FEAR RABID DOG IS ASTRAY IN COUNTY

There is a "mad dog" loose in the county, according to Clay Kimbrough, who lives southwest of town. Kimbrough reports that a dog appeared at his farm last Thursday night and engaged his dog in a fight. A few days later his dog developed hydrophobia and bit one of his legs and now the hog has developed the disease. Kimbrough has killed his dog, but he is afraid that other dogs in the county might have been bitten by the stray dog and he urges that dog owners watch closely as their dogs might have been attacked and will develop the disease later.

Rule Methodist Church Is Being Torn Down Now

RULE, Texas.—The Rule Methodist church is being torn down to be replaced by a modern church and educational building. This church is another old landmark in Rule, being built in 1906. The old building being salvaged is of wood structure. The new church and educational building will be of concrete blocks, with a polished facing which resembles glass. Work on the educational building was commenced two weeks ago.

It will be a basement and upper story. The foundation has been run and the laying of the blocks will begin soon. This building will be used as a Sunday school room as well as for the preaching services with the main auditorium of the church can be built.

Warning Is Issued Against Grazing Stock on Highway

Owners of livestock who permit their animals to run at large on the highways of Haskell county may find themselves in serious trouble if they do not heed a warning issued this week by Sheriff Giles Kemp.

Kemp pointed out that it was strictly against the law to permit stock to run at large in Haskell county, and that livestock grazing along the highways presented a grave menace to lives and property.

Several head of livestock have been killed during the past few months on county highways, and in each case an automobile was damaged or completely wrecked and lives of occupants endangered, and it is only a matter of time until someone will be killed or seriously injured if the practice of permitting cattle and horses to graze on the highways is continued," the sheriff stated. If owners do not stop the practice, he declared that necessary steps would be taken to enforce the law.

In cooperation with the county officials, the Lion's Club of Haskell is planning to take the matter up with other service clubs and officials in counties between Abilene and Wichita Falls with the view of making this particular highway safe for travel. It was pointed out by one member of the Lions Club at Tuesday's meeting that in his opinion, he passed more than 100 head of loose stock on the highway between Haskell and Wichita Falls on a recent trip.

DAIRY MEETING IS SLATED HERE APR. 3

Tinney, a representative of the State Department of Agriculture will be here and will discuss the "Production, Care and Handling of Farm Dairy Products."

Club members of the county are urged by Mr. Maxwell and Miss Taylor to attend the meeting, as Mr. Tinney is an authority on the production, care and handling of cream and his talk will be worth the time of any one who is interested in improving the quality of their products.

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE STARTED HERE BY PLAYERS

About 30 Lads Appear For Work In Response to Call
By Coach Bill Richey

Spring football practice was begun here Monday afternoon under the direction of head coach Bill Richey and line coach Perry Mason. About 30 players have appeared for the sessions this week.

Riddled by graduation, the line will cause Mason, and aspiring players a large amount of work before the first game next fall. Only six lettermen of 1934 are eligible for another season and three of those are backfield material.

Neither Richey nor Mason are predicting any 13-B conference title, although three of the best high school football players in this section—John Kimbrough, Jack Kimbrough and Ernest McMillian will again be on the team.

John Kimbrough, 200-lb. back, and a 102 track man in the 100-yard dash, is exhibiting greater power than he has even shown, although he waded through opposition last fall like a bowling ball among tenpins, and despite the fact that players like Dick Todd, who made Texas conscious of his home-town—Crownell, are not found easily, both college and high school coaches are predicting that Kimbrough will "go places and do things" like the Crownell flash.

Jack Kimbrough, 18, who weighs a few pounds less than his younger brother, and who has dealt opposing district football players misery in the past, answered the first call Tuesday, eager to get in a few passes and kicks in order that he will be "right" next fall when he finishes his Haskell football career. The elder Kimbrough is the spark-plug of the Indian aggregation.

McMillian, husky 200-lb. center, who is in his second year of football; Phippen, fast end; Reeves, guard; and Moser, end; all lettermen, have swung into action in a battling manner, according to Richey.

Reserves from the 1934 squad again reporting are Albert Barnett, Eugene Rose, Frank Kirkpatrick, Lloyd McMillian, Robert Thompson and George Stoneman.

