Cotton Bale Total Rises To 15,013 Here

GRAIN SORGHUM HARVEST IS ALMOST COMPLETED

Grain Sorghum harvest is all but completed in the Olton area and cotton is estimated to be approximately 20 to 25 per cent picked.

A survey of elevators and gins this morning revealed the information.

Cotton bales weighed in by 10 AM today totaled 15,013 in the area. The figure is almost seven times that of the same time last year, when only 2,773 bales were reported on Oct. 31.

The 1956 figure for the same time of the month, however, remains aloft. A survey at that time showed 23,395 bales weighed in during the last week of October.

It was during the last week of October in 1957 that the first hard freeze hit the area, and estimations of damage to un-opened bolls ranged between 20 and 25 per cent.

Grain sorghums at this time last year was estimated 80 per cent harvested.

Cotton seed went into government loan Wednesday, gin operators reported. Price per ton until the loan was $36. Loan price, for the first week, is $43.50. Prices will be disclosed to gins every Monday, and will be good for that week.

Grades of cotton in the area have continued to maintain unusually high, operators report. Grades were received this morning from Oct. 21 bales.

The reports showed an average of about 80 percent white and about one inch staple.

Though only a few strippers have been put into action thus far, a full-scale movement into the fields is expected within the next week when the larger majority of the bolls are opened.

Louis Hair Named Week's Football Contest Winner

For the first time this season, Louis Hair of Olton won The Enterprise weekly football contest. Hair nosed out Flake Price, Hart, by selecting all three winners in the "tie breakers" section. Price missed the Hale Center-Idalou winner.

Bill Shelby, constant placer each week from Hart, won out over four other entrants after being tied, 11-7 all. Shelby was tied with W. G. Finney, Olton, Bobby Copeland, Eldon Franks, Olton, and Howard Hall, Olton.

The judging between Shelby and Finney was the closest of any tie so far this year. Finney was closer on the point spread than Shelby on the Phillips-Littlefield game. Shelby held the edge on the Olton-Morton game. Both were 10 points off the correct point spread of the Hale Center-Idalou contest. Both, too, were far closer than was Franks in the spread.

Shelby, however, had the closest total points in the spread, and was declared winner. Leading the total number of correct guesses for the season is Shelby, with a 76-31 record. Flake Price and Howard Hall are following closely, each with 74 correct and 33 incorrect.

G. T. Sides is next in the running with a 73-34 slate. Wayne Hair follows Sides, 70-37, followed by Finney, with a 67-23 record.

Olton Youths Aid CROP Drive Here

Olton church youth collected $167.22 Sunday night for Christian Rural Overseas Program.

It was an inter-church undertaking. Sonny Bryant, president of the Methodist Youth Fellowship, said the door to door canvass was made in about an hour following worship service.

The money will be used to purchase food for underprivileged overseas children. Young Bryant said a penny contributed here will supply about two pounds of food for overseas relief.

Construction To Begin On Schools

Construction is scheduled to begin next week on a half-million dollar improvement to Olton's existing school plant.

School Supt. Joe Harper said remaining old buildings are being moved out and leveling will start immediately.

S. R. Duncan and Associates of Lubbock have been awarded the contract to build the new school buildings. That firm's bid was $488,422.

Estimated time of construction is 315 days. The new buildings should be delivered to the school system some time late next year.

Former Mustang Honored at ENMU

Former Mustang football standout Bob Price was singled out as "Greyhound of the Week" last Saturday for his efforts in the Eastern New Mexico University 13-7 win over Austin College.

Price, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Price of Olton, is a senior fullback at ENMU. This was the second time this season he has received the honor.

Newsmen covering the game make the selection.

On the offensive side of the ledger, Price was unstoppable. The 190-pound fullback bulldozed for 81 yards in 15 carries to maintain a five-yard average per play for the year. He scored the Eastern TD with a three-yard jolt and was instrumental in setting up the winning score as he reeled off 23 yards during the final 55-yard drive.

Backfield coach B. B. Lees credited Price with a big assist on the winning pass play. "Our quarterback (Terry Miller) gave Price a good ride, hid the ball well, and pitched a perfect strike to Ben White, but the fake kept the defense on the line of scrimmage and allowed White and Miller time to set up."

Agricultural Expert Speaks At Meeting

Dr. Arthur M. Smith was principal speaker at a breakfast of local farmers at the Ideal Cafe Tuesday morning.

Dr. Smith is agricultural director of Olin Mathieson Chemical Corporation. The meeting was sponsored by Olton Farm Supply and was attended by some 14 farmers.

He also was guest speaker at the weekly Lions Club meeting that day.

LOCKNEY-OLTON CLASH FRIDAY; MUSTANGS PLAY UNDERDOG ROLE

Olton still can have a District 2-AA championship team. Tomorrow night, the Mustangs will be giant hunters. They will play the surprising Lockney Longhorns here, starting at 8 PM.

The game is a must for Olton. To stay alive in the title race, Coach Joe Turner's charges must win the last two games—and all the while hope either Abernathy, Morton or Lockney can put the Mules of Muleshoe under.

At the present, Lockney and Muleshoe hold the edge on district foes, having won their first and only conference outings. Olton and Abernathy have each lost one, while Morton has been eliminated with two defeats.

Lockney upset Abernathy last Friday 22-12. All district mentors had Abernathy pegged to take the crown in a walk away.

The win over the Antelopes, however, was not too much a shock, considering the fact that Lockney has 13 returning letter-men, including two who made all-district.

Longhorn Big Gun Bill Race, 1957 all-district fullback, was selected by the Avalanche-Journal as "Back of the Week" for his role in the Antelope kill. He scored on runs from the five, seven and 15 yard lines, ran over a two-point conversion and passed for the other two points after touchdown.

