Little League Association Schedules Men's Softball Tournament Aug. 5-6

The Knox City-O'Brien-Benjamin Little League Association is sponsoring a men's softball tournament, to be held at Robins Field in Knox City on Friday, August 5 and Saturday, August 6.

The tournament will be for men's teams Class C and under, following ASA rules and using blue dot 12 inch softballs.

T-shirts will be awarded for teams winning first, second and third places in the tournament.

The Little League Association will run a concession stand for the tournament. Being careful not to interfere with the Watermelon Festival sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the Little League Association and Tournament Director Ricky Gonzales made sure to schedule the softball tournament for the weekend following the Watermelon Festival being held on Saturday, July 30.

Held as a fund-raiser for Little League, the tournament is sure to bring quite a crowd to Knox City. Depending on the number of teams entering, some local business owners could benefit by as many as several hundred visitors being in town for the weekend of the tournament.

Contact persons for the tournament are Ricky Gonzales at (817) 658-3030 (Leave message on answering machine) or Paul Stovall at (817) 658-5515. Both Ricky and Paul can supply information for teams wanting to enter.

Watermelon Festival Slated For July 30

Saturday, July 30, is rapidly approaching and Directors for the Knox City Chamber of Commerce are busy making the final preparations for their 6th Annual Watermelon Festival, scheduled for the last Saturday of July at the Knox City Park.

Promising to be another event that is sure to please all, the Watermelon Festival will feature a wide variety of game and food booths. Vendors and organizations from Knox City and out-of-town have already made reservations for booth space.

Games and events already scheduled for the event include the "Moon Walk", "Space Ball", a Train Ride, a coloring contest, a watermelon sculpting contest, a coloring contest, and lots of music.

Arts and crafts will be featured again during the day long event as vendors and private individuals have contacted the chamber office to reserve a space to display and sell their speciality items.

Along with the traditional free watermelon given away, food booths will sell a wide variety of delicious items, ranging from BBQ to homemade ice cream. Most organizations that participate in the Watermelon Festival will be selling the food and cold drinks as fund raising projects for their groups.

As always, the Knox City Swimming Pool will be open for free swimming on Saturday, July 30 only.

Penman Conoco To Give Away TV-VCR As Prize

Penman Conoco has come up with a very special prize to be given away during the festival. A TV-VCR donated by Penman Conoco will be the grand prize, joining a host of other door prizes to be given away throughout the day, including some cash prizes! You must be present to win.

Postal Service Offers Watermelon Cancellations

As a special feature of the event this year, the postal service will be set up in the park from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. to make available first class envelopes or postcards that feature a special cancellation stamp for the Watermelon Festival that was designed by Roger Rosencranz of Knox City. These will be souvenir items, so be sure to get yours!

T-Shirts Available Also

Another feature of the Watermelon will be the sale of special event T-Shirts that have the same design that appears on the post office cancellation stamps. The sale of these shirts will aid the Chamber of Commerce, so be sure to plan on getting yours before they are all sold out.

Sand Volleyball Offered

A sand volleyball tournament is being organized to take place during the festival. If you would like to enter a team, call Pierce Manning at (817) 658-3585 for details.

The chamber is working hard to make this event a big success for the community. A lot of work continues to go into the event to make it bigger and better every year. It won't work without you there, so please be sure to mark the date on your calendar and plan on being there for a day of fun!

First Baptist Church Celebrates 90th Anniversary This Weekend

Past and present members of the First Baptist Church of Knox City are gearing up for a weekend of celebration and services as the church marks its 90th Anniversary with a Homecoming Revival.

Bringing in past members, Music Directors, and Pastors. The church will have special homecoming services conducted by former members beginning on Friday night, July 15. Services are scheduled for Friday night at 7:00 p.m., Saturday night at 7:00 p.m., and Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m.

Services each day will be followed by food and fellowship in the church fellowship hall.

According to Pastor Bobby King, some of the homecoming services will feature past members who have gone on to become ordained and licensed ministers.

