HUNG JURY IS RESULT OF MURDER TRIAL OF SAM JAY

Alleged Murder to be Tried Again On October 8; Case Attracts Crowds

Deadlocked evenly, and stating that they were unable to reach a decision, the jury in whose hands the fate of Sam Jay, charged with the murder of Herschel Melton, O'Brien farmer, was discharged Saturday morning when court convened at 9 a. m., by Judge Clyde Grissom, after the defense had signified that such action should be done. According to the jurors they had stood 7 to 5 at one time for conviction and then switched to 6 to 6 Friday afternoon and remained that way until discharged.

The trial of Jay for the alleged murder of Melton attracted widespread attention, with the developments of the case played day by day in nearby daily newspapers and also drew crowds which taxed the seating capacity of the district court room.

The cases of Jay, Dick Skipworth and Clarence Absten, all charged with the alleged murder, were reset for October 8th.

States attorneys claimed that Melton had been slain after an all-day drinking party and his body placed in his home and the building set afire. The case proved mild until District Attorney H. F. Grindstaff and County Attorney B. C. Chapman placed Bill Davis, Rochester constable, on the stand during the closing moments of testimony. Davis testified that he saw blood in Jay's car and upon the running board. J. P. Cox of Sherman, and Tom and Foster Davis of Haskell, represented the defendant.

Populous Counties Still Inhabited By Many Wild Animals

SAN ANTONIO.—Predatory animals continue to infest many of the more populous counties of Texas and wolves, coyotes, bobcats and mountain lions are numerous in the ranching sections of South Texas, the monthly report of C. R. Landon, Federal-State trapping leader, shows. Nine red wolves were trapped in Bexar county during March by Federal-State workers, nine wolves in Palo Pinto county and two each in Parker, Eastland and Llano. Largest catch of the month was 343 coyotes, sixty-four bobcats and one mountain lion in Webb county.

Total catch in forty-three Texas counties during March was 974 coyotes, 175 bobcats, eighty-two red wolves and four mountain lions. Trappers also destroyed 355 unborn coyotes, seventy-three red wolves, thirty-nine bobcats and three mountain lions.

greater risk, especially at night. The automobile driver himself, intoxicated by the joy of effortlessly stepping up his machine to an excessive speed, and in hundreds of other ways violating the rules and the ethics of the road, makes of this magnificent invention the Frankenstein it has so sadly turned out to be.

It needs to be more emphasized upon the average brain than it is today, that all the healthful living in the world is of no avail when one either as a driver or as a pedestrian takes chances with the automobile and loses. Moreover, proper water and milk control, as well as the many other safeguards to health and life, mean absolutely nothing to a dead man killed by his or another's automobile.

NOTED BOY SCOUT AUTHORITY SPEAKS HERE SUNDAY EVE

William Tompkins, Former Trapper, Hunter, Cowboy On May 8 Program

Plans for the holding of a special Boy Scout program at the First Methodist church Sunday night, May 8, are now being made and efforts directed towards the securing of noted speakers for the occasion. William Tompkins, noted scout authority, will be the principal speaker of the evening and scout executive Ed Shumway will have charge.

Local scout officials and scouts are urging all members of the order and all persons interested in scout work to be present to hear Mr. Williams, who was born among the Sioux Indians in the Dakotas, and who worked as a trapper, hunter, cowboy and government scout.

Mr. Williams was sent to the World Jamboree in England, and taught 50,000 Boy Scouts while abroad. In America he has taught hundreds of thousands of boys and girls.

He has written a book on the Indian sign language and of this work the Smithsonian Institute has said that it is "easily the greatest work of a practical nature that has ever been written on the subject."

Tompkins' life among the aborigines taught him much of their spoken and silent ways of communication and his hobby for many years has been silent language and pictography, of which he is considered an authority.

As a result of his work among the Indian Lines, he was adopted by the Sioux tribes and given the name of Wambali Wi Yuta, which means "Sign Talking Eagle."

Cake Recipe 169 Years Old Runs Moderns a Merry Race

If the modern man thinks that grocery bills are high, and that they could be easily whittled down, let him compare the type of cake his wife bakes today and the one his great-grandmother may have baked—then figure how slim his pocketbook might become and how his stomach might behave.

