Olton Turns Out For Halfway's Field Day

More than 40 Olton farmers and businessmen attended the High Plains Station annual Field Day last week, joining more than 2,000 spectators during the afternoon-long event.

Spectators represented 97 communities and seven states. Tours of tractor-drawn wagon-loaded specimens began inspection shortly after 1 P.M. and the final wagon returned to the community house, starting point, near 7 P.M. A barbecue capped off the afternoon, preceded by recognition of research dignitaries. Congressman George Mahon was also called on for a short talk.

Projects with top popularity were recharge well, irrigation studies, grain sorghum and cotton varieties, and fertilization tests.

Varieties On Display

Displayed were 147 varieties of corn, 37 varieties of cotton and 155 varieties of grain sorghums. Explanations of tests underway were made at eight stops on the tour.

The implement exhibit created considerable interest.

Harold Hinn, chairman of the council, expressed appreciation for the many volunteers who made the smooth operation of the Field Day possible. These volunteers came from the Chambers of Commerce in the surrounding communities, Texas Experiment Station at Lubbock, Soil Conservation Service, County Agents, Fertilizer and Implement Companies.

Pat adjusts a display of flowers on a table in the family room. The mirror frame in front of her belonged to Robert's grandmother and is believed more than 100 years old. It blends perfectly with the home's decor. (STAFF PHOTO)

Most picturesque feature of the Meinecke home is the old brick fireplace which dominates a complete corner of the living room. Note the two ancient guns and inset mantle. (STAFF PHOTO)

Meinecke Home is Designed With Eye On Comfort, Beauty

By Sue May

Bricked with old brick from the old Olton High School building (that was torn down), is the livable home of Pat and Robert Meinecke, located northeast of town on the cemetery road.

The brick which Robert had to have cleaned, adds a rustic touch to the sprawling, well-planned three-bedroom home.

The Meineckes have three daughters, Sheree, Jackye, and Mitzi.

This house was planned with an eye for simplicity and casual living, plus space for easy entertaining. Pat's Early American furniture gives the interior charm and "graciousness".

For outdoor privacy the house was built with its living room to the back of the house. An inviting patio is at the back. Long wall-to-wall sliding windows in the living room and two back bedrooms look onto the patio.

Indoors, the house has dozens of up-to-the-minute features that can make living more pleasant and housekeeping easier—even with three small daughters.

Secret of the sense of spaciousness lies in the high-ceilinged rooms and in the wall-to-wall wool multi-color carpet, plus the sliding glass doors at the back. Central heating contributes to relaxation.

The family room is planned for all play and no work with an easily maintained linoleum floor (which looks like brick), rust shaggy weave drapes, cane chairs, a reclining chair, and love seat. In the room is a TV set, record player, and radio. Pat explained that they sometimes called this room their "music room." One corner of the room, very much out-of-the-way, was built for Pat's washer and dryer.

The corridor kitchen with its view of the family room and convenience of being behind the living room, is a delight to work in. Sleek and compact, it holds refrigerator, dishwasher and built-in oven and surface units. It has ample cupboard space, good light (adjustable ceiling lamp, over dining table), tile cabinet tops, a picture window over the dining area, and a linoleum floor covering. The custom built cabinets are light pine colored and are trimmed with hammered copper handles.

Bonuses: All drawers have built in dividers and there are sugar and flour compartments, plus a built-in mixer. The cabinets are mouse and insect proof.

In the living room is a beautiful fireplace made of the old school brick and hanging on the brick fireplace is a pair of antique musket loaders. The Early American furniture lends a casual atmosphere to the room. The living room is the central room in the house, from the living room are doors to the entrance hall and bedroom wing, a door to the master bedroom, sliding doors to the patio, and a wide opening into the kitchen.

Connecting the family or music room and the master bedroom is a white and turquoise bathroom, designed with white fixtures, an extra large lavatory, turquoise tile all around the room, and turquoise and white linoleum. Pat has a built-in dressing table in one corner of the room. White curtains add light and beauty.

The roomy master bedroom also looks onto the terrace, however gold drapes can be drawn over the sliding picture doors, and the window drapes over the bed matches the material in the bedspread skirt in a yellow, brown, and gray design. A coverlet in yellow tops the bed. The intercom system is located in the master bedroom and goes into the other rooms of the house.

The guest bedroom is a combination of aqua walls and white and aqua drapes at the sliding doors. Linoleum is used on the guest bedroom floor.

In the children's room, you see a nice-sized, uncluttered room. The walls are green and the carpet is a deeper shade of green. Pink curtains enhance the high windows and clown pictures draw attention to the walls.