New material at hand, from which a few regulars will almost have to be picked is composed of the following: Carl Henshaw, R. C. Henshaw, Robert Wheatley, Henry Stanton, Jimmy Crawford, Thomas Kaigler, Woodrow Frazier, Claude Jenkins and W. B. Harrison. The Henshaw brothers are considered good prospects for the team.

Local fans believe Haskell's chances for a winner were improved in district 13-B when officials split the conference into two sections and arranged a play-off between sectional champions. Haskell bucked Roby, conference winner, at the beginning of last season and lost 7-0, but just one-half game behind in the final standing.

The list of players who are expected to report by Sunday afternoon are as follows: Buford Cox and "Hoss" Cox, catchers; Archie Pittman, Joe Blackburn and Ernest McMillian, pitchers; Chick Henshaw, Joe Willoughby, Drew Leonard, Cliff Chapman, Cecil Bradley, Isaac (Cy) Edwards, Dud Pittman, Jack Kimbrough, Sam Jeter, Covell Adkins, A. E. Scott, Shady Lane, infielders; Doc Patterson, Leonard Force, Sleepy Maples, Troy Post, Clay Smith, Con Henshaw, Alvie Couch, Roy Cook and Red Henshaw, outfielders.

"Purely business reasons actuate my withdrawal from the sheriff's department," Clifton stated. "I have never worked with a finer bunch of associates, and the hearty cooperation which has been given the present administration by the public has helped the officers to a great extent."

Sheriff Kemp, commenting upon Clifton's resignation, expressed regret in losing Clifton's services, and commended him as a faithful and efficient officer.

Clifton's successor has not been named. Sheriff Kemp stating that for the time being work of the department will be handled by himself and the present force, which is composed of the following deputies: Mrs. Hettie Williams, office; Dan Kirkpatrick, "Buddie" Thompson, Carl McGregor, Haskell; Ollie Kitley, Rule; and Louie Schroeder, Sagerton.

New Officials of Golf Club Named

At a recent meeting of the Haskell Golf Club, Hollis Atkinson was elected president and Roy Killingsworth, secretary-treasurer.

Server Leon, J. D. Montgomery, and Virgil Reynolds were appointed as grounds committee.

F. M. Robertson and F. L. Daugherty will serve as the program committee for the coming year.

Curran Hunt, Jno. A. Couch and Travis Everett will compose the membership committee.

Plans are being made for several improvements in the grounds at an early date and when completed a local tournament will be arranged among the members, according to Roy Killingsworth, the new secretary-treasurer.

All Reduction Contracts Close

The following information is given for publication by the County Committee in charge of the 1935 cotton acreage control:

"After Friday March 29th, Cotton Reduction Contracts sign-up will be closed in the various communities and late signers will be required to call at the County Agent's office to sign contracts.

"You are urged to sign up your contracts, so that further delay in checking and approving contracts by community and county committees may be completed and the contracts sent to the State Board for certification.

"Delay means late payment of benefit checks—so do your part in speeding up the program. County Committee."

Messrs. Troy Post and Roy A. Sanders were in Lubbock Monday on business.

WORK ON HIGHWAY 120 TO START SOON

Common Labor to be Secured from Relief Office;
Is 7.7 Mile Project

Construction work on 7.7 miles of Highway 120 east of Haskell will begin about April 8th according to the present plans of the Highway department, if the local relief office is in position at that time to finance the common labor for the work.

County Judge Chas. M. Conner, French M. Robertson, D. P. Ratliff and Tom Donohoo made a special trip to Austin the first of the week and received the approval of the Texas Relief Commission on the project which has been held up for several weeks.

The work order calls for 66 men for 40 weeks. This does not mean that additional relief labor will be used in Haskell county, the relief officials point out, but that available labor will be used on Highway 120 project. However there will be additional work for skilled labor, such as carpenters, form setters and concrete finishers, which will be employed by the Highway department.

The project calls for work to begin at the end of the pavement on Walton street near the Wichita Valley depot and extends east for 7.7 miles, to a point about one mile east of Red Creek.

