BRAVES DOWN HAMLIN TEAM IN TWO GAMES; PLAY AGAIN SUNDAY

Fans Witness Two Hard-Fought Battles for League Championship
Hambright Stars

Two down and one to go. The Haskell Braves, battling every inch of the way, shut out the Hamlin Pied Pipers Wednesday afternoon 2 to 0 and clinched game number two of the Wichita Valley league playoff series. In order to win the series now, the Pipers, whose "pipping" became pretty weak in the ninth inning yesterday, must win three straight games while the Braves are trying to win one. Behind the combind pitching of Tommy Hall, Wichita Falls, and Lefty Hambright, the Haskell Braves annexed their second game in a row for the league championship. Hall, who pitched unbeatable ball for the first six innings, became tired in the seventh and walked three batters in a row. Hambright took up the burden and only allowed one hit until the end of the game. Hamlin muffed two good chances to score. Once in the fourth inning he had tripled, and in the seventh when Hambright relieved Hall. With the bases loaded, and only one out, Bradford flied out to McClothin in deep right. The fielder then made a perfect peg to home late to catch the runner coming home. From that time on, the Pied Pipers placed only one man on base. McClothin, playing right field, figured in two of Haskell's three two-out kills by making phenomenal throws, and his one-base smash in the eighth scored Bradley, who had doubled. Bradley also scored Haskell's first run in the sixth on a sacrifice by Cox and a single to left field by Norman. Duncan hurled a steady game for the Pied Pipers, and made most of the Braves "pop" out. He made (Continued on Page Eight)

Ben Franklin Store To Open Saturday

Doors of the Ben Franklin Store, Haskell's new variety business, will open Saturday morning at nine o'clock, according to Hollis Atkinson, one of the proprietors. Mrs. Jim Williams are the other partners in the new business, and will be in active charge. Merchandise costing from five cents up will be sold. A large crew of salespeople and carpenters have been at work during the past two weeks arranging merchandise and the interior of the store, and it is expected that everything will be in readiness for the opening sale event Saturday. The local Ben Franklin stores is affiliated with approximately 2,500 other retail stores in this country. So far as buying power is concerned, according to the owners, but the local business is home-owned and operated. Affiliation was made in order that mass buying would permit the owners to sell merchandise at the people of this section as low as possible. The new store is located on the south side of the courthouse square.

Drawings of New School Building Now Being Shown

Pictures of the proposed new fourth ward school building which will be erected partly from FWA bonds and a local bond issue, have been placed on display at four business houses. Voters will trek to the polls here Saturday, August 31, to determine whether bonds shall be issued amounting to approximately $35,000 which will be spent only in case the new grant of about $20,000 is approved by the government. Present buildings are badly overcrowded, school officials say.

R. L. Lemmon Now With Hamlin Store
R. L. Lemmon who has been connected with the Perkins-Timberlake company for the past three years, has resigned his position and accepted a similar place with the Hamlin Store. Mr. Lemmon had been with Hamlin for a number of years before going with Perkins-Timberlake, when they opened their store here.

DEMONSTRATION ON TRENCH SILOS MADE

Under Supervision of E. R. Eudaly, Dairy Specialist; Others Contemplated

The first of a series of demonstrations planned for this section showing proper method of constructing trench silos, was held on the J. J. Pace farm southwest of Haskell Tuesday afternoon. Two 50-acre farms leased by Texas Rural Communities are located on the Pace land, and Tuesday's demonstration was on the 50-acre tract occupied by Streeter Reeves. The Haskell demonstration was conducted at the request of R. E. Skipworth, rural supervisor, and County Agent B. W. Chessier. E. R. Eudaly, dairy specialist with the Extension Service of A. & M. College, supervised the demonstration, and explained the purpose and benefits of this method of feed storage. Between seventy-five and one hundred farmers, and a number of Haskell business men witnessed the demonstration of constructing and filling the trench silo, which extension service leaders explained offered an inexpensive solution to the storage problem confronting farmers of this section in properly caring for the bumper feed crop produced this year. Several farmers in attendance expressed their intention of constructing the silos immediately. Chessier and Skipworth reported. "This type of silo, while it costs the farmer practically nothing except his labor, is not an experiment," Mr. Eudaly told the group, "but has been successfully used in northern states for many years, especially in the dairying states." Adapted by Texas farmers only in the past few years, the trench silo is gaining in favor, and more than 2,000 have been constructed in the state," Eudaly added. He pointed out that in years of abundant feed crops such as this section is now enjoying, farmers could utilize this method to assure ample feed for livestock for several years. County Agent Chessier and Mr. Skipworth plan to stage several more demonstrations in the county in the near future, they have announced.

Rochester Gins First Cotton Bale

The first bale of Haskell county cotton from the 1935 crop was ginned at Rochester Monday. The bale weighed 512 pounds and the seed weighed 600 pounds. The cotton was raised by Johnnie Williams and ginned by the Rochester Gin Company. A cash premium of $24.50 was given to Mr. Williams by the merchants and business men of Rochester.

Rev. Gaston Foote, A Former Pastor, Is McM Speaker

Dr. Gaston Foote, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church here, now pastor atampa, Texas, will deliver the commencement address for the August class of McMurry college, Abilene, Wednesday night, August 28. Dr. Foote, one of the leading young ministers of the Methodist church in Texas, has recently completed his Th. D. degree at the Tiffin school of Theology, Denver university. Since completion of his bachelor of arts degree, he has also received the master of arts and the bachelor of divinity degrees from Southern Methodist university. He is considered an able speaker.

