Chamber plans two events this week

The Clarendon Chamber of Commerce is hosting two events this week, a Business After Hours on Thursday, November 8, and the annual membership meeting on Friday, November 9.

Thursday's Business After Hours will be held at Saye's / Flying 'A' Tack from 5:30 to 7:30 p.m. The come-and-go event will provide Chamber members and prospective members an opportunity to learn more about what's happening in the local business community. Refreshments will be served.

On Friday, Chamber members are invited to attend the annual membership meeting at the Clarendon Visitor Center at noon for the election of directors and an annual update on Chamber business. Lunch will be available.

Veterans' services to be held Monday

The Adamson-Lane American Legion Post 287 will be placing flags on all the veterans' graves at Rowe Cemetery near Hedley and at the Jericho Cemetery and the VFW Auxiliary placed flags on graves at Citizens Cemetery this week in preparation for Veterans Day.

The post's Veterans Day Program will be held Monday, November 12, at 10 a.m. at the Rowe Cemetery followed by a program at the Hedley school given by the students.

The Donley County Memorial Post of the VFW will hold its annual program at the Donley County War Memorial on the Courthouse lawn at 11 a.m. Monday. There will not be a lunch afterwards this year.

The annual Clarendon College Veterans Day Program will be Monday, November 12, at 7 p.m. at the Harned Sisters Fine Arts Center.

The public is invited to attend all of these events.

Angel applications are now available

Applications for the Community Angel Tree are now available at the Burton Memorial Library for children age 12 and under living in Donley County. Applications must be completed and returned by Friday, November 30. Donations in support of the Angel Tree Project can be made at Pilgrim Bank or mailed to PO Box 45. For more information, call the Library at 874-3685.

Grant applications are now available

The Donley County Community Fund is now accepting applications from qualified non-profit organizations for a $1,000 grant to be awarded this year.

All grant applicants must be from Donley County. Grant applications must be received by Friday, November 16, at 5 p.m..

To determine your organization's eligibility to apply, contact Jacob Fangman at 874-3556. Applications are available from Fangman at Herring Bank or at the Clarendon Visitor Center.

CEDC approves bids for final Mulkey work

The re-opening of the Mulkey Theatre is coming soon after the Clarendon Economic Development Corporation approved bids totaling about $325,000 Monday night to finish the project.

CEDC officials accepted bids on seating, projection and sound systems, stage lighting, and other work necessary to make the 1946 theatre fully functional again.

CEDC President Robert Riza said he is excited about completion of the Mulkey and also said he is honored to be part of the group that will see it finished.

"I think this will be an excellent draw to our downtown area and really be something the citizens of Clarendon and Donley County can be very proud of," Dr. Riza said.

The finished theatre will have a seating capacity of 240, including 36 recliner chairs in the balcony. In addition to cinematic productions, the Mulkey will be a multipurpose facility that is able to accommodate small live performances and plays, public meetings and conferences, catered dinners, and parties, other functions.

CEDC board member Terri Floyd was also excited about Monday's action.

"We've been working on this for a long time, and now we can see the light at the end of the tunnel," Floyd said. "This is going to be a huge benefit to our community for many years to come."

The "Bring Back the Mulkey" project began when the CEDC purchased the building in 2008. Work began that year with a new roof being put on the building and has continued in phases since that time.

An exact date for the re-opening has not been set at this time, pending scheduling among contractors. In the meantime, the CEDC is offering folks a chance to have their names permanently installed in the theatre by sponsoring auditorium seats. For $100 Mulkey supporters can have their name or the name of a friend or loved one affixed to a seat on the main floor of the theatre.

Chamber of Commerce Manager Bob Weiss has taken an active role in getting the Mulkey finished and shares the CEDC board's excitement to get the final work started.

"Hooray! We're going to be able to watch movies soon!" Weiss said. "It's so nice after working so long to see the project come to fruition. Everybody should come on down and buy a seat."

To sponsor a seat or seats, stop by the Clarendon Visitor Center at the Mulkey or send your check or money order to Clarendon Community Fund, PO Box 906, Clarendon, TX 79226, with "Mulkey Seats" in the memo.

Honoring veterans

Clarendon Cub Scout Kase Zongker places an American flag on the grave of his great grandfather, Emmett O. Simmons, who served in the US during World War II. Zongker was among dozens of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Clarendon College students who assisted the VFW Auxiliary in placing flags on graves at Citizens Cemetery Monday afternoon.

Clarendon Lions celebrate 96th anniversary

The Clarendon Lions Club held its 96th anniversary Charter Banquet last Tuesday night, October 30, and presented awards during the evening.

Boss Lion John Howard presented Lion Robert Riza with his past president's plaque and also presented Riza a silver Lions centennial pin for membership growth during the last year.

Lion Riza then presented Lion Howard with the Lion of the Year of award. Riza said the Lions' motto is "We Serve" and said no other Lion is a better example of that than Howard because of his service to the nation in the Navy and Marines and to the community as a doctor, judge, and volunteer.

Brandalyn Ellis, Jenci Hernandez, and Emily Johnson were formally crowned as the club's three Sweethearts for the current year.

In lieu of a speaker this year, the club played Bingo this year with Lions Howard and Riza and Gracie Ellis winning hand-painted fall decorations by Lion Ashlee and Ella Estlack.

