FIFTIETH YEAR

COTTON TROUBLES INCREASE DURING YEAR, COX CLAIMS

University of Texas Bureau of Business Research Director Complains

Price Peg Failure?

STIN, Texas. — "Cotton presents a medley of complications," A. B. Cox, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research and internationally known authority on cotton marketing, said in a recent analysis of the cotton situation.

The drought coupled with the Federal Government's land-leasing plan has reduced the 1934-35 cotton crop to the lowest level of 9,469,000 bales, presents a very bullish supply situation.

On August 1, the indication is that the supply for the United States will be 16,941,000 bales, a reduction from the previous year of 7,472,000 bales. Cotton prices moved to over thirteen cents in the face of this most bullish situation.

The Federal Government saw fit to put on a 12-cent price peg in such a way as to start a movement which accumulated a 12-cent loan a maximum of $100,000,000.

Eventually the accumulated loan was the big factor which broke the price peg and thus gave another demonstration that even Uncle Sam with all his resources cannot for long peg the price of cotton by a holding movement.

It is another demonstration that a holding movement is a way of storing up trouble. The decrease in supply of over 7,000,000 bales of American cotton at 1 has now been reduced to 800,000 bales. It is quite likely that the carry-over of cotton to the United States will be very little this year in spite of the very short crop if the American price continues to be above world price.

Most of this cotton is essentially Government owned and the Government will be expected to be a benevolent lender to the cotton grower's greatest need.

Our Government eventually will force the farmer to cut down production and sell, or put the cotton on the market and thus force a lower price. Have we not had sufficient of both in this country and during the past five years to demonstrate clearly that any Government scheme to hold cotton prices carries in it the elements of destruction? Good merchandise has learned long ago that the way to raise the price of a commodity is to push the surplus consumption rather than to restrict it.

It is not obvious that if Government had spent even half as much as it has in trying to create a surplus by holding, in pushing out of consumption we would have had the surplus and higher price not only now but in the process of consumption.

Supplies of American cotton have been reduced this year by more than half in the United States. Stocks of American cotton in foreign ports and afloat to date are now only 908,000 bales, valued at 1,805,000 on April 1.

In other words, Europe is heavily into its stocks of American cotton. On the other hand Europe is substituting foreign cotton for American in a striking manner. According to the New York Cotton Exchange Service, "foreign mills are using cotton at a record high rate and they are using far less staple and much more medium staple than usual." Normal American constitutes about 45 percent of foreign consumption. This will be only about 30 percent of supplies of cotton in the States April 1 were 10,082,000 bales compared with 10,895,000 bales a year ago. The decrease in supplies of cotton in the United States and of American cotton in foreign ports and afloat to date during the past year was 1,710,000 bales.

A varied type of entertainment was afforded the crowd. Stunts of interest to all ages were enacted. Musical numbers, songs and square dances of an earlier era vied with modern selections and round dancing, and the collection of cowboys, cowgirls, Indians and war-like Mexicans of the Santa Anna regime contrasted vividly with the 1935 displays. Step by step, year by year, the evolution of Texas from a land of nomad Indian tribes to the present state, was brought before the eyes of the visitors.

Mrs. C. O. Warren directed the program, with Miss May Pence, teacher of expression, and Miss Leone Hoge, pianist, acting as assistants.

O. B. King is superintendent of the Knox City school and Mrs. Allie Cash, principal.

The banquet was served in two courses by Mrs. A. C. Pierson, who was assisted by Misses Frankie Dorris Bledsoe, Anita Jo Simmons, Wilma Whately, Francis Fouts and Wilma Keunstler. Miniature senior dolls, dressed in the class colors of silver and pink, were used as place favors. The color scheme was also carried out at the tables with pink rose buds and silver ribbon.

The out-of-town visitors appearing on the program were introduced by Maxine Simmons, Abilene, as follows: Ann Taylor, reading; Billie Morrow, xylophone, accompanied by Hub Smith, piano; Pate Shaw, vocal solo numbers. G. V. Wimbish, Haskell high school principal, gave the invocation.

Knox City Scene May Day Pageant

KNOX CITY, May 7.—With over 500 children taking part, a colorful May Day pageant was held on the high school lawn here Monday afternoon. The history of Texas, even before it was made a nation, was depicted through the medium of costumes and created scenes. An estimated crowd of 1500 persons attended the pageant, which lasted four hours.

A varied type of entertainment was afforded the crowd. Stunts of interest to all ages were enacted. Musical numbers, songs and square dances of an earlier era vied with modern selections and round dancing, and the collection of cowboys, cowgirls, Indians and war-like Mexicans of the Santa Anna regime contrasted vividly with the 1935 displays. Step by step, year by year, the evolution of Texas from a land of nomad Indian tribes to the present state, was brought before the eyes of the visitors.

A Diplomat Selects Beauties

DENTON, Texas.—Whether it's diplomatic for a diplomat to choose beauty is undecided, but Ruth Bryan Owen, daughter of the famous commoner, exemplifies her ideas of beauty in her choice of girls from Texas State College for Women (CIA). The eight beauties pictured above were selected from a group of thirty-two nominated from a student body of 1800 for the distinction, and were introduced at the senior formal prom, outstanding social event of the year honoring graduating seniors.

HASKELL BRAVES TO BATTLE SEYMOUR

Baylor County Ball Team Invades Wigwam Here Sunday Afternoon

The Haskell Braves, local Wichita Valley league representatives, will wage warfare against the Seymour baseball team here next Sunday. Pitcher Stallings, who showed the Haskell players a real high, hard one when the two teams played at Seymour recently, will probably hurl for the visitors with Tanny Jones flinging for the Braves.

The regular Haskell line-up will be placed on the field in an effort to increase the local club's position in the standing.

Play With Pistol; Killed

SWEETWATER, Texas.—Mack Oldham, 27-year old police recruit, showed his wife the revolver issued to him. Playfully they snapped it at each other. She went to prepare dinner and as he entered the room a bullet pierced his head, killing him. Unknown to his wife, Oldham had loaded the pistol.

Speaking of house cleaning, why does the wife always have a rug to be beaten just when a fellow wants to go fishing.

M-O-T-H-E-R

Memory brings back days of lullabies,
So tenderly sung where the baby lies,
With her deep unfathomed love we see
Her dreaming only of what is to be.
Only a mother can so patient be,
And only good in youngsters see,
Hoping great things for the little ones
And patiently awaiting the years to come.
Toil for us has aged her now—
Care has furrowed her gentle brow;
Her hair is white, her steps are slow—
Yet her love follows, where'er we go.
Heaven, a real Madonna has sent,
In our dear mothers, old and bent—
Patient through the by-gone years,
Wearing a smile in the midst of tears.
Endearing is her love so true;
So often we were ungrateful, too—
We drifted far from her dreams of old,
Crushing the heart of purest gold.
'Round the world there's no other such love,
For God sent her love from above.
Let's give her love, and flowers, too—
Let's make her dreams of old come true.