Here is a recipe for a "pound" cake, which appeared in a cookbook published in the year 1765:

"You must take four pounds of the finest flour, three pounds of double refined sugar, beaten and sifted. Mix them together and dry them by the fire until you prepare your other material. Take four pounds of butter, beat it with your hand until it is soft like cream. Then beat 35 eggs; leave out 15 whites, strain off your eggs from the tread-

WOMAN SLIPS ON BATHROOM SOAP, FALLS 3 STORIES

GARY, Ind., May 1.—Mrs. Beulah Hopkins promised her husband today in the receiving ward of a local hospital that she would lock her window the next time she took a bath.

This precaution will be taken by Mrs. Hopkins after a most startling experience.

Mrs. Hopkins, her husband stated, went into the bathroom and turned the water on in the tub. She disrobed. Suddenly Hopkins heard her scream. He rushed into the bathroom and she was gone. She had skidded on a cake of soap and plunged headlong through the window.

Mrs. Hopkins fell three stories and landed in an upright posture in a big pile of sand.

Her only injuries were a wrenched back which will not prove serious.

MAY 15 NEW TIME LIMIT FOR FARMERS ON EMERGENCY LOAN

Applications Must Be Exercised In Order To Avoid Penalty, Maxwell Says

The period during which applications for emergency crop loans may be accepted has been extended through May 15, according to announcement today by Charles W. Sherrill, Regional Manager of the Southwestern Emergency Crop Loan Office of Dallas, serving the states of Texas, New Mexico, and Arizona. Emergency crop loans are available to farmers for crop production purposes who cannot obtain such a loan elsewhere. The maximum amount available to any one farmer is $250.00 and the minimum is $10.00, according to the regulations. Cooperation with the Agricultural Adjustment Administration and the Production Credit Associations is given by all borrowers receiving aid from the Emergency Crop Loan Office.

"The Dallas Regional Office has enabled thousands of borrowers without resources sufficient to obtain credit elsewhere to become bank customers. No loan is denied a worthy farmer who needs financial aid and cannot get it from any other source for lack of adequate security."

'RICE SPRINGS' IS NEW NAME FOR THE FAIR PARK GROUND

Plans Also Being Made For Holding of Summer Races Here During June

Heretofore the local fair park and race track has been known simply as the Fair Park. This week however the directors of the Fair Association more definitely named the park. Several names were discussed before the name of Rice Springs Park was adopted, it being thought particularly appropriate since the park lies just above the old historic Rice Springs, early halting place for the old trail drivers and the first settlers of Haskell, and the town of Haskell was once called Rice Springs. This name was also selected because plans for the park include beautification of the old springs as an integral part of the park and because this year's races and fair are to be held as the anniversary celebration of the fiftieth year of the organization of Haskell county.

Plans were also discussed for this year's event and a pre-season ticket sale decided upon to assist in the improvements necessary to conduct the fair and the races as befits their importance to Haskell. This method (Continued on Page Five)

APPROXIMATELY 75 FARMERS RECEIVE GOVERNMENT LOAN

Haskell Production Credit Association Begins To Function on Work

APPLICATIONS MOUNT

Association Has Received Applications Totalling Over $84,000 Here

Approximately seventy-five farmers in surrounding territory have received their first payment on loans with the Haskell Production Credit Association.

"We have had several complaints during the last month regarding the slowness which has been required to close these loans," states K. H. Thornton, secretary-treasurer of the Association, "but it is necessary that we have each applicant's credit rating before we can grant him a loan. By doing this we keep our Association on a safe basis as well as the individuals who have already received loans with our Association."

"Once an applicant has qualified as a member of our Association, he is established for future business, which is our reason for getting his credit rate to begin with and in the future when he needs money it will only be a matter of a short time before his loan is closed," further states Mr. Thornton.

To date, the Association has received applications amounting to $84,000, which is in accordance with all other Production Credit Associations in Texas, and the amount is expected to be much larger before this year's crop season is over.

"Production Credit offers several advantages which no other source of agricultural credit can offer, in that the interest rate is lower, interest is paid only for the time used, applicant can plan program in advance and have funds available when needed, no limit to size of loans above $50.00, same service to large and small loans, and our Association can refinance old loans held with other agencies," states Mr. Thornton, "and we want each farmer to know that he is a possible borrower and can come to our office at any time of the year and we will do our best to grant him a loan."