Those attending this year's banquet were Boss Lion John Howard; Lion Robert and Cobette Riza; Lion Tex Buckhaults; Lion David and Diana Dockery; Guy, Robin, Brandalyn, Brenna, and Gracie Ellis; Cheryl and Emily Johnson; Lion Mike Norrell; Lion Jacob Fangman; Lion John Hellman; Lion Steve and

Local community fund can benefit from GivingTuesday

As part of a national day known as GivingTuesday, the local Donley County Community Fund (DCCF) is participating in The Panhandle Gives campaign.

For nine days from November 19 through November 27, all funds raised locally will be increased through a match from the Amarillo Area Foundation.

"Participating in this campaign is an opportunity for our local fund balance to grow," Jacob Fangman, local DCCF chair, said.

The DCCF is a local board whose purpose is to raise money for a perpetuating fund while contributing a portion of the funds to local groups.

Over the past two years, the DCCF has been able to give $1,000 to the Saints Roost Museum, $1,000 to the Hedley Lioness Club, $500.00 to the Bronco Band, and $500.00 to the Bread of Life Pantry while increasing its own fund balance, thanks to support from county-wide residents.

So that the local DCCF can benefit from the match, anyone wishing to participate will need to give their donation by Monday, November 26 so that the final deposit can be made on GivingTuesday.

GivingTuesday is an annual movement in all 50 states on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving to kick off the holiday giving season to demonstrate that every act of generosity counts towards giving back to local communities and the causes they support.

Contributions can be mailed to Donley County Community Fund, c/o Jacob Fangman, Box 906, Clarendon, TX 79226. Checks should be made out to The Panhandle Gives, with DonleyCCF written on the memo line.

Other board members are Shauna Herbert, Sherol Johnston, Diane Skelton, and Roger Estlack.

Civic Duty US Rep. Mac Thornberry and Sally Thornberry cast their ballots at the Donley County Courthouse for the 2018 General Election Tuesday afternoon. Local election results were posted Tuesday night on ClarendonLive.com and facebook.com/TheEnterprise and will be published in next week's

Three cases reach plea agreements

Three local cases were heard by the district court recently resulting in plea agreements.

In Childress on November 1, Levi Clayton Hazlewood pleaded guilty and was placed on deferred adjudication community supervision for five years for the state jail felony offense of unauthorized use of a motorized vehicle.

Hazlewood, 17 from Clarendon, was arrested in Donley County on October 8, 2018. Hazlewood pleaded to an information filed by the State on October 31, 2018.

Pursuant to the plea agreement, Hazlewood is required to pay a $500 fine, $458 in court costs, over $4,000 in restitution, and successfully complete 100 hours of community service. If Hazlewood violates probation, he could face up to two years in the State Jail Division of the TDCJ.

The previous Friday, October 26, in Panhandle, Laphonso Edward Beal pleaded guilty and was placed on deferred adjudication community supervision for ten years for the first degree felony offense of possession of a controlled substance in penalty group 2, tetrahydrocannabinol.

Beal, 22 from Mississippi, was arrested in Hall County on August 18, 2017, after a pursuit was initiated in Donley County by Donley County Deputy Ryan Hill. Beal was later indicted by the Donley County Grand Jury on June 26, 2018.

Many agencies assisted in the manhunt of Beal and two other suspects the night of August 17. Those agencies included the Hall County Sheriff's Office, Memphis Police Department, Texas Department of Public Safety Highway Patrol Division, Texas Parks and Wildlife, and Helicopter divisions, as well as guards and K-9 units from the Institutional Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice.

Pursuant to the plea agreement, Beal is required to pay a $10,000 fine, $458 in court costs, $180 in restitution and successfully complete 400 hours of community service. If Beal violates probation, he could face up to 99 years or life in the Institutional Division of the TDCJ.

Mariena Jaleene Morrow was convicted and sentenced to two days in the Donley County Jail for the offense of possession of marijuana, a class a misdemeanor offense.

Morrow, 24 from Claude, was arrested by DPS Trooper Kelly Hill on March 5, 2018. Morrow pleaded guilty to an information filed by the State on July 5, 2018.

Pursuant to the plea agreement, Morrow is also required to pay an upfront fine of $4,000, $458 in court costs and $180 in restitution.

District Attorney Luke Inman prosecuted the above cases, assisted by Harley Caudle and Scott Sherwood, with Judge Stuart Messer presiding.

Downtown attractions coming soon

Downtown Clarendon is on the verge of getting new life with one major project now on the horizon of being finished and another slated for completion in 2020.

The Mulkey Theatre, a landmark since its construction in 1946, has been closed for more than 30 years. But now, after a decade of work, it is just months away from being re-opened, more glorious and versatile than ever before.

The theatre has been a labor of love on the part of so many people. Its opening will bring new life to downtown and give Clarendon one more asset to set it apart from other small communities.

editor's commentary
by roger estlack

If you look back on photos from ten years ago, the Mulkey looks pretty sad. The work since that time has already made the theatre a star attraction for the community with glowing neon and dancing LED flood lights. It will be remarkable to see that new energy reflected on the inside as well.

Ideas are already starting to bubble up about things that could be held at the Mulkey... film festivals, special Christmas presentations, annual meetings, class parties and reunions, company events, and more. The future is bright for the Mulkey, and those guiding the project are trying to think of every possible way the theatre could be used. Even with the work that has been authorized this week, there are still a few more improvements that could be made in the future to expand the theatre's functionality.

When the Mulkey re-opens, it will be better than it ever was before and it will serve our community for generations to come.

