan Rainwater, Matthew Acree and Caleb Lowrey. Each said a little poem and led the crowd in the Pledge of Allegiance to the U.S. and Texas Flags. Their teacher, Carol Dickson, presented their diplomas. Eighth grade commencement followed. Program was as follows: Processional, Invocation - Matthew Cartwright, Class Will - Eighth grade, Class Prophecy - 7th grade, Salutatory -Chance Propps, Valedictory - Jessica Moorhouse, Introduction of Speaker -Nancy Siemens, Address - Monty Griffin, BHS coach, presentation of awards, valedictory and salutatory - Ben Grill, presentation of diplomas - Tracy Cartwright, Benediction - Kristen Kimbrell, recessional, Graduates were Maria Acevedo, Matthew Cartwright, Jerrott Ferguson, Kristen Kimbrell, Marlon Monge, Jessica Moorhouse, Chance Propps, Nancy Siemens. Stage attendants, programs and ushers were Christina Zavala, Zachary Shaw, Tomas Acevedo, Cheyenne Favor, Cassie Lyles, Indira Monge, Margaret Siemens and Donny Taylor.

Here 'N There - Visiting George and Connie Shaw and here for Jessica's graduation were Connie's mom, Dona Marsh of Cisco, Tom Inghram, Virgie Prickett and Kenneth and Jeri Boyd of Cisco, Douglas Shaw of Wichita Falls and Diane Elston and Elizabeth of Shallowater.

Jack and Mary Young and Billy Carl Benson and family were in Shamrock Friday night for the graduation of Aaron Kuehler. He is the son of Stephen and Sheila Kuehler.

Attending graduation Friday night for Garrett Favor were his dad and stepmother, Gary and Susan Favor of Lubbock his grandmother Nadena Williams and uncle Richard Fvor of Abilene, grandparents Fred and Beth Kilough of Potosi, Joe and Joy Riggins of Knox City, greatgrandmother Oleta McMinn of Abilene, aunts Dena Favor of Colorado, Georgie Shultz of Nevada, Kay Smith of Abilene, cousins Laura Johnson and Kimberly Williams of Cross Plains and Shea (I missed her last name!). She lives in Colorado. And Garrett's sister, Brandy Riggins, who is home from SPC in Levelland and is living and working in Knox City this summer. Also, his uncle, Fred Louis Crenshaw of Abilene, who gave the address. A party honoring Garrett was held in the home of his parents, Joe and Sharazan Riggins Friday afternoon, with all the above attending.

Dub and Jo Cartwright and Lorene Powers of Midland returned home Saturday from a two week trip to Branson, MO. Reported a wonderful time and saw lots of good shows. Four of the BHS graduating seniors left Saturday morning for Florida and of course, Disney World. Hunter, Juli, Christi and Jessica and sponosrs Carol and Dick Dickson were 'fired up' and ready for a few days of R&R. Bet they have lots to tell us when they return.

My daughter, Debbie Moorhouse, Jessica Moorhosue and I were in Childress Thursday for the graduation from Kindergarten into first grade of Ashlee Evans, my granddaughter and Dillon Hutson, my great-grandson. They had a real cute program - 80 kids received their diplo-

Lynn Moorhouse of Angelo State spent the weekend with her dad, Mike, and the rest of the family and attended Jessica's graduation into high school.

Here to attend graduation and see Hunter Meinzer get his diploma were his aunt, Paula Douglas of Midland and uncle and aunt, Rick and Patsy Meinzer of Munday. Also Selinda Seidenberger of

Attending Christi Philips graduation were grandmothers, Jo Ima Hill and LaCresha Phillips of Munday, an aunt Janie Hendrix of Waxahachie, her brother James Phillips of Bay City and cousins, Jay, Missy and Jaydon Fronterhouse of

And the Junior High grads had visitors too. Bobbie Moorhouse of Iowa Park, Burt and Kay Criswell of Guthrie, were here for the graduation of their granddaughter Jessica Moorhouse. Also an aunt Dee Ann Davis of Seymour and uncles and aunts, the Van Criswell families and the Rick Criswell families of Guthrie.

Keith, Pam and Casey Conner of Big Spring and Bob and Stephanie Brannan of Lubbock visited home folks during the weekend. They had come to Rule to attend the graduation of Pam's brother, Justin Coker on Friday night.

E.D. and Mary Welch of Gilliland and George and Linda Oustad of Munday were here for the graduation of Matthew Cartwright.

Tina Siemens and children spent the weekend with her brother and family in

Carmen Acevedo of Angelo State was here for a weekend visit with her parents, Pancho and Amelia and her brothers and Billy Bumpas of Arlington was here Saturday for the funeral of Ruth Idol.

JUNE 1, 2001 Thank you

for six great years in business!

As we begin our seventh year on June 1, we realize we could not have achieved success in our business without your patronage and support. We continue to strive to provide the best possible services, and nail tech Christi Adams of Munday will be joining us to offer her services on Monday, Wednesday, Friday and every other Saturday. Due to previous commitments, Christi will be here Wednesday, Thursday and Friday until noon. She will be on regular schedule beginning Monday, June 11.

Our longtime nail tech Judy Jackson, who started with Appearances the day we opened, is planning to be here Tuesday through Friday every other week. She will be here Thursday only this week. Barber Wilma Hogan is here Tuesday through Friday every week and works later when necessary. Former resident Leigh Lain Smith, hairstylist, is here one weekend each month. Massage therapist Stephanie Pepper is in our store Monday and Tuesday every week. We still offer three Wolff tanning beds and pride ourselves on great beds, great bulbs and

The latest fashions and sterling silver are always here to choose for yourself or as a gift. Come in today!
