Celin Elizabeth Craft 78, was held from the home of her daughter, Dr. and Mrs. W. P. Farrington in Munday this morning with Rev.

Baptist Church conducting the services, assisted by Rev. M. E.
Slover.

tucky and came to Texas with her family in 1891. She had been making her home with her daughter at Munday for several years. She became ill Wednesday morning and passed away at 11:00 o'clock.
Interment was in the Munday cemetery with W. O. Holden of Jones, Cox & Company of Haskell in charge of arrangements.
The deceased is survived by three daughters and one sister, Mrs. W. P. Farrington, Munday;

Rodeo Will Be Main Feature of Cowboy Reunion

Although there will be many worthwhile attractions on the program of the seventh annual Texas Cowboy Reunion to be held in Stamford July 2, 3 and 4, the chief entertainment feature of the Reunion will be the rodeo, featuring the cowhands from the ranches.
Word has been received from numerous contestants and visitors of former years that they will be on hand this year when the gates swing open on July 2. In addition many Centennial visitors to Texas are expected to witness the rodeo that has been classified as "an authentic survival of a typically Western institution." Farmer years have seen crowds of 50,000 and 85,000 visitors here during the three days. This year conservative estimates place the attendance at an even greater figure.

Seven rodeo events are on the card for this year's show. Three rodeo performances will be held each day during the Reunion—morning, afternoon and night.
Cash prizes in the rodeo events total $1800. Prize saddles, boots, spurs, hats and other premiums will swell the total prize list to approximately $2500.
Cash prizes will be given in bronze-busting, calf-roping, steer-riding and wild-cow-milking each day. A special junior steer-riding contest will be staged at night performances on July 3 and 4, and the winners will receive cash prizes. Cowboys over 18 years of age will compete for honors on July 3 and 4 in a special calf-roping contest, the winner to receive a hand-made saddle.
In addition to these attractions, a cutting horse contest will be held on the morning of July 3.
This contest has always been popular with the spectators, because more depends upon the skill of the horse than the ability of the rider. It is particularly popular with the cowboys who like to boast of the skill and intelligence of their horses. Each contestant must cut five head of cattle, de-

WATER MINIMUM UP 4,000 GALLONS FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Reduction In Line With PWA Ruling; Effective
On June Bills

Seven thousand gallons of water will be allowed as the minimum by the City again this year according to John Rike, City Water Commissioner. The new rate will apply to the month of June, July and August.
For several years the city has made a special summer rate, increasing the minimum from 3,000 to 7,000 gallons to the users, in order that more water may be used for irrigating purposes.
It has been rumored around town that the city would be unable to make any concessions this year, since the acceptance of a Federal PWA loan and grant for the improvement of the water system, it would be impossible for the council to comply with the regulations of the PWA office and give a reduction in the rates during the summer. In a letter received by Mr. Rike early in the week it was stated that the matter of a reduction for summer use would be left entirely with the City officials.
Mr. Rike stated that the reduction would apply on the June water bills.
Miss Grace Sewell district administrator, of Texas Relief Commission of Wichita Falls, was here Monday and Tuesday of this week.

Candidates First Speaking Dates on Pre- Arranged Schedule Tomorrow at O'Brien

Candidates for office will make their first bid for votes from the speakers platform tomorrow night at O'Brien, when they observe the first "speaking date" of the current campaign in conformity with a pre-arranged schedule adopted earlier in the year which pledged candidates to refrain from attending the various box and pie suppers which are generally prevalent during election year.
A large crowd is expected to congregate in O'Brien for the first "speaking", which will likely be an open air affair. Arrangements were being perfected the first of the week for the utilizing of a loud speaker equipment, and this facility will likely be used throughout the campaign when speaking dates are held in the various towns, if it proves successful at O'Brien.
Every candidate for county and district office, including those who are unopposed, will be expected to appear on the platform Friday night, according to announcement.
A chairman will be appointed, and a limited time will be allotted each speaker.
The schedule for speaking as arranged among the candidates, will take them to every town in the county, closing at Haskell on the Friday night preceding the election.