Race's running partner, Bryon Block, was an all-district guard last season. There are five backs and eight linemen returning from the 1957 edition that chalked up 11 wins against one defeat while taking the district championship.

The Longhorns are under tutelage this season, since Rudy Halle resigned his post for a larger school position last spring.

Taking Halle's place is a former Olton Mustang football great, Elvin Lyon. Old-time Oltonites will remember Lyon as a standout player on the never-to-be-forgotten championship team of the late 1930's.

Win Over Morton Sophomore halfback Rande Buchenau led the Mustang scoring attack Friday night against the new-comer to District 2-AA, Morton. Buchenau racked up 18 big tallies in the 42-14 trouncing.

The Mustangs completely overwhelmed Morton, both offensively and defensively. The Indians were able to score only in the last five minutes of play.

Olton racked up an amazing 319 net yards rushing from the line of scrimmage—while Morton was allowed a mighty small two yards net rushing. Olton had 19 first downs to Morton's 11.

The Indians, using an SMU spread passing formation, completed 18 of 29 attempted aerials to gain 178 yards. Olton completed three passes of eight attempts for 31 yards, and had two intercepted.

Olton Defense Powerful So powerful was the Mustang defense, the Indians were able to gain only 11 net yards rushing in the first quarter, lost four yards in the second, gained one in the third, and lost six in the fourth. Only one first down was gained by running.

Arno Hall, who was ill most of the previous week with flu, opened the game's scoring with a three-yard break through early in the opening quarter. Royce Bodkin put the Mustangs ahead 12-0 in the same frame on one of his typical 59-yard jaunts. Coy Carlisle added two points, and the first quarter ended, 14-0.

Buchenau scored three consecutive touchdowns, each in separate quarters. In the second stanza he broke over right guard for one; went for 10 in the third frame after being sprung clear by a key block from Carlisle; and, on the fifth play of the final period, scampered 25 yards on a reverse. Halfback John Wayne Hair followed the play with a two-pointer, and Olton led, 34-0.

The final Mustang touchdown was made by a guard. Converted quarterback Robert Priest broke through the Indian line to block a punt attempt, picked up the free-rolling ball on the Morton 20 yard line and scampered, untouched, the distance. Carlisle added the two-point conversion for a 42-0 Mustang lead.