CITY TO VOTE ON WATER BOND ISSUE MONDAY, JUNE 10

$35,000 In Revenue Bonds Will Be Used to Improve Local Water System

Is Self-Sustaining

For the purpose of determining whether the sum of $35,000 shall be spent to make certain repairs and improvements of the City's water system, an election has been called by the members of the City Council to be held Monday, June 10.

Funds for the water system project will be raised through the issuance of revenue bonds, according to Council members, and will be payable from, and secured solely by an exclusive first lien on and the pledge of the revenues of the water system.

The election will be held in the City Hall. R. E. Sherrill will be presiding judge; F. G. Alexander, judge; Mrs. J. T. Wilson, clerk; Miss Duin Fields, clerk.

Whether further steps should be taken toward the securing of a PWA grant of $150,000 which would give Haskell a municipal light plant will also be decided in a special election here Monday, June 10, according to members of the City Council, who have just issued the order.

First steps, the council members contend, and the proposition upon which voters will ballot, is the securing of a survey of the city at an estimated expenditure of $750, owing to the fact that without correct data, which would show whether the City of Haskell could realize sufficient revenue to pay off the bonds and operate in opposition to the West Texas Utilities Company, the government would refuse to place its approval upon the grant.

No bonds in addition to the light plant bonds would have to be voted, council members also state, and if the government required additional security, no member of the council would be in favor of securing the grant.

Opposition to the proposed survey without an election being held first, was manifested here when a petition, signed by slightly over 80 names, was presented to the city administration by Judge L. D. Ratliff, local attorney for the utilities company. The petition requested that an election be called to determine the citizenship's wishes before any survey was undertaken.

Claiming that two electric plants in Haskell would prove unprofitable for all concerned, F. W. Schroeder, Abilene, vice president of the West Texas Utilities Company, presented a set of figures to the local council body here recently which tended to show that only a small profit was realized here in 1934 by the company which he represented.

Hugh Ratliff Is Given Promotion to Army Top-kick

(From the Shreveport (La.) Journal)
Top-kick in the army after only two hitchhikes!
That's the record of First Sgt. Hugh Ratliff, young Texas man who this week re-enlisted for the third time after being promoted to first sergeant of one of two major organizations stationed at Barksdale field.

Ratliff was promoted from the rank of staff sergeant to first sergeant, being selected for that post by Maj. Roy W. Camblin, commanding officer of the 190-man strong seventy-first service squadron of the field's station complement.

He is thought to be among the very few soldiers in the army to reach the grade of first sergeant after only six years' duty from first enlistment.

He enlisted in the army at Dallas on April 21, 1929, with an ambition of becoming a flying cadet in the air corps flying schools in San Antonio.

While stationed at Brooks field, home of the primary flying school at the time, Ratliff passed one of the examinations before he changed his ambition, and decided to stay in the enlisted ranks. He was promoted to the rank of corporal, and was assigned to Mather field, Cal., in November of 1930, arriving there as a "charter" member of the twenty-first pursuit group, which was at that time being organized. In May 1931, he was promoted to the rank of sergeant, and six months later to the rank of staff sergeant acting as sergeant major of the group.

He was one of the first enlisted men to come to Barksdale field, coming from Mather field in October, 1932.

On April 21 he was promoted to the rank of first sergeant, and selected as first sergeant of the seventy-first.

He is the son of Judge and Mrs. L. D. Ratliff of Haskell, Texas, and is single.

National Music Week.

Annually, the first week of May is set aside by mayors, governors and the president of the United States as National Music Week. During this week the public as well as musicians are asked to join in paying tribute to the culture and enjoyment which music brings to each individual and the nation as a whole. Let us make the masses more conscious of it.

We are glad to note that the ministers of the town of Haskell have cooperated with the Music Week Chairman in that they have made announcements from their pulpits concerning its observance. And they have had special music for their

May, the first services.

Much interest has been shown in our schools during the week in music. North Ward and South Ward grammar schools have responded with musical programs. And our High School is giving some splendid programs in observance of National Music Week.

May each home in Haskell, in possession of a radio, listen to, at least, one good musical program this week.

If American permanent music is to be American, it must take something from the daily music of its heterogeneous folk. And refine it, without polishing it beyond recognition. "Conserve our musical assets" is the slogan for Music Week.

Mrs. M. H. Post, chairman.

Contract Bridge Club.

Mrs. W. H. Atkinson entertained members of the Contract Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon. After the usual games, a business meeting was held and three new members elected to take the place of members who have moved away. Names were revealed until accepted. A delicious refreshment plate was served to Mesdames Bert Welsh, Virgil Reynolds, French Robertson, Barton Welsh, W. G. Forgy, Clay Smith, B. C. Chapman and T. V. Post. Mrs. Bert Welsh received high score prize for the afternoon.

Harmony Club.

The club had their last meeting for the year May 1st. The year's work has been very successful under the direction of our most capable and efficient leader, Mrs. Hawkins. After all business and reports for the year had been disposed of, Mrs. Thornton, the incoming president, took charge and commented on the success of the year's work and what the club had accomplished under the outgoing president's administration and expressed her desire for the same co-operation for the coming year.

Miss Wheeler, our Chorus Director, has the club working on the numbers for the Baccalaureate sermon.

When this program is rendered it will spell "Finis" for the year's work.

Sunday School Picnic.

On last Thursday evening a week ago, the Senior Bible Class of the Church of Christ traveled by automobile caravan to the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stark, in the Rose community. There a little glade in the woods was already lighted to welcome them; and a big bonfire was merrily blazing. After the roll was called to find out whether all were present, the students played many enjoyable games. After all were tired of playing, a sumptuous picnic lunch was spread. The following people were present: Misses Eunice Redwine, Lorene Wright, Virginia Williams, Armitta Bland, Reba Anderson, Rosa Nell Hollar, Beatrice Barton, Mildred McLoud, Linnie Reynolds, Blanche Davis, and Lois Davis. Messrs. Wallace Stark, W. A. Gibson, Lyndell Anderson, Alvy

Couch, Jr., Jerry Francis Carmichael, A. J. Pinkerton, Harvey Eason, George Field, and W. O. McDonald. Couples: Mr. and Mrs. L. Roy Parrish, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. Otta L. Johnson, and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stark. An enjoyable time was reported by all.

Methodist Missionary Society

On May 6th the W. M. S. of the Methodist Church met for the usual first Monday business meeting. A good crowd was present. Before the Worship Service, Mrs. Patterson gave a much appreciated Organ Concert. In the absence of Mrs. Sowell, who was to have given the Devotional, Mrs. R. C. Montgomery took charge of same. The call to worship was made by the singing of "Jesus Calls Us." Mrs. T. A. Williams offered a prayer. For the Scripture lesson, the 12th chapter of Romans was read. Reading of the Scripture was followed with a prayer by Mrs. C. D. Long.

