Panamanian president said removed

PANAMA CITY, Panama (AP) — The legislature removed the president from office early today, saying he had promoted U.S. interference in domestic affairs by ordering Gen. Manuel Antonio Noriega to step down as military chief.

The Cabinet immediately named a new chief of state, Education Minister Manuel Solis Palma, who was sworn in before dawn by the president of the National Assembly. President Eric Arturo Delvalle had announced Noriega's removal Thursday, but the military challenged it and the man named as new Defense Forces chief refused to take the job.

Noriega, indicted in the United States on drug trafficking charges, is widely regarded as the real power behind the civilian government in Panama, headquarters for U.S. military operations in Latin America. The U.S. Southern Command has 10,000 troops and 20,000 dependents in Panama.

Noriega, who has said he is innocent of all charges, controls Panama's military and police. He did not comment publicly on Delvalle's removal or the president's order that he step down.

The White House, which called for Noriega's resignation after his indictments in Florida on Feb. 5, had supported Delvalle's order.

After Delvalle's removal, White House spokesman Bob Hall said there would be no White House comment until later this morning.

Delvalle and Vice President Roderick Esquivel were removed from office in a 10-minute emergency legislative session that began at 1 a.m. EST today.

Opposition lawmakers were not present for the unanimous vote by the 38 members of the 67-seat assembly in attendance. The National Democratic Union, which backs the military, holds 45 seats in the assembly.

Delvalle called his dismissal "something legally despicable that only fulfills a formality in the mind of those who want to grasp power at any cost."

State school board candidates appear

By DONNY BROWN
SDN Managing Editor

A fine tuning of House Bill 72 rules were said needed by both candidates for this area's seat on the State School Board Thursday, but a sharp division was noted between the two when it came to the performance of the "old" appointed board.

While admitting that it had fallen short in some areas, incumbent state board member Dr. Paul Dunn, a Levelland dentist, defended the board in relation to many of the more controversial aspects of HB 72.

He pointed to problems with legal interpretations regarding the intent of the law passed by the state legislature and the failure of the legislature to following through with state funding promises.

His opponent, Monte Hasie, a Lubbock stockbroker and member of the Lubbock school board, laid a greater share of the blame for HB 72 woes on the state board.

"The current board has not been practical," he said, blaming it for a large share of what he called "taking local control" away from Texas school districts and the "unnecessary paperwork" now required of these districts and the higher local burden placed on its taxpayers.

Dunn, in asking to be re-elected, said, "I can go back to Austin...and the incumbents will take the leadership role and can do things," he said.

Hasie, however, said he felt West Texas has already indicated how it felt about the "old" school board. "West Texas beat the appointed board," he said, a reference to strong support in this area at the November General Election which saw a special issue defeated statewide to keep the appointed board concept.

The candidates also clashed briefly in reference to a statement by Dunn. He had noted earlier he had been endorsed by the Texas State Teachers Association and the Texas branch of the American Federation of Teachers.

This statement prompted a question from the audience, from local teacher Judy Moss, who

Cogdell officials predict patient income

Cogdell Memorial Hospital administrator Thomas R. Hochwalt Thursday night said recent rate increases and an improvement in the average daily census of hospital patients should increase total patient revenues by 9.7 percent this year.

In a 1988 financial forecast given to hospital board members, the newly named administrator said patient revenues should increase from $4,832,800 last year to $5,819,368 this year. He said the county-owned hospital should experience a net operating loss of $794,981 for 1988, considerably less than the $1,192,911 deficit last year, when a large amount of bad debts, some dating to the 1960s, was written off.

The average daily census is expected to improve by about one patient for every 29 to 30 admitted. In addition, Hochwalt said Friday morning that he is "optimistic that we can do better."

In a presentation lasting about an hour, he reviewed upcoming performance evaluations for all 155 full-time equivalent hospital employees and the working visits that have been going on among staff members of the recently affiliated St. Mary of the Plains Hospital in Lubbock and Cogdell. He said Cogdell credit manager Brenda Moore has been consulting at the Lubbock hospital this week while St. Mary's nursing director Edie Blackburn has been here.

The administrator projected an increase in total admissions from See HOSPITAL, page 9

36 listed here as due unclaimed state funds

The names of 36 individuals, couples or businesses listing a Snyder address appear on a State of Texas Treasury Department "Unclaimed Money Fund" list to be in general release March 6.

