CRIMINAL CASES IN COURT TRIED MONDAY

Seven Suspended Terms Burglary, Driving While Intoxicated

Criminal cases were tried in court Monday morning for the second week of the term. Palmer, 22-year-old youth, charged with burglary, waived his right to a jury and pleaded guilty. He was given a suspended sentence. Duke was assessed a two-year suspended sentence for driving while intoxicated when he was charged.

Skipworth, rural supervisor, representative, Roy J. assistant rural supervisor, Farm Security Administration, formerly the Resettlement Administration, of Haskell County arranged the following schedule for their work: Monday—Visiting gins. Tuesday—Munday, Knox, City, Rochester, Sagerton, Rule. Wednesday—Afternoon—Farm. Thursday—Morning—In the Haskell. Friday—Afternoon—Farm. Saturday—Morning—Farm visits. Sunday—Morning—In the Haskell.

LAND IN SOUTH PART OF HASKELL COUNTY

Leasing in the south part of Haskell County continues with more land being leased by oil operators. Forest Development Commissioned from A. E. Pardue six tracts of land totaling 809 acres in the south part of the county near the Haskell-Jones line. Kendrick leased to P. S. three tracts of 484 acres in the same location.

HASKELL INDIANS POWER RULE 27-7 HERE FRIDAY

Light Line Fails To Hold Improving Indians

Haskell Indians, with a light attack and deceptive plays, defeated the team from the Light Line in their annual grudge battle Friday night.

Opening early in the first quarter Josselyn ran 43 yards on a reverse spin play only to be blocked half the distance of the play for unnecessary roughness. McMillin swept end for 18 yards and short pass from Thomason to Rogers placed the ball in the end zone after two line plays. Rogers went over the end zone for the first time in the second quarter with an Indians opening holes in the line at will they marched down the field for four successive touchdowns and Rogers went over the end zone for the second time for extra point. Thomason kicked off a bad kick and a series of off tackle, spin and penalties. Thomason kicked through the line for another touchdown. On try for extra point he was penalized 15 yards for unnecessary roughness but Rogers kicked the 25 yard stripe for extra point.

CREW IS TEARING DOWN WATER TOWER BUILT HERE IN 1909

The old water tower, built in 1909, replaced last year with a larger one, is being torn down this week by a wrecking crew from Amarillo. Workmen have already removed the top and rivets are being cut in the tank and replaced with bolts so that when the complete crew arrives the latter part of this week all they will have to do will be to let the pieces down on a crane. Standards will also be torn down and moved. This tower had held Haskell's water supply for 28 years, until the new tower replaced it.

CASES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS IN STOCK FOUND IN COUNTY

Treatment Must Be Started Soon After Symptoms Noticed

Twelve cases of "sleeping sickness" deadly brain disease of horses and mules now sweeping the country, have been reported in Haskell County, and several animals have died with the disease within the past two weeks.

Thought by medical men to be transmitted from one animal to another by flies and mosquitoes the disease (equine encephalomyelitis) has been rampant over the middlewest for several weeks but only recently was reported in Texas. Authorities blame the early fall weather for the southward movement of mosquitoes. It is estimated that fatality may reach as high as 60 percent of the infected animals.

The disease usually affects a horse from five to ten days, and is curable only when treated in the early stages. Symptoms are variable, authorities state. The first noticed is usually a general dullness, sleepiness followed by loss of appetite, loss of flesh, increased temperature, partial to complete blindness, and incoordination or staggery gait. Affected animals may be found leaning against a barn or fence and as the development of paralysis continues the animal goes down and is unable to rise.

Following this general uneasiness is usually observed until frequent struggling and profuse perspiration is followed by coma and death.

1937-38 Term For 3 Rural Schools Starts on Monday

Three more rural schools in Haskell County started their 1937-38 terms Monday morning. Opening with a larger enrollment than in previous years the schools are anticipating a very successful year. Those opening are Bunker Hill, Ward, and New Cook. Teachers at Bunker Hill are Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Spray and Belva Curry. Virgil Cook, Mancil Show, Berry Smith and Elouise Walters will teach at New Cook.