The President, Mrs. O. E. Patterson, next took charge and called for reports of officers. Most of these were present and gave good reports. Unusually good was that given by Mrs. Mason who told of the activities of the Mary Alexander Circle, which is composed of the younger women of the church.

This meeting was one of unusual interest, in that we had present, four former members of our Society. These ladies were Mesdames P. D. Sanders, of Detroit, Mich., T. A. Williams of Fort Worth, C. D. Long of Gorman, Texas, and St. Louis, Mo., and H. R. Jones of Wichita Falls, Texas, the last named being a charter member of this Society.

What promised to be only a routine business meeting, was turned into a home-coming and reunion, by the presence of these dear friends.

The President called for talks from each of the four and all responded most graciously. The keynote of these talks was, the love which each bore for the Haskell Methodist Society. Through it all ran a thread of home-sickness, which made each of us realize that "There's No Place Like Home."

Mrs. Sanders told of her anger, when in her far-off Detroit home, she received the Haskell Free Press. We were pleased when she added that the first thing she read was "The Methodist Missionary Society" write-up. These women have been a blessing to the Missionary Society in the past and their influence is still felt. Our prayers go with them. We meet next Monday and Mrs. Irby is to direct a program on "This Moving Civilization." This program promises to be very interesting.

The President asks all to be present.

RECIPES AND MENUS

By Department of Home Economics
Texas State College for Women (C2A)

DENTON, Texas.—There is such an insistent call to the out-of-doors during the month of May that we may disagree when we hear someone say that Spring is the easiest time of the year to plan menus. It is true that here is an abundance of fresh vegetables on the market just begging to be purchased; but yet we feel the call of the out-of-doors and want to forget menus and menu-planning, but with a few suggestions we can picture delicious dishes, and we are back to the task of the home-maker.

In planning menus for May we should make use of fresh vegetables and fruits, but in planning I have tried not only to keep in mind our seasonal foods but also to use staple foods as in the case of rice and tomatoes.

Menus

Breakfast: Fresh Berries, Whole Wheat Cereal, Cream and Sugar, Coddled Eggs, Buttered Toast, Coffee.

Dinner: Breaded Veal Chops, Potatoes, Turnip Greens, Buttered Car-pineapple and Date Salad, Bread, Butter Oatmeal Cookies, Apricots.

Supper: Rice and Tomatoes, Squash, Combination Vegetable Salad, Bread, Butter, Tea.

Breakfast: Grapefruit, Bran, Cream, Sugar, Whole Wheat Muffins, Butter, Honey, Coffee.

Dinner: Roast Beef, Browned Potatoes, Buttered Asparagus, Waldorf Salad, Hot Rolls, Hermits, Frozen Custard.

Supper: Omelet, Beet Greens, Bread, Butter, Fresh Strawberries, Tea.

Recipes

Coddle Eggs: Butter individual molds or cups, which may then be powdered with chopped parsley. Slip an egg into cup, sprinkle with salt; put a few drops of cream over each yolk. Set molds in vessels of hot water and cook on top of stove or in a slow oven until eggs can be turned out.

White Sauce or tomato sauce may be used. Eggs may be cooked together in a plate and served without being removed from the plate.

Breaded Veal Chops: Select loin chops, or cut a steak from the round into individual pieces. Remove extra fat and dip the meat in crumbs, egg, and crumbs again. Cook by pan-frying. Cook 25 to 30 minutes in a small amount of fat in a frying pan, browning first on one side then turning, seasoning with salt and pepper, and browning on the other.

Oatmeal Cookies: 1/2 cup fat, 1 egg, 1 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons sour milk, 1 1/2 cup rolled oats, 1 cup chopped raisins or nuts, 1 1/2 cups flour, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1 teaspoon soda and 1 pinch salt.

Mix ingredients as for butter cakes, adding rolled oats to dry ingredients, and adding raisins or nuts last. Drop by spoonfuls on greased pans or baking sheets. Bake in a moderate oven for 12 to 15 minutes.

Whole Wheat Muffins: 1 cup whole wheat flour, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 tablespoon melted butter, 1/4 cup flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 egg and 4 teaspoons baking powder. Mix and sift dry ingredients, add milk gradually then the well beaten egg and the melted butter. Bake in a hot oven in a buttered pan for 25 minutes.

Hermits: 1/3 cup butter, 1 egg, 1 3/4 cups flour, 1/3 cup raisins, 1/4 teaspoon clove, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, 2/3 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons milk, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon mace.

Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, then raisins, egg well beaten, and milk. Mix and sift dry ingredients and add to first mixture. Roll mixture a little thicker than for Vanilla Wafers.

Short selling is bad enough, but any merchant will tell you that short buying is a lot worse.

This struggle with present conditions is a sort of cash-as-cash-can affair.

Surprise Birthday Reunion.

On Sunday, April 28th, Mr. S. M. Hayes was greatly surprised when relatives began gathering at his home to celebrate his 48th birthday. Each family brought a well-filled basket and a delightful dinner was served to the following:

M. Hayes and family, Mrs. C. E. Tidwell and son, Leroy, and three guests—Oliver Kite of A. C. C. Abilene, Willard Morrow of Princeton, and Orville Graham of Spur. All reported an enjoyable day and a good time.

4K KLUB.

Miss Eunice Huckabee was honored to members of the 4K Klub at her home Saturday night, May 4th. Rosebuds were used to make the room very attractive. "Front Seat Comfort" for back seat passengers—that's the result of the new "Full-floating Springbase" with "Comfort Zone Seating." Springs are mounted beyond the axles—all seats are now cradled between the springs. Every passenger rides in the "Comfort Zone."

• Buy it for POWER

The V-8 engine, as Ford builds it, has proved its superiority beyond question. Because at 50 to 60 miles per hour this engine is actually running at ease, it assures you of reserve power, instantly. The new Ford V-8 is the only car under $2000 that gives you V-8 performance.

• Buy it for ECONOMY

Costs less to run than any Ford car ever built. Dual, down-draft carburetion gives "4-cylinder" gasoline economy. New crankcase ventilation increases oil economy. New weight distribution increases tire life. New rib-cooled brakes are longer-wearing, require less adjustment.

• Buy it for BEAUTY

Outside and inside the new Ford V-8 strikes a new note in modernity and beauty. Gracefully streamlined body—with a choice of attractive body colors in durable baked enamel. Fenders that match body at no extra cost. Newly designed, luxurious interiors, with quality upholstery.

• Buy it for ROOMINESS

It's longer, wider and roomier. Seat-widths are increased from 1 1/2 to 5 1/2 inches. With the compact V-8 engine moved forward, there is ample leg room front and rear. The new angular gearshift lever permits three to sit in the front seat with comfort. Luggage space in all closed models.

