Hits And Misses

Column By The Newspaper Staff

I cannot believe that it is almost time for school to start, in fact, a number of them have already begun classes; it has really been a short Summer. Now some of the kids I have talked to are ready to go back, but some would still like a few more weeks. The swimming pool closed last Sunday so I guess it is time for school to begin. The first inter-squad football scrimmage was held last Saturday morning at Rotan, and they scrimmaged at Crosbyton on Friday. They have been busy with two-a-days for the past two weeks and although it was sure hot some of the time, everyone seems to be holding up pretty good. They travel to Knox City this coming Friday for another scrimmage, and then the first game will be at Roscoe the following week. Some schools are starting earlier than others, but by the end of August, nearly all of them will be under way. The colleges too have registration this week and for some it will be their first experience with college and being away from home, which will indeed be very different from High School. For some of the little folk, it will be their first experience at school and I am sure some won't be able to wait for the next day to come. With the beginning of school comes new clothes, new shoes, etc., and everyone has been busy buying school clothes and such: I am glad that I don't have two or three going to school as everything is really expensive now. It won't be long before we are in the throes of Thursday and Friday night football games, pep rallies and Homecomings, and maybe with the start of school it will begin to cool off and we will get some much needed rain. Fall is such a beautiful time of the year, and I for one, am really looking forward to the cooler weather.

Lynda Henderson was in the newspaper office last week. She used to work for Kim before she went to school. Lynda is a very sweet girl but she has one major drawback. She is left-handed. Lynda always had to have her own pair of scissors, her own razor blade, her own screwdriver, her own flashlight, and even her own pen. Speaking of pens and writing, have you ever seen a southpaw write? All of them, to my knowledge, write upside down. A right-handed person who wrote that way for any length of time would be crippled for life. So, Lynda, when you go back to Hardin-Simmons in the Fall and you want to be halfway normal like us right-handers, you should take Course 1301, "Introduction To Being Right-Handed."

I guess I will dedicate this column to the people of the world who are always dieting. I must admit I have tried them all, and I still have not run across one that I was crazy about. I take this in spurts. One week I'm real good and then the next week I reward myself for being good and I fall off my diet wagon. I have never understood why diet food couldn't taste good. Things like ice cream sundaes, pies, candy, potatoes, bread, or anything else that tastes good is never on a diet. I am not prejudiced against any food except when there is not enough of it. I love to eat and I am waiting for the perfect diet. You know, one that says you can eat all you want and never gain a pound. Just think how nice it would be to eat all you wanted and not have to worry about gaining weight. I have a friend who once said she loved to lose weight, so she could see how long it took her to gain it back. My niece gave me a little sign to put by the refrigerator that says 'I keep losing weight, but it keeps finding me.' In return I gave her a keyring that had a picture of a pig on it and it said 'Those who indulge, Bulge.' If you find that perfect diet, let me know, and be sure I can have all the foods named above before you call me.

I was reading an article the other day and it said the world's most widely distributed book is the Bible, portions of which have been translated into 1,659 languages. I have estimated that between 1815 and 1975 some 2,500 million Bibles were printed, of which 1,500 million were handled by Bible Societies. The total distribution of Bibles by the United Bible Societies (covering 150 countries) in the year 1979 was 9,088,578.

Larry Ramsey will be thrilled to know I was listening at church Sunday. His sermon included "getting excited about life in general." It's so easy to get up grouchy about having to go to work, school, church, etc., and you tend to have a bad day all day. Try telling yourself, you're excited about a new day and everything that goes along with it. At the end of the day, take notice of how much happier you are. Life is great if we let it be.

Senator Jesse Helms (R-NC) recently computed the cost of foreign aid since World War II and came up with a surprising conclusion. The American taxpayer has spent $2,304,257,000,000 to help foreigners.

Since the actual amount of dollars appropriated each year for foreign aid totals less-$286,467,000,000-one might ask how the larger figure is arrived at.