Football Practice Will Start Here On Monday
Football practice will begin here Monday afternoon for the Haskell Indians; high school entry, and possible players are being told to report at four o'clock for checking purposes. At least 20 boys are expected to become members of the local squad at the start of the season.

Cut Weeds, Local Physician Says; Spite Black Widow

Have you a few black widow spiders around your home place? If your place is surrounded by weeds—especially dense forests of the Careless weed variety, black widow spiders may be your closest neighbors. Weeds and other vegetation are the chosen places for the breeding of the much publicized "black widder", so Dr. T. W. Williams, Haskell physician, says, and only a general, yet thorough, cutting of the weeds will eliminate the insect which has caused death to many people this year. Weed cutting campaigns are being inaugurated in many progressive cities in the state as health measures, but, again quoting Dr. Williams, no citizen of Haskell need wait for united city-wide action. All anyone has to do to help the cause is to take a hoe in hand and start cutting weeds. It might save someone's life, the physician adds.

COUNTY TAX RATE IS SET BY COURT

County Road Bond Levy Not Included Through Action Of State This Year

The tax rate for Haskell county was placed at 73 cents on a $100 valuation here last week by the Commissioners Court, the same sum which prevailed in 1934. No road bond tax will be due, however, which lowers the total amount to be paid from last year by twenty cents. Owing to the fact that sufficient tax money was on hand to retire the maturity on the county road bond indebtedness, the item was not included by the state, court members say. County road bonds were voted in 1930, but most of the burden, with the exception of twenty cents in the dollar, was assumed by the state and paid for out of the gasoline tax. The twenty cents was not asked for by the state this year, thereby giving Haskell county a reduction in the total tax rate heretofore prevailing. In compiling the 73 cent total, the commissioners slashed courthouse and jail maintenance from 15 cents and added two cents for jury and one cent for jail interest and sinking fund. The general fund was left at twenty-five cents, road and bridge at fifteen cents and courthouse interest and sinking fund at twelve. The rate was based on an approximate valuation of $8,000,000, the same as last year.

Residence of J. M. Cameron Destroyed By Fire Monday

The residence of J. M. Cameron in the east part of Haskell was destroyed by fire Monday night about 9 o'clock, together with practically all household effects. The fire, which started from an oil stove in the kitchen, spread rapidly throughout the dwelling, and firemen were unable to extinguish the flames until the entire structure was almost totally consumed. Loss on the house and contents is partially covered by insurance, Mr. Cameron stated.

Plans for Golden Jubilee Parade Made On "Transportation Progress"

When the annual Central West Texas Fair is opened here Wednesday October 16, one of the most colorful parades ever viewed in this section will be presented under the direction of Roy A. Sanders, chairman of the parade committee. Sanders, and his assistants, Dr. T. W. Williams and Lewis K. Sherman, are now making arrangements to stage the ever interesting affair in a manner entirely different heretofore prevailing. An attempt, backed by determination, will be made to recapture the romance of the pioneer life existing in 1835 through the use of costumes, ancient types of transportation and

FIVE BUSINESS PLACES ARE ROBBED WEDNESDAY NIGHT

Era of Lawful Reign Broken, But Officers on Job and Arrest Two Suspects Various Sums Taken

Comparatively free of lawlessness of any major consequence for the past several months, Haskell was the scene of burglarizing operations of almost "epidemic" proportions during Wednesday night—when five business places were looted, an automobile stolen from a Haskell resident, and an unsuccessful attempt made to enter the sixth establishment. Thorough-going as were the operations of the miscreants, city and county officers were only a step behind. Within an hour after all of the burglaries had been reported, two men were in jail, with Sheriff Kemp and City Marshal Al Cousins in possession of evidence against the couple which these officials state undeniably link the suspects with the series of robberies here. First to be reported to officers was the burglary of the safe at the ice plant of the West Texas Utilities Company, where the knob had been knocked from the safe, and the safe looted of its contents. Check by the company employees revealed that a sum of approximately $38.00 was taken from the safe. The warehouse of the Humble Oil Company, two blocks north of the ice plant, was next reported burglarized, thieves having gained access to the office safe and taken a small sum of money, according to J. E. Walling, Jr., company agent. This warehouse suffered a like loss early in July, when officers surprised two men in the act of looting the safe. One of the men was arrested at the time, his accomplice escaped. The Wichita Valley depot was also burglarized, the thieves using (Continued on Page Four)

REGISTRATION OF PIONEERS GROWING

Over 100 'Old Timers' Have Registered for Golden Jubilee Next Fall

And still they come. "Old Timers" of Haskell county who have witnessed the changes which have taken place in the last 50 years, and many of whom will help to celebrate this county's Golden Jubilee anniversary in October during the Central West Texas Fair here. Registration of all pioneers is being made by fair officials at the Oates Drug Store and the upstairs law office of Walter Murchison. Any "old timer", who moved here during the "80's" or any person who was born here and is now 50 years of age, not having registered up to the present time, is urged to do so as soon as possible. Names will be printed weekly until the celebration. Pioneers registering to date are as follows: A. D. English, 1889, Haskell; C. T. Jones, 1893, Weinert; J. V. Hudson, 1896, Haskell; M. S. Shook, 1890, Haskell; Al Cousins, 1895, Haskell; F. G. Alexander, 1894, Haskell; R. E. DeBard, 1891, Haskell; Chas. McGregor, 1888, Haskell; H. S. Post, 1885, Haskell; T. E. Ballard, 1884, Haskell; J. W. Williams, 1895, Haskell; M. M. Cobb, 1890, Leuders; M. E. Park. (Continued on Page Eight)