• Buy it for SAFETY

The new Ford V-8 gives you a welded, one-piece, all-steel body. Safety glass all around is standard equipment in all models at no extra cost. New brakes have 186 inches of effective brake lining. New larger tires and a lower center of gravity give even greater safety on curves.

WHERE CREDIT IS DUE

With the announcement of the new Staff for next year it seems fitting at the same time to tell you of some of our most faithful contributors to the Warwhoop this year. There were certain students in addition to the regular class and club reporters, who showed special interest and ability as the year advanced, and who came to be depended on as regular staff members. We think they are due our recognition and appreciation.

After finishing the season as a popular reporter, Louise McNulty has continued as school-life editor, and has contributed a column almost every week—under various headings, but always an interesting commentary on school affairs. As editor of the "Whoops" column, Fredrow Dishong has shared responsibility with Anna Belle Stanton, the editor, in giving us a fine variety of humor and banter. Elected Secretary of the Senior Class, Alberta Orr has served also as reporter of the various activities of the seniors, while Louise Roberds and Beatrice Wheeler have worked jointly to present the Senior Sketches each week. Annie Barnett has contributed the personal column from time to time.

BAPTIST WOMEN BANQUET SENIORS

Dignified in cap and gown and watching their diplomas happily as they marked the big Seniors places, the "little seniors" seemed to foretell an evening of gaiety and happiness for guests of the Baptist Missionary Society last Friday night, May 3. Greeted by these gay little talents, the seniors and other guests took their places at attractive tables prepared in the church basement, and merriment prevailed from that moment, interspersed liberally with excellent food.

When the program hour arrived, by special request Ava Grindstaff gave her "Home Town" contest speech, and then Miss Maxine Simmons, acting as Mistress of Ceremonies, introduced the H. S. U. students and faculty members who were present to provide a special program. The group was then delightfully entertained with xylophone numbers by Billy Morris and popular vocal numbers by Pete Shaw, both accompanied by Hub Hill at the piano. Also Miss Ann Taylor, now of H. S. U., gave a very amusing reading. Following these numbers by the university students, Mr. Frank Jenell, faculty member, addressed the students in a most individual manner, concluding the program and leaving all in the gayest mood.

The seniors and faculty members present were very grateful to the Baptist women for providing this happy occasion—and to Mrs. Richey and those who helped her, for the clever "little seniors."

RAMBLING ROUND WITH THE G. R.'s

Why were lockers gone and books on the floor when Monday morning came? Because the Gypsy Ramblers had them taken out to put a trophy case beneath our clock. Probably not more than a few of you know we have trophies. But just because they are in the darkest corner of the school building is no sign they won't come to light, for they will. When our case is finished you'll be surprised to see how many beautiful ones we do have.

Another thing. Our school needs a banner. That is what the Ramblers think, for wait until you see the one they are getting. It is really lovely and should make every Indian and Squaw proud to be under such a banner. You'll see it later.

The Gypsy Ramblers are also due the credit for the flowers you have been enjoying at school. National Music Week is here and as nothing fits together more than music and flowers, the Gypsy Ramblers have combined the two in our school this week. At a meeting of the club last week, new members were voted in to take the places of the outgoing Senior members. The following girls become new members: Frankie Dorris Bledsoe, Winnie Darnell, Frances Holmesley, Florene Cook, Naomi Barnett, Maggie Lee Piland, Addie Lee Hayes, Hazel Foote, Mattie Pistole, Lorene Thomas, Robbie Burson, Frances Wheeler, and Delilah Mapes.

SENIOR SKETCHES

Virginia Williams was born in Aspermont, Texas, 1919. After she attended the Aspermont school for 5 years, she entered North Ward. She has attended Haskell schools since that time. After entering high school, she has been a member of the Gypsy Rambler Club four years. She wishes to continue her study of music and become a noted musician.

Billy Williams was born in Kemp, Texas, in 1917. He has obtained his education from several different schools, namely: Kemp, Rockwall, Kaufman, Longview, Quinlan, and Haskell. He played football one year at Kemp. Perhaps he's following in the steps of his "big brother," because he aspires to become a doctor. As we have known him only a short while, we, as the Seniors of '35, will probably remember him best as the "Boy who stood on the Burning Deck."

Beatrice Wheeler was born in Haskell county, 1918. After completing the fifth grade at the Myers school, she entered the North Ward. She has attended Haskell High School four years, being a Gypsy Rambler all four years. She was a member of the Senior play cast, "Gangway!" Her highest ambition is to become a teacher.

TO ENTER "MY HOME TOWN" CONTEST

Ava Grindstaff is up to her old tricks again. We are proud to say that she will represent Haskell High School in the "My Home Town" speech contest at the Chamber of Commerce Convention to be held in Plainview, May 13, 14, 15. Crockett English was the other local contestant and we are sorry he couldn't win too, because they both worked diligently on their speeches. Each contestant wrote, re-wrote and revised his own speech until it was the best specimen of his ability, and impressive enough to make us thrill with pride of our home town.

Now that you know Ava won and Crockett worked hard, we want you to know they had someone back of them to help and encourage them. That someone was the teacher of the Public Speaking Class, Mrs. Wimbish, who is always ready to help anyone, anywhere, and at any time. The Public Speaking Class as a whole also helped the speakers, in that they listened to their speeches over and over until everyone in the class almost knew every sentence. Well, Crockett, we wish you "better" luck next time; and Ava, we wish you the "best" of luck and hope you win at the Convention.

STUDENTS GIVE SHORT PLAY IN ASSEMBLY

In the regular assembly period May 1, the students were entertained with a short play given by two piano students, S. A. Moser and Geraldine Norris. This little skit, representing the ups and downs of a young married couple, was unique in that the dialogue all the way through consisted of single words. At this time Ava Grindstaff gave the speech which she composed herself on "My Home Town"; it was very interesting because it was well worded and well said.

During the remainder of the assembly period we all sang together. All seem to enjoy singing, for it makes us feel that we have a part on the program.

ANNA BELLE STANTON WINS SCHOLARSHIP

Last Saturday, May 4, Abilene Christian College sponsored a contest for high school students in music. The contest was divided into three divisions of music: Piano, voice, and violin. Anna Belle Stanton, who is quite an accomplished pianist, took second place, playing "Valse Comatique" by Godard, in contest with about two dozen other high school pianists. Frankie Dorris Bledsoe was a contestant in violin.

President Cox gave the awards and medals, and Anna Belle was presented with a scholarship and a medal. The scholarship was two lessons a week in theory for nine months after graduation.

Mrs. Wimbish and Miss Vick accompanied the Haskell contestants to Abilene.

CAMPUS SPOTLIGHT

Heigho, Everybody! This is the spotlight snooting around the campus again. You'd better be good or the spotlight will get you.

The first thing that falls upon our listening ears is that the little romance of two years between two well-known senior members as all "busted up."