For those who live locally and will be unable to attend, each of the homecoming services will be televised on Channel 17, the First Baptist Church channel here in Knox City. The 11:00 a.m. Sunday morning service will be preceded by the regular adult men's Sunday school lesson. As part of the homecoming celebration, Don Fritsche will conduct the morning TV Sunday school class at 10:00 a.m.

Everyone in the community and the surrounding area is cordially invited to each of the services. It will be an excellent opportunity to worship together and see friends you haven't seen for years!

Anyone needing further information on the 90th Homecoming may contact the church office at (817) 658-3141.

Little League Girls All Star Team Ends District, Season

FINISHING DISTRICT PLAY, the Knox City All-Star Girls 11-12 Year Old Softball Team have also ended their season following one win and two losses in the district tournament that was held here in Knox City. The team beat Jacksboro 4-3, then lost to Iowa Park 25-15 and Munday 21-2. Iowa Park went on to win the tournament and earned the right to represent District 6 at the sectional tournament. The Knox City All-Stars are shown here. In the front row, left to right, are Serena Parker from the Strykers, Crystal Curd from the Ladybugs, Heather Stovall from the Ladybugs, Sara Rocha from the Ladybugs and Jessica Sliger from the Dragons. Shown on the back row are, left to right, A.J. Homstad from the Ladybugs, Tandy Roberts from the Strykers, Jennifer Vacek from the Strykers, Kayla Garcia from the Strykers, Mary Shahan from the Dragons, and Misty Hurt from the Dragons. Shown at the far rear are Assistant Coach Raymond Garcia, Manager Sharon Wainscott and Coach Tammy Gonzales, all from the Strykers. (NEWS Photo)

MRS. JON FLATT
... the former Dianne Rebecca Owens

Dianne Owens, Jon Flatt Wed June 18 In Louisiana

Dianne Rebecca Owens and Jon Flatt, both of North Hollywood, California, were married June 18 at two o'clock in the afternoon at the First Baptist Church in Youngsville, Louisiana.

The bride's brother-in-law, Rev. Barry Holzbach of Seabrook, Texas, officiated.

Former Knox City residents Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Owens of Bullard, Texas, are parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Flatt of Broussard, Louisiana, are parents of the prospective bridegroom.

Michelle Owens of Odessa, sister-in-law of the bride, was pianist and vocalist for the ceremony.

The church was decorated with bouquets of fresh mixed flowers on the piano and organ. Candelabra decorated the altar and white satin bows marked the pews and candelabra.

The bride wore a white ball gown wedding dress with a sweetheart neckline, short sleeves, a basque waistline, lace covered bodice and chapel length train. She wore a Juliet cap headpiece with blusher veil. Her bouquet was filled with fresh flowers of tulips, roses, freesias, alstroemerias, and Queen Anne's lace.

Debra Holzbach of Seabrook, Texas, and sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Holly Mlinek of Branden, Mississippi; Nicole Flatt of Lafayette, Louisiana, sister of the bridegroom; Edyie Crews of Irvine, California, and Jennifer Owens of Spring, Texas, niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

The matron of honor wore a mint green tea-length suit with short sleeves. The jacket had a peplum that dropped to a longer length in back. Each bridesmaid wore the same look suits, each in of Seabrook, nephew of the bride; Joel Tassin and Paul Schrader of North Hollywood, California; and David Savoy of Taluca Lake, California.

The groom and his attendants wore black tuxedos with rose boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore an ice blue suit and rose corsage. The mother of the bridegroom wore an aqua blue suit and a wristlet of roses.

A reception followed at LeTriumph Country Club. Guests were served a variety of meattrays, fruit trays and dip, spinach dip and a variety of crackers, a crab dip with puff pastry, chick strips and cajun dip from three tables. There was a special children's table with sandwiches, cookies and candies. Punch and coffee were served. The bride's table held a three tier cake with fresh flowers atop and around the cake. The bridegroom's cake was chocolate with a dolphin design on top. Guests were entertained by a deejay and danced to a variety of music.

The bridegroom's parents were hosts for a rehearsal dinner on Friday evening at Edie's Cafe in Lafayette, Louisiana. Guests enjoyed traditional cajun food.