At the other end of Kearney Street, city officials continue to edge closer to making the Water Recreation Facility a reality. While there was hope that it would also open in 2019, delays with a Texas Parks & Wildlife Department grant have pushed that opening to 2020. And that's fine... when someone is giving you half a million dollars for your project, it pays to have patience as you work through their processes. It also gives the city and its steering committee even more time to make sure the finished product is the absolute best it can be.

Imagine our downtown with two vibrant points of activity on each end of downtown. All we need is more businesses between the two points and that can and will happen with time and the proper incentives.

This is indeed an exciting time to be living in Clarendon. The future will keep looking bright if we will all continue to work together to make these and other dreams come true.

Meanwhile...

Speaking of the future, another group is working to provide benefits and assistance to non-profit groups in Donley County both now and for years to come, and this month you can really help make an impact for that goal.

The Donley County Community Fund is a local board, working through the Amarillo Area Foundation, the purpose of which is to raise an endowment to benefit our entire county.

How would an endowment fund benefit Donley County? In 1991, Charlie Bairfield left $156,503.03 in his estate to create a foundation bearing his name and his wife Thelma's name. Over the next quarter of a century, interest from that money helped fund a wide range of projects and organizations with grants ranging from a few hundred dollars to tens of thousands of dollars. When trustees closed out the foundation in late 2016, all its charitable gifts totaled $282,456.87. What an amazing legacy that Charlie and Thelma left to this community!

The DCCF could follow in the Bairfield Foundation's footsteps if it is supported. In the last two years, the DCCF has awarded grants totaling $3,000 to the Saints Roost Museum, the Hedley Lioness Club, the Bronco Band, and the Bread of Life Pantry while at the same time building an endowment of more than $17,000.

Now the Amarillo Area Foundation has announced it will match donations to the DCCF for nine days from November 19 through November 27 as part of the nationwide effort known as GivingTuesday. The movement is held annually in all 50 states on the Tuesday after Thanksgiving to kick off the holiday giving season.

You get what you give when you live in a community. The more you put into it, the more you will get out of it. The Donley County Community Fund allows everyone to put something towards the future of our county. Big contributions are welcome, but every $20 contribution counts also, and this month they can count even more thanks to the Amarillo Area Foundation's matching offer.

So that the local DCCF can benefit from the match, anyone wishing to participate will need to give their donation by Monday, November 26, so the final deposit can be made on GivingTuesday.

Contributions can be mailed to Donley County Community Fund, c/o Jacob Fangman, Box 906, Clarendon, TX 79226. Checks should be made out to The Panhandle Gives, with Donley CCF written on the memo line.

Other DCCF board members are Shauna Herbert, Sherol Johnston, Diane Skelton, and Roger Estlack.

A grown man and his faithful dog

This is NOT a story about a boy and his dog. Instead, it is a true account of Galveston icon Eddie Janek and his Rhodesian ridgeback, a canine companion nearly always nearby when his 91-year-old master is on the premises.

Without Brownie, Eddie would be "rattling around" in his self-designed Galveston Bay home which he and his beloved wife Doris enjoyed until she became ill a decade ago. She was in a coma for most of that time until her death in 2015.

Ever the optimist, he believes in angels, convinced they've always been present, perhaps handling details of Brownie's entry into his life....

Someone brought the puppy to Eddie's door. Emaciated and weighing just 11 pounds, he was at death's door. "To say he had been mistreated would be an understatement," Janek said.

Rared by a widow on a hardscrabble farm near West, TX, the diminutive Galveston leader has been on the short end of long odds many times. Standing just 5-1 and weighing 98 pounds, he "fudged" his way into the Navy for service in World War II, then "re-upped" during the Korean engagement. He'd never owned a toothbrush – or used a telephone or indoor plumbing – until joining the Navy.

As he comforted his pet at the veterinary clinic, perhaps he saw something of himself, silently vowing to help Brownie, as others had helped him....

Brownie has grown into a beautiful adult, ever loyal and ever alert. He's quick with deep-throated barks when visitors come.

"My companion is all about barking," Eddie laughs, "Brownie never bites, but he might well try to lick someone to death..."

Early on, Janek decided to engage a professional dog trainer. Someone spoke of Trelle Dandridge, a 30-something-year-old woman well-known for putting dogs through their paces.

He was shocked at first meeting to learn that she was blind, the result of a terrible automobile accident several years earlier.

Asking if anything could be done, the woman said she'd like to try stem cell therapy in China, but the cost was out of the question. The tab would be $40,000....

Eddie never blinked. He wrote a check for $5,000, then asked friends – including some "deep-pocketed Rotarians" – to join him. Three did, and dozens of others contributed lesser amounts. Within a few months, she was off to China.

It didn't work, so Janek continued raising funds to finance a similar trip to Taiwan. While not materially successful, the procedure allowed her to distinguish "light from dark, and to see shadows."

"Getting Brownie and the chance to help this wonderful lady are both 'angel

the idle american by don newbury

things,'" he believes. His current project is to raise funds for her to try a new procedure at Mayo Clinic....

Janek is as generous as any person I've ever known, and he's long been recognized for his generosity and involvement in all things good for Galveston.

Some call him "Mr. Baseball" for his long involvement as a coach and backer of youth baseball. Others say the former County Commissioner is "Mr. Galveston."

Everyone calls him "friend." He is revered for his dogged determination to "give back"....