THIRTEEN MEMBERS FIRE DEPARTMENT ATTEND CONVENTION

State Meet Opened Tuesday In Fort Worth; Record Crowd Attends

Some thirteen members of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department were off for the "time of their life" at the State Fire Convention in Fort Worth this week.
Included in the group were four accredited delegates of the state body, whose attendance at the State Meet has a bearing on the local fire insurance rating.
These delegates were Jess Collier, Chief; Clay Smith, Fire Marshal; and a representative from each of the local fire companies: R. L. (Bob) Harrison and R. A.
Hays, representing Companies No.
1 and 2.
Other members attending, each of whom is required to attend a part of the state sessions, include the following: Frank Reynolds, Shady Lane Chas. Redwine, Rhe-Eastland, A. Pate, Garner Mays, Carl Maples, P. G. Kendrick, Bert Welsh.
The convention proper opened Tuesday morning, and will close today (Thursday). Most of the VIOLATORS OF LIQUOR LAW PAY STATE $50,000

Discouraged because they are finding it so expensive, bootleggers and other convicted of violating Texas' new liquor law have already paid out approximately $50,000 in fines and court costs.
A number of others have gone to jail.
These facts were revealed this week in a preliminary survey by the Liquor Control board's enforcement division at Austin.
"If we can continue to make it so costly, the people who are breaking the law will have it impressed on them that there's no profit in what they're doing," declared Liquor Administrator Charles R. Miller. "When we finally succeed in taking the profit out of their business, these people are going to fold up and quit." Actual money paid in fines amounted to $37,895.50, but an additional $11,914 in court costs brought the total to $49,810.50, Administrator Miller disclosed.
Counts in which convictions result are enriched by the money paid in fines, he explained. Specifically, it goes to road and bridge funds.
Since the liquor control act went into effect, inspectors have filed 1559 cases and have disposed of 784, leaving 775 pending.
There have been 24 jail sentences —ranging from one day to 60—and only 31 acquittals.
Fines after convictions have usually been from $10 to $100, but the maximum of $1000 was assessed in a San Antonio case. The most severe jail sentence—60 days —was given a liquor-sale-by-drink violator in Houston.
"The Liquor Control board's inspectors have encountered many difficulties in their enforcement work but it has been uniformly successful where cooperation of local officials was forthcoming," Miller asserted.
Miller said completion of the survey, which will include information from some counties yet unreported, undoubtedly would show an increase in the amount of money paid in fines.

FIRE DAMAGES GIN IN MIDNIGHT BLAZE HERE LAST THURSDAY

Origin of Fire Is Unknown; Insurance Partly Covers $10,000 Loss

The gin plant and machinery of Duncan Gin Company in this city was damaged to the extent of ten or eleven thousand dollars by fire which was discovered shortly before midnight last Thursday. W.
A. Duncan, owner, announced that the loss was partially covered by insurance.
Through efforts of firemen, the blaze was confined to the center section of the plant, and was prevented from spreading to the seed house, cotton storage house, and the engine room of the plant.
When first discovered, the fire had gained considerable headway around the cotton press and condenser, and the flames gradually ate their way through the upper part of the structure and had almost reached the engine room before firemen were able to extinguish them after stringing four lines of hose to the burning building.
Origin of the fire is unknown, but more than likely was caused from a smoldering cigarette discarded by night prowlers, according to Fire Marshal Clay Smith.
The gin, owned by W. A. Duncan and associates, is valued at approximately $25,000.
Work will be started as soon as possible on repairing damage and installing new equipment where necessary, it was stated.

