New Snyder coach says hiring here is realization of goal

By BILL McCLELLAN
SDN Sports Editor

He won't officially take over until Feb. 1, but David Baugh says he's been ready to get started as athletic director and head football coach at Snyder High School for a long time.

"I've always wanted this job. I applied for it last time. I've always felt like it should be a good 4A job," said Baugh.

He gained his wish Thursday as he was hired by the Snyder school board from a field of 72 candidates.

"I'm anxious to get started," said Baugh, 44. "I figure the off-season program is already about two months behind everybody in the district."

He comes to Snyder from Iowa Park, where he compiled a 49-25-4 record as head coach and athletic director of the Class 3A school. His teams were 34-11-2 over the past four years, winning district three times.

These teams also advanced to bi-district play three times and one year as far as the semi-finals for state.

The Rotan native said deciding to make the move to Snyder was an easy one.

The son of former Texas Christian University and professional football great Sammy Baugh, Snyder's new coach calls the area home.

"I was raised in Rotan and I've known Snyder all my life," he said.

"It's a challenge to come here and build a program. I think one can be built here. It won't be overnight. It's going to take time and effort and support from the townspeople, the teachers and the administrators."

At Snyder High School, he will teach one class in addition to his duties as AD and head coach. He was employed at an annual salary of $43,000 plus $1,100 per year for travel expenses.

After playing four sports in high school at Rotan, Baugh attended Texas Tech University where he was a defensive back for the Red Raiders. He played in the 1964 Sun Bowl, the 1965 Gator Bowl and the 1966 North-South Shrine Bowl. He was named to the Dallas Morning News All-Southwest Conference Team.

A fierce competitor, Baugh believes he can turn around a Snyder program that has suffered through eight consecutive losing seasons.

"You have to have talent to win games but I believe champions aren't born, they are made. I think you can make people better than they start off. At Iowa Park they had won one game in the last 30 and when I came with Tommy Watkins we won four games the first year," said Baugh, who served as assistant athletic director for three years before taking over the head job.

He made it clear, however, that emphasis will be on a strong overall athletic program.

"I believe in an overall program. We're not going to kill off any sport. If a kid wants to play other sports, that's fine, and we can make a football player out of him, too," said Baugh. "My goal is to get better every year. I think kids ought to want to do better than the kids that went before them."

Baugh will begin selecting a staff immediately and said he would not automatically exclude members of the current staff. The new program will see a familiar look—the Wing-T offense.

"We'll run the Wing-T. That's the offense I'm most familiar with. I know some people out there might say 'oh, no' but the Wing-T can be anything you want it to be. You can highlight whatever your strengths are."

When Baugh fields his first team, it will be his 22nd year as a

Trustees accept changes

Board ratio goes to 5-2

Snyder school trustees formally accepted a mandated change in the board's makeup Thursday, agreeing to switch to a 5-2 single member district plan.

The new system, which will see five trustees elected from specific areas of the district to comprise 70 percent of the entire board, will be implemented with the spring school board elections in May.

The action was prompted by the lawsuit LULAC vs. Midland ISD. The finding of that suit was that boards like Snyder must have at least 70 percent of the school district served by members elected from specific areas—so-called single member districts.

The contingency plan for a 5-2 board membership was drawn up last March at the same time the district settled the minority voter discrimination lawsuit filed against it in October of 1985 by the Southwest Voter Registration Education Project.

The immediate effect after May will see at-large trustee Billy Bob McMullan switch to a representative for the newly drawn up single member district 4.

Coincidentally, McMullan is also a resident of the district. He was singled out to represent it, however, since he received the highest number of votes of three at-large trustees elected last April.

Sales tax startup has no increase despite changes

Despite a broadening of the state sales tax, Snyder's first report for 1988 indicated local sales fell slightly short of "holding their own."

The January check sent to the city by the state comptroller's office showed just over a 1 percent decrease between the two first-of-the-year payments, $45,533 this year compared to $46,015 a year ago.

The payment represented taxes collected in November and reported by Dec. 20.

As Snyder's sales tax year ended in December, the 12-month total was 13.9 percent behind returns noted for 1986. The year-end figure for '87 was $680,899.

Across the state, State Comptroller Bob Bullock said the broader tax base and "the slow but steady healing of our state's economy" led to generally improved receipts for the one-percent local sales tax.

The statewide 10.6 percent increase is somewhat misleading, however, because a late sales tax report of $2.3 million from a large corporation last year caused January 1987 allocations to be seasonally smaller.

Bullock reported an "actual increase" of $2.8 million, or 5.6 percent.

The first monthly report for cities both larger and smaller than Snyder indicated a mixed return. The following figures were reported:

—Lubbock: a 20.6 percent increase with $883,861 reported this year compared to $732,854 in '87.

—Abilene: a 9 percent increase with $455,529 reported this year compared to $417,567 in '87.

—San Angelo: a 5.6 percent decrease with $329,916 reported this year compared to $349,558 in '87.

—Big Spring: a 1.6 percent decrease with $77,228 reported this year compared to $78,515 in '87.

—Sweetwater: a 21.9 percent

The feller on Deep Creek says, "No use borrowing trouble, there are always people willing to bring it to you."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: Otis Francis, in the Sweetwater Reporter, is glad Gary Hart is back running for president.

"...I kind of missed him. I missed him because, well, the Seven Dwarfs has a nicer, more poetic ring to it than the Six-Pack to describe the Democratic contenders for the nomination."

There are plenty of Gary Hart jokes going around, but most of them can't be repeated in print. However, Hart would have thrown his hat back in the ring sooner, but he couldn't remember where he had left it.

We like one new Hart campaign slogan, "Win one for the Zipper."