The complete list of about 75,000 names will be included in 16 newspapers statewide on that day.

Under state law, sums of money involving such things as checking and savings accounts, mineral royalties, insurance payments, safe deposit boxes and utility deposits are turned over to the state if accounts are inactive for at least three years.

The owners or heirs may file a claim at any time in the future for these funds held by the state.

Those whose names appear on the list should contact the state treasurer's office at (800) 321-2274. Last year, about $50 million was returned in previously unclaimed funds.

The list of names for Snyder appearing in the report include

M.A. Aguilar, H.G. Anderson, Dianna Ballard, William K. Border, Joe D. Brown, C.W. Inc., Nelson Eddie Carlisle, Wilma West Carson, Ida Mae Clark, Pedro Cruz, Thelma Davenport and Eugenia Davila Jr.

Also, J.O. Dodson, L. Dunaway, E.D. Flynn, Benjamin and Milba Ford, Thomas Dale Harman, Dale Harmon, Linden Hodges, Billy Sam Houston, Perry Hunter, Delbert Hurst, Keith Jordan, Rober King, Max and Nancy Lochabay, Timmie K. and Jame Mosley.

In addition, Newmont Oil Co., Frank P. Osborne III, Edwin and Vernell Parks, Derald P. and Joyce Pitts, Richard Rollins, S&H Rental Service, Joe Sanchez Jr., Alma Rae Sears, R.B. Sears and Jim C. Smith

Also, G.T. Sowell, B.B. Sutton, D.T. Sutton, Mary R. Towle, Rit Underwood, A.A. Wilson, Thomas D. Wiman, Charles R. Wolfe and Ronald D. Wooten.

Stock dividend given to WTSB shareholders

A 20 percent stock dividend and the re-election of directors highlighted the annual stockholders meeting Thursday of West Texas State Bank.

WTSB President Bill Parker described 1987 as a "very good year" for the bank and noted that its financial performance was in the top 10 percent of its peer group in Texas.

Shareholders approved the stock dividend which increases the number of outstanding shares from 100,000 to 120,000.

Directors re-elected at the meeting were H. W. Cargile, Martin Brooks, Dan Cotton, Harold Denson, Bill Eiland, John Greene, Charles Henderson, Bill Parker, R. C. Patton and Dale Stuard. At the directors meeting which followed, all officers were re-elected—including Cargile as senior board chairman and Brooks as chairman of the board.

Parker was re-elected president and chief executive officer and Greene was re-named executive vice president. Elected as senior vice presidents were Mark Estes and Stuard.

Re-elected vice presidents were Eiland (inactive), Henderson, Syble Bley and Forrest Pendleton.

Derwin Thompson was re-named senior vice president and cashier. Elected assistant vice presidents were Evelyn McCom-

The feller on Deep Creek says, "Old age is something that just creeps up on you."

Keeping tabs on our neighbors: Gene Dow, in the Colorado City Record, commented on the dispute that has surfaced again over real fur coats being worn as part of the Miss America beauty pageant.

It reminded Dow of a story about the husband who demanded of his wife, "Why haven't you mended the holes in these socks?" "You didn't buy the fur coat I wanted," replied the wife, "so I figure if you didn't give a wrap, I didn't give a darn."

During the Winter Olympics, it was easy to notice several popular sports not commonly seen by West Texans who still favor football.

Larry Crabtree, in the Vernon Daily Record, observed that football is not common in many parts of the world, and in England rugby is the top spectator sport.

An Englishman, trying to explain the game of rugby to an American, concluded by saying, "A lot of shins get kicked in this game." "We have a game like that," replied the American. "We call it bridge."

James Roberts, in the Andrews County News, dislikes newspapers being included in the general term of media.

"As far as we're concerned, there's the press, the radio and then television, and we personally do not want to be lumped with TV."

"There's no such thing as a middle position in TV news as witnessed by the presidential political coverage."

"With their over-saturation of the airways, we're convinced that, at the present rate of hype and so-called media events, the average voter in this country will pull the lever called 'None of the Above.'"

Q. — What is the range during which Easter Sunday may fall and is it unusually late this year?

A. — Easter may occur between March 22 and April 25 and this year falls on April 3. Last year it was on April 19; the year before that on March 30 and, the year before that, April 7.

