Shoes, Physicals Top Priority List For Athletes

Dwain Nix of Cardinal's Sporting Goods will be at the Field House Tuesday, August 3, at 7:00 p.m. He will be selling shoes to both Junior High and High School students. There will be samples of four types of shoes to choose from (Nike, Pony, Riddell and Reebok). They will get your size and order at this time. Your shoes probably will be here the next Monday, so football players need to bring their last year's shoes to practice in the first week.

On Friday, July 30, Dr. Turner of Plainview will give physicals at 1:30 p.m. at the gymnasium. ALL of those wishing to participate in football, basketball, golf, tennis or track, and are entering Junior High or High School (7th or 9th Grade) MUST have a physical. The cost is $14 per student.

Donald Russell is at home in Plainview and doing pretty well following open heart surgery recently in an Albuquerque hospital. He suffered a heart attack while vacationing in New Mexico and was taken to a hospital in Roswell, from where he was moved to Albuquerque for surgery.

Deadline Monday For Disaster Applications

New legislation has been passed allowing producers with 100 percent loss of 1993 crops to file an application for disaster benefits at the ASCS office, according to Earlyne Hutsell, Briscoe CED.

This application must be filed by August 2, 1993. Legislation intended to cover low yields is still pending.

Producers with losses of 1993 crops occurring before August 1, 1993, and who wish to apply for disaster benefits on these crops, must apply by August 2 at the Briscoe County ASCS office.

County Roping Slated August 12

Leading off activities for the celebration of Briscoe County's 101st birthday will be the County Roping on Thursday, August 12. Books open at 5:00 p.m. for the AB and Open ropings.

Introduction of ropers will begin at 6:30 p.m., and the roping is to begin at 8:00 p.m. This will be sponsored by the Briscoe County Activities Association. The concession stand will be open.

Merchants Need To Respond

Merchants interested in a ribbon roping this year are asked to contact Hand Baird or Tobe Riddell.

Let one of these men know right away if your business is interested in participating in a Merchants' Roping. Each business would furnish a runner and ask a roper to represent it.

Senior Citizens to Celebrate Birthdays

Silverton Senior Citizens will have their monthly birthday party at the center beginning at 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, August 3.

Those who celebrated their birthdays in July will host the party for those who have birthdays in August.

Burson-Cox Vows Exchanged In Formal Church Ceremony

Miss Keeley Burson of 2425 30th, Lubbock, became the bride of Kraig Cox of Crosbyton in a formal double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Jerry Miller of Decatur at two o'clock in the afternoon on Saturday, July 17, 1993, at the First Baptist Church in Silvertown.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Burson of Silvertown. The bridegroom is the son of Lynn Cox of Lubbock and Tena Tiffin of Quitaque.

Vows were exchanged beneath an archway covered with tulle caught with satin bows and dried flowers topped with cherubs. The archway was flanked by candelabra entwined with English ivy and a pair of dried rose topiary trees. Windows of the church held arrangements of candles, ivy and cherubs. Pews were marked with white satin bows and English ivy.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white crystalline and satin. It was lavishly embroidered with pearls and iridescent sequins. The Sabrina neckline was edged with embroidered lace, and featured a cascade of pearl strands at the center front of the neckline. Her fitted bodice was styled with a basque waistline, and appliques of the lace embroidered with pearls and sequins overlaid the bodice. A large candybox bow was at the back waistline. Her back bodice was cut to a low V, and three strands of pearls draped across the upper part of the bodice. Her long sleeves were styled of satin and crystalline, with the upper part of the sleeves being full and embroidered with lace and pearls. The sleeves from the elbow down were of sheer illusion and had appliques of lace and pearls. Her bouffant skirt was designed with nine wide ruffles of crystalline, each edged with filament, and as the skirt swept around to the back, five additional ruffles were added which swept into a full cathedral train.

Her waist-length veil of tulle was caught by a pouf of tulle and a band of pearls, appliques and sequins. On her right, pearls, appliques and sequins cascaded to below her ear.

She carried a fresh cascading bouquet of white cymbidium orchids, white larkspur, German Statice and English ivy.

Observing bridal tradition, she carried handkerchiefs which had belonged to her paternal grandmother and borrowed pearl earrings from her cousin, Amy Burson. Something new was her veil, and she added a blue bow garter made by her maternal

Serving her sister as matron of honor was Kim George of Tulia. She wore a tea-length dress of green and burgundy floral print polished cotton. The off-the-shoulder design was accented at the sleeves with rosettes of the dress fabric. She carried a heart-shaped wreath covered with green and burgundy dried flowers, and had a wreath of the dried flowers caught in her hair.

Bridesmaids were Kenzie Burson of Silvertown, sister of the bride; Amy Burson of Lubbock, cousin of the bride; Tara Nance of College Station and DeLyn Sanders of San Angelo. Their dresses, flowers and wreaths were identical to those of the matron of honor.

Flower girls were Jade Hammer of Lubbock, niece of the bridegroom, and Whitney George of Tulia, niece of the bride. They wore white tea-length dresses and carried white baskets accented with pleated tulle, white satin ribbons and dried flowers filled with dried rose petals.

Serving his brother as best man was Jamie Cox of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Jon Pigg, Silvertown; Todd Davis, Plainview; Dusty George of Tulia, brother-in-law of the bride, and Brandon Stark, Quitaque. Guests were seated by Dusty George, Todd Davis and Jamie Cox.

