Smoking Habit Begins One Rotten Cigarette at a Time

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: As an 18-year-old teen ager, I would like to say something to all the kids in America, like myself, who smoke. When I first got into this rotten habit, I had no idea how uncontrollable the urge to smoke would get - and everyone out there who is a smoker knows exactly what I mean.

The main reason I am speaking out on this subject is because of a note my mother, who is a heavy smoker, left in my room when she discovered that I smoked. She didn't yell or lecture me. She just left a short note for me to think about.

Thanks to her, I realized that endangering your life is not only stupid, it is avoidable, and if there are other moms out there who cared as much as mine did, many teens would learn a valuable lesson. Here's Mom's letter:

"Dear Sue: As a person who is addicted to cigarettes, I would like to stop, but I am powerless to do so. Please, stop smoking before it's too

"Your Dad will bury me, because smoking does shorten one's life.

"Did you ever take a good look at my face? I look much older than I should at my age, and I can thank cigarettes for this. I am not writing this as your mother, but as a cigarette smoker who knows that the habit starts with one cigarette at a time, then you get hooked and can't do anything about it. Love,

Abby, please print my mom's letter. Maybe someone else will realize that life is too precious to throw away, and quit smoking.

DEAR SUE: Thank you for wanting to share your mom's letter. I'm sure many moms and their smoking teen-aged children will see themselves.

Sue, please tell your mother it's not too late - and there is something she can do about her smoking if she really wants to. The American Lung Association has an excellent stop-smoking program. Thomas Gill, a Kansas City, Mo., attorney who says he owes his life to this program, told me that a helpful thought to him was (and is) that "the urge to smoke will pass whether l smoke or not."

Interested readers: Check the white pages of your local telephone directory, or write to: American Lung Association, 1740 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 10019, for information about the group in your area. And please include a long, stamped, self-addressed enve-

BECKI PARKS Two Friends fashions

featured at ABWA club

American Business Women's Association met July 21 at The Texan with President Penny Cochran offering the invocation and presiding at the dinner meeting.

Becki Parks of Two Friends Emporium was the feature for the evening. She displayed some of the unique fashions produced by Two Friends out of Fluvanna, a family-owned business, and showed slides of the various steps in production.

Parks, born and raised in Snyder, earned her degree in fashion design and marketing from the University of Texas. Prior to joining the Two Friends operation, she owned her own business in Dallas with a showroom at the Dallas Apparel Mart where she wholesaled women's clothing.

Two Friends was formed in October of 1984 and the Emporium was opened in June of 1987. Presently, fashion shows are taking priority in the business, and

The Deep Creek Chapter of Parks showed ABWA members some of the pictures that are used in advertising Two Friends in fashion magazines.

Vivian Cochran, now retired, shared her new lifestyle with members. She commented that she baby sits with her grandson in the mornings. They cook, go to the farm to watch the cows, and other fun activities.

Mae Cole was named recording secretary during the business session and Vivian Cochran is Dteam captain.

Members voted to attend "Discover Lubbock" Sept. 17. Members also made a donation to a 28-inch diamond-shaped concrete block, engraved with AB-WA, which will be laid in the Great Walk leading up to the capitol building in Austin.

Pauline Withers was hostess for the session. Birthday gifts were presented to Mae Cole and Parks. Penny Cochran received the surprise gift.

Brenda Clark offered the Stuard benediction.

After the spade lead, declarer won the ace and ran all seven club tricks. discarding five hearts, a diamond and a spade from dummy. West was left with three spades and two diamonds. East still had the K-Q of hearts and K-J-8 of diamonds. Now South cashed the ace of hearts. West threw a diamond, since he couldn't afford to throw away a spade. Declarer now played to dummy's king of spades and cashed the queen. East could throw one diamond away, but on the second spade he was squeezed. A heart would make South's jack a winner, and a diamond would enable Chambers to sluff the heart jack and take the last two tricks with the A-5 of diamonds. As usual when it came to bridge, my father, Oswald Jacoby, was right.

