U.S., Noriega said working on deal

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration is discussing a deal that could result in the dropping of drug trafficking charges against Panamanian strongman Manuel Antonio Noriega in exchange for his agreement to relinquish power, a White House spokesman said today.

"We're still talking" about such a deal, said chief presidential spokesman Marlin Fitz water. "What this amounts to is a plea bargain," he said. However, the spokesman said no direct negotiations have taken place with Noriega on the matter.

Earlier, White House chief of staff Howard Baker, without actually confirming an offer, told CBS-TV that if such an arrangement got Noriega out of power "that would be the most fruitful and productive plea bargain that we have seen in a long time."

Reports of an offer brought sharp criticism today from a Democratic senator and Panama's anti-Noriega ambassador to the United States.

Administration sources, speaking on condition of anonymity, said Wednesday that Florida drug-trafficking indictments against the de facto Panamanian ruler would be dropped if he stepped down and left the country for a year. The sources said the Justice Department objected to the offer which was approved at a White House meeting.

Sen. John Kerry, D-Mass., said that if descriptions of the offer were accurate, it would appear to be a victory for Noriega, allowing his loyalists to retain control while he spent "a year's vacation on the Riviera."

"If I was a cop in Boston or Miami or somewhere, I'd sit there and say this administration has sent a signal that crime does pay," Kerry said on the CBS show.

Kerry said such a deal would be "a mistake and even an insult to the efforts of this country to fight a war on drugs."

Ambassador Juan Sosa, appearing on the same program, said Noriega opponents cannot accept the dropping of charges without any arrangements made for next year's election.

Q — Is it a state law that no alcoholic beverages are allowed on State property and, if so, why were alcoholic beverages served at the ball Friday night on the capitol grounds in Austin?

A — According to a spokesman for the State Preservation Board, the entity which sponsored the event, that group approved the serving of alcoholic beverages as a "special circumstance" for the ball. They noted alcohol is allowed inside the capitol building on such occasions, but normally at non public functions. He noted however, that alcohol was not legally permitted for the capitol grounds during the celebration.

Local is victim of drowning

A 20-year-old Snyder man drowned at Lake Colorado City Wednesday afternoon after apparently slipping from a concrete wall along the lake's edge.

Services are set for 10 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church for Benjamin Ray Barrera of 124 Milburn, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Barrera. Fr. Ralph Zinser of Lamesa will officiate.

Companions told investigating officers they heard Barrera apparently cry out for help around 3 p.m. He and three others had entered a fenced off and restricted area at the east side of the lake where Texas Utilities discharges hot water from its plant.

Barrera was reportedly walking along a steep concrete wall when he lost his footing. It is speculated an undercurrent created by the discharge water pulled him under.

The body was located around 6 p.m. approximately 60 yards where he fell in.

Zoo accident

HOUSTON (AP) — A 700-pound Siberian tiger named "Rambo" attacked and killed an employee at the Houston Zoo this morning, fire department officials said.

Ricardo Tovar, 60, was killed when the tiger crashed through a 3- to 6-inch thick glass window that was part of his cage area, said Howard Shaw, a Houston Fire Department paramedic called to the scene.

"Either the guy was inside the cage or the tiger was outside and pulled him inside," Shaw said. "It cut him up and ate him up pretty good."

Shaw said Tovar, a 30-year employee of the zoo, was found by a co-worker apparently about five minutes after the attack this morning. He said the animal ran back into its cage and he believed the tiger had not been shot.

33 years with Snyder ISD...

Hartsfield plans retirement

Bill Hartsfield, who counts 33 years with Snyder public schools, the last 10 as assistant principal at Snyder Junior High School, has announced he will be retiring at the end of this school year.

In all, Hartsfield, 59, has 35 years in public education, beginning his career as a teacher and coach in 1951 at San Angelo and, in 1952, at Magnolia near Houston.

He was drafted and served with the U.S. Army from 1953-54, serving in Japan for one year, before returning to teaching in 1955 in Snyder.

He began here as a seventh grade coach and math teacher. In 1961, he moved to the high school as a math teacher and junior varsity football coach. He assumed the role of head track coach in 1967.

In 1979, he was promoted to assistant principal at Travis Junior High, serving with principal James (Dutch) Stehley.

Hartsfield attended high school in Houston and attended college at Howard Payne in Brownwood from 1947-51, where he played football and ran track. During that period, he was the hurdles champion for Howard Payne's Texas Conference.

