Volunteers needed to help VFW ladies

Some may have noticed that the American flags were missing from veterans' graves this year in Citizens Cemetery. The VFW Ladies Auxiliary reluctantly made the decision to forego placing the flags since the number of volunteers was not adequate to distribute 500 flags.

In addition, the Auxiliary notes that recent rains have created wet, muddy conditions at the cemetery. The ladies regret having to take this action and are attempting to recruit helpers for the future.

If anybody would like to volunteer to place flags in the future, call 806-789-2014 and leave a message.

Shot clinic will be held here Monday

The Texas Department of State Health Services will hold an Immunization Clinic in Clarendon on June 6 at the Burton Memorial Library from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Immunizations are also available at the DSHS Pampa Clinic during regular business hours. The clinic will be closed on the last two business days of each month. For more information, call 806-665-1690.

Applicators training to be held in Canyon

The Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service office in Randall County will conduct a Texas Department of Agriculture Private Applicators License Training on June 15.

The training will be from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. at the Kuhlman Extension Center, 200 N. Brown Road in Canyon.

"This is not a CEU training, none will be available," said Dr. J. D. Ragland, AgriLife Extension agriculture and natural resources agent for Randall County. "This is for persons who do not have the required TDA license needed for the purchase and application of restricted use chemicals."

The cost will be $10 per participant payable at the door. An RSVP is required by 5 p.m. June 13 to the AgriLife Extension office in Randall County at 806-468-5543.

"If you are planning to attend, you must order and bring with you the required training handbook, Using Pesticides Private Applicators Manual," Ragland said. "This manual is needed and will be used as a reference for the training."

To order the manual, go to <http://agriflife.org/aes/>. The manual cost is $40 and is payable online by credit card.

For more information, contact Ragland at the AgriLife Extension office or j-ragland@tamu.edu.

Local grads receive $421k in scholarships

Donley County high school graduates for 2016 have received $421,350 to further their education, according to announcements made last week.

Clarendon High School seniors are eligible for or have received $379,650, and the total for Hedley seniors is $41,700.

Students from both Clarendon and Hedley are eligible for $500 from Clarendon College. The Bulldog Bucks Tuition Assistance Program will help to defray the cost of tuition, fees, books, and housing costs. Bulldog Bucks can be used to cover any unpaid balance up to $250 per semester. That represents a $14,000 commitment to the youth of Clarendon and a $5,500 commitment to Hedley seniors.

CC President Robert Riza has also instituted a tuition cap so that Clarendon and Hedley graduates will never have to pay for more than 12 credit hours per semester no matter how many hours they take.

Additionally, there is also been a $60,000 commitment by the Clarendon College Foundation to fund the PEAK scholarship for Clarendon High School dual credit students while still in high school.

Individual recognitions for Clarendon were as follows:

Cooper Bilbrey is anticipated to receive a TLIF UIL Scholarship for state participation for an unspecified amount.

Junior Cenicerros was awarded a PEAK Scholarship for $2000 or $1000 per semester to Clarendon College. This scholarship is awarded through a local foundation and agreement between Clarendon

Harrington gives $50k to Mulkey

The Mulkey Theatre project is the recipient of a $50,000 grant from the Don & Sybil Harrington Foundation, according to an announcement made at the fourth annual Mulkey Block Party last Saturday.

The grant is intended to help complete Phase 3B of the ongoing rehabilitation of the 1946 theatre, specifically the installation of heating and air-conditioning.

As a condition of the grant, the remainder of the funds to complete Phase 3B, approximately an additional $100,000, will have to be secured by the end of 2016.

The Block Party marked the completion of Phase 3A of the project, which included a new stage for live performances and construction of a new handicapped accessible seating area as well as restored house and cove lights in the auditorium.

A good crowd attended the block party, which had perfect weather. Rev. Black Flowers opened the musical entertainment, and Insufficient Funds was again the main performance. The car show received several entrants and was won by Johnny Floyd – motorcycle division, Cal Thomas – truck division, and Redell Johnston – car division.

Kids enjoyed a cake walk, a giant bounce house, and cartoons in the theatre while adults danced, listened to music, and enjoyed several food vendors.

To keep up with developments on the Mulkey, check out facebook.com/MulkeyTheatre, and to make a tax deductible donation to the project, send a check or money order to Clarendon Community Fund, PO Box 906, Clarendon, TX 79226.

Community Fund awards $1,000 grants to Hedley Lionesses, Sts. Roost Museum

Two local organizations were the recipients of grants from the Donley County Community Fund during the fourth annual Mulkey Block Party Saturday evening.

