Garner Has Visitors in Uvalde

RULE BOBCATS HERE IN FOOTBALL FRIDAY

"Dead Man" Found On Pavement, But 'Twas Only Sleep

Ting-a-ling, went the telephone bell in the sheriff's office Monday afternoon. "Sheriff's office," growled Deputy Dan Kirkpatrick. "Tell Sheriff Sarrells that there is a dead man, or something lying out on the highway about two miles south of town," the voice over the wire quickly stated. Hastily, Kirkpatrick, Sarrells, and a reporter went a-riding towards the scene at about sixty per. Before their arrival, they noticed two or three cars parked, and when the place of the "accident" was reached, they were informed that the man wasn't dead—but only sleeping! And there on the ground sat a young man, slightly ruffled of appearance, giving his unwanted audience a squinting look out of his dark eyes. He was only a hitchhiker, and his home is where his hat is, so he informed officers, and from his attitude towards his questioners, he would have liked the comforts of a home-like jail, but such kind treatment was denied him. He was told to not sleep on highways, especially in the day time. The traveler started traveling southward.

Will Attempt to Claw Thru Haskell Indian Lines In Another Night Affair

NON-CONFERENCE TILT

Friday's Game Expected to Draw Large Crowd—May Equal First Turn-out

Inter-county rivalry is expected to be manifested Friday night when the Haskell Indians take after the Rule Bobcats on the local hunting ground under the arc lights for the second game of the season. It will be another non-conference tilt.

Starters

Rule:	Haskell:
McCready.....RE.....	Shelley
Sturdivant.....RT.....	Maples
R. Frazier.....PG.....	Hambilton
Norman.....C.....	McMillian
Bell.....LG.....	Reeves
Sollock.....LT.....	Smith
Freshour.....LE.....	Moser
Gibson.....QB.....	Adkins
Kevel.....LH.....	English
Bery.....RH.....	Sherman
C. Davis.....FB.....	J. Kimbrough

Rule substitutes—Vane Franklin, end; F. Frazier, guard; Westmoreland, C. Norman, F. Allison, guards. The claws of the Bobcats will be in evidence during the game, as a number of the players scouted the Munday-Haskell tracas here last Friday night. Careful check was made of Indian maneuvers and a planned counter offensive is therefore expected.

Approximately 1100 people crowded into the local park last Friday night, which is thought to be a record in Haskell county, and indications point to another banner crowd here Friday night.

Starting line-ups of the two elevens can only be construed as tentative, but both Haskell and Rule will place the best of players possible on the field, on account of the fact that Haskell wishes to maintain a winning record and Rule to topple over the county-seat aggregation.

No game will be held here Friday October 5th, as the Indians are scheduled to open their conference tilts against Roby on that date at Roby.

LARGE NUMBER OF CASES LISTED ON DISTRICT DOCKET

Roy Sanders, Chairman, To Stage Varied Exhibition For Haskell Fair

MANY NEW FEATURES

Entries Must Be Registered By October 15—All Plans For Fair Being Rushed

The first draft of court cases for the September term of court in the 39th judicial district were placed on the docket Wednesday by Judge Clyde Grissom, and sets all old cases, among them being the so-called O'Brien murder cases involving Sam Jay, Dick Skipworth, Puny Absten and Vera Stillwell, and thirty-three separate Ferguson cases.

Grand jurors selected early Monday morning were Theodore C. Jones, Paul Summers, Lee Norman, Marvin H. Post, Felix Mullino, A. C. Shoemaker, Wm. Von Gontow, W. E. Bunkley, Earnest Griffith, Elgin Carothers, E. J. Boedeker, and A. C. Pierson.

Jay, who was tried in the spring for the murder of Herschel Melton, O'Brien farmer whose body was dug from the ruins of his burned home in December, 1933, is scheduled to again appear for trial on Oct. 8. The state contended during the April term that Melton was slain before his body burned. The farmers' death followed an all-day party which he, the accused, and two girls had indulged in.

Various other cases listed on the docket show indictments of theft, perjury, exhibiting slot machines, rape, transporting of liquor, and arson. The latter offense is also charged to Jay, Skipworth, and Absten.

WATER USERS GET 'BREAK' ON RATES

Council To Allow Total of 7,000 Gallons For $1.50 During Next Month

Thirsty, sun blistered lawns in Haskell were given another break this week when the "city dads" decided to let the 7,000 gallon water maximum remain in force for another month on account of the dry weather.

When the members of the city council voted in favor of allowing water users a maximum of 7,000 gallons for $1.50 during the summer months, the agreement stated that the rate would revert back during September, but lack of moisture has caused an extension of time, so Mayor A. F. Thurman declared Wednesday.

Untold thousands of gallons of water have been used by Haskell water users during the summer months for the sprinkling of lawns and flowers.

WILL BUY 500 OF HASKELL'S CATTLE

This County Finally Placed In Special Buying of Cattle by State

A special cattle quota of 500 head was assigned Haskell county Wednesday by the state department, according to a telegram received by R. H. Maxwell, county agent. Buying will be done here Thursday and Friday.

Haskell county was not at first numbered among approximately fifty counties in the state which were slated to receive special quotas, and Maxwell, noticing the oversight, immediately wired Austin to rectify the matter.

At least 100,000 cattle will be purchased, it is said, in this special buying, and Jones county is given a quota of about 1000 head.

MUNDAY MAN IS SHOT TO DEATH

Accidentally Killed While On Hunting Trip Tuesday With a Companion

MUNDAY, Texas.—Harry Williams, 30, bookkeeper for the First State bank of Munday, was instantly killed while hunting six miles east of here late Tuesday afternoon. Williams' shotgun, a 12-gauge automatic, accidentally fired as he was getting out of his car and sent a charge into his left side, tearing away part of his heart.