Simple. Since the federal government has had to borrow this money almost every year, which adds to the national debt, it has had to pay interest on it every year. If one figures the interest U.S. taxpayers are continuing to pay on the $286 billion appropriated, it comes to about $2.3 trillion!

Had foreign aid been held to about half, there would be no national debt today. This shows the real cost of borrowing money (and paying interest into infinity) for foreign aid.

Rotan, Roby Teams Score Victory In Scrimmages

Rotan and Roby both scored victories (if there is such a thing) in their opening scrimmages last week to kick off the 1982 football season. Roby hosted Hawley with the varsity scoring 2 touchdowns to none for Hawley. Rotan's varsity tied Crosbyton 2-2 in the Yellowhammers first road trip of the year.

The Rotan junior varsity team looked sluggish in their opening outing of the year. The Rotan varsity squad looked in mid-season form as they easily disposed of a rebuilding year Crosbyton squad. Rotan crossed their opponents goal line twice and had little trouble in gaining yardage against Crosbyton. The Crosbyton team also scored on two occasions, but both of their scores came on long runs and didn't really tell the story of the night's contest.

Rotan had to be pleased with the showing of the varsity team, they looked sharp, in good shape physically and had little trouble in executing

The Roby Junior High Pep Squad will have a meeting on Monday, August 30, at 7:30 p.m. in the homemaking room. All students in grades 7 and 8 are invited to belong to the Pep Squad. Parents are also asked to attend this meeting to help select uniforms for the coming year.

Pat Messick To Attend Therapy School

Pat Messick, a nurses aide at the Fisher County Hospital for the past 3 years, has been selected to attend a month long respiratory therapy school at Hendrick Medical Center, according to Jerry

The school begins on August 30th and is the first step in establishing a respiratory therapy department at the Fisher County Hospital.

Roby's varsity team scored on two occasions. Robby King tossed a pass to Lance Green and Benny Putnam scored on a 2 yard dive. In the JV contest Danny Carreon scored twice as the JV's defeated Hawley.

Rotan travels to Knox city on Friday night, August 27th for the second scrimmage set to begin with the JV at 5:30. Roby travels to Robert Lee for a

New Changes In FCIC Fall Programs

The Fisher County Hospital recently purchased a new Radiant Warmer machine for the nursery at a cost of $3,850.00, according to Jerry Weatherly, Fisher county Hospital Administrator.

Weatherly indicated that the new machine, designed for all new-borns, was purchased with memorial funds and will assist nurses in seeing that all infants are kept at a warm stable temperature while in the nursery area.

The USDA will be sending a team of FCIC Representatives into the Roby Community to explain the new changes in the new fall crop insurance coverages. Dottie Sampley, the District Director, will be available to answer all questions on different crop coverages as well as the small grain crops. Deadline on small grain insurance coverage is September 15, 1982. The meeting will be in the Fireman's Hall, Tuesday, August 31st, at 7:30 p.m. All farmers, producers, and interested parties are urged to attend.

Carl Nunn, the Fisher County Supervisor; Rickey Gruben, the Fisher County WAE Adjuster; as well as other adjusters in the county will be at the meeting to share information in the program. For those farmers not able to attend the meeting in Roby, there will be another meeting in Hamlin September 2nd at 7:30 p.m. Local insurance agents will be present for the meeting.

TAKE THE LONG VIEW

Who doesn't dream, sometimes? Who doesn't stand gazing into the future, picturing that new house, that graduation day, that wedding ceremony, that new car... the thousand and one dreams that man holds in his heart?

We realize that a worthwhile life must contain more than just material satisfactions. Without a confident frame of mind, our future will be nothing but tension and uncertainty. Where can we find this inner feeling of courage that will make things easier for us every hour of every day?

Millions of people find it in the Christian faith. The apostle Paul said that he was strengthened in everything he did by faith in Christ... and this truth is constantly being rediscovered by men and women urgently in need of something they can trust.

Faith is the key to peace of mind. With faith, you will be able to move mountains of frustration.