The bride graduated from Acadiana High School of Lafayette and Hardin-Simmons University of Abilene. She is a claims representative for State Farm Insurance Company. The bridegroom attended Comeat High School in Lafayette and graduated from Musicians Institute in Hollywood, California. He is a musician.

Following a wedding trip to Maui, Hawaii, the couple will reside in North Hollywood, California.

Out of town guests were Billy Mitchell, Dianne's grandfather; and several of Jon's aunts and uncles, as well as friends from California.

Citizens Bank
announces
*Monthly
Community
Reinvestment Donation*

This month's recipient of the Citizens Bank Community Reinvestment Donation is the Knox City Girl Scouts. Sharon Cypert, Assistant Vice President, presented a check of $300.00 to Judy Perdue, Knox City Service Unit Director.

Girl Scouting is a program for girls of all ages in Knox City. Scouting offers many opportunities for young girls to learn, share and grow in today's world. Local scouts participate in many community activities and programs including the annual "Caring for Kids Campaign" at Christmas time, which provides toys for the less fortunate; an annual canned food drive for the Child Welfare Board; Brazos Valley Care Home activities and the annual "Scout Christmas Program" performed each year for the citizens of Knox City. In addition, scouting helps develop all areas of a young girl's life, with activities on personal well being, nutrition and behavior, current issues, the sciences, the environment and the arts. In Knox City, the girl comes first in Girl Scouting. Last year, the scouting program served over 50 girls in our community.

This donation will be used by the troops to assist underprivileged girls with dues and other expenses which will allow more girls to participate in Scouting.

CITIZENS BANK is very proud to add the Knox City Girl Scouts to our recently created "Community Reinvestment Program".

Waldrips Attend Boren Reunion In Tennessee

Tom and Greta Waldrip and children Byron and Anna Marie, travelled to Hendersonville, Tennessee, to attend the Boren family reunion hosted June 24-26 in the home of Greta's cousin, Mae Boren Axton.

Approximately 200 Boren relatives gathered at the Axton home for a time of visiting and to attend the Grand Ole Opry where Mae's son, Hoyt Axton, performed.

Family members arrived on Friday for registration. Saturday's activities began with a barbeque followed by an afternoon of entertainment by local Nashville performers. Tom and Anna Marie also enjoyed performing for the family, followed by a concert by Hoyt Axton. The Boren clan viewed a special video-taped message sent to the family from Oklahoma Senator David Boren, who was unable to attend due to business in Washington. Saturday night, family members attended Hoyt Axton's performances at the Grand Ole Opry and Ernest Tubbs Record Shop in Nashville. The reunion ended with special Sunday worship services at the Axton home.

Mae Boren Axton is the songwriter of "Heartbreak Hotel", the hit launched Elvis Presley's career. At the time, Mae was working in public relations, booking Elvis' performances. She has been honored on an international level for her contributions to the Country Music industry, and to the careers of many noted recording artists.

Hoyt Axton is a TV/movie personality as well as a singer/songwriter. He played the roles of the father in "The Black Stallion" and "The Gremlins". He has guest-starred on Bonanza, I Dream of Jeannie, WKRP-Cincinnati, and numerous other programs. One of his earliest songwriting hits was "Joy to the World", recorded by the group, "Three Dog Night". He has recorded 30 albums to date and performs regularly in the Nashville area and on tours.

The Waldrips presented Mae Boren Axton with a Texas flag that flew over the Texas Capitol July 4, 1993. The flag was sent to Mrs. Axton with a special Texas greeting from State Representative David Counts. Mae expressed her appreciation to Representative Counts. She is still proud of her Texas roots and family ties there.

Local Women Attend School In Levelland

Eileen Rolo and Faye Railsback of First United Methodist Church in Knoxville City attended the Mission Education Events of the Northwest Texas Conference United Methodist Women held July 8-10 at South Plains College in Levelland.

With the theme, "Toward Joyful Christian Discipleship", women and men who attended the school were involved in worship, singing, sharing, study, and fellowship.