Jasper Bevers, with whom he was hunting, carried the dead man in the car to the Campbell Undertaking company. Funeral arrangements were tentatively set for Wednesday afternoon in Benjamin.

Bevers told officers that they had been hunting most of the afternoon. Sighting several doves while driving on a lane, they stopped the car and both men hurried to get out. Bevers and Williams leaving the car from opposite doors. Bevers did not see the accident, but rushed around the car on hearing the shot and saw his companion lying face down in the road.

Williams had been a resident of Munday for the past 15 years. He was born in Benjamin. Surviving him are the widow and one daughter, Brooksie Lee, 3.

Swarms of Bees Are Given Newly-Weds

BUDAPEST—Newly-married men of Keekemet may be satisfied they were not stung on the deal, but the city fathers are going to prove them wrong.

The town is famous for its honey, but production has been falling off. So the municipality is giving every newly-married couple a present of a beehive with a swarm of bees.

Anson Scene of Council Meeting

Likening the county councils of home demonstration clubs to a loud-speaker, Mrs. Maggie W. Barry, extension sociologist of rural women's organizations, outlined the purposes in an address to council representatives and county agents at Anson, Wednesday Sept. 19. Approximately 100 representatives were present from the counties of Jones, Fisher, Dickens, Kent, Stonewall, Knox and Haskell.

Miss Myrtle Murray, of College Station, district home demonstration agent, also spoke to those in attendance on the aims of all home demonstration clubs.

"It is up to you, as farm women, to keep yourselves in the agricultural picture," Mrs. Barry pointed out, "and to aid you in this work, a series of four programs have been set aside for the study of such worthwhile subjects such as 'The Meaning of the AAA,' 'Is the AAA Threatening to Destroy Our Foreign Markets,' and 'America Must Choose.' All of these important questions have been answered by men in prominent public life.

"President Roosevelt is helping us, and while we may expect help through 1935 from governmental sources, we must thereafter be ready to square our own shoulders and face the battle which is rightfully ours. And we must not let ourselves fade from the agricultural picture."

Those attending the meeting from Haskell county were Mrs. Fred Monke, Josslet; Mrs. S. G. Perrin, Josslet; Mrs. Jesse B. Smith, Midway; Mrs. C. H. White, New Mid; Mrs. C. A. Lewellen, Josslet; and Miss Johnnie Reed, Haskell, county demonstration agent.

Button Used For First State Seal

DALLAS, Texas.—The first use of a five-pointed star as the emblem of Texas was in 1835 when a brass button, cut from an overcoat, was used as a seal. The large button came from the overcoat of Henry Smith, provisional governor, elected by the Texans when events were shaping themselves for independence, but at a time when the main issue was as to whether the Mexican constitution of 1824 would be observed.

Smith was named governor at a meeting held at San Felipe (Austin County). Needing some kind of a seal for official documents, he cut off one of the decorative buttons on his overcoat and it was used as the seal. The present seal of the State features a five-pointed star, and the star also is used in the Texas flag.

This historic button may or may not be in existence, today. It would be a most interesting relic for exhibition in 1936, when the Centennial of Texas independence is to be celebrated at San Antonio, Houston, Goliad, Brenham, Nacogdoches, Huntsville, Dallas and other cities of the State identified with the early history of the Lone Star State.

Haskell People Still Like Sweets Says Candy Maker

The candy business is still on a par with that of last fall, according to R. P. Townsend, proprietor of the Haskell Candy Kitchen, and the products of the local concern are now being shipped throughout this section.

Contact is being made with two trucks running north and south, in addition to the county trade.

COLORED MAN BRINGS CHILDREN INTO TOWN FOR SHOES—11 COUNTED!

If the shoes were placed end to end, they would reach to—! Suppose you figure it out after reading the following:

It happened in Theirs' Store, with Raymond Leggett as master of ceremonies: Eleven children of Porter Curtis, colored, who lives two miles northwest of Haskell, lined up one by one in the shoe department Saturday and were outfitted in foot-gear for the coming winter months.

Larger and larger became the sizes of the shoes as Leggett shoved empty boxes aside! Broader and broader spread the grins of the delighted children! And likewise, Leggett smiled, but for a different reason, a record was being made—or broken. It didn't matter, because he was making eleven shoe sales in jig time.

Bargain Rate of $1 Per Year For Free Press Will Start October 1

Beginning October 1, the annual bargain rate of $1 per year for Haskell Free Press will be inaugurated, according to the publisher of this newspaper. This will apply to both old and new subscriptions, in Haskell and adjoining counties only.

The opening of the annual drive is at least one month earlier than previous years, and therefore slightly in advance of other publications.

Although tentative plans call for the placing of several solicitors throughout this territory, no present reader, nor potential reader need wait for such action, as full credit will be given in the Free Press office to all personal or mail subscriptions, and figured at the rate of $1 per year.

At present the corps of solicitors has not been selected, so the publisher also states, but it is expected that the names of those to be placed in the field will be announced in a few days.

Honk of Wild Geese Will Soon Be Heard—Time To Check Heaters

Wild geese have already started south, stepping up their usual schedules about a month, with the first flight in Texas reported in August by a Fort Worth citizen. Scientific minded gentlemen, observing this and similar occurrences in other parts of the state, have come forth with statements that early flights of geese foretell an early and hard winter.