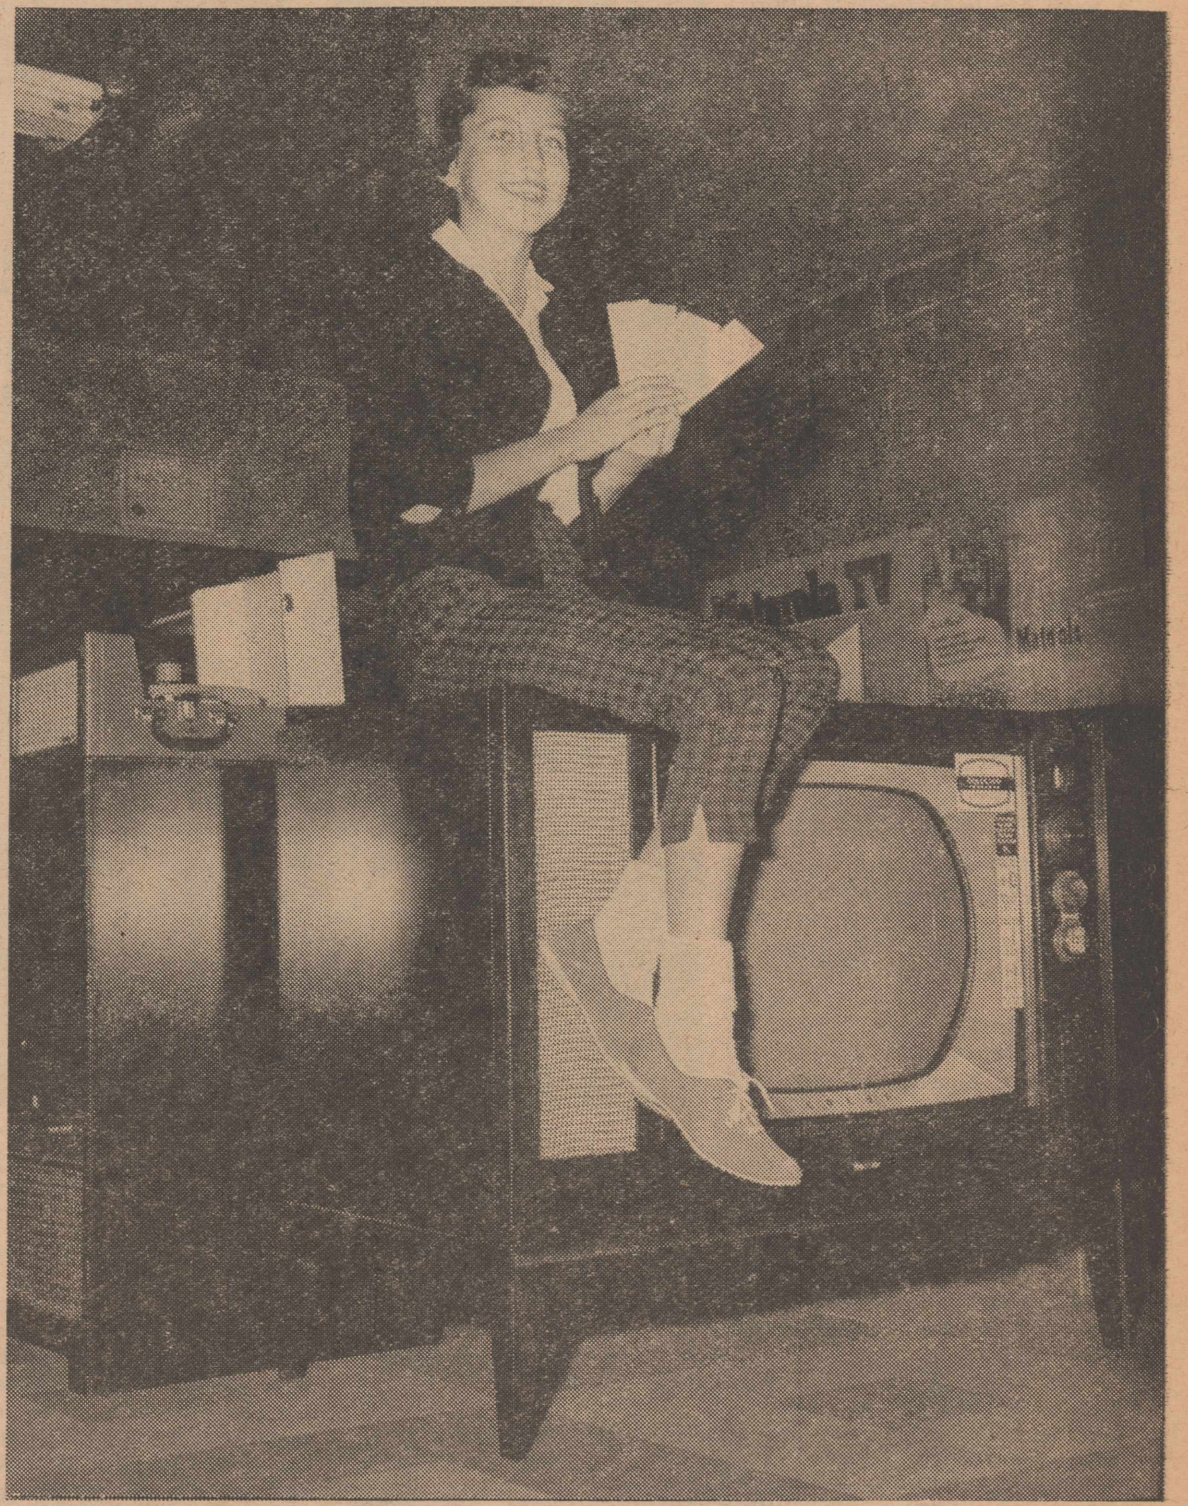

Morton's first tally came with 5:49 minutes remaining to play, on a pass play which covered 33 yards. The second Indian touchdown was made after the scoreboard clock showed no time remaining and also after several fans were cleared off the field.

Morton had advanced to the Olton three-yard line in two plays after intercepting a pass on the Mustang 48.

The touchdown play used up the remaining two seconds of time, and the two points after touchdown were actually made after regulation time, as allowed by playing regulations.

Buchenau was given recognition by the Avalanche-Journal sports staff for his efforts in the game, as one of the outstanding area backs of the week.

A PRETTY REMINDER

"Only one more week!", warns pretty Phyllis Hair. The charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hair is reminding everyone there is only one week left to purchase a ticket for an RCA color television set. The set, on which she is sitting, will be given away at halftime of the Olton-Abernathy football game. Tickets may be obtained for $1 from any member of the Mustang Club, or at the high school. Highway 70 Expansion Problem At Stalemate

UNITED FUND DRIVE KICK OFF SCHEDULED IN OLTON NOV. 10

United Fund Drive will begin the morning of Nov. 10 with a kick-off breakfast at Ideal Cafe. This announcement came this week from Clovis Poteet, Olton chairman. County chairman is G. T. Sides of Olton.

Mr. Poteet said Olton's quota for the drive is about $4,500. It is a joint undertaking with the remainder of the county. Organizations which will receive money from the United Fund include the Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and the Salvation Army.

Needs 45 Workers Mr. Poteet says he hopes to have about 45 volunteer workers in the field Nov. 10, bringing a speedy wind-up to the solicitations.

Owen Norfleet is in charge of advance gifts. Ralph Schilling of Littlefield is chairman of the county UF board. Mr. Schilling is superintendent of Littlefield schools.

Directors from Olton include Mr. Poteet and Mr. Sides and Fred Hicks and Mr. Norfleet. In the Hart Camp community Blanton Martin is chairman and is assisted by J. F. Moore.

Meeting Of Businessmen Discloses Complaints Of Property Owners

Decision is about the best comment that can be made about the mass meeting held Tuesday night for discussion of a proposed project to widen Highway 70 through Olton. Attending the meeting, which was held in Legion Hall, were Olton Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture board members, the city council and people who own property along the highway.

Ralph Glover, Basil Sherman and Marshall Campbell met last week with State Highway Department officials to talk about the project. Glover and Sherman are on the OCCA highway committee and Campbell is a member of the city council.

O. L. Crain, division highway engineer in Lubbock, told the men that money is available for widening the highway and the project will be carried out if property owners there are willing to move some of the objects blocking the expansion.

Owners Must Provide Property owners along the highway also must provide the state with necessary right-of-way and pay for curbing and guttering along their property frontage.

State highways passing through towns must have 100 feet of right-of-way and must be curbed and guttered. The distance from curb to curb must be 80 feet, with 10 feet on either side for sidewalks and utility lines.

The state insists upon dividing islands in the center of the highway. Balking the improvement at the present time is the fact that the several businesses along the highway will be seriously affected.

Dept. Survey Revealed Most of the businesses to be affected are service stations. According to a survey made by the Highway Dept., most of the moving must take place at the McGowan Service Station, Edwards Service Station and G. H. Bley Service Station.