Although the rain nearly spoiled the effect for the beautifully dressed young ladies last Friday night, some of them suffered no wet or muddy feet. How come?

We think H. J. should have dedicated to Kathryn last week "Who walks in when I walk out?" instead of "Who'll Take Care of the Caretaker's Daughter?"

By the way, the little blond-headed Virginia is very popular in Abilene, in case you didn't know it. (We peeked over her shoulder last week just in time to see the end of a very romantic letter from H. S.)

Say, Students, aren't we proud of the three brilliant girls who have brought honors upon our school? Here's to Ava, Frankie Dorris and Anna Bell for "honorable distinction."

Did you ever notice how attentive C. R. is to Juanita? (That's O. K., C. R., we admire it and wish all of them were more like that.)

We think it is about time Fred fixed the floor board in his Ford, because in rainy weather it allows mud to fly on young gentlemen—doesn't it, Billy?

By the time you read this Ruth Welsh will have fully decided that Haskell is just as good as Stamford.

The Seniors, despite their dignity, still like to play dolls. Really it was very amusing to see Fred, Maydell, Lyndell, Winston, Virginia and Woodie and Alberta at the banquet last Friday night, playing "going to church" with their "capped and gowned" dolls, which in their proper places served as place cards.

Now all good things must come to an end, So with a flourish I stop my pen. The End

Mr. Mason: "Tell the class something about Col. Lindbergh's great feat."

Tom: "I never saw them, but I can tell about Charlie Chaplin's."

Lorene: "My dog knows as much as I do."

Louise R.: "How odd you are! Most people are always bragging about their dogs."

Mr. Wimbish: "Every day we breath oxygen. What do we breath at night?"

Rose: "Nitrogen"

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASS

Not very much has been said during the entire school year about our Public Speaking Class, nevertheless, we have one and a good one, too. This is the first year we have had a class of this nature in our regular school curriculum. Under the splendid guidance and direction of Mrs. Geo. Wimbish, we have worked hard and yet we have had some good times together. Because of the fact that it is a very small class, every one gets individual attention. During the first half of the year, debate and extemporaneous speaking took our time, but we were well repaid. The two debate teams and one extemporaneous speaker went to the District Meet held in Breckenridge. Soon our class is going to present

History

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

Thursday morning about 5:30 a cyclone started south of Rule. The twister passed on northeast, tearing off two or three rooms of the Wm. McGregor house. J. W. Wheeler's place was damaged, the old Leflar place was wrecked. Sam Treat's house was blown down, and Mrs. Beckham and one child was seriously hurt. Mr. Adams, C. W. Bledsoe, and Mrs. Huff's house were blown down and wrecked. The Huff house was moved about fifty feet. Rev. William Groom preached his initiatory sermon here at the First Baptist church Sunday. Hon. W. H. Murchison presented diplomas to the following members of the graduation class April 30, 1915: Artie Bell Cummins, Frank Curry, Mamie Hamilton, Anna Mae Hancock, Eunice Huckabee, Clinton Johnson, Alice Killingsworth, Eurna Lamm, Linnie Lamm, Laura Lee Langford, Effie Nola Long, Olive Meadors, Alfred Pierson, Effie Roberts, Francis Sherrill, Carrie Sherrill, Eise Tyson, Willie Veazey, and James Williams.

30 YEARS AGO TODAY

two one-act plays in an assembly program to be given on Gypsy Rambler Day, which is to be observed May 15. Anyone who wishes to do so is cordially invited to attend our program on that day.

In "An Unprepared Test" Mr. Wade (Lyndell Anderson) and Mrs. Wade (Edith Moody) are parents to whom their children's problems are important. Virginia Wade, the almost eighteen-year-old daughter whose problem engage their attention, is played by Ava Grindstaff. George William Fouts portrays Robert Wade, the four-year-old son with the "detective instin's". Dave Horton (Winston Watson) are the candidates for the unprepared test.

"Not Quite Such a Goose" is a clever one-act play with a slight love plot and with good morals. Mrs. Bell, a happy mother, is played by Mary Ben Chapman. Albert Bell, her seventeen year old son, portrays Corvell Adkins in a slight comedy role. Sylvia Bell (Alberta Orr) and Philip Flick (Winston Watson) give a short love scene to the great disgust of Albert. Sylvia's brother who later mimics them with Hazel Henderson (Faye Strickland).

HIGH SCHOOL OBSERVES MUSIC WEEK

Annually, a week is set aside by mayors, governors, and the President of the United States in which the public, as well as musicians, are asked to join in paying tribute to the culture and enjoyment which the art brings to each individual and the nation as a whole.

A Candid Statement To Property Owners And Voters In Haskell

Regarding Proposed Survey of A Municipal Light & Power Plant in Haskell:

SO THE PEOPLE MAY KNOW—

We, the members of the City Council, have ordered an election to be held on Monday, June 10 to determine whether the sum of $750 shall be spent for a survey of this city in order that an application may be made for a $125,000 Government PWA loan.

WE ASK THAT YOU READ THIS ENTIRE STATEMENT!

We, as your representatives, and acting in our official capacity, with the ever present thought of serving ALL of the PEOPLE (not just a few) in all of our actions, have called this election for the sole purpose of securing your views concerning the proposed municipal power plant.

PLANT WILL BE SELF-SUSTAINING—

Since the PWA has appropriated the $4,800,000,000 for public works which is hoped will bring the country out of the depression, and the fact is known that power plants and power dams have been built (or are now under construction at this time), owing to the fact that the U. S. government has shown a tendency to let municipalities borrow money to put in power and light plants WHERE THE PROJECT IS SELF-LIQUIDATING.

By SELF-LIQUIDATING, it is meant that the proposed municipal power and light plant will pay FOR ITSELF OUT OF THE REVENUES OF THE PLANT. The securing of this project WILL NOT ADD ONE PENNY TO YOUR TAX BURDEN. FURTHERMORE IT WILL NOT ENCROACH ON THE PROPERTY OF ANY CITIZEN IN THE CITY LIMITS OF HASKELL, NOR IN HASKELL COUNTY.

SURVEY MUST BE MADE TO GET PROJECT

ALL MONEY COLLECTED TO PAY OFF THESE BONDS WILL BE COLLECTED FROM THE REVENUES OF THE PLANT—AND THE PLANT ONLY! Such a statement is printed on the face of the bonds. Since we, the members of the City Council, propose to spend the sum of $750 for a survey, we would like to tell you what this survey includes. So many cities and different people are asking for PWA loans it is essential, and DOWNRIGHT NECESSARY, that when you send in your application for a PWA grant, you be specific in detail. Otherwise, approval cannot be secured.

This survey of Haskell will include the listing of all poles to be used, the height and size of each pole, the size of wire, the amount of wire, the size and amount of cross-arms, total number of transformers, insulators, meters, the proposed location of your plant, the size of your plant, the operating cost of both fuel and labor, how many units that will be required to operate, how many lots to be used and a complete blue print of each pole in the city.

