AMATEUR FIGHTS TO BE RESUMED HERE IN APRIL

Weekly amateur boxing tournaments, under sanction of the Texas Association of Amateur Fighters and sponsored by the local Fire Department, will be resumed early in April and will continue through the spring months, officers of the department announced following their regular meeting Monday night.

The bouts will be staged in the open air arena on grounds back of the City Hall and fire station, and plans have been drawn and approved for building comfortable seats to accommodate between three and four hundred people.

The amateur affairs were first inaugurated here late last summer, and for several months attracted a large number of fans from Haskell and surrounding towns.

In preparation for resuming the weekly contests, a definite schedule is being worked out that will insure a full program of bouts each week featuring one or more main events between well-known amateur fighters as well as a complete preliminary card.

A district tournament that will attract amateurs from a wide section is also included in plans for the season.

THEFT GANG IS ACTIVE DURING TUESDAY NIGHT

Car, Trailer and Bicycle Included In Thefts Reported

Depredations by thieves, noticeably slight during the past few weeks in Haskell, were resumed Tuesday night with three offenses being reported to the sheriff's department Wednesday morning.

Theft of a boy's bicycle from the home of James Kennedy in the north part of the city was reported early Wednesday, and to date no trace of the stolen cycle has been found.

A Ford coupe belonging to Ray Lusk, state highway department employee, was stolen from his home during the same night, and the machine was found by officers on a country road about one mile north of town where thieves had abandoned the machine after stripping wheels and tires from the vehicle. Officers were tracing several leads that they believed would lead to apprehension of the guilty parties.

A trailer also stolen Tuesday night from T. R. Odell, Haskell attorney, was found abandoned in the east part of town where apparently it has swerved into a deep ditch beside the roadway from a narrow culvert.

Officers expressed the opinion that thefts Tuesday night resulted from a periodic visit of an organized theft gang.

During his service in the past as an assistant in the sheriff's department, he was widely recognized as an efficient officer.

NYA PROJECT IS BEING PLANNED FOR THIS COUNTY

County and School Officials Confer With District Supervisor

H. A. Zeigler of Fort Worth, assistant district supervisor of the National Youth Administration, was in Haskell Wednesday of this week to confer with County Judge Conner and county and city school officials regarding the establishment of an NYA project in Haskell county, to furnish part-time employment to approximately 18 youths.

The proposed plan is virtually assured, officials indicated, but definite details of the nature of the project remain to be worked out between local sponsors and the government agency, although it was indicated that the contemplated plan was based upon high-way construction or improvement in Haskell county.

G. E. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. Gladden Bradford and children, G. W. Bobbie Helen and Gladys, and Mrs. Jerry McClaren, all of Winters, spent Sunday in Haskell, guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Whiteker.

In Case of an Aircraft Raid

LEASING ACTIVITY IN HASKELL COUNTY INCREASING DAILY

Drilling Operations Slated Soon On Blocks Recently Assembled

Continued activity in leasing and royalty purchases, as reflected in instruments filed in the office of County Clerk Jason Smith, indicates that Haskell county and this immediate section is in the spotlight for considerable wildcatting for oil production during the next few months.

Several drilling blocks have been assembled, which call for drilling operations within sixty or ninety days, two tests are drilling in the county, with work expected to be started soon on the Forest corporation A. E. Pardue test where location has been taken.

In the southeastern part of the county, No. 1 T. G. Hendrick deep rotary test of the Superior Oil Corporation, yesterday had reached a depth of 3,254 feet. Top of the Palo Pinto lime was reported logged at 3,220 feet. The test is in the vicinity of several shallow producers drilled ten years ago.

To the northeast, the Fain-McGaha and P. S. Kendrick No. 1 on, the Hendrick ranch was reported drilling below 1,350 feet. That practically all major oil companies now exploring for new fields in Texas are interested is indicated by recent calls for ownership maps, seventy-five having been issued by the Haskell County Abstract Company during the past two months.

Work Started On New Paint Creek School

Site of the new Paint Creek consolidated rural high school seven miles southeast of Haskell is the scene of bustling activity this week, as work progresses on excavating for the foundation of the modern $31,500 school plant to be erected during the spring and summer.