Others heavily affected will be Roberson-Givens Texaco Station and Hi-Way Service Station. Southwestern Public Service Company and General Telephone Company must move all their lines.

Almost all of the other businesses will be affected little according to the Highway Dept. survey, Crain said.

H. G. Walker of Hi-Way Service Station pointed out that his firm will be left with only one set of pumps if he surrenders required right-of-way.

He suggested that the highway be paved without help from the state, kept at its present width and kept without dividing islands in the center.

Doubt was expressed by others present that the state would allow such a maneuver.

There also was a suggestion that the city pass ordinances designed to prevent other buildings from being erected so near the highway as to require their removal should the highway be widened in the future.

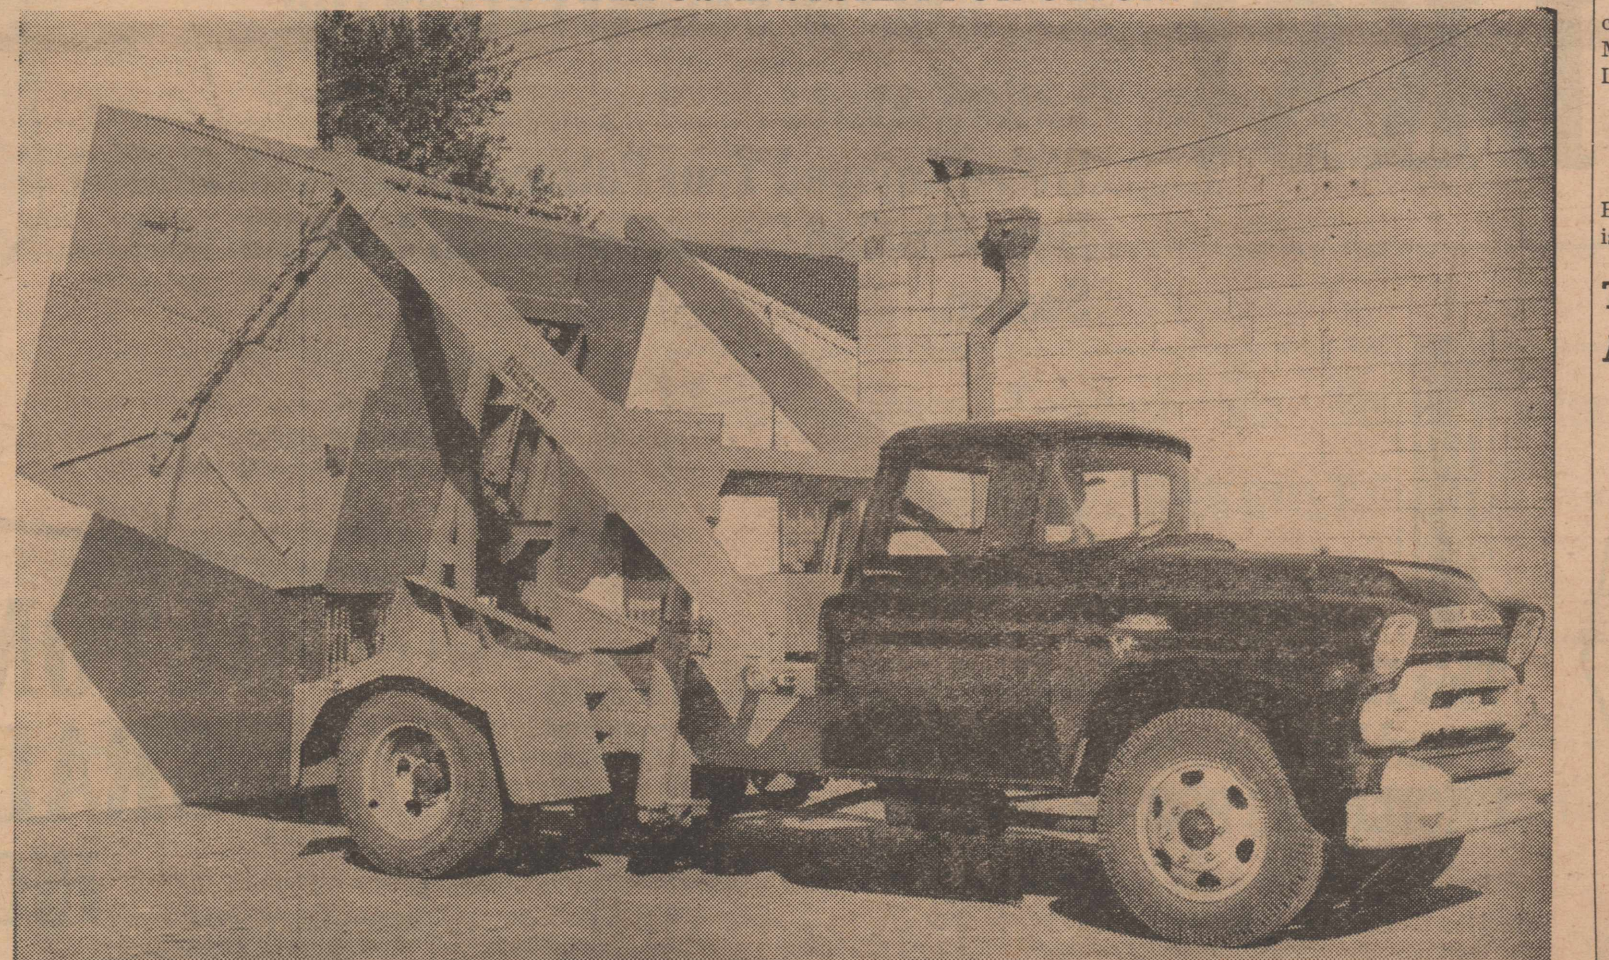

There was also discussion of a possible city bond issue for payment of damages to those whose business buildings would be seriously affected by the present proposal for widening the road. This met with scant approval from the floor.