SPURIOUS TOBACCO STAMPS CONFISCATED

Two hundred and eighty-six cartons of cigarettes of various brands, all bearing imitations of the Texas 3-cent cigarette stamp, were confiscated here this week by Geo. Dussau and Hugh S. Veale, tax supervisors of the comptroller's department, who have been investigating reported evasions of the cigarette revenue act in this section recently. The cigarettes are being held by the sheriff's department, pending the outcome of the investigations. They were taken from the truck of a Wichita Falls tobacco salesman, who was released after questioning by the officers. Evasions of the State law, according to the officers, is depriving the state of a sizable sum each year. Supervisors Dussau and Veale pointing out that the merchandise confiscated there bore bogus stamps to the value of approximately $85.00.

Also, two 4-H club boys will be furnished seed for their five acre demonstrations. Altogether, there will be 55 acres of cotton planted under the supervision of the County Agent in Haskell county.

Parent-Teachers Over State Plan Summer Roundup

The largest roundup in the history of Texas will be started in May when every Parent-Teacher Association in the state will join hands in their annual campaign, known as the Summer Roundup of Children. This is a movement that has for its purpose to send to the entering grade of school children who are as free from mental defects as possible.

Each local Parent-Teacher group endeavors to have the parents who have children ready to enter school at their family physician and dentist for the purpose of having a complete examination made of the child and then encourage the corrections needed. It is teaching the parents the responsibility of having their children prepared physically for school life. At this time parents should have their children immunized against diphtheria and smallpox.

Children grow very rapidly during the first six years of life, and during this rapid growth, physical defects are apt to develop which may cause permanent damage if they are not corrected early. Poor posture in children is very often the result of faulty nutrition. Fatigue may also be a factor, and in some instances there may be actual disease if the bone.

Inability to see or hear well is a serious handicap for the child beginning school. He cannot progress rapidly as one who sees and hears normally. As a result, the child frequently held back, not because they are mentally slow but because of defects. The Texas State Department of Health lends their hearty cooperation to the Parent-Teacher Association in this effort as they have seen the value of it in the results obtained in past years.

CHURCHES

CHURCH OF CHRIST

The revival at the Church of Christ continues with large crowds and deepening interest. Additional several of them already additions at most every service. The song work, the song service, being directed by Otto Johnson, is indeed inspirational. The preaching is second to none. The messages are being brought in love, power, with no sign of compromise of truth, with no sign of sacrifice of the principle of God's word. The preacher is not trying to entertain, he is not trying to please men, but God Hear him. Come. Preaching hours 10 a. m. and 8 p. m.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH
The Men's Bible Class is one of the main attractions at the Baptist Church. There were forty-six men present last Sunday and a still larger number is expected on next Sunday morning. All men who are not enrolled in other Sunday Schools are urged to join this great class. It is a place where nothing is studied but the naked Bible.

At the morning preaching service the pastor will discuss the "Relation and Value of Faith and Baptism." This is a subject of great value and it will be discussed altogether in the light of the New Testament. "Human Life Viewed From Both Sides of the Sun" will be the topic for the evening service.

Special music will feature the evening service. Among the several numbers being planned will be the Baptist male quartette. A large crowd is expected, so come early in order to get a choice seat.

Young Men Class First Christian Church

2. "The Bargain Hunting Christian and the Sweat-Shop Laborer."
3. "Industrial Experimenting vs. Government Experimenting."
4. Sunday—"Can a Real Christian be Wealthy?"

If you are not attending any other young men's class we invite you to ours. The ages of this class are 20 to 30 inclusive.

Rice Springs—

It was decided upon to take the place of the guarantee fund method heretofore used in Haskell.

The fair association begins its year's activities with a race meet to be held at the Rice Springs Park track June 27th to June 30th inclusive. The "Fiftieth Anniversary Fair and Race Meet" to follow on October 15th to October 20th inclusive. Intensive efforts are being made to secure the best horses possible for the race and all indications point to a real program of races. Inquiries having already been received from points as far distant as Boon, Colorado.

