TWO-DAY SAFETY LANE CAMPAIGN STARTS ON FRIDAY

Highway Patrol Will Direct Effort in An Effort to Eliminate Hazards

Haskell motorists will have the opportunity of learning at first hand their individual "rating" as drivers, together with becoming acquainted with any possible defects of their automobiles, Friday and Saturday of this week, when members of the Texas Highway Patrol will stage a two-day Safety Lane campaign here. Designed to eliminate safety hazards by acquainting motorists with safe driving practices, the program in this city will be under the direction of Captain John Draper and Sergeant George Schauer of Wichita Falls. Working jointly with local authorities, the patrol will set up a block-long "Safety Lane" through which all motor traffic will be directed. Cars will be tested for possible mechanical defects, and cars meeting the test will be given a certificate of approval. Those showing defects will be given a sticker calling attention to the trouble, and operators will be requested to undergo another test after having the defects remedied. Safe driving demonstrations and talks will also be given before civic clubs and schools.

Firemen Called Out to Extinguish Blazing Gasoline

Members of the fire department answered their second alarm for the day Tuesday at 1 o'clock, when they were called to extinguish a blazing pan of gasoline which threatened to set fire to an automobile undergoing repairs in the Johnson Service Station, just across the street from the fire station. Charlie King, owner of the car, was working on the motor, and in some manner the pan of gasoline, setting underneath the car, became ignited. The automobile was slightly damaged.

All Testimony Expected To Be Concluded During Afternoon

Trial of Mrs. Mary Culberth, 32-year-old O'Brien woman charged with murdering her infant son, was under way in District Court here today. With a special venire of seventy-five summoned, selection of the jury was completed at 1:30 o'clock.

Jurors hearing the case are: Claude Reid, P. J. Josslet, Hugh Green, J. J. Beason, H. C. Neimast, G. H. Henshaw, R. W. Herren, Jr., H. J. Cloud, Floyd McGuire, Burgess Forehand, Ray Alsbrook, and S. W. Boone.

Hearing of testimony was begun shortly before 2 o'clock, after a plea of "not guilty" had been entered by court-appointed defense attorneys Johnny Banks and Walter Murchison in behalf of the defendant.

First witness called by the state was Arthur McAda, O'Brien youth who testified that Mrs. Culberth was among a group of workers pulling bolls in a cotton field near O'Brien on Sept. 1st. The woman left the field, McAda said, about 11 o'clock that morning and went to a nearby farmhouse, complaining of being ill.

Prosecution, seeking to prove that Mrs. Culberth, giving birth to a child while alone in an out-house, and killing the infant by crushing its head with a heavy rock, introduced a statement given by the defendant to County Attorney Chapman after she had been arrested and was confined in a Knox City hospital.

County Attorney Chapman was preceded on the stand by Lela Mae Walsh, 14-year-old girl, who told Mrs. Culberth coming to the Walsh home from the cotton field, apparently suffering from pain or illness.

The county attorney from the stand, told of being called to O'Brien to investigate the case, and of seeing the infant's body, its head crushed by large concrete stone.

COUNCIL DISMISSES PROPOSED STREET GRAVELING PLAN

Property Owners Unwilling To Share Part of Cost of Project

Regular semi-monthly meeting of the City Council was held Monday night in the City Hall, with Mayor Alexander, Secretary R. A. Coburn and all members of the Council present.

After discussion concerning the proposed graveling of several Haskell streets through WPA grant, with property owners paying a share of the cost, the council voted to drop the proposal. Under consideration for several weeks, Aldermen were told that very few property owners were willing to share their cost of the improvement.

H-S U EXTENSION CLASSES WILL BE HELD IN HASKELL

Persons Interested in Courses Invited to Meet With Instructors Tonight

Haskell will become the center of Hardin-Simmons University extension work next Thursday night when Dr. R. N. Richardson and Dr. R. A. Collins commence classes in "History of the Great Southwest" and "Curriculum Revision."

A maximum of six hours a semester or twelve hours a year can be secured through the extension work, a division of which will be established in Haskell.

Although the first meeting will be held from 7 until 10 o'clock Thursday, classes thereafter have been held from 7 until 10 o'clock each Monday night, Dr. Collins explains.

"Although teachers in Haskell and vicinity will be most interested in the courses, resident credit will be given anyone qualified to enroll," Dr. Collins added.

Both faculty members of Hardin-Simmons are outstanding in their field. Dr. Richardson is head of the history department and author of several books on Southwestern history. Dr. Collins is head of the department of education and dean of students.

The classes will be held in the school building at Haskell, and persons interested in either or both courses are invited to meet with the Hardin-Simmons instructors at 7 o'clock Thursday.

EASTLAND HOME BADLY DAMAGED BY FIRE TUESDAY

Fire Starting in Clothes Closet Spreads Through 7-Room House

Fire which is believed to have originated in a clothes-filled wardrobe Tuesday morning about 9:15 o'clock, caused heavy damage to the Emmett Eastland residence in the extreme north part of the city.

Interior of the seven-room house was heavily damaged by the flames, which burned through the ceiling of several rooms, and to the roof of the structure. Household furnishings which could not be removed by Mr. Eastland and neighbors, was damaged by fire and water.

Mr. and Mrs. Eastland were in the yard of their home when they first noticed the fire, and with the help of neighbors were able to remove a part of the furniture from two rooms of the house.