Hardin Simmons To Offer Math Courses

Hardin-Simmons University will continue to offer mathematics courses designed especially for secondary teachers who either need refresher courses or courses to support certification in mathematics.

This word comes from Charles D. Robinson, head of the HSU Dept. of Mathematics. Registration at HSU begins Aug. 25, with classes starting Aug. 26. Robinson said courses in mathematics were offered beginning last year as the need was expressed by some who were teaching math courses without an adequate background in the field.

Mathematics 4350, "Seminar in Mathematics," will be offered beginning Aug. 31 through Dec. 14, on Tuesdays from 6 to 8:45 p.m. The topic of the seminar will be "Mathematical Analysis for the Secondary School Mathematics Teacher." Calculus is not a prerequisite for any of the courses offered, he said.

Last day to register is Sept. 9.
For further information, contact Dr. Charles Robinson, HSU, Abilene, Tex., 79698 or call 915-677-7281, Ext. 397 or 400.

Cliffla Jean Bradford And Jess Douglas Parker Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Bradford of Odessa announce the engagement of their daughter, Cliffla Jean Bradford, to Jess Douglas Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Stamps, formerly of Abilene.

The couple will wed

September 10 at St. Luke's United Methodist Church in Odessa, the Rev. Leroy Watkins officiating.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Tuttle High School, Tuttle, Oklahoma. She is employed by James S. Kone and Co., Odessa, Texas.

Her fiance attended Abilene High School and Odessa High School. He is employed by Irwin Steel Erectors, Inc., Odessa. He is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Eaton of Rotan.

Plenty of hot weather this past week. Some cotton is showing signs of moisture stress. Bollworm egg and larvae numbers have been down in most places.

Most producers in the Lawlis Flats area are on their 3rd boll weevil spray. It will take 5 sprays on 5 day intervals to break the cycle. This is because a boll weevil egg takes 17 days to develop into an adult weevil and the fifth spray on day 20 would be your clean-up spray. Thirty percent weevil punctured 1/3 grown squares is the point where control measures should be considered. If your cotton is moisture stressed and is shedding small bolls, the decision to spray is more difficult.

Tom Fuchs, the area Extension Entomologist at San Angelo, has put together the following report on the economics of boll weevil control.

We have been asked by many dryland producers whether or not to try to control weevils. In my opinion the producer needs to answer the following before making that decision:

- 1) What is the yield potential of your crop based on fruit load and moisture levels?
- 2) Are you financially able to commit a minimum of

In 1913 the highest building in the U.S. was the Woolworth building in New York City at 792 feet!

Boll Weevil Control

$25-30 per acre to a spray program?

3) Are you willing to scout your field twice a week so that you can make intelligent management decisions?

If he has a potential of more than 1/2 bale per acre and is willing to make the financial and time commitments, I believe he stands to gain from controlling weevil populations which are causing 25-30% damaged squares. To break even, a $30.00 spray program would have to increase yield by 1/10 bale per acre if cotton brings 60 cents/pound of lint. I believe he can do this plus a good profit if the spray program is properly carried out.

How long should the cotton be protected from weevils? Cotton should be protected from weevils until most of the potential harvestable bolls are more than 10 days old (larger than the diameter of a quarter). A fruit with a white bloom is considered a 1 day old boll. You might have to protect the cotton from worms a little longer.

How many applications will I need? This could vary a great deal depending upon insect populations and age of fruit on the cotton but I would be prepared to make 4 or 5 applications.

When should I treat the first time? The first application should be made as soon as damage levels hit 25-30%. The next application should be made 4-5 days later. Additional applications should be made when the damage level from weevils again reaches 25% or worm numbers exceed 5 or 6 per 100 plants (you treat for lower number of worms after making weevil application because the beneficial populations will usually be very low). I sincerely believe that you must be willing to scout your cotton or have someone that will in order to come out a winner at this game!