Work will be started in a few days preparing the park for the races. In connection with this work it is planned to clean out Rice Springs and if the flow of water justifies it a dam will be built below the springs and a large lake created just west of the race track. This will be the center of a municipal park.

In keeping with the policy of this year every effort will be made to give honor to the old settlers of Haskell county whether they now reside here or not. The celebration will be held in their honor and all men or women in Haskell prior to 1900 are urged to register their names at Oates Drug Store, J. M. Martin will have charge of the registration. Those knowing the names of old settlers living in Haskell or elsewhere are also urged to register their names so that invitations may be mailed, to them to attend the Biggest Little Fair and Race Meet in Texas, as guests of the association.

The directors have also decided upon a policy of permanent activity. If the income of the association justified a stud barn will be erected on the fair grounds for the convenience of farmers and stockmen of the county. The association has already secured a jack and a stallion and has appropriated money to purchase a percheron stallion and a jersey bull. Mr. Arthur Merchant has been placed in charge of the animals.

The Rice Springs Park stables have been opened to horsemen for the training and conditioning of horses. Mr. Carl Bullard will have charge of this and will keep and train any horses left in his charge. To aid him a starting gate has been obtained and is now ready for use at the track.

The program set out for the association will require some money and every citizen of Haskell is urged to join in Haskell's Loyalty Drive. Some $1600 is needed to put on the Summer race program. To obtain this Loyalty Tickets to the summer race will be sold beginning this week. These tickets will be sold on a schedule of fifty cents to bleachers, seventy-five cents for the grandstand and one dollar for box seats with a special price of $20.00 for an entire box for the duration of the meeting.

Although the drive will be based upon a pre-season sale of tickets it is intended to be more than that. The Loyalty Drive is a drive to insure the continued success and progress of the Haskell Fair and Race Meet and every person is urged to buy tickets in such amount as he thinks himself able whether he personally can use all of them or not. Committees have been appointed to sell the tickets and they have also been placed on sale at Oates Drug

TOTAL 2100 FEET OF GARDEN TILE MADE IN COUNTY

Demonstration Made In 13 Communities By County Agents This Year

According to reports from club secretaries, 2100 feet of garden tile has been made and laid in communities working on the home demonstration program, and following instructions given out by the Texas Extension Service. Demonstrations on making tile were given in 13 communities by the home demonstration agent and laying tile was under the direction of the county agent. One part of cement to four parts of coarse sand made into a so-called dry mixture was used and tamped into forms made from pipe and lumber. These form blocks are one foot long and the water passes through the center where the pipe is pulled out. Communities in which a demonstration has been given and a garden irrigated by this method are: Roberts, Mrs. Jim Stanford; Cottonwood, Mrs. Jack Merchant; Josslet, Mrs. C. Norton; Erickdale, Fred Shaw and A. B. McLennan; Center Point, Dow Bland; Mitchell, Ben Lillard; Hutto, Lucy Day; Blue Bonnet, Jordan Abbott; O'Brien, J. P. West; Rose, Buck Kendrick; Midway, Paul Frieron; New Mid, A. A. Gaunt; New Cook, John Baugh.

Others have installed tile after seeing these demonstrations, whose names follow: Mesdames M. D. Mickler, Erickdale; T. N. Gillispie, Erickdale; C. A. Massie, Roberts; T. Mapes, Roberts; Carl Carver, Mitchell; M. Draper, Midway; E. E. Welsh, Midway; W. W. Johnson, Center Point, and B. Walters, Rule, has added 150 feet more.

Thursday night, April 26, members of the Senior Class were entertained by the members of the Junior class with a dinner at the Texas Cafe. Both classes met in the home of Sue Kinney about 8:15 and at 8:30 we went across the block to the Texas Cafe. When everyone was seated at their table the main dinner course was served and the fun began. Crockett English, our able Junior class president and toastmaster, kept us highly entertained with his jokes and "wisecracks". Music for the evening was furnished by Miss Edith DeWitt, Anna Bell Stanton and O. D. Cook. As we have a number of talented Juniors and Seniors, they were asked to entertain us for awhile; those graciously consenting to do so were Carl Maples (better known as

Store, the Texas Cafe, the Tonkawa Cafe and the "M" System Grocery Store. If unable to obtain tickets at any of these points please mail your check to Chairman, Committee on Races, Haskell, Texas. The tickets will be promptly sent you.