Insurance in the amount of $1,250 was carried on the dwelling, Mr. Eastland stated, with none on household furniture.

No Annual To Be Printed This Year

There will be a marked difference in this year's issues of the Warwhoop—that is, the frequent photographs and group pictures of last year's issues will be missing this year. This is because we are not planning this year to make a book, or annual, of the weekly issues, as we did last year. The sale on last year's book was disappointingly light, and also we are handicapped this year by the less prosperous financial conditions in general, and by the fact that all students and teachers are working against obstacles, being situated as we are.

So in view of the fact that the sale of books would probably be even lighter, and that we would be obliged to obtain our greatest financial support from some other source—some rather uncertain source—we are unwilling to accept the responsibility of publishing the book, or even putting in pictures. Club and class pictures can be put in, however, if the organization will pay for having the picture and the "cut" made. We are in hopes we can have some of this kind.

We also hope to make the Warwhoop as readable as ever, and will appreciate whatever contributions any student may wish to make.—Warwhoop staff.

Let's Prevent Fires

This week is National Fire Prevention Week. Everyone should cooperate with the Government in an effort to prevent fires. More loss of property is caused by fire each year than nearly any other way. This property belongs to the citizens and it is to our advantage that we do what our government is asking of us.

Many of the fires are preventable and it is these that we are interested in. We cause them by our carelessness. If we were as careful to do away with fire hazards as we are to see the latest moving picture, we would reduce the fires in the United States fifty per cent. Let us all do our part in preventing fires, not only this week, but at all times.

June Bunkley has gone to Stamford to attend school.

Therefore and Notwithstanding

Frankie Dorris has exchanged an Abilene football hero for a senior at State. . . Mr. Richey begins every class by sitting on the table. . . Lloyd is rather interested in Stamford or vice versa. . . The president and reporter of the senior class seem to get together on more things than class meetings.

Advice to the lovers: Beware of Fall Romances. . . Memory work seems to be the drawback of all juniors at present. . . Strange transportation: Douglas riding a mule to meet the bus. . . Long and short: Francis Reece and Francis Fouts, respectively. . . Duffer has a perfect reason for coming to school: More publicity and girls. . . Maybe Lena's name is pronounced "Mary Lena." . . No wild thought is wasted on Jerry and Joe, 'cause it would be too wild. . . Red appears to be the hit color of the season. . . Best forethought at the beginning of school: Two holidays at Thanksgiving and seven for Christmas.

Students Greet H-S U Players

Thursday afternoon the student body was dismissed so that they might attend a reception for the Hardin-Simmons football players who were enroute to Wichita Falls to play A. & M. College. After the reception the students returned to school and the sixth period was omitted.

The band played several numbers and Mr. Walter Murchison and Mr. Breedlove welcomed the team and wished them the best of luck. Head Coach Frank Kimbrough, who came along with his football players, is a Haskell boy of whom we are very proud. He played on the high school team while attending school in Haskell and made a fine showing.

Hi School Classes Elect Their Officers

Tuesday, September 29, the fifth period was omitted for the organization of the classes of Haskell High School.

Under the sponsorship of Miss Davis and Mr. Wimbish the following senior officers were elected:

President—James Roy Akins.
 Vice President—Jack Harris.
 Sec.-Treas.—Winnie Darnell.
 Reporter—Helen Mable Baldwin.

Representative of P.T.A.—Geraldine Conner.
 The Juniors met in the basement of the Christian church with Miss Riley and Mr. Sullivan as sponsors. The following officers were elected:

President—Bob McAnulty.
 Vice President—Joe Isabel.
 Secretary—Anita Jo Simmons.
 Treasurer—Naomi Barnett.
 Reporter—Marvina Post.
 Representative of P.T.A.—Ruby Sue Persons.

The sponsors of the Sophomore class, Miss Vick and Mr. Richey, met with the sophomores in the auditorium of the Christian church. The class elected the following officers:

President—Eugene Rogers.
 Vice President—Garland Wood.
 Sec.-Treas.—Kenzie Tucker.
 Reporter—Midge Leon.
 Representative of P.T.A.—Mary Jo Free.

The Freshman class met in the auditorium of the Methodist church under the sponsorship of Mrs. Wimbish and Mr. Mason. The following officers were elected:

President—Eulis Hayes.
 Vice President—Flossie Hester.
 Secretary—Anna Rose Chapman.
 Treasurer—Leatrice Wheeler.
 Reporter—Wanda Dulaney.
 Representative of P.T.A.—Jean Conner.

We hope that all the class members will co-operate and attend their class meetings. We want the new students to feel that they are a part of our school.

"First Things First"

Putting "First Things First" was the theme of the short talk given by Rev. R. N. Huckabee last Wednesday in the assembly program. In his talk Rev. Huckabee emphasized the importance of the American youth building a strong character and fine morals so that America will always remain a democratic country and not turn to the radical forms of government as so many other countries are doing today.

The talk was very interesting and also inspiring. I am sure every student enjoyed each part of the program. We appreciate having Rev. Huckabee, Mrs. Powell and Mrs. Patterson to help Mrs. Kaigler and her pupils with the program and hope they will come back again soon.

The Pep Squad Makes Football In Field Stunt

"Work before play" seemed to be the motto for the pep squad last week. Practice began Wednesday on a new field stunt and continued until Friday. A meeting was called by Mrs. Meyer for the purpose of choosing mascots for this season. This time a boy and girl were chosen, Billy Bob Welsh and Betty Oates. We are very proud to have them.