Gas companies, while not posing as scientists, have been busy all summer repairing transmission lines, laying field line to connect new wells, and increasing compressor power. The local gas company has checked over its lines and believes residents should begin now to check their own house heating.

In warning customers to look over their heating equipment before cold weather starts and have it set up, with meters connected in readiness for winter, the gas company makes the following suggestions:

Senior Class Names Officers.

The members of the Senior Class met Tuesday afternoon for the purpose of selecting officers, leaders, and tabulators, as a class of Haskell High School for the last time. The honorable position of president was settled about the worthy shoulders of Carl Maples. We believe he is as good a selection as we could have made and we are proud of him. Since Carl will be engaged in athletic events all year, the office of vice-president carries quite a responsibility and by unanimous consent of the class Fred Sanders will officiate in that position. For a methodical-minded secretary we chose Alberta Orr. We were cautioned about the responsibility of treasurer, so we elected Lewis Hamilton. Reporter is Crockett English. We are very fortunate in having Miss Vick as our sponsor this year. Reporter.

Methodist Missionary Society.

On Monday, Sept. 24th the women of the Methodist Missionary Society met for the study of the 5th and 6th chapters of the mission study book "Eastern Women Today and Tomorrow."

Before beginning the lesson, the president Mrs. O. E. Patterson held a short business session. Mrs. C. L. Lewis outlined plans for the Rummage Sale, which will be held in the Alexander building on the south side of the square on next Saturday. All who have articles to donate are requested to either bring them Friday afternoon, or call Mrs. Lewis or Mrs. Hollis Atkinson.

The president reported that Mrs. C. P. Morris, a one-time president of this Society, is now an inmate of the Methodist Hospital in Fort Worth, she having fallen and injured or broken a hip. Being near 90 years old, many long weeks of loneliness and suffering may be her portion. The president asked that all send cards and messages of cheer Address Mrs. C. P. Morris, care of Methodist Hospital, Fort Worth, Texas.

We were glad to have with us Mrs. J. L. Southern, who has recently removed from our midst, to make her home in Seymour. In a few well chosen words she voiced her appreciation of the Society and expressed her thanks for the beautiful blooming plant sent her while in the hospital.

Mrs. Fields had charge of the lesson. With Mrs. Patterson at the organ "I Need Thee Every Hour" was sung. The subject of the fifth chapter being Health, Mrs. Fields, who gave her own devotional, chose the eleventh chapter of John as the Scripture lesson. This chapter told of Christ's Ministry on Earth. After the reading of the Scripture, a prayer was offered by Mrs. Sanders. Hospitals for women, in India, are a recent innovation, the first having been established in 1891.

Although nursing is considered a very high profession in China, there is now only one nurse to every 200,000 people, and her women doctors rank higher than in our own United States.

In Japan all school girls are required to study physical education. No nation can progress unless the health of its women and girls is carefully guarded.

The sixth chapter told of the "Widening Sphere of Interest." Only since Christianity has reached the far East, has woman's intelligence been recognized, but now women of both India and China enjoy suffrage. In India 204 women occupy high government positions. The Y. W. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. have been a great influence on the women and girls of these countries.

Although the men of Japan are a very aggressive, military people, yet the women are leaders in the promotion of World Peace. Whether or not their attitude will influence the leaders of Japan remains to be seen.

A Japanese proverb is "Men make the roads, but women teach the children to walk."

Next Monday's business will be combined with the regular lesson. The president urges all, especially the officers, to be present at 3 o'clock in order to dispose of all business by 4 p. m., as at that time Mrs. Ada Rike will continue the study of "Eastern Women Today and Tomorrow."

Mrs. J. A. Gilstrap and her daughters, Mrs. John Clifton and Miss Norma Ann Gilstrap were hostesses for a miscellaneous shower last Friday afternoon in the Gilstrap home honoring Mrs. O. B. Ratliff, a recent bride, who before her marriage was Miss Irene McGregor.

The entertaining rooms were artistically decorated with autumn flowers. As the guests arrived they were introduced to the honoree, the bride's mother, Mrs. Chas. McGregor, and the groom's mother, Mrs. L. D. Ratliff, Sr. A unique program was presented. Mrs. Joe Thomas sang Mendelssohn's "Love Song." Miss Anna Maud Taylor gave a very appropriate reading, imitating the bride's sister, after which Miss Jean Conner sang "Always." Spiritual Campaign

The Methodist Ever Ready Union of Stamford District will rally to Rule Sunday Sept. 30th from 9 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. for a program of Educational Evangelism directed by the president of the conference Young People's Division, Woodrow Adcock.

The young people of the Northwest Texas Conference have inaugurated a campaign for the Revival of the Spirit among the youth of West Texas, which is to take the conference president and his Evangelistic Party into each of the thirty-three unions of the conference with a one-day spiritual program.

Adcock is a Haskell county boy and a student in McMurry College. He will be assisted in the Evangelistic Tour of Northwest Texas by two other McMurry ministerial students, Auburn Neely of Winters, Texas, a young evangelist of the Central Texas Conference, and W. E. Trice of Amarillo, Texas, who is vice president of the conference Young People's Division.

The following program will be presented Sunday.

8:30-9:00—Registration of union young people. 9:00-9:35—Address, "My Church and Me."

9:45-10:50—Sunday School under the supervision of the local church. 11:00—Worship service, local pastor in charge. Message, "My Church and Its Foes," conference president.

12:00—Lunch. 1:00 p. m.—Meeting of Union Council.

1:30—Open discussion on "Young People's Work."

2:30—Consecration service. Topic "My Church and Its Challenge to Youth."