Wacil McNair, writing in the Gilmer Mirror, had this tidbit: A small child asked his mother, "Do all fairy tales begin with 'once upon a time.'"

"Not any more," the mother replied. "Today, they begin with 'If I am elected.'"

O. G. Nieman, publisher of the Hereford Brand, says there are mixed feelings in Deaf Smith County as the new year gets underway.

Some folks in Hereford were looking forward to the economic benefits of the government's waste disposal plan, while other citizens opposed it.

There were varied reactions when the federal government announced just before Christmas that the Panhandle site had been eliminated.

But Nieman says life must go on, and he was philosophical about the situation.

"There's only one certainty as you approach middle age. It feels good, do it. But it's probably going to hurt the next morning."

New teachers will lose career ladder

The Snyder school board updated district requirements for career ladder status Thursday to include a provision that teachers transferring into the district will lose any career ladder status granted them at their previous assignment.

The fairness of taking away the career level status—either Level II or Level III—was questioned by trustees Billy Bob McMullan and Ygnacio Benitez, but the final vote for the measure passed unanimously.

It was noted that the recommendations regarding career ladder were drawn up based upon a combination of "input" from teachers, campus principals and administrators.

Under the policy, to be granted Level II status, which qualifies the teacher for reduced appraisal requirements and a bonus of at least $1,500, the teacher must be evaluated as "exceeding expectations" for a minimum of two consecutive years.

The placement to Level III, which could involve a bonus payment of $3,000, requires the teacher maintain their Level II status for a minimum of three years.

4-H to show

The annual Scurry County 4-H Stock Show will be conducted Saturday afternoon at the ag annex adjacent to the county coliseum.

County Agent Marvin Ensor said Friday that 35 pigs, 40 lambs and 15 steers are expected for the show, which will begin at 1 p.m. after a 10 a.m. registration.

Dawson County Agent John Farris of Lamesa will be the judge.

Trophies are being donated by Bill Early Insurance.

Ensor said the show will probably last until 5:30 or 6 p.m.

Comp trial

A 132nd District Court jury ruled for the defendant in a workman's compensation trial this week.

The panel determined that the plaintiff, Alan Martin, should be awarded no more than he had already been paid on the job in the suit against National Union Fire Insurance Co. of Pittsburgh, Pa.

Attorney Nancy Barbour of Odessa represented the plaintiff and Ivan Williams of Big Spring the defendant.

Bork resigning judge's post

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bitter debate surrounding Robert H. Bork's rejected nomination for the Supreme Court is about to ignite again, as he takes off his judicial robe to free himself of any restraints against attacking his critics.

The White House announced Thursday that President Reagan had reluctantly accepted Bork's decision to step down from the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia after six years, effective Feb. 5.

Bork said that as a sitting judge, he could not respond to what had become "an essentially unanswered campaign of misin-formation and political slogans" about his nomination.

"If, as a judge, I cannot speak out against this attempt to alter the traditional nature of the courts, I think it important to place myself where I can," he said in a letter to Reagan.

He said "constraints of propriety and seamliness limit the topics a federal judge may address and the public positions he may advocate." He said he wanted to "to speak, write and teach about law and other issues of public policy more extensively and more freely than is possible in my present position."

Bork's nomination was rejected by the Senate on a 58-42 vote Oct. 23. He insisted on forcing a vote, even though defeat was already certain.

Bork's critics argued that he was an extremist who would turn back the clock on civil rights and civil liberties. His supporters said he was a brilliant jurist and an advocate of reasonable judicial restraint.

"The unprecedented political attack upon you which resulted in the regrettable Senate action was a tragedy for our country," Reagan wrote in a letter accepting the resignation.

Speaking to reporters outside his home Thursday afternoon, Bork said he was "very grateful to the president for his letter to me." And, he said, "There is a lot of misunderstanding of the role of courts in this country and I intend to engage in the debate about what the role of courts is."

A hero of hardline conservatives, Bork was Reagan's first choice to succeed retiring Justice Lewis F. Powell Jr. When Bork was defeated, Reagan turned to federal appeals judge Douglas H. Ginsburg, only to have him withdraw after it was disclosed that he had smoked marijuana in the past.

Reagan's third candidate is federal appeals judge Anthony M. Kennedy. He is expected to win Senate confirmation by a wide margin after Congress returns to work later this month.

The 60-year-old Bork, a longtime faculty member at Yale Law School, first came to national attention in the 1973 "Saturday Night Massacre" during the Watergate scandal.

Genetic studies trace diseases

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I read somewhere that many medical researchers use the Amish community in Pennsylvania for genetic investigation. Why is this? Why do the Amish permit it, since they don't believe in doctors?

DEAR READER: More and more diseases are being found, through study, to have genetic causes. Therefore, experts have great interest in tracing diseases through families. This genetic detective work is easier in "closed" societies than in heterogeneous populations. Until recent years, the Amish have tended to marry within their own communities; this provided an ideal opportunity for researchers to identify the family patterns of unusual diseases, such as chromosome abnormalities, that tend to surface in interbred societies.

As far as I know, the Amish do not disdain medical attention, and they are just as eager as the rest of us to find the causes of disease.

The Amish are not alone in being singled out for certain studies. Mormons are being actively studied because of their diets, which prohibit alcohol. The entire town of Framingham, Mass., has been under study for a number of years, leading to truly revolutionary revelations about health and disease in a typical American community (for example, the crucial role of cholesterol in causing heart disease).