Snyder pounds Bridgeport, 22-6

EASTLAND--The Snyder Tigers redeemed themselves Wednesday with an impressive 22-6 victory over Bridgeport in just five innings.

The win came during Snyder's second round of the Senior Teenage League state tournament. In the opening game, the Tigers committed five fatal errors as the Brownwood Lions took a 9-6 win.

The victory by Snyder on Wednesday gave Coach Albert Lewis and his squad the opportunity to play Crockett at 6 p.m. Thursday. A win in that game will pit, at noon Friday, the Tigers against the loser of the San Angelo-Houston tilt.

"We played much better," said Lewis. "Our defense was a whole lot better and we're hitting the ball pretty good. Bridgeport played Houston (the tournament favorite) a whole lot closer."

Snyder's offensive efforts included two three-run homers-one by Tommy Lane and one by Bart Morton. Lane also got a single and these two hits represented five consecutive hits by Lane during the tournament's two games.

Tim Holsey, a pickup player from Sweetwater, started on the hill for the Tigers and worked two innings. Lee Fletcher started in the third and Bert Otto finished the game. The Snyder trio allowed six hits, walked seven and the team committed only one error.

Snyder's offensive outburst came off 14 hits and 15 walks, and Bridgeport committed four er-

Snyder scored two runs in the first inning when Isrrael Hinojos and Willie Garcia drew walks and then scored on the single by Snyder picked up eight runs in the second inning as the rally started with a base hit by Otto and Bert Merritt. Bart Morton drew a walk to load the bases and Holsey then hit a grounder to first that was mishandled, allowing runs to score. Tracy Odom followed with a hard grounder to third, and an error by the third baseman allowed another run. Hinojos walked and Lane belted his three-run homer.

Bridgeport stayed in the game with six runs in the second inning. Holsey walked a pair of batters, gave up a double, walked two more and then gave up a three run homer.

Snyder got back into control in the third inning with four runs. Morris and Otto drew walks. followed by single base hits by Merritt and Morton. Pinch hitter Lupe Gomez walked to load the bases and another walk given Tracy Odom pushed in another run. A two-run RBI by Willie Garcia was followed by three straight walks to Lane, Morris

In the fifth inning, Snyder sealed the victory with eight more runs. Odom started the rout with a single followed by a walk by Hinojos. Garcia doubled to push in two runs, Lane drew a walk followed by base hits by Morris and Otto. Simon Gutierrez singled followed by Morton's threerun homer.

Astros back in second place

The adverse circumstances in-

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Roger Craig said. "We had a 7-4 ting pitchers. Houston Astros might have Glenn homestand, which was very good Davis, their top hitter, back in under the circumstances." the lineup as well as the home park advantage against the Los cluded injuries to several star-Angeles Dodgers this weekend.

"Glenn indicated he'll be ready to play Friday night. But that's just him talking," Manager Hal Lanier said Wednesday after the Astros completed a winning road trip with a 3-2 victory over the San Francisco Giants.

The Astros, alone in second place after the tie-breaking game with the Giants, open a fourgame series with the National League West-leading Dodgers on Friday night. The Giants will visit Houston after four games in Atlanta.

The Astros are 30-19 at home and play 32 of their remaining 55 games at the Astrodome.

Davis, who had not played in a week because of a pulled hamstring, returned to action Wednesday with two out in the ninth inning as a pinch hitter for pitcher Mike Scott. He was at the plate when the winning run scored on Scott Garrelts' basesloaded wild pitch.

"He ended up striking out," Scott said. "But he contributed to that win, whether he thinks so or not. I'm sure Garrelts would rather have pitched to me.

Garrelts got two strikes on Davis, and on the 0-2 count a 'waste pitch" was in order to the hobbled first baseman who has 22 homers and 74 RBI

"He wanted to throw a slider away, not in the strike down, catcher Bob Melvin said.

"I wanted it hard, down and away," Garrelts said. "Bob is a very good catcher as far as blocking balls goes, and that's one reason I felt comfortable throwing a pitch like that."