The Ever Ready Union is made up of young people of Rochester, Rule, Haskell, Sagerton, Stamford, Avoca and Leuders.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thornton and Mrs. Jesse Collier spent Wednesday in Wichita Falls visiting Mrs. B. W. Bigham, Mrs. Collier's mother, who is under treatment of Dr. Prichard.

The Peppy Partners.

The "Peppy Partners" were entertained last Wednesday night with a delightful supper at the home of Lorene and Marjorie Wright, after which all the members went to see "Baby Take a Bow" at the Texas Theatre. This not being sufficient for the vitality, which is the very essence of our new club, we proceeded to "rally" our coming football game. We hope this had something to do with the overwhelming victory which was Haskell's favor.

Our next meeting, to be called soon, will be for the purpose of electing officers from the following members, all of whom were present at the supper: Maydell Barnett, Alberta Orr, Annie Barnett, Louise McAnulty, Maurine Moser, Naoma Barnett, Louise Roberts and our hostesses, Lorene and Marjorie Wright.

Contract Bridge Club.

Mrs. Virgil Reynolds was hostess to members of the Contract Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon at their regular weekly meeting. Mrs. Hollis Atkinson received high score prize. At the end of the games the hostess passed a refreshment plate consisting of congealed salad, chicken salad sandwiches, bread and butter pickles, angel food squares and iced tea to Mesdames French Robertson, Roy A. Sanders, W. G. Forgy, Hollis Atkinson, B. C. Chapman, Clay Smith, Barton Welsh and Matt Graham.

Freshman Class Organizes.

There are between seventy and seventy-five freshmen in the Haskell High School this year, and we feel as if we are the only ones in High School. Mrs. Wimbish is our sponsor and we know (for that reason) that we ARE going to be the only ones in High School. We had a class meeting Tuesday afternoon and elected our officers for this year. They are as follows: President—Henry Stanton. Vice President—Anita Jo Simmons. Secretary—Marvina Post. Treasurer—Martelle Clifton. Reporter—Frances Pouts.

AUTUMN LUNCHEONS FOR GALA OCCASIONS

The luncheon served before an afternoon of bridge, or a club meeting need not be elaborate as to length, but each course should be delicious, and served in the most attractive china, with other accessories new and interesting. And don't forget the centerpiece flowers or fruit, or of the amusing new glass fruits now so popular for table decoration. Omit the candles at luncheon; these belong on the dinner table at any affair served near sundown or after.

THRILLING MYSTERY DRAMA IS COMING TO TEXAS THEATRE FRIDAY

"The Dragon Murder Case," the latest of the murder mystery dramas from the pen of the peerless author, S. S. Van Dine, to be dramatized for the screen, opens at the Texas Theatre Friday.

The picture is said to be the most bizarre as well as the most baffling of all the novels of the famous author, involving as it does a series of mysterious crimes apparently committed by some prehistoric monster.

Lighter Weight Hats are Fall Favorites; "Off-Color" Styles Are Gaining In Popularity Now

During the past spring and summer, the trend in men's clothing has been toward softer fabrics and cooler fitting sports lines. This preference has carried over to the fall season. More men every day are switching from finished wools to tweeds, shetlands and homespuns. Mens' hat fashions, as usual, follow the clothing style.

It was only natural to expect a demand for lighter weight, rough finished hats and this is exactly what happened. The big favorite for fall is without a doubt the light weight hat. These are being offered in an infinite variety. However, heavier hats aren't being neglected. Dark mixtures and dark colors mark the color trend for fall. Browns have come to the fore and now are about on par with grey. Solid blues and blue tones are in third position and green has almost entirely disappeared from the picture.

In keeping with the sport trend in clothing, there is that class of colors that can only be described as "indescrutable." Mixtures of from six to ten shades and tones that give one general color effect will be worn to harmonize with the rough fabric suits and topcoats. Some of these hats are of harsh and wry textures while others are as soft as the finest imported French or Italian hats. But all of them favor "off-colors" that are appropriate with almost any color suit.

A hat that started out as a novelty but has gained much favor is the patterned hat. Most of its support comes from men who want to dress just a little differently and still be in good taste.

Annual Meeting of State Health Crowd At Abilene

AUSTIN, Texas. — The Twelfth Annual Meeting of the Texas Public Health Association will be held at the Woten Hotel in Abilene, Oct. 3-5, stated Dr. T. J. McCamant, president. The meeting is open to physicians, health officers, nurses, sanitarians, and others interested in public health.

Besides the general meeting, there will be special sections for nurses, laboratory workers, and full time health officers. Among the speakers will be Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer; Dr. Lewis C. Crabbe; E. A. Baugh; Senator J. W. E. H. Beck, M. D.; and representatives of the United States Public Health Service, State Medical Association, Agricultural Department, American Public Health Association.

The program will consist of discussions of health work possible with relief funds, milk sanitation, water and sewage, public health nursing, health legislation, and communicable disease control.

Many cities send their health workers to this meeting so that they may keep up with the new developments in their field. This will be especially true this year as much health work may be accomplished with relief funds.

Agricultural Census Stated Next Year

The Bureau of the Census is now making preparations for the Census of Agriculture which will be taken beginning January 1, 1935, for the calendar year of 1934. This enumeration will have unusual significance, not only because of the devastation and havoc wrought by the drought, but because of the changes in farms and ranches and in the utilization of land brought about by the distressing agricultural conditions of the last few years, according to Director William L. Austin.

Always considered one of the most important activities of the Census Bureau, since the inception of the enumeration of farm statistics in 1840, the forthcoming Census of Agriculture will provide more urgently needed information than any of its predecessors. After 1840 the farm census was taken every ten years until 1925, when the need for local and base statistics became so great that a mid-period of quinquennial census was authorized. The enumeration is now made every five years.

