Midland Invites Cowgirl Sponsors From Area Cities

Invitations were this week mail-ed by the Midland Chamber of Commerce to more than towns and cities of West Texas and New Mexico inviting them to send cowgirl representatives to that city to compete in the colorful Cowgirl Sponsors Contest which will be staged in connection with the annual Midland Cowboy Contest, September 3, 4 and 5; the sponsors to compete for a beautiful hand made saddle and other attractive prizes.

First prize winner in last year's contest was Miss Fern Sawyer of Brownfield, who won out in a field of more than 25 contestants. A record breaking number of spon-sors is expected to compete this Judging in the contest, in which no hazardous feats will be required, will be on appearance of cowgirl, appearance of horse, ability of girl to ride and ability of horse to be reined.

Plans are being made for the largest rodeo since Midland Fair, Inc., with its $60,000 plant, was inaugurated in 1935. Purses in all contest event will be the same as last year, but will have the entrance fees added to them. The cream of the roping, riding and bull-dogging talent of North America is expected to compete this year. The contests are 'open to the world"

After another year, his city put another prosecuting attorney into office. This official dug up flection upon the character, reputation or standing those old concealed weapons charges, brought the man to trial, and sent him to prison. But he got paroled by executive order of the governor, slightly more than two years later, and went free again to commit a murder, finally, and start on the path that now has him headed to prison for life.

That record draws its own moral. Here was a man who for 14 years was obviously a dangerous criminal. In one way or another, the law was too lax to do more than make a formal notation of that fact. Is it any wonder that a country which commonly treats its professional thugs that way has a