Each member spent time in classes where studies for 1994-1995 were introduced. Study choices were "Families: From Scripture to Today," "Making the World Safe for Children," and "The African Churches Speak." Each topic for study is relevant to the problems and concerns facing Christians in the world today. Teaching the "Families" class were Jeanne Gramstorff and Marilyn Whaley Winters. The "Children" class was taught by the Rev. Steve Campbell, and Barbara Inhe and Dr. Ken McIntosh taught the study on "Africa."

Special classes for children were held at Christ United Methodist Church in Levelland. The children experienced stories, games, crafts, and foods from Africa, and were led by Madeline Boadle and Jacque Mauch.

Janie Sims served as dean of the school with Mildred Twilla as assistant dean.

KC Chamber Sponsoring Sale On Pansies

The Knoxville City Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring a "Paint the Town with Pansies" project, according to chamber secretary/manager Doris Crownover.

Knox City is among several towns in the area to sponsor this sale of pansies.

The many colors of pansies will brighten the business and residential areas with mixed, yellow with blotch, white with blotch, and purple with blotch.

Grown by Dillon Greenhouse, the pansies will be delivered in October and will bloom through April, so the entire town can be bright even through the drab winter months.

Orders must be in to the chamber office by July 15.

Mrs. Crownover is encouraging everyone to participate.

County 4-H'ers Do Well At District III Horse Show

June 17 and 18 found many District III 4-H members traveling to Vernon for the District 4-H Horse Show. Knox County was represented by nine 4-H'ers.

Some of the results include: Team Penning - Tom Lyles, Jacy Collins, Ryan Antille (King Co.) - Fifth Place; Tom Lyles, Jason Patterson, Clay Patterson - Sixth; Roni Morrow with Cassie and Hegan Lamb of Haskell Co. - Ninth; Team Roping: Tom Lyles and Jason Patterson - First; Reining: Roni Morrow - Sixth; Pole Bending - Roni Morrow - Seventh; Barrel Racing - Roni Morrow - Sixth. Registered Mare (five years old and over) - Lila Jo Rector - Seventh.

Other entries from Knox County were: Natalie Bloxham - Pole Bending, Barrel Racing; Nathan Bloxham - Pole Bending, Barrel Racing; Lila Jo Rector - Barrel Racing, Showmanship; Clay Patterson - Team Roping; Logan Morrow - Pole Bending, Barrel Racing; Roni Morrow - Team Roping, Breakaway Roping; Jacy Collins - Team Roping.

There were 222 total participants. These contestants made a total of 751 entries. The competition was very tough in some classes. Showmanship - 53 entries, Pole Bending - 86 entries; Barrel Racing - 90; Team Roping - 45; Team Penning - 65 and Breakaway Roping - 53.

Next up for these 4-H members will be the State 4-H Horse Show, July 24-31 in Abilene. Attending from Knox County will be Jacy Collins, Tom Lyles, Roni and Logan Morrow and Jason Patterson.

Logan Morrow will be in the Team Penning contest (July 26); Jacy, Tom and Jason will participate in the Team Roping and Team Penning (July 25 and 26) while Roni has qualified for Barrel Racing and Pole Bending (July 28-30).

For more information on the 4-H Horse Project, or if a State 4-H Horse Show schedule is needed, please contact the Knox county Extension office in Benjamin.

Robinson's Tech Baseball Cover 'Best In Nation'

LUBBOCK - Texas Tech Assistant Sports Information Director Kelly Robinson's 1994 baseball media guide cover, "Thunder in the Southwest", was judged Best in the Nation at the 41st Annual College Sports Information Directors Association Convention last week in Chicago.

Also honored at the convention was Tech Assistant Sports Information Director Walt McAlexander, whose 1993-94 women's basketball media guide, "A Class Act", was judged sixth-best in the nation.

Tech director of marketing Jennifer Ortega was also cited for her work on the baseball poster, carrying the "Thunder in the Southwest" theme, which placed second in District 6.

A Knox City High School graduate, Kelly is the grandson of Ruby Robinson of Knox City.