GOES TO HUNTSVILLE TO RETURN PRISONER HERE FOR AUTO THEFT

Sheriff Giles Kemp left Sunday morning for the state penitentiary at Huntsville to pick up Horace Posey, indicted by the grand jury for auto theft last Wednesday. Posey is serving a two year sentence for car theft now, convicted last term of court at Throckmorton. His trial is set in District Court here this week.

THIRTY-THREE NEW FAMILIES LOCATE HERE LAST MONTH

Surrounding Oil Territory Is Responsible For Many New Residents

Thirty-three new residents, most of them with families have been added to Haskell's population within the past month. Oil development in the surrounding territory, fall business and school starting and an improved farm year have all combined to form a basis for this growth.

At the first of the month twelve members of an exploration company made their headquarters in Haskell and Monday eleven employees of Gulf Corporation will open offices here, bringing their families with them from Post. School teachers, business employees and their families have also increased the number of new residents.

At the present time there is only one vacant house in the city and it is not for rent. There is an acute shortage of housing facilities, both in homes and apartments. Never has there been such a demand for furnished or unfurnished apartments.

Eighteen families have made inquiries about moving to Haskell but could find no place to live, it is reported.

Business enterprise has shown an increase since the first of the year and a definite upswing since September 1.

SCHOOLS ENTER FLOATS IN FALL FAIR PARADE HERE

Ten List Entries In Parade Portraying "Mother Goose Rhymes"

Eight rural schools and both ward schools of Haskell have entered floats in the mammoth parade to be here Wednesday, October 20, opening day of the Central West Texas Fair. Beautiful floats, artistically arranged in a mass of blending colors will depict childhood "Mother Goose Rhymes", and school children bedecked in fairy tale costumes will be a unit in the grand parade, predicted to be the largest ever witnessed by a West Texas fair crowd.

Teachers, patrons of the school, and students have already started work on their individual floats. Schools that have already listed entries in the parade and the theme they will portray are:

Howard—Mother Goose and thirteen of the Mother Goose characters. Mrs. Wavie Starr, teacher. Sayles—The Fairy tales "Hansel and Gretel", Mrs. Bill Richey, teacher.

Ballew—"The Old Woman Who Lived in a Shoe", Mrs. Scott Green and Mrs. Ralph Duncan, teachers.

Brushy—"Jack and Jill", Miss Wheeler, teacher.

McConnell, "Little Boy Blue", Mrs. Garrett, teacher.

Midway, "Bye Baby Bunting", Miss May Wells Mansell, teacher.

North Ward, Haskell—"Little Bo Peep", Miss Fitzgerald, Mrs. Brooks and Mrs. Ricke, teachers.

South Ward, Haskell—"Mistress Mary", Mrs. Ballard, teacher.

Post—"Old Woman Who Live in a Shoe", Mrs. McDaniels, teacher.

Mattson, Sagerton, Rule, Rochester, and O'Brien have not listed their entries yet.

A beautiful silver loving cup will be given to the prize winner for the best stunt.

Oil Exploration Organization To Start Work Here

Eleven members of the exploration department of Gulf Corporation opened offices in Haskell Monday morning in preparation for extensive work in Haskell and surrounding counties for a period of five or six months.

With a monthly payroll of several hundred dollars and cars and trucks that have to be serviced daily the project will be a distinct asset to Haskell.

A complete exploration survey of the entire county will be made and also parts of surrounding county to determine oil producing areas.

Work Underway For Checking Acreage For '37 Compliance

Checking farms for compliance with the 1937 Agriculture program is well under way, according to W. L. Scott, assistant in Agriculture Conservation. Eighteen crews are now at work and should be completed within the next ten days.

After the maps are checked by the supervisors the actual measuring is done in the county agent's office by a Plainmeter. Since they have only one Plainmeter it will be impossible to measure the farms as fast as they are turned in. Producers are sent a list of the different crops and the corresponding acres as soon as their farm is measured. If any error is noticed it should be reported to the county agent's office immediately.