Accident Occurs When Gin Pole Breaks Loose From Mooring

Funeral service for Ralph Kirkpatrick, 27, accident victim, son of Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Kirkpatrick, prominent Haskell county residents, were held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon from his parents home ten miles east of Haskell. The service was conducted by Rev. Orion W. Carter, of Memphis, Texas, former Haskell pastor, assisted by Rev. R. N. Huckabee, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Haskell.
Interment was in Willow Cemtery, Haskell, with arrangements directed by W. O. Holden of Jones, Cox & Company.
Kirkpatrick, former Haskell High School grid star, and one of the most popular young men of Haskell, was instantly killed Monday shortly after noon when he was struck by a falling timber as he was working some forty feet from the ground on a column of the city's new water tower now under construction.
The Haskell men had been employed on the project since it was started some two weeks ago by the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Co., contractors.
Monday morning, Kirkpatrick and a fellow workman, Felix Miller, were ascending two of the supporting columns of the tower, cleaning the columns preparatory to applying a coat of paint. At noon the two men had reached a point just above the first struts of the tower, and the mishap in which Kirkpatrick was fatally injured occurred when the heavy fifteen foot gin pole atop the tower, some 110 feet from the ground, broke loose from its moorings and crashed toward the ground, deflected in its course several times by struts and braces, and striking Kirkpatrick squarely in the forehead as he looked up after shouted warnings of fellow workers. Rushed to the Stamford Hospital in a Kinney Ambulance Kirkpatrick was pronounced dead from a fractured skull.
Rendered instantly unconscious, the injured man dangled in his rope "saddle" with one foot through the lacing of the column, until lowered to the ground by fellow workers. First to reach him was C. E. Francis and H. W. Miller, and aided by W. C. Rogers, project foreman, and Felix Miller, an emergency line was attached to the victim's body by which he was lowered.
The untimely death of "Straw" as he was more familiarly known to practically everyone in Haskell, where he was born and reared, came as a stunning shock, and the news quickly spread throughout the city. His fellow-workers on the project all of whom had become attached to the young man during their brief acquaintance, were visibly affected by the tragedy—first fatality to occur on a project of the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Company in several years they stated. Further work on the tower was suspended until after funeral service for Kirkpatrick.
Born July 14, 1909, in Haskell, Ralph attended Haskell High School where he was an outstanding member of the Indians football team, and took a prominent part in other school athletics.
He was a member of the Methodist Church.
Immediate survivors are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Kirkpatrick, a brother, Kirby, and a sister, Mrs. Ben Bagwell, all of Haskell; brothers, Jack Kirkpatrick of Rodessa, and W. E. Kirk-

Haskell To Be Advertised At Ft. Worth Show

Depicting the growth and developing of Haskell County, a 2x5 foot panel will be prominently displayed in the permanent West Texas Chamber of Commerce building, located on the Frontier Centennial grounds at Ft. Worth, according to Ralph E. Duncan, Secretary of the local Chamber of Commerce.
The decision was made recently by the board of directors to release the display space for Haskell County, in order that the visitors to the Centennial may learn of the growth and development of this section of Texas.
The panel will set forth the population of Haskell and Haskell County, the annual rainfall and other data regarding the development of the county during the past 50 years.

Veterans Bonus Bonds Delivery Only Week Away

Bonds Due Here Immediately After June 15

Not only are the veterans and members of their immediate families going to be helped by the payment of adjusted service bonds, but business generally is expected to receive a definite impetus when the bonds are received in Haskell county immediately following June 15th. It is estimated that a million dollars will be paid to Haskell county veterans of the World War.
Originally Haskell County veterans had a total of probably four or five hundred thousand dollars coming to them in bonus money, but it is estimated that almost one-half the amount has already been drawn. Average amounts to be received June 15th by most of the men run from $350 to $750.
The largest amount any veteran can receive is approximately $1-500.

Seasoned by years of experience following the World War, 18 years that have been hard years to many of the men, the greater portion of the bonus money is going to be wisely spent. Many of the veterans will buy land or houses, and some will buy needed farm machinery or livestock.
Some will improve the property they already own. Some will pay off debts that have been contracted, some will put their bonus money into life insurance, and some will buy automobiles.
Whatever the money is spent for, it will aid business. There is scarcely a person in Haskell county but who will in some way benefit by the bonus payment.
How the Bonus Will Be Paid Veterans will receive their bonds by mail, promptly after June 15th. The bonds will be mailed from Dallas on that date, and are expected to arrive in Haskell sometime Tuesday. They will come by registered mail and must be signed for by the veteran.