Bollworm numbers have been very low this past week. Most worms being found are medium to large in size and will soon cycle out. Egg numbers are also extremely low. We are still running 3 bollworm moth pheromone traps in Fisher County. The moth trap catch numbers are now at the lowest point that they have been so far in August. We have a peak egg lay predicted for August 31 in most areas. This means that we should see some egg lay activity toward the latter part of next week increasing to the end of the month. Bollworm economics is discussed in the following article by James F. Leser, Area Extension Entomologist, at Lubbock.

It is imperative in this day of high control costs and low cotton prices to make care full determinations of the need for bollworm control. The following information may prove useful in assessing bollworm infestations and the economic feasibility of control. Do keep in mind that we have a long way to go before we can call bollworm management a science. There still are a lot of data gaps which must be filled by research before bollworm management decisions are more science than art.

The number of bolls per pound of lint can vary from about 250-450 depending upon variety and whether it's your top, middle or bottom crop. Use 300 for a conservative estimate for your really good bolls. Use 400 or more for these late bolls.

The number of bolls destroyed by a bollworm will depend largely on how many small bolls there are between the worm and any full-sized bolls, and how rapidly the worm moves down the stalk. Frequently, a bollworm will move quickly down the stalk eating just a little out of each fruiting form. This damage sometimes is followed by boll rotting organisms. If this occurs, the whole boll can be lost even though bollworm damage was not heavy. If you have mostly full-sized bolls, then assign a value of 1-1.25 bolls destroyed by each worm. If you have a lot of smaller bolls you think will make it, use 1.5-2 bolls in the equation.

Generally, I expect about 75% (0.75) control from a properly selected chemical applied correctly. Certainly the level could be lower or high in some instances.

residents due to Clear Fork River, which was a live stream in those days and flowed through the townsite. In the meantime D.C. and M.S. Roby of Mississippi were contacted by Thomas H. Cosby heirs who owned one league and three sections of land in vicinity of present Roby. The two Robys had townsite laid out for another proposed county seat.

Following this action, the competition between the two places—Fisher and Roby—began to wax warmer in regard to which was the more suitable location for the county seat site.

When the fight concerning the site for the county seat began to become too heated, the adherents of the Roby's remembered quite well that what profit they had gained came from the possession of their land. Consequently, they supported the Robys through "thick and thin" to see that Roby became the official site for the courthouse.

In the winter of 1865, the adherents of Roby as a site for a county seat discovered that settlers were coming into the territory adjacent to Fisher faster than they were moving into Roby. For this reason the wheels of organization in regard to the establishment of a county government were speeded up. The adherents of the Roby site concluded that it would be desirable to stage the election for the determination of the site for the county seat before the Fisher settlers had time to acquire their legally required six months' residence in the county; the requirement which would have qualified the Fisher residents to vote in a county seat election.

Fisher County, prior to this organization move, was attached to Nolan County for judicial purposes (after a transfer from Shackelford County). In 1885 the Texas Legislature had provided that, when Fisher County should organize, it should become a part of the Thirty-ninth Judicial District of which J.V. Cockrell was judge. Consequently, it became necessary for the Robys and their followers to present to the Commissioners Court of Nolan County a petition ordering an election for the selection of a county seat.

In March of 1886, the friends of the Robys presented to the Commissioners Court of Nolan County a petition, containing about one hundred seventy names. The petition asked permission to hold an election which would grant the organization of the county and the designation of a county seat site.

Mr. Strang and his friends did not want an election held in 1886; therefore, when the election for the organization for Fisher County was called for April 20, they contested before the honorable Commissioners Court of Nolan County the sufficiency and validity of the petition for election as presented by the adherents of the Robys, claiming that the petition was padded with signatures and that the county did not contain one hundred fifty qualified voters. If this could be proved, the petition was faulty in praying for an election to organize Fisher County. The Commissioners Court held, in this case, that the burden of proof fell on Strang to show that the signers of the Roby petition were not qualified voters.