He earned a bachelor of science degree in education and physical education from Howard Payne.

In 1967, he obtained his masters degree in administrative education from Southwest Texas State.

His wife Billie is a member of the business department faculty at Snyder High School.

They have a daughter, Mrs. Phil (Pam) Ator, of Lancaster, a son, Jack, who is an elementary principal at Weatherford, and four grandchildren.

Trustees due oath for school

The May meeting for Snyder school trustees is slated Thursday at 7 p.m., a session which will include the swearing in of two new board members and the reorganization of the board.

Elected in last Saturday's election were Terry Martin for place 3 and Ann Walton for place 5, filling out an unexpired term. Incumbent Mike Jordan was also re-elected for place 2 and will begin a new three-year term Thursday.

Retail sales

WASHINGTON (AP) — Retail sales, depressed by bad weather and an early Easter, fell 0.6 percent in April, the first decline in six months, the government said today.

The Commerce Department said that sales totaled a seasonally adjusted $14.6 billion last month as sales fell 500 million from March.

Senior funds

Merchand and other individuals interested in donating door prizes at funds for seniors after graduation activities are asked to contact Linda Hobbs at 237-1111.

The door prizes will be given during the all night party to be held at the May 20 graduation. The party will be held at Western Texas College.

Cogdell meet

The monthly bi-paying session for the Cogdell Memorial Hospital Board is slated at noon Friday at the facility.

Building permits slow again locally

After a brief flurry in March, building permit activity at city hall during April settled down again to a relatively quiet pace.

Permits issued during the month amounted to some $26,000. The exact figure was $25,775.

With seven months of the fiscal year elapsed, the year-to-date total is now $1,118,913. This compares to last year at this time when the total was $1,088,532.

As recently as four years ago, Snyder's year-end building figure climbed to an all-time record near the $10 million mark.

The month included two mobile home move-ins, permits issued to Jerry Torres, 2102 Merrill, and Bertha Turner, 2103 KSNY Drive.

A permit to relocate a building to be used as a residence was issued also to Valeriano Ozuna, 1611 11th St.

Other permits included one for a new garage, issued to Don Laster at 201 Ave O, and three for additions to existing structures, issued to Tom Isbell, 2708 25th St.; John Ramby, 2701 Ave Y; and Frank Ortogon, 1202 Ave O.

In addition, a permit to build a snow cone stand at 1306 25th St was issued to Eddie Williams.

For the year-to-date, the city has issued only one permit for the construction of a new single family residence. Thirteen permits have been issued for mobile home move-ins.

There have been seven permits for commercial buildings, 18 for carports and accessories, three for signs, 13 for alterations and additions to dwellings and four for alterations and additions to commercial buildings.

SHL absentee voting has begun at center

Absentee voting is now underway at the Scurry County Senior Citizens Center for the May 24 Silver Haired Legislative election. The absentee ballot will continue through May 20.

Snyder's Delbert Downing, is unopposed on the ballot for his second term as the representative for District 3, which includes 12 West Texas counties.

A representative at large to the Silver Haired Legislature is on the ballot also. Candidates are Jerome Ray of Comanche, the incumbent, and Gordon Wood of Brownwood.

Absentee votes may be cast from 10 a.m. until noon Monday through Friday at the center. In addition, persons who are homebound can call the center and a ballot will be brought to them. The number to call is 573-4035.

To vote, individuals must be over the age of 60, must be a registered voter and must be a legal resident of the county.

The May 24 election will be in the Senior Center with balloting from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. Leon Autry is serving as election judge. On election day, he will be assisted by Dolores Merritt.

The SDN Column

The teller on Deep Creek says, "The safest bet is the one not made."

Mrs. Lorene Dodson of Snyder sent a SDN clipping written by former editor Wacil McNair. Mrs. Dodson was not sure of the date, but thought readers might enjoy it.

Remove all the colloquialisms and a lot of West Texans would not be able to carry on a conversation. We doubt West Texans are any more addicted to "sayings," but you can compile a big list. Here are a few.

All in the same boat, as easy as falling off a log, barking up the wrong tree, beats anything I ever saw, bent out of shape, bleeding like a stuck hog, blind as a bat, breathing down somebody's neck, butter you up, called on the carpet, can't eat the mustard, can't win for losing, catch my drift, clean as a whistle, cool as a cucumber, crazy as a bedbug, dirt cheap, don't put all your eggs in one basket, down in the dumps, down to brass tacks, down to the nitty gritty, driving me up the wall.