Delivery can be made to no other person.
Postmaster J. M. Diggs, messing with ex-service men at the Legion Hall last Friday night, outlined the following procedure which would be followed in delivering the bonds to Haskell veterans.
All of the bonds will be taken to the Legion Hall, third floor of the courthouse, where speedier delivery can be made. Mr. Diggs and assistant postmaster Manly Branch will deliver and take receipts for the bonds from each veteran. Those who desire to cash their bonds may fill out the certificate in the presence of the postmaster, and will be given a receipt for their bonds, which will be sent immediately to Dallas, from where checks in payment will be issued.
All ex-service men who do not calling for their bonds at the Legion Hall, may receive them later at the postoffice. Idea in making first delivery at the Hall is to afford quicker distribution to the veterans, without interfering with regular mail delivery at the postoffice.

Mr. Diggs also told veterans that they could cash their bonds in any amount—either one bond or all of them. He cautioned them, however, regarding the strict regulation under which bonds must be signed before payment is made.
The veterans signature must be witnessed in every instance by the postmaster, and signing in any other method invalidates the certificate, according to regulations.
Ex-service men desiring detailed information concerning the bonds should get in touch with Mr. Diggs at the postoffice, or with American Legion officers.

SEYMOUR OFFICERS CAPTURE MAN AFTER 44-MILE CHASE

Sheriff Chloé Shavver and Deputy Pat Tallafiero made an unusual chase and an unusual haul Monday afternoon, as a result of which J. L. Pipes and Frank Archery of Wichita Falls are charged here with illegally transporting liquor.

The officers jumped the men northeast of Seymour. The chase led along dirt roads north of Seymour back to the Benjamin highway, then along the highway into Knox county. The fleeing car turned off and went by Rhineland. Southwest of Rhineland the officers got close enough to fire close enough to the fugitives that they stopped and surrendered.

Their car was found to be a 1936 model Chevrolet coupe with overload springs, and in it were 816 pints of whiskey. The men with their car and its contents were brought back to Seymour, and the men lodged in jail. They made bond Tuesday and were released.—Baylor County Banner.

DEATH CLAIMS LIFE PARTNERS OF SIXTY YEARS

Death visiting in the same home within 17 hours, claimed two pioneer Taylor countians. D. M. Matthews, 83, resident of the White Church community, died at 6:15 Sunday morning. At 11:35 p. m. NO MATTER how you classify your expenditures for car up-keep — it's your total expenditure that counts. How much "dollar mileage" is your car giving you?

Dollars do go farther in the Ford V-8. Modern improved carburetion gives you unusual gasoline mileage with brilliant V-8 performance. Most owners of today's Ford change oil only every 2000 miles and add none between changes.

And after the first few thousand miles you begin to understand what Ford V-8 "dollar mileage" really means.

It gives you more miles per gallon because it gives you all-round economy — low first cost, low up-keep cost, precision and long life — as well as gasoline and oil consumption. These are big items if you aim to buy an economical car.

THANKS

I wish to thank all my customers who by their patronage and purchases of Philco Radios, batteries and tubes made it possible for me to win a place on the Philco Cruise from which I returned last week.

I certainly had an enjoyable time. The trip took me through seventeen states, Washington D. C., Canada and Cuba.

There were eight hundred and thirty-two dealers on this cruise and Philco is making three cruises, carrying twenty five hundred dealers.

One of the best treats we had was a trip through the world's largest Radio Factory at Philadelphia. There were over ten thousand men and girls there building Philco Radios.

After seeing Philco Radios made it is easy to understand why they out-perform and out-sell any other Radio made.

CHURCHES

JUNIOR CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

The meeting was called to order by the leader, Mrs. Gillmore, and a continued discussion of the lives of children in Mexico was entered into by the children present.

All the children entered into the song service led by Janice Pace.

HIGH SCHOOL CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Subject: "The Criminals: How Society Receives Him." The criminal has no regards for the rights of others. We should teach the children in the home, school and church to think of others. We need stricter enforcement of our present laws, and more perfect justice in courts.

Since kidnapping has become a capital offense, we have less of that crime.

Leader for Sunday, June 14—Frank Baldwin.
Subject—Mob Violence.

INTERMEDIATE CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR

Jean Conner led one of the most interesting programs that this Endeavor has had. The subject "The Beatitudes". Those who read and discussed and applied the teachings to our lives were: Patsy Pate, Sue Pate, Martha Post, Beunis Fay Ratliff and Theodore Pace.