But he got a sick feeling as the pitch bounced into the dirt, took a high hop over Melvin's head and cleared the screen 66 feet behind the plate. Billy Hatcher, who started the winning rally with a single, trotted home

Davis went down swinging on the next pitch from Garrelts, 3-6, who struck out five men and issued three walks, including two in the ninth, in 3 1-3 innings.

"It was a tough way to lose. Scotty pitched well. A slider just got away from him," Manager

Dorsett's debut uneventful

ANAHEIM, Calif. (AP) — Tony Dorsett's debut with the Denver Broncos was hardly a smash, but he knows there'll be other chances. "I felt rusty, not in a groove," Dorsett said Wednesday night after he rushed for 27 yards on 10 carries in the Broncos' exhibition season-opening 40-31 victory over the Los Angeles Rams.

"My timing is off a little bit, but what do you expect?" said the 34year-old running back, acquired by Denver from the Dallas Cowboys during the offseason.

Dorsett, who ranks fourth on the all-time NFL career rushing list, also caught two passes for six yards in his Broncos' debut.

"I thought Tony showed some explosivenness," Denver coach Dan Reeves said. "He's got a long way to go, but as long as he keeps working, he'll be ready.

Herschel won't play Saturday

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Running back Herschel Walker will be held out of Saturday night's preseason opener against the San Diego Chargers to save him from unnecessary pounding and give more work to reserve tailbacks Darryl Clark and Mark Higgs.

Coach Tom Landry said at his weekly press conference Wednesday that quarterback Danny White also will sit out the game, whose kickoff is set for 6 p.m. PDT at Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego. Steve Pelluer, whom Landry tabbed going into camp as the team's

No. 1 quarterback, will start for the Cowboys. Starting in the backfield with Pelluer will be Clack at tailback and Timmy Newsome at fullback, Landry said.

Higgs, this year's No. 8 pick, has been impressive. Pass-offense. coordinator Paul Hackett berated Clack for dropping passes in practice on Monday, and Higgs is pushing Clack for the No. 2 spot.

Strange to defend title

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — With defending champion Curtis Strange back for a curtain call, the PGA Tour begins its farewell to Colonial Country Club with the opening round of the St. Jude Classic

Tournament officials thought they were bidding goodbye to Colonial last year after 30 years of play. But PGA Tour Commissioner Dean Beamon decided this winter that the golf tournament would return to Colonial instead of moving as planned a few miles down the road to the new Tournament Players Club at Southwind. Beamon felt the new course might not be in top condition this year. Among those in the 156-man field who began the first round today are 10 former St. Jude champions who have left their mark on the Classic's history

In additin to the current U.S. Open champion, the field includes Bert Yancey, Bob Lunn, Andy Bean, Bob Eastwood, Mike Hulbert, Larry Mize, Gil Morgan, Jerry Pate and Hal Sutton.

New scoring system

HIGH POINT, N.C. (AP) — The Stableford scoring system will be used for the first time on the LPGA tour as the $400,000 Pat Bradley International golf tournament gets underway.

"I think it gives spectators something different to look at," said Patty Sheehan, who has twice won this tournament, previously known as the Henredon Classic, over the par-72, 6,260-yard Willow Creek Golf Club

The Stableford system rewards aggressive play by awarding points for scores below par and subtracting points for scores over par. Par, meanwhile, equals zero. A double-eagle is worth eight points, an eagle is five points and a birdie three. A bogey costs one point and a double bogey costs three, the most a player can lose.

"It will test their mathematical abilities after they have been out of school for 30 years," Sheehan said. "It's fun to do different things. .. I don't see any shortcomings. With only one week like this, I don't think you can be too critical.

Hollywood welcomes agreement to end strike writers say they can probably start work on a delayed fall TV season by next week, giving viewers hope of relief from reruns after a tentative agreement to end the 22-week strike by 9,000 writers.

Leaders of the Writers Guild of America voted late Wednesday to urge union members to accept the proposed contract, despite what union negotiators acknowledged were concessions on key issues.

"Thank God! Isn't that wonderful news? We're all champing at the bit to go back to work," said actress Betty White, the Emmy-winning star of NBC-TV's "The Golden Girls."