To Hold Revival

Rev. E. E. White, pastor of the Methodist church, Haskell, Texas, will do the preaching in a revival beginning August 25th at the Methodist church. Rev. Mr. White has been a very successful pastor and is known as one of the best pastor-evangelists in Texas. Two services will be held daily, with the evening service on the law. Mr. Noel Bryant of Hereford, Texas, and student at McMurry College, will lead the singing.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Series of Meetings Attracts Hundreds; Deep Interest Shown In Sermons

Large crowds continue to attend the revival meeting now in progress at the First Baptist church, according to the Rev. H. R. Whitley, pastor. The series of meetings will come to an end Sunday night. Deep interest is being manifested in the sermons being delivered by the Rev. Martin, Wichita Falls minister, and the singing of George Wilson, a member of the Sioux Indian tribe, has thrilled all hearing him. Extra seats had to be erected recently to accommodate the crowds.

School Board Purchases Bus

A modern type Superior all-steel school bus was purchased during the latter part of last week by the Haskell School Board for use this next year in transporting of rural high school students from the communities of Sayles, Center Point, Plainview and McConnell to the local school. Approximately 38 transfers were made to the Haskell High School from those communities recently. The new bus is modern in every respect, school board members say, and is both comfortable and safe. Jerry Carmichael has been hired as driver.

Production Credit Officials Explain Plans to Farmers

Plans and purposes of the Production Credit Corporation, Houston, were explained to Haskell county farmers at a meeting in the Midway community Monday night by Edward P. Onstot, field representative, Houston, and Martin McKain, secretary of the Stamford branch. Several Haskell men were present also at the meeting. The most uninteresting subject to other people is yourself.

LIQUOR AMENDMENT EXPECTED TO PULL OUT A LARGE VOTE

SIXTY-TWO CCC SELECTEES CHOSEN

Boys Picked Friday and Saturday Sent to Clovis, New Mexico; Quota 116

Sixty-two junior CCC selectees were enlisted here Friday and Saturday and sent to camps by Captain Charles T. Smith. The boys were recruited from the counties of Haskell, Knox, Stone-wall and King, in an effort to fill out the quota, and with the exception of four negroes, who were sent to San Antonio, they were all sent to Los Cruces, N. M. Haskell's quota was set at 116 selectees, which, at $25 per month, would have brought in $2,900 to the families of the boys, but through lack of proper notice and cooperation with the government, extra effort had to be made to secure the 62 boys which were enrolled. The City Hall was secured Thursday for Captain Smith by Roy A. Sanders and Bill Ratliff, president and secretary respectively of the newly organized Chamber of Commerce. According to Captain Smith, he will return soon to Haskell county. He was informed by Chamber of Commerce officials that full cooperation would be given next time if notice of his arrival was given sufficient time in advance. The thirty-three boys leaving Friday night were: Reuben C. Barbee, James B. Barnicoat, Alva Bain, Walter B. Benson, Elton Bristol, Lee E. Brooks, Melvin Collum, Jim Conner, Arron W. Earnest, Lee Virgil Farmer, Melton Freeman, Haley L. Funderburk, Jose Garza, Joe B. Graham, William B. Hogan, Roy Huliene, Wayne G. Hunter, Roe S. Irwin, J. Levi Kidwell, Jack Long, Juan Lopez, Alfred L. McKiver, George M. McKinney, Dan Neal, Lee R. Mowell, Elmer Parrish, John E. Payne, Ezell Raynolds, Donald Scott, Walter Smith, Emmett Taylor, Robert S. Wardlow, Jack H. Williams.

Seven Amendments to Constitution are to be Decided at Saturday's Election Results Uncertain

Seven proposed constitutional amendments will be voted upon by citizens of the entire state Saturday. Of the amendments—repeal of liquor prohibition, old age pension, temporary commitment of insane, submission of amendments at special sessions of legislature, suspended sentence or probation amendment, abolishment of fee system for paying officials and free text books for private and parochial schools—the prohibition question will probably draw out the largest vote. The proposed amendment would do the following things: 1. Legalize the sale of liquor but prohibit open saloons. The legislature would be given the power and duty of defining what shall constitute an open saloon. The legislature also would be given the power to regulate the manufacture, sale, possession and transportation of liquor, including the power to establish a state monopoly on liquor sales. 2. Provide that the legislature must enact a local option law where by any county, justice precinct, or incorporated town or city may by an election bar the sale of liquors for beverage purposes. Any local option law shall contain provisions for voting on the sale of intoxicating liquors of various types distilled liquors, beer, wine, etc.) and of various alcoholic content, the amendment specifies. 3. Provide that in all counties, justice precincts, and incorporated cities or towns that were dry by local option prior to adoption of the state prohibition amendment, it shall continue to be unlawful to sell intoxicants for beverage purposes at least until the subdivision itself votes a change, in a future local option election. This section will not affect the sale of 32 per cent beer, however, in subdivisions which have legalized that beverage. Past election figures are of little value in forecasting the fate of the repeal amendment, political observers point out. On Aug. 24, it will be exactly 16 years, three months since the prohibition amendment was adopted. Since that time, a whole generation of Texans have come of voting age. What will be the verdict of these younger democrats, reared in an era of prohibition, is hard to say until the returns are counted the night of August 24. The free text book for private and parochial schools question will also draw the attention of a great proportion of voters. The Texas Constitution at the present time provides that the State is without authority to furnish free text books to other than public schools. Proposed Amendment No. 7 on the ballot for the August 24th election would permit the State to supply free textbooks to all schools, private and parochial. Such textbooks, it is presumed, to be the same as used in the public schools. For many years there has been considerable agitation in certain quarters to abolish the "school census" or scholastic population of apportioning school funds and substitute in lieu thereof the "average attendance" basis or some other basis. The Legislature would determine just how this was to be done, if this amendment is adopted. If adopted this proposed Amendment No. 7 would mean, in effect: (1) that the State would furnish free textbooks to pupils in all the schools of Texas; and (2) that a new basis for apportioning school funds other than the scholastic census basis, could be set up.