KENT DISTRICT COURT TERM IS OPENED MONDAY

Cases on Docket Are Fewer Than During Past Terms

District Judge Dennis P. Ratliff and Ben Charlie Chapman, 39th district attorney, spent the first of this week in Claremont where the regular term of District Court for Kent county was convened Monday.

Grand Jury impaneled for the term recessed Monday afternoon after examining some thirty witnesses. One felony indictment was reported, charging forgery. Defendant named in the indictment faces similar charges in several other counties, court officials said. Trial of the case has been set during the current term.

The Kent county criminal and civil docket is comparatively light, with very few cases scheduled for the present term unless new actions develop from Grand Jury investigations.

Set for hearing Monday March 14 on the criminal docket is a felony charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated, in which a Dickens county farmer is defendant. The docket shows: After disposition of this case, remainder of the week will be devoted to the civil docket.

On Monday, March 21, hearing is scheduled on two charges of child desertion, in which a Kent county resident is defendant.

In future meeting of the club, a program of brief talks by members concerning their business or profession will be inaugurated, it was announced this week.

First of the series of talks will be on "Insurance", by F. L. Daugherty of this city, at next Tuesday's meeting.

Lettermen of Mattson Squad Given Jackets

Fourteen lettermen of the '37 Mustang squad of Mattson rural high school were presented attractive jackets Tuesday afternoon during the regular assembly program of the school at 2:45 o'clock.

School colors of black and silver were used in the tailored jackets, which were black with silver sleeves and a monogram "M" lettered in silver.

Lettermen of '37 are: Clyde Crume and John Mayfield, captains, Brantley Massie, Henry Druessedow, Ed Wilfong, Elmer Watson, Leon Mapes, L. D. Holcombe, Glen Edwards, James Masie, Wade Blair, G. W. Couch, John McGuire, Gerald Atchison.

Will Determine Application of New Provisions To 1938 Production

Approximately 3,000 cotton producers in Haskell county will be eligible to vote Saturday in the cotton marketing quota referendum to be held throughout the state, according to estimates furnished through the county agent's office. Balloting will be held at fifteen polling places in the county, under supervision of the county agricultural conservation committee. Returns from the voting will be canvassed Monday, and certified to state conservation officials at College Station.

The marketing quota referendum is for 1938 only, according to George Slaughter, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation committee, which has headquarters at Texas A. & M. College. A referendum on cotton will be held each year for that season's crop.

"All producers who shared in the proceeds of the 1937 cotton crop will be eligible to vote," Slaughter said. "This means that landlords, tenants, share croppers, farmers who own their own farms, banks, companies or corporations, or any other individual or organization connected with a farm producing cotton last year, has one vote each."

"Marketing quotas" means that each cotton farm will be given a cotton acreage allotment, which will be the same as the acreage allotment determined for the farm under the 1938 agricultural conservation program.

Needs Two-Thirds Vote

If two-thirds of the cotton producers vote for cotton quotas, both the cotton quotas plan and the agricultural conservation program will be in effect. If more than one-third of the cotton producers voting in the referendum are against the cotton quotas, only the conservation program, similar to that of the past two years, will be offered.

If quotas are favored by cotton farmers, each farm will receive an acreage allotment and all cotton produced in 1938 from this acreage may be sold tax free. If the 1938 planted cotton acreage exceeds the cotton acreage allotment for the farm, the cotton produced will not be subject to the tax unless the total pounds of cotton exceeds the poundage of the marketing quota.

This poundage, Slaughter added, will be determined by multiplying the cotton acreage allotment by the normal lint yield an acre, which will be assigned the farm by the county committee.

Last Rites For Harry A. Farmer Held Wednesday

Last rites for H. A. (Harry) Farmer, resident of Haskell for the past 28 years, who succumbed to a heart attack early Monday morning in Goodland, Texas, were conducted at the graveside in Willow cemetery Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock with Rev. H. R. Whitley, Baptist minister officiating.

The sudden death of Mr. Farmer came as a distinct shock to his family and friends here. He was 59 years of age. During his residence in this section he was engaged principally in ranching work. On several occasions he served as a special peace officer and he was for many years an active member of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department. Relatives said that in recent months he had complained of slight illness, but the seriousness of his condition was not realized and he had continued his customary work.

