Jim and I also went to the Play night at Roby on Tuesday and we had a real good crowd. This is really good for young riders and we invite all the 4-H youngesters interested to attend the next meeting and ride with the 4-H club. It will be advertised ahead of time. We went to Baird Friday night and Melody rode in their Open Rodeo. She is here for a week or so before going back to Summer school. Saturday Melody and I went to Lubbock with Mrs. Wilber Gruben and Evette, also Jenna Thornton. Boy, we just thought it was blowing down this way. It was really terrible at Lubbock on Saturday. Sunday we went to Trent to the Boyd arena and Melody rode her younger horse in the Novice barrel race which they had. Paul Sims and his son from Midland visited with us for a short while late Sunday evening after we returned from the barrel race. Melody and I went to Snyder on Monday and attended the funeral of Tana Springer who was killed in a car wreck on Saturday morning. She was a real good friend of Melody's and Jim and I knew her mother, Connie, long before she was married. It was really a tragic accident.

Christy Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Price, rode in the 4-H play night on Tuesday at Roby.

Morris Hardin from Lubbock visited with Bea on Sunday evening and he also spent Monday here. Mark Nowlin spent Sunday afternoon visiting with Bea and Lisa Hardin.

Commencement exercises and the hooding ceremony were held recently at Texas Tech University and the Texas Tech School of Law in Lubbock, Texas. Among those hooded were Roger and Lenore Graham.

On Friday evening, May 15, in the Lubbock Municipal Coliseum, Roger led the graduates into the auditorium, was recognized and hooded during the graduation exercises of the entire Texas Tech University. He represented the Texas Tech School of Law as their high ranking graduating student.

On Saturday afternoon, May 16, the Texas Tech University School of Law held the hooding ceremony in the University Theatre. Speaker for the able Mark White, Attorney General of Texas. Approximately 167 students were in the hooding ceremony. During the ceremony, Lenore was hooded by Professor J. Hadley Edgar and Professor Marily E. Phelan. Then Lenore had the honor and privilege of hooding Roger as the class and guests attending watched. (It is a tradition that students can be hooded by parents, spouses, or immediate family who are lawyers.)

Recently Roger and Lenore were special guests at the Law School Honors Day as guests of the law scholastic honorary organization, Order of the Coif. Roger received 2 awards and $200 for outstanding writing ability and for outstanding service to the Law Review. His name is on a permanent plaque on display in the School of Law.