Softball Teams Enter Tournament

Rural softball teams will compete against each other here either Saturday afternoon or night under the sponsorship of the Haskell Lions Club. The local civic organization's first invitation softball tournament has aroused interest in many sections of the county and several teams are now being organized, club members say. Equipment will be furnished the teams by the Lions Club free of any charge, making it possible for all entrants to play without cost. Communities wishing to enter the tournament may contact members of the Lions Club for information regarding rules, according to President A. C. Pierson, who suggested idea at a recent meeting of the organization.

Haskell County Pioneer Dies at His Home in Rule

Funeral services were held at Rule Friday afternoon at the First Baptist church for J. E. Place, Sr., who died at his home south of Rule Wednesday night after an illness of several weeks. Mr. Place was 72 years of age at his death and had lived in Haskell county for the past 22 years. He was born in Mt. Vernon, Ill., and moved to Haskell county in 1903. He is survived by a wife, one son, J. E. Place, Jr., and two daughters Mrs. Jim Webb and Mrs. Joe Holcomb of Rule. He is also survived by five brothers and sisters.

Five Cent Sugar Sack Can be Made Into a Chic Skirt

By using a foundation pattern, a 5c sugar sack can be made into an attractive white skirt that looks much more expensive. This was done by Mrs. Jesse B. Smith, wardrobe demonstrator for the Midway Home Demonstration Club. The sacks are also made into boy's trousers by Mrs. Smith after they have been bleached out white. The sacks are large and of very heavy material that will wear a long time. Miss Annie Bromder of Wichita Falls visited in the homes of Mrs. E. Martin and Mrs. R. B. Fields the past week.

The WOMAN'S Page

Family Reunion.

Sunday August 11th Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Patterson of Rose had all their children and grandchildren except two to spend the day with them. It was a most enjoyable day, since the entire family of 9 children had not all been together in 11 years.

Those enjoying the day at the old home were as follows: Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Patterson and two boys, Waldo Franklin and Clove Eugene of Olney, Texas, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Patterson and three daughters, Estelle, Wanda and Shirley Ann of Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Slover Bledsoe and two children, Winnie Faye and Kenneth Boyd of Cottonwood, Mrs. Taylor Alvis and baby, Dorothy, of Haskell, Mr. and Mrs. Argin Carrigan of Half Moon, Bernard, Bessie, and Nannie Patterson of Rose. They all departed wishing that they may be able to meet again next year, and wishing the older brother and family could have been with them Sunday.

Atchison-Chapman.

Friday night July 26th Mr. Clarence Atchison, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Atchison and Miss Lela Mae Chapman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Chapman drove to Throckmorton and were united in marriage with the Justice of Peace Mr. Blackshell performing the ceremony. The marriage was kept secret until Sunday August 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Atchison are both residents of the Roberts community. They left Wednesday for Los Angeles, Calif., where they will make their home.

Peebles-Cobb.

Saturday night July 27th. Mr. Wilburn Peebles and Miss Evelyn Cobb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truitt Cobb were united in marriage at Throckmorton with Mr. Blackshell, Justice of the Peace, reading the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Peebles are from the Roberts community. They left Wednesday August 20th for Los Angeles to make their home.

Report of Cottonwood H. D. Club Meeting.

The Cottonwood Home Demonstration Club met at the home of Mrs. Floyd Maxwell August 14th. Mrs. Bruton gave a very interesting report of the A. & M. Short Course after which we inspected Mrs. Maxwell's well-filled pantry of which she is justly proud. It contains a large variety of mixed foods. Mrs. Maxwell has recently purchased a new pressure cooker, and expects to keep it busy for quite a while. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Jake Holcomb.

Jossett H. D. Club To Meet September 10th.

The Jossett H. D. Club will meet Tuesday September 10th in the home of Mrs. Price Hurd. It was announced at the last meeting Miss Peggy Taylor, Home Demonstration Agent, will talk on "Adequate Storage for Food."

Mrs. George Dean and daughter Miss Laura of Anaheim, Calif., left Monday morning for their home after an extended visit with Mrs. R. H. Fields and family. On their return trip they plan to visit Carlbad Cavern, Grand Canyon, The Petrified Forest, Painted Desert and other places of interest, reaching home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stovall of Carlbad, N. M., visited relatives here the first of the week. They left Wednesday morning for Brady, where they will spend several days.

Family Reunion.

On Sunday August 18 Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chamberlain and children gathered for their annual family reunion.

For a number of years it has been their custom to have a homecoming when all the children would bring lunches and meet at the family home near Haskell. However, this year the precedent was broken and the Seymour Park was selected as a more appropriate place for the children to play—where there would be more freedom and less door-slaming. A greater attraction to the ladies perhaps was the elimination of dish-washing and to the men the knowledge that there would be no scolding because of tilted ash-trays or scattering of matches.

At about 10 o'clock the well-filled automobiles began to arrive. The Ford family was represented from the model T to the shining V-8. Closely crowding it in number was the Chevrolet. They were accompanied by a few higher powered friends.

Most of the morning was spent in greetings among those who had been absent. At noon a picnic lunch was spread and the afternoon was spent swimming and playing games.