Applications for Seed Loans are being taken for Haskell county by Reynolds Wilson, Committee Clerk, at the courthouse in Haskell. These loans are for non-relief farmers only, and are from a special fund made available by the Federal Emergency Relief Administration for seed for spring planting of truck, forage, and commercial crops.

These funds have been made available to meet the emergency created by lack of funds of the Emergency Crop and Feed Loan Section of the Farm Credit Administration, and will be discontinued when, and if, that office makes crop loans.

No loans will be made to farmers who are able to obtain credit locally or elsewhere.

The same County Loan Committee will serve this Loan that has heretofore functioned for the Crop Loan office.

The farmer who is on relief receives the necessary funds to finance his crop through B. K. Webb Rural Supervisor, who has an office in the Relief Building at Haskell.

Crop mortgages, non-disturbance agreements on work stock, and crop waivers are necessary in all cases.

This loan is to permit immediate planting of food, feed and commercial crops.

Clifton Resigns as Deputy Sheriff

Mart Clifton, chief deputy under Sheriff Giles Kemp since the first of the year, has resigned from the department to accept the management of the Haskell branch of the Western Produce Company, with which firm he was connected for several years prior to his appointment as deputy.

"Purely business reasons actuate my withdrawal from the sheriff's department," Clifton stated. "I have never worked with a finer bunch of associates, and the hearty cooperation which has been given the present administration by the public has helped the officers to a great extent."

Sheriff Kemp, commenting upon Clifton's resignation, expressed regret in losing Clifton's services, and commended him as a faithful and efficient officer.

Clifton's successor has not been named. Sheriff Kemp stating that for the time being work of the department will be handled by himself and the present force, which is composed of the following deputies: Mrs. Hettie Williams, office; Dan Kirkpatrick, "Buddie" Thompson, Carl McGregor, Haskell; Ollie Kitley, Rule; and Louie Schroeder, Sagerton.

Buster Gholson and Paul Roberts of Haskell were recognized as second class Scouts. Lon McMillian received a carpentry merit badge, and T. J. Watson passed in wood carving. Other Haskell Scouts making the trip were Eugene Rogers, Henry Stanton and Jack Simmons.

Members of the Court of Honor were Dr. E. B. Surface, Dr. R. A. Maddox, U. Childers, Raymond Elliott, C. C. Chenoweth and Doyle Brooks.

The Haskell visitors enjoyed the courtesies extended by the Abilene Scouts and business men.

Fertilized Garden of 4-H Worker is Thriving Rapidly

Onions and English Peas are thriving in Ruby Stodghill's well fertilized garden. The garden plot is located below a tank, which makes it irrigated easy for this plot of ground that has much barnyard manure added for fertilizer. Ruby saved the English Pea seeds from her last year's crop, and is keeping records of her garden costs so she can determine the money value the garden is to her family. A complete vegetable garden is planted, including many varieties of leafy vegetables and several varieties of tomatoes. Ruby is Garden Demonstrator for Rose 4-H club.

A SIMPLE REMEDY

For the past several years we have all been greatly troubled by the croaking of the stairs when someone went up or down. During class periods, someone walking on the stairs, no matter how softly, was sure to disturb busy students and teachers.

Everyone thought that something ought to be done about it. So while we were enjoying the Christmas holidays, Mr. Breedlove got busy. The stairs no longer creak. How did he do it? Our superintendent found that some of the boards had never been nailed; they had been merely fitted into their places. With a hammer and some nails a disturbance that had troubled us for years was remedied in a very few hours.

Simple? Yes, very. We all have our troubles that we would much rather be without. Some of us wish like whipped cuds about how bad it is. Some grow moody and cross although they say nothing. Some grin and face it. But all too few try to find the cause and erase it. Many times the cure is so simple that we stumble over it daily, yet never see it. If we would only use our heads we might be spared much heartache. So let's all get hammers and nails and get busy.

SENIOR SKETCHES

Doris Olinphant was born July 8, 1916 in Haskell, Texas. He attended South Ward school for six years and at the beginning of his seventh year of school life, entered North Ward. All of his high school education has been obtained from Haskell High. He aspires to be either a theatre manager or a baker.