Also, drink as a skunk, eat crow, elbow grease, eyes bigger than his stomach, fat to the point, tolerably well, fat as a pig, fat to fly off the handle, get it while the getting's good, get the show on the road, going around in circles, gone to his head, got you over a barrel, grinning like a cat, eating glue.

Hard as a rock, have your cake and eat it, high as a kite, hit the hay in a nutshell, two peas in a pod, madder than a wet hen, making a mountain out of a mole hill, sick as a dog, skippy as a cat, wheeling and dealing.

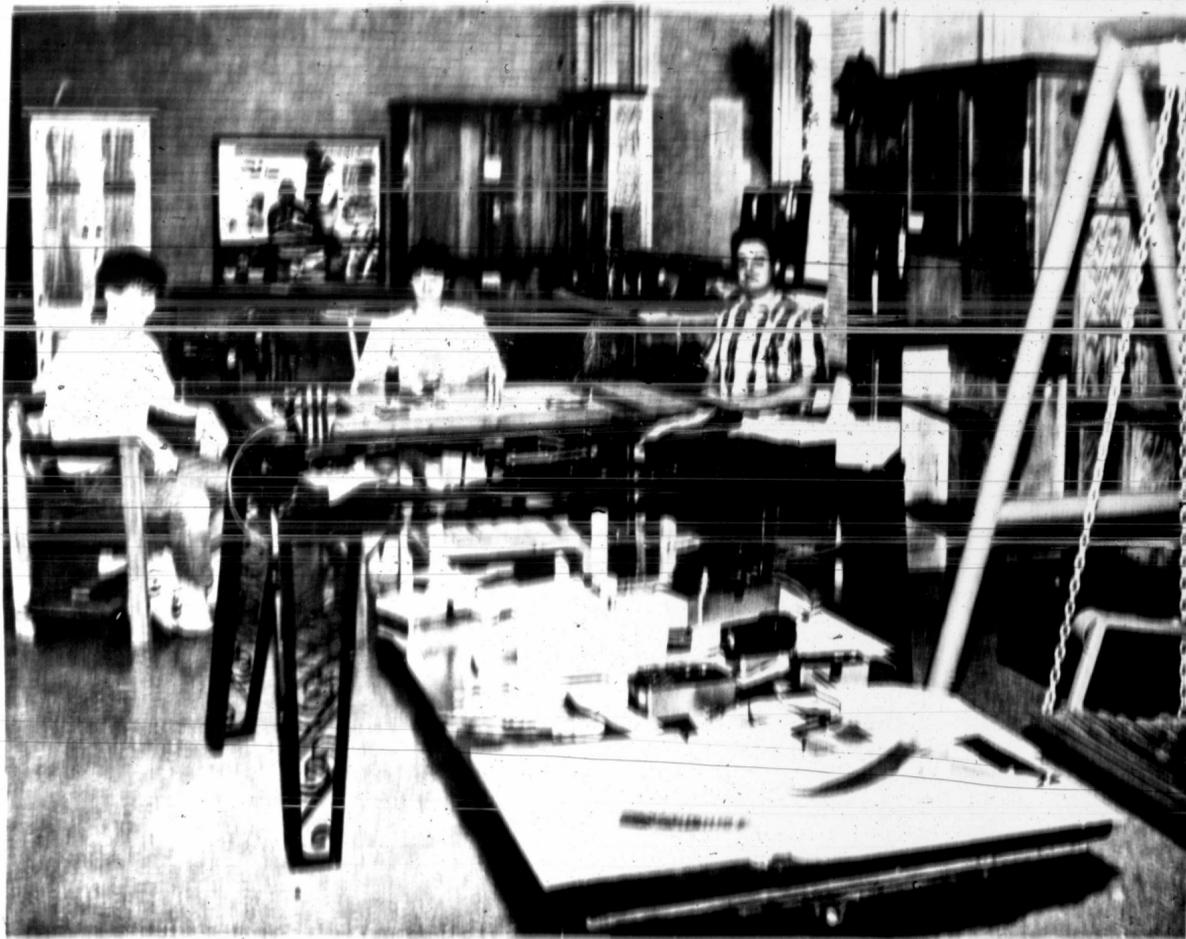

You probably know, and often use, many more.