When 5 o'clock arrived the cars were packed and with a wave of the hand each drove away toward his respective home or to the home of another.

Those who enjoyed the outing were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Chamberlain; A. C. and Ethel Chamberlain of Haskell; M. T. Chamberlain and family; Benjamin; H. L. Chamberlain and family; Goree; Lon Chamberlain and family; Weinert; A. F. Williamson and family; of Goree; D. S. Gregory and family, Littlefield; Harold Gregory, Leveland; Joe R. P. and Clarence Chamberlain; Goree; Doris Chamberlain, Fort Worth; Mr. and Mrs. Billie Moore and children, Goree; Mr. and Mrs. Buster Chamberlain, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Irick, Plainview; Sam Chamberlain; Goree; N. N. Frey and family; Goree; Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Goodwin, Haskell; Miss Irene Willis, Ennis.

All the children were present except Mrs. T. L. Irick, Plainview, and Jack Chamberlain, Paris.

Short Course Program of Interest to All Who Attended

The 1935 Short Course program which built its theme around "The Changing Country Life" was one that contained something of interest to all who attended, according to reports given by Mrs. J. B. Edwards. Mrs. Will Schwartz and Miss Berta Mae Thomas, a 4-H club girl, Tuesday August 13th to the Jossett day August 13th to the Jossett H. D. Club in the home of Mrs. J. L. Toliver.

These programs dealt with agricultural subjects, home economics, and 4-H club work. The Work Shop Center attracted much attention. Mrs. Schwartz said. There the visitors saw rugs, home made chairs covered with goat hide, tufted beds, spreads, wooden buttons and cedar chests, smoking stands, and other things being made.

Talks on bedroom improvement, potting ferns and geraniums, demonstration work in Puerto Rico, demonstrations in mattress making and making grape juice, also canning. These and many other matters of interest to home makers were ably handled and kept the attention of the women in attendance.

Men and women should be trained for leadership. Mrs. Edwards quoted Dr. T. O. Walton as saying: "the better rural homes and training begins at home. He also said it takes a lot of living to make a home. Another speaker said if we are not trained for some job or as leaders in our community we are just a shadow of what we should be."

The Short Course instructed the

YOUNG MODERN

TEXAS STATE COLLEGE FOR WOMEN (CIA)

DENTON, Texas.—With dips in front, flowers and fruit for decoration, tassels on the side and queer-shaped crowns, chapeaux which Young Moderns plan to don this fall rival the hats of all generations in their novelty. Style in this season's headgear consists in each hat's having a single touch in decoration or cut which distinguishes it from all others.

Youthful heads must be careful in their choice of hats, considering the variety of shapes and sizes available. Each person ought to study her own facial characteristics, and, still more minutely, her hair. If she plans to wear the tricky bonnets now in vogue, she should cultivate bangs, either of the tiny, demure type or of the tousled, vagabond type. With a smart felt that comes down squarely over the forehead and darts up to a pointed crown in back, curls at the nape of the neck or a fancy swirled wave create the necessary hair interest. Bangs both in front and back are nicely suited to close-fitting turbans, but must be kept sleekly curled. Summer permanents have a way of looking so dried up at the end of a long summer that they are scarcely a credit to any hat. Young Moderns at Texas State College for Women (CIA) find a solution to this problem in the barber shop. Straight-haired Misses can coax their locks into swirls, and cut child-like bangs to achieve a clever ingénue effect. For evening, the too-sporty appearance of shorn hair can be remedied by a band of poppies, grapes, or other exotic flowers and fruits placed in a low curve around the back of the head.

4-H club members in bedroom improvement, yard landscaping, garden work and recreation.

Talks were also given on Bird Life and how to improve the personality.

There was a varied entertainment program but the main attraction was a circus with one hundred acts.

It was a practical and most satisfactory Short Course, at least that was the verdict of these people who attended.

Sarah Ann's Cooking Class

DENTON, Texas.—Tongue is becoming one of the most popular dishes for the summer. It is very inexpensive, can be prepared a long time before hand, and can be served alone or in combinations. From eight lambs' tongues or four calves' tongues, three good dishes may be prepared for a family of six people.

Preparation of Tongue: Clean the tongue with a vegetable brush and put into enough gently boiling water to cover it. Add one teaspoon of salt for every quart of water used. Boil until tender when pricked with a fork, two hours usually being required for cooking. When tender remove from the water and take off the skin and roots. Place in the ice box until ready for use.

Sliced Tongue and Mint Jelly: Slice the tongue lengthwise. Surround the tongue with moulded mint jelly. For mint jelly use 1 1/4 cup water, 3 1/4 cups sugar, juice of 1/2 lemon, 1/2 bottle of Certo and 1/2 cup mint leaves.

Measure the water, add 1/2 teaspoon of green coloring and stir until dissolved. Add mint leaves, sugar and strained lemon juice to the water and boil. At once add the Certo, stirring constantly; bring again to a full boiling point and boil for 1-2 minute. Remove from the fire and let stand one minute, then skim off the leaves. Pour into individual molds and let set until firm. The small one inch muffin tins are good to mold it in.

Sliced Tongue on Toast: Dice two cups of left-over tongue and make a white sauce, using three tablespoons of butter, three tablespoons of flour, one eighth teaspoon of salt and one cup of milk. Add the sauce to the tongue, pour over a toasted slice of bread. Serve hot.

Tongue Salad: Use 1 tablespoon Knox sparkling gelatin, 1 cup diced tongue, 1 cup boiling water, juice of 1 lemon, 1/2 cup cold water, 3 tablespoons sugar and pinch of salt.