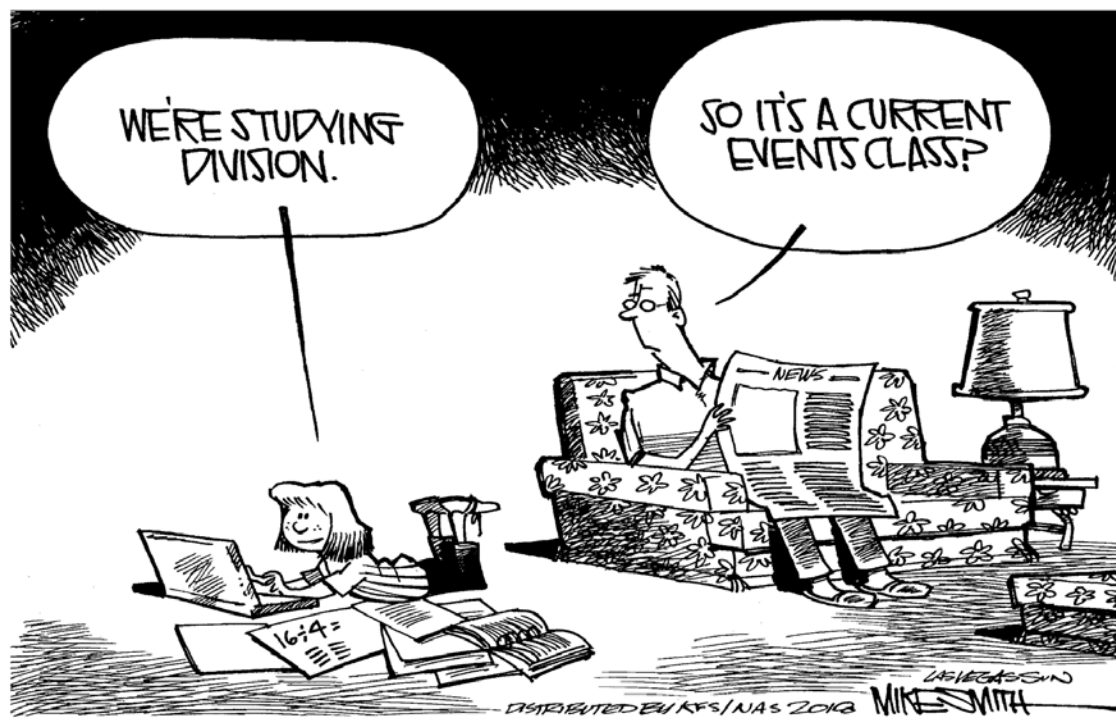

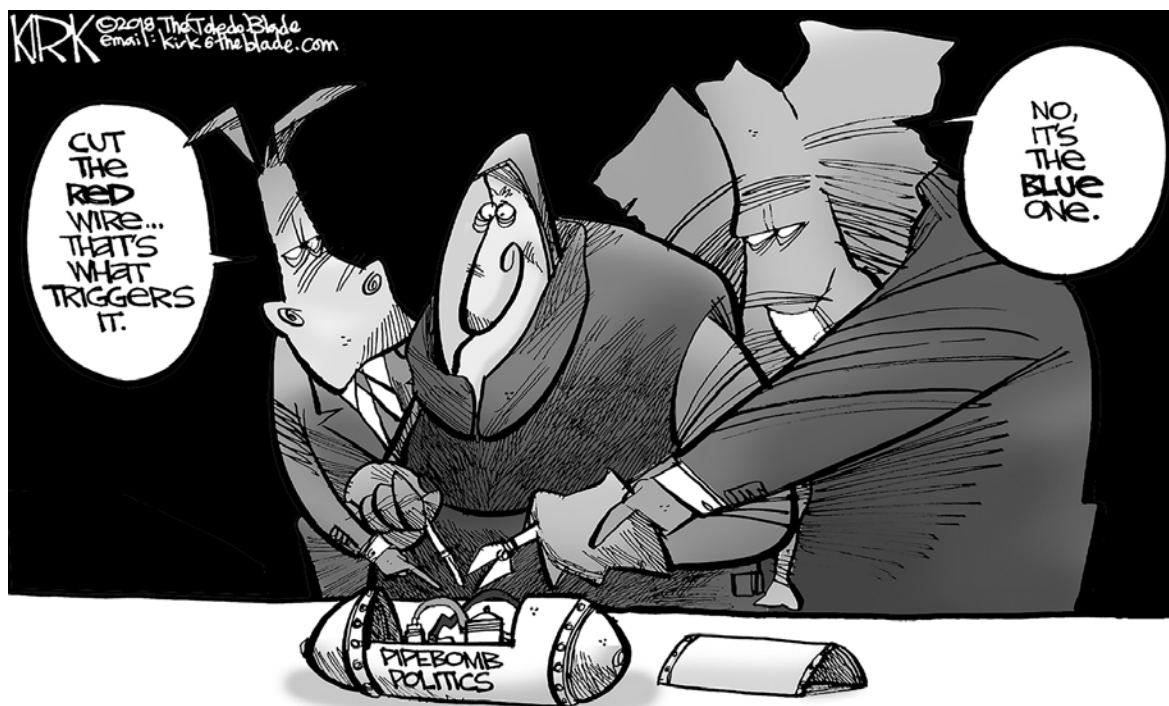

Still active in his telecommunications business, he's at work most days, but never on his birthday. It's a huge event.

At age 90, he parachuted from 12,000 feet, with several dozen friends on hand to witness the event. Last year, he jumped from the plane at 14,000 feet, and again, his friends cheered.