Texas Tech president resigns position

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — After overseeing the administration of Texas Tech University and its medical school for eight years, President Laura Cavazos says he doesn't want to overstay his alma mater's welcome.

Cavazos announced Wednesday he would step down at the end of July 1988 and assume teaching duties in the university Health Sciences Center's department of anatomy.

Cavazos, 61, said the timing was tight for his departure and that the decision to step down was his own.

"I need to leave the presidency when you think perhaps you've given direction to the institution and strong leadership," he said. "I really believe that things are in good shape here."

Since coming to Tech in April 1980, Cavazos has weathered a faculty confidence vote and legislative funding cutbacks, overseen the creation of schools of nursing and allied health and helped spearhead higher undergraduate admission standards.

"I believe in a certain period of time people can achieve certain things," he said in a news conference. "But large institutions and complex institutions such as these need new leadership, very frankly, from time to time."

The first Tech alumna to be president and the second longest office holder, Cavazos is the 10th president of the 24,000-student school.

Cavazos said he has accomplished much, but that the job is never finished.

"In retrospect, I believe that considerable academic progress has been achieved at Tech and the Health Sciences Center during my presidency," said Cavazos, blinking back tears as he thanked his wife and colleagues.

Board of Regents chairman Wendell Mayes Jr. praised Tech's progress under Cavazos, who at the time of his inauguration was the only Hispanic president of a major U.S. university.

"Citing better relations with minority students and more research emphasis during Cavazos' administration, he said Cavazos' departure will leave a major void to be filled.

"The selection of our new president will take many months and will involve many different people and groups interested in Texas Tech," Mayes said.

He said a search committee will be formed soon and that a replacement should be found before Cavazos leaves office on July 31 next year.

The announcement came one day before a board of regents meeting during which a plan to restructure the school's administrative structure was to be discussed. However, Mayes and Cavazos said the resignation was not related to any plans for restructuring.

Cavazos earned his doctorate in physiology at Iowa State University and in 1975 became dean of Tufts University Medical School before coming to Tech.

With deep family roots in Texas, Cavazos grew up on the King Ranch in South Texas, where his father was foreman of the Santa Gertrudis cattle division. Two of his brothers also attended Tech and played football there, and seven of Cavazos' 10 children hold Tech degrees.

Buckland, Walker buy Metro Credit

MCLEAN, Va. — William H. Buckland and James D. Walker, a former Snyder resident, recently announced their purchase of Metro Credit Corp. Inc. from Fairchild Industries, Inc.

The transaction, including cash and the assumption of liabilities, is valued at approximately $23 million. Sevan Bank, N.A. provided the debt financing for this transaction by extending Metro Credit a $13.5 million revolving line of credit.

Metro Credit was set up by Fairchild Industries in 1982 as a finance subsidiary to lease 19-passenger Metro III aircraft manufactured by its recently divested subsidiary, Fairchild Aircraft Corp. It is a leader in aircraft leasing to regional, commuter airlines, with ownership of financial interests in 33 aircraft.

Walker is the son of R. J. (Red) and Sue Walker of 3003 42nd Street. He is a 1963 graduate of Snyder High School.

Angry Reader Is Burned When Aunt's Ashes Appear in Mail

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR-ABBY: In a letter to you, a reader protested the calloused manner in which he learned of the death of a friend in a nursing home. Wait until you hear what happened to me: My cousins in Texas asked me if I would handle the funeral arrangements for their mother (my aunt) who had died while visiting them. She was to be cremated there, and her remains sent to me (in California) to be taken to a nearby cemetery and placed in the crypt she had previously purchased.

Of course, I agreed, assuming the remains would arrive by registered mail and that I would be notified either by my cousins or the crematory as to the date of arrival.

Imagine my horror when I opened my curbside mailbox one morning to find a box with these words stamped on the outside: CREMATED REMAINS OF MRS. — (my aunt's name).

That was 10 years ago, and I still get furious when I think of it. Talk about unfeeling and calloused! I can't believe it's common practice to send cremated remains through the regular mails. Is it?

M.L.R., MONROVIA, CALIF.

DEAR ABBY: With all the publicity you gave pantyhose, I have a true story for you.

When Mount St. Helens erupted in May of 1980, blowing the top 2,500 feet miles into the air, the volcanic ash was so heavy that in Spokane at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, it looked like midnight! In Yakima, Wash., breathing was difficult.