Never could a bathroom be brighter, or more cheerful-looking than the bath that belongs to Sheree, Mitzi, and Jackye. The fixtures are gray; the tile around the walls and around the tub are yellow; the walls and dressing table are rusty-orange with the same color woodwork. An outstanding feature under the double-sinks are built-in steps in the girls' dressing table where they can stand while brushing their teeth.

Large double closets are in each bedroom and corner closets for shelf and drawer space are built in the guest room and children's room. The master bedroom has, plus the nice walk-in closet, a built-in closet for Pat's hats and jewelry.

Parmer County Man Reports—

Increased wheat yield 24 bushels per acre

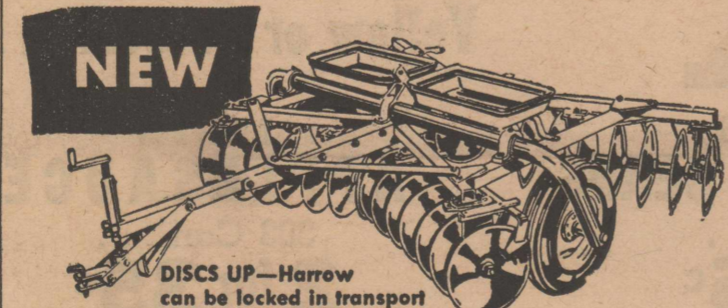

Leon Billingsley, successful High Plains farmer, says: "I applied 100 pounds per acre of Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia pre-plant to my irrigated wheat and increased my yield from 18 bushels to 42 bushels per acre. I figure my net profit increase to be around $40 per acre."

Other successful Southwestern farmers use Phillips 66 ammonia to give them higher grain yields... and more profitable grazing. The 82% nitrogen in Phillips 66 Agricultural Ammonia gives young wheat a fast start, supplies plenty of lush, protein-rich forage that puts on more beef at less cost per pound.

Many of these farmers plow down Phillips 66 ammonia in the fall on maize land. They know that the 82% nitrogen helps decompose crop residue, to provide extra plant food and make the soil more productive. Remember, Phillips 66 ammonia gives you more nitrogen per dollar than any other form of fertilizer—a full 82%.

Bearden Improving; Home After Attack

Bill Bearden, who suffered a severe heart attack three weeks ago, is home, and according to his wife, "doing fine".

Bearden was returned to his home from the Lubbock Methodist Hospital, where he had been under treatment.

Mrs. Bearden said her husband is "feeling pretty good" and is able to walk to the table and to the bathroom.

Sides Is Winner For First Week Football Contest

G. T. Sides is winner of the first week competition in the Enterprise Football Contest.

Sides, tied with three others in total numbers of wins, won out by uncanny foresight in predicting the scores on two of the three "tie breakers" games.

Guessing the same number of wins, 11, with Sides were Wayne Hair of Olton and Bill Shelby and Alton L. Goodin of Hart.

Sides' winning score guesses were: Littlefield 38, Olton 8, and Lakeview 14, Hart 6. He missed the Springlake-New Deal game, having given New Deal a 24-14 nod.

Hair was very close, picking Littlefield to win 28-6, and Lakeview 6-0 over Hart.

Littlefield defeated Olton 42-6 and Lakeview won over Hart 20-6. Springlake pulled an upset and defeated New Deal, 8-6.

Good Guessing

Although R. V. Alcorn, Rt. 1 Olton, missed 10 winners, he must still be recognized for the fact that he forecast the exact Hart-Springlake score, and said Littlefield would win by a score of 40-6—only two points off.

Only one of the contestants indicated he didn't believe Olton would score Friday night. And, not one of the entries were marked for a Texas Tech win over Texas A&M win. Tech did, however, 15-14.

For winning the weekly judging, Sides will receive a check for $4, Hair will receive $2 and Shelby $1.

But the contest isn't over yet. Not by a long shot! All entries will be recorded for the number of wins and losses, and the contestant with the most number of winners at the end of the contest will receive two FREE tickets to the New Year's Eve Cotton Bowl game, reservations for two nights at the Statler-Hilton Hotel (at $31 per night), plus $50 expense money.

You don't have to be a weekly winner to win the Grand Prize, just a regular contestant.

Mrs. Jeri Smart, Cheryl Kay, Kenneth and Howie, visited Sunday in the home of the Russell McAnallys. The Smart's live in Morton.