A geneticist's dream is to study relatively isolated communities in which certain diseases appear to be present in a higher incidence than expected in other, more mobile societies. The Amish are to be congratulated for letting scientists into their lovely, non-mechanized world. I hope they are able to continue their pacifist and apparently loving ways, despite the intrusion of modern science.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I'm so mad that I could spit. My sister-in-law became pregnant and, because she's a student, was able to enroll in a low-income prenatal clinic. She sees the doctor every two weeks during her whole pregnancy. She will have six ultrasounds, as well as amniocentesis (she's 30). This is about three times the care I got when I was pregnant. I don't begrudge her the free care — at least I can see living proof of where my tax dollars are going. But I can't see the logic in all her tests and frequent doctor visits. It must be costing at least twice what my care cost. No wonder the United States is broke.

DEAR READER: I won't comment on the social implications of your question. However, I can say that medical care for pregnant women — both self-paying and indigent — is a highly individualized matter. Women have different needs and doctors vary in their approaches to pregnancy. Perhaps your sister-in-law has medical problems of which you are unaware that require closer supervision. You may be unfair in equating her pregnancy care with your own. In instances like this, I think that you have to give her doctors the benefit of the doubt; they are probably doing what should be done.

It seems to me that spending tax dollars (probably primarily state funds) on prenatal care for young women certainly beats the wasted millions we send abroad to prop up countries that may or may not be friendly to the United States. However, there I go, giving an unsolicited opinion on a non-medical issue.

Rites planned for brother of founder of Borger

STINETT, Texas (AP) — L.A. "Pete" Borger, who along with his brother "Ace" founded several towns in Oklahoma and the Texas Panhandle, including the one that bears the family name, has died. He was 93.

Borger managed to survive a bounty on his head in the wilder days of the towns that bears his family name.

Borger, a native of Sarcoxie, Mo., moved to Hutchinson County in 1925.

In 1926, he and his brother started lot sales for the city of Borger. In 1927, they started the cities of Stinnett and Gruver.

Borger told the Amarillo Globe-News in 1984 that he had heard there was a bounty on his head in the early days of the Borger township.

In those days, he said, Borger was known as much for its crime as for its booming oil business.

His brother, "Ace," founder of the Borger township, was shot and killed by a Hutchinson County treasurer in 1934.

Mexican trucking union official gives ultimatum

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — The Mexican people will suffer unless the government raises truck drivers' wages, a Mexican union official says.

"If the government does not meet our demands, we will block every highway in every state, in every city, in every village in Mexico," said Arturo Sandoval, national coordinator for the 1 million-member National Organization of Professional Drivers.

"There will be no food, there will be no gas, there will be no drinking water. We will create a war if we have to. It's up to the government to meet our demands, but we have heard nothing yet."

Criticism leveled at officials

EL PASO, Texas (AP) — The case of a 16-year-old prostitute whose mother provided her heroin prompted sharp criticism from El Paso officials who say the Department of Human Services is not doing a good job.

Prosecutors and District Judge Enrique Pena said the DHS' child protective services officials were told in October that the girl was getting heroin from her mother, but did nothing about it. She was arrested and convicted last month of prostitution.

Before sentencing the teenager Thursday to a year's probation in a residential treatment center, Pena criticized DHS officials for hiding behind a "shield of confidentiality" and suggested they quit their jobs if they can't do them better.

"You are public servants, just like I am," Pena said. "And that is why I have taken it upon myself to make these hearings open to the public, to the media, so that they can report to the people that pay your salaries what a lousy job you are doing in this community."

Pena has been a vociferous critic of the DHS. Last fall, he lectured DHS officials after he discovered that the agency knew of, but did nothing to help, a 10-year-old boy who slept in ditches to avoid his father's beatings at home. Earlier this week, County Attorney Joe Lucas asked Attorney General Jim Mattox to investigate the DHS because of the deaths of three El Paso children.

The teen-age prostitute was taken to William Beaumont Army Medical Center in late October for heroin addiction, hepatitis and sexually transmitted diseases. Assistant County Attorney Ken Barnes said Thursday. The girl's mother told a hospital social worker that she and her husband had given their daughter heroin, Barnes said.

When the Beaumont social worker contacted DHS officials, they refused to do anything, Barnes said.

"That's a clear case of child abuse, or at least neglect, when a mother admits to giving her own daughter heroin," said Barnes, who prosecuted the prostitution case.

The teen-ager was arrested and convicted on the prostitution charge last month.

DHS spokeswoman Pat Ayala said Thursday that the criticisms by Pena, Lucas and Barnes are unfair because confidentiality laws prevent the agency from defending itself publicly.

"We are bound by state and federal laws to keep our clients' cases confidential," Ms. Ayala said. "It makes it very difficult because if we are criticized for the actions we take, we can't comment. We are bound by these laws."

In Lucas' letter to Mattox, he mentioned the case of a despondent father who killed his two sons by setting fire to their house on Christmas 1986 — a few days after the DHS returned the boys to his custody. Lucas also cited a case in which a 15-month-old boy died of blows to the head last May 7. The department investigated an abuse report a month before, when the child was hospitalized with a skull fracture, but a supervisor closed the case because of "staff shortages." Lucas reported, adding that he was told the supervisor was later reprimanded.

Among the many bad habits in the game of bridge, one of the worst is complacency. Although a deal may look easy to play, a sloppy declarer will suddenly lose his contract because he did not provide for a slightly unusual distribution. Today's hand leaves that chance for error.

South opened one heart with only four cards because of the great disparity in strength between that major suit and the touching five-card diamond suit. North had such good support and so many high cards that he simply bid four no-trump to ask for aces and five no-trump to ask for kings. He then settled in six hearts.

On the opening jack of clubs lead, South played dummy's queen. East won the king and returned a club. Declarer took dummy's club ace and his spade ace, and played a diamond to dummy's king so that he could shed his other club on the king of spades. Then inexplicably he played dummy's second high diamond. Of course East ruffed.