TO REBUILD GIN DESTROYED BY FIRE FRIDAY IN 10 DAYS

Postal Receipts For Quarter Show Slight Increase

September business brought postal receipts for the first nine months of 1937 to $9,655.15, almost equal to the same period last year when the highest receipts for one single month were recorded in history of the post office.

Receipts for the quarter ending September 30 totaled $3,172.69, revealed J. M. Diggs, postmaster. Postal receipts usually are one of the city's most accurate business indices and reveal that this year's fall business is several weeks later than in 1936. October business is expected to even exceed September receipts of last year.

Another sign of prosperity is heavy purchasing of baby bonds by Haskell citizens.

Fire Prevention Week Is Planned To Reduce Losses

Once each year under the sponsorship of the Fire Insurance Commission, seven days are set aside for the observance of Fire Prevention Week in Texas. During this week, civic groups, individuals, city officials and innumerable other organizations of every description throughout the State are actively engaged in spreading the "new gospel" of fire prevention. And why?

Because fire prevention is a vital part of our every-day lives, it affects our homes, our loved ones, our pocketbooks. When it is practiced, and practiced effectively fire prevention becomes one of the most practical modern methods for saving and conserving life and property.

The people of Texas realize this constant need for conservation, careful preservation, and protection from loss. The people of Texas, realize how important it is to eliminate waste, destruction, hardship and death. So, during a single week, the need for and the result of prevention is spotlighted.

Last year 519 people were killed by fire in Texas. Last year the fire loss amounted to approximately $8,000,000. 519 lives—$8,000,000—there we have the answer to "why fire prevention?"

There are no set rules which may govern a man's conduct in respect to fire prevention. The most effective fireman is one's own conscience. The greatest safeguard to conserve, to keep clean his property, and to show consideration for his neighbors' good. Let us remember that while we speak of fire prevention: The people make their own fire insurance rates, that is to say, they determine to a large degree the cost of insurance. This is done in four ways: first by the protective facilities and equipment a city maintains; secondly, by the way the individual builds; thirdly, by the fire prevention ordinances in force and fourthly, and most important of all, by the amount of annual fire waste.

The law gives to the city officials of Texas cities and towns certain police powers as a means of reducing the fire hazards and fire losses. It is within the power of the public to demand of their city officials the creation of a permanent Fire Prevention Committee, and it is within the power of this committee with the support of the public to see that all fire prevention laws and ordinances are enforced as a means of reducing our annual fire loss—thereby reducing the cost of insurance. When your fire-fighting equipment is improved or added to, a worthwhile investment—not an expenditure—is being made. Remember this: as long as there is carelessness or neglect, all the equipment and facilities in the world will not solve the problem alone. There must first be the will to improve.

The prevention of fires is an individual responsibility. If we would insure progress and advancement in Texas, we must take it upon ourselves to apply the education of our better judgment, and enforce the unwritten laws of what we know to be right and best.

The greatest fire hazard in the State of Texas will be removed when we replace inertia with action; when fire prevention is not only a doctrine, but a living, pulsating, growing FACT.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Donohoo and son, Thomas Lee, of Abilene visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

County School Library Starts Route Monday

Haskell County's school library truck, placed in operation at the beginning of the 1936 school term started on its route to cooperating schools Monday afternoon, making available 4,000 volumes of literature for students in the county's school system.

Plans are for a full time librarian with more frequent visits than last year announces Matt N. Graham, county superintendent. During the summer 500 new volumes have been added to the shelves of this traveling library.

The mobile library, an involution in schools of the state, has met with hearty favor of Haskell county teachers. Haskell county was third in the state to install a library truck and today is the only county west of Dallas where this facility is maintained as a part of the county's school system. Numerous inquiries regarding the new venture from educators in West Texas are received.

The State Education Department issues certificates to pupils who read 20 volumes of standard literature during the school year, as recorded in the county library, and teachers report this has resulted in encouragement and improvement of reading in some instances of 50 per cent in pupils.