LaRue Garvin played traditional nuptial selections, and Gary Don and Julie Solomon, cousins of the bridegroom, played the piano and sang "To Me" and "I'll Be There."

The bride's mother wore a street-length floral print suit and added a corsage of dried flowers. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a street-length dress of floral print and also wore a corsage of dried flowers.

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church following the ceremony. The refreshment tables were covered with white satin cloths draped with tulle caught with white satin bows and English ivy.

Sterling silver appointments were used by Mary Lane Younger and Tracy Stark in serving refreshments. Guests served themselves punch from a flowing fountain at a table decorated like the bride's table.

The three-tiered cake was decorated with satin and lace icing, and miniature cherubs played among ivy and pearls on all three tiers of the bridal confection.

Tracy Stark of Canyon directed guests to the registry where they signed their names in the couple's wedding book. Rice bags were distributed to guests by Kathy Welch of Kress, cousin of the bride.

Judy Welch of Kress, aunt of the bride, was in charge of preparations in the kitchen.

Jill Ayers of Tulia served refreshments from the groom's table which held gold appointments, coffee poured from a gold urn, nuts and mints. The bridegroom's cake was made in the shape of a football.

The bride is a graduate of Silvertown High School and is a student at Texas Tech University. She is employed by Lubbock Federal Credit Union. Her husband is a graduate of Valley High School and received his degree in May 1992 from Texas Tech. He is a coach in Crosbyton I.S.D.

Following a wedding trip to Cancun, Mexico, the couple is at home in Crosbyton.

Stephens-Montague Vows Exchanged

April D'Ann Stephens became the bride of Rhett Cameron Montague on Saturday, June 26, 1993, at the First Baptist Church in Quitaque. The candlelight ceremony was performed by the Rev. Jerry Miller of Decatur.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Hamner of Quitaque and the late Monte Stephens. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Wilson of Clarendon, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Stephens of Flomot, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hamner of Turkey, Jewell Myers of Hugoton, Kansas and Juddie Stephens of Matador.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Younger of Silverton and the late Roland Montague. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whitfill of Silverton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Montague of Tulia and Eva Whitfill of Lockney.

Escorted and given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride wore an elegant Bonny Original in regal white satin. Her gown featured a sweetheart neckline with French pouf sleeves and the bodice was encrusted with pearls and jewels. Her waistline was adorned with pearl swirls and iridescent sequins, and her skirt was a sheath-style slimmed skirt featuring Venice lace medallions and crystallized hand-beaded designs. Her gown plunged to a low back, centered with a designer bow. Her train was all satin accented with European lace cut-outs, decorated with teardrop pearl-embroidered medallions and studded with jewels and swept into a chapel-length train.

Her layered tulle veil was shaped to her forehead with pearls and miniature white rosebuds as it fell to the top of her train with scalloped edges.

She carried a cascade bouquet of ivory roses, orchids and stephanotis accented with English ivy. The bride followed wedding tradition with something old being two pennies minted in the couple's birth years. Something new was her dress, and she borrowed a ring from her mother. She added a blue garter made by her grandmother.

Maid of honor was D'Ann Hill of Hereford. Bridesmaids were Natalie Burkes and Brittany Hamner, sister of the bride, both of Quitaque, Tonya Hoyle of Matador and Jana Johnson of Turkey.

Best man was Russell Kearby of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Brad West, Jamie Frizzell and Will Rowell, all of Silverton, and Neal Edwards of Amarillo.

Tobie Starkey, cousin of the bride, was flower girl and Chase Younger, nephew of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

Candles were lighted by Cody Whitfill of Hereford and Aaron Schrandt of Amarillo, both cousins of the groom.

Guests were seated by Tim Terrall of Lubbock, Brandon Eddleman of Amarillo and Shawn Stephens, brother of the bride, of Quitaque. Marla

Mrs. Rhett C. Montague

Ramaekers of Nazareth registered the guests.

Music was presented by Patsy Herrington at the organ. Lisa Lee of Amarillo sang "The Rose" and "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do."

RECEPTION

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church following the ceremony. Guests were served a variety of appetizers, including crab-filled cream puffs, calla lily sandwiches, finger sandwiches, salmon loaf, spinach balls, asparagus roll-ups, and the table was beautifully-accented with a fruit centerpiece.

The groom's cake was a German chocolate tiered confection accented with English ivy and a coffee service was provided.

The wedding cake was a beautiful three-tiered Italian cream cake topped with a Precious Moments collectible.

Assisting at the reception were Lisa Lee, Stephanie Thornton and Amber Schrandt, all of Amarillo, and Marla Ramaekers of Nazareth. Rice girls were Micah and Contessa White, cousins of the groom, of Hereford.

Following a wedding trip to Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, the newly-married couple are making their home in Amarillo and are continuing their education at West Texas A&M University.

BAD HABITS MAY BE FUN,
 BUT WE PAY THE PRICE LATER

Many of us, because of job stress, family problems, or just being "one of the gang," have fallen into the trap of tobacco, alcohol or some other drug, and have become addicted. "I can quit any time I want to," we say, but some of us never seem to want to. "It's fun." "I enjoy it." "It calms my nerves." "It makes me feel happy." Maybe it is fun now, but we will eventually have to pay the price in permanent damage to the heart, lungs, liver, brains, and worst of all, our unborn children. And speaking of children, we should teach them to shun these things, before it's too late. Prevention is a lot easier than trying to stop, once we're "hooked." Your clergyman can be of great help in this situation, so have a talk with him. It's a vital first step.