The survey will also include the payments that are to be made, the interest and principal necessary and many other details too numerous to mention.

AND IF THIS SURVEY IS MADE AND THE LOAN GRANTED, THE ENGINEER WILL REIMBURSE US THE AMOUNT OF $250. The survey will be on a basis of 60 percent of the customers.

WE BELIEVE THAT POWER AND LIGHT RATES CAN BE REDUCED FROM THE PREVAILING RATES NOW EXISTING IN HASKELL and further believe that a municipal light and power plant, such as existing at Vernon, Bowie and other Texas cities is the right answer.

Prices of Food in United States To Receive Airing By Government

WASHINGTON.—Wherever housewives foregather these days, the mounting size of their grocery bills becomes an outstanding topic of conversation.

The Department of Agriculture is keenly aware of the growing amount of discussion in the past month about the increased cost of food. Officials are seeing the fulfillment of a prediction made at the time of the drought last summer, that the spring of 1935 would bring with it a new peak in prices.

What disturbs agriculture officials most is the fact that the average housewife, dismayed when her butcher asks 31 cents a pound for pork chops for which she paid 24 cents a year ago and 19 cents in 1933, compares the present price with the lowest point of the depression.

The department wants her to learn to compare, rather, the share of her dollar she pays for food at the present time and the share she paid in 1914 before the war. She will find it smaller. In 1914 the American housewife spent 36 per cent of her budget for food; in 1928, only 28 per cent; and in February, 1935, 35 per cent.

Moreover, the housewife is reminded, that food prices are about 35 per cent higher now than at the pit of the depression in March, 1933, but still about 19 per cent below the prices of March, 1930.

But there is little likelihood that housewives will desist in their complaints as long as labor department figures are showing, as they do, that milk jumped an average of 6 per cent in the last year; butter, 34 per cent; round steak, 35 per cent; rib roast, 38 per cent; chuck roast 44 per cent; lard, 81 per cent; ham, 42 per cent; eggs, 35 per cent; bread, 5 per cent; flour, 4 per cent; and canned corn, 13 per cent. Cabbage, canned tomatoes, potatoes, apples and bananas are cheaper than they were a year ago.

The agriculture department gives no hope of prices going down at any time in the near future. Their goal for the farmer is prewar parity and at present only a few farm products, are selling at their prewar level.

Pole Hits Train

CUMBERLAND, O.—It is usually the telegraph pole that gets the worst of the bargain in any collision but this time the pole took the offensive and did some oppling on its own account. As a locomotive reached a crossing, the train crew was surprised to see a telegraph pole topple over on the locomotive. Train brakes were quickly applied and the only apparent damage done was the pulling down of some wires.

ONE DECADE OF SERVICE

Only one decade has passed since a unified plan of electrical development was inaugurated for West Texas. The West Texas Utilities Company pioneered in this development in 49 West Texas Counties and now serves 159 towns and communities. Many of these towns have for the first time dependable and adequate electric service and many without immediate hope of electric service were enabled to procure such service.

The results of this well-planned and unified system of electrical development has made possible economies in operation through a closely correlated and experienced management. Rates have been reduced over 60 per cent since the organization of this company.

This company realizes the importance of electric service in the home today. It reasonably anticipates a far greater service in the future. Every plan of company operation is guided not only by immediate needs but by the potentialities for tomorrow. The policies that this company has adhered to in the past of building and of reducing rates can be continued with the co-operative efforts of its valued customers.

Do you know that your increased use of Electric Service is billed on a surprisingly low rate schedule... and adds only a small amount to your total bill?

MOTHER'S DAY

In accordance with a national custom just 20 years old, and in response to a proclamation by the President, who annually designates the second Sunday of May as a day of homage to motherhood, next Sunday, May 12, will be observed as Mother's Day throughout the United States.

The day had been observed in some cities as early as 1910, the idea having been originated by Miss Anna Jarvis, of Philadelphia, and the custom spread rapidly. National recognition was given in 1914, when Congress authorized the President to designate the second Sunday in May of each year as Mother's Day, and the first proclamation under this authority was issued by President Wilson the same year.

The object of the day, as is well known, is to recall memories of the mothers who have passed away, and to pay special tributes of affection to those living. The badge of the day is the white carnation, emblematic of the purity, beauty and fidelity of a mother's love. By some the red carnation is worn in honor of living mothers.

Few of us reflect as often as we should on the debt of love and gratitude we owe to our mothers. How much less crime and misery there would be in the world today if the teaching and advice of sainted mothers had been followed! By thoughts and acts of sincere affection on Mother's Day, and on other days as well, we honor our mothers and do credit to ourselves. If they be living let every son and daughter see to it that their wants are supplied.

FACTS ON UNEMPLOYMENT

It is interesting to notice that one of the big jobs to be done under the $4,880,000,000 work-relief program is to be the taking of a nation-wide census of unemployment. Formerly called "wage collar" workers will be put to work on the task.

Here is something that should have been started years ago. We have known ever since 1930 that we had a great number of unemployed people, but not until now have we gone to the trouble of counting them and finding out exactly how many there are or what circumstances they are in.

Our refusal to take such an obviously necessary step is a shining example of governmental folly.

The job is long overdue; it is good to know that it will be done at last, and it would be even better to know that it would be done at regular intervals hereafter, so that we could have a constant check on the size of our greatest internal problem.

SANE THOUGHT NECESSARY

The Senate seems to be persuaded that it is necessary to do something for the tenant farmer; but it seems also to be persuaded that it seems essential to proceed with a great deal of care, lest the remedy involve the nation in greater difficulties than the disease itself. Thus the bill which would have Uncle Sam loan $1,000,000,000 to relieve dependent farm tenants is referred back to committee after nearly two weeks of debate. The committee is instructed to report not later than May 12. That the helpless destitution of a large percentage of tenant farmers and "share croppers" constitutes a national crisis is undeniable. But it is equally clear that hasty and ill-considered action to relieve it would be as bad as no action at all. It is noteworthy that it was Senator Borah, himself a proponent of aid for tenant farmers, who moved to recommit the bill. Out of this move should come a sounder and saner relief plan.

HUMAN RIGHTS ABOVE ALL

Secretary of the Interior Harold M. Ickes hit the nail on the head when he told newspaper editors in New York that the great guarantees of a free press, free speech, and the right of peaceable assembly are just about the most vital portions of our Constitution. "We might give up all the rest of our Constitution, if occasion required, and yet have sure anchorage for the mooring of our good ship America, if these rights remained to us unimpaired," he said. There is much sense in that statement. In the last analysis, our government is secure as long as the democratic processes go on uninterrupted; and they cannot be interrupted as long as those three rights are maintained intact. Save them and you save all; limit them, and you are apt to find before long that you have lost all the rest.