Remodeling Of McCollum Store Completed Soon

McCollum Hardware will have the official opening of their newly remodelled store Wednesday, October 6, announced N. I. McCollum who has been supervising the work. Open house will be held until nine o'clock Wednesday night and the public is cordially invited to visit the new store and see the changes whether they buy anything or not.

Interior of the store has been finished in a color scheme of ivory and green. Class partitions have been built on counters separating goods and allowing more display space. Convenient sliding doors under the counters provide storage space for extra stock.

Display shelves have been built the entire length of each side of the store and a backboard around the balcony in the rear of the building will be used to display children's toys.

With the remodeling and rearranging of his store Mr. McCollum has added a large supply of stock including, carpenter's tools, builders supplies, aluminum and enamel ware, and a gift department, making it one of the most complete and up-to-date hardware stores in West Texas.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

September proved to be a more popular matrimonial month than June, according to the records of County Clerk Jason W. Smith, for more marriage licenses were issued the past month than in June.

Licenses issued the past week are:

Elton Herman Robertson and Ida Belle Hewitt.
Rufus G. Andrews and Marie McGregor.
Richard R. Kretschmer and Anna Steinfath.
William Clovis Norton and Mary Belle Edwards.
Walter L. McCandless and Lonelle Denson.

Crew To Work Day and Night Until Construction Is Completed

Immediate rebuilding of the Farmer's Cooperative Gin No. 1, destroyed by fire Friday night during the Haskell-Rule football game, it was stated Monday after contract had been let to Gullett Gin Company of Dallas and will be completed and in operation by Saturday, October 16, gin officials announce.

Between thirty and forty men will work in shifts twenty four hours until the work is completed. Although the old foundation will be used, it will be extended and new foundation work must be done. A larger all-steel gin and gin house will replace the old one and five stands will be built and five more added when ginning necessitates it.

Total loss of the fire Friday night is still undetermined because exact loss of seed has not been estimated but the figures are between $30,000 and $35,000. Insurance coverage was only partial, it is reported. Fire was discovered by workmen in the southwest corner of the seed house but before firemen could get water to the blaze it had spread over the entire building and was beyond control.

Drivers Warned To Observe City Traffic Regulations Here

Drivers are requested when making a left hand turn to signal by holding out their left hand, and when making a left turn please keep to the right of white lines at the traffic light. A complete stop is required on turning on the right on a red light, states Sebo Britton, City Marshall.

Car owners are also reminded that double parking limit is thirty minutes and no longer, and are asked not to lock their cars when double parked because they have to be moved from behind those parked next to the curb.

A bell has been installed on the signal light and light changes have been installed on the signal light and light changes have been speeded up. Boy Scouts will aid in directing traffic Saturday.

To accommodate large crowds in Haskell Saturday a free parking lot one half block north of the Farmers State Bank may be used.

START INSPECTION OF SCHOOLS FOR STATE SALARY AID

Work Will Take Ten Days For 21 Applying Schools

Inspection of Haskell county schools for state salary aid will start Tuesday, October 5, by Joe Beard, state inspector. It will probably take ten days to complete the work for checking the 21 schools applying for State aid. Six rural schools have not started their 1937 terms yet and this will necessitate another trip from Austin to inspect these schools.

The difference between expenditures and receipts is made up by the state aid fund, eight months school guaranteed unaffiliated schools and nine months for affiliated schools.

Those listed for salary aid are: Rule, Rochester, Weinert, O'Brien, Sagerton, Jud, Vernon, Midway, Lake Creek, New Mid, Hutto, Sayles, Plainview, Gauntt, New Cook, Ericsdale, Center Point, Rose, Foster, Tonk Creek and Mattson.

TAX TRUTHS AS BRAKE ON PUBLIC SPENDING

Working on the theory that what you don't see doesn't hurt you, our American legislators have succeeded, since the war, in building up one of the most amazing systems of invisible taxes ever erected on the planet.