Although the Census of 1935 will cover practically all of the major items of interest to farmers, the schedule will ask only about one third as many questions as did the census taken in 1930. This schedule has been designed to provide for gathering the greatest possible amount of basic information that can be assembled rapidly and tabulated in a minimum of time. The statistics are required at the earliest possible moment so that agriculture may be assisted in going forward with other industry.

New Bill May Complete Colorado Dam

"BORN ACTORS," YET SOME TAKE QUEEREST JOBS

"Actors are born, not made!" Even if this were true, all actors and actresses, too, come to periods in their lives when they fall back on some mighty queer ways of making a living.

One of the oddest examples of this was the way Cary Grant, Paramount leading man, earned his living eight years ago. The "dark and handsome" actor who is featured in "Ladies Should Listen" currently showing at the Texas theatre, thought up the idea of buying a lot of plain neckties, painting designs on them and selling them.

Nortex Oats Make High Yield

KAUFMAN.—Nortex Oats secured from the Denton Experiment Station last fall by E. V. Kiser of the Lone Oak community in Kaufman county yielded an average of 34 bushels to the acre while oats not more than 25 bushels per acre, according to C. A. Munch, farm demonstration agent. Mr. Kiser had 11 acres in Nortex Oats and he states that good seed pays even in times of drought.

Finds Cotton Control Program Benefits This Farmer

HEMPSTEAD, Tex.—"I am way ahead for having cooperated with the Government in the cotton control program," Roy Loggins of Waller county told J. V. Bush, farm demonstration agent. Under the new ruling permitting him to sell forage from his rented acres, Mr. Loggins will make enough to buy the necessary grain for his livestock and poultry and still have enough roughage for his livestock through the winter. He also received a fair price for his cotton and his rental check which he says was "like a gift."

Material Anent Texas Desired By Women of State

AUSTIN, Texas—Requests from women's clubs, civic clubs, schools and other organizations for material from the University of Texas, Bureau of the Package Loan Library for the Texas Centennial, according to Miss LeNoir Dimmitt, chief. Calls for material in the form of bulletins, pamphlets and magazines, from newspapers and magazines, have shown an increase during the last few weeks far in advance of the usual seasonal gain, Miss Dimmitt said. This is occasioned in part by the unusually large number of schools which opened early in September, due to the wide-spread crop failure which has permitted children in most sections of the State to leave the fields and return to the school room. Women's clubs likewise are getting into action early in the year.

Among the other subjects on which material is being widely distributed are Caroline Miller's Pulitzer prize novel, "Lamb in His Bosom," since prize winners are always in demand; various phases of the "New Deal," particularly commissions appointed under the New Deal and prominent men who have been and are responsible for the operation of the New Deal; and the eight amendments to the Texas Constitution to be voted on at the forthcoming general election. These amendments include proposals to abolish the fee system in large counties and make it discretionary in smaller counties; to tax certain West Texas lands for school purposes; to authorize the legislature to combine certain counties and to create others; to empower home rule cities to change the tenure of city officers from two to four years; to permit home rule counties to change their charters once in twelve months; to vest the power of counties in the commissioners' court; to limit the tax powers of the legislature; and to classify real estate property for taxation purposes and to provide for an occupational tax.

Gas—

(Continued from First Page) should be inspected and replaced if necessary. Whenever possible gas equipment should be connected by piping; if flexible tubing is used, it should be renewed as it is rarely good for more than one season. Additional heating equipment, if needed, should be purchased now to avoid the rush that usually comes with the first cold day. Vented automatic heating equipment for increased comfort and more healthful conditions in the home has been adapted by manufacturers especially for the moderate sized home. A small furnace which hangs beneath the floor, circulating warm air through a grill into one or two rooms; gas steam radiators, which manufacture their heat at the wall; and warm air circulating heaters are some of the newer popular heating units. Their even, circulating heat which may be automatically controlled eliminates wall sweating and overheating with its attendant colds and other winter ailments.

Football Comes to Texas Again—Points Smoother Denton

Football is here again. And here is the first football picture of the year, showing diminutive Bobby Wilson, stellar S. M. U. back, ripping through the North Texas State Teachers. The final score was 33 to 0, with the Mustangs on top. Texas University at the same time was winning a close game from Texas Tech at Lubbock, 12 to 6. Rice topped Loyola at New Orleans, 12-0; Texas A. and M. jumped on the Sam Houston Teachers, 28 to 0 and 2, C. U. overturned Daniel Baker at Brownwood, 38 to 7. (Texas News Photos.)

Sermon subject for the morning hour is to be the following: "The Course To Pursue To Be Infinitely Safe." Make it as sure as you can, is another way of stating the matter. "Safety First" is still another way of expressing the thought. You often hear this: "How can one know what to do in the face of so many conflicting doctrines, religions, churches and names?"

The sermon subject for the evening hours is to be this: "The Primitive Church Was Persecuted. Why?" "The Christians were persecuted. Why?" Hear this: "If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you," are words from our Master—Christ. "If you were of the world, the world would love its own, but because you are not, therefore, the world hates you," so states the Lord to His following friends.

We are always glad to have you with us. Come.

COMMUNITY SUICIDE

One of the strangest phenomena witnessed in most towns and small cities is the apparent eagerness with which many otherwise good citizens contribute to the tendency to commit community suicide.