Chamber of Commerce President Don Williams adjourned the meeting after two hours of discussion ended in a stalemate.

Some of the property owners along the highway appear eager to get on with the improvement project. Others seem to want a period of watchful waiting.

Engineer Crain had warned Olton's delegation that the highway may one day by-pass the town completely. Few at the Tuesday night meeting felt that this would be done within the next few years.

A TRASH DISPOSAL SYSTEM FOR OLTON?

The trash disposal unit shown above might possibly be obtained for Olton in the near future. It is the Dempster Dumpster, installed in Littlefield last week. The unit shown above is the type placed in downtown business areas and services several stores at the same time. Another unit can be carried by the truck to service residential areas. A tentative date, Dec. 4, has been set for a joint meeting of delegates from the city government, Chamber of Commerce, civic organizations and flower clubs to discuss the Dempster system possibly for Olton. Area representative for Dempster Dumpster, Sid Patterson, will be here to further explain the unit operation and costs. (PHOTO COURTESY OF LAMB COUNTY LEADER)

"WHAT CLASS IS NEXT?"

Saunter With Sue
BY SUE MAY

Arthur Edson, Associated Press Newsfeature writer, wrote a swell article in Friday's paper. It was entitled, Political Scurrying Came Late.

It was too good to let go by; so in case you didn't read it, do.

"Here are President Eisenhower and former President Truman, scurrying about like bird dogs during quail season. And, although politicians love to quote the founding fathers as gospel, no one mentions this fact:

"The men, who set up this government would have been horrified by such behavior."

"WATCHING EISENHOWER speak from Chicago, reading about Truman in Wilmington and points east, you may get the idea this type of pleading for votes has gone on forever.

"Yet this country has been in business for almost a half century, and has had seven presidents, before anyone campaigned openly for the job.

"In 1836, William Henry Harrison broke the precedent. He took a tour from New York to Illinois, making speeches and leaving the impression that he was willing.

"But presidential politicking didn't immediately become accepted practice.

"MANY OF A CANDIDATE still thought it was smarter to keep quiet. Lincoln, for instance, made no campaign speeches, either in 1860 or 1864.

"Not until modern times did a president concede that a man doesn't stop being a politician the moment he moves into the White House. Not too surprisingly, Theodore Roosevelt was the first to churn out political statements.

"Yet some of the old feeling lingers. To this day, we hear of this or that political comment being beneath the dignity of a president or a former president.

"AND THIS MAN who seeks the office must be careful not to appear too eager. We still seem to have a vague belief that there's merit in the words of William Lawndes who said when nominated for the presidency by South Carolina in 1821:

"The presidency is not an office to be either solicited or declined."

"Yet even when he said it, it had little historical truth.

"HISTORIANS APPEAR agreed that only George Washington ever got the job without making a move in his own behalf, carrying out the belief of many of the founders that this could be a nation without factions—that is, parties.

"The others may not have lifted a finger publicly, but they managed to sneak in a few rabbit punches behind the scenes. Jefferson, for example, kept up a continuous correspondence.

"John Quincy Adams, who kept a diary, gives the best view of how a President was supposed to behave publicly.

"IN JUNE, 1827, he wrote:

"Dr. Watkins showed me a letter from R. Peters, Jr., of Philadelphia, urgently recommending that I would attend the meeting for the celebration of the opening of the Pennsylvania Canal, so as to show myself among the German farmers and speak to them in their own language.

"I told Watkins I was highly obliged to my friends for their good purposes, but that this mode of electioneering suited neither my taste nor my principles. I thought it equally unsuitable to my personal character and to the situation in which I am placed."

"Although the presidency was to remain a special case, political campaigning was to become more open and more industrious.

"BY 1840 ADAMS was writing: "One of the most remarkable peculiarities of the present time is that the principal leaders of the political parties are traveling about the country from state to state, and holding forth, like Methodist preachers, hour after hour . . .

"Besides the prime leaders of the parties, numerous subaltern officers of the administration are summoned to the same service, and instead of attending to the duties of their office, rave, recite, and madden round the land."

"And they've been raving, reciting, and maddening round the land ever since."

Perhaps, you, like me, had thought office campaigning, mudslinging by candidates, pleading for votes, had always been with us.

Golfing Rules Are Listed

SECTION VII
THE BALL—OCURENCES IN PLAY

Rule 21—Playing Wrong Ball
The responsibility for playing his own ball rests with the player. Each player should put an identification mark on his ball.

General: Hoing Out Original Ball—A player must hole out with the ball driven from the tee unless it be lost, unplayable, out of bounds, in a water hazard, unfit for play, or when under the rules a ball may be substituted. In any such case the player may substitute another ball as provided for in the Rules.

Match Play—If a player play stroke with any wrong ball except in a hazard, he shall lose the hole. There is no penalty for a player playing a stroke or strokes with a wrong ball in a hazard provided he then play his own ball; the strokes so played with a wrong ball do not count in the player's score.

Note: When the player and the opponent exchange balls, the first to play the wrong ball shall lose the hole; when this cannot be determined, the hole shall be played out with the balls exchanged.

Stroke Play—If a competitor play a stroke or strokes with any wrong ball except in a hazard, he shall add two penalty strokes to his score for the hole and shall then play his own ball. Strokes played with a wrong ball are not included in the score for the hole. There is no penalty for a competitor playing a stroke or strokes with a wrong ball provided he then play his own ball.