Judge J.V. Cockrell later said that the contesting of the Roby document waxed "exceedingly warm" for several days. Those interested in Fisher as the proposed county seat were not able to reduce the Roby petition list to less than one hundred fifty signatures. The failure of Strang and his friends to bring the list of Roby petitioners below one hundred fifty qualified voters was followed by action of the Commissioners Court of Nolan County, ordering the election for April 20, 1886.

Years later when the heat of battle for the site of the county seat had faded away, the fact was brought to light that Bill Purp was shown on the Roby petition as a qualified voter of Fisher County. Bill Purp was, in reality, a cur dog that belonged to Bob Simpson of the Cottonwood settlement which was about eight miles southwest of Roby. Strang was unable to get any trace of this particular "voter", but the incident in later years amused Strang as much as it did Simpson.

When the election was held, one hundred thirty-one votes were cast for the organization of Fisher County and the naming of Roby as the proposed county seat. Strang contested, futilely it seems, that there were not one hundred thirty-one voters in the county, but he lacked sufficient support to trace each new citizen that was claimed for Roby.

The fight for a county seat left scars for several years in the memories of county voters. Many who had been close friends parted as enemies for a period of several years. In the end, however, when construction of the county's first courthouse was decided on, the citizens of the county became more closely united than they had been before the election fight.

Few present day citizens of the County realize that in 1910 a strong effort was started in Rotan to move the county seat there. This never came to a vote as Roby being the geographical center of the county would take a 3-4 majority of votes to move the county seat. This did not seem probable as with transportation in those days mainly horsepower. Rotan proponents, realized their chances were so remote they abandoned the idea.

Hooper Shelton, Job Printer

I read the other day "when it comes to slogans and catchy phrases, Americans rarely come up short." Take bumper stickers for example. One can find the "wisdom of the world" glued to the bumper of a Chevy. Mirth, morality, and mischief seem to be everywhere. Love is the central theme of many stickers. It's proclaimed for Virginia, New York, various brands of beer, Vermont, Maine, the Yankees, the Cowboys, skiing and field hockey. One person even claims to love his Volvo. Sports messages are also popular. From the funny—"All Fisherman Are Liars Except You and Me and Sometimes I Wonder About You" and "If You Think I'm A Bad Driver, You Should See Me Putt" to the serious "Save Sport Fishing-Stop Acid Rain." Others urge readers to "Try Aerobic Dancing-It's A Kick". Various occupations put in a word or two such as "Firefighters Still Make House Calls" and "Nurses Are Patient People". But when it comes right down to it, "Sailors Have More Fun". One sticker laughs at the nation's economic woes. "Recession! What Recession! We're Truckin'." For those seeking to regain lost youth (or if you work at a goat newspaper) "Feel Like A Kid Again-Drink Goat Milk." In addition, goat milk is also proclaimed as the "Udder Choice".

The fact is, when it comes to bumper stickers, almost anything goes. There are just too many slogans, protests, and quips for any one person to keep track of. That's probably why one driver decided to turn things over to a higher authority. His sticker reads, "Just For The Record-God's Writing It All Down."

Golden Haven Nursing Home

This is the time of year that is good or it's bad. When school starts, that's good for Moms but bad for students. We urge everyone to be watchful of school students while driving.

Our visitors who registered: Visiting Elizabeth Hale were Armon Hale of Lamesa and his grandchildren from Eules, and Joe and Vera Jennings of Throckmorton. Visiting Eva Chapman were Helen Thornburg, Bertha and SealCarlie of Sweetwater. Visiting Leatha Meek were Charles and Norma Meek of Sylvester. Visiting Guy Johnson were Weldon and Meda Fae Johnson of Houston. Visiting Ezell Whitten were Mrs. Wanda Moffett of Sylvester and Martha Williams of Sylvester. Visiting Lora Stephens were Albert and Ella Mae Hayes, Hamlin.

We're so glad Eulah Williamson has returned home from the hospital. We appreciate Charles Webb bringing garden vegetables for our residents. The volunteers who bring church service and music bring so much joy to our shut-ins. Do come and visit anytime.