These citizens will frequently show uncommon zeal in bosting any movement to secure city improvements, to promote the location of new industries, to secure better educational facilities, and so on, yet many of these proud home town boosters will deliberately engage in a practice which nullifies all their otherwise laudable efforts—and wonder why their town doesn't get ahead. We refer to the suicidal habit of buying away from home.

The enormous growth of the mail order business in recent years has contributed heavily to the failure of many communities to make the progress which their natural advantages should make possible. The money that ought to stay at home to help in the expansion of business and industry goes away to other cities, never to return. The very lifeblood of community prosperity is allowed to ebb away through the indifference or thoughtlessness of the very persons who should set an example of local pride and loyalty.

A little saving here and there, usually more imaginary than real, is sufficient to cause the average person to forget his or her duty to the community and to themselves, which if performed would mean far more in the direction of local prosperity than all boosting efforts put together.

Why boost in one direction while committing community suicide in another?

OLD TIMERS IN CONGRESS

A good many of the old timers in Congress have been eliminated during the last two years, either by defeat at the polls or by death, but there still remain a few who have long service records in the national law-making bodies.

Of the present membership, Representative Ashton C. Shallenberger of Nebraska first went to Congress earlier than any other member of either house, having taken office in 1901, but his service has not been continuous and totals only 16 years.

Senator Morris Sheppard of Texas has been in Congress continually longer than any other member, since 1902. He was in the House until 1913 and since that time has been a member of the Senate.

Senator William E. Borah of Idaho has the longest continuous tenure in the Senate, having served since 1907.

Representative Adolph J. Sabath of Illinois became dean of the House upon the recent death of Speaker Rainey. Sabath has served continuously since 1907.

Before becoming Vice President, John N. Garner of Texas had served 15 consecutive terms in the House, of which he became a member first in 1903.

GENTLEMEN OF THE BAR

When any business, or profession, or calling falls in to public disesteem there is generally some valid underlying reason for that unfortunate situation. But it is also true that usually such forfeiture of public confidence is due to the attitude and actions of a small minority of individuals composing the group concerned.

It cannot be denied that in recent years the legal profession in particular has to a considerable degree lost caste with a large element of our citizenship, and even the judiciary, in many instances, has not been held beyond reproach. Justly or unjustly, the feeling has grown that pettifogging and sharp practice have been too much in evidence, thereby delaying if not entirely defeating the ends of justice.

It is refreshing, therefore, to note that the American Bar Association itself, at its recent convention in Milwaukee, took cognizance of this situation and will move to correct it. President Evans courageously stated the case to his fellow lawyers in a candid address in which he said:

"It seems better to recognize and deal with the attitude of the public as it actually is, and not as we wish it were. For instance, the public believes that we harbor and otherwise encourage crooked lawyers; and we cannot enter a convincing denial of the charge. We have not harbored or encouraged them in any direct or affirmative way, but we do know and the public knows that we have not tried very hard to protect the public from the ravages of unworthy lawyers."

Obviously, it is up to the reputable members of the bar, who are in the vast majority and have the power to do it, to clean house whenever and wherever circumstances warrant such action. If they do not do it they have only themselves to blame if the public continues to look askance at the legal profession as a whole.

Plane Crash Puts End To Hay Fever
KANSAS CITY, Mo.—Garrett L. Smalley is hoping for continuation of the kind of "bad luck" he had recently. Smalley, a hay fever sufferer, decided he had done all the sneezing he could stand and went to an airport and took off for California. He found the plane was full, and returned home grumbling at his ill fortune. The next morning he read of the plane's crash, killing all aboard. The news brought an immediate end to his hay fever, he said.

Anent the Lights

Were you at the game Friday night, when the Haskell Indians played Munday at Rice Springs Park under the new lighting system? If you were, you can pass this up (as you will probably do anyway), but if you were among the missing, lend an ear:

"Plenty of light" was heard often by the pleased, and surprised, fandom, as they gazed at the three-cluster lights perched atop eight fifty-foot poles, and that is only the half of it! Haskell now has a lighting system plenty good for many purposes and is a feature that will do more to bring people here than a host of lesser entertainments.

Haskell now has a lighted field, and while it is still on a partnership basis with the projector people and the utility people, "it's ours" and we should make the most of it.

Payments will still have to be made, but we're confident Haskell folk will put their shoulder behind the wheel and pay for the proposition as soon as it is possible.

Many persons doubted the wisdom of securing lights for such a "little town" like Haskell, and still do, but a far greater number of doubting Thomases have been convinced that floodlights are desirable and should now be kept.

No one person is entitled to the glory of securing lights for Haskell, because without funds no one could have brought them to the local field, but Geo. V. Wimbish, high school principal, and member of the local athletic association body, worked unceasingly to sell the coupon books, and though rebuffed by many, he kept everlastingly at it and was never found lacking in words to engender courage in others who also played their part.

Well, brethren and sisters, we have "them there" lights now—and they WORKED! So let's think up a lot of entertainment now to fully receive proper benefit.

Most hypocrites fool no one but themselves.

All of us would have more so-called friends if we would use the magic of flattery more often—if not too subtly done.

Movie poster advertises Edw. G. Robinson in "The Man With Two Faces." Not many of us are so lucky.

We know several people who still believe in rugged individualism the way they hog most of the space at a cafe counter. And talk out at a picture show.

In our presence, a "kindly" man remarked that we wrote this column spasm for our own amusement, and another benevolent brother vouchsafed that it might be so, but we were certainly hard up for amusement. Huh!

If the government keeps on making matters more stringent for the bankers, a lot of people will recover from one inferiority complex and will converse as easily with a would-be lender as they do with a salaried man.