Declarer's error was inexcusable. The wealth of spots in the trump suit meant that he could ruff a low spade with the ace of hearts, play the six of hearts to dummy's seven and ruff dummy's last club with the king of hearts. The jack of hearts could then be overtaken with dummy's queen, and the remaining defenders' trumps extracted. Certainly it was unlikely that the second diamond would be ruffed, but it was criminally-careless of South to take that risk.

NYC group to perform local's play

Laurie Allen of Snyder was notified this week that a play she wrote more than a year ago will be produced by a New York City actors group.

American Theatre of Actors is expected to begin rehearsals in three weeks. Total rehearsal time is expected to take 3½ weeks. Afterwards the play, a comedy entitled "The Latest Craze," will open at one of the theatres owned by the group.

According to Allen, the play will be performed for a week with a possibility of additional performances if it does well. It may also be moved to one of the other theatres owned by the New York City company.

Allen was also told that she will be given a video tape of her play being performed on the New York City stage.

LAFF-A-DAY

DENNIS THE MENACE

"Hey, wait a minute..."

Fall to 12th-ranked team, 77-68...

Westerners rally once, but not twice

Western Texas rallied once against the nation's 12th ranked team. But not twice.

Coach Tony Mauldin's Westerners survived a 13-point deficit at the outset of Thursday's Western Junior College Athletic Conference ballgame here but couldn't come back after the Wranglers outscored them 12-2 to knock off the second half.

"I thought that spurt they put on at the start of the second half was probably the difference in the ballgame," said Coach Mauldin, whose Westerners fell 77-68. "We didn't get many breaks-in the half, either. We never did get in the one-and-one (bonus free throw situation). Those kind of things kill you. Odessa has a very talented team. I just thought we played well enough to win."

Western didn't score its fourth point until 4:50 into the ballgame and by then Troy Bell, Riley Smith, Tony Jackson, Rodney Samuel and Larry Johnson had all combined for 15 Odessa points. The game appeared a sure runaway, but Mauldin's Westerners kept their composure and rallied back.

"The kids were real nervous. I was real proud of the way we got back in the game - and even took the lead. We did it by doing the things we knew we had to do. We wanted to make them shoot from outside and take away their inside shot. And, most of the time, we did that," said Coach Mauldin.

Baskets from Darrell Nelson, Bobby Spear and Keith Hawkins put the Westerners within two points. Hawkins, who became eligible to join the team this semester, tallied with 8:02 left to tie the game at 15-15. Odessa's Johnson broke the WTC 13-point streak, but Spear knotted the score again at 17-all, and Melvin Thompson put the hosts up 18-17 with a free throw.

The slim lead was the only one the Westerners would hold, but they kept the Wranglers in check and were behind only 29-25 at intermission.

The second half began almost like a copy of the first, however, and Western was unable to recover. Led by All-American candidate Johnson, a 6-7 standout from Dallas, the Wranglers reeled off eight straight points before Derrick Greene answered for WTC. The visitors canned two more buckets, taking a 41-27 advantage from which the Westerners could not recover. The margin grew to as many as 20, 65-45, when Bell put in a layup with 6:34 to go.

Odessa went to the line 24 times in the game but aced only nine of the shots. The Wranglers missed a number of bonus situations along the way, including four in the first half. Western, 5-for-11 from the stripe, also missed the front end of two bonus situations in the first half, but never got to shoot a one-and-one in the final 20 minutes. Odessa was whistled for 16 fouls; Western for 28.

Odessa, 18-2, put five players in double figures. Johnson scored 15, Bell 14, Smith and Jackson 13 each, and Samuel 10. Ten Wrangler players got into the scoring act as Odessa improved to 5-0 in conference play.

Spear, a 6-5 freshman from Albuquerque, N.M., led the Westerners with 20 points. Hawkins scored 13, Thompson 11 and Nelson 10.

Western, 3-14 overall and 0-3 now in the WJCAC, will try to break into the win column when Mauldin takes the team to Borger for an 8 p.m. game with Frank Phillips on Saturday.

Scott expects tough time tonight when Tigers greet Lobos

Coach Larry Scott's Tigers got through the past week and a half with two wins and a loss - pretty good since Snyder was going up against Big Spring, Andrews and Lamesa. But that doesn't mean the Tigers can let up when they hosts Monahans tonight.

Snyder takes on a much improved Lobo squad at 7:30 p.m. in Scurry County Coliseum. A junior varsity game is set for 6 p.m. at the coliseum and a freshman game tips off at the same time at the high school. Meanwhile, Snyder's Lady Tigers are in Monahans tonight tion. The Lobos' record is misleading, said Scott.

"They are 2-4 in district but their four losses were to (league leader) Lamesa, by eight points to Andrews in a game they were in all the way, by 10 points to Big Spring in a game where they were a point ahead with two minutes left, and by three points to Fort Stockton. They were originally picked to finish fifth behind us in the preseason standings. They have one of the best teams they've had in a long time out there."

Snyder will have to contend with the height of 6-7 John Hines and 6-3 Charles Penney. Other top players are quick guards Charles Thompson and Ronnie Molina, and Carlton Clark and Kenneth Littlejohn.

Scott said he won't be surprised by any defense Monahans brings to the coliseum.

"They give a lot of different looks. They can press, run a man, a box-and-one, a triangle-and-two, whatever," he said. "Early in the year we had the reputation of being able to break the press and now we kind of have the reputation of not being able to break it, so it wouldn't surprise me if they tried to press us some."