Wildcats Dump Mustangs, 42 - 6

Littlefield's Wildcats proved Friday night that their 14-8 decision over Plainview a week earlier was no fluke by putting its scoring machine into action and racking up 42 points against Olton's 6.

Through the first 15 minutes of play, Olton showed strong, aggressive defensive determination. Though the Mustangs tied the score, 6-6, with 8:59 minutes remaining to be played in the second quarter, their offense was dogged by Wildcat defenders.

Senior halfback Royce Bodkin scored Olton's solo tally. The tall, 145-pounder broke over right guard standing up to tie the game. It was Bodkin's second trip into scoreland this season. He took a pass from John Wayne Hair in the season opener against Petersburg for his first tally.

Started On 45

Olton's touchdown drive commenced on the Wildcat 45 yard line. Littlefield was forced to punt on the first play of the second quarter—after two consecutive plays cost the 22 yards—and Bodkin took the punt on his own 46, returning it to the Littlefield 45.

A pass from fullback Arno Hall to end L. H. McAdams netted 30 yards and a first-and-10 on the Littlefield 15 sparked the TD drive. Then Hall tossed an incomplete aerial, only to follow up with a nine-yard advance pass to halfback Rande Buchenau. Quarterback Robert Priest made a yard for the first down; J. Hair carried to the two around his right end, and Bodkin went the rest of the way next.

Then the roof caved in. Littlefield scored two times before the half could end, within 1:58 seconds. Olton's team had its hands on the ball only once between the two scores, too.

The Wildcats took the kickoff after Olton scored and marched all the way from their own 37 for the first TD.

Olton lost three yards on the three plays after taking the kickoff, punted to Littlefield's 45 only to have it returned to the Mustang 29-yard line, and two plays later Littlefield had another score.

Lost Yardage

The Mustangs ran 10 plays from scrimmage the first quarter and netted a minus 15 yards in the process. Littlefield, on the other hand, advanced 74 yards during the same amount of time.

Olton had a net minus five yards rushing during the entire first half, but with passing combined, they gained a total of 54 yards before halftime.

In the third stanza, Olton gained a net nine yards on the ground, while a Wildcat rushing spree gained them 134 yards by the same route.

After their entire battle was over, Littlefield netted more than 10 times as many yards on the ground than did the Mustangs. The Wildcats ran for 365 yards, while Olton emerged with 36.

In passing, however, Olton was first, completing seven of 19 attempts for 65 yards. Littlefield passers hit six of 11 for 44.

Penalties were very close—Littlefield five for 45 yards and Olton four for 40.

Koller Scores Most

Littlefield second string halfback Jerry Koller proved his worth by scoring three times for the Wildcats. He scored on runs of 15, 22 and 31 yards.

Other Wildcat scoring was accomplished by a pass from quarterback Bill Jefferies to Hilton Hemphill for three yards; Jefferies running around his left end for 24; Pressley on a 25-yard sprint; and extra points by Pressley passing to Ray Mynard and Hemphill and then running for one himself.

Aerial Bombardment Pounds Hart To Loss

Playing their best game of the season, the Hart Longhorns, fell before an aerial bombardment by the Lakeview Eagles, 20-8.

The Longhorns allowed their opponents only 32 yards rushing, but permitted them to complete six of 14 passes thrown. The fate was that two of the passes were for touchdowns, with the third setting up the last score.

Hart's hard-running halfback J. D. Myrick scored the first TD of the season. Myrick, a junior, weighs only 118 pounds. It was his shifty running and pass catching that carried the ball to Hart's 12, before he hit a quick opener in the middle of the line and darted the distance remaining for the TD. Extra points try was good.

The Longhorns were on another drive with the ball on the eight-yard line when the game ended.

Seeing action for the Longhorns were: Donald Clark, Ronald Clark, Eufemio Rubalcaba, Joe Webb, Jimmy Sharp, Thomas Holster, Nick Zapata, Gene Varner, Ralph Myrick, Myrick, Armando Gonzales, Connard Riddles, Gene Johnson, Larry Lee, Bob Bowden, John Smith, and Jerry Kittrell.

Glen Rainer, brother of Tommy Rainer and a son-in-law of Green Henderson's, did some fast thinking last week and saved the life of a man.

Glen was driving an oil transport truck on Highway 80, near Abilene, when he noticed a man crossing the highway, leaving a trail of blood.

Rainer stopped and with his handkerchief, fashioned a tourniquet for the man's arm, where he had been deeply cut.

Then he rushed the man to the hospital. Thomas Cross, the injured man, was under his car doing a repair job when the auto rolled back on him.