Two lines lead by Martell Clifton and Mary Eleanor Diggs, with the mascots, Billy Bob, dressed in a football suit, and Betty, dressed in a little pep squad suit, marched on the field to the accompaniment of Bob's drum and formed the football. When the whistle was blown the pep-squad faced the grandstand and gave a yell for Putnam and then one for our Haskell Indians.

It was the first field stunt of the year and the pep-squad hopes to improve much more in the coming games.

Haskell vs. Rule

The Haskell Indians' next opponents are the Rule Bobcats, who will play on the Haskell gridiron next Friday night, Oct. 9. The Rule team is not as strong as the other opponents we have had but they are a fighting bunch of boys and will give Haskell a real battle for the game.

We can't overlook the fact that in their game with Stamford last Friday they made the same number of first downs that Stamford made—and that's something!

This is our second conference game and will be a good clean game. Attend the game and boost your local team; they need your support. The game starts promptly at 7:30 o'clock.

C. T. Fields, who was one of our popular students last year, has enrolled in the senior class. C. T.'s family has moved to Rochester, but we are glad that he has been able to return to Haskell.

Notes From Kaigler's Studio

Last Wednesday, Sept. 30, the Dramatic club presented their first chapel program.

The program was divided into two parts: the first consisted of the reading of excerpts from great works. Those who participated were: Paul Roberts, Eva Jo Ratliff, Eula Fay Glass, Labry Ballard, Midge Leon, Annie Mae Leese, Evelyn and Bertha Adcock, Dorothy Mae Carr, Woodrow Perrin, Bonnie Dell Hisey, Doyle Hisey and Mayre Lena Tubbs.

The same students had a part in an operetta, "A Journey Through Life With Music," with the addition of Joe Maples and Paul Crawford.

Assisting in the last number were Mrs. O. E. Patterson at the piano, and Mrs. Lee Powell who rendered two violin numbers.

In conclusion the Rev. W. N. Huckabee, pastor of the Methodist church, gave a splendid talk to the student body on "Putting First Things First," which was the general theme of the program.

This program was in compliance of the Texas Senate to teach school children character first and then the subjects and sciences.

Freshman Facts

The first year home economics class is learning quite rapidly. They have already succeeded in making button-holes, plackets, hems, tucks, gathers and two different types of seams. They are now ready to start on their projects.

Margaret Harrington, a freshman in high school, has been absent several days due to illness. All the freshmen have been trying very hard to be good (on account of detention slips).

Miss Riley tells us that she is beginning to learn new things every day. On a history examination, not long ago, a freshman told her that a Pharaoh was a flowering plant.

Most of the freshman girls have found out that being in the Pep Squad is great fun, even though most of them missed the first football game.

Some of the Sophomores really laugh at the freshmen because they don't know all of the things about high school, but after all, they were beginners once.

Anita Coburn, a tomboy freshman, just simply can't sew. She says that she desires to ride bicycles, play ball or do anything except girls' jobs.

Anna Rose Chapman, secretary for the eighth grade, found out that going up and down the Christian church steps made her weak in the knees, so, instead of climbing down them, she fell down them.

Eulamae Watson and Buddie Crandell seem to be the only red-heads in the eighth grade, but there are plenty blondes and brunettes to make up for it.

Roy Frierson celebrated his thirteenth birthday Tuesday. (Oh, pardon me, Roy, I didn't know it was supposed to be a secret).

Speaking of birthdays, Leatrice Wheeler is expected to have one sometime in October, and if I'm not mistaken she's the only one.

Bonnie Dell Hisey is now back in Haskell going to school. She was elected the prettiest girl in the seventh grade last year. (Quit your blushing, Bonnie Dell).

A Little Pep News

Betty Oats liked the field stunt so much Friday night that she said, "Let's do it again," (and by the way, it was her first football game. She's starting rather young, isn't she?)

Before the game Friday night the pep squad met at the Christian church, all pepped up because of the fine weather, and marched around the square drumming up football fans.

Several pep members have composed songs and yells for use during football games. They are always welcome, so come on girls, think up some new tunes. Geneva Thompson gave us:

(Tune of Diana)
 "The name of this town is Haskell
 The name of this team is Indians
 The name of this school is Haskell
 Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah! Rah!
 "Cheer, Cheer, Cheer" was furnished by Martell Clifton:

(Tune of Sing, Sing, Sing)
 Cheer, cheer, cheer, cheer!
 All the pep squad starts to cheer!
 Rah! Rah! Rah! —Ho, Ho, Ho!
 Watch those Haskell Indians go!
 A new song was learned last week and everyone seems to like it fine. The pep squad sang it for the first time at the game Friday night:

"We are the Indians,
 We are the Indians—
 The Haskell Indians,
 And we've got the old fight to the end.
 Quit never,
 Stand by them ever;
 That black and gold that we defend.
 Oh we scalp 'em hard—we scalp 'em fast,
 We scalp 'em till they yell,
 We give 'em war, we give 'em woe,
 We give 'em woe and well—
 We are the Indians—
 The Haskell Indians,
 And we've got that old fight to the end."

Harvey Simmons, a former H. S. student who is attending Texas Tech at Lubbock, visited with his family over the weekend.

Marion Chapman, Della Pearl Blackwell, Nola Owens and Van J. Stone have withdrawn from school.