The Tigers need the victory to stay tied with Andrews for second place in the district. In another key game tonight, Andrews (16-5, 5-1) entertains Big Spring (14-8, 4-2). Other games have Fort Stockton (13-7, 4-3) at Lamesa (17-5, 6-0) and Lake View (7-13, 1-5) at Pecos (7-11, 1-5). Sweetwater (0-7, 0-7) is idle.

Snyder's Lady Tigers also take a share of second place into their game Friday. The ladies are 5-3 in loop action and locked Sweetwater and Pecos. Snyder is 12-7 overall.

Monahans' girls are 4-14 for the season and 0-8 in district play.

In other girls' play, Lamesa (3-17, 2-5) treks to Fort Stockton (11-8, 4-4) while Pecos (9-6, 5-3) heads for San Angelo to play Lake View (9-11, 3-5) and Andrews (10-8, 4-4) is at Big Spring (21-1, 8-0). Sweetwater's girls (10-9, 5-3) have the evening off.

Depth, cool shooting hurt as Dusters lose to Odessa

Lack of depth and a cool shooting night worked against Coach Kelly Chadwick's Lady Dusters here Thursday as they fell to fourth-ranked Odessa in a Western Junior College Athletic Conference basketball game, 60-32.

"I think the kids played as well as probably they could. One thing, we had been shooting the ball well in the last two games and we missed a lot of shots tonight. I think we were intimidated a little by Odessa and a little scared, and I think we got over that. I feel like we'll play better ball now. Maybe it will help us," said Coach Chadwick, whose Dusters fell out of a three-way tie for the standings lead with the loss.

For Odessa, Thursday's win combined with South Plains' 66-62 victory over Clarendon - left the Lady Wranglers in sole possession of first place with a 3-0 record. South Plains is a game back at 3-1, and Western and Clarendon are both 2-1.

Odessa used its depth and quickness to open a 30-14 halftime lead in the ballgame. The Lady Wranglers used 10 players and seven of them put points on the board.

Returning all-conference pick Angie Jackson, a 5-8 sophomore from Detroit, Mich., led the Wranglers with 21 points. Linda Broomfield pitched in 14 while T.D. Foster and Nelda Roy added 10 each.

The Lady Wranglers improved to 18-2 for the season.

Western Texas was led by Lubbock sophomore Nancy Bals, who put in 13 points. Tabitha Walton scored 7, Nickey Allen 6, Julie Roewe 4 and Stephanie McKnight 2.

The Dusters, who were beset by grade problems and had only five girls eligible for the second semester, added Jana Gartman to the roster earlier in the day. She played only sparingly and has yet to work out with the team, but should eventually provide some depth for the squad.

Coach Chadwick said that he would like to see the community keep a positive frame of mind where the Dusters are concerned.

"Our goal right now is to make regionals and I feel like we can. The important thing is for these girls not to get down on themselves. I hope our fans won't say 'I feel sorry for you.' It would be better if they'd just say 'We're behind you' and give them a pat on the back. I don't want these girls to feel sorry for themselves, and they don't."

The girls will face a key challenge in their bid to make the Region V Tournament this weekend when they play Frank Phillips at 6 p.m. Saturday in Borger. FPC has struggled through a 6-8 season thus far.

"The loss to Lamesa showed we were physically, mentally and emotionally drained at the start of the game and it was even worse after. It's tough to play three games like that in a row," said Coach Scott. "I'm glad we're at home instead of going out there (to Monahans). This is just as important as any game we've played. It will test us."

Pate leads

CARLSBAD, Calif. (AP) - Steve Pate shot a bogey-free 66 and took a one-shot lead in the first round of the Tournament of Champions, the opening event of the PGA tour.

Gregg new SMU coach

DALLAS (AP) - Southern Methodist's new head football coach is eager to resurrect the school's scandal-wracked program and has a blunt message to any overzealous boosters who might offer improper aid.

"I'll smack 'em right in the mouth," warned 240-pound Forrest Gregg.

A pay-for-play scandal in which boosters played a major role prompted the NCAA to inflict the "death penalty" on SMU for repeat violations, cancelling the 1987 season. SMU volunteered to skip the 1988 campaign while it cleansed its program.

Gregg, 54, of Birthright, Texas, the captain of the 1955 SMU team, signed a four-year contract on Thursday for an estimated $100,000 a year base salary. SMU has an option for a fifth year.

He was on the fourth year of a five year contract with the Green Bay Packers. Gregg also was an All-Pro for nine years at Green Bay as an offensive tackle under Vince Lombardi.

"I played 15 years and coached 14 years, so I've been in the NFL most of my life," Gregg said.

Texas Republicans begin verifying signatures

AUSTIN (AP) — The Texas Republican Party has begun verifying petition signatures submitted by New York Rep. Jack Kemp's presidential campaign, while aides say Attorney General Jim Mattox's office would look into the petition controversy.

GOP officials said Thursday they had spot-checked enough petitions submitted by Vice President George Bush and former television evangelist Pat Robertson to certify both as eligible to receive votes in the March 8 primary.

Verification of signatures submitted for Kemp began Thursday evening, and the other three candidates' petitions will be scrutinized later, GOP spokeswoman Karen Parfitt Hughes said.

"A lot of the timing depends on how fast the Kemp calling goes," she said.

The FBI, which is investigating allegations of forged signatures, has possession of the original petitions of Kan. Sen. Robert Dole, Alexander Haig and former Delaware Gov. Pete du Pont. But GOP officials were allowed to make copies for their telephone checks, Ms. Hughes said. The calling will continue through the weekend, she said.

Two Texas newspapers reported today that teen-age temporary workers say a partner in a political consulting firm told them to sign other people's names on presidential candidate filing forms.