The drive will continue for approximately three weeks and the weekly progress recorded in the Free Press together with the names of those subscribing to Haskell's Loyalty Drive.

Sleepy); Crockett English, Leo Roberts, Cecil Reeves and Jack Bradley. Everyone joined together in singing several popular songs. The Junior class president made a short talk of our appreciation for the Senior class. Ralph Bernard, Senior class president, gave the response and read the Senior class will. Their after a few more minutes of merriment we adjourned.

We wish to thank the following Sophomore girls who served the dinner: Armita Bland, Juanita Jenkins, Helen Ballard and Geraldine Norris.

Those who participated in the dinner were:

A Short Story, But With A Long Tail!

Has become known as a Tornado period. At this season of the year the Twister's Terrifying Threat often becomes a reality laying waste thousands and thousands of dollars' worth of property and snuffing out many lives. Tornadoes are beyond the control of man, and the only defense is insurance to pay for the damage they cause. Almost every day the newspapers carry big headlines with reference to the latest disaster. No locality is exempt—yours may be next. Anywhere in this country—windstorms can and do destroy millions of dollars worth of property. Each year adds to the list of places which "could never have a destructive wind storm"—and did.

Windstorm insurance rates are so low that it is not worth the risk to be without it. Let us tell you how little it costs to protect yourself from loss through damage done by wind to home, business property or car. Wind destroys anywhere! Play safe and INSURE

WILL HISTORY REPEAT ITSELF?

The general opinion seems to be that business conditions in this country are really better and that the improvement is continuing and will likely continue for some time to come.

This opinion seems to be supported by definite figures as to production, percentage of employment and by other statistics. It looks as though things are really coming back. This may not mean that things are going to get into the shape they were in 1929, but it does mean that the movement is in the same direction as the movement prior to 1929. If then the maxim is true that "history tends to repeat itself" we shall face dangers similar to those that we faced in 1929. The question which naturally arises is then what shall we do to prevent another cataclysm similar to that of 1929.

That is just what President Roosevelt and his advisors are trying to do. They seek to place business and finance under control, at least to the extent of checking reckless gambling and making the promoters of gambling in business keep the cards on the table. This will unquestionably help matters to some extent, but it will not solve the whole problem. What is the solution of the problem?

The Christian Science Monitor says: "Better business must really rest on better values, on better thinking." That we must ask ourselves: "Where does the level of our business honesty stand? What are our exports of good will? How much constructive thinking are we doing?" which sounds like sage advice. If we are going to keep from building air castles that will fall down with a terrible crash, we must turn thumbs down on the alluring stories that tricky financiers try to make us believe.

Announcement that Postmaster General Farley has cancelled his order of March 2, by which payless furloughs were established and postal service curtailed, will be welcome news to postal employees and should please the public which has sympathized with them in what seemed to be an injustice.

While seeking to ameliorate the lot of almost all workers with the hope of increasing their purchasing power, the government compelled its own employees to suffer serious handicaps through pay cuts, payless furloughs, etc. In this many people felt that the government was not consistent.

We are glad to note that Mr. Farley says an increased volume of mail warrants the rescinding of the economy order, as volume of mail is a fairly good business barometer. When the postoffice system is busy it is fair to assume that it reflects general commercial activity. More purchasing power for the army of postal employees will in turn benefit business.

The postal workers can well rejoice and the public with them.

A NEW ANESTHETIC

Baltimore surgeons were delighted a few days ago with the results obtained through the use of a new anesthetic called evipan. It is administered by means of a hypodermic needle.

According to report, a patient about to undergo a serious operation was given an injection of evipan introduced into a vein in the bend of his elbow. He was entirely unconscious in 20 seconds. Six minutes after the operation was completed he regained consciousness and got off the operating table by himself. After drinking a glass of water he called for a "good big breakfast."

The new anesthetic seems highly desirable to use, because of its speedy effects and the fact that it does not cause nausea when the patient revives, as ether usually does.