Indians Scalp Panthers 6-0

The Haskell Indians scalped the highly touted Putnam Panthers here last Friday night before a fine crowd. The game was a seesaw battle till the last quarter, when the Indians got things going their way and pushed over for a touchdown.

As usual "Twinkle Toes" Barnett was the star. He ran the Putnam boys ragged with end runs, punt returns, and what have you? The touchdown was made by none other than the flashy quarterback, Gene Rogers, who played a bang up game.

Jobe, the big shot of the Panthers, was bottled up most of the time by the whole Indian team. Henshaw, Jenkins and Hayes, Indian ends, were down on the punts like they were shot from a cannon and stopped Mr. Jobe cold on nearly every punt. If you think Mr. Jobe can't hit that line, just ask Thompson and Akins, the tackles who tangled with him on nearly every play.

The Indians pulled some trick plays on the Panthers and made gains on nearly everyone. Akins pulled out from tackle and took the ball from a backfield man and was gone before anyone knew it. It was on this play that Haskell started to their only touchdown.

Mr. Akins can now be addressed as Captain Akins. Did you notice that Jack Simmons played a fine game? He is little but boy, is he loud! All of the boys played a good game and they all deserve a big slap on the back. If you ask me, I think the Indians are on their way to the championship.

The Gypsy Ramblers club met last Monday for the first time since school opened. Old and new business was brought up and discussed. A picnic and hike was planned for Tuesday afternoon after school. Several plans were suggested and made for methods of making money this year, such as selling programs at the football games, and making year books to sell to the students and Gypsy Ramblers.

Ramblers Hold First Meeting

Lillie Maud Martin is now enrolled as a member of the senior class of '36-37.

SARAH ANN'S COOKING CLASS

Good batter cakes like waffles are one of our most acceptable dishes. They may be served for so many informal occasions. Prepare the batter ahead of time if need be; as soon as mixed, cover and place in the refrigerator. When ready to bake heat the griddle just hot enough to make cold water thrown in it sputter a good deal. Drop the batter by spoonfuls in the griddle, bake 2 or 3 minutes, then turn with a large spatula and continue baking until the second side is browned. Serve at once.

Standard Batter Cakes

1 cup milk.
1 1/2 cups flour.
1 to 2 tablespoons fat.
1 egg.
2 teaspoons baking powder.
1 tablespoon sugar if desired.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
Mix and sift the dry ingredients, beat the egg slightly and add to the other liquid ingredients, then stir them gradually into the dry. Add the melted fat. Bake on a hot griddle, lightly greased if necessary.

Quick Buckwheat Cakes

1-2 cup flour.
1-2 teaspoon baking powder.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
2 tablespoons sugar.
1 1-2 cups buckwheat flour.
3 cups buttermilk.
1 teaspoon soda.
1-4 cup water.
2 tablespoons melted fat.
Sift the white flour, baking powder, salt and sugar together. Mix with the buckwheat flour. Pour the buttermilk in a bowl. Dissolve soda in the water and add to the buttermilk. Mix and add melted shortening, then the dry mixture. Beat until smooth. Bake and serve at once.

Bacon Pancakes

To the dry ingredients for standard batter cakes, add 1 cup of bacon fried until crisp and cut in small pieces. Finish and bake as usual. Serve with cheese sauce.

Raisin Crumb Batter Cakes

Soak 1 cup of soft bread crumbs in water 10 minutes. Press out all moisture and mix with 1 cup sour milk or buttermilk, 1 well beaten egg, 1-2 cup of flour sifted with 1 teaspoon of baking soda and 1-2 teaspoon salt. Add 1 tablespoon of hot melted shortening, 2 tablespoons sugar and 3-4 cup of seedless raisins, slightly chopped. Bake and serve with butter and syrup.

Mincemeat Batter Cakes

1 9-ounce package mincemeat.
1-2 cup water.
1 cup flour.
4 teaspoons baking powder.
1 cup cornmeal.
1-2 teaspoon salt.
1 1/4 cups milk.
1 egg.
1-3 cup melted shortening.
Break mincemeat in pieces, add water and cook until the mixture is practically dry. Cool. Sift the dry ingredients and combine with the egg and milk, beating vigorously. Add the shortening and fold in the mincemeat. Bake. Powdered sugar and a squeeze of lemon juice are delicious accompaniments. These are very good for a luncheon dessert.

Apple Batter Cakes

Select tart, juicy cooking apples. Pare, core and cut in rather small thin slices enough of them to give 1 cup. Get ready the ingredients for the standard batter cakes and add apple to the wet ingredients. Add the wet to the dry and finish as for plain batter cakes. Serve with butter and sprinkle over cakes when served a previously prepared mixture of 3 parts sugar with 1 part cinnamon.

Pineapple Batter Cakes

Prepare like standard batter cakes, except that instead of 1 cup milk, 1-4 cup of pineapple juice, 3-4 cups of milk and 3-4 cup of pineapple pulp are used. Mix these with the beaten egg and melted shortening and then add this combination to the dry ingredients. Place one batter cake on the serving plate, cover generously with pineapple sauce, place over this another cake and sift over the top of it confectioners sugar.
For the pineapple sauce, thicken a mixture of 1 cup of pineapple juice and 1-2 cup of the pulp with 2 tablespoons of flour. Cook until nicely thickened and serve piping hot.