If a competitor discover that he has holed out with a wrong ball, he may rectify his mistake by finding and holeing out with his own ball, subject to the above penalty, provided he has not made a stroke on the next teeing ground, or, in the case of the last hole of the round, left the putting green.

The competitor is disqualified if he does not rectify his mistake by finding his own ball, or, if it be lost, by putting a in play.

Rule 22—Dropping and Placing
How To Drop A Ball—A ball shall be dropped in the following manner: The player himself shall drop it. He shall face the hole, stand erect, and drop the ball behind him over his shoulder. If the ball touch the player, or if it come to rest against the player and move when he then moves, there is no penalty, and the ball shall not be re-dropped except as provided below.

If the ball be dropped in any manner other than described above, the player is penalized one stroke.

Ball In Play When Dropped—A ball is in play when dropped and shall not be re-dropped except as provided below:

If the ball roll into a hazard or out of bounds, the player may re-drop it without penalty. If it be impossible, owing to the configuration of the ground, to prevent the ball from rolling into a hazard or out of bounds, it may be placed.

If the ball come to rest nearer the hole, it shall be re-dropped without penalty. If it be impossible, owing to the configuration of the ground, to prevent the ball from rolling nearer the hole, it may be placed, without penalty.

Dropping Ball In Hazard—A ball lifted in a hazard must be dropped and come to rest in that hazard unless otherwise provided for in the Rules. If the ball roll out of the hazard or come to rest nearer the hole, it shall be re-dropped without penalty or placed as provided for in Clause two of this Rules.

Note: The player incurs the penalty for improper dropping under Clause 1 of this Rule even if he has to proceed under Clause 2 and Clause 3.

Ball In Play When Placed—A ball is in play when placed and shall not be replaced. If it fail to come to rest on the spot on which it was placed, it must be replaced there, without penalty.

When Dropped, When Placed—When a ball is lifted under a Rule or Local Rule, if it is to be played through the green or a hazard, it shall be dropped as near as possible to the spot where it lay, except when a Rule permits it to be dropped elsewhere or placed; if it is to be played on the putting green of the hole being played, it shall be placed on the spot from which it was lifted, except when a Rule permits it to be placed elsewhere.

Books On Parade

By Mardema Ogletree
 Sand In My Castle by Shirley Eelden, Longmans, $2.75.
 This new novel for teen-age girls should interest the young moderns who are eager to try their own wings.
 For it is the story of Judith