Tiffany Wilde Competes At State Pageant

Tiffany Wilde, daughter of Debbie and Craig Wilde, was in Denton June 22 through 26 for the State Finals competition in the Cinderella Scholarship Pageant.

Tiffany, now five years old, received a Special Award for Best Spirit of Cinderella in the Tot age division.

The Cinderella Scholarship Pageant is the world's largest and most prestigious youth development scholarship program of its kind.

The 1993 reigning Cinderella Teen went on to compete for the Miss Texas title which was held in Fort Worth this past weekend.

Benjamin News

By Gladene Green

With a light, gentle shower falling today (Saturday) we have much cooler temps for which we are most grateful. The rain has "livened" things up immensely and makes the whole world look new around us.

Our sick friends are improving. Bud Conner went back to work Monday after being off a week from a rattlesnake bite. Still experiencing some pain but much, much better.

Myrtle Jones was taken back to the Brazos Valley Care Home Friday after several days stay in the hospital. Tho not much change in her condition, she doesn't seem to be in any pain. Jack Waldron is having some back problems. Is having to take a few weeks off from his job as city manager to try to get back in shape. We wish Jack a speedy recovery.

Please remember all who are less fortunate than us, in your prayers.

BALL NEWS

Our little 9 and 10 year olds are off to Wichita Falls today (Monday) to start their next round of Little League ball competition. The All-Stars won their area title and we all wish them well. Our Benjamin boys on the 9 and 10 year old team are Casey and Clayton Conner, sons of the Keith Conners and the Steve Conners; and Trey Propps, son of the Jake Propps. Jake is helping coach the 9 and 10 year olds and is good at it!! Those from Benjamin on the 11 and 12 year old team were Cory Kimmel, son of the Randal Kimmels; Eriac Corley, son of the Johnny Corleys; Hunter Meinzer, son of the Wyman Meinzers; and Aaron Kuehler, son of the Stephen Kuehlers. Stephen helped coach the 11 and 12 year olds and he, too, is good at it!! The 11 and 12 year old teams were defeated in the area tournament in Seymour last week.

Recent guests of Hazel Stockton were her niece and her husband, Don and Charlotte Rierson of Ocala, Florida; and Steve Conner of Lubbock. Steve also visited other relatives and friends.

Zula Conner and Jason Redwine spent the Fourth of July weekend in Lubbock.

Bud Conner and I spent Saturday with my kids in Childress. Enjoyed a backyard cookout at Debbie's home and got in lots of visiting.

Shari Brown is attending a special friends camp at Pan Fork Camp near Wellington this week. Bet she will have lots to report when she gets home.

Recent guests of Ruth Ressel and Jo and Dub Cartwright were Jack, Katy and Katelyn New of Leander.

Mr. and Mrs. David Ervin and family of Azle were weekend guests of Gary and JoAnn Hamilton. David reported that his father, Don, who has been hospitalized at Harris in Fort Worth and has been released and is doing quite well, which is good news.

The Jackson family had their annual reunion this past weekend. Tho few in number, they all reported such a good time. Attending were Sammy, Kathy, Samantha and Kimmi Bohannon and Lonnie Bohannon, all of Amarillo; Floyd and Mary Bell Ratliff of Llano, Jack "Corky" Barker of St. Louis, Missouri; Brandi, Cliff and Kayla Hacker and Sherry and Clifford Hacker of Knox City and Johnnie Williams, Mary Bohannon, Roger, Betty, Bonnie and Jamie Bohannon and Clodell Duke, all of Benjamin.

Recent guests of Kenneth and Jessie Roberts were Laujuana Worstall of Zanesville, Ohio; Jessie Wayne Roberts of Hammond, Louisiana; and Jessie Wayne Roberts Jr. of Dyess AFB, Abilene.

Blaine Conner returned to Lubbock with her dad Sunday.

Craig Hertel of Gainesville spent the Fourth of July weekend with his parents, Don and Louise.

And finally, I extend my sympathy to the family of Vivian Brown. Mrs. Brown suffered a stroke recently and never gained much strength after that. She passed away on Friday in Crowell. Funeral is today in Truscott.