Modern version: "Which of youse molibuzzers framed the works on Cook Robin, and rubbed out the guy? Someone's going to get the hot-squat if every mug in the know has gotta be shook down—puff-lenty!"

We live, and in spite of ourselves, we learn! We mentioned to Hill Oates that we desired a "cream cone" in the presence of Billy Burt, and we'll be jiggered if he didn't start to hand us a plain vanilla. We preferred another kind, and said so, but Billy blithely informed us that when anyone said "cream cone" it meant vanilla. Now then, what kind of ice cream would you receive if you called for a "cone", or an ICE cream cone?

MENTIONS—Joe Short came up short on the watermelon, that Ray Crowell, A. C. Woods, and yours sincerely paid for. He'll buy a forty cent melon next time. (P. S. John (Blackstone) Willoughby was present, but didn't eat). District Court begins next week, so we're informed, and we wonder if Al Jordan will be present. . . . It really was too bad that those car-keys were locked in the owner's own car at the football game Friday night. We've had that experience ourselves, but maybe not in that particular way. . . . And while we're football minded, we wish to apologize to French Robertson for not watching the game more closely. He upbraided us often about the matter, but the truth is that we were trying to estimate the colorful through. . . . My aunt's pet corn! Here's another football item: We were told Saturday that a certain few persons gave us the well-known Bronx cheer once while we were walking in front of the grandstand because almost by our side was a young woman, accompanied by her small daughter. Naturally we are not guilty. Our better-half was in Tulsa, so we think, and—that's enough! . . . How absent-minded

-CURRENT COMMENT-

DEPARTURE FROM OLD CUSTOMS

"To listen to speeches we hear today," said Edward A. Filene, the Boston merchant and economist, in a radio address, "a stranger would suppose that Americans generally are such habit-bound reactionaries that any departure from ancient customs is repugnant to them. Our history proves the exact opposite. Our most characteristic habit is our habit of breaking our habits. I am in the apparel business and I know.

"It is the American willingness to accept new deals, if they give sufficient promise of a more abundant life, which accounts for the business for which America is famous. We will, to be sure, do a certain amount of grumbling. The other day a business man raved to me against the New Deal, not that he couldn't say it wasn't doing what it started out to do but it was so different. He said he believed in the old American way of doing things.

"This man is in the plumbing business, in a large way. I had to smile. His business grew because Americans do not cling to the old methods. Take the bath tub. The first one was installed in Cincinnati and its owner gave a party to exhibit it. But Cincinnati papers denounced it; Boston made bath tubs unlawful; medical men called it a menace to health. When introduced in Virginia, the Old Dominion taxed each bath-tub $30 a year.

"But did this opposition banish the bath-tub? Do we insist upon them and severely criticize hotels in foreign countries which do not have them? We do. And we bitterly criticized the automobile 30 years ago but can we get along without it? Just so we Americans and especially we American business men already have found, in a year's time, that we cannot get along without the New Deal of President Roosevelt."—Wheeling (Pa.) Register.

Moon Over Cow Shed Causes False Alarm

WEST CHESTER, Pa. — A big and bright September moon oozed a false fire alarm here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seeds, farmers, looked out of their bedroom window and saw a glare in their barn. Thinking the building was ablaze, they called the fire department.

When the firemen arrived, they discovered that it was only the moon "coming up over the cow shed."

General Johnson and the average baseball umpire, one imagines, share the same feeling about their fellow men.—Hutchinson (Kan.) News.

FROM THE EDITOR OF THE AMERICAN BOY

During the coming year, the boys of America will get a half-fare rate to adventure and fun! The American Boy-Youth's Companion, the nation's leading magazine for boys, formerly $2.00 a year, now costs $1.00. A three year subscription, previously $3.50, costs only $2.00.

Griffith Ogden Ellis, editor of The American Boy, brings boys the hearty assurance that the new prices will in no way affect the editorial contents of the magazine. It will still be as large, as beautifully printed, as full of high-spirited adventure as ever.

"The American Boy's leadership has been no accident," Mr. Ellis states. "We publish the magazine on the firm belief that boys deserve a magazine as good as any publication for grown-ups. So we use the best illustrators obtainable—well-known artists who work for the biggest magazines. We send our staff writers all over the country digging up the interesting facts of science, interviewing world-famous explorers, talking to coaches and athletes.

"We encourage and assist our writers to go everywhere for material—to Haiti, Africa, the South Seas, China—and bring back adventure for American boys. We hire experts on hobbies and boy problems to advise boys and young men. These steps account for our position as the quality magazine for boys."

Farm Women Spend More for Clothes Over Year of '33

COLLEGE STATION.—Average expenditure of $32.01 per person last year was revealed by figures compiled from the records of 700 farm women who served as demonstrators working under the supervision of home demonstration agents in 91 Texas counties according to a statement issued by Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, Extension clothing specialist. These women kept complete and accurate accounts of their individual clothing expenditure for one year. Figures of 155 farm women from 11 counties who kept clothing accounts for their entire families show an average annual expenditure per family of $88.33 as compared to an average of $76.17 spent the year before. These families contained 557 persons making the average expenditure per person $24.95. The figure for last year was $21.73.

These figures probably reflect the added buying power of the farm family, Mrs. Barnes said. "All the money we know that many things have to be bought on farms before they are considered so when we find the records of the wardrobe demonstrators of home demonstration clubs consistently showing increased expenditure for clothing for themselves and families it seems a safe sign that 'times are better' on Texas farms," she said. In Dallas county 346 4-H club girls kept clothing records from September 1, 1933 to June 1, 1934 which indicated an average expenditure of $30.18 for the nine months. It is estimated that for the year the expenditure would be $40.24 per girl. As a part of their club work 24 of these girls made 2,240 garments which were valued at $2,000.