Surviving are his widow and four children, three sons, Dewitt, Cecil and Alvin Farmer, all of Haskell; a daughter Mrs. Ruby Nash, Lawton, Okla.; four brothers and three sisters.

Funeral arrangements were in charge of Kinney Funeral Home, Stamford. Active pallbearers were Wiley Quattlebaum, Hallie Chapman, Frank Patterson, Bert Orr, O. U. Connally, Claude Jenkins. Floral offerings were handled by Mrs. Lark Jones, Mrs. O. U. Connally, Mrs. O. Shaw, Mrs. Bert Orr, Mrs. J. M. Gibbs.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Reinlee and daughter, Patsy, of Dallas, and Mrs. Jewel Brown and son, Leon, of Oklahoma City, were guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. McGraw.

The Casual Age

One of the most amazing things about the present generation, or age, is the casual way we accept the most magical of miracles.

Some one announces: "Television is here." So we accept television as being here. Actually we know it isn't exactly here, but we feel quite sure it is just around the corner for this is the age when anything, little matter how wondrous, can be perfected once conceived or begun.

Six "flying fortresses" of the United States Army Air Corps carrying 49 men hop off casually from Miami, fly 2,695 miles to Lima, Peru, non-stop, land for six hours and continue the flight to Buenos Aires. The trip is a matter of hours and of small comment in this country.

Why not. Other airplanes hop around, here and there, across land and sea. We were told several years ago that big bombers would eventually be able to cruise thousands of miles in war or peace, without difficulty. The time has arrived unnoticed, that's all.

Perfect Landlord

Tenants of Harry Z. Suchin at Dobbs Ferry, N. Y., recently tendered him their 10th annual dinner as the perfect landlord. Suchin has kept his 54 apartments rented throughout the depression and recession, charging the highest rentals in the neighborhood.

This year his tenants presented Suchin with a nest of tables as proof of their regard, and a birthday cake large enough for the 163 diners. Suchin's rule: "Never ask for rent, never say no to a request. Never evict a tenant. Never fail to understand his problems, never feel superior. Always regard the tenant as a friend."

An odd manner of doing business these days. Odd indeed. But maybe the idea will spread.

Haskell County . . . . . History

As Revealed by the Files of the Free Press 20, 30 and 40 years ago.

20 Years Ago—March 9, 1916
A warning to the American people has been sounded by Food Administrator Hoover that there must be the strictest economy in food, especially in wheat, for the next sixty days in order to permit a sufficient exportation of food for the English, French and Italians.

The knitting committee of the Haskell Red Cross chapter reports the following articles shipped on March 6: 4 sweaters, 8 pairs socks, 6 helmets, 3 mufflers, and 1 pair of wristlets. Besides these articles, the Red Cross ladies have knitted a set of garments for each of the following boys who have already left or will leave soon: Abbott Hutchens, Homer Arbuckle, Artie McFatter, Charles Conner.

Willie Whitaker, now stationed in the navy yards, writes Haskell friends that he expects to sail soon for the submarine zone.

Good rains are reported by our correspondents in several sections of the county.

A farmhouse belonging to Mrs. Shaw in the Nabors community burned late Thursday evening. The fire is believed to have caught from a defective flue. Some insurance was carried on the building.

30 Years Ago—March 7, 1908
Mr. W. H. Parsons returned Tuesday from a prospecting trip to California.

J. P. Moeller, who was here some time ago and purchased a tract of 716 acres of land in this county, has moved to his new home from Coryell county and is putting in improvements and preparing to put in crops.

Messrs. Sanders & Wilson informed us the other day that they had just completed 45 abstracts of land titles of 96 pages each, for Judge Weinert of Seguin and B. E. Sparks of Stamford. This is probably the largest order for abstracts ever filled by a Haskell firm.

Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Edwards informed us that by liberal use of telegraph and telephone he had located a fugitive from Haskell officers in Wichita Falls, where the culprit was arrested, and Sheriff Parks has gone to the Falls to return the prisoner to Haskell.

Postal Problem

Most everyone admits the United States postal system is pretty wonderful, even if it isn't exactly solvent, but some of its hard and fast rules must cost Mr. Farley's department lots of business in time. Take the case of the New York business man.