Loree O'Neal was born in Olney, Texas in 1917. When six years of age, she moved to Haskell county. The first year of her schooling was obtained from Rose, and the remainder from the Haskell public schools. Loree is a senior member of the Gypsy Rambler club. She has played volleyball and is a member of the team this year. She aspires to be a stenographer.

Alberta Orr was born in the year 1917 in Throckmorton. For a short time she was a resident in Oklahoma, but her entire education has been secured from the Haskell Schools. When she graduated from the seventh grade, Alberta was valedictorian of her class. She is an excellent speller, having won first place in spelling five times when contesting in the Interscholastic Meet. She was reporter of her class during her freshman, sophomore and junior years. This year she is secretary of her class and of the Gypsy Rambler Club. Last year she was a member of the debate team. She has been a member of the "H" Club all four years of her high school life. This year she was a member of the senior play cast. Her greatest ambition is to be a surgical nurse.

"RIGHT ALONG"

Of late we have given numerous accounts of student participation in debate, speech, and athletic contests, and in club, class and social activities. From reading these news stories one might conclude that we have no time left in this high school for regular school work—but let us assure you that we have. Daily classes occur in orderly succession.

Just now the freshmen are diligently practicing sentence style, and pursuing the L. C. M. of the unknown quantity; they are preparing breakfasts and constructing motors and setting hens; and they are coming out of the Dark Ages, with spelling lessons for diversion. Likewise the Sophomores have nearly reached the end of the "Highway to English"—even if a few did "hitch-hike" in Algebra. Their new dresses are beginning to look very wearable; also they are considering the self-determination of the nations; and they are observing green leaves and learning what makes them green.

Politically interested, the juniors are following "The Progressive Movement," and with literary zeal they are widening their acquaintance with modern authors. Determining the attitude of triangles gives them mathematical concern, and while some are tackling radical changing Spanish verbs, others note the good points of dairy cattle.

Quite appropriately the Seniors are appreciating the "Ode to the West Wind"; and the behavior of decimals and percentage gives them a more profound respect for the term "higher" arithmetic. Translating consistently, they have almost rescued the kidnapped child in "Fortuna," and of early mornings they consider the nation's financial situation, or determine various chemical reactions. Nor is the art of public speaking overlooked.

Truly, regular routine still holds sway in H. H. S.

THIS AND THAT IN HOME ECONOMICS

With the smell of food, the clash of pans, and the rattle of dishes, the first year Home Economics girls prepared and served their first family breakfast last Tuesday and Wednesday.

Of course there were many mistakes made, such as Wilma Whatley putting salt in the cocoa instead of sugar, Violet Harrell waiting until everything else was done before frying the bacon, and last but not least—Anita Jo Simmons just having to tell us about her ailments, while eating.

During the week, we had mock table service and of course that gave us lots of practice. Table service and manners are two of the most important things we have learned in the past few weeks.

When asked why we eat breakfast, Maurine Moser answered, "It's just an old, tribal custom."

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB PARTY

The Home Economics girls had a social Monday evening March 18 at five o'clock in the home of Elsie Gholson. The program was in Irish order and colors celebrating St. Patrick. After several delightful games were played, a lovely plate consisting of sandwiches, punch, and candy was served to twenty-three members.

The next meeting will be on April second.

G. K.'s MAKE IT PAY

"Three hamburgers and an ice cream cone." Didn't we hear that plenty Friday and weren't we glad to. Yes, we were, because we can pay for our dressing room now. Pie, sandwiches, salad, tea, coffee, hamburgers and ice cream were snapped up as if people could not get enough. We surely do thank you—and you—and you—for your patronage. You helped us make that cloak room, and we hope you use it and like to keep it looking nice.

Gypsy Rambler girls flew around with colors fluttering and worked as only Gypsy Ramblers can. The reward came later with all we could eat and about $34 made. Of course we were tired, but what does that mean to Gypsy Ramblers? We are doing work for the school, as well as having fun.

CAMPUS FLASHES

News flashed about this week revealed that M. R. and R. C. C. seemed to have "put one over every one."

Dugan says he has to find him a new girl since Rule "over-ruled" his gallant visits.

Howard W. said he didn't know whether he was going to send out any invitations or not but that he "shore" did need some new socks.