The settlement announced Wednesday signaled the end to one of the longest and most painful strikes in modern Hollywood history, surpassed only by the guild's 1960 walkout, which lasted 23 weeks.

One Hollywood agent predicted a flood of work from writers who have been forbidden by strike rules to submit scripts to producers.

"It will be weird for a few weeks. There will be such a rush to the marketplace, such an overabundance of material, that it will confuse the studios," said the West Coast guild unit. Martin Bauer of the Bauer, Benedeck Agency.

Despite the settlement, the start of the fall TV season will be delayed, perhaps until November. Costs to the networks will be extraordinary, and could range into tens of millions of dollars

"We are very pleased to have reached a tentative agreement," said Nicholas Counter III, chief negotiator for the Alliance of Motion Picture and Television Producers. "No one wins a strike."

But one guild negotiator, Del Reisman, acknowledged "very mixed feelings" about the settlement. He said the writers failed to achieve one of their key aims, a substantial improvement in payment for reruns of television shows broadcast in foreign Howard Jr. markets.

However, guild leaders feared that prolonging the strike any longer could weaken the union, said Reisman, vice president of jury today convicted Rep. Mario Biaggi and his eldest son of racketeering in the Wedtech corruption seandal.

Biaggi, søn convicted

In its fifth day of deliberations, the jury also convicted former Bronx Borough President Stanley Simon, Wedtech Corp. founder John Mariotta, former Small Business Administration official Peter Neglia and Biaggi's former law partner, Bernard Ehrlich, all on racketeering

Acquitted of racketeering was Ronald Betso, a former city policeman and friend of Neglia's.

The jury forewoman was working her way through the more than 20-page verdict sheet and the verdict on other charges was not immediately known.

The defendants were accused of turning Wedtech into a racketeering enterprise that dispensed millions of dollars in bribes to win no-bid government contracts set aside for minorityowned businesses.

The trial, which began March 11, generated nearly 20,000 pages of transcript over four months of testimony and a week of closing arguments.

More than 130 witnesses were called, including four former Wedtech executives who testified for the government in exchange for leniency. The four admitted bribing public officials, defrauding the government and stealing from the company - in concert with Mariotta.

At the heart of the Wedtech case was how Welbilt Electronic Die Corp., a tiny Bronx machine shop started by Mariotta, grew into Wedtech Corp., a multimillion-dollar defense contractor with friends in high Mariotta, a semi-literate tool and die maker of Hispanic descent, was once hailed as a "hero for the '80s" by President Reagan for hiring ex-convicts and former drug addicts in one of America's most depressed areas.

Prosecutors charged that Mariotta and other Wedtech officials paid bribes in cash, political contributions, stock or stock options to Biaggi, Simon and Neglia for their assistance with city and federal agencies.

Ehrlich, the younger Biaggi and Betso were accused of helping the others either receive or cover up the payoffs.

The defense argued that the corrupt Wedtech executives had pull with White House insiders like Attorney General Edwin Meese III and thus did not need to bribe Biaggi.

However, U.S. District Judge Constance Baker Motley denied a

NEW YORK (AP) — A federal defense request to call Meese as a witness.

Prosecutors claimed the "Meese defense" was a smokescreen to divert attention from the defendants.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Edward J. Little stunned the courtroom during closing arguments when he called Meese "a sleaze" but insisted that any wrongdoing by the attorney general - Little's boss - had nothing to do with the Biaggi case.

A special prosecutor in Washington has determined there was insufficient evidence to charge Meese with any wrongdoing, but he questioned the attorney general's ethics on several issues.

Biaggi did not take the stand after the judge gave prosecutors wide latitude to cross-examine him about his conviction last year in Brooklyn for obstruction and accepting an illegal gratuity. He is awaiting sentencing.

Uprising leaders welcome Jordan

JERUSALEM (AP) Underground leaders of the Palestinian uprising praised Jordan for severing administrative ties with the West Bank, calling the move a major achievement of the revolt against Israeli occupa-

The statement, in leaflets distributed in the West Bank and Gaza Strip, was the first reaction by the pro-PLO leadership to Sunday's announcement by King Hussein.