THE MAN WITH TWO FACES' A BAFFLING DRAMA OF MYSTERY

One of the strangest and most baffling murder mystery dramas is scheduled to be shown at the Texas Theatre beginning at the Saturday night preview, under the title of "The Man With Two Faces." The picture, a First National production, is based on the tremendous stage success by George S. Kaufman and Alexander Woolcott, two of Broadway's most famous playwrights. Edward G. Robinson has the role of a noted Broadway actor and director, while Mary Astor plays the part of his sister, one of the most beautiful and talented actresses of her time. Ricardo Cortez, usually the villain of the piece, has the heroic role in this picture, being the theatrical producer who is in love with his star performer, Miss Astor.

There was a time —when old-fashioned heating systems blistered your face while your back shivered.

But now... with natural gas, winter is just another pleasant season in the modern home.

A timely reminder

Days are growing shorter, nights longer, and the first cold days of winter are on the way.

Now is the practical time to check up your heating equipment while winter is still "around the corner." Don't let obsolete or inadequate heating rob you of a pleasant indoor climate. Improved gas heating equipment and your dependable gas service will give you care-free, inexpensive comfort at the touch of a match and you'll find just the type heater to fit your particular need on display at your gas company or appliance dealer's.

your dependable gas service makes this fuss and bother unnecessary. All through the summer months your gas company has been "keeping your fuel service faithful"—improving facilities so that you may have the safety and security of a dependable natural gas supply again this winter.

... If for any reason your gas meter is not connected ready for winter—call your gas company NOW and avoid the rush of that first "norther."

An ample gas supply has been provided... pipe lines and distributing lines have been checked over... compressor stations have been overhauled. In fact, every detail of your gas service has been carefully perfected to assist you in stopping Jack Frost at the threshold of your home.

If this were a gasless community, the next order of business would be laying in a supply of coal or wood. Of course,

Muffins Popular With Everyone In Family; Try These

DENTON, Sept. 17.—Muffins are generally popular with everyone and make acceptable bread variations for breakfast, luncheon, or dinner. Nothing tastes better for breakfast than a good hot muffin.

The making of good muffins is simple and quick. Measure all ingredients carefully. Mix the milk, melted fat, and beaten egg together. Fold the liquid into the flour, baking powder, sugar and salt.

Dinner: Meat loaf, baked potatoes, creamed spinach, salad, butter, peach salad, chocolate milk, orange, iced coffee, cream, sugar.

On Texas Farms

Trench silos may be the answer to the feed shortage problem. W. C. McClain who lives near Stanton in Marion county is putting up maize stalks that have suckered heavily and will make good silage whereas they would make tough and unappetizing hay.

Flat breaking the land before planting has so often produced at least twice as much as nearby land that was not so prepared that Mr. Joe Gruy of Hebbronville has about decided to make this practice a part of his rental agreement.

Fifteen 4-H club members who were furnished Hampshire gilts last fall in San Jacinto county are reporting the arrival of good litters of pigs. A general raising of the standard of hogs in the county is expected from this work.

Cooperative selling and improved dairy practices based on keeping a dairy demonstration record on her herd has enabled Mrs. H. Huntington of Alta Loma in Calveston county to change from loss to profit in her business.

Celery seems to have come to Maverick county as a permanent crop. F. O. Weirich has five acres of it already transplanted which is in fine condition and compares favorably with that grown as a demonstration last year by Theodor Katakalis.

Calhoun county women who came to the 1934 Short Course must have reported favorably because one home demonstration club in that county promptly gave a "barn party" and made $30 to pay the way of delegates to the 1935 Short Course. Guests were dressed "tackily" and enjoyed games, tamales, coffee, ice cream and cake were sold and several donated cakes were auctioned off.

Jailed For "Slow Pay"

WINNEY, Mass.—Herman Schatz is in jail, working it out at 50 cents a day because district court found him "slow pay." Fined $65 for bootlegging in May, 1933, it developed recently that under the installment plan granted in his case he had paid only $1.

Old Records Claim Phillip Nolan Was Killed In Texas

CLEBURNE, Texas.—Phillip Nolan, "the man without a country," did not die on shipboard but was killed by Mexicans near Cleburne between 1820 and 1830, according to historical records revived here.

Nolan was the main character in Edward Everett Hales' famous book, "The Man Without a Country." According to the book version Nolan was ostracized from the United States for cursing it, dying on a ship at sea, without ever again seeing his native land.

That version is held to be fiction, however, by persons who believe the accounts resurrected here are true.

Nolan river, which flows through this county, was named for Phillip Nolan because he is said to have died on its banks.

Nolan, according to these accounts, entered what is now Texas in 1757 to produce cavalry horses. He was given free access to the territory by the Spanish government, then sovereign over Texas.

Later, he again came to Texas, this time for the same purpose, but this time he was suspected of plotting against the Spanish government and was ordered to be kept out.

He managed to elude Mexican soldiers and made his way into Central Texas. Here, with fourteen Americans, five Spaniards, and a negro, he built a blockade, intending to capture wild mustangs.

He was pursued by Mexicans who attacked the blockade. Nolan was killed by the first discharge. His body, according to one account, was buried near what is now the little village of Blum.

Berlin has a monument to the horses which served during the World War.

Miss Brown has charge of the family garden and in it she planted 836 feet of starchy vegetables; 9425 feet of leafy vegetables; 793 feet of other vegetables and 240 feet of tomatoes.