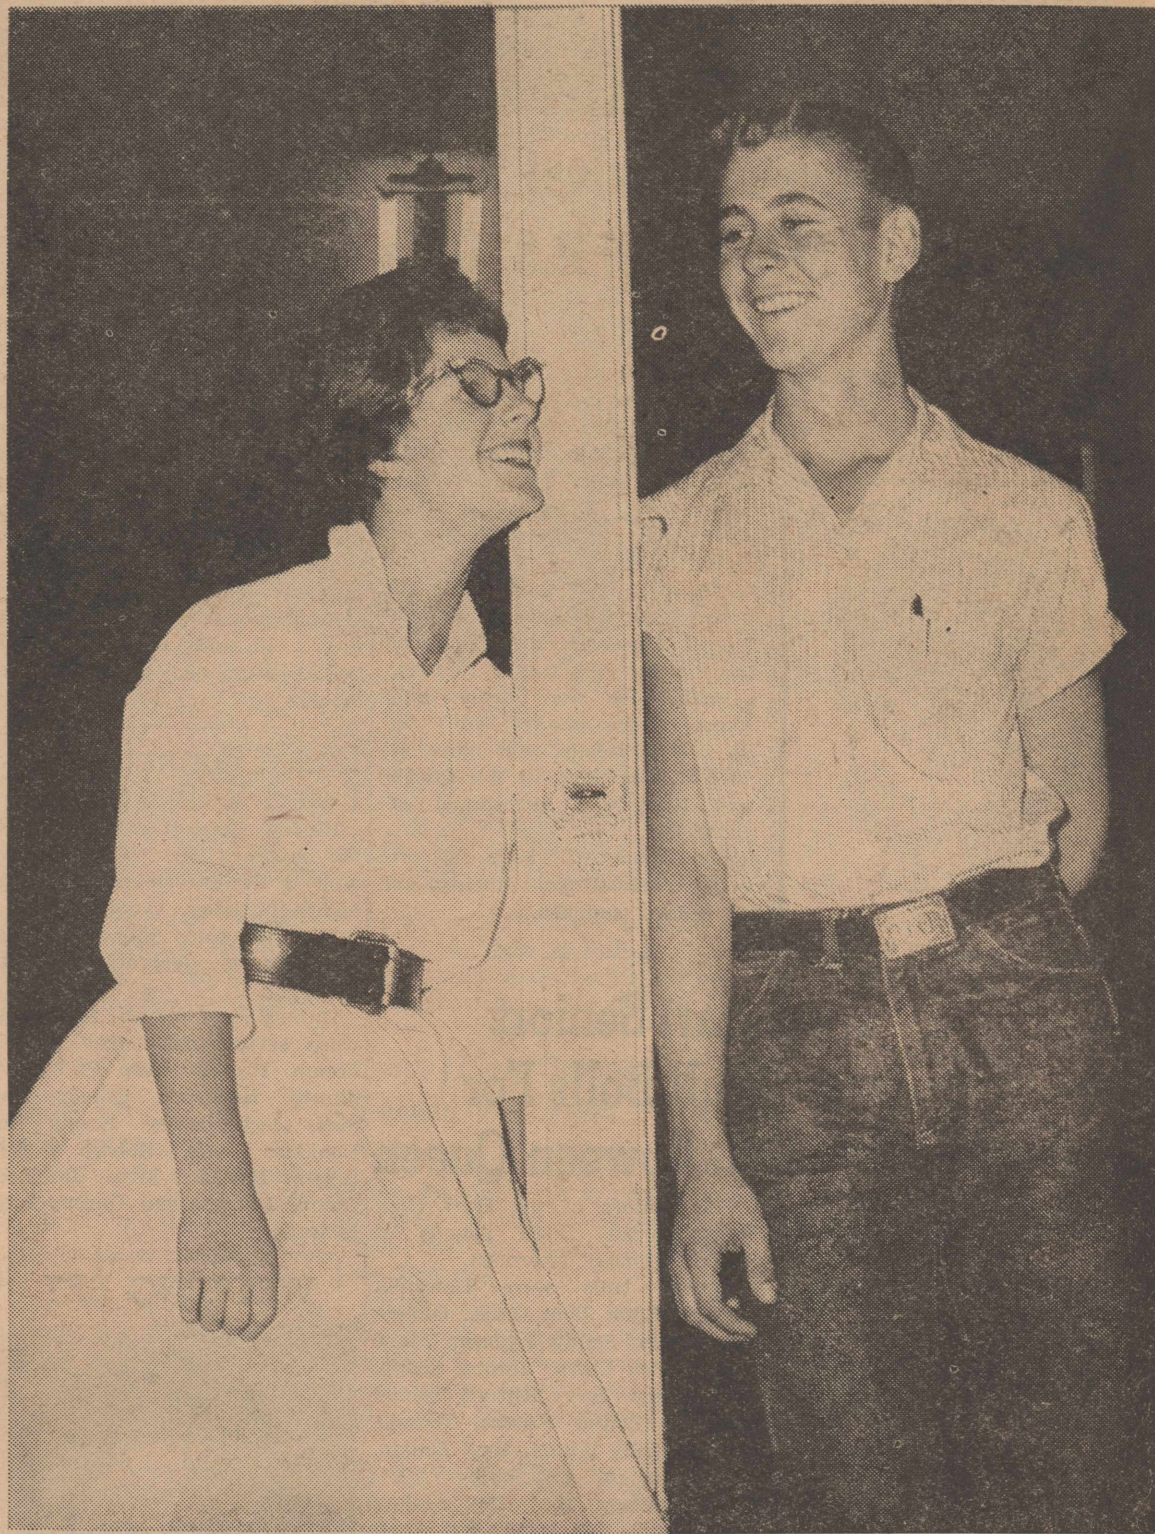

Burritt, of her last year in high school, and of her growing independence.
 Judith and an older girl friend open up a gift shop in a quaint old house on Cape Cod. Her interest and also her excellence in photography enhance the success of the shop.
 And of course there are boys who are both helpful and entertaining.

During the last part of the tourist season Judith and her partner, Ellie, serve special Pot Luck suppers featuring Cape Cod foods to an enthusiastic public.
 And the author gives us their recipes, and some of them, I want to try. The one for banana bread reminds me of my trip back East, summer before last, when I ate banana bread at restaurants in Connecticut and Massachusetts.
 I would love to give you the recipe, but this book is one of those that say on the fly leaf, "All rights reserved, including the right to reproduce this book or any portion thereof, in any form."
 Maybe authors and publishers do need to protect their little brain children from kidnapers, but I think it is selfish not to relinquish any little quotes at all.

 I know about one book that has a wonderful and timely message, but because it is dramatized annually at Berea, Ky., the playwright has even reserved review rights. I think a wide reading of it among prejudiced people would help alleviate a lot of painful misunderstanding.
 It is Wilderness Road by Paul Green.

 Many Windows, Seasons Of The Heart, by Faith Baldwin, Rinehart, $3.50.
 "The house of life has many windows," are the words of an old Chinese philosopher.
 And from these windows the author looks long at the seasons, its joys, its sorrows.

December which she says is a symbol of beginning—of giving, of loving. Each month produces a mood and an increasing awareness of the beauty of the seasons.
 Of November and the spirit of thankfulness, she writes, "Most of us forget to take time for wonder, praise, and gratitude until it is almost too late."
 "No storm in nature lasts forever, nor does the storm in the life of the individual," she says. The author advises us not to look back too much and not to criticize ourselves unmercifully nor excuse ourselves for our sins of commission or omission. But we should admit our mistakes, be sorry for them, and move forward.
 "Everything moves forward—seasons, time, people. Nothing truly living is static, and to regress is to end as an abandoned infant, in instability."

This & That

BY MYRT LOMAN

How did we spend the evenings before we had radio and TV? It has been so long ago I can't remember.

I know when we first moved to Hart (and the Newsom Grocery store was where Ed Harris now has the lumber yard) we used to have some good games of "42". Jesse and I usually got beat, but it was a lot of fun!
Then came along bridge, canasta and now TV. It seems as if friends are not as close as they once were. I know we hardly ever visit now, compared to a few years back.

Speaking of TV, I wonder how old some of the shows are that we see now?

Some of the shows are disgusting (and if the shows are censored how do they get by?) AM I JUST TOO OLD TO ENJOY some of the Programs?

Mothers of some of the grade school children have been having "BAKE SALES" at different stores on weekends to raise money for a certain project.

Regardless of the project, the CAKES ARE DELICIOUS. If you have not tried one of them stop and buy next time you have the opportunity.

Takes a lot of money to run the schools as well as any other business.

To me there is only one other business more important than SCHOOL, and that is SUNDAY SCHOOL AND CHURCH. THEY TOO TAKE A HEAP O' MONEY.

The new building near the service station is to be our new CITY HALL.