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Then dissolve in boiling water; add sugar, salt, and lemon juice, and stir until dissolved. When the mixture begins to thicken add the tongue. Line a pan with sliced stuffed olives at regular intervals. Pour gelatin mixture over this and let jell. When ready to serve, cut in squares and serve on shredded lettuce with mayonnaise dressing.

Miss Lawanna Loughmiller has returned to her home in Wichita, Kansas. She has spent the summer with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Willis. Mrs. George Pruitt returned home with Miss Loughmiller.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Haynes are rejoicing over a nine-pound girl, who arrived August 16. She will answer to the name of Nella Juan.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they discover their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about sixteen years, looking it up here and there. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I cannot say, without reserve, that it is the best I have used."

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draught has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draught for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they discover their childish love of sweets. Mrs. C. W. Adams of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about sixteen years, looking it up here and there. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I cannot say, without reserve, that it is the best I have used."

Balancing Of Grains

(By D. S. Buchanan, Professor, in Charge of Swine, Animal Husbandry Department)

Feeds can be grouped under several different classifications, but for the purpose of balancing live stock rations they may be divided into two big classes. Those feeds that are high in starch, sugar, oils, or a combination of these substance, are classified as carbonaceous feeds and usually have a high net energy content. This group is represented by the cereal grains and certain commercial by-products. Those roughages that are not of leguminous origin are also classified as carbonaceous feeds, but have a much lower net energy content than the cereal group and most of the by-products from the cereal grains.

As a result of the crop reduction program combined with a very favorable crop season, Texas is going to produce an extremely large amount of the kinds of feeds listed above. Since the same thing is true of other farming areas it will be necessary that as much feed as possible be fed on farms where it is produced. The other group of feeds referred to above under the general classification are not produced in large quantities on the farms, with certain exception.

This other group is usually titled protein supplement feeds in that they are high in the nutrient protein and are used to supplement the carbonaceous feeds which are often referred to as the basic part of the livestock rations. These feeds are produced on the farms, but in most cases, are sold from the farm and come back to the feed lot as a by-product of commercial products. The by-products that are high in protein are such feeds as cotton seed meal, packinghouse tankage, linseed meal, wheat shorts and wheat bran.

Skim milk is a protein feed and is available on many farms for swine feeding. Since the grains are available and a major portion of the protein supplement has to be purchased it is too often a tendency for the live stock feeder to feed unbalanced rations. This is not a good practice and should be avoided. There is always a relationship between price of feeds and almost without exception protein supplements can be bought at prevailing prices and economically fed in combination with the home grown grains.

There are cases where the amount of the purchased protein supplements may be reduced materially by proper feed production and feeding practices. Young pastures and a legume pasture are fairly high in protein content and should be used as much as possible in pasture in all cases is a very cheap feed and can be used to an advantage in feeding dairy cattle and all breeding herds.

For dairy cattle, fattening cattle, fattening sheep and fattening swine, the need for additional protein supplements will vary according to several factors such as age and class of animal.

We can in a general way state certain thumb rules that will be an aid in formulating rations. However, it will be necessary to get specific information in regard to specific problems. Swine ration should as a rule contain about 10% of protein supplement provided skim milk is not available. If skim milk is available there is no better protein supplement for hogs. One gallon per head per day will balance hog rations for any kind of feeding in dry lot. When hogs are on pasture one-half gallon milk per head per day will be sufficient.

A combination of one-half cotton seed meal and one-half tankage comprising 10% of the total ration is suggested for hog feeding. The wheat products when the price justifies may almost always be used for protein supplements in swine rations. In the fattening of cattle two to three pounds of cotton seed meal per 1000 pound live weight per day is a suggested amount to balance up the grain ration. Less cotton seed meal may be fed if a good quality legume hay is being fed as the roughage part of the ration. Similar suggestions will apply to sheep for fattening purposes. In dairy cow feeding the amount of protein supplement feed used is determined by the amount of milk produced, per cent of butter fat of the milk, and the amount and kind of pasture available. One part of protein feed to four parts grain may be fed to milking cows when carbonaceous hays are fed and less when legume hays are fed.

Ration combinations should not only be balanced as to carbonaceous and protein content but the feed in the combination should be suitable to the animal being fed and also should produce a quality product. Other factors are just as important as protein feeding and should be taken care in planning the ration combination. These factors, vitamins and minerals other than common salt, may largely be taken care of through the use of green pasture or well cured legume hays.

FIVE BURGLARIES—

the same tactics—knocking off the knob of the safe to get to its contents. Station agent H. Dobbins reported that only a small sum was missing, between four and five dollars.

The warehouse of the Texas Oil Company, across the railroad track from the ice plant, was also a place of call for the thieves. Here they were unsuccessful in opening the safe door, but undiscouraged, over-turned the safe and gained access by chiseling through the bottom of the safe. Rifling the cash drawers, documents also in the vault were littered over the floor of the building.

Burglary of the Haskell Laundry during the night was also reported to officers; and the unsuccessful effort of intruders to gain entrance to the warehouse of the Magnolia Oil Company.

The two youths arrested by Sheriff Giles Kemp and City Marshal Al Cousins, face companion burglary complaints, signed by officers in connection with robbery of each of the places looted during the night. Arraigned before Justice of the Peace Davis, they are being held in the county jail to await action of a District Court grand jury in September.

The two men, both in the early twenties, were arrested by Kemp and Cousins as they sat beside the highway several miles north of Haskell, apparently "hitch-hiking" early Thursday morning. The couple gave their names to officers as John Ed Terrett and Ollie Sammons. A large valise which the men had in their possession was seized by the officers. Among the contents, officers stated, was a heavy hammer and several punches and chisels. Officers said that the two men had between forty and fifty dollars on their persons when taken into custody.