In Brief

Senate action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Outnumbered Senate Republicans held ranks today, scuttling a last-ditch Democratic attempt to force a vote on a divisive campaign finance package that kept lawmakers talking for 53 straight hours.

The GOP victory, capping a sometimes bitter filibuster that included the parliamentary arrest of Sen. Robert Packwood, R-Ore., came as the Senate voted 53-41 not to invoke cloture, which would have cut off debate and brought the legislation to a vote the majority Democrats would win.

The cloture attempt failed because at least 60 senators must agree to force a vote.

Lawyer quits

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Gov. Evan Mecham's chief attorney has resigned, just days after other lawyers were brought in to handle the governor's impeachment trial opening next week before the state Senate, a newspaper reported today.

The Arizona Daily Star of Tucson quoted the governor as saying, "Murray (Miller) withdrew from the case. We parted friendly, but that's really all. You'll have to ask him why."

Miller and Mecham did not return phone calls this morning.

Local

Band contests

Snyder band students from both the junior high and high school will be in Abilene Saturday competing in solo and ensemble competition.

The high school students will compete in UIL-sponsored events and their junior high counterparts will compete in similar competitions, although not directly UIL sponsored.

The contests for both will be on the campus of Abilene Christian University.

For the high school, about 40 band members will be competing.

Some 27 of these will be performing in the solo events. Six ensemble groups, to include sextets, quartets and trios, will compete as well.

For the junior high, approximately 60 students will be involved.

The high school band is under the direction of Walter Reneau and the junior high band, Donnie Reston.

CHURCH PRESENTATION—“America, You’re Too Young To Die” will be presented at 7 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church. The public is invited and the admission is free. This presentation, that has appeared before 2.3 million people from coast to coast, is designed to educate, organize and mobilize the sleeping giant of moral Americans and to turn America back to the God of her forefathers. The program is 75 minutes long and is a multi-media production by the Life Action Singers which includes special lighting, 12 computerized projection units covering a 36-foot wide screen with over 1,300 visuals, synchronized to music, lyrics and narration. This program will shock you as to the current state of the nation both morally and militarily and what American individuals can do about it. (Church Photo)

Immigration service making new song about amnesty

MALLEN, Texas (AP) — The Immigration and Naturalization Service is singing the praises of its legalization program with a new record, “Amnistia.”

INS employee Art Zuniga, who normally writes love songs and beer-drinking tunes for a country and western band, took his amnesty song into a recording studio Thursday.

“It’s a vehicle to get the word across to all the people who haven’t applied to let them know that they really should come out of hiding,” said Zuniga, while taking a break Thursday at M.R. Recording Studio.

His Spanish song will be used in a stepped-up campaign the INS is using to lure applicants to its one-year program offering legal residency to certain aliens as the May 4 deadline approaches.

Zuniga, 38, who grew up in the lower Rio Grande Valley in a family of farm workers, said he wrote the song because he understands people who come to this country seeking work.

“Well, my friend, the time has come for those who have lived a long time in the country inhabited by Americans,” he sings in Spanish. “Recently, a law was passed...”

It continues to remind of the approaching deadline, “because this opportunity will not come again in your lifetime.”

Two of the Valley’s most popular Spanish stations already have agreed to air the song.

INS officials say they plan to promote the song throughout South Texas and in other areas if it’s a hit.

“If it becomes a big hit, I have my bosses to thank, along with everybody else who encouraged me,” Zuniga said.

Zuniga regularly works at the INS legalization office in Harlingen and plays in a country and western band in his spare time.

Ceramics classes are scheduled

Ceramics courses for beginning and advanced students are scheduled in the Western Texas College Spring Opportunity Session.

Art 234 is the beginning course with Art 233 and Art 239 for advanced students. Mike Thornton will be the instructor for all the courses, with classes meeting on Tuesday evenings.

Art 234 gives emphasis to exploration of form possibilities through hand-formed and pottery wheel techniques. Students will make multiple pieces in stoneware and terra-cotta. Pieces will be functional in design and safe for all types of food preparation and all pieces are the property of the student.

Students in Art 233 and 239 must have previously taken a beginning course in ceramics. Their projects will be arranged individually and will include both hand building and pottery wheel techniques. Various clay bodies, glazes and their treatment will be stressed.

Students must register for the Spring Opportunity Session at 6:30 p.m. on March 1 in the WTC Administration building. Classes will begin on that date and continue through May 14.