The Hedley Lioness Club and the Saints' Roost Museum received $1,000 each for projects those organizations are undertaking.

The Lionesses are replacing the floor in their aging building, which also houses the American Legion Post.

The Museum will be making needed repairs to the exterior of the 1887 Clarendon Depot.

The Donley County Community Fund is working to build an Endowed Legacy to benefit charitable organizations for the entire county to benefit of future generations.

An affiliate of the Amarillo Area Foundation, the Community Fund is overseen by a local Advisory Board, which includes Jim Shelton, Diane Skelton, Shauna Herbert, Chris Matthews, Jacob Fangman, and Roger Estlack.

The Amarillo Area Foundation is a community foundation that serves the top 26 counties of the Texas Panhandle. Founded in 1957, the Foundation provides grants and services to strengthen nonprofit organizations and the services they deliver.

To support the efforts of the Community Fund, tax-deductible donations may be made to Donley County Community Fund, PO Box 906, Clarendon, TX 79226.

Without virtue, freedom fails

By Charles C. Haynes, Inside the First Amendment

Civic virtue – or the loss of civic virtue – doesn't make the top ten list of issues pollsters ask voters to rank. But I suspect many, if not most, Americans are doing a fair amount of private handwringing these days about our collective descent into the proverbial mud.

In the brave new world of presidential politics, personal attacks, insults and ridicule are becoming the new normal. Protesters shout down candidates, partisans get into violent confrontations and users of social media create daily streams of vitriol and hate.

The easy answer, of course, is to blame Donald Trump. After all, Trump has broken every unspoken rule about how presidential candidates speak and behave (apparently a significant part of his appeal). Because Trump hurls insults, intimidates the media, mocks the disabled, the argument goes, the lid is off for the rest of us to do likewise.

But did Trump create the current climate – or did the current climate create Trump? Perhaps soul-searching about how we got to this unfortunate place should begin by asking the American people to take a good, hard look in the mirror.

After all, "we the people" give high ratings to angry radio talk show hosts, shock jocks, reality-show shouting matches and popular entertainment filled with images that demean and dehumanize others.

Of course, the loss of virtue – the inattention to character – in much of our culture is only one factor in the coarsening of our political arena. But it helps explain how an outrageous reality TV star can successfully transition to an outrageous presidential candidate aided and abetted by media outlets eager to cover demagoguery and bad behavior in pursuit of higher ratings.

If Americans continue to ignore or devalue core civic virtues such as commitment to civil discourse, respect for the rights of others, concern for the common good and compassion for those in need, our experiment in democratic freedom is doomed.

"Liberty can no more exist without virtue," warned John Adams, "than the body can live and move without a soul."

Absent civic virtue, ideological differences lead to censorship, as is the case on many college campuses today. Absent civic virtue, religious differences trigger anger and violence, inflicting harm on minority religious groups. Absent civic virtue, school board and city council hearings degenerate into shouting matches, tearing apart communities. In short, absent civic virtue, freedom is no longer free.

Reversing the decline in our collective commitment to civic virtue will not be easy – especially in the year of the anything-goes presidential campaign.

But if we take the long view, there is something we can do to prepare the next generation to do better: Make sure that every school teaches and models civic virtues and good character as a core part of its educational mission.

Earlier this month, while grownups were shouting past each other at the Democratic convention in Nevada, young people of strong civic character were being celebrated in Washington, DC.

At a press event on May 17, Character.org, a national organization that supports character development in schools, workplaces and communities, designated 68 schools and four districts from 15 states as National Schools and Districts of Character. (Full disclosure: I am a founding board member of Character.org.)

If you want to feel hopeful about the future of democratic freedom in America, visit a School of Character (the complete list of past and current honorees can be found at www.Character.org). From the moment you walk in the door, you can tell that this is a place where young people and adults care about one another.

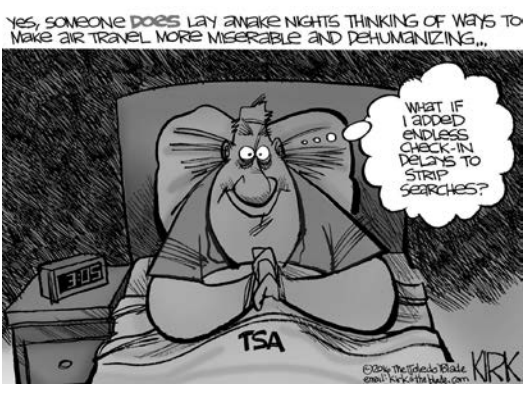

In Schools of Character, students, teachers, administrators, staff and parents collaborate to create a shared commitment to core ethical values that are taught and modeled throughout the school culture. Students participate in service-learning projects, develop the skills of civil dialogue, learn to address differences with understanding and respect, and in many other ways, prepare to be engaged, ethical citizens in a democracy.