Travel agent Penny Harmening says her two children Jay, 18, and Stacy, 19, were hired in late December through a temporary employment agency by a man representing Southern Political Consulting, the Houston Chronicle reported.

Mrs. Harmening said her children were hired to gather signatures on petitions required to qualify Republican presidential candidates for the party's March 8 primary.

Southern Political Consulting collected signatures for Dole, Haig and du Pont, who under party rules has to submit petitions bearing at least 5,000 valid signatures by Jan. 4.

The GOP decided to leave all six candidates' names on the March 8 ballot. But if a candidate failed to submit the required 5,000 valid signatures to qualify, votes he receives will go to the "uncommitted" ranks.

Meanwhile, the Dallas Morning News reported today that Jay Harmening and another unnamed youth, also 18, said Rocky Mountain, a partner in Southern Political Consulting, instructed them to sign other people's names for petitions for du Pont. Mountain did not return telephone calls Thursday to The News. Allen Blakemore, another partner in Southern Political Consulting, declined to comment.

Kevin Burnette, president of Southern Political Consulting, told the Chronicle he had no knowledge of such activity.

"I don't believe it happened," he said.

Party officials began checking the petitions after newspaper reporters last week found signatures under names of Democrats, supporters of other candidates and dead people on some petitions.

The GOP decided to leave all six candidates' names on the March 8 ballot. But if a candidate failed to submit the required 5,000 valid signatures to qualify, votes he receives will go to the "uncommitted" ranks.

Also Thursday, the attorney general's office said a preliminary inquiry had begun.

"We've got somebody assigned to look at it," said Elna Christopher, spokeswoman for Mattox. "He is going to be talking to the FBI, the secretary of state, the party. We'll see what happens."

The Dallas Morning News on Thursday quoted Mattox as saying it might be improper for the Texas Republicans to list all six candidates if they failed to submit enough signatures.

"I'm not sure it's proper to place a candidate on the ballot where they know the candidate has obtained his position based on fraud and where they have time to stop his appearance on the ballot," Mattox said.

Obituaries

Alvin Smith

SPUR—Services for Alvin E. "Abbi" Smith, 75, of Spur will be at 2 p.m. Saturday in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Genoa Goad, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in Red Mud Cemetery under the direction of Campbell Funeral Home. He died at 11:20 p.m. Wednesday in the Crosbyton Clinic after a lengthy illness. He was the grandfather of Carla Alexander and Cindie Hester, both of Snyder.

He was born in Kent County and had lived in Kent and Dickens counties. He married Alma Nixon on Dec. 4, 1933 in Spur. She died in 1974. He was a retired rancher and a member of the Dickens County sheriff's posse. He was a Baptist. A son, Clarence "Fats," died in 1987.

Survivors include a son, Bill of Spur; five daughters, Bonnie Edwards and Patsy Condon, both of Spur; Peggy Summers of Lubbock, Glenda Stice of Paducah and Gracie Cockrell of Oklahoma City, Okla.; two brothers, Tommy of White River Lake and Billy of Stamford; 16 grandchildren and 18 great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to be the Dickens County EMS or the Red Mud Cemetery.

Three mishaps noted Thursday

Police reported no injuries in three traffic accidents Thursday. A car identified as a 1978 Chevrolet two-door hit a metal porch post owned by ARC Scurry County Garage Sale at 3:50 p.m. in the 2500 Block of Ave. W and left the scene. The driver had not been identified.

A 1983 Honda Accord driven by Christina Kaye Cybert of 2210 44th St. was in collision with a parked 1978 Oldsmobile Tornado owned by C.D. Gray Jr. of Rt. 3, Box 25, at 4:12 p.m. in the 3200 Block of College Ave.

A 1984 Dodge four-door driven by Sandra Sneed Evans of Gail was in collision with a 1977 one-ton van driven by Manuel Garcia of 1406 30th St. at 5:55 p.m. in the 3400 Block of College.

Case forwarded for consideration

Police early Friday cleared a case in which a woman's telephone lines had been damaged and a $150 camera stolen.

A detective said a 33-year-old suspect had been identified and the case, reported Wednesday by Julie Jones of 2408 O'Neal Ave., forwarded to the county attorney's office for disposition.

Two fire runs occur Thursday

Firemen answered two calls Thursday, one to a grass fire just south of the city limits and the other a grease fire in a home six miles west of town off U.S. 180.

The grass fire was apparently set off by trash burning in an uncovered barrel at 10:55 a.m. in the Round Top Acres residential area. Firefighters were at the scene until 12:15 p.m.

A grease fire in a frying pan inflicted moderately heavy fire damage to the kitchen and smoke damage to the rest of the house in an incident reported at 6:36 p.m. in a home occupied by Jeff Godwin and owned by O.P. Tate six miles west of Snyder off U.S. 180.

A department spokesman said the fire was out when firemen arrived.

Hospital Notes

ADMISSIONS: Mollie Roberts, 122 Milburn.
DISMISSALS: Jerry Neill, Rudy Hernandez, D.T. Pierce, Lora League.

The 1986 economic growth rate of 2.3 percent of the seven main industrial countries — Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States — was the weakest since the recession year of 1982. This has meant that developing countries in Latin America have not found much help in fostering their own economic growth, which is considered essential to manage their debt problems, according to the Inter-American Development Bank.

Dear Abby

Woman Shies From Ex Who Still Haunts Parents' House

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1988 by Universal Press Syndicate

DEAR ABBY: Please help me. I divorced "Marvin" with hard feelings and I do not wish ever to see him again. I recently married a wonderful man who my parents agree is a "real nice guy." However, Marvin still visits my parents, who welcome him with open arms. I can't understand this, as they know how lousy he treated me. When my husband and I are at my parents' home, Marvin drops in knowing perfectly well we are there because our car is out in front.