We nominate Winnie D. for the little girl with a big heart (its for A. S. we think).

Book reports have come and gone, so peace is again restored.

Lyndell is so short he's always running into some of our taller senior kites.

It is rumored that there was a "man-less" wedding on the campus last week but the couple refuse to make their identity known. (We think they were Seniors.)

The best way to keep from falling asleep in study hall is:

- (1) Give the persons on each side of you a piece of gum.
- (2) Hold your pencil tight so when you relax it will fall and awaken you.
- (3) Go to bed at night.

The ability of the Cass Twins as saleswomen was extraordinary last Friday during the meet. On one occasion when a small girl asked for candy (a product which the G. R. were not selling) they promptly replied that a sandwich was better for her. (P. S. They sold her two sandwiches.)

Haskell High School is proud of the students who won literary events. Who wouldn't be proud of seven first places?

A FORMER STUDENT

With the annual occasion of County Meet, we are always reminded of the success of one of our outstanding former students, Alice Hunt. She was a graduate of Haskell High School in 1930 and is now teaching at Lake Creek school. She brings outstanding teams to our County Meet and always wins some first places. We can't help but feel proud of any such accomplishment or results of our Haskell Schools.

The class was geometry and Gerry Hunt was sent to the blackboard to draw a horizontal line. She promptly and proudly drew a horse-on-a-line.

Winston: "Isn't it strange that all my ideas come to me while I am washing my hands?"
 Artie: "Boy, why don't you take a bath?"

Children Warned Not To Fly Kites Near Electric Wires

The danger of flying kites in the vicinity of electric wires was explained today by officials of the West Texas Utilities Company who are appealing to parents to warn youthful kite-flyers to keep away from wires.

"Several fatal accidents already have occurred this spring as a result of boys flying kites too near electric wires," according to H. C. King, local manager of the electric company, "and we want to impress on parents and children the dangers of letting kites and kite strings come in contact with wires. Above all, children should be cautioned never to use metal wire in the place of string when flying kites, for if the wire should fall across an electric line, the current would flash to the person holding it."

"Whenever kites become entangled in electric wires, don't climb poles or use long sticks to remove it. Call the company and a line-man will be sent to get it down, if possible. Another wise precaution is not to fly kites during a rain, as a wet string is almost as dangerous as a wire should it come in contact with an electric line. Kites with metal frames or wood braced with wire, should not be used."

Shoots Into Culvert; Man Wasn't Rabbit

DENVER, Colo.—Edmund Burke and R. E. Mackley Denver sportsmen, went rabbit hunting.

They saw a rabbit running into a culvert. Burke went to one end of the culvert, Mackley to the opposite end.

Burke heard a noise and fired into the culvert.

Mackley was brought to a Denver hospital with two shot wounds in his face.

The rabbit escaped.

Tamale—What is meant by poetry of motion?

Carne—I think it must be the poetry that keeps going from one editor to another and never is published.

Tile Proves Help to Garden

Proper tile drainage is essential for a successful garden. It helps to remove excess water from the soil, preventing waterlogging and root rot. This is especially important in areas with heavy clay soil or high water tables.

LIGHTING . . . Yesterday and Today

DID YOU KNOW THAT—

- musical compositions, frequently dwelling on candle light, are but recollections of a luxury in bygone days?
- That such spectacular illumination from candles would compare as only modest electric illumination today?
- That one modern electric lamp (50-watt size) gives the same illumination as 40 candles light give?
- That the wax candle will burn about 4 hours, necessitating 250 replacements to see replacement of the electric lamp?
- That an average home today has the equivalent of approximately ten such electric lamps (50-watt size) in use, and with 24 months or 1,000 burning hours as their useful life, the two-year total lighting costs, including cost of lamps and cost of electric service, is only $17?
- That a comparable illumination from wax candles (not considering the inferior light or the danger accompanying any flame, its fire risk, frosting or gaseous odors) would necessitate consumption of 120,000 wax candles over such a two-year period at a cost to you of more than $2,400, per complete electric "lighting" service is supplied by this company and enjoyed by all members of your household for less daily costs than a cigar to one member of the household.