Educating for civic virtue works: In Schools of Character, bullying is rare, cheating declines, test scores go up, drop out rates are low, attendance and graduation rates are high. Isn't that the learning environment we want for every student in every school?

Legislatures and courts alone cannot protect our fundamental freedoms, especially the freedoms protected by the First Amendment. Our freedom is ultimately sustained by the civic virtue of citizens.

"Human rights can only be assured among a virtuous people," wrote George Washington. "The general government can never be in danger of degenerating into a monarchy, an oligarchy, an aristocracy, or any despotic or oppressive form so long as there is any virtue in the body of the people."

Brotherly love continues to live on

It is a treasure these days to stumble, like blind hogs, upon "good news" – the kind that doesn't come close to banner headlines or the "breaking news" teases that introduce TV newscasts.

Had this one occurred in Philadelphia in other days, it may well have extended its claim to being the "city of brotherly love."

But in today's culture, this "news" is little more than a blip on the screen of life for more than ten million folks in the Metroplex. However, if it doesn't warm the cockles of your heart, you may have "unwarmable" cockles...

Players in this real life drama are members of the Sherrington family. Kevin, a veteran Dallas Morning News sportswriter, and Debbie, a residential Realtor, said "I do" 29 years ago. To this union have been added sons Jake, 25, and Ford, 18, and daughters Madeleine, 23, and Olivia, 17.

The children – all four – are the kind who'd make any parent proud. "Sherrington" is a magic name at Hillcrest High School, where each has earned National Honor Society recognition. All are active at Highland Park United Methodist Church, and so well-rounded are they that the mention of their names makes others smile.

Space limitation prevents giving all of them their due, so only Ford is highlighted here. He's the 2016 HHS graduate. Diagnosed in eighth grade with diabetes, he has overcome by any measure one would like to apply. He was an all-district baseball pitcher three years, cited this spring as the district MVP. He also sported a .521 batting average. At a school with 10% Anglo enrollment, he was both homecoming and prom king this year...

Enrolling at Hendrix College in Arkansas this fall, he'll arrive there in his most prized earthly possession – a 2006 Ford F-250 truck.

The vehicle of his dreams, it was pretty much idle on his Uncle John's place near Hondo in 2014 when replaced by a new vehicle. Ford was finishing his sophomore year, and that's when the Sherrington kids get vehicles.

Everyone knew how much Ford loved the truck, so Kevin called his big brother, inquiring if it might be for sale. John knew it would be his nephew's first vehicle. However, he didn't know how to price it, or "even the Kelley Blue Book value." Kevin was ready, stating it to be $18,000. "What'll you give?" the Houston engineer asked.

Kevin answered $10,000. He took it...

Ford has driven it proudly for some 26 months and change.

Then, in the fading days of this, his senior year, it was stolen from the school parking lot.

Lament coated the entire family. Sure, there was graduation joy, but the theft rained on this family's parade for a full 48 hours. Police offered little hope that the truck would ever be recovered...

Again, a big brother came to the rescue. Jake, a 2013 Millsaps College graduate and now a commercial Realtor, set out Friday afternoon – then again the idle american by don newbury on Sunday – to find his little brother's pick-up.

Good luck, thought Kevin, finding a vehicle in the big city that has no end. Probably it already was carved beyond recognition in a "chop shop," or on its way to Mexico.

Jake and girlfriend Emily Westbrook scoured parking lots hither and yon. While driving east on Singleton – near the Margaret Hunt Hill bridge – he spotted Ford's truck. It was parked behind a tobacco shop. Jake called his dad, and they waited to see whether the police or the robber appeared first....

It was the "good guys." They examined ownership papers, scanned the police report, and advised the Sherringtons to take the truck home.

"The family has six vehicles," Kevin beamed. "But we'd have chosen to give up the other five just to get the truck back."

This from a family whose last new vehicle was a 1995 Chevy Suburban Debbie drove for several years before surrendering it to Kevin. Nineteen years later and 342,000 miles on the odometer, the Suburban went to Dallas Can. Kevin wept, or might near so....