I finally told my parents it wasn't my place to tell them who they could have in their home, but if I had to worry about bumping into Marvin, I just wouldn't visit them anymore. They just said they couldn't help it if he dropped in. Well, I think they could help it if they wanted to. Marvin knows I am very uncomfortable, but he insists on coming in when I'm there.

Is there a solution?

TORN

DEAR TORN: Yes. You could ask your parents respectfully — but firmly — to instruct Marvin not to drop in when he sees your car out in front. If, as you say, your parents know how "lousy" he treated you, yet they welcome him with open arms, you have the right to ask them why. And I suggest you do.

DEAR ABBY: I have read in your column so many times about agencies that help adopted children "find" their biological parents, but since I am not adopted, I never gave the subject much thought, until now.

I would like to know my grandfather. My situation may be a little different because I already know who he is and where he is. I have his city, address and phone number. What I actually need is someone to make the initial contact. You see, he doesn't even know I exist, and just surprising him would be kind of tacky. I don't know if his family knows anything about me or not, so I'd hate to just ring his doorbell and say, "Hi, I'm your grandson." By the way, I am a grown man and I don't "need" anything.

are wise to have decided not to just "ring his doorbell." Break the ice by writing to him. Tell him who you are and express a desire to meet him. Then leave the rest to him.

DEAR ABBY: I am writing this letter to thank you and your readers from the bottom of my heart. Today, USS Ranger mail call was saturated with cards, letters and baked goodies from virtually every state in the union, and I must admit that this salty old master chief petty officer with more than 30 years of service had a fairly large lump in his throat.

Receiving mail from home while at sea is especially warming, but to have folks from all over this great land wish these men a "Merry Christmas and Godspeed" is overwhelming.

Thank you, Dear Abby, and thanks to each and every one of your readers for their incredible response to Operation Dear Abby III and America Remembers.

DEAR ABBY: It was with great amusement that I read the letter from the father suggesting each of his daughter's bridesmaids wear one of their own dresses at her wedding instead of each girl having to buy a new gown.

My father feels the same way about shoes. According to him, I have so many I should never buy another pair in my life (I'm only 33 years old), and, furthermore, I don't need all those different colors. As long as I have a brown pair and a black pair, I should be happy.

All I can say is, "Thank goodness for mothers!"

Bone marrow transplant set

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — When Mark Gudgel was told two years ago that he had leukemia, the Nebraska youngster tried to ignore it.

Even while people in his hometown of Bayard and nearby Scottsbluff and Gering raised $31,000 to help offset his medical costs, Mark remained silent and shied away from the attention.

"Every time the words 'bone marrow transplant' were mentioned he would hide his eyes, turn away," said Mark's father, Jack Gudgel.

Today, Mark, 12, will receive healthy bone marrow from his 18-year-old brother, Sean, in a three-hour procedure at Wilford Hall Air Force Medical Center, where doctors are using a different procedure to treat leukemia victims.

"He's just had a mental block to tune it out and now that he's in that room he's had to face it and he's having a hard time dealing with it," his father said.

Gudgel, a retired Army sergeant, said the family chose Wilford Hall because physicians use chemical chemotherapy instead of total body radiation in their bone marrow transplant treatment.

Mark has been receiving chemotherapy treatments the past week in preparation for the transplant. Sean's bone marrow will be extracted today, filtered and later given to Mark intravenously, said Dr. Mary Daly, Mark's physician.

Because of the strength of the chemotherapy and its side effects, Mark was unable to speak to reporters earlier in the week and only nodded when his father asked him questions.

"He's been very cooperative and it's hard to see him feel sick because he is a sweet boy," Ms. Daly said about her patient. "He has a close-knit family and they have been very supportive of him."

Sean Gudgel said the family has pulled together during Mark's illness.

WASHINGTON (AP) — A meeting with a federal undercover agent led to the arrest of an Army sergeant for allegedly attempting to deliver defense information to the Soviet Union, federal law enforcement officials say.

Sgt. Daniel Walter Richardson, 42, an instructor in the tank turret division at the Aberdeen Proving Ground in Maryland, was arrested shortly after noon Thursday at the Chesapeake House Holiday Inn in Aberdeen, the FBI said.

Richardson is accused of attempting to deliver information relating to national defense to a representative of the U.S.S.R., FBI spokesman William Carter said, reading from a statement issued by FBI Director William S. Sessions and Maj. Gen. Harry E. Soyster, commander of U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command.

Federal authorities monitored contacts Richardson is accused of initiating with the Soviets, and as a result, a federal undercover agent set up a meeting with Richardson that led to his arrest, according to federal law enforcement sources who spoke on condition of anonymity. There were no Soviets at the arrest site, the sources said.

The information involved was not classified and concerned the tank turret division where Richardson worked, the sources said.

One source indicated that no information apparently changed hands, because if officials believed it had, that would have been in the charge.

Carter said that under the Uniform Code of Military Justice, Richardson is subject to being charged with violation of two specifications of Article 106A dealing with espionage; two specifications of Article 92, failure to report contact with a foreign government; Article 121, larceny of U.S. government property; and Article 108, unauthorized disposition of U.S. government property.

Richardson, of Oakland, Calif.,

was being held at Aberdeen "and will most likely have an appearance before a military judge within seven days," Carter said.

The Uniform Code charge of espionage carries a maximum penalty of death. However, Lt. Col. John Ooley, a spokesman for the intelligence and security command, said some parts of that charge carry lesser penalties, such as life imprisonment, if the material involved was less sensitive.