Haskell officers were notified Wednesday of the burglary of two Stamford business houses Tuesday night, and Jones county officers were expected to question the two charged here, in connection with the Stamford burglaries.

Stoker Automobile Stolen

Theft of a light coupe belonging to J. K. Stoker, some time during Wednesday night, was also reported to officers this morning. Several hours later officers located the machine on the Throckmorton-Haskell highway, where it had been abandoned after being stripped of wheels, tires, and accessories.

Mrs. M. U. Lively and daughter Clara Ann of Fort Worth are guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Therwanger of Weimert. Captain M. U. Lively is now District Chaplain of the Ft. Worth district of the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Various Agencies Help Solve Problem Of State Relief

AUSTIN, Texas. — Despite misgivings over sharp reductions in funds and consequent cuts in relief allotments, Texas Relief Commission officials here the past week were able to look at the relief situation in Texas with some confidence, hinging their hopes on seasonal employment in the cotton fields and the increasing speed of Works Progress Administration activities.

There are about $5,000 employable men on the relief rolls in the cotton picking areas of Texas, and it is hoped at least half of these will be employed a month and a half or two months in the cotton fields. The employment, of course, it was pointed out, will not be all at one time but will move progressively from south Texas northward through the state, relieving the case load at one time or another in the next three months by at least 40,000 persons.

In the meantime, the WPA is expected to be in full operation, aiming at taking off the relief rolls the entire bulk of 146,000 employables in the state. As the cotton picking season ends, pickers formerly on the relief rolls are expected to be taken into the WPA, certain to be well under way by then, it was emphasized.

Also, the Civilian Conservation Corps is now in the midst of its enlistment program, calculated to enroll by September 1, 15,000 Texas youths between 18 and 28 whose families are on the relief rolls. This will bring the total enrollment for the state to 30,000. The monthly checks of $25 apiece from these boys to their families will go a long way toward easing the relief situation, officials stressed.

That the Texas case load this spring and summer has decreased consistently, due not only to seasonal declines but to genuine declines as indicated by the progressively lower record of 1935 over 1934, is another sign of improvement cheering relief officials.

From a high of approximately 276,000 in January this year, the case load in the state has steadily decreased, dropping to 270,000 in February, 250,000 in March, 230,000 in April, 199,000 in May, and 170,000 in June, the latter month comparing with 190,000 for the corresponding month in 1934. Figures for July have been delayed pending complete returns from all counties, but are sure to show a continued drop, it is estimated.

Obviously, relief officials point out, if relief funds can be stretched to keep relief clients going until the WPA is in full operation, the relief situation in Texas will be tremendously improved, save for that considerable residue of unemployed who will be left on the rolls and will have to look to some source for aid. What source that will be has not been indicated, but, State Relief Director Adam R. Johnson emphasized, as President Roosevelt has stated positively that there will be no more direct relief funds, and the balance of the funds are not sufficient to take care of the unemployed, it is self-evident that they will have to find some method of their own for care.

FIGHT WINTER COLDS WITH GAS CIRCULATED HEAT

For Your Health's Sake....

HEAT

your ENTIRE House

If you are susceptible to colds, and most people have from two to three each winter, you owe it to your health to heat your home adequately as a protection against sudden changes in temperature which are a contributory cause of colds.

With the entire house properly heated and ventilated, you have greater comfort and the satisfaction of knowing that you are taking the precaution of guarding your family's health.

One single illness to a member of your family will cost you far more in money and suffering than the few dollars you will spend for adequate heat to combat winter colds. So look over your heating equipment now. Some might need repairing. Some might need replacing altogether with modern equipment. Whatever it takes, do it now, for August is the opportune time to buy advantageously modern gas heating equipment. For your health's sake, heat your entire home.

NEW CIRCULATING HEATER—just as attractive in appearance as it is efficient in performance.

Average Family In U. S. Has More Cash Than During 1933

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn.—The average insured family has 30 per cent more cash in the bank today than it had in 1933, and has reduced the mortgage on its home by 10 per cent in the same two-year period, according to a survey of 10,000 families.

An average reserve of $356 per family of cash on hand and in banks, was reported as of the spring of 1933 in response to a questionnaire; this compares with $464 per family at the present time, an increase of $108, or 30 per cent.

A reduction in the size of the average mortgage from $3,464 in 1933 to $3,110 in 1935 was shown in the reports. Approximately 49 per cent of the policyholders investigated were home owners; the average home valuation was $5,301. Half of the homes were owned clear of encumbrance; the remaining 50 per cent were mortgaged.

The report showed that average amount of life insurance owned per family was $7,710 in 1933, and $8,199 in 1935, an increase of 6.3 per cent.

The average net worth of each family, including equity in home but exclusive of life insurance, was $2,953 in the spring of 1933, and had risen to $3,440 two years later, the survey showed, an increase in average wealth of 16 per cent.

A special survey of urban housing conducted in 61 cities by the U. S. bureau of foreign and domestic commerce showed a reduction in the average mortgage on owner-occupied homes of 3.3 per cent from 1933 to 1934. The fact that the reduction for the two year span from 1933 to 1935 totaled 10.22 per cent would seem to indicate that the average family is paying off its obligations at an increasingly rapid rate, the report concludes.

Mrs. Calvin Whatley of Pampa is here visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Burt and Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Whatley.

Cotton Fields May Relieve "Relief" Officials Believe

AUSTIN, Texas.—As the cotton picking season gradually spreads over Texas, Relief Commission officials are re-emphasizing their demands that every available cotton picker be taken off the relief rolls and told to get a cotton sack.