Come April 28 of 2019, he'll head to the airport once more, this time from 16,000 feet. Again a crowd will gather, and again he looks forward to the leap. "I'm hooked up to a veteran for these tandem jumps," he said. "He's made 8,000 jumps, so why wouldn't I be confident?"

I know only snippets of Eddie's life, but enough to fully agree that angels likely have fluttered around him for a long, long time....

Migrant caravan approaches US border

By Noab Elam

Over the past couple of weeks an immigrant caravan has embarked on a journey from Central America with a goal of entering the United States. Starting in San Pedro Sula, Honduras, on October 12, thousands of people have joined the caravan traveling north through Mexico to et to the US. With the caravan comes much controversy on the topic. Republicans look to stop the migrants at the border.

According to the United Nations refugee agency, the population of the group has, as of October 26th, reached 7,000 people with around 2,300 children. However, the Washington Examiner reports that the Mexican government as declared around 3,000 people have abandoned the caravan, citing around 4,000 migrants currently. Many of these people have applied for asylum. The Mexican Foreign and Interior Ministries proclaim that 2,007 people have made claims of asylum in the US. The New York Times states that most of these people are from Honduras escaping either dangerous situations or poverty.

In spite of that, reports from the Department of Homeland Security claim that "In fact, over 270 individuals along the caravan route have criminal histories. We also continue to see individuals from over 20 countries in this flow from countries such as Somalia, India, Haiti, Afghanistan, and Bangladesh." In a Fox News interview, a man from the caravan even admitted to attempted murder and wished for the US to discard those charges. Also, videos of the caravan throwing rocks at the Mexican border patrol have emerged, all of which contradict any argument of a "peaceful caravan only" narrative.

This creates a more difficult situation for the US government in dealing with the caravan. Most people would agree that criminals shouldn't be allowed into the country, but also don't want women and children to suffer because of that. In terms of immigration, party lines divide exactly on this type of situation.

Democrats have mostly stayed silent on this issue due to the criminality and forms of riot taking place within the caravan. However, Republicans have been extremely vocal, stating that the caravan should be stopped. President Trump has sent troops to the border aiming to block any attempts for the caravan to enter the country, which is appropriate. The safety of the American people should be top priority and allowing hundreds of criminals into the country is definitely not safe. The number of criminals, the violence associated with the group, and the economic toll make it impossible to allow the caravan into the US. Noab Elam is a senior at Clarendon High School.

Clarendon Cub Scouts receive several awards

Clarendon Cub Scout Pack 437 held its first awards pack meeting for 2018-2019 last Monday, October 29, at the First United Methodist Church Fellowship Hall.

First year Cub Scouts earning their Bobcat ranks were Wade Fowler, Kase Zongker, Jeremiah Shelley, Brayden Goodwin, Ella Estlack, Zoe Thompson, and Braelin Huchton.

Tiger Cubs Fowler, Zongker, and Shelley earned their Games Tiger Play and Tigers in the Wild belt loops. Bear Cubs Goodwin, Jaxon Robertson, Malachi Murphy, and Justus McAnear earned their Bear Claws belt loop and Whittlin' Chip badge. Webelos Estlack, Thompson, and Huchton earned their Art Explosion and Webelos Walk About pins, and Logan Mathis earned his Art Explosion pin. Webelos Kaendan Moffett and Haughton Bivens earned their Building a Better World pins.

Estlack, Zongker, Thompson, McAnear, Huchton, Robertson, and Fowler were recognized for attending Spook-o-ree day camp at Camp MK Brown on October 20. Bivens attended Spook-o-ree at Camp Don Harrington.

Ella Estlack was recognized as the top seller in the popcorn sale. Kase Zongker was second, Haughton Bivens was third, and Zoe Thompson was fourth. They each got to throw pies in the faces of Cubmaster Roger Estlack and Den Leader Ashlee Estlack.

All cubs who reached their goal for selling popcorn were entered in a drawing for a magic kit. Jaxon Robertson was the winner.

The Clarendon Lions Club held its regular Tuesday noon meeting with Boss Lion Pro Tem Scarlet Estlack in charge.

We had 16 members and Sweethearts Emily Johnson and Jenci Hernandez this week.

Lion Jacob Fangman reported everything is good with the city, and Lion Landon Lambert encouraged everyone to go vote. Lion Roger Estlack announced the economic development board had approved bids totaling about $325,000 to finish the Mulkey Theatre project. Sweetheart Johnson reported on upcoming basketball games.

The Boss Lion reported on putting flags on veterans' graves at the cemetery for the upcoming Veterans Day holiday with the VFW Auxiliary, Cub Scouts, and Boy Scouts being assisted by students from Clarendon College.

Lions Rit Christian and John Hellman were presented by the Boss Lion with their official Lions buttons as new members of the club.

There being no further business, we were dismissed to spread Lionism and good cheer throughout our fair county.

Don't buy fake health insurance

Hi, gang! From avoiding fake healthcare plans to buying a flood-damaged car to scams against older adults, those are the topics covered this week. Remember the closer we get to the holidays the more active the scammers become. Don't be a victim. Bob

"You can avoid fake healthcare plans" by Lisa Lake, FTC

If you're looking online for health insurance, there are lots of results that seem to offer good choices. But dishonest companies are literally banking on your being confused by all those choices. So, before you sign up and pay, take steps to know you're getting exactly what the plan advertised. Otherwise, your so-called "coverage" can leave you exposed to substandard benefits and costly payments.