The automobiles sucked the ash into their air filters, and the abrasion ruined the engines. One family was stranded when their air filter became plugged. The husband removed the plugged filter, borrowed his wife's pantyhose, wrapped them around as a filter, and continued their trip in safety.

They were stopped by a highway patrolman near Moses Lake, Wash., where there was up to 7 inches of the stuff on the ground. (You can still see it.) The patrolman asked how they could keep going. They explained that they had shaken the ashes from the pantyhose each time the engine quit.

The Highway Patrol then purchased pantyhose for their cars and continued to help stranded motorists in that area. Pantyhose saved many engines until proper filters could be installed.

Robertson recommended positive tapes and books to aid in problem solving. He also shared nine rules of contentment as follows:

- Health enough to make work a pleasure.
- Wealth enough to support your needs.
- Strength enough to battle difficulties and be able to overcome them.
- Grace enough to confess your sins and forsake them. —Patience enough to toil until something good is accomplished.

—Charity enough to see some good in your neighbor.

—Love enough to move you to be useful and helpful to others.

—Faith enough to make real the things of God.

—Hope enough to remove all anxious fears concerning the future.

Robertson also served as president of the recent Snyder Neighbors Sharing project which culminated April 30 in seven homes being renovated by some 100 area volunteers.

Carol Young dismissed the group with the benediction.

a continuation, so he switched to a low diamond. Declarer played low from dummy, East won the 10 and continued the suit. Eventually declarer won the diamond ace and got to his hand with the heart ace to take a club finesse. East won the king and cashed the fourth diamond for down one.

In view of the bidding, the unusual play that South should make to persuade West to continue spades is to play the spade jack under the king on the first trick. That will create the illusion for West that declarer started with A-J alone, and a second spade will certainly be played. Declarer can now win the ace and take a club finesse with impunity. Though East has the club king, he does not have another spade. Even if he did, that would mean that West had overcalled on a four-card suit, and the defenders could not take enough spade tricks to defeat three no-trump.

Send defender the right signal

By James Jacoby

It seems a bit much for South to jump to three no-trump with those cards, but it takes all kinds to fill the seats at a bridge table. Anyway South was eager to show that he was familiar with a play called the Bath coup. The Bath coup occurs when declarer's left-hand opponent leads the king from K-Q into declarer's A-J-x. Declarer then holds up to prevent the defender from continuing the suit without sacrificing a trick. But look what effect it had on this deal.

When the king of spades held the first trick, West realized the futility of

Sibling rivalry aided

NEW YORK (AP) — Sibling rivalry is common to all multichild families, and in most cases it's a healthy way for children to work out their relationships.

"When your children quarrel, let them settle it," says T. Berry Brazelton, head of the Child Development Unit at Boston Children's Hospital Medical Center, in Family Circle magazine.

Otherwise, he says, they'll never get a chance to learn how to compromise, and the younger child won't learn how to stand up for itself.

When they come running with disputes, tell them to handle it themselves and you leave the room. While it is unwise to leave them in an unsafe situation, you'll find they'll argue a lot less if they don't have you as an audience.

Frog's long adventures were 'ribbiting'

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Methuselah has died. He was 23-plus.

A rather long life, considering Methuselah was a frog.

Methuselah, a South African clawed frog who succumbed to the infirmities of amphibian antiquity, was taken from a University of Rochester laboratory in 1964 to become a household pet. He lived an exciting life. At the age of four, he spent winter in a small pool that was frozen over. In his last year, Methuselah escaped two cats when he had been carelessly left in a bucket on the floor. He outlived two previous known recordholders for longevity in the species Xenopus Leavis; a pair of 15-year-old females kept in the 1930s at England's Cambridge University.

Rangers blank Orioles

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Eyes may light up when Baltimore appears on the schedule, but Texas Rangers' left-hander Paul Kilgus cringed Wednesday night before facing the 4-27 Orioles.

Kilgus, 0-2 with a 14.85 ERA against Baltimore last season, reversed that trend tossing a four-hitter as the Rangers moved to an 8-0 victory.

Kilgus, 5-2, had a no-hitter for 5-2-3 innings until Pete Stanicek ended the bid when he beat out a dribbler to third.

"There's always one club that gives you trouble and these guys are it for me," Kilgus said.

"I was happy to even get out of the first inning. Heck, I was happy to get the first batter. I don't think I've ever got the first guy out against them."

Texas won its fifth straight, currently the longest winning streak in the major leagues.