PUBLIC DEBT IS YOUR DEBT

You're in the red $385. You may not think you owe a cent but you really do owe $385 for that represents your share of the $48,000,000,000 debt of the federal, state and local governments of the country. You may consider that you're square with the world and owe no man, and so far as your individual obligations are concerned that may be quite true, but you are not really out of debt so long as there is an outstanding public debt. That stands as a claim against everything you own or ever hope to own.

The federal government debt is now about $28,000,000,000, and it soon will be $34,000,000,000. Local governments owe something like $20,000,000, and you and your children are going to pay that bill. You may not know that you're paying it, but you will be footing the bill just the same.

However, it might be a lot worse. For instance, if you were a subject of Great Britain you would owe $991 in the same way, and if the World War had gone on another year you probably would have owed a much larger sum.

Treasury figures reducing these debts to terms of the individual citizen make the public debt a lot more realistic, whereas we would not give it much thought when treated as a whole. Really there is no such thing as a public debt. It is merely a collective obligation standing against all of us and as long as it exists no man can be absolutely debt-free.

Do you own your own home? Is it debt-free, even though you have paid for it in full? Have you money in the bank? If you have it doesn't belong to you solely for the public treasury has a potential claim for $385 against it. Do you draw wages or salary? The money in your pay envelope may be used for whatever purpose you see fit to put it, but actually it isn't all yours as long as the public debt stands on the books.

We are all apt to think of the public treasury as some sort of inexhaustible fountain that keeps pouring out gold from some hidden and mysterious source. But there is nothing the least bit mysterious about it. It all comes out of your pocket and the pockets of your neighbors. And that's quite true regardless of what kind of taxes may be used to raise money for the public treasury. Income taxes, sales taxes, production taxes and tariff levies all come from one source in the long run. That source is the pockets of the people who work to produce goods or services. All that is not saying that the money should not be spent. The best authorities agree that the United States with all its vast resources is well able to carry a public debt up to $50,000,000,000 without impairment of its credit.

But the point is that every man, woman and child has a direct interest in seeing that the money is well spent and that we get something of permanent value for the money because it happens to be our money that is being spent. That is why President Roosevelt proposes that the money necessary for unemployment relief be spent for productive work rather than merely handing it out as a dole with nothing in return. It's not how much you spend, but what you get for your money.

Now that we know that the money being spent is partly ours and not out of the pockets of millionaires entirely it might be well that we give more attention to the nation's spending. Next time you read of a billion dollar appropriation for this or that just remember that it means $3 out of your pocket and see what your reaction is.

THANK YOUR DENTIST

The hardy cave dweller of old never had modern delicacies like cake, creamed chicken, and ice cream. He knawed his meat off the bone and at unhusked grain—and, according to some modern theorists, because of the fact he had healthy teeth.

However, Dr. E. B. Renaud, professor of anthropology at Denver University, has been looking at the skulls of ancient cliff dwellers in Mesa Verde National Park, and he finds evidence to the contrary. These old-timers, who lived on coarse, tough foods all their lives, had cavities in plenty, suffered from toothache just as we do, and also had pyorrhea.

And one must shudder painfully to think of having toothache in a land where the only possible remedy was to summon a neighbor and have him knock the decayed tooth out of your head with a pointed stone!

THE OLD ERA PASSES

When Kipling wrote the east is east and the west is west, and never the twain shall meet, it may have been true as gospel. But it doesn't seem to be true today, and proof of the matter is to be found in a little news story recently printed concerning 11-year-old King Ananda of Siam. The young king has been schooled in Europe, for one thing, and has conceived a boyish passion for fire engines. One of his first acts, he says, will be to see to it that Siam has a first-class fire department. Then he announced that his favorite picture books are "Three Little Pigs", "Felix the Cat," and "Mickey Mouse." The ancient and mysterious east must have changed beyond measure, when the reigning monarch of Siam goes in for fire engines and Walt Disney!

-CURRENT COMMENT-

RIGHTING INJUSTICE IN THE CENTENNIAL PERIOD

(Clarendon News)

There has been introduced into the senate at Austin, proposed amendments to the state constitution raising the salaries of six important state officials, thereby righting a wrong that has come about by economic changes in Texas over the past fifty years.