Lady's Painful Trouble Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would make me faint. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'do-less.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That throbbing, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

Methodist Missionary Society

On Monday, October 8th, a good crowd convened in the auditorium of the church. Mrs. Serber Leon, Mission Study superintendent, directed very capably a most interesting lesson on "The Education of the Negro." Before beginning the lesson Mrs. Patterson rendered several beautiful organ numbers.

For the Scripture lesson, the director chose Micah 6-8. Mrs. H. M. Smith told of the work of a Negro woman teacher of Marianna, Ark. Mrs. Leon read a tribute of appreciation from the State Superintendent of Education of Virginia, for the work that had been done by R. I. Law, a negro teacher who served one community for 50 years. We were also told that the largest negro school in the South is located at Birmingham, Ala. In some of the larger negro industrial schools, girls are being taught to be nurses.

Mrs. Huckabee read a most interesting article entitled "Training Black Mammals." Mrs. Leon told of the Julius Rosenwald Fund for negro education. Mrs. Cahill told of the Stamford Julius Rosenwald School.

The Stevenson Land Company donated three acres of land and $11,000 building was erected. Mrs. Ethel Irby dismissed with a prayer.

After the lesson was concluded Mrs. Person presided over a short business session. The "Rummage Sale" committee reported a successful sale on last Saturday. This sale will be continued on next Saturday at the same place, first door east of Haskell Leader office on Depot street.

The society was adjourned by the reciting in unison of "The Lord's Prayer." We meet again on next Monday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Be sure to be on time.—Reporter.

First Meeting of Harmony Club

The first meeting of the year, designated as President's Day, was observed by members of the Harmony Club on Wednesday when luncheon was served at the noon hour. From the long table where the food was attractively displayed, guests were served cafeteria style by Mesdames F. M. Squires, C. L. Lewis, Tommie B. Hawkins and H. K. Thornton.

Members then found their places at small tables, laid with linen and silver, centered with a single rosebud in a small vase. Bowls of lovely fall roses were also used about the room for decoration.

The president, Mrs. M. H. Post, brought a splendid message, expressing the hope that this year would be one of the best the club has known. Special greetings were also extended to the new members. Mrs. Post urged that we appreciate our composers more, since "without our composers there would be no performers or performances." As, for instance, we readily recall our favorite compositions, but often fail to even mention the composer. We feel that under the leadership of Mrs. Post we may accomplish much.

Mrs. Jno. W. Pace and Mrs. O. E. Patterson gave two piano numbers, "The Peer Gynt Suite," by Grieg. Mrs. W. W. Koonce sang "Roses" by March. Greetings were given by each of the following past presidents, Mesdames T. C. Cahill, J. T. Ellis, Tommie B. Hawkins, T. A. Pinkerton, H. K. Thornton, B. M. Whiteaker, O. E. Patterson and C. L. Christian Church

Oct. 11th.
Bible School 9:45 a. m.
Lord's Supper 11:00 a. m.

The Church is the mightiest organization in the world for good. Religious training of children should be the start of their education. If all children were under the influence of the Church during their teens, the formative period of their lives, and all grown-ups would take an active interest in church work, we would soon be closing our prisons and jails, instead of building more.

You are cordially invited to be with us next Lord's day. You, and all your children.

Jeffersonian Democrats

Offer Proof of Anti-New Deal Charges

We recently made charges in this paper that Mr. Roosevelt and his administration were not Democratic, and had no claim to Democratic loyalty. We charged that continuation of his administration would undermine the economy of the nation, and threaten its institutions. We charged that he had opened the sluice-gates of the federal treasury, and through Boss Farley, had Tammanyized the nation. We charged that he had surrounded himself with radicals, and had more nearly discharged their radical platforms than his own. We are offering the proof of our charges through our paper, the Jeffersonian Democrat.

We reassert that we are regular Democrats. We would prefer to vote the regular ticket. But we refuse to put party loyalty above our loyalty to America. In scratching Roosevelt we violate no party pledge, for the primary ballot contained a pledge to vote for the nominees of that primary. Mr. Roosevelt's name was not on that ballot. Furthermore, the Texas law instructs the voter how to cast a mixed ballot, and the Supreme Court has upheld that right.

We ask all true Democrats to weigh the proof before voting for a continuation of government by irresponsible radicals. Unlike the New Deal we have no ready made organization to spread our propaganda and raise money for our campaign. We will appreciate your support and whatever donations you can make.

Write us for copies of The Jeffersonian Democrat, and help us distribute it throughout your county.

Mahon to Speak In Support of the National Ticket

The Speakers Bureau of the Democratic National Committee has called upon Congressman George Mahon of Colorado, Texas, to assist in the national campaign for the re-election of President Roosevelt. He has been asked to speak in several states during October, but a complete itinerary has not been scheduled, according to information received this week from Congressman Sam Rayburn of Texas who is in New York as director of the speakers bureau of the committee.

Mr. Mahon has agreed to speak at Fort Sumner, New Mexico, October 9. Engagements in several New Mexico cities are being scheduled for next week and it is anticipated that the plans of the national committee will likely take him into several western states before the November election.

The national committee used Mr. Mahon last spring for administration speeches in Virginia and Ohio.

Mr. Mahon announced that, although his work for the national committee would likely take him out of the state most of the month of October, his secretary, Lloyd Croslin, would keep his Colorado office open for business.