He wanted, for business reasons, to send a ledger, cash book and check book to his auditor in Long Island. He wrapped these articles up in heavy paper, left the parcel unsealed and took it to the postoffice. There he told the clerk of the package's contents and was informed that because his bundle contained writing it would have to go first class. The postage would be $3.27.

The business man took his parcel over to the express company where a clerk sealed it for him, insured it, gave him a receipt, promised prompt delivery—all for the price of 41 cents.

The postoffice has to have rules, but it also, apparently, has competition on its hands.

Ickes Speaks

It would be interesting to know just what the administration had in mind as Secretary of Interior Harold L. Ickes delivered his speech against Fascism the other day—a speech that was broadcast in practically every English speaking part of the world.

Whatever the government's attitude in allowing Mr. Ickes to lambast totalitarianism as the greatest threat in the modern world, it isn't hard to perceive the interpretation foreign democracies will place upon it.

With England and France both trembling in crises over what attitude and action to take while Hitler is calmly annexing Central Europe, Ickes' speech must have sounded anything but disinterested.

And if France and England wanted to interpret the speech as encouraging them in a stand against Germany, as practically promising aid in such a stand, they could very easily go that far. Perhaps, that was what the administration wanted France and England to assume.

Checho-Slovakia is ready to fight and the chancellor of Austria, having got his second wind, bids defiance to the Nazis, from Hitler on down. This may sound warlike, but if it has a tendency to turn Hitler's damper down it will contribute to peace.

A convention is a place where you check your home habits along with your overcoat.

A big brindie goat named "Granite" has taken over the job of mothering a litter of 13 pigs belonging to a Cheyenne, Wyo., farmer.

Henry Sachse, postmaster of Nuremberg, Pa., dreamed recently that he was in an automobile crash. He leaped from bed and broke his shoulder blade.

100-Year Old Senate Speech

Exactly one hundred years ago next March 12 Daniel Webster paid his respects to the demagogues of his day in a speech in the Senate of Congress. Because the same type of speeches are still being made, you might like to read it, and be convinced that there really is nothing new under the sun in times, men, politics and history. Here it is:

"There are persons who constantly clamor. They complain of oppression, speculation and pernicious influence of accumulated wealth. They cry out loudly against all banks and corporations and all means by which small capitalists become united in order to produce important and beneficial results. They carry on mad hostility against all established institutions. They would choke the fountain of industry and dry all streams. In a country of unbounded liberty they clamor against oppression. In a country of perfect equality, they would move heaven and earth against privilege and monopoly. In a country where prosperity is more evenly divided than anywhere else, they rend the air shouting agrarian doctrines. In a country where wages of labor are high beyond parallel, they would teach the laborer he is but an oppressed slave.

"Sir, what can such men want? What do they mean? They can want nothing, sir, but to enjoy the fruits of other men's labor. They can mean nothing but disturbance and disorder, the diffusion of corrupt principles and the destruction of the moral sentiments and moral habits of society."

SENIOR CLASS EDITION

Who Said We Ain't Tough?

One bright sunny day an unusual sight was experienced by our reporter.

It was while he was visiting a neighboring town. He saw an old man coming up the road with a cart drawn by a pair of snarling wildcats. He was dressed in rhinoceros skin. His whiskers were down to his waist and he had a pair of rattlesnakes around his neck. He was eating a bowl of railroad spikes and was drinking a barrel of wood alcohol.

Then our reporter asked, "Where are you from mister?" And he said: "I'm from Weinert but I had to leave."

He took another swig of his wood alcohol and continued: "They got too tough for me there."

The Old Saying—"Girls First"

The old saying "Girls first" is not true in the Weinert High School. Just the other day I started out of English IV class, the door was open, and three boys all most ran over me trying to get out, but I did not see a fire. The very next day it was quite cold and the door was closed. The boys all stepped aside and let me open the door then all of them came rushing out, leaving the other girls behind. I don't know that this is true in every class or every day but this is what really happened two days in English IV class.

The boys in the other classes may not be so impolite but this is what some of our senior boys really did. They may say, "Oh, well we are senior boys and should be looked up to," but just remember boys everyone in the English IV class are seniors and are just as dignified as you are.