The FTC says that's what happened to customers of Simple Health. The company allegedly tricked consumers into believing its plans offer comprehensive coverage and are compliant with Affordable Care Act (ACA) standards. The company allegedly lured people in through lead-generation sites, using logos of well-known health insurance providers to make itself look credible. Simple Health asked for personal information on the site, followed up with phone calls, and pitched what it said were affordable, comprehensive, ACA-qualified plans with low or no co-pays or deductibles. But once consumers signed up often at premiums as high as hundreds of dollars per month the FTC says they did not get anywhere near the full coverage Simple Health promised, and the benefits were not ACA-qualified.

Here's how to protect yourself against false healthcare plan promises: Research the plan to see if it really is insurance. Your state insurance commissioner's office can tell you if a plan is legitimate and if it's licensed at naic.org or consumeraction.gov. Also ask the company for the details, in writing, of what you're buying. If it can't give you the fine print, walk away. Be careful when giving out your personal information. A site might look legit, but some might be fronts for criminals waiting to steal your money and personal information. Consider what others are saying. Do an online search of the company name and the word "complaint." People's reviews should give you an idea of the company's reputation.

E d u - cate yourself. Learn the difference between health insurance and medical discount plans. And then file a report with the FTC if you know of a company posing as a health insurance provider.

"Don't get swamped buying a flood-damaged car" by Colleen Tressler, FTC

In the wake of the recent hurricanes, used car buyers should use caution: Storm-damaged vehicles are sometimes cleaned up and taken out of state for sale. You might not know a vehicle is damaged until you take a closer look or have a mechanic check it out. Here's what to do: Look for water stains, mildew, sand, or silt under the carpet, floor mats, and dashboard, and for fogging inside headlights and taillights. New carpet or upholstery in an older vehicle may be another red flag. Check for a heavy aroma of cleaners and disinfectants, which is a sign that someone's trying to mask a mold or odor problem. Get a vehicle history report. Before you buy any car, you always want to check the car's history. Start at vehiclehistory.gov, which is run by the National Motor Vehicle Title Information System. But to get flood damage information, go to the National Insurance Crime Bureau's free database, which lists flood damage and other information for cars that were insured. (If the car you're buying didn't have insurance, it won't be in that database.) Of course, there are other reports that have additional information, like accident and repair history, learn more at ftc.gov/usedcars.

Understand the difference between titles. A "salvage title" means the car was declared a total loss by an insurance company because of a serious accident or some other problems. A "flood title" means the car has damage from sitting in water deep enough to fill the engine compartment. The title status is part of a vehicle history report. Have your mechanic inspect the car for water contamination. Report fraud. If you suspect a dealer is knowingly selling a storm-damaged car or a salvaged vehicle as a good-condition used car, contact the NICB.

"Scams against older adults" by Lois Greisman, FTC

You might have read media stories about older people losing lots of money to scams. It does happen and FTC data show that when people over 80 report losing money, the amount they lose is a lot higher than the amount younger people lose. But that's not the whole story. In fact, FTC data also show that people 60 and older are great at reporting the fraud they see and can be great at avoiding it, too. Because, according to the FTC's 2017 data, people 60+ are much more likely to report fraud than people in their 20s - but far less likely to say they lost money.

That's an important part of a report the FTC just sent to Congress last week. The report, "Protecting Older Consumers 2017-2018: A Report of the Federal Trade Commission," also noted the top scams where older people are more likely than younger people to report losing money (tech support scams, business imposters, prizes/sweepstakes/lottery scams, romance scams, and family/friend imposter scams). The report talks about what the FTC is doing about fraud against older adults including some of our law enforcement: from a case challenging phony sweepstakes, to one challenging bogus tech support, to a case over alleged claims that a product could treat everything from arthritis to memory loss. And it covers our Pass it On campaign, which focuses on older adults and gives them the information they need to start a conversation about scams with family and friends.

The idea of Pass It On is central to the FTC's work on older adults: talk about scams. Tell someone, because you're less likely to fall for a scam that you've talked about. And then tell the FTC, because - in both cases - you might help someone else avoid that scam. And, like the cases mentioned above, we might be able to put a stop to it all together. So go to ftc.gov/complaint to tell your scam story.

Stay safe out there!

Scouts help honor veterans

M o n d a y afternoon I went to the cemetery with my Boy Scout troop to help set flags out for Veterans Day this weekend.

the cub reporter
by benjamin estlack

Normally, it's just scouts helping the VFW ladies. But this year, a bunch of college students came and we were able to get it done much faster. I think it was a nice thing they did to help us honor all those people who fought in the wars for our country. Also, I thought it was great that the next generation of scouts - the Cub Scouts - were there to help us also.

It really means a lot to me that people come and help us do this. I have family who served in the military. My great grandfathers - Bob Kidd and Bill Johnson - both served our country and are buried there, so that makes it special for me when we show our respect for them.

I hope that just as many people come out next year when we put flags out for Memorial Day.

Estlack Bantams brought home some big wins from the Canadian Valley Poultry Club's Mega Show in Norman, Okla., over the weekend.

Out of more than 1,000 entries in the junior show, Nathan and Daniel Estlack win Super Grand Champion Junior on a Belgian Bearded Blue Quail d'Anver Pullet.

Scarlet Estlack had Best of Breed and Reserve of Breed Quail d'Anvers.

The family won a travel show box, two rosette ribbons, a medalion, the grand champion trophy, and checks totaling $250.

The previous weekend the Estlacks exhibited birds in the Abilene

Poultry Association Show on October 27.