NEITHER GOOD NOR EVIL ENTIRELY

Citizens of this country should seek to avoid taking extreme positions, based upon a ready belief of every charge and countercharge made in the realm of political exhortation. Likewise, in the field of economics, let's not assume too readily that everything big is wrong and that everybody rich is evil-intentioned.

Saying this does not imply that the giants that beset our economic development should not be curbed and controlled or that the wealthy should not be made to assume greater burdens in support of social reforms. In fact, the revelations of the past few years have abundantly disclosed evidence of evil in high places and present ample basis for widespread reforms, which even now have not been accomplished.

It has been noticeable, however, in the past that business men, undoubtedly reputable in their ways, have been reluctant to point out the evils of their more culpable confreres. Rather, they have entrenched themselves behind a barrier of abuse, directed against those who have attempted to improve conditions. In their own criticism of those in their field of operations, thus linking their fate with those condemned by public opinion.

It is encouraging to see signs that this tendency is being abandoned. For example, Paul C. Cabot, president of a large investment corporation, recently discussed with the Securities and Exchange Commission the situation in the investment field, admitting that "in this new and growing industry there have crept in a variety of abuses" against which the public "is entitled to such protection as the law can give." He qualified his remarks by adding if it does not unduly hamper the exercises of ability and supervision. However, he made recommendations and warned of possible injury that might follow certain steps.

NOT GUARANTEED BY US

The All-American Astrologers convention was recently attended by some hundreds of star-gazers and students of the celestial firmament.

As usual they come forth with some predictions, including: (1) the average citizen is going to fare well, (2) the economic condition of the country is good, (3) there will be a boom in real estate, (4) there will be no recurrence of the drought and (5) Roosevelt's re-election.

We chronicle these items in order that our readers may know what the stars say, according to the professing students of their messages. We do not guarantee them and, in fact, despite the claim that astrology is on a scientific basis, prefer to put our money, if and when, upon some other judgment than that based upon astrological dope.

COURT'S DILEMMA

The drunken auto driver is one of the most vexing problems the police and courts face these days. For he requires them to treat as a criminal a man who is not, ordinarily, a criminal at all. He is usually a married man, with a steady job and some standing in his own circle; if he is sentenced to a month or so in jail for driving while drunk, as the law requires, he is apt to lose his job and his family is certain to suffer. For this reason, paroles and suspended sentences are handed out pretty generously to the intoxicated driver. In most cities it is the policy to give him a good scare and then let him go. It can be argued that such a policy is a great mistake. The drunken driver and his family may suffer unduly if the letter of the law is followed—but society as a whole suffers unduly if drunks drive cars. After all, no one compels any man to get tight and then sit behind a steering wheel. And the man who does so is as great a menace, for the moment, as a maniac with a meat ax.

TEST OF LOVE

If a prospective bride wants to learn something of the makeup of her future husband, the American Automobile Association suggests that she study the way he drives his car. A trip through hectic traffic, according to the AAA, will reveal to her whether he has a violent temper, nerves, tendency to fatigue, timidity, manners, and sportsmanship. The association fails to give tips for the prospective bridegroom, but perhaps a similar test would enlighten him, too. Thus, if his bride-to-be is querulous when he grazes another car, frequently looks herself over in the rear vision mirror, "bangs" seat drives, makes slighting references to the gown of a passing woman, or drops cigaret ashes on the floor—well, would that seem indicative of shrewdness, and untidiness?

RECLAIMED

Imperfect as our prisons may be as places of rehabilitation, they do manage to reclaim a certain number of the lawbreakers who are entrusted to them. The most interesting case to be reported recently is that of Ray Terrill, once famous as a desperado and bank robber in the Southwest. Terrill has been released from the Oklahoma state prison after serving nine years of a 20-year sentence. Instead of moping in prison and waiting for his chance to "get even" with society which had put him there, Terrill studied and worked; and he succeeded, eventually, in inventing—of all things—a burglar-proof lock, which he now hopes to market. "I'm going straight," he said on his release. "And I'm going to stay in Oklahoma where the police can keep an eye on me and know what I'm doing." Somehow, all this sounds very much as if the Oklahoma prison had managed to turn one bad man into a good useful citizen.

AN ATHLETE'S GREAT RECORD

Back in the year 1925 a young man started to play first base for the New York Yankees, in the American baseball league. Since that date the player has participated in every game of his club, every season, and last week played in his 1,785th ball game without being absent a single time. Such a record deserves notice anywhere, anytime, and in baseball it is not surprising that Lou Gehrig has broken the record for straight games. As a matter of fact, he broke it some time ago. So here's luck to a man who has made a remarkable record of endurance and one that will stand for many years.

Asked to define a triangle, the dull pupil replied: "It's one of those things you pin on babies."

CURRENT COMMENT

STREAMLINED LEGISLATURES

(Dallas Morning News)
Dissatisfaction with the prevailing State legislative systems is focusing the attention of many Americans on the working of Nebraska's new one-house legislature. Nebraskans have made the first effective attempt to remodel for a streamlined era a creaking legislative agency that was set up in stagecoach days.

As pointed out by A. E. Buck of the Institute of Public Administration, the Legislature has remained in many respects the most static part of the machinery of State government. State officials have refused to admit the shortcomings of a system that no longer meets the demands of present conditions, let alone those of the immediate future.

It is not necessary to cast reflections on individual solons to recognize that our State legislative systems are extremely wasteful of both time and money. Legislative setups suited to a sparsely settled agricultural community do not sufficiently meet the problems of a complex, urban society in which wealth is largely corporate.