For Ford, these past few days have been times for thanksgiving.

Baccalaureate services had new meaning. His life is richer with a renewed awareness that he is both loved and admired.

And all the Sherringtons are rejoicing....

UPON HEARING BILL CLINTON MIGHT BE COMING BACK...

Little things really do mean a lot

By Tumbleweed Smith

When I walked up to the registration counter at the Holiday Inn Express near Hulen Mall in Fort Worth last Friday, there was a man checking in. The clerk looked and me and said, 'I'll be with you in a moment.' I told him not to hurry. When the man finished his check-in, I told the young man behind the counter that I had a reservation and gave him my name. He smiled, handed me a bag of goodies and said, 'You're our guest of the day.'

I asked him what that meant. 'It means you get a huge upgrade to our Jacuzzi suite,' he replied. 'The Jacuzzi is in the bedroom, not in the bathroom. And you get this bag of goodies, which contains a bottle of water, a bag of popcorn, some hard candy, a chocolate bar and a certificate for a free movie.'

Well, I was thrilled. I thanked him, took the bag out to my car, handed it to my wife Susan and said, 'I'm the guest of the day.' She was thrilled, too and considered herself mighty lucky to be traveling with such a person of prominence.

We put our luggage on a cart and walked through the front door. I saw something I had missed on my first entrance into the facility. A sign just to the side of the registration counter proclaimed my good fortune to be guest of the day. I knew it was going to be a special time. Susan took a picture of me standing by the sign with my name on it. I was smiling.

It's something I'm sure will go on my curriculum vitae and I will use it in my introduction when I make my next speech.

Possible no one has enjoyed being Guest of the Day more than I did. We went to a meeting that evening and I told several people about my sudden elevated status. Some of them laughed, others looked at me funny. All during the meeting, I kept thinking about getting back to our Jacuzzi suite and enjoying the popcorn and candy while watching a free movie. Once we decided which movie to watch, Susan put the bag of popcorn in the microwave and it popped to perfection. We drank the free bottle of water and ate the free chocolate. We drifted off to sleep thinking good thoughts.

The next morning when we checked out, I noticed the sign with my name on it was still up. Such a good feeling! I handed the girl behind the counter my free movie certificate and she asked me if I enjoyed being guest of the day. I told her it was a real highlight in my life.

I don't care if my name was chosen at random from the reservation list; it sure made me feel good. I still have some of the hard candy and occasionally I'll get a piece of it and relive my experience as guest of the day at the Holiday Inn Express.

Congratulations

USDA offers loans for underserved groups

COLLEGE STATION –USDA Texas Farm Service Agency (FSA) Executive Director, Judith A. Canales, reminds producers that FSA offers targeted farm ownership and farm operating loans to assist underserved applicants as well as beginning farmers and ranchers.

"Each year, a portion of FSA's loan funds are set aside to lend to targeted underserved and beginning farmers and ranchers," said Canales. "Farming and livestock production are capital intensive business ventures and FSA is committed to helping producers start, expand and maintain their agricultural operations."

USDA defines underserved applicants as a group whose members have been subjected to racial, ethnic, or gender prejudice because of their identity as members of the group without regard to their individual qualities. For farm loan program purposes, targeted underserved groups are women, African Americans, American Indians and Alaskan Natives, Hispanics, and Asians and Pacific Islanders.

Underserved or beginning farmers and ranchers who cannot obtain commercial credit from a bank can apply for either FSA direct loans or guaranteed loans. Direct loans are made to applicants by FSA. Guaranteed loans are made by lending institutions who arrange for FSA to guarantee the loan. FSA can guarantee up to 95 percent of the loss of principal and interest on a loan. The FSA guarantee allows lenders to make agricultural credit available to producers who do not meet the lender's normal underwriting criteria.

"During fiscal year 2015, Texas FSA obligated $157.6 million in loans and guarantees to assist 1,592 targeted underserved and beginning producers," said Canales.

The direct and guaranteed loan program provides for two types of loans: farm ownership loans and farm operating loans.

Farm ownership loan funds may be used to purchase or enlarge a farm or ranch, purchase easements or rights of way needed in the farm's operation, build or improve buildings such as a dwelling or barn, promote soil and water conservation and development and pay closing costs.

Farm operating loan funds may be used to purchase livestock, poultry, farm equipment, fertilizer, and other materials necessary to operate a successful farm. Operating loan funds can also be used for family living expenses, refinancing debts under certain conditions, paying salaries for hired farm laborers, installing or improving water systems for home, livestock, or irrigation use and other similar improvements.