The proposed resolutions would increase the governor's salary from $4,000 to $12,000; the secretary of state from $2,000 to $6,000; the attorney general from $4,000 to $10,000; the comptroller, the treasurer, the land commissioner, from $2,000 to $6,000.

No intelligent citizen will argue that important posts as enumerated above are not entitled to pay somewhat on a par with other responsible positions in our commercial structure, and surely the time has now arrived for an adjustment in this matter.

No time could be more appropriate than the Centennial period for righting this constitutional wrong, which the growth of Texas and our natural development has brought upon us.

This matter along with many other items in our governmental, political, economic and moral establishment, should be brought down to date—set to rights—and the Centennial period is the time to it.

Cheese for Home Use Is Easily Made on Farm

At certain times of the year there is extra milk on many farms where only a few cows are kept. An excellent way to conserve this extra milk for later use is to make it into cheese. American cheese, properly made, can be stored for months, and so, at practically no cost, can provide valuable food for the family.

In a new Farmer's Bulletin, "Making American Cheese on the Farm for Home Consumption," H. L. Wilson, of the Bureau of Dairy Industry, U. S. Department of Agriculture, shows how to make American cheese in small sizes suitable for family use. He recommends a simple, short method, known as the stirred curd, or granular process, as more practical on most farms than the factory method or Cheddar process. A series of seventeen pictures supplements the verbal directions. Step by step, the illustrations show the methods of handling the curd at different stages of cheese making, and the simple equipment used. No previous experience is needed to follow the instructions successfully. Home demonstration agents and State dairy extension specialists have already demonstrated the short method in many states.

Except for a thermometer, cheese color, and rennet, most any farmer has all the equipment and materials needed for cheese making. For example, and ordinary one-gallon tin pail with straight sides makes a first rate cheese hoop for the 5 or 10 pound size cheese most people will want to make. Scrap lumber provides wood for a press block and lever, and a bucket filled with

Coyotes Moving East by Use of Modern Methods

The coyote, "wild dog of the Western plains," seems to be moving East. In keeping with its reputation of resourcefulness, this predator is "moving in" by modern means of travel, the automobile and the express train, according to naturalists in the United States Department of Agriculture.

Tourists in the West often purchase coyote puppies, and bring them East. They do not find them dependable pets, however, so there is little grief when an occasional coyote escapes. In a few cases eastern sportsmen have brought in young coyotes and freed them, thinking they were fox puppies. From these small beginnings have developed numerous infestations in some of the Eastern States.

Coyotes are now present in New York, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida, and Alabama, and may be present in other Eastern States. In addition to artificial plantings, coyotes are pushed eastward of their own accord, having been recently reported in parts of lower Michigan and Indiana.

"The coyote is the most adaptable of the predatory animals," says A. M. Day of the Bureau of Biological Survey. "Civilization has no terrors for him. He lives and thrives there, finding life easier, even if somewhat more dangerous than in the open. He is shrewd and bold."

"Home to the coyote is wherever he digs his den. He migrates easily and upon slight provocation. Coyotes multiply rapidly. The litters are large, averaging five to seven puppies, which look much like young German police dogs. Recently a litter of 17 was found. With the coyote's adaptability, shrewdness, boldness, and ability to multiply, it is possible they may eventually inhabit the entire United States."

The paid-hunter system is advocated by the Biological Survey as the best method of keeping coyotes under control. The payment of bounties often leads to abuses and deception.

Although coyotes are scavengers and, in addition, destroy many rodents, they are all too likely to find it easier to obtain their living by killing poultry and young pigs, lambs, and even calves. For this reason they may become as much a menace to eastern farmers as they have been to the western rancher.

Perfect Accord

"I don't like to say anything that might embarrass the summer boarders," the old farmer said to his new hired man. "If I frown at you when we are at the table, that means for you to quit eating."
 "All right," replied the hired man. "I don't like to say much myself. If I frown back at you that means I ain't goin' to stop."

BEHOLD the stranger!

A stranger moves to your neighborhood. You observe him tolerantly, but with no immediate display of interest. You are an established resident, getting along very nicely before he came.

But you do not avoid him. For reasons not entirely unselfish you wait for him to reveal himself. Possibly he will take a highly respected place in the community. He may even become one of your intimates. It is up to him.