Nebraska's example may not prove to be the ideal solution of this problem of legislative reform, but it is a courageous attempt at modernization. It might profit Texas and other States to study its working.

Forty Years Ago—1896

Galveston was elated last week over the arrival there of the biggest ship that ever visited the port. It was the Alga from Liverpool, whose carrying capacity is 23,000 bales of cotton. The Alga is 455 feet long, 58 feet beam and 23 feet 4 inches deep. She will be loaded at Galveston with 18,000 bales of cotton and 104,000 bushels of grain for Liverpool. Lee Pierson made a flying trip to Albany this week on his bicycle.

Rev. N. B. Bennett returned several days ago from Stonewall county, where he held a successful meeting and also participated in a bear hunt, in which he helped to kill a large bear.

Carney & Co. have ordered one carload of corn to be delivered at Seymour in a few days, which they will sell at actual cost, purchasers to receive it at Seymour.

Thirty Years Ago—1906
We are informed that the Wichita Valley Railroad has made a rate of $7.50 on cattle from Haskell to Seymour and of $24 from Seymour to Fort Worth, or $31.50 for the through trip, per carload. This rate, as we understand the situation, makes Haskell the most favorable shipping point for cattle to the Fort Worth market in this territory.

D. S. Wells of Guatemala, Central America, father of our townsman, Mr. Wm. Wells, surprised his son, who did not know he was in this country, by walking into his place of business Wednesday. Mr. Wells has been in Guatemala for several years and says it has a very fine climate and if he had a few American neighbors he would be content to reside there the rest of his life. Mr. Wells was acquainted with Mr. George Ma-

the stocks and their backs bruised and bleeding from their punishment, Paul and Silas prayed and sang. An earthquake took place and shook the loosely fastened doors ajar and aroused the jailer from his sleep. Thinking that the prisoners had escaped and knowing that he was responsible for them with his life the jailer drew his sword and was about to kill himself but Paul prevented him by calling that all were still in custody. The jailer, who had also probably heard some of the preachings of his prisoners and who probably considered the earthquake a miraculous intervention for their safety, fell on his knees and asked his prisoners to point him to the way to salvation. This they were glad to do and he and his household were converted.

Luke may have been a native of Philippi and may have exerted some influence during the night in behalf of his friends in jail. Or, perhaps, the Roman magistrates on sober thought realized the impropriety of their action. Therefore, the next morning, they sent word to the apostles that they were free to go. Paul, however, was a Roman citizen and it was a serious offense to beat such a one without proper trial. Realizing that his work was to be much in Roman territory, Paul manfully stood on his rights and to prevent similar treatment for himself and his friends in the future demanded that the magistrate come and escort them from the jail as a public act of apology. Fearing the result of their illegal punishment, the officials complied.

BECOMING A CHRISTIAN

International Sunday School Lesson for October 11, 1936

GOLDEN TEXT: "Believe on the Lord Jesus, and thou shalt be saved." Acts 16:31.

(Lesson Text: Acts 16:22-34; Phil. 3:7-14).

Our lesson last week related how Paul came to Europe with the gospel; and told of the beginning of his work in Philippi, the historic city situated on the great marble-paved Egnatian Road which ran from Italy across Greece towards Asia. Our lesson today gives us further details of his visit to that Roman colony.

Paul must have been in Philippi for a time preaching, long enough to establish a church, before he encountered the fortune-telling slave girl. This maid had a reputation for divination and her earnings from the superstitious populace were so great that a group of men, a kind of stock company, owned her. She had probably heard Paul preach, at least, she followed him through the streets testifying that he was a servant of God, showing the way of salvation. Paul was unwilling to have testimony from a deranged mind and ordered the evil spirit to come out of her. Her frenzy departed and she came into her right mind.

As a result "her masters saw that the hopes of their gains were gone" and they were infuriated—just as the practitioners of many modern abuses resent efforts of Christian influences to remove them. The owners of the girl cared nothing for her restoration to normal life and only regretted the loss of the money which they might make. Today, many men in business think more of collecting than of human values involved in their businesses and overlook entirely their moral responsibilities for human happiness.

The exploiters of this girl, miraculously cured, brought charges against Paul before the Roman authorities of Philippi. They could not afford to complain that they would lose their legal profits but, as is often the case in modern situations of a similar nature, assume a very patriotic air and, after calling prejudice into play by pointing out that Paul and Silas were Jews, charged them with stirring up trouble in the city and attempting to teach many illegal customs. The two praetors, probably sensitive to the dissatisfaction of these business men, and averted somewhat by the mob which had been stirred up against the two Jews, commanded them to be beaten with rods, which was done. This was a rather cruel punishment and a severe flogging. Afterwards, Paul and Silas were lodged in jail.

Although lodged in the crude inner dungeon, with their feet in

The saddle, to be awarded on the basis of best horsemanship, has already been shipped from Dallas and will be on display this week in the show window of Wheatley's Shoe Store on the north side.

Diversity of Exhibits
Reports received by department heads of the Fair indicate that the exhibits this year will be among the best in the history of the Association, despite the long drought followed by a siege of rain.

Especially is the Livestock Department expected to make a good showing. Breeders and feeders this year have put forth a special effort to develop some prize-winning animals for the Centennial Livestock Expositions at Fort Worth and Dallas this year, and since the Central West Texas Fair has increased the premiums in this department and created a number of new classes they are bidding fair to have a good show. Director J. C. Tinney says that we may expect to see some good livestock on exhibition.