Richardson joined the Army in 1968 and is assigned to the 601st Ordnance Battalion at Aberdeen. His specialty is tank turret repair and he is qualified as an instructor.

Lt. Col. John Chapla, an Army spokesman, had no information on other jobs Richardson has held in the service or how long he has been at Aberdeen.

The Aberdeen Proving Ground, located about 20 miles northeast of Baltimore, is a major center for military research and development and for the testing of arms, ammunition, missiles and vehicles. Some of its areas are highly classified.

Carter said he did not know how long FBI and Army intelligence had been investigating the case prior to the arrest.

George Bush wins early test

By The Associated Press
George Bush emerged the winner in Michigan's chaotic GOP county caucuses, staking his claim to the Republicans' first 1988 convention delegation, and Gary Hart confronts his Democratic rivals tonight for the first time.

The Bush forces racked up a solid win in the Michigan caucuses, which were marked by bitterness and marred by walkouts. With 98 percent of the 124 conventions reporting, Bush had 57 percent; Robertson had 22 percent; and Kemp had 17 percent.

As the full Democratic field prepared for its debating debut in Des Moines, Hart seemed certain to be the target of some barbs. When four of the Democrats gathered earlier this week, the absent Hart came under fire from former Arizona Gov. Bruce Babbitt.

Hart's re-entry into the race last month drew a chilly reception from some of the Democrats, once they got over their shock — especially since Hart said he felt compelled to get back in because no candidate of sufficient stature had emerged. Besides, he added, none of the others had adopted his ideas.

Hart had left the race in May amid reports of his relationship with Donna Rice.

The Michigan gatherings were the final step before the state convention, starting Jan. 29, where Michigan's 77 national convention delegates will be selected.

In Wyandotte, Mich., supporters of Kemp and Robertson, meeting in a steakhouse, shut the door to a group of Bush supporters.

Among those barred was Bush's youngest son, Marvin, who said he came to thank those who turned out for his father and was instead kept out by a "couple of bullies."

Robertson charged that the Bush forces sought to "steal our delegation away from us, like trying to take a touchdown back after the game."

"It doesn't look like the tactics of a winner," he said in Laconia, N.H., as the caucuses were about to begin. A Robertson spokesman, Ben Waldman, said afterward some of the delegate selections would be challenged.

Kemp, also commenting before the caucuses, criticized long, complicated delegate-selection processes — like the one in Michigan.

"It's too back-roomish," he said in Des Moines. "It was designed by Rube Goldberg."

Bush had previously said the Michigan caucuses were "vitaly important."

Robertson and Kemp seized control of the state party's central committee a year ago and changed party rules to weaken Bush's chances. The Bush faction successfully fought those changes in court.

Three of the six Republican candidates — Dole, Pete du Pont and Alexander Haig — sat out the Michigan process. Dole quipped that it was the smartest thing he could have done.

But Dole had other complications Thursday. His campaign finance chairman, David Owen, stepped down amid questions about his financial dealings. The action came as Bush continued to pressure Dole about his finances.

Trustees accept change for place 4 will run through the spring of 1990.

With the upcoming spring ballot, trustees with expiring terms are Mike Jordan, place 2, and Charlene Light, place 3.

Also Thursday, school board members unanimously approved a contract extension for Superintendent Dalton Moseley, expressing a board endorsement for his work to date; altered the contract status for school administrators hired in the future; and opted to employ a new district position, one to be funded with federal monies.

Regarding administrator's contracts, the board essentially eliminated one year from the contract of such positions as athletic director, assistant principals, principals, assistant superintendents and superintendent.

All individuals employed in those posts prior to Thursday, however, will retain their current contract status, which is a two-year contract which is annually considered for a one-year "term" extension.

The net effect of such a contract is if the school board declines to extend it, the staffer still has a two-year contract with the district.

Under the system now approved, persons hired for these positions will have their contract come up for renewal every two years. If the board fails to renew it, that individual will have a legal obligation from the district only through the end of the current school year.

Also Thursday, the board approved the employment of a federally-funded position for the district, an associate psychologist for special education.

Newly hired is David W. Cosby, 38, who is due to report Monday. He is a recent graduate of Abilene Christian University, earning his masters in pre-clinical and counseling psychology. He earned his BS degree in psychology from ACU in 1978.

In Abilene, he has worked also as a child care worker with the Woods Psychiatric Institute.

Also Thursday, trustees indicated they are considering sending Bill Sealy, head of physical plant maintenance, to receive his certification as an asbestos inspector.

This would enable him to complete requirements for the district at no charge related to these inspections, newly mandated by the Asbestos Hazard Emergency Response Act.

It was noted the new requirements could cost the district as much as $3,600 per campus building with the initial round of inspections.

The tuition cost for sending Sealy for certification was estimated at $1,500.

In other school-related business, the board voted to:

—Drop pleasure boats from the school tax rolls. Appraisal district staffers had pointed out that it would cost the district almost $4,300 to gain some $8,600 in tax income related to pleasure boats.

—Approve the 1988-89 school calendar.

—Approve an "Update 30" of school policies to make them conform to new state rules and regulations.

—Renew an oil lease agreement which will total some $500 in income to the district per year.

Career ladder policy approved

The new policy addresses also what teachers must do to maintain both Level II and Level III status. Teachers can lose the designation for Level II if their classroom performance is evaluated as less than "exceeding expectations" for the preceding year.

For Level III, this can be downgraded to Level II if the teacher does not appraise as "clearly outstanding" for two consecutive years.

The new policy also reaffirms a previous school board decision that all teachers within the system who qualify for career ladder will be granted this status. In the past, a quota system was in place.