A TRADITION IS REVIVED

One of the entertaining things about this country is that every so often it can forget all about its weighty problems and concentrate on some question like the one which is currently pressing on our attention, to-wit: Did Mae West get married 'way back in 1911 and if so to whom? Somebody produced a rumor, first of all; then someone else produced a marriage license, and finally the bridegroom himself popped up, or claimed to. And Mae is issuing flat denials of everything, which makes it possible for us to take sides. All this is a return to the old tradition, and it is somehow refreshing. Actresses are supposed to be ladies about whom rumors and legends cluster. It may be tough on Miss West to have the whole country arguing about faraway details of her private life, but there is ample and time-stained precedent for it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

NOT SO FAST

(Wheeling, W. V., Register)

Over thirty-five thousand lives were lost in 1934 as the result of automobile accidents in the United States. This is only a few hundred less than the number of American soldiers killed in the World War. And when you mention those figures you are not including the hundreds of thousands of injuries resulting from automobile accidents, but which did not prove fatal.

This is a serious matter that is of vital importance to every citizen because to one of us can be sure that he may not be the next victim of an automobile accident. And he may be such victim though he does not drive or ride in a car. The number of pedestrians struck by automobiles each year run into very large figures also.

Some steps are being taken to curb drunken drivers. That one state has cramped down on drunken drivers. That is logical procedure. And eight different states are now trying to make their traffic laws uniform. This is also a logical step. It would probably help if all the states had traffic regulations that were fairly drastic and were uniform.

And perhaps we shall some day be compelled to adopt the suggestion that has been made on and off for a number of years, and require that all automobiles be provided with mechanical governors that will limit their speed to a prescribed number of miles per hour. That however is something for the future consideration. Right now weather conditions have improved, as well as business conditions, and there are going to be more and more cars on the streets and highways from now on.

Traffic regulations cannot do everything. There is a personal responsibility upon each driver, each passenger and each pedestrian. Let us all try to remember that responsibility. When we drive let us bear in mind that saving a few minutes is not important enough to justify risking our own life or the lives of others. It is unquestionably true that speed does not pay.

The driver's attention should be centered solely upon driving. And this fact should be borne in mind by the driver and also by the passengers. And pedestrians should remember that there may always be a careless driver and that for their own safety it is up to them to look both ways before they cross the street.

Most traffic accidents could have been avoided if all parties had used proper care. Let us all bear this in mind, and let us remember too that being unnecessarily careful or even too careful may be a mistake, but it is far preferable to the mistake of not being careful enough.

LITTLE KNOWN FACTS ABOUT BANKING

Depositors Who Take Banking Service "For Granted"

For so many years during "easy times" banks furnished checking account service without cost to depositors, that even today few depositors realize there is any cost to the bank, either.

Jones maintains a balance of $200 in his account—the income from the use of which to the bank during any one month, actually pays for about 60 cents worth of banking service. But, if the service the bank renders Jones costs more than 60 cents, who should reimburse the bank for the difference?

Bank depositors in the United States enjoy more and better banking privileges, at little or no expense, than in any country of the world.

HENRY-LESSON RADCLIFFE

THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

International Sunday School Lesson for May 12, 1935.

Golden Text: "So we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and severally members one of another." Romans 12:5.

Lesson Text: Acts 2:41-45; Ephesians 4:1-7, 11-16.

What is the Christian Church? What principles does it represent? How should it be organized? What should it accomplish? Who are its members? These are some of the questions considered in our weekly topic.

The Greek word, "ekklesia," referring to an assembly of citizens in a city for transacting public business, formed by words originally signifying a select group called out from the whole population. This word appears some seventy times in the Septuagint translation of the Old Testament, describing the congregation or assembly of Israel. The word is used over a hundred times in the New Testament, but in no place except Matthew's, and here twice.

The word was first used by Jesus immediately following Peter's inspiration of faith in his divinity at Caesarea Philippi, when he said he would build his church on that faith, and promised that the gates of evil should never prevail against it. The keys were delivered to Peter, who opened membership to the Jews by his Pentecostal sermon, and the Gentiles at the home of the man centurion Cornelius.

The early Jewish converts to Christianity did not immediately create an ecclesiastical organization. Love and loyalty to Jesus were then common ties and they met in the beginning in private homes for fellowship and inspiration in the service of their faith. The initial forms of the early church evolved from experience and in answer to the needs of the members of the new group, different from the rest of the population, subject to persecution, and drawn close by common danger and spiritual expectation.

The picture of the first Christian group, given in the second chapter of Acts, when there were about three thousand members, is illuminating. They gathered to increase their knowledge of Jesus and his doctrines, to develop their faith and powers through prayer, and to serve the needs of their fellows, inspired by love towards each other. Many of the wealthy sold their possessions to meet the needs of those less fortunate, which practice was not the "communism" we hear of today, but was a more generous attitude towards holding wealth selfishly in the face of human distress and need than practiced severally by Christians today. This unselfish and pure example in practical Christianity undoubtedly had much to do with the rapid growth of the church, and, we might add, a similar procedure today would restore confidence in many hearts today which are distrustful of the professions of many church groups.

In his letter to the Ephesians, Paul emphasizes the unity of the church in faith and worship. The great apostle realized fully the difficulties in creating and maintaining the necessary singleness of ideal and attitude where so many different personalities were involved. "The church includes in its membership Jews and Gentiles, wise and ignorant, rich and poor, men and women of all races and classes," as Charles R. Erdman says, and: "When such different dispositions, tastes and personalities are involved, it is evident that the preservation of harmony is no slight achievement." It can only be enjoyed when the membership remains constantly conscious of their common brotherhood in the same God and faith, practicing in daily life the love, patience and forbearing enjoined on the Ephesian membership by Paul.

The church, like other social institutions, has no justification if it does not serve the individuals. By "church" we mean the body of Christian believers as a whole, and not any sect or group within the wider range. Among the goals of the church the late Dr. Lyman Abbott listed: (1) To help men and women meet temptation successfully; (2) To carry the spirit of helpful service into society; (3) To encourage its members to face criticism and sneers for doing right; (4) To oppose powerful established vested interests when harmfully engaged; (5) To comfort and console those stricken in sorrow; (6) To forgive and inspire to better life those who have wavered and are in despair; and (7) To build a faith which looks beyond the grave to the eternity of life beyond, thus encouraging a serious and purposeful existence while on this earth.

Changes Made In Farm Relief Work

AUSTIN, Texas.—Effective immediately, county relief administrators no longer will be permitted to extend any form of relief from general relief funds to any employable farm family, it was announced by Adam R. Johnson, state director of the Texas Relief Commission.

"A farm family," Mr. Johnson explained, "is one residing outside the limits of incorporated or unincorporated towns, villages and cities and who depend upon farming operations for the major portion of their income. It is not intended to include in this group families who live on small plots of land which are sufficient only to produce a part of their sustenance requirements and upon which they can not produce a commercial crop."