Tennis Practice Is Under Way

Weinert expects to have its full quota of tennis players in the County Meet.

In the senior boys they have J. C. Hawes, Mallone Terrell, and Winton Palmer.

The senior girls are also expected to have entries in both divisions as many of the girls are coming out.

In the junior boys division we have Junior Cadhead, Sidney Lee Cogan, and Billy Mitchell.

The junior girls are Juanita Duff, Dorothy Black, and Elizabeth Medley.

Early Collecting

Two girls were out looking for furniture to use in the play Tuesday night. They returned to see Mrs. Mason and brought a dime with them. They said Mrs. Jones sent it to pay on the play. She was ill and could not be here, but wished to do her part to help the play. Isn't she a loyal friend? The little theatre appreciate such support.

Our New Librarian

We have a new librarian who is about six and one-half feet tall. He has to stoop down a little to enter the doors of the new building. That is how tall he really is.

He is a new one to start keeping the library; because some of the girls have been keeping it different parts of the day. He has to work hard to keep the books in order and to keep the library clean and nice. He has never worked in the library before and the work is all new to him but he seems to enjoy it. He also has a hard time keeping the boys and girls out of the library during school hours. Despite all of these, hard work and keeping the library, he is a good one, and I am sure everyone will say it of him.

News of F. F. A. Boys

All of the boys who had been calves have closed their projects. Most of the boys received about market price or a bit better at Abilene for their calves.

Ray Lowe was the sixth place winner in the medium weight division. Drey Lowe won fifteen pounds and Philip Cadhead got nineteenth position.

Vernon Anderson and Milam Jones also had calves there.

Clay Griffith placed second with his sheep.

Herman Josselot took two fat barrows, but didn't win anything.

All of the boys were present to see the judging of the animals and learned quite a bit in this line.

All the boys are planning to go to Fort Worth Saturday morning. They plan to leave around one o'clock Saturday morning in one of the school buses.

The broiler projects are coming on fine. The boys have around 750 chicks on feed at present and some more of the boys are expected to have a few more in a few days.

The Weinert chapter is making plans for its father and son banquet to be held sometime in April.

Some of the boys expect to enter the judging contest at Stephenville in April.

Fifteen Boys To Take Part In Haskell Track Meet This Week

Since the last time that the paper came out the boys have really had a good race track prepared.

Many of the boys are coming out for track and field events this year and Weinert expects to have a winning team in the County Meet.

Fifteen of the boys will take part in the Haskell invitation tourney this week.

The junior boys and grammar school boys are also training for the County Track Meet.

A Day In Hollywood

As we come up Sunset Boulevard to Super Gigantic Productions we see large thundering trucks leaving for location and see a few sleepy-eyed extras giving passes to the studio policemen.

Then a car rolls in with the comedian Ben Sloan still in pajamas. His car is driven by his bodyguard with his valet in the front seat while Ben sleeps in the back.

The Cord out of the glamorous Mattie Chatwell comes in. Mattie, still in hair curlers and cold cream is snuggled against her producer husband's shoulder at this hour of six a. m.

Then as we stroll over to the commissary for coffee we see the new bashful sensation Milam Jones. He is rubbing the sleep from his eyes on Garbo's bungalow.

When we come out of the commissary it is eight so we go toward sound stage nine to see Clara Sue Mitchell do her stuff with public lover number one, Winton Palmer. The picture is, "My Love" and it looked real enough for they were doing abreath-giving love scene.

Over now to stage one. The red light is on but we walk in only to be thrown out by the property man, J. B. King. So thumbing our hands at him we sit until lunch with the writer Edward Havran. He is doing a story for the famous Russian star with an American name, Mildred Owens. "But its a hard job," Havran said, "For Miss Owens is a very typermental actress."

At noon on running downtown to the Brown Derby we see autograph seekers surrounding the he-man, Alton Newberry at the cafe entrance. But we pass in unobtrusively to see the head of the wardrobe department at the studio, Clara Wiggly, having lunch with her No. 5. At a joining table is the laughable Bulah Vayles pouring water down Joan Crawford's back. (Nice work if you can get it.)

Back to the studio to watch a picture run off in the projecting room of Margaret Toliver's new picture, Silly Girl. But when the director said to cut out a love scene with Clark Gable, Margaret began to cry. So after her few sobs the director let it stay in to keep the star from scaring Barrios Karloff.