In the open show, Scarlet won Champion Rose Comb Clean Legged (RCCL) on a Belgian Bearded Quail d'Anver Hen.

In the junior show, Nate and Dan had Champion All Other Comb Clean Legged (AOCC) on a Wheaton Ko Shamo Hen, Champion RCCL on a Belgian Bearded Blue Quail d'Anver Pullet. Reserve Champion Bantam Duck on a Snowy Call Drake, Champion Bantam Duck on a Snowy Call Duck, Reserve Champion Waterfowl on the Snowy Call Drake, and Grand Champion Waterfowl on the Snowy Call Duck.

Local cowboys to compete in WRCA this week

Area cowboys will be competing in this week's Working Ranch Cowboys Association (WRCA) Rodeo at the Amarillo Civic Center on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday with performances starting at 7 p.m.

The Detwiler/Heck Team with members from Clarendon and Childress will be among the cowboys showcasing their skills in Amarillo.

Detwiler/Heck won the qualifying Coffeyville Interstate Fair Ranch Rodeo in Coffeyville, Kan., in October to secure their spot at the 23rd annual WRCA competition, winning

Cal Farley's to hold science and technology open house

BOYS RANCH - Thousands of youth, alumni and supporters across the United States know Cal Farley's Boys Ranch as a safe, healing place for children who need a helping hand or a second chance at life.

What some miss, however, is that Boys Ranch is a cutting-edge learning environment, too.

"We believe our students have the ability to do great things, they just need a chance to explore their interests and discover new talents. This is exactly what we do in our Experiential Learning Program," explained Keely Miller, the program's director.

Cal Farley's Experiential Learning Program exposes our youth to their choice of more than 20 vocational fields, including traditional trades like woodworking or horticulture as well as technological fields such as robotics and rocketry. Merging intentional classroom education with individualized learning, E.L.P. fosters a young person's innovation and raises awareness of the near-limitless number of career paths available to them.

"We provide our youth with opportunities for hands-on experiences in a variety of real-world learning environments," Miller said.

Cal Farley's Boys Ranch on Monday will share a glimpse of this exciting hands-on learning program with a science and technology open house at its technology learning labs from 4 to 5 p.m. Media are invited to meet the young people who participate in these programs, the mentors who inspire them to expand their own horizons through technology and view some of the projects Boys Ranch youth have designed and created.

Making the skills Boys Ranch

youth learn even more valuable, E.L.P. participants may receive certifications that reflect their achievements in their chosen areas of study. These industry certifications can make Boys Ranch youth more desirable to post-secondary educational programs and potential employers after they leave Cal Farley's Boys Ranch.

Like other Cal Farley's Boys Ranch programs, Cal Farley's seeks no state or federal funding for the technological training it provides youth in E.L.P. Generous donor support allows Cal Farley's to provide the best education and training available for our youth. Additionally, grants from Xcel Energy Foundation, The Dallas Foundation and Tess P. White Foundation make possible innovative Cal Farley's programs like E.L.P.

Broncos fall to Gruver

By Sandy Anderberg
Despite playing hard, the Bronco football team fell to Gruver at home last Friday night, 15-47. Even though the score did not reflect it, several players racked up good yardage in the game but could not convert touchdowns.

Defensively, the Broncos held the Greyhounds close in the first half but struggled to keep them out of the end zone later in the game. After battling back and forth in the first quarter, Gruver was able to find the end zone twice in the second quarter to go up by 12 points.

But the Broncos came roaring back when senior Preston Elam grabbed an interception and ran it back for a TD. Nate Lee was able to make good on the bonus, and the Broncos were on the board with seven. After several Greyhound penalties, the Broncos threatened again but were unable to punch it through. Gruver was able to score again before the break to go up 19-7. The Greyhounds turned up the heat in the second half posting four unanswered touchdowns.

Offensively, the Broncos did well and were able to move the ball. Noab Elam was seven of 23 passing for 175 yards and two touchdowns. P. Elam caught five passes for 156 yards and one TD. Jamal Butler added a touchdown for the Broncos and had one pass for 23 yards. On the ground, Ryan McCleskey had 15 carries for 55 yards, and P. Elam carried the ball six times for 33 yards. Collin Butler carried for 14 yards, N. Elam had four yards, and Dalton Benson posted seven yards rushing.

Defensively, Caton Grahn led the Broncos with 18 tackles, and Benson had 10. P. Elam grabbed eight tackles and one interception, while N. Elam had seven tackles. McCleskey had six tackles and two quarterback sacks, and Butler had five tackles and one fumble recovery.

The Broncos will play their last District game Friday, November 9, on the road against Vega beginning at 7:00 p.m.

Lady Broncos slam Perryton to open season

By Sandy Anderberg
Both Lady Broncos teams came home from Perryton with big wins to open their 18-19 basketball season. The varsity won 49-41, and the JV team earned a 48-36 win.

The Lady Bronco varsity was led by Sandra Smith and Mattee Johnson with 14 and 12 points respectively. Smith hit two three-pointers in the game and shot six out of 10 from the bonus line. Johnson hit three three-pointers and shot 75 percent from the free throw line. As a team, the ladies shot 59 percent from the bonus line.

The Lady Broncos trailed the Rangerettes by two after the first quarter of play, but regrouped to go up by eight points at the break. Defensively, the ladies played solid and Perryton struggled to get anything done. After the big push offensively in the second quarter, the Lady Broncos were able to keep control and get the win.