The result is that the tax collector manages to gouge the daylight out of the little fellow without ever drawing a word of protest.

Indeed, the little fellow seems to like it. One of his favorite diversions is to compare his lot with that of his opposite number in Great Britain, where taxes are as visible as cigarette billboards. He looks over the figures and discovers that the Briton has to start paying an income tax as soon as his earnings amount to $750 a year—which takes in practically everybody. The American doesn't start until his income reaches $1000; if he is married, he can earn as much as $2500 before he has to lay anything on the line.

So, looking at the figures, the American pities the poor Briton as one who is taxed within an inch of his life, and thanks his God that in this country it is the rich man who pays the taxes.

Which is precisely where the American fools himself.

John T. Flynn pointed out the other day that an ordinary American with an income of $4000 a year will pay some $28 in income taxes, after he has made the proper deductions. An American with an income half the size may pay no income tax at all—but if he buys one package of cigarettes a day he pays a tax of $21.90 a year, and if he has a couple daily glasses of beer, in addition, his tax will run to $45.

The $28 income tax may cause the citizen to kick like a steer. The almost equally heavy tax he pays for the privilege of smoking cigarettes causes no kick at all, because he doesn't realize that he is paying it. It is invisible, and therefore painless.

If these hidden cigarette and beer taxes were the only ones, it wouldn't be so bad. But there just a small part of the picture. For the plain fact is that 70 per cent of the taxes collected in this country are of the invisible variety. There are gasoline taxes, cosmetics taxes, taxes of innumerable kinds on retail sales, doubly hidden taxes deriving from the tariff—until, according to the Twentieth Century Fund's recent study, a New York wage earner who makes $1000 a year has to pay $123 of it in taxes.

Try to collect that $123 from the wage earner as a direct tax and he will howl to high heaven. Collect it indirectly and he never sees it—and, consequently, never utters a peep.

SIZING UP PWA

Abolition of the Public Works Administration would seem to make some sort of landmark in the slow progress of our long fight against the depression. The PWA was in some ways the most spectacular of the emergency spending agencies; its demise indicates that the emergency is considered by the administration to be pretty well past.

It is generally agreed that PWA has been something of a disappointment—possible because we expected too much of it in the first place. But in the main it has been a useful agency. Since 1933 it has allotted to non-federal projects upwards of $2,700,000,000, and has created some 661,000,000 man-hours of direct employment and two and one-half times that much indirect employment.

Now that it is out of the picture, we may be able to get a clearer picture of what it did for us—and figure out how we are going to pay for it.

A PRACTICAL MEMORIAL

Thirty years ago there was a bad interurban wreck at Elyria, O. Eight people were killed, and some of the deaths were attributed to the city's lack of hospital facilities.

Among the victims was the son of an Elyria business man named Edgar F. Allen. Allen bestirred himself to see that this tragic story be not repeated. He organized the Elyria Memorial Hospital Association, campaigned to raise funds for it, gave liberally of his own money, and retired from business to become treasurer and manager of the new hospital which the association built.

In the years since then, this hospital has done a great work. And Allen, who died just the other day left to the memory of his dead son a fine and valuable memorial of enduring usefulness and beauty.

When time and conditions change people should change with them. Living in the past is a lonesome life.

Do You Remember

these happenings of 10 and 15 years ago?

(Taken From The Files of the Haskell Free Press)

15 Years Ago

The Haskell Grid Warriors "strutted their stuff" when they trotted on the field led by their captain and quarterback, Eugene English, last Friday for the first scheduled game of the season. The game ended Haskell 19, Abilene 0.

On last Wednesday morning fire broke out in the Duncan gin. However, there was not much material damage excepting a waste of some cotton and giving things a good soaking with water, causing some mighty hard ginning the rest of the day.

The home of W. J. Rogers in the northwest part of town was destroyed by fire Tuesday afternoon about 1:30.

A free concert will be given by the Haskell Concert Band on the courthouse lawn Sunday afternoon October 8 at five o'clock.

