FARMER FILING DEADLINES

Quarterly tax estimates are required for most non-salary individuals; however, these rules do not apply to farmers. According to tax law, a farmer for purposes of filing a 1983 "Form 1040" is an individual whose gross income from farming is at least two-thirds (66 2/3%) of his total gross income from all sources for 1983 or 1982. For calendar year farmers there are two methods for avoiding penalties. First, a seldom used alternative was for the farmer to estimate his tax for 1983 and file and pay at least 662/3% of his total tax liability on or before January 15, 1984. If you paid this amount, then you have until April 15, 1984, to file your 1983 tax return. However, if you, like most farmers, did not file the January 15th estimate, then your only procedure for avoiding penalties on a 1983 "Form 1040" with a tax liability of $300.00 or more is to file by March 1, 1984, and pay the entire tax due on the return. Many farmers do not realize that the only reason they have been paying penalties year after year in addition to the taxes is because they have not filed and paid the taxes by March 1st

The penalty for farmers underpayment of estimated tax is 11% that begins January 15, 1984, and runs until the 1984 taxes are paid.

Many taxpayers at this time of year may be uncertain if how to use it properly." they are considered a "Farmer" and if so, when should they file their return to avoid penalties. With the I.R.S. interest rates at 11% presently, the only safe alternative for avoiding penalties is to see that your "Form 1040" is prepared and the balance due on your return is paid on or before March 1, 1984.

Farm And Ranch Issues To Be Topic Of Seminar

"Farm and Ranch Financial Issues for Today'' will be the topic of a seminar at the Abilene Civic Center, Feb. 14.

The one-day program which begins at 9 a.m. will deal with the future of agriculture, merchandising credit, sources of capital, landlord-tenant relationships, income tax planning, and the outlook for cotton, cattle and the general economy.

'The program is designed to give farmers and ranchers a look at various financial issues since agriculture has become such a capital intensive business," points out Dr. Wayne Hayenga, economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. "The producer must look on money like he does any other tool or imple-

Read 2 Corinthians 1:3-5

Cast your burden on the Lord, and he will sustain ---Psalm 55:22 (RSV) vou.

FOLLOWING the death of my husband after a lingering illness, I went into a deep depression that lasted many months. This was partially due to exhaustion, but I realized later that it was compounded by my anger at God for allowing my husband to die during the prime of his life as a minister. Then God sent someone to counsel with me patiently and lovingly; and God brought me to a church whose people love and care for one another, especially those who hurt. How much I had to learn about our Lord's sustaining power!

We have no guarantee of life; God is life. We have no permanent hold on those we love; God is love. God promises to strengthen us in life's trials, not exempt us from them. All the time the Comforter was there sustaining and holding me until I was able to let go of the past and let God have my future. What a joy to be able to praise God for the reality and strength of the everlasting arms!

PRAYER: Precious Lord, we thank You and praise You for Your great love that not only saves us but also keeps us through all the changing circumstances of our lives. Help us to share Your comfort with others today. Amen.

Congratulations to Uncle Sam's mighty work force. One swift swipe of a pen saved the United States taxpayers a whopping $85 million dollars annually. A small item in a Dallas paper a few weeks back caught my attention-the headline read "U.S. cancels hundreds of publications". Presidential counceelor Edwin Meese III, announced that 1,800 government publications such as pamphlets on "Controlling Bedbugs" and "Living with Radiation" were being discontinued. He went on to say that about 2,000 jobs will be eliminated by the previously announced closing or downgrading of 275 government printing and deublicating facilities around the United States.

The government will no longer issue publications telling people about how to control chicken lice or clean their kitchen ranges and metal furniture. Nor will it tell them about silverfish and firebrats (a wingless insect) or solar heating for milking parlors.

Gone are "Simple Plumbing Repairs", "The Common Liver Fluke in Sheep'', "Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Unloads-South (and West)", "School Drug Abuse Policy Guidelines'', "Fundamentals of Tax Preparation", "Standards for Preparation of Title Evidence", "The Columbia River Treaty" and the reprinted "Guide to Department of Education Programs."

The Department of Health and Human Services is eliminating pamphlets on a variety of diseases, from acne to gout to Wagner's granulomatosis. Another document that no longer will be available "Where to Get Publications.'