Special Music, "Wood Fairies" George Cumberland, played by Martha Post.

The Junior G. A.'s met at the Baptist Church June 8, 1936. Our program was about Japan. Four of the girls were dressed in Japan clothes. Onella Moore told all about the Japanese ways. Mrs. Ed Fouts our leader sang "Jesus Loves Me" in Japanese. Japanese tea was served to twelve G. A. girls and six B. A. boys and the leaders, Mrs. Everett and Mrs. Ed Fouts.

THE CHURCH OF CHRIST

A. F. Thurman, Minister

Don't miss this one "The Thousand Years Reign of Christ." What about it, anyway? It has many very interesting features in it. His reign, how, when, where? 11 a. m. Sunday, is the hour set for the discussion of this subject.

Here is one that is not uninteresting, "Church Inspection". This subject will be discussed Sunday evening, 8:15. The subject of the Church should have and hold an interest for everyone. Jesus our Lord and Master, you know, gave his blood that he might have the Church—His Church. And, he is going to save it, His Church. Paul says, He, Christ, will save the Body, His Church. Reading the following—Eph. 5:23. Say, while you are at this chapter, read the entire chapter. You will say, no doubt, "It's good reading". No book like the Bible, we all admit. We may read it too seldom, but not too often. Read, study, pray, obey.

To have you with us, we are all very glad. Come!

SAGERTON METHODIST CHURCH

Woodrow Adeock, Sagerton Methodist pastor, will preach Sunday morning and evening with "My Temple of God's Spirit" and "God's Power to Heal" as sermon subjects for the respective services. Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock in the morning and Young People's meeting at 7:45 in the evening. The Sagerton Church cordially invites the public to attend these services.

BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be a Study Course for all the young people of the town beginning Monday night the 15th, conducted by Rev. Kelley Barnett of Abilene, Texas.

Bro. Barnett is a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University and has made a specialty of working with the young people. If you miss these meetings you will miss a blessing.

INTERMEDIATE B. Y. F. U.

The following program will be given at the church Sunday evening at 7:30.

Subject: A Visit to an Empty Tomb.

We Travel Again — Anita Jo Simmons.
From Calvary to the Tomb — Jerry Conner.
An Empty Tomb — Frankie Doris Bledsoe.
With Mary in the Tomb — Jimmy Crawford.
The Mount of Olives — Wilma Whately.
The Ascension — Frances Fouts.

Some of the Rochester folks got Centennial minded and left for Dallas to help start the jubilee celebration off. I've an idea the rest of us will follow suit when we get shorter and cooler if we can get the price.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The combination thousands of people have found of Peppermint, Senna and Licorice has proved them to be the best laxative combination for the relief of constipation. The great relief to the constipated Black-Draught; the purgative probably will prefer it when they compare their children here of sweet. . . Mrs. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky. writes: "I have used Thompson's Black-Draught (purgative) about thirty years, finding it the best. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I would like to see the laxative for my children. I have found Senna of Black-Draught to be just that."

Ford Building to House Pageant of Transportation

Building operations are under way on the Ford Exposition Building, model of which is shown above, for the Texas Centennial at Dallas, according to officials of the Ford Motor Company.

The Central Contracting Company of Dallas, Texas, has been awarded the general contract for the Ford Exposition Building. It was announced today. The same firm was previously given the foundation contract. The plumbing and ventilating contract will be let later this week.

Excavation for one hundred twenty-one column footings and the pouring of approximately eight hundred cubic yards of concrete for the foundation will be completed this week. Erection of three hundred sixty-three tons of steel will be started immediately, according to officials of the Mober Steel Company of Dallas, who were given the steel contract. It is estimated the steel frame work will be completed April 12th. The building will be of steel, concrete and sheetrock. It will be completed for the opening of the Exposition June 6th.

The structure which will have a complete air cooling and humidifying system, will contain 55,000 square feet, of which forty-three thousand square feet will contain an interesting group of exhibits showing manufacturing and testing processes used by the Ford Motor Company at its River Rouge plant at Dearborn, Michigan. There will also be a pageant of transportation, dioramas showing the progress of raw materials from the soil of the Southwest to the finished parts of Ford cars and an exhibit from the Henry Ford Trade School.