In addition to customary farm operating and ownership loans, FSA now offers Microloans through the direct loan program. The focus of Microloans is on the financing needs of small, beginning farmer, niche and non-traditional farm operations, such as truck farms, farms participating in direct marketing and sales such as farmers' markets, CSA's (Community Supported Agriculture), restaurants and grocery stores, or those using hydroponic, aquaponic, organic and vertical growing methods. Microloans are available for both ownership and operating finance needs. To learn more about microloans, visit www.fsa.usda.gov/microloans.

For more information on FSA's farm loan programs and targeted beginning farmer guidelines, contact your local FSA Office.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular Tuesday noon meeting May 31, 2016, with Boss Lion Jacob Fangman in charge.

We had 12 members and five guests this week - Nathan and Daniel Estlack along with Brooke Smith, Cire Jauregui, and Hannah Howard.

Lion Ashlee Estlack reported on the college where Summer I classes start on June 6. Lion Landon Lambert reported on the county where all was quiet, and Lion Mike Norrell reported that the baseball team had wrapped up their season.

Our very accomplished Lions Sweetheart candidates introduced themselves. Brook, Cire, and Hannah all told us about their activities and interests and their reason for applying. We will announce the club's decision next week.

The club voted to continue doing bounce houses for the Saints' Roost Celebration on Saturday, July 2.

There being no further business, we were adjourned to spread Lionism and good cheer throughout our fair county.

playing movies for the citizens of Clarendon. It will be amazing if we can reopen it to watch movies every weekend.

The block party is a party that we have on the block the Mulkey is on. And we get to eat and dance and also have fun! My and my cousins' favorite part was the obstacle course where you jump through two sticks and around five bigger sticks standing up, and then you would climb a rope up a hill and then slide down. They also had movies and cartoons playing in the Mulkey.

Hedley names Student of the Month

Alissa Upton is the student of the month for May at Hedley School. She is the fourteen year old, eighth grade daughter of Lisa Booth and Casey Upton. Her siblings are Jordan, Kyler, Matiana, Keegan and Jaxsyn. Alissa enjoys listening to music, reading, writing, and singing in her spare time. Her future plans include studying music, possibly in Houston after she graduates from highschool. When asked who she most admires and why, Alissa responded, "I most admire Mr. Jennie Owens because she is the most amazing person I have ever met!" Her favorite quote that she tries to live by is "Everyone is beautiful just the way they are, and don't get into doing the same things bullies do; calling you bad names."

Alissa Upton was chosen as Hedley's Student of the Month.

Drugs in the News

Drug Approved for a Type of Psychosis

The first medication used to treat psychosis associated with Parkinson's disease was recently approved by the United States Food and Drug Administration. It is called Nuplazid (pimavanserin). Parkinson's disease is a condition of the nervous system that is characterized by tremors and shaking. It is reported that a psychosis can occur in as many as half of those who suffer from Parkinson's. Those affected have been reported to see images or hear voices that are not there, which is called a hallucination. They may also passionately believe in an idea that is not truly happening, which is called a delusion.

The safety and efficacy of Nuplazid was demonstrated in a sixteen week clinical trial with close to two hundred individuals. Compared to a sugar pill, Nuplazid reduced hallucinations and delusions and did not worsen symptoms such as tremors.

JACK HALL

Jack Hall spent three decades as a coach and teacher at Clarendon Public Schools before retiring and then becoming county judge in 1997.

Hall's influence and support was one of the principal factors in the successful restoration of the 1890 Donley County Courthouse; and after that project was completed 13 years ago, he carefully promoted and protected the landmark building. Hall gave countless tours of the Jewel of the Plains during his tenure as judge and always conducted himself as a gentleman in carrying out his duties and retired with honor at the end of his term in 2014.

The Whistle-Stop and the community salute former teacher, coach, and county judge Jack Hall for his love of Donley County and his role in preserving one of our most enduring local landmarks. Thank you, Jack!

Broncos' stellar season comes to an end

By Sandy Anderberg

The Clarendon Bronco baseball team defeated team after team this season but was cut short in the Regional Semi-Finals in Lubbock last weekend. The Broncos lost the first two games of the best-of-three series to the Stamford Bulldogs. The Broncos finished a commendable 26-8 for the year.