"Farm families" henceforth may receive aid only in the form of advances through the rural rehabilitation corporation. County administrators were instructed to recall any work cards issued to rural families for work relief in May and to make advances secured by notes and mortgages instead.

All families affected by this change immediately will become rural rehabilitation families. Mr. Johnson said and will receive aid in the future from rural assistance funds in accordance with their needs as established by case-workers.

At the same time administrators will contact all landlords at the earliest possible date to obtain waivers on the land which interest in the tenant's share of the crop. This procedure was adopted in order to secure advances which the rural corporation will make to the tenant.

"If a client transferred under these regulations receives subsequent advances, executing notes for them and later it develops that a waiver form can not be obtained from the landlord or other creditors then the case will be dropped completely from our records," Mr. Johnson declared. "In such instances, the notes taken will be written off as a loss, but the client will receive no further advances after the date on which creditors refuse to execute waivers. Creditors will be notified when these cases are dropped from the records."

Explaining the new regulation, Mr. Johnson said it is in line with the long established method of furnishing sharecroppers. "This is what bankers and other creditors always have done," he said. "Our former practice of furnishing the tenant with subsistence needs as an outright grant just encouraged creditors to allow the relief administration to finance the making of their crops. This new regulation will help to correct that situation and dignify the aid extended farmers by eliminating the outright relief grant."

House of David Wins Hectic Game

Taking advantage of numerous misplays on the part of Haskell, the Pacific House of David baseball club snatched a victory here last Thursday by a score of 4 to 1. Haskell representatives of the baseball art contributed nine errors chargeable in the box score and several others which are only discussed.

Up to, and including, the fifth inning the regular Haskell team had the whiskered players down 1 to 0. Hambright, who tolled the first five frames allowed four hits, which were kept scattered.

That one tally for Haskell was earned, make no mistake about it, while all of the runs scored by the House of David were unearned. Haskell scored in the third inning, after Bradley had been thrown out. Cox, up, drove the ball into deep right-center for a clean triple, and was sent home on a hit by Chapman.

Manager O. W. (Mack) Maloy shot in a bunch of replacements in the sixth inning, including two Munday players, and the locals lead was soon wiped out. Seven errors were made after the fifth inning.

Tanny Jones hurled the remaining four innings, and despite the erratic support given him, kept chucking the ball in there and allowed only three scattered hits.

The use of out-of-town ball players in the game was occasioned by the fact that fans from other places asked Manager Maloy to play the ball players against the whiskered team. The game had no bearing on Haskell's position in the Wichita Valley league.

Mother and Son To Hang

GEORGETOWN, Dela.—A mother and her son have been sentenced to be hung on the gallows on the same day for the murder of the woman's brother more than seven years ago. They are Mrs. Mary H. Carey, 52, and a son, Howard. Another son, James, was given a life sentence for his part in the crime. The motive of the murder, it was charged, was to obtain $2,000 from an insurance policy.

Let's Talk About Clothes

DENTON, Texas.—It's time for the last spring promenade and a change into more summery channels for the fashion world. Everywhere lighter materials are being substituted for the semi-heavy weaves, and although dark colors are still reigning high, the trend is gradually turning toward lighter and gayer frocks with which to array the approaching hot days.

Dresses are always the 'top notch' garment in a discussion of clothes, and quite naturally so, for they dictate your choice of hats, shoes, bag, and gloves. Let's just see what's new in the late spring fashion ideas.

A delightful flattering creation in this sheer with accents of printed pique revers, ascot and cuffs is on the rostrum of late frocks. This costume boasts a new hip-length swagger coat that gives a dramatic emphasis to the Regency details. Sheer can also be made into attractive semi-sports ensembles. Make the novelty weave into a two-piece frock, give it an amusing touch of real chiffon for trimming together with pearl buttons and a self-stitched collar and cuffs. You will have a most becoming dress for bridge luncheons.

For town wear, you will want something that is pert and youthful, yet something blissfully gay in color and fashion to reflect your surroundings. Again sheer comes to the front, but this time, it is a printed pure silk triple sheer and lends itself to the making of a jacket costume. Made with willow sleeves that are really as audacious as a zephyr breeze, this frock also features a jabot of solid triple sheer which is caught at the neck with a rhinestone clip. The jacket, bolted at the front, gives the individual a debonair as well as sophisticated appearance. This frock can also be successfully made of printed chiffon.

YOUR HEALTH

By John W. Brown, M. D.
State Health Officer

AUSTIN, Texas.—"One of the most maligned words in the dictionary is overwork," said Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer. "It is employed as an excuse to avoid unattractive social engagements. It is used to impress others with one's particular importance. It is frequently mentioned as the reason for one's business failure. And it certainly is most unjustly blamed for many bodily ills."

"As a matter of fact overwork is not nearly the hobgoblin it is painted to be. Abstractly speaking, overwork is a very faint term, but does itself on most occasions, and does little damage to the lives of most of us. And more likely than not, where lack of health is concerned, overwork has had little if anything to do with the situation."

"Actually, work of a normal amount, or even above average, is not prone to do one any real damage. On the other hand, certain practices associated with the work or with living are likely to be the real offenders. Those who, for example, are victims of impure air, ill dietary, auto-intoxication, worry, lack of exercise and insufficient sleep are usually the first to blame work for their sorry condition. And, no doubt, even an average amount of work can easily turn into a sense of overwork, when one's capacity to do the job has been weakened by enervating habits."

"The best bulwark against ill effects from hard and sustained work is the conscientious adoption of a well-rounded and properly balanced health program. And by this suggestion is not meant a fanatical adherence to a long set of fancy rules, but only a reasonable sense of the primary duty every one owes to himself to get plenty of fresh air and some exercise, to eliminate the excessive use of stimulants, to obtain an average amount of sleep, to eat moderately, in short, to treat one's body with the respect that it demands."

RICHMOND, Va.—Seeing a five-year old child alone in an automobile about two a. m., Policeman L. B. Carver tapped to chat. She told him her father had gone "to get some money." He was followed and arrested on a charge of burglary.

Gets "Jonah" Watch

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—Patrolman William J. Lowman recovered his watch after dropping it into a creek while fishing for catfish. Arthur G. Weiser took a catfish from the creek and took a watch from the catfish. A newspaper account of the strange catch caught Lowman's eye, and, after communicating with Weiser, regained his watch.

Keep a Good Laxative

Among the necessities of home is a good, reliable laxative. Don't be without one! Do your best to prevent constipation. Don't neglect it when you feel any of its disagreeable symptoms coming on. We have used Theoford's Black-Draught for 21 years and have found it a very useful medicine that every family ought to have in their home," writes Mrs. Perry Hicks, of Belton, Texas. "I take Black-Draught for biliousness, constipation and other ills where a good laxative or purgative is needed. I have always found Black-Draught gives good results."