Evipan is a German invention, and will be manufactured by a New York chemical company. Extensive tests will be made, however, before it is placed on the market. If it proves as efficacious as the Baltimore report indicates it will be, it will be a great boon to millions of sufferers.

One of the problems confronting Congress is to find new ways to raise taxes without raising the ire of the taxpayers at the same time.

The fellow who is always telling you how dead the town is generally is one who has done nothing to make it better.

If by perchance you look at this column, and can't find anything to read, don't blame us—blame the folks who won't tell us anything nor do anything that will cause us to write about them. We never look through keyholes—that is, not since a hairpin was deftly inserted into our one good eye, and Haskell is not blessed with tall buildings, which might enable us to scale one structure and observe the things which might be transpiring in another.

RANDOM THOUGHTS—We're just wondering if Judge Chas. M. Conner ever found out who broke the window in his office door? ... And probably Sam Roberts will never know the party who thought he might find a dime or two in this printing office and also broke the door window to get in. ... We appreciate the courtesy shown visiting newspaper men here by Judge Clyde Grissom during the late unpleasantness—Sam Jay trial. He's one man we sincerely admire and don't care who knows it. There's lots of others, but we're writing about the judge now. ... The little songbird in the HPCA office has been unable to indulge in duets and trios lately, as he did while in the county agent's office, on account of a cold. Too bad. ... Who said that people had rather talk than listen? Look at the people who attended the murder trial and didn't get to say a word! It was because we couldn't talk, that we didn't attend very much. ... If you really want to hear a few rich stories, stroll into the sheriff's office some night when the "force" is waiting for the jury to come in. ... If you're not a lady, ask Dan Kirkpatrick why he believes that he is only in the amateur class when it comes to "smelling". ... Frankly, my dear reader, Dr. Williams has a perfect excuse to act the way he has been doing for the past few days. A new son has arrived in his household, and, maybe, he'll help his dad build that hospital for Haskell. ... J. J. Tucker demonstrated that stylish "wind-blown" effect you read so much about while crossing the square to the bank when that east wind was blowing so strongly during the fore part of the week. In fact, that wind practically blew him across the square. ... Well, Mack Martin may have to stand a little joshing on account of that bet he placed, but we could stand a lot of that particular matter. ... Fats Wilson may operate the "Wimpy Hamburger Stand," but we'll be dogged if we're going to lend him $100,000. ... One young Haskell matron shocked her opponents in a bridge game the other day by bidding a grand slam and making it. We've bid slams, but the only thing we received was a dirty look from our partner when the other side took the tricks. ... "I'll take an olive and some kind of a liquid around it," remarked one young lady to the drug store soda sacker the other day. ... J. Elmore (Jelleigh) Smith, the pill-rolling embryo in Oates' drug store, wanted us to think he was busy Saturday, so he slammed coke glasses around in the water a few times before waiting upon us. We only wanted to borrow a match from him, anyway. ... Rice Springs, the new name of the Haskell park strikes a responsive chord in our soul for many reasons. One is that we think the name beautiful, and another is because our mind goes back to the time when we tried to cook some real rice. We put plenty of the rice in a pan, in order to have enough because we liked it, and not only did that rice spring, but we manufactured so much that we couldn't take care of it, so we carted a bucketful off and buried it, in order that an old-fashioned licking with a razor strap wouldn't contact with us. ... We've always wondered how executives worked, but no longer. We saw Kenneth Thornton take three letters, place them together and rip off the ends in order to save time. ... We also wonder if Olen Dotson collected his bet of a cigar and an ice cream cone off of another deputy sheriff? ... While said Olen Dotson isn't listening we want to state something we've thought for a long time—that Haskell county won't suffer if he should be elected sheriff. We know the other candidates are fine, too, but as we were saying, we're speaking of Olen at this moment. If we had committed a crime, we'd hate to have him after us, but innocent or guilty, we know he would treat us "white". ... Our cat comes into the bathroom and watches us shave. What does your car do? ... It has become a fact that to tell ice-cream jokes in this day and time is a cool subject. ... Some of these days we're going to pause long enough to look into that well on the courthouse ground. ... We know Gene Tomm was good at fixing automobiles, but we've now found out that he can also handle figures. In fact, he adds and adds and adds until we lose interest, so to speak. ... That was a dirty trick that was pulled on J. K. Griffin, the court reporter the other day when those jurors made him read his short-hand excerpts of the trial. He usually gets to wait until about six months elapses before he transcribes what he has written, and by that time everyone has forgotten whether he is writing it correctly or not. ... If we remember rightly, Henry Atkinson intimated at the start of the baseball season that he would not be "available" for the managing of the club, but he is again at the top of the local heap baseballly speaking. You just can't keep a good man down, which is a good thing for all of us others.