The complete game shutout was a career first for Kilgus and marked the Rangers' first complete-game shutout since Charlie Hough went the distance for the victory at California, 1-0 on Sept. 27, 1986.

"To get a no-hitter, you've got to have a whole lot of luck," Kilgus said. "Of course you wish their first hit is something harder than a swinging bunt. But after they get that first hit, you don't think about it anymore."

Kilgus retired 17 of the first 18 Orioles and was in trouble only in the seventh when Baltimore loaded the bases with one out.

But Kilgus got Mickey Tetlow on a fly to shallow center and Rene Gonzalez on a ground-out.

"When you've got an eight run lead and you get behind on the count 1-4, 2-0, you can just bury the ball and say, 'Here, hit it,'" Kilgus said.

Kilgus has won his last three starts with a 0.82 ERA, lowering his season ERA to 2.07.

"Killer pitched a whole of a game," said Rangers left fielder Pete Incaviglia. "He's turned himself into a Charlie Leibrandt (of Kansas City), throwing the fastball where you can't hit it."

Astros fall in 10th frame

HOUSTON (AP) — In a game billed as one of the top pitching matchups of the young National League season, it only figures that the relief pitchers will determine the outcome as the New York Mets beat the Houston Astros in 10 innings by a final score of 9-8.

Right-handers Dwight Gooden of the Yankees and Steve Carlton of the Astros started the game and neither figured in the final outcome Wednesday.

"When teams have their top pitchers pitching and everyone expects a pitching duel, the rest of the players really get up for it," Gooden said.

"A lot of times you get publicity about a game and it just doesn't turn out the way you think," said Mets manager Davey Johnson.

Both starters went six innings and gave up a combined total of 12 runs, 14 hits and only 10 strikeouts with the Astros holding a 7-4 lead.

Couples to defend Byron Nelson title

IRVING (AP) — Fred Couples was the defending champion as the $700,000 Byron Nelson Classic got underway, but Payne Stewart was the sentimental favorite of the gallery.

Stewart, a graduate of Southern Methodist University, has had some legendary failures in Texas and at the Nelson Classic.

Twice he has lost in playoffs at the Colonial National Invitational and suffered heartbreak at the Tournament Players Course at Las Colinas in 1985.

Celtics hold off Atlanta; Mavericks at Denver tonight

BOSTON (AP) — The two superstars took turns having super quarters. Larry Bird's came early. Dominique Wilkins came too late.

Bird hit his first 10 shots and scored a Boston playoff record 24 points in the first period. Wilkins had 15 points in the fourth period when Atlanta sliced a 17-point deficit to seven.

But with Bird's teammates scoring Boston's last 13 points, the Celtics held off the Hawks 110-101 in Wednesday night's opener of their NBA Eastern Conference semifinal series.

Game 2 of the best-of-seven matchup is scheduled for Friday night at Boston Garden, where Atlanta has lost 13 consecutive games.

Bird, who led all scorers with 38 points, was rolling as soon as the game began and the Hawks were sluggish. He broke Dave Cowens' 14-year-old team record of 20 points in one playoff quarter and outscored the Hawks in the first period, which ended with the score 38-23.

"I play basketball all the time and I sure haven't seen many quarters like that," Atlanta guard Glenn Rivers said. "But then you don't want to. Bird is just a phenomenal player, better than great."

A 3-point shot by Bird had made the score 95-78 with 7:59 to play in the game. Wilkins' nine points then led a 21-11 Atlanta run that made the score 106-99 with 53 seconds to go.

Although the Hawks couldn't

Girls Little Dribblers

Juniors Second Round
Orange Crush 39, Sharp Shooters 14
Samantha Graves poured in 26 points to pace the Orange Crush to a 39-14 victory over the Sharp Shooters Monday night. Mandy Winter with seven points and Heather Lawrence with six assisted in the victory. Kristie Guynes was top scorer for the Sharp Shooters with nine followed by Brandi Smith with four and Erica Garvin with one.

Red Hots 24, Dynamites 17
The Red Hots edged the Dynamites 24-17 Monday night with Danisha Ollison leading the Red Hots scoring with eight points. Devon Reed and Jeanette Alarcon had six each while Mona Ann Pena added four. For the Dynamites, Monica Harbin was tops with nine points while Haley Ingram followed with six and Brandy Roberge added two.