An outdoor court adds thirty-six thousand square feet to the exhibit's total space. The court will be attractively landscaped with trees, shrubs and flower beds. There will be comfortable chairs and benches distributed in the court where visitors may relax in the shade under colorful umbrellas. There will also be a display of passenger and commercial cars and trucks in the court.

On one side of the Ford Building will be a group of nine reconstructed historic roads and trails known as the "Roads of the Southwest." Each unit of the series will be surfaced with an exact duplicate of the original paving material used on the roads which played important roles in the development of the Southwest. Included in the roads will be San Antonio Road, Fort Worth Pike, "Chisholm Trail," Butterfield Stage Road, Santa Fe Trail, Pan American Highway, Yuma Road, Magazine Street in New Orleans, and Main Street in Dallas.

Meat Cuts and How to Cook Them

BEEF CHART

Every housewife is confronted with the three-day question of variety in the meals she serves. In beef we become addicted to roasts or steaks and forget all about the other good beef cuts which will give pleasing variation and be easy on the pocketbook, too. Perhaps our trouble lies in the fact that we are not as familiar as we should be with many of the possibilities offered by beef. If you are one of those whose use of beef is limited to a roast or a steak, the chart given above will be invaluable in learning to identify and locate the many retail cuts of beef. The chart will show you at a glance just how each one should be cooked. You will want to preserve this chart for ready reference.

DEFIES RESPECT OF NATION

The news from Michigan about the "Black Legion" reads like a very bad dream; and the most dream-like thing about it is the fact that morose hoodlums who dedicate their organization to violence and murder should insist that they are furthering "100 per cent Americanism." Reports that the group has 13,000 members in Michigan and has been responsible for two or three dozen deaths seem too fantastic to be taken seriously. Indeed, the whole business is too fantastic to be worth talking about if it were not for this one fact: The times are so unsettled, and the future is so cloudy, that no American who loves his country can afford to remain silent when a group which seeks to enforce its will by blackmail and revolver appears on the horizon. These precious strongarm men from Detroit apparently had no guiding principles other than a general devotion to the policy of interfering in their neighbors' lives—a sort of officiousness which is nothing but the spirit of the small town busybody turned cancerous. That they have been able to enlist a large number of people in their organization merely indicates that there are more fools in the land than we ordinarily suppose.

OUR 'REPUTATION' ABROAD

Out of New York, news wires recently carried this brief: "A group of European tourists, arriving today on the liner Grolstein, refused to land until Customs Officer Arthur Webb assured him they would not be shot immediately by gangsters." Trivial and absurd on the face of it, of course. It makes little difference what a handful of European tourists think of us over here. But the significance of this affair lies in the reasons back of this odd European conception of America and Americans. We have tolerated the criminals and condoned the corruption of public office for so long that it is difficult now to stand before the world as a nation of essentially honest people. Our indifference to lawlessness not only injured our national character, but it smeared our reputation at the same time.

CIVILIAN 'INSURANCE'

One million Boy Scouts are leading the nation in a drive to build up in the Federal Bureau of Investigation at Washington, the largest and most valuable civilian fingerprint collection in the world. Decision of the Scouts to add their prints to the already voluminous file is a step toward the day when the distinguishing marks of all law-abiding citizens would be recorded voluntarily for protection against kidnaping, accident, loss of memory, or mistaken identity. Department of Justice officials already report that the civilian file now started has proved of infinite value in countless cases. It is certainly desirable that the public volunteer in building up this civilian file. In a sense, it's a kind of insurance.

NO WAR IS IMPOSSIBLE

One often hears some speaker declare that war between the United States and Great Britain is "impossible," that the ties of blood will always prevent such a catastrophe and that the two nations will find friendly methods to solve all their disputes. For this reason it might be well to ponder the warning of the Rev. Bernard Idings Bell, of Providence, R. I., who recently told a London audience "let us not be too sure of our Anglo-American friendship." Certainly, the people of each nation must understand that there is no such thing as automatic friendship and realize that, unless preserved intentionally, the best of friendships come to an end.