Newspapers are criticized ever so often because sensational news is played up, but if two freshly printed newspapers were placed before you with one detailing an account of an ice cream social, etc., etc., and the other boldly heralding a bank robbery, murder, etc., etc., which would you pick up to read? So would practically everyone else in the U. S. A. Even we look at the front page of the Dallas News before turning to the editorial page to read State Press.

IS THERE A RIVER STYX?

The ancients thought so. They believed that Charon, a boatman, operated his ferry boat, transporting the spirits of those whose interment was sufficiently munificent from one side of the River Styx to the other. Those not taken across were doomed to roam until the payment was made.

Beliefs and customs have changed much since then, but a fitting burial will always be a desired assurance. Our reputation for perfect service is your guarantee.

EYESIGHT IS PRICELESS

Guard It Carefully

Almost daily I am asked the following question by some patient: "Why do my eyes hurt, feel sore, itch, burn, and why do I have headaches and become nervous after doing close work for awhile? I can see as well as anyone."

The answer is: Why should the eyes not tire when overworked, the same as any other part of the body? They function under the same simple nerve and muscle action law of supply and demand. It is just as logical to wonder why you tire from any over-physical activity. All muscles need a certain amount of activity to keep healthy and to be comfortable must have complete co-ordination from their fellow muscles. This is why pain is associated, with rheumatism for example. Certain muscles have become cramped or jammed so to speak with some form of toxic poison and the proper co-ordination with their fellow muscles is lost.

Anatomically, there are no perfect eyes. There is no fixed relation between the anterior-posterior diameter of the eyes and the muscles that control them. It is not a mathematical problem. The eyes accepted as these are very rare. To illustrate, the camera is patterned in principle from the eye, the difference being adjustment of the eyes for different distances, while the eyes adjust themselves. This of the eyes has its limitations and varies greatly in individuals. Of two persons with the same eye depth, one may suffer eye discomfort, while the other does not. The first has insufficient muscle flexion, the second has ample.

There is another function of the eyes known as the convergence. It is what vertes the eyes inward as you accommodate for near observation. The accommodation focuses the eyes for clear vision and the convergence adjusts them for single vision.

And herein is the source of all physiological ocular discomfort regardless of how sharp visual acuity may be. If the accommodation and convergence are functioning harmoniously together at the same time, the other hand, the lack of such poised action is the cause of all the idiosyncrasies and kinds of discomfort haven't the proper co-ordination. Their work is a task and not a pleasure. No wonder they rebel at their studies. All of these children can be made to enjoy this work with properly fitted glasses.

Therefore, the first care of the refractonist is to prescribe lenses of such strength as will establish this harmonious co-ordination between the accommodation and convergence, even though in many cases clearing vision must be sacrificed for a time. And as a result, in breaking up these old eye habits and establishing new nerve force routes, it causes, often, some eye discomfort by wearing the new glasses the first few days. There will be a soreness around the eyes, nausea, etc.

In addition to the physiological eye discomforts, 95 per cent of all pathological eye troubles such as corneal ulcers, glaucoma, cataracts, styes, iritis, etc., are direct results of the above illustrated eye strain. P. S.—Recent discoveries in our research work shows that in many cases the permanent wearing of tinted lenses affects blood pressure. Some cases of apoplexy are being traced to neglected eyestrain. The first symptom is double vision.

Pittman Wins 1-0 Game For Braves

The game was a close one, with both teams playing hard. The Braves' pitcher, Pittman, was in excellent form, allowing only one run in the entire game. The game was a real contest, with both teams having their moments of glory. The Braves' defense was solid, and their offense was just what they needed to win the game. The game was a real treat for the fans, and it was a well-deserved victory for the Braves.