In Jerusalem, meanwhile, U.S. diplomats said they were investigating the death of Ribhi Barakat Kayed, 67, a Palestinian-American who relatives said died after Israeli soldiers prevented him from getting medication for a heart condition. The army denied the allega-

Violent clashes erupted in two Gaza Strip refugee camps Wednesday night, and dozens of Arabs were injured by troops, including a 15-year-old struck in the eye by a rubber bullet

In a leaflet distributed in the occupied lands, the PLO-backed United National Leadership of the Uprising praised Hussein for announcing he would break legal and administrative ties with the West Bank.

Leaflets are the principle means of communications between leaders of the 8-monthold uprising and Arab protesters in the occupied lands.

The announcement "enforced the status of the PLO as the sole representative of the Palestinian Taylor, Alejandra Martinez. people," the leaflet said. The underground leaders took credit for the monarch's move, calling it "one of the most important achievements of the uprising."

But Hussein's announcement also has created uncertainty among many West Bank Palestinians because he did not provide specifics on the severing of ties.

Until now, Jordan has pumped more than $200 million a year into schools, farms, Islamic institutions and hospitals, and provided Palestinians with

"It was just a comedy-type said DeClara, a 21-year member of the force. "That's all it really was. Just exactly for

The tape was made during the overnight shift at Grand Central Terminal on St. Patrick's Day 1983 during a railroad workers strike that didn't involve police, said Stangl. Metro-North carries commuters between New York and its northern suburbs.

The videotape was brought to Stangl's attention Monday and he viewed it Tuesday, he said. Stangl said the tape had been in a Police Department safe since 1985, unknown to him.

Although the railroad did not release the tape, Dean Evans, a former captain in the department until he resigned in April, outlined its contents for The Associated Press. Excerpts were shown on

The tape shows DeClara in various situations, with five uniformed officers watching and Region II Texas High School laughing in the background. The Rodeo Association all-around seventh suspended officer allegedly made the videotape.

On the tape, DeClara walks wearing only his hat, tie, shoes again sponsored by the Snyder and holster, checking that doors Chamber of Commerce and are locked and performing other such duties.

Constantine said that if he revokes an officer's commission. "that means they would no longer have police powers and if that happens, then Metro-North probably would not continue them in employment."

The officers were suspended Wednesday without pay pending a dismissal hearing, said railroad spokeswoman Patricia

Growth disorder occurs in males

By Peter H. Gott, M.D.

DEAR DR. GOTT: My son, 14, is 53 inches tall. The doctors in West Germany said he has Noonan's syndrome, a growth disorder. Could you tell me more about this?

DEAR READER: Noonan's syndrome is a hereditary abnormality in males, marked by short stature, lowset ears, webbing of the neck, mental retardation and bone malformations. These children have normal XY chromosomes, unlike the female variant (Turner's syndrome,) which is characterized by an absence of one of the two X chromosomes. The cause is unknown; treatment is primarily supportive. However, your son probably can lead a normal life with supervision and special training.

DEAR DR. GOTT: Does anyone really know what causes a person to

DEAR READER: Actually, sleep is our natural condition. The really interesting question is what keeps us awake. Our wakeful state appears to be under the control of a complex nerve pathway, called the reticular activating system, which bombards our brains at appropriate times with electrical stimulation. Scientists have much to learn about this fascinating subject. The wonder is that we are not asleep all the time.

To give you more information, I am sending you a free copy of my Health Report, "Sleep/wake Disorders." Other readers who would like a copy should send $1 and their name and address to P.O. Box 91369, Cleveland, OH 44101-3369. Be sure to mention the title.

DEAR DR. GOTT: I've been told by my doctor that I have a spur on my heel, but he has given me no hint as to curing the pain. Can you suggest

DEAR READER: A heel spur is additional bone (exostosis) that originates in the weight-bearing portion of the heelbone (calcaneus) and grows forward horizontally in the dense covering (fascia) of the heel. The spur probably results from chronic strain that injures the fascia where it attaches to the calcaneus.