THE ALCOHOL PROBLEM

There are abundant signs that repeal of the prohibition amendment did not permanently solve the alcohol problem for the United States. The advocates of prohibition are beginning to point out present-day evils and to insist that some remedy must be found. Some of them frankly "take it for granted" that prohibition, as we had it, will be a failure. So far, however, we have seen nothing new suggested.

WILL WE HAVE TO HUNT FOOD?

Little drops of water and little grains of sand, when accumulated, amount to something, in fact as well as in figure. And made the mighty ocean and the land. During a recent dust storm in Oklahoma Dr. Richard L. Foster, chemistry professor at Panhandle A. & M. College, estimated that 39,780,000 tons of top soil were "blown" over Texas country, where more than six inches of land were removed from 397,800 acres.

AMERICAN PLACE NAMES

A Florida train caller says a mouthful when he announces "All aboard for Chokoloskee, Chuluota, Apalachicola, Aripaka, Cassadaga, Chattahoochee, Estifanuga, Hialeah, Holopaw and Homosassa."

Thin Kind of Weather

We're having the kind of weather now that Bill Nye referred to when he wrote "Winter is lingering in the lap of spring until the neighbors are beginning to talk."—The Chicago Tribune.

CURRENT COMMENT

UNCLE SAM SAYS O K

(Semi-Weekly Farm News)

Thomas H. MacDonald, Chief of the United States Bureau of Good Roads, analyzes the successful operation of the Texas Highway Department in the past decade. His statement of its exceptional efficiency carries the conviction of knowledge and experience. A large part of the expenditure on Texas roads in that period has been made by the Federal Government. The money is spent solely when the Federal authorities are satisfied with plans and administration. There are States from which Federal aid has been withheld, because the Government lacked faith in either the integrity or the efficiency of State control. Texas itself came under this ban, prior to the reorganization of the department in Gov. Dan Moody's first administration.

The Bureau of Good Roads chief places credit for the Texas situation squarely at the desk of State Highway Engineer Gibb Gilchrist. Says Thomas H. MacDonald: "For nine of the ten years, Gibb Gilchrist has been the administrative head and has suffered no interference in creating an organization with men whose only recommendation is their ability, the fundamental cause of the high efficiency that has been achieved in the work of this Highway Department."

In the last ten years, the chief of the Bureau of Good Roads reports that he has found the Texas Highway Department administered honestly, efficiently and progressively. There has been complete co-operation with the Federal Government, the requisite vision to adopt forward-looking policies to build for the future, to utilize sound, economic construction and cut maintenance costs. MacDonald urges that once a group of competent men has been brought into a smooth-working organization, it should be safeguarded against political interference. For the Texas Highway Department every Texan interested in good roads should insist that the present organization should be maintained.

Haskell County History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 30, 30 and 40 years ago.

Forty Years Ago—1896
At an election for trustees, nine names were placed on the ballot, and the voting was rather promiscuous. Messrs. A. W. Springer and F. G. Alexander were elected, and there was a tie between Messrs. R. B. Fields and R. E. Sherrill, and the latter was appointed by Judge Sanders to complete the board of three. Fred Sanders returned from Georgetown, where he had been attending Southwestern University.

G. R. Couch was a candidate for re-election as County and District Clerk. Messrs. C. James, Will Pierson and Miss Alice Pierson, all of Haskell, were graduates of Baylor University with the Class of '96. A "pretty good" rain fell in the eastern and southeaster parts of the county.

District Court adjourned after a light term of "business." Several cases were disposed of by agreed or compromise judgements, and there were no criminal cases on the docket.

M. S. Shook's little boy, Roy, age about six, fell from a wagon and broke his arm, and one of S. W. York's little boys, while returning with his father from Seymour, had one of his arm broken when it caught in a wheel of the wagon.

Sherrill Bros. Company were headquarters for the Fulwiler Hack Line between Haskell and Abilene.

Three candidates were seeking the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector in 1896: J. W. Collins, M. E. Park, and W. B. Anthony.