We are so proud of each step of progress we make. A few months ago, had we had a fire such as the ones this past week, we would have suffered a great loss and maybe lost some lives. Through the desire for better things, we incorporated our town, and through TAXES, we bought a FIRE TRUCK, and PAVED STREETS.

Takes time and money for a CITY TO GROW. It also takes money for a CITY TO GROW. It also takes money to keep "THE HART BEATING".

Give cheerfully with one hand, and you will gather well with two.

We surely need someone to haul off the trash from our homes. We also need a place provided to dump it.

Complaints are coming because people are hauling their trash out and dumping it along country roads—then the grader comes along and pulls the broken glass up in the road. This will ruin tires on any and all vehicles.

Let's be careful where we dump our trash.

Have you ever thought of how we get our sir names?

Some of them are so odd. Read in the paper of a man named Toivo A Kukko, he was of Finnish decent.

He appeared before court to get permission to change his name to Kingston. Said, "I am tired of people calling me, "Cuckoo".

Which reminds me of my maiden name, which was Pistole, and I was more frequently called Gunn or Six-Shooter.

Some of the things we need to remember, is to buy our ticket from anyone of the Volunteer Firemen for the free TV, and stand to be given away on November 14 at the football game. The tickets are just $1.00 each and we can afford to buy more than one.

Also, don't forget the rummage sale Saturday, sponsored by the Assembly of God Church, the BAKE SALES, School Carnival November 1, and buy American

WHAT IS A FOOTBALL PLAYER?

By—Bill Shelby

Between the innocence of boyhood and the dignity of man, we find a sturdy creature called the Football player. Football players come in assorted weights, heights, jersey colors and numbers, but all have the same creed: to play every second of every game to the best of their ability.

Football players are found everywhere . . . underneath, on top of, running around, jumping over, passing by, twisting from or driving through the enemy. Team-mates rub them, officials penalize them, students cheer them, kid brothers idolize them, coaches criticize them, girls adore them, alumni tolerate them and mothers worry about them. A football player is Courage in Cleats, Hope in a helmet, Pride in pads and the best of young manhood in moleskins.

When your team is behind, a football player is incompetent, careless, indecisive, lazy, uncoordinated and stupid. Just when your team threatens to turn the tide of the battle, he misses a block, fumbles the ball, drops a pass, jumps off-side, falls down, runs the wrong way or completely forgets his assignment.

A football player is a composite he eats like Notre Dame, sleeps like Notre Dame, but doesn't play that way! To an apopnet publicity man, he has the speed of a gazelle, the strength of an ox, the size of an elephant, cunning of a fox, the agility of an adagio dancer, the quickness of a cat, the ability of Red Grange, Glen Davis, Bronko Nagurski and Jim Thorpe . . . combined.

To his own coach he has, for press purpose, the stability of much, the fleetness of a snail, the mentality of a mule, is held together by adhesive tape, bailing wire, sponge rubber and has about as much chance of playing on Friday as would his own grandfather.

To an alumnus a football player is someone who will never kick as well, run as far, block as viciously, tackle as hard, fight as fiercely give as little ground, score as many points or generate nearly as much spirit as did the particular players of his own yester-year.

A football player is a wonderful creature. You can defeat his team, but never his spirit. He is a hard working, untiring, determined, kid doing the very best he can for his school. And when you come out of the stadium, growling and feeling upset that your team has lost, he can make you feel almighty ashamed with just two sincerely spoken words . . . "we tried."

HILL STORE FIRE AFTERMATH

Repairs are shown being made on fire damages recently inflicted on the Homer Hill Store in Hart. Though the store was in business the next morning after the blaze, repairs still have not yet been completely made. The fire was caused by an exploding butane bottle in the building where the two men are working. It spewed flames onto the larger structure's walls, setting it afire. About $2,000 damages were estimated from the fire. (STAFF PHOTO)

"Amblin' Around"

By—Mrs. Joe Newman

I know Hart has some of the best cooks in the world! You have missed something if you haven't eaten a slice of Sue Dinwiddie's banana bread; of Zella Height's pecan pie; of Clarice Reed's potato cake; and Lillie Phillip's German Chocolate cake.

Some of the best dressed ladies in Hart are: Mrs. T. B. Cox, Mrs. Worth Jones, Mrs. Jim Height, Mrs. W. T. Sanders, and Mrs. Ed Harris.

They all look as if they stepped out of Harper's Bazaar.

Dean and Betty Sanders have two of the most adorable boys! They are very special little fellows to me.

Mr. Kennedy: "Johnny, what is steam?"
Johnny: "Water crazy with heat."

It's not the school, sobbed the little fellow. It's the principal of the thing . . .

Before and After:
Two lovers walking down the street; she trips; he murmurs "Careful, Sweet."
Now wed, they tread the self same street; she trips; he growls, "Pick up your feet!"

Children certainly get a thrill out of the Halloween Carnival . . . the girls all wear their lovely formals . . . the boys all look clean, polished, and quite uncomfortable in their dress clothes . . . all of the anticipation, waiting for the final moment . . . who will be King and Queen. It will be a triumphant moment, for the ones that are chosen.

The ladies are certainly working on the community birthday calendar.

If you haven't put your birthday, anniversary, etc., on the calendar, please do.

Did you know?
President Washington made the shortest inaugural address of any chief executive. It was made at Philadelphia, March 4, 1793, when for the second time, he took the oath of office.

It contained only one hundred and thirty-four words.

Most of the beautiful things in life come by twos, and threes, and dozens, and hundreds. Plenty of roses, stars, sunsets, rainbows, brothers and sisters, aunts and uncles, but only ONE MOTHER in the whole world.

Good deeds are the best answers to injurious words . . . Milton Deeds survive the doers . . . Horace Mann

See you around . . .