The marriage of O. J. Bush and Miss Ethel Fisk occurred Tuesday evening at the Baptist parsonage. Rev. McHenry Seal officiated.

County Judge Jas. P. Kinnard returned Wednesday from Corsicana, Belton and other points south of Dallas. He states that he failed to see any crops on the entire trip that were better than we have in Haskell County.

Plans for the Haskell County fair to be held October 27-28 are fast materializing. The combined efforts of the Parent Teacher's association, together with those of Haskell's most progressive citizens bids fair to make the venture a glowing success.

Messrs. Sam A. J. W. and Grady Roberts and Alonzo Pate made a business trip to Chillicothe Saturday.

10 Years Ago

The Kouri et al Bouldin No. 1 hit the pay Wednesday at 1,553 feet. At that depth the hole began to fill with oil and four barrels of high gravity oil was bailed from the hole for tests.

In the minds of the men—and women who are directly connected with the production and presentation of the Haskell County Fair for this year, it is a settled fact that this season will see the best exposition ever offered under the direction of the local fair association.

The city of Haskell has purchased ed a new high pressure automobile pumper for the Fire Department from the Southern Fire Apparatus Co. of Dallas, Texas.

Miss Lela Welsh, beautiful and accomplished daughter of City Marshall and Mrs. W. E. Welsh was chosen to represent Haskell at the Abilene Fair.

On last Wednesday afternoon, September 21, Miss Vivian Cannon became the bride of Mr. Frank L. Sloan in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Draper.

Miss Majorie Whiteker left this week for Dallas where she has accepted a position with the Baptist Standard Publishing House.

Probably one of the largest crowds that ever gathered in Abilene was there Monday to honor Lindbergh, the famous trans-Atlantic flyer who made a two hour stop over on his way from El Paso to Fort Worth.

Mrs. W. B. Gregory and children have moved to Haskell for the benefit of the schools.

Josslet H. D. Club News

"The biggest portion of criminals haven't had the proper training in the home," stated Mrs. Louise Merchant to the Josslet Home Demonstration Club ladies last Tuesday Sept. 28 at 2:30 in the club house with Mrs. J. L. Toliver and Mrs. E. B. Callaway, hostesses.

"The discipline of a child should start in the home and not wait for the teacher when he starts to school, for they are so much more difficult to handle," said Mrs. Johnnie Perrin as she discussed, "Discipline in the Home."

A child at the age of six will show their training at home, quipped Mrs. Clarence Norton as she discussed, "Training for Good Citizenship."

Teach the child to show appreciation to the hostess, their meal that has just been served, stated Mrs. Jesse Jones in a round table discussion on "Manners a Child Should Be Taught." "Respect older people, one thing I've tried to instill in the minds of my children is early training," said Mrs. Perrin.

"Even in establishing a home is much easier to have been orderly and tidy when just a dling baby," said Mrs. Walters as she talked on "The Child to be Orderly and Tidy."

Refreshments were served by Mesdames, E. B. Callaway, Thomas, Walter Rogers, J. R. Ry, Adell Thomas, Louise Chant, Jesse Josslet, Larry J. L. Toliver, Johnnie Perrin, C. Norton, S. G. Perry, M. Norton.

Mrs. Louise Merchant and Johnnie Perrin will be invited to a club party for the month and their families Oct. 15 members try to be present. Time awaits you.

Round Up

THE SPIRIT

This article is the name implies. Be your own school! Get your own enthusiasm of the school to do! If you attempt to do! If you are very anxious and very anxious, the task is not.

There may not have a large pep squad or a large pep squad, but they have the pep squad. They will have to do their best to make up for it. They will have to do their best to make up for it. They will have to do their best to make up for it.

SEEING THE SENIORS

The senior class met Tuesday September 28th for the purpose of electing officers for the year, which were as follows: Henrietta Mapes, President; LaVern Guess, Vice President; Clyde Crume, Secretary-Treasurer; and John Alex Mayfield, Reporter.

Juanita Mapes, Lou Etta Stanford, Eva Couch, Gerald Atchison and LaVern Guess were appointed social committeemen.