Juniors Semi-Finals
Junior Dusters 28, Red Hots 17
The Dusters took a 28-17 victory over the Red Hots Tuesday. Tami Tucker and Mandy Baker were in double figures with 12 and 10 points. April Mena had four while Michelle Roemisch and Bridget Moore managed one point each. For the Red Hots, Danisha Ollison had five points while Devon Reed and Jeanette Alarcon had four each. Mona Ann Pena and Paige Bell contributed two points apiece.

Spurs 38, Orange Crush 29
Jodi White ripped the cords for 22 points and teammate Jami Brown poured in 15 as the Spurs topped the Orange Crush, 38-29, Tuesday night. Hollie Burns also had two points for the Spurs. Mandy Winter had 16 points for the Orange Crush and Samantha Graves pitched in 11 while Heather Lawrence added two.

Majors Semi-Finals
Blue Bombers 30, Sure Shots 28
Brigitte Brazziel put in 21 points to lead the Bombers to a close 30-28 victory over the Sure Shots Monday night. Jessica Eicke added six points and Jamie Beck three for the Bombers. For the Sure Shots, Brooke Lowrance had a hot hand with 21 points while Cami Comer, Valerie Rios and Regina McNair contributed two points each and close the gap further, they were pleased with the way they finished after the way they started.

"We didn't give up," said Wilkins, who led the Hawks with 25 points despite giving them little help through the first three quarters. "That's a good sign."

For Boston, forward Kevin McHale had 25 points and center Robert Parish added 22 points and 14 rebounds as the Celtics worked to get the ball inside after Bird hurt the Hawks from outside in the first half.

"Larry really stretched their defense out and it loosened things up inside," McHale said.

Bird's last points came with 5:40 left on a 12-foot turnaround shot which gave the Celtics a 97-83 lead. Of their final 13 points, McHale had five, Parish four and Dennis Johnson and Danny Ainge two each.

"The Celtics play great team basketball," Rivers said. "If you use the word team, there's no one better than the Celtics."

Bulls-Pistons
While 29 points is a good night's work for almost any NBA player, it wasn't enough for Michael Jordan. He averaged 45 per game in the opening round.

For the Bulls to win against anybody, Jordan must be dominant. But none of the Bulls could do much in the first game at the Silverdome, a 93-82 defeat.

"Physically, I was tired," Jordan said. "But it's nothing to get panicky about. They played their game plan perfectly, which was to keep all eyes on me and control me."

Mavericks-Nuggets
Dallas needs to clamp down on the hot-shooting Nuggets, who made 58 percent of their shots from the field in the 126-115 opening victory.

"Denver puts a premium on hard play, and it's important that you respond to it," Dallas coach John MacLeod said. "We didn't do that in the first game. Denver played at a much higher level than we did."

Both MacLeod and Nuggets coach Doug Moe felt the playoff series would resemble the Midwest Division race between the teams during the season — right down to the wire.

Lakers-Jazz
Utah surprised the Lakers at the Forum in Inglewood, Calif., to tie the series 1-1. Can the Jazz pull off any more shockers now that they have the home advantage?

Disease's cause is a mystery

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: There was an outbreak of Kawasaki disease in Colorado that was linked to newly shampooed rugs. Can you tell me what the symptoms of this condition are and how one can avoid it?

DEAR READER: Kawasaki's syndrome is a newly discovered disease of children, marked by fever, lethargy, swollen lymph glands, abdominal pain and a rash that typically desquamates (sheds) after about 10 days. The most dreaded consequences of the disease occur after the rash has faded: inflammation of the coronary arteries of the heart covering, arthritis and meningitis. Intravenous injections of gamma globulin have been reported to reduce the death rate from cardiac complications.

The agent of Kawasaki's syndrome is still elusive. Some researchers believe that the disease is caused by an unusual form of herpes virus. Other scientists have pointed out the similarities between Kawasaki's syndrome and rheumatoid arthritis, suggesting an autoimmune phenomenon. In one report, doctors concluded that the disease was triggered in children who were exposed to newly shampooed rugs. This suggests that some compound in the rug cleaner may be the culprit.

Until the cause of the syndrome is discovered, there is no known way to avoid the disease. However, it has been recommended that concerned parents not let their children crawl or play on rugs for 24 hours after the rugs have been shampooed.

DEAR DR. GOTT: After a car accident, I cannot ride with family members. Why can't I control my fear?