"We had a great first game after traveling two hours," head coach Corey Conkin said. "Our defense did amazing and we executed very well on offense. This team brings a lot of energy and drive. We are super excited to see what this season has in store for the Lady Broncos."

Following Smith and Johnson was Ashlyn Newsome with eight and Emily Johnson with seven. Jade Benson helped with six points, Kira Weatheron had two, and Makayla Brown put in one.

Also playing for the Lady Broncos are Brandalyn Ellis and Rayna Newsome. The ladies will travel to Claude on Saturday, November 10, and play at 10:00 a.m. They will play Tulia November 13 at home at 6:00 p.m.

According to Coach Kasey Bell, the ladies played extremely well for their first game.

"We did some things really well," she said. "The girls pressed Perryton and played aggressively. But we got into a little bit of foul trouble, which hurt us. Our opening quarter was really good, but we struggled offensively in the second. All in all, it was a good win for the ladies."

Kaylin Hicks led the ladies on the score board with 12 points and Kaitlyn Davis and Amnesty Oatman each helped with eight. Overall, the Lady Broncos shot just under 50 percent from the bonus line with Eboni Butler and Madi Smith going two for two and two for three, respectively. Holding a four-point lead at the break, the ladies turned it up after half time and increased their lead to 13, and Perryton struggled offensively against a good defense.

Also scoring in the win was Smith with six, Butler and Kaylee Bruce with four each, and Emeri Robinson, Graci Kidd, and Makayla Brown with two each. Aubrey Jaramillo, Braylee Shields, Kailee Osburn, Emmelise Warren, Shalyn Morrow, and Sophie Bilbrey.

The Lady Bronco JV will take on Hedley at home at 10:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 10.

The Bronco band preformed at the last home game of the season last Friday night.

Clarendon High School's Kenny Overstreet competed at the State Cross County Meet in Round Rock last Saturday.

Injury stifles Overstreet's run at state

By Sandy Anderberg
Making it to the State Cross-Country Meet for the second year in a row was big for Clarendon High School junior runner Kenny Overstreet. He has worked hard all season to accomplish his goal of making it back to State and it paid off.

However, an injury at the meet took Overstreet out of contention as he finished 140th with a time of 20:25.02.

Cross-country coach Kalen Grahn was more than pleased with Overstreet's season.

"Kenny is past the thrill of going to state, he expects to go and expects to place," Grahn said. "It was heartbreaking to watch him struggle through the pain and disappointment. His injury during the race ended his hope for a medal."

Despite the disappointment, the drive and determination to get back next year remains strong.

"This set back will only make him more determined," Grahn said. "I am very proud of Kenny for having the character and mental strength to push through and finish. I could not have been any prouder of him, than if he had won the state championship."

Overstreet's time in the first mile was 5:46. At the two-mile mark he was at 12:35, and he set a pace of 6:33/mile.

Colts beat Gruver

The Clarendon Colts are nearing the end of their season but have not let down as they recently blasted the Gruver Greyhounds at home 48-8.

"The kids played great," coach Clint Conkin said. "We had a lot of Colts making tackles."

Sylvester Ballard score three touchdowns for the Colts and added one two-point conversion. Josh Dunn had a solid night with two TDs, and Jatorian Franklin found the end zone once. Lyric Smith also scored for the Colts and had one two-point conversion. Easton Frausto scored a two-point conversion.

"All the boys contributed and played awesome," Conkin said. "They are 5-1 in overall and 3-0 in District."

The Colts will play their last game on the road to Vega on Thursday, November 8, beginning at 5:00 p.m.

Majors, McCain win Polar Bear Scramble

By Sandy Anderberg
The last golf tournament of the season was held November 3-4 at the Clarendon Country Club with 17 teams in attendance for the Two-Person Polar Bear.

The team of David Majors and Doug McCain turned in the lowest score to win the first flight with a total score of 133. Zane Majors and Jim Lampier finished second with a 134, and Michael McKinney and Kyle Randel shot a 135 for third.

Kyle and Kenna Hatch won the second flight with a two-day total of 139. The Michael Thompson team came in second with a 140, and P.J. and Jana Lemons finished third with a 141. Neil and Bobbie Conrad were the third flight winners with a 147. Redell and Sherol Johnston finished second at 152, and the team of Jesse Lincycomb and Deathrage came in third with a total score of 153.

America's First People!

Native Americans were the first people to live in North America. They are believed to be descendants of people from Asia who crossed into North America on a land bridge (the Bering Strait) that connected the two continents during the Ice Age, but is now gone.

The Native Americans settled into different regions and each tribe adapted to its own environment. Tribes formed larger groups, learned how to talk with one another, began hunting, farming and trading.

Then, about 500 years ago, European explorers arrived and began to form settlements. Many of the Native Americans got along with the newly arrived settlers and they lived in peace. But, there were also conflicts between some of the North American tribes and settlers (more so in areas of the U.S.). During the 1800s, many Native Americans were assigned to areas called reservations or reserves. Today, less than half of the Native American population still lives in these areas.

Read the clues to learn about some Native American history and to fill in the puzzle.

- made from deer hides and other animal skins
- made from animal skins; used in ceremonies, at wartime
- made with birch or other tree bark; used to travel long distances on water and when hunting
- sap of this tree was drained; hot rocks used to boil it down to a sugar
- soft leather and fur shoes, some with bead patterns; tribes had their own styles and designs
- leather, ceramic beads, feathers, tortoise shells and copper used for making this
- powerful leaders and healers wore these; more bird feathers added for great feats