The Home Demonstration Department, Miss Peggy Taylor, director, says they have something new and different in the way of an exhibit. She says that competition has been combined with co-operation among the club women to carry out a theme of a well furnished pantry and home.

Because of some additional classes and an increase in the premiums, Mrs. Carl Power, director of the Textile Department, says that the display of fabrics this year should be one in which all women and most men will be interested.

Developments for a splendid display in the agricultural department are rapidly taking form, according to B. W. Chesser, director.

and Calvin Frierson, superintendent. They say that the surrounding country produced some good crops this year and these crops are going to be on display.

In connection with the Agricultural Department, fair officials expressed fear that some who intended to exhibit in this department might fail to abide by Rule 1 in both the Community and Club Exhibits and the Individual Farm Exhibits. This rule reads thus:

Entries will close on Saturday, October 17, and no individual or club will be permitted to exhibit unless they have filed an entry sheet with the Secretary on or before said date.

Fair officials say that this rule was placed in the catalogue for the benefit of the exhibitors. By knowing how many exhibits there will be the management will be able to ascertain the amount of space each exhibitor will be allowed and notify him in time to prepare his background accordingly.

TAX LEVY IN PRECINCTS 3 AND 4 IS 9c INSTEAD OF $1.06 AS PRINTED

In a recent article regarding the 1939 Tax Levy made by the Commissioners Court, through an error the rate for Commissioners Precincts 3 and 4 was given as $1.06 when it should have been 9c on each $100 valuation in these precincts.

The county rate was set at 76c, and in Precincts 3 and 4 an additional special road maintenance levy of 15c was added. This levy has been in effect in Precinct 4 since 1923, according to O. L. Darden, Commissioner.

Presbyterians Elect Elders

Walter B. Lee, Former Rochester Banker, Killed Accidentally

Walter B. Lee, 56, banker of Spur, was instantly killed four miles east of Spur Tuesday afternoon, by the accidental discharge of a 12 gauge shotgun. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock at Spur.

Mr. Lee was a citizen of Haskell county for a number of years. He was vice president and cashier of the Rochester State Bank until 1920, he resigned his position and accepted the vice presidency of the Spur National Bank.

He was related to the Pinkerton and Lee families, pioneer residents of this section. Immediate relatives surviving are: his wife, Mrs. Emma Lee; three sons, Walter B. Lee, Jr., of Louisiana, Pershing Lee, high school student of Spur, and Chas. Lee; two daughters, Misses Annie and Regina Lee of Spur; two brothers, E. S. Lee, Spur and Virgil Lee of Houston.

Forty-three County Farmers Benefit by Debt Adjustment

Forty-three farmers of Haskell county have been enabled to avoid foreclosure or forced sale of their farms or equipment as a result of voluntary debt adjustments reached through aid of the Resettlement Administration. A total of 7,073 acres of land, as well as other property, was involved. Debts amounting to $86,891 before adjustment were reduced by $9,752.

"One long-time purpose of the Resettlement Administration is to help farmers toward ownership of the land which they operate," said John W. Pace, chairman of the county debt adjustment committee. "It is just as important to keep them from losing land which they already own as to help them buy new land."

He said that the debt adjustment work is largely with small farmers whose financial needs are so small that other agencies find no profit in handling them, or where the debt is so large, in proportion to the value of the property, that other financing agencies consider it unsafe. The Resettlement Administration makes no loans for paying delinquent taxes, interest or principal, but through committees of local volunteer workers brings about agreements between the debtor and creditors for reducing or extending the indebtedness to such an extent that the debtor has a reasonable opportunity of paying it off. Assistance is rendered in refinancing the debt, through the Farm Credit Administration or other public or private lending agencies.

Although it can make no loans for payments on land or taxes, the Resettlement Administration is authorized to make loans for purchase of teams, tools, and supplies. Such loans were made in many of the cases adjusted during the year. Unsettled cases pending September 1 totalled 3.

Members of the debt adjustment committee for Haskell county are: John W. Pace, Haskell; W. P. Ratliff, Haskell, and John Crawford, Haskell.

First fine to be assessed for "speeding" in several months was assessed against a Haskell youth Saturday by Justice of the Peace R. H. Davis, when he was fined $1.00 and costs after complaint against him had been signed by a city officer. Added court costs brought the total fine to approximately $14.00.

Special Fares To Centennial Oct. 20 for Local Residents

Residents of Haskell and surrounding territory have the opportunity of visiting the Texas Centennial Exposition on October 20 and 2 at the unprecedentedly low rate of one cent a mile for the round trip. Railroad fare is only $2.20.

The occasion is the movement to the Exposition by districts of the 1,500,000 Texas school children, for whom the railroads granted the rate, now extended to all adults who may be in the party. Operation will be in day coaches, good for two full days at the Exposition. Further concessions to the scholastics include admission to the Exposition at half-price, a viewing of the historic Cavalcade of Texas at half price, and numerous concessions have announced special rates.

An all-expense trip, which includes housing and meals at the Exposition is at a maximum cost of $2.85 per student.

Movement of the students has been proclaimed officially by Governor James V. Allred and endorsed by State Superintendent L. A. Woods.

Time of departure of trains and operation details may be ascertained from the local railroad office.