So you note his manners, talk with him, and form an opinion. If he comes up to your requirements, you accept him, and often he proves a welcome addition to your group of friends.

It is with exactly the same attitude that the intelligent newspaper reader regards the advertisements of products new to him.

These strangers may add something to his civilized enjoyment.

They may contribute to his comfort, safety—even his success.

In many ways they may prove valuable. Certainly it is wise to give them careful consideration.

Read the advertisements in this newspaper. They may be the means of introducing you to products that will take important places in your life. And every day they will give you information that enables you to buy intelligently and make your money go farther.

Variety In Color and Pattern, The Secret of Spring Smartness years and years, it was heresy to suggest that the male of the species might like to have a little color in his clothing. Such a notion was not to be dreamed of! At least, was the presumption which many manufacturers maintained.

But what a change has taken place since those drab, dark days. Brave individual whose name is lost to posterity, come forth in a full outfit. And the American who wanted no color, snickered and grinned and then went home to consult the secret dictates of his wife. And lo and behold! he went and bought some color to wear on his neck.

This was just the start. With the succeeding season, colors have become brighter, bolder and more cheerful to gaze upon. Color combinations have become daring and more individual. And does the cry, "Hold, enough?" Not on this! His cry is, "Lay on, Mas-

The Shirt Styles

Variety is the open sesame to shirt smartness. Variety in color, pattern, fabric and weave. Colors and patterns that might have made you hesitate last year are now given a hearty welcome.

Colors are richer, deeper. Yellow and gray combinations, rose or salmon shades set off by gray, deep wines lightened by silver are only a few examples of what to expect.

The Wide Spread Collar

This was taken up in this country in a small way after it was worn by the Prince of Wales. However, the Duke of Kent, the former Prince George really gave this style its present impetus.

You're going to see more of it this spring. It is comfortable as well as smart and can be worn by the man who didn't look well in a tab collar. Because the wide spread collar needs a larger knot, tie styles will be influenced by it.

New Talking Picture Shown

A new talking motion picture entitled "Partners" will provide a full hour of entertainment and education to farmers who attend John Deere Tractor Day, to be conducted by McNeill & Smith Hardware Co., local farm equipment dealer, aided by representatives of the John Deere organization.

This picture which is being enthusiastically received by farmers in other localities takes the audience into the huge John Deere Tractor plant at Waterloo, Iowa, and shows how tractors are built and tested.

From the factory the cameraman takes the audience out into the field to see John Deere Tractors at work. Women in the picture of a story of how a father and his son became partners on the farm.

The meeting will be in session at McNeill & Smith Hardware Co., Haskell on April 1st.

"We invite every farmer in this section to be our guest and we particularly want the boys to come," says H. M. Smith. "The program will be in charge of men who are thoroughly familiar with tractors. In plain, understandable language and illustrations they will demonstrate the latest developments in tractors and the best ways to keep the farm tractor tuned up for greatest efficiency.

"We are planning to make this a social affair, but at the same time a very worthwhile affair to farmers and their families. We are counting on a big crowd coming in to enjoy the big day with us."

John Deere Tractor Day is proving exceptionally popular with farmers as evidenced by the picture above which shows an interested group at one of these meetings.

Clothes Closets Result of Much Careful Planning

Two clothes closets will result from careful planning by Mrs. V. A. Vancow, first year ward, the demonstration of the O'Brien Home Demonstration Club. The sheet rock partitions that is between two bed rooms is being set over and a door being added in each room, making the only expense the cost of the closet doors. All of the space is being taken from one of the rooms, which is large enough for this not to spoil the size of the bedroom.

Mrs. Vancow and family spent the week end in Ranger visiting with the farmer's brother.

Bulk Up Strength By Taking Cardui

Here's her own account of how Mrs. T. W. Hardin, of Greer, S. C., was benefited by taking Cardui: "I suffered a great deal from weakness in my back and pains in my side and felt so miserable," she writes. "I read of Cardui and decided to try it. I felt better after I took my first bottle, so kept on taking it as I felt such a need of strength, and it helped me so much."

Thousands of women testify Cardui benefited them. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician.