Many spurs cause no symptoms. However, once irritated (by pressure or injury), they can cause severe discomfort, rather like having a stone in one's shoe. Spurs are diagnosed by Xray examination. Treatment consists of orthotic devices (worn in the shoe to alleviate strain), injection of cortisone and novocaine or - in rare cases surgical removal of the calcium deposit. If your doctor has not been able to help your pain, see a podiatrist or an orthopedic surgeon for further

Federal judge predicts Senate will clear impeachment charge

MIAMI (AP) — Judge Alcee L. Hastings, impeached despite his acquittal on bribery charges, vowed to remain on the federal bench, and said his U.S. Senate impeachment trial will show "who framed Roger Rabbit."

"I'll be here tomorrow just like I was here today," Hastings said, jumping up to touch his name on the outside of the federal courthouse, after the U.S. House voted 413-3 for impeachment Wednesday.

In an impromptu news conference on the courthouse steps, the 51-year-old judge called the 17 articles of impeachment approved by the House "bald-faced

The vote marked the first time the House has impeached a federal official acquitted of similar charges in a criminal trial and the first time a black official has been a defendant in impeachment proceedings.

The House sent the case to the Senate, where conviction by a two-thirds majority is required for Hastings' removal. The Senate has not announced a trial

Hastings said he believes the Senate will find legal and procedural flaws in House Judiciary subcommittee hearings that preceded Wednesday's vote.

"We will then find out who opinion, is a disgrace," said framed Roger Rabbit," he said, Hastings. "Many Congress perreferring to the hit motion picture about a cartoon rabbit framed for murder.

"During the last three weeks, America has witnessed a bizarre ritual that led to my impeachment," he said. "We have seen the blind — the subcommittee mislead the blinder, Congress.

"I never did anything wrong," Hastings insisted. "I know it and they know it. ... We are witnessing the thrashing of the American system of justice.

"We will win," he added. "And with the help of the American people, I shall put this Mickey Mouse horror show behind me."

If convicted by the Senate, Hastings would be removed from the $89,500-a-year job he has held since he was appointed by then-

"Generally, I am in awe of Congress' collective wisdom. But I am petrified at their uncaring, undignified and, in my judgment, unconstitutional approach to this matter."

Before the vote, the subcommittee chairman, Rep. John Conyers, D-Mich., received a standing ovation from many House members for his speech in which he said Hastings "failed to measure up to standards applicable to all judges."

Hastings has repeatedly claimed he is the victim of double jeopardy and racism. But on Wednesday, he played down allegations his race influenced the subcommittee, which has two

Among the impeachment articles are charges that Hastings conspired with Washington attorney William Borders Jr. in 1981 to receive a $150,000 bribe from two defendants in a racketeering case in exchange for a non-prison sentence.

The articles also allege Hastings lied about the bribe at the 1983 criminal trial in which he was acquitted.

Hastings also faces charges he passed confidential wiretap information in September 1985 to Dade County Mayor Stephen Clark concerning a suspect in an FBI probe of corruption at the Port of Miami.

Following Hasting's acquittal, an investigating panel of 11th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals concluded some of Hasting's testimony was false.

Hastings and Borders refused to testify during the subcommittee hearings.

Barbara Jordan undergoes tests

AUSTIN (AP) - Former Congresswoman Barbara Jordan, hospitalized since Saturday after nearly drowning in her swimming pool, is "much stronger, more cheerful," according to a hospital spokeswoman.

Carolyn Hinckley Boyle on Wednesday relayed word of Ms. Jordan's condition from her doctors at Brackenridge Hospital. Ms. Jordan, 52, was listed as being in serious but stable condition, which was unchanged. She underwent a number of medical tests Tuesday and Wednesday, including brain and chest X-rays, as well a heart examination known as an echo cardiogram, Ms. Boyle said.

Nurse Greg Pfahles reported that Ms. Jordan talked politics over breakfast.