To start the social season the committee has arranged for a picnic at Rice Springs Park Friday afternoon and to attend the football game after the picnic.

THE FACULTY

I wish to introduce to you the faculty of Mattson Rural School for the 1937-38 term:

The "boss" for Mattson is Mr. Elmer C. Watson, the same superintendent we had last year. He is the one that keeps the wheels turning for the school. He also teaches all of the math in high school.

Mr. Coody is a new teacher in our school this year and one we are proud of. He is our athletic coach and came to us from Rule, Texas. We are expecting great results from Mr. Coody's patient coaching. He teaches history and civics.

"The cute little guy with the one and only mustache" is Mr. Wray. He is the one who is supposed to give the boys manual training. They hope to achieve much in that line of work. He also teaches fifth and sixth grade art. Some of them might be great artists some day. Sales and advertising seems to be a very popular and interesting subject under Mr. Wray. He is helping Mr. Coody as assistant coach. We feel like he is a credit to the school.

Miss Crume is our very efficient English teacher who taught us much in English last year. She is an experienced and we feel like a good English teacher. She makes your course interesting and enjoyable.

Miss Perrin is to again teach the home economics and general science. She will have two classes of Home Economics this year. As soon as we get our equipment we expect to start to work right.

Miss Moore is the fifth and sixth grade teacher they all like her, and we are expecting her to teach them much this year. She is also teaching some of the high school students typing. She is a new teacher, and we wish her luck.

Don't be surprised at some of the things Mrs. Clifton will do this year. She has charge of the third and fourth grades and is planning on doing some new and different things this year.

Mrs. Furrh is seeing to the needs of the first real mother to the little fellows. Some of them haven't caught on to what it's all about yet, but we are depending on Mrs. Furrh to start them off right.

As that sums them all up we wish to say "Here's to you, faculty."

STORE NAMING CONTEST

Everything was in confusion when Mr. Matthews offered a liberal reward for a suitable name for his store, located on the north west corner of the school ground. Of course this offer was only for the student body. After much discussion a name was turned in by every high school student. It seemed that the judges which were the faculty members, had quite a time selecting a suitable name. The two names liked best by the judges were "Chuck Wagon" and "Mustang's Corral", but the name "Mustang's Corral" was finally chosen.

MUSTANG'S CORRAL

Stop! Look! And Listen! Here comes the Mustangs from dear old Mattson. High, so folks just watch us pass by.

Football Squad Progresses Nicely

The football boys and coach are all working very hard this week getting to shape to play Rochester the eighth of this month. They all realize that Rochester has a great advantage in the fact that Mattson has never had a football team before and Rochester has played for a number of years. This doesn't discourage the Mustangs for they will fight from the beginning to the end.

Mr. Coody reports that there are twenty boys who are reporting for practice every day.

They are as follows:

Leon Newton, back; Jack Mapes, back; Henry Druessedow, back; Elmer Watson, quarterback; John M. McGuire, fullback; Waid Blair, halfback; John A. Mayfield, halfback; Chester Robertson, halfback; L. D. Holcomb, end; Gerald Atchison, end; Elvis Thompson, tackle; G. W. Couch, tackle; Leon Mapes, tackle; W. J. Adams, tackle; Glenn Edwards, guard; James R. Massie, guard; Edd Wilfong, guard; Bob Freeland, guard; John Freeland, guard; Clyde Crume, center.

Of course we realize that it will be a long tough pull for the boys but we are all backing them one hundred per cent. So come on Mustangs and fight! fight! fight!

JUNIOR CLASS

The junior class of 1937-38 term met Tuesday September 28th, to elect the officers for the year. The officers that were elected were as follows:

President—Elmer C. Watson Jr.
Vice President—Leon Mapes.
Secretary—Treasurer—Ruth McGuire.

Reporter—Louise Lancaster.
Social Head—La Vera Guess.
Class Sponsor—Mr. Wray.