A Duncanville state legislator investigating the Texas prison system last week charged two sets of books are being kept in a fringe benefits scam.

State Rep. Ray Keller, chairman of the committee overseeing prisons, said he got his hands on a confidential list of how much prison-produced food is allocated to prison officials and families.

The list differs from the official list given this fall to the Legislative Budget Board, leading Keller to charge that a "scam" was being perpetrated by some prison officials.

Prison construction cost overruns over the past few years set the Legislature to probing discrepancies in a number of areas.

Two weeks ago, a prison official was charged with rigging bids for construction materials to help a firm in which he is listed as a partner.

Prison officials withheld comment on Keller's charges pending their own investigation into the matter

Applications for emergency farm loans for losses. caused by this summer's drought and extremely high temperatures are being accepted at the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) office located in Rotan, Texas, FmHA county supervisor John B. Smith said today.

Fisher County is one of 67 in Texas recently named by Secretary of Agricul-ture John R. Block as eligible for loans to cover part of actual production losses resulting from the drought.

Mr. Smith said farmers may be eligible for loans of up to 80 percent of their actual losses, or the operating loan needed to continue in business, or $500,000, whichever is less. For farmers unable to obtain credit from private commercial lenders, the interest rate on the first $100,000 borrowed is 5 percent; interest rate is 8 percent on the balance borrowed over that amount. For farmers who can obtain commercial credit but who choose to borrow from FmHA, the interest rate is 13.75 percent.

Annette Overby To Make Houston Calf Scramble

Annette Overby, a 16 year old FFA member from Rotan, Texas, will participate in the 1984 Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo calf scramble on March 3 in the Astrodome. The calf scramble is an exciting part of the rodeo action starring Char-ley Pride and Reba McEntire as part of that matinee's performance.

Annette, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Overby, will compete for one of the 280 calf purchase certificates to be awarded at the 1984 rodeo. The Houston Livestock

Show and Rodeo is the Southwest's premier charity event, with all net proceeds directly benefiting youth and education. The calf scramble is just one of the many programs aiding young people. The Show is the nation's largest donor of agricultural scholarships. The calf scramble is a

"year-long" event that be-gins with athletic competition in the Astrodome and ends with qualitative competition in the show ring. It involves the turning loose of two dozen or so energetic youngsters and half as many wild, young calves in one arena. Those who manage to grab a calf, halter it and drag it across the finish line are provided with a $600 calf purchase certificate. The certificate, donated by a sponsoring firm or individual, is used to purchase a purebred, registered beef or dairy heifer. The calf is raised by the winner for a special show ring competition to be held at next year's show, each project is closely supervised by a vocational agriculture teacher or county extension agent. Controlled learning experiences include proper livestock evaluation techniques, efficient cattle feeding and production methods, principles of economics and money management.

The calf scramble program typifies the purposes and goals of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo. Through the program, participants gain invaluable experience that many times serves to stimulate a career in agriculture.

Always a crowd-pleasing event at the Houston Rodeo, the calf scramble allows the viewing public to see firsthand what the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo is all about.

New Stamp Marks 50 Years Of Conservation Service

A new 20-cent commerative stamp marking 50 years of soil and water conservation in the United States will be issued by the U.S. Postal Service at the National Association of Conservation Districts (NACD) annual meeting in Denver, Colorado on February 6.

The soil and water conservation movement began in 1934 when the Soil Erosion Service in the U.S. Department of Interior began working with farmers with demonstration projects. In 1935, the agency was transferred to the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Later in the spring, when Congress passed Public Law 46, it became the Soil Conservation Service.

Today, SCS works with nearly 3,000 local conservation districts that are local units of state government," said Charles Black, district conservationist for SCS at Rotan. "The conservation movement is a voluntary one that has involved 2.5 million landowners and operators since its inception.'

In the local Upper Clear Fork Soil and Water Conservation District. some 950 landowners and opera-sident of the National Association of Conservation Districts, will participate. The stamp depicts a stylized hand holding a flower against a black background. Bands of color run horizontally across the hand, symbolizing water and layers of soil. The stamp is in six colors and was designed by Michael David Brown of Rockville, Maryland. The Postal Service will set up a temporary post office in the hotel lobby where the convention will be held to issue first day covers of the stamp. On February 7, the stamp will be available nationwide.