Hustlin' Round Hobbs

Another week of hot weather and the cotton seems to be holding up pretty good, although a good rain would sure help it right about now. Maybe we will get one this week, sure hope so.

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Martinez went to Abilene on Thursday and attended an A.M.P.I. District meeting. Rudolph was re-elected a Voting Delegate for this coming year. Rosemary Martinez and Darrell Gay from Fort Worth spent the weekend visiting with the Rudolph Martinezs.

Mrs. James Ratliff and Teresa journeyed to Vernon last Monday and visited for a short while with Mr. and Mrs. Gary Jacobs. They went to Snyder Tuesday night and Teresa rode in the Play Night they had in conjunction with the Jones County Fair. Teresa went to White Water at Odessa over the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Knipe and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Butrum and Matt, all from Snyder.

Jim and I went to Sweetwater and then to Snyder on Tuesday and between Roscoe and Snyder it rained pretty good; there was water standing in some of the fields, but it was very spotted. Friday night we went to Crosbyton to watch the Rotan scrimmage. It was so nice and cool there and we didn't get a bit hot although the Junior Varsity game started at 5:30. We went with Mr. and Mrs. Wilber Gruben and Evette. Melody visited with Mark and his parents in Austin over the weekend and she stayed until Monday, when she helped Mark move back to Stephenville and his last semester of college. She returned to Fort Worth Monday night. We went to Crossroads Church on Sunday night and saw some of the films they had taken while in Alaska. They were really good and the scenery was just beautiful. They had slides of all the work they did while they were there and it was sure interesting, but made us appreciate all the modern conveniences we have here.

Well, this is short again this week, but I missed some of you. Some were out of town I am sure, but lots of folks have been working in their gardens this year, as all the vegetables have really been plentiful. See you next Thursday.

Blazers and other tailored jackets are versatile additions to a wardrobe, but "impossible" to sew? At least too difficult to tackle? Not so.

If you've hesitated to make a blazer because you think it's too hard to do or will take too long, think again.

Today's patterns, fabrics and notions make tailored jackets easier than ever before.

Here are some tips for "quickie" tailoring:

Pattern Selection
Select a basic pattern that you can make several times in different fabrics for different seasons. Each time you make the same pattern, it gets faster.

Look for design details that are simple and quick. These include patch pockets instead of welt pockets and sleeves and back without vents. If the

75th Edition Due Soon

The 75th Anniversary "Keepsake Edition" of the Roby Star Record-Rotan Advance promises to be one of the largest papers in the past 75 years.

It will contain old photographs, histories of businesses and clubs, a history of Rotan and selected pieces by local authors entitled "I Remember When".

If you have not turned in your business's history or a history on your club or organization—this is the last call. Deadline for receiving stories will be Monday, September 6th.

We anticipate publishing the "Diamond Anniversary" section in late September or early October.

pattern has vents, plan to sew them up.

Also, in choosing a pattern, remember that lining a garment is faster than finishing all the seams. Be sure the pattern includes the lining. Making your own lining pattern is time-consuming.

Be sure the pattern has enough seams to make altering and fitting easy. Contrary to what you might think, the "few-seams" feature of the "jiffy" or "simple" patterns makes these difficult to alter.

Fabric Choices
Choose fabrics that are easy to sew on.

Tweeds and linen-like fabrics are good choices in woven fabrics, while wool, polyester or blends are the best double knits.

Fabrics such as wool flannel and velveteen take a long time to sew or press to get a nice look.

Plaids are lovely but take extra time to match during cutting.

Construction Tips
Choose construction methods that eliminate hand sewing. Use fusibles for interfacing and in hems, if possible.

Remember that topstitching eliminates the need for hemming at all.

Make machine buttonholes and topstitch pockets to the jacket.

Don't skip the essentials of good construction—this will slow you down. For example, be sure to staystitch neck edges and armholes. Clip and trim seams to eliminate bulk. And press often, especially before crossing one seam with another.