At the primary held throughout the county on June 6th, the vote was about solid for silver, here being only one cast against it. The state administration was endorsed by nearly as heavy a vote and Hon. John H. Stephens received a large majority for Congressman from the 13th district.

Thirty Years Ago—1906
Grand Jury in session for the term made their final report and adjourned, after returning six felony indictments and twenty-six for misdemeanors. The body was in session nine days and questioned ninety-two witnesses.

A double wedding occurred at the Lindell Hotel in Haskell on Sunday, June 3, 1906, in which Mr. W. M. Bolander and Miss Mae McCutchen and W. G. Moore and Miss Eula McLain were married. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. H. Chambliss.

Miss Florence Couch returned home from Baylor University for her summer vacation.

Mr. D. Scott, of Farmersville, Texas, moved to Haskell and was to engage in the manufacture of brick and in contracting and building.

G. B. Powell, who did the fancy stone cutting for the Haskell county courthouse, when it was erected, returned to the city after an absence of about fourteen years. Miss May Fields, who had been teaching school at Mabank, Texas, returned to Haskell for the summer.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

THE CRUCIFIXION
International Sunday School Lesson for June 14, 1936

Golden Text: "God commendeth his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us."—Romans 5:8.

(Lesson Text Luke 22:31-46)

The Jews were not allowed to execute criminals therefore, after the Sanhedrin had condemned Jesus to death for blasphemy, it was necessary that charges be preferred against him before the Roman authorities who alone could have him killed.

Early Friday morning Jesus was carried before Pilate, the Roman Governor of Judea, a man pictured to us by those who knew him as cruel, selfish and corrupt. As Pilate would not be interested in any ecclesiastical accusation, the Jews changed the charges against Jesus.

They told Pilate that he pretended to be king and advised against payment of taxes to Rome. Even Pilate realized this was a subterfuge because such a position would have provoked approbation from the Jews.

Pilate had no desire to dispose of this particular problem. When Pilate the politician, remembered that Herod Antipas, the Governor of Galilee, was like himself a visitor in Jerusalem for the Passover, therefore, he told the Jews to carry Jesus to Herod. Thus Jesus came face to face with the murderer of John the Baptist, who himself was curious to see this prophet of whom so many had spoken. Jesus answered no question and performed no miracle, to Herod's chagrin, who thereupon had him arrayed in a fine robe and mocked.

Jesus was carried back to Pilate who knew that the dispute was over spiritual matters and felt that Jesus was innocent of wrongdoing. He had been warned by his wife's dream so that he wished to set Jesus free, but was without the courage to do so. He tried various expedients to accomplish his purpose. He had Jesus scourged and presented to his accusers a suffering and bleeding spectacle, but it brought no pity. Remembering a custom to free a prisoner on the Passover, he hoped that this would afford him a loophole, but the enemies of Jesus insisted that an insurrectionist named Barrabas be free.

Symbolically washing his hands Pilate allowed the Jews to proceed with the killing of Jesus. No one knows for certain the exact location of the scene of the Crucifixion, Calvary, or Golgotha, meaning "The Skull" in the present Christian quarter, where stands the church of The Holy Sepulchre, or north outside of the Damascus gate, beyond the present Moslem-median quarter. The former is the traditional site and five religious sects are rivals in conducting services and caring for it.

Two thieves were crucified along with Jesus. One reviled him for not rescuing them all from their fate, but the other recognized the goodness of Jesus and rebuked his companion, calling attention to the fact that they, at least, deserved their fates while Jesus was innocent. This thief asked Jesus to remember him in his kingdom and Jesus promised him that he would be with him in Paradise. No one reading the gospel account of this solemn scene can fail to be moved by a conviction of its sincerity.

Hanging on the cross and enduring the torture of the crucifixion, mocked and ridiculed by the soldiers and his Jewish enemies, Jesus seven times spoke, according to the gospel records. First, it was a plea for the forgiveness of his murderers. Then, his promise to the supplicant robber. Third, he commended his mother to the care of his mother. Fourth, he asked God why he had forsaken him. Fifth, an expression of physical agony, "My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?" Sixth, a word of success, "It is finished." Last it was a solemn commitment of his spirit into the hands of his Father.