On Thursday, the Broncos fell 14-4 against a tough Bulldog team. For the first four innings, the Broncos were solid and the game could have gone either way. They led the game at that time at 4-3. But too many errors and walks at the plate allowed Stamford to get their bats going and they were able to put up 11 runs to take a commanding lead.

The Bronco pitchers struggled on the mound and the Bulldogs took the advantage to get the win. Kade Hunsaker opened the game as the Clarendon pitcher before Caleb Cobb came in to relieve him.

On Saturday, the Broncos were determined to even-up the series to force a third game. But a big scoring frenzy in the first inning for the Bulldogs set the tone for the remainder of the game, and the Broncos were defeated, 14-1.

Errors plagued the Broncos as they tried all they could to stop Stamford from crossing the plate. Chance Lockhart, who has been a standout for the Broncos all year, was on the mound first before being replaced by Clay Koetting who finished the game.

"(We) had two really bad innings in the entire playoffs, but at this level, you can't have any," coach Brad Elam said. "I was proud of the way Clay Koetting came in and pitched in game two. The boys had a great season and a lot to be proud of. They set many team and individual records. We were also well represented on the All-District awards."

Disappointment from the semi-final loss flooded the team, but the Broncos had a great season and they have much to be proud of. They will lose four seniors; Bryce Hatley, Caleb Cobb, Ray Jaramillo, and Cooper Bilbrey. The rest of the team will be back stronger than ever.

The Broncos meet on the mound during the Regional Semi-Final game last week in Lubbock against Stamford. The Broncos lost the first two games of the best-of-three series to the Bulldogs.

Two Broncos share District Co-MVPs

By Sandy Anderberg

Senior Caleb Cobb has been a workhorse for the Broncos during his high school career and he was rewarded for his play by the District coaches when he was selected as one of the MVPs for the 2016 season for the All-District Team.

Cobb shared that award with Kade Hunsaker, who has also been a great asset to the Bronco team. Chance Lockhart was awarded Pitcher of the Year for his work on the mound, and Preston Elam earned Newcomer of the Year.

Bryce Hatley was named to the All-District Team as catcher and Josh Cobb was selected for his short stop position. Clay Koetting won outfielder accolades, and Nick Shadle was selected to the team as a utility player.

Second basemen Andy Davis, and outfielder Ray Jaramillo were selected to the Second All-District Team.

Johnson

Charles Neal Johnson passed away May 28, 2016, in Vernon.

Charley was born October 26, 1928, at home in Hedley to Clifford Lawson Johnson and Willie Roberta Berry Johnson. He attended Hedley Schools from the first through the twelfth grades. He then attended Clarendon College on a basketball scholarship. In 1950, Charley entered Texas Tech College as a walk-on for the Tech football team. He never played in a Tech game due to a knee injury. He was a qualified boxer in Chicago, Ill as a Golden Glove Competitor. He was a member of the United States Army from October of 1950 until October of 1952. He serviced in Occupied Germany for 6 months as a Mechanical Engineer.

Charley met Opal Irene Lowe in September of 1953 at a new teacher's conference in Sunray where she was a beginning teacher and he was a coach. They were married on March 12, 1954, in Stratford, Texas. He said that he became a coach because he thought he would have been a better athlete if he had had a "really good coach", and that's what he wanted to be.

After being an assistant coach in Sunray, Charley moved to Matador in 1956. He served as head football coach, taking teams to Regional playoff games in 1960, 1962, and 1963. His team went to Bi District in 1961. Charley served the Matador/Motley County ISD as Head Coach, Principal, and Superintendent. He retired as Superintendent in 1986 after 30 years in Matador. Charley always believed that "life is not a 100 yard dash; it is a marathon".

Coach Johnson served his community as well as its school. He was the Lion's Club "Man of the Year" in 1968-69 and again in 1989-90. He was the Chamber of Commerce "Man of the Year" in 2002. He oversaw the building of a new school building twice, once due to the destruction of the 1984 tornado. He served on the boards of the First United Methodist Church, the Motley County Library, and the Motley County Hospital District.

Surviving loved ones include his wife Opal, Charlotte Lou Sweet (Roger), Grant Lowe Johnson, Cindy Lee Riggins (Mike), and grandchildren, Clay Robertson (Amy), Malinda Riggins, and Bobby Don Riggins. He is also survived by his nephew, Richard Johnson (Martha). He was preceded in death by his parents; his brother, Billy Clifford Johnson; his sister-in-law, Estelle Johnson; and his nephew Tony Johnson.

Charles N. Johnson passed away peacefully, knowing that "I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith." 2 Timothy 4:7