FRESHMEN HAVE MEETING WEDNESDAY

The freshman class organized last Wednesday morning Sept. 29. The pupils elected for office were:

Ben Mapes—President.
Raymond Couch—Vice-President.
Robus Guess—Secretary.
Milbert Opitz—Reporter.
Raymond Steward, Leon Newton, Betty Miles, social committee.
Dana Atchison, Chester Robertson, Margaret Oldham, program committee.
Geraldine Wilfong, Wanda Mapes, G. W. Couch, service committee.

We think we have one of the best organized clubs in the school.

The sophomore class met Monday to elect their officers for the year. They were elected as follows:

James Robert Massie, President; Charles Stephens, Vice-President; Bobbie Louise Haynes, Secretary-Treasurer and Verna Mildred Mapes as reporter. Doris Robertson, Mary Miles, Henrietta Druessedow and Lois Hammit were appointed social committeemen.

Our aim is to buy good pictures for the school.

"HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN?"

School has started and the remark, "Happy days are here again," is being questioned.

When the doors of our new school building were opened last Monday morning, about sixty-two students enrolled in high school and more are expected later on. There are about one hundred and forty pupils in grammar school. This is an increase of about sixty students over last year's enrollment.

The student body and faculty are very proud of their new brick structure. The building is of one story, containing a basement. There are seven class rooms and an office and bookroom. The furniture is new and very beautiful. Since we do have nice furniture and a good building the student body is asked to help take care of it by refusing to scar the furniture in any way.

Mattson is offering several electives this term, besides the usual required subjects: typing, sales and advertising, art, general woodwork

PEP SQUAD ORGANIZED

On Monday Sept. 13 the girls of Mattson High School met for the purpose of organizing a pep squad. The meeting was in charge of Mrs. Clifton and Mr. Wray. The following officers and pep leaders were elected:

President: Juanita Mapes.
Secretary: Lavern Guess.
Pep leaders: Lou Etta Stanford and Bobbie Louise Haynes.

They have decided on black garbardin mannish suits with the silver satin kerchiefs. The preparation for a drum and bugle drill is underway.

"HOSS LAFFS"

"Come in, son, who's with you?" boomed Mr. Atchison.
"I'm alone, dad", sighed Rip.
"My voice is changing."

Along about 11 o'clock on the evening John Alex called on Laverne he looked at her like a moon struck calf and said softly, "I've never seen your eyes so dreamy."
"You've never sat around so late before," replied Laverne.

Mr. Coody: Mr. Massie what are the three words used most among high school students.
Branley—I don't know.
Mr. Coody—Mr. Massie, you are right for once.

Mrs. Wray—What makes my life so miserable.
Mr. Wray—Well, you've got me.
Mrs. Wray—That's right.

Miss Crume—Name three collective nouns.
Elmer C.—Flypaper, dustpan, and wastebasket.

Miss Perrin (Shopping for colars)—What's the price of these?
Clerk—The 2 for a quarter.
Miss F.—And this one alone?
Clerk—15 cents.
Miss P.—Well, I'll take the other one.

RULE METHODIST YOUNG PEOPLE ELECT OFFICERS

The Methodist Young People met in regular session at the church on Tuesday night at 7:30 with president Norine Spurlin in the chair. The opening devotional was conducted by the president. The officers for the coming year are: President, Ila Ellis; Vice-President, Hollis Bell; Secretary-Treasurer, Minnie Faye Yarbrough; Publicity Chairman, Geraldine Malone; Department Superintendent, Mrs. A. C. Pruitt; Chairman of Recreation Committee, Norene Spurlin; Chairman of Worship Committee, Bonnie Jean Sellers; Chairman of Mission Committee, Dessa Mae Lee.

The new president is to appoint the members of each committee at the first council meeting. The president urged some of the young people to go to the district meeting to be held in Spur October 2-3. The new president was given a standing vote of welcome. The president paid tribute to the good and faithful work that Earline Sollock has done for the department and the department cannot fill the vacancy with any one who will be as capable and willing to work as Earline has been.

Refreshments of lemonade and cookies were served to fifteen members.