DEAR READER: Phobic fears are virtually beyond our control. They arise from very primitive fears about injury and survival, and can be quite incapacitating. Some intense, irrational fears are produced by traumatic events, such as the auto accident you experienced. Other phobias have a less obvious basis and seem to develop from childhood experiences that are harder to define. Phobic patients can be helped by behavior modification and psychological counseling. Ask your doctor to refer you for therapy. You may also contact The Phobia Society, 5820 Hubbard Street, Rockville, MD 20852.

In addition, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report on MENTAL AND EMOTIONAL ILLNESS, which tells how to find appropriate counseling. Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Are arteriosclerosis and atherosclerosis the same thing?

DEAR READER: Technically, the term "atherosclerosis" refers to an age-related buildup of material within the walls of the body's larger arteries. Arteriosclerosis means a buildup within the smaller arteries as well. For practical purposes, the two words are interchangeable. In all of us, the end result is the same: progressive narrowing of arteries, causing increasingly diminished blood flow to the body's organs.

Snake mating season is here

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — It's snake mating season, and with the amorous reptiles out cruising in force, it might be a good idea to take precautions, against snake bites, experts say.

Most snakes can be chased away by poking them or the ground around them with a stick, since they are scared by motion, not by sound, says James Dixon, spokesman for Texas A&M University's Wildlife and Fisheries Sciences Department.

French novelist Emile Zola died in 1902 of accidental suffocation.

Girl Scout cookies will be delivered to sailors after all

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — Soldiers aboard the USS Midway will finally get their ration of Girl Scout cookies after a persistent Brownie troop squeezed their shipment past high Japanese tariffs through diplomatic means.

The cookies, which have sat in a Corpus Christi airline ticket office since they were returned from an April 26 shipment to Tokyo, were scheduled for reshipment this morning.

"Everybody who was supposed to be getting the cookies was really upset when they didn't get them," said Petty Officer 3rd Class Sig Woolford, who was in Beeville Wednesday while on leave from the Midway.

Woolford, the son-in-law of Brownie troop leader Marchetta White, said sailors aboard the ship have been waiting for the cookies from home for more than two months.

Troop 807 in Beeville had sold 402 boxes of cookies to the crew of the USS Midway stationed in Atsugi, Japan, with free shipment provided by the airline. But the plan crumbled, airline officials said, when Japanese customs officials said they would have to levy a $2,000 duty on the cookies.

State will appeal decision

BROWNSVILLE, Texas (AP) — The Texas Department of Agriculture will appeal a federal judge's ruling that blocks efforts to keep fresh Florida citrus out of the Lone Star State, an official said.

U.S. District Judge Filemon Vela ruled Wednesday that the U.S. Department of Agriculture did nothing wrong when it lifted a 3½-year ban on shipments of the Florida fruit to other citrus-producing areas.

"We told the attorney general today that we'd like him to start putting the paperwork together" for an appeal, said TDA spokesman Max Woodfin.

The Florida fruit was quarantined after an outbreak of citrus canker in parts of Florida in August 1984.

So the cookies were returned to Corpus Christi International Airport.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D-Texas, went through diplomatic channels to clear up the matter and sent a telegram to the Brownie troop on Wednesday.

"An officer on the USS Midway told me that he is ready to go pick up your shipment of Girl Scout cookies when they arrive in Japan this Friday," the telegram said.

The cookies were to leave Corpus Christi aboard a 6 a.m.

American Airlines flight today. They would connect with a flight in Dallas, then catch a direct flight to Narita Airport near Tokyo, where representatives of the U.S. Navy will be allowed to take the shipment duty-free.

"I think it's great and I'll tell the girls this afternoon at our regular meeting," Ms. White, the troop leader, said upon hearing the news. "I'm sure you'll hear a cheer go up."

Japanese officials, however, issued a statement Tuesday denying that the tariff ever was as high as originally reported.

Police search for children ends

HOUSTON (AP) — A police search for three children ended after they were found to be staying with their grandmother in Houston, officials said.

The children were reported missing Monday by their mother after they disappeared Sunday evening from a playground where she left them for a brief trip to a nearby grocery store.

Houston police juvenile Sgt. C.L. Boone said relatives of the children earlier had told police the youngsters were safe with their grandmother in Monterrey, but police later discovered they were in Houston. They were located early Wednesday.

The children — Estrellita Mata, 8, Alberto Mata, 7, and Christopher Mata, 1 — were taken to police headquarters and are expected to be turned over to Children's Protective Services.