District administrators have been told to see that no able-bodied relief client be allowed to stay on the relief rolls so long as there is a job for him in the cotton fields.

Despite pest infestation, the cotton crop in Texas apparently will be appreciably large, it is indicated, and relief officials insist that there be a commensurate drop in the relief load in cotton picking areas.

What effect getting off Federal Emergency Relief Administration rolls now to pick cotton will have on a client's chances of being certified to the Works Progress Administration rolls late in the fall when the cotton picking season is over, has been explained thus:

It will not jeopardize his chances at all. An unemployed able-bodied person who was on the FERA rolls in May this year and is registered with the National Reemployment Service is automatically eligible for a job with the WPA. The minute a cotton picker or anyone else who was a relief client in May has worked himself out of a job in private employment, he becomes eligible to work on WPA projects.

In view of this and the sharp reduction in relief funds, Relief Commission officials are insisting that relief rolls in heavy cotton producing areas should be reduced by as much as 50 per cent if not more during the cotton picking season.

Some people make laboratories out of themselves for wise observers.

The fellow who goes to work late usually quits early.

Doctors Via Plane

MOSCOW.—In order that medical aid can be dispatched to people in isolated settlements the Soviet Government plans to train a number of physicians in parachute jumping. Many localities on the north coast have practically no means of communication for the greater part of the year except by air.

If you don't respect your credit, don't expect others to do it.

Fortune Lost; Pushes Cart and Comes Back

NEW YORK.—After losing a fortune and peddling candy for a living, James M. Washburne, 81, is president of a new candy corporation capitalized at one million dollars. Washburne operated a huge candy store chain a few years ago, and after losing out mixed his own sweets with the help of his wife and sold them on the streets.

When you surpass all the rest, try to outdo yourself.

JOBS ALONE WILL CURE

Nothing in American life is quite so easy to criticize as the administration of unemployment relief. Here is a job which, even if it should be done perfectly, would still be a bad job.

The publication of all these stories within a few days of each other simply testifies to the extreme difficulties that any relief program must carry with it.

The evils of relief may be ten times as bad as the most pessimistic people say they are; but the remedy for them is not to discontinue the relief program, but to stimulate employment so that a relief program is no longer necessary.

THE FORGOTTEN MAN

Happening into a home the other day we noticed hanging on the wall the old legend, "What Is Home Without a Mother?" On the other side of the room we noticed another, "God Bless Our Home."

ESSENTIAL TO NATIONAL WELFARE

The welfare of the United States will never be complete until the farmers of this country are secure in the possession of a standard of living that is, at least, on an equality with that achieved by other economic groups.

HELP HASKELL PROSPER

Students who expect to leave Haskell soon for the resumption of their studies might as well buy as much of their needs in Haskell as possible before leaving.

Personally, we dislike public relief, but not near so much as we abhor the suffering of little children whose father is anxious to work to support them and is unable to get a job.

To err is human—and also patch it up with an alibi.

Few people are appreciated for their real worth, which is fortunate for most of us.

An astronomer says there are something like 5,000 stars visible on a clear night. If you don't believe it, just count 'em.

The fellow who spent his last dollar for a billfold had nothing on the farmer who traded his only cow for a milking machine.

Other people's faults are deliberate villainy while our own are just weaknesses to which human flesh is heir.

TIMBER RESOURCES OF TEXAS

Advocates of a paper-making industry for East Texas now have a basis in facts, determined in a comprehensive Federal forest survey of the timber resources of seventeen Southeast Texas counties, comprising the first unit of a still larger survey.

A total of some 58,000,000 cords of pulpwood of various species, of which our three native pines (shortleaf, loblolly and longleaf comprise 45,000,000 cords) is a surprisingly excellent showing. The News has long championed the cause of a paper industry for the East Texas forest region.

The State of Texas owes thanks to the Southern Forest Survey Staff, which under direction of Capt. I. F. Eldredge has prepared the authentic report on existing pulpwood stands in the great area surveyed embracing nearly 10,000,000 acres.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

A CONSECRATED MAN
International Sunday School Lesson for August 25, 1935.

Golden Text: "He was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith."—Acts 11:24.

Lesson Text: Acts 4:36, 37; 11:19-30.

John Ruskin, who was born rich, made an independent fortune, and then used it all to the uplifting of humanity, defined true wealth as follows:

"There is no wealth but life—life, including all its powers of love, of admiration. That country is the richest which nourishes the greatest number of noble and happy beings. That man is the richest who, having perfected the functions of his own life to the utmost, has also the widest influence, both personal and by means of his possessions, over the lives of others."

"Barnabas is one of those minor characters of Scripture," properly reflects W. W. Mackay, "who at once gain and lose by their proximity to a greater figure. He gains doubtless much from his relation to the gigantic figure of Paul, for it was in company with him that his best work was done. And yet, perhaps, he suffers more; for the friend with whom he walks is so colossal that we forget all when we see him. A mountain in Scotland would be a hillock in Switzerland."

Barnabas first comes to our attention when he sold his property and laid the proceeds at the feet of the apostles in Jerusalem to alleviate the suffering of the poor. "The generosity of that deed is measured not by what he gave, but by what he left," says Mackay. "Generosity is not a sum in addition—it is a sum in subtraction. Barnabas is the man of generosity, not only because he gave much, but because that which was his all." The same reason justified Jesus' high praise of the widow who contributed her mite, ranked higher than the rich and wealthy who only gave of what they had, retaining much more.

We next see Barnabas as the friend and sponsor of Saul. After