Attending physicians said Cross would have bled to death had Rainer not stopped and helped him.

Danny Cade Has Top Gilt Shown In 4-H Meeting

Danny Cade shared top honors in the annual Sears 4-H Club Swine Show in Lubbock Saturday. The 11-year-old Olton 4-H member showed the top gilt in the livestock judging pavilion at Texas Tech. He was in competition with the top champion pigs from 12 area counties.

Danny shared top honors with Bert Green, 16, of Roaring Springs, who showed the top boar. Stanley Anderson of the animal husbandry department of Tech, who judged the show, said the top gilts and boars were of "particularly good" quality.

Danny's entry was selected over competition from, in order of placings: Glen Burgett, Shallowater; Tim McCullough, Seminole; Glen Herzog, Wilson; James Aten, Lamesa; Durwood Aaron, Sudan; Johnny Albus, Pep; Loyd Hancock, Abernathy; John Herron, Brownfield; and Dale Cornett, Gail.

Then there is the cartoon, depicting the typical mother at the end of a hard day—toys strewn everywhere; dishes stacked on the cabinet; children screaming, playing Indians and cowboys, and pulling on Mother; Mother looking exhausted with hair flying and eyes drooping—when Daddy comes home from work and remarks: "What's the matter with you these days? You used to be such fun!"

Delane Adams gave to her "Around the World" story. (It is so long and, yet every bit so interesting, that we are beginning a continued story of her one long story this week!)

So read it—and, you, too, will feel like you have traveled the world.

Delane is a journalism major herself and one couldn't wish for more vivid description. (And doesn't it make you WANT to see the world for yourself?)

Was ill last week and when The Enterprise arrived Friday, I was eagerly reading every word!

Missed Korkye's "Ironing Things Out" . . . are you as interested in the columns and personal writings as I am? Feel like the columns make the news stories more interesting and less monotonous.

(And didn't Bob Hamilton do a nice job on news and pictures, last week?)

Liz Taylor IS beautiful but is she smart? Indeed not!

Anyone who will date a married man, and when it hits the papers and causes trouble between the married man, namely Eddie Fisher, and his wife, Debbie Reynolds, exclaim, "I can't figure out why all the commotion over just a few dates!" ; certainly isn't smart in my opinion!

And she lost her beauty a long time ago from the way she acted before all this fuss. Remember the saying, "Pretty is, as pretty does", holds true. Why some of the "homely-est" looking people become "beautiful" after you know them with their sweet ways and captivating personalities.

Remember, Liz, you cannot conquer the world on looks alone— "actions speak louder than words!"

The buyers of stocks may have overlooked a sleeper. One of the leading manufacturers of snuff, of all things, reports sales up with a 40.6 percent in earnings for the last quarter.

(Could be because some nursery men recommend a snuff-and-water mixture to spray on evergreens to keep insects away! Anyway, that's what the man told Husband and I when we purchased our two little globe evergreens! Works, too.)

Surely folks aren't going back to dipping and sniffing snuff!!

We women can't be the flirts we're cracked up to be. A recent survey reveals that only one woman in 10 knows how to wink, only one in 25 can wink with the right eye.

TWO CAN PLAY GAME

Parmer County's first picket line left Editor Dolph Moten of The State Line (Farwell) Tribune with an "interesting" memory.

Moten got the picture of an "un-identified member of the Teamsters Union", and tried "to talk with the big man in the big car who was regarded by the strikers as 'The Boss'."

"He never did tell me a direct answer to a question . . . He wanted to know what this newspaper's attitude was toward organized labor and whether or not I was for or against organized labor."

"Somewhere along the line, The Boss hadn't learned that newspaper people try hard to keep from taking sides when writing a news story.

"AT LEAST, we got the impression that he had very little confidence in our ability to tell his side of the story . . . we dang sure couldn't tell his story if we didn't know what it was.

"He had an air of importance and formality about him when he was talking to us. He told us that even if we wrote the story right, our editor might not print it that way. And since he was used to metropolitan editors who probably are important, we allowed ourselves the privilege of telling him who the editor of The Tribune is.

"It wasn't a smart thing to do, but at the time, it seemed as though there might as well be two of us playing that important-feeling game."
(PS. Dolph was with The Enterprise as editor for while last spring.)

Startling Statistic: If you're an average person, you drink 189 bottles of soft drinks a year. Volume has jumped 130 percent since World War II and last year 2½ cents of each food dollar was spent for soft drinks. (Figure a Coke a day—averages 350 a year!)