On walking over the dressing-rooms we hear a newsboy from outside the gates shouting the news that the popular star, Helen Thomas, remarries again to her third husband. But finding Helen in her dressing room with her maid she tells us that she will divorce the new hubby tomorrow and marry again Sunday. Purely Hollywood publicity.

We go to our hotel to dress in tails and silk for an eight-thirty premiere at the Carthay Circle for Anna Hawes colossal picture, "Smart Egg."

We manage to squeeze inside the theatre and watch the movie idols march up the red carpet to a waiting mike from their cars. It is a wonderful moment but it turned out to be funny when Oleah Mustan, dramatic actor, started up the long carpet he fell and broke his wax face and was his face red!

At two-thirty we entered a cab and drove out to the Troc. On the maple floor dancing we see Mattie Chatwell with Kent Taylor, Clara Sue Mitchell with Tyrone Powers and dining we catch sight of Ben Sloan with Bulah Vayles, and Marian Anderson, a well-known writer and actress with an unknown man. But whoever he was, he was embarrassed when Marian kissed him.

So then at five bells we go home to tell you it was a swell imagination while it lasted.

Improve The Library

Our library has a full time librarian now so why not improve the library.

The library could be easily built up with a little bit of hard work and not much expense. First part of the money that goes toward other things could be diverted to the purchase of books. Second, many of the students have books at home that they would donate or that could be purchased for a small amount.

Magazine don't seem to be able to stand the punishment given to them. The reason is the lack of care.

Money for magazines would be donated to the library if the do-nators knew that they would be kept.

So let's all work together and try to show that we appreciate good magazines and books take care of them and see if we don't have a better library.

If any one has any books, old magazines, bulletins or any kind of literature and doesn't need them please donate it to the library.

Our Seniors

Mildred Owens Mildred is one of our seniors whom everyone likes, and has a winning way. Mildred came to Weinert from Sunset in her Junior year. Since then she has made many friends at Weinert. She does not play basketball, but comes to most all the games, and is there "rooting" for her team. Mildred is very small, but has plenty of life about her, and is a good sport to everyone. Many of the students in Weinert wish that they had the even temper Mildred has, and love her for the kind words she has for everyone. So we are behind for everyone. So we are behind

Favorites at North Texas State Teachers College

This year's balloting for "favorites to be honored in the 'Yucca' student annual at the North Texas State Teacher College, Denton, Texas, has seen the selection of the five prettiest examples of feminine pulchritude in the history of the school, says Harry Black, "Yucca" editor.

Black offers the pictures above as proof that the public places beauty high on its list of traits that determine popularity. Traditionally North Texas elects favorites rather than beauties, and hence includes two men among the seven students honored by the "Yucca." Miss Mary Green, junior from Rosebud, was the only blonde among the seven Teachers College popularity aces. Miss Evelyn Hunt, junior from Denton, ranked first among the girls. Other favorites: Miss Sylvia Barnes, sophomore from Munday; Miss Mary Kendrick, sophomore from Dallas; Miss Elmo Joy Wilson, junior from Hamlin; Clyde Heath, senior from Venus, and Bowen Evans, senior from Denton.

Texas Qualified For Location of Chemical Plants

The "inherently creative" nature of typical modern-age industries such as chemicals — for whose location Texas is particularly qualified by physical advantages—is cited in a report of the All-South Development Council, Dallas, as marking these industries as especially worthy of attention by those seeking to attract new industrial enterprise to the state.

Economic soundness, progressiveness and stability of industries in this classification are shown in various studies, among them a reduction of heavy alkalis using zinc eries of charts prepared by the National Industrial Conference Board. These, covering the period 1929 through 1937, showed the graph lines for chemical manufacturing at consistently higher levels than the average of 25 other industries—slower to dip in depression times, but just as fast to rise when things get better. The margin held good in employment, man-hours, and "real" weekly earnings charts.

Expenditure of $20,000,000 a year in research; the fact that 82 per cent of the industry's workers are in plants of less than 1,000 workers; the investment of an average of $8,260 in capital goods and equipment behind each worker; and the high proportion of salaried employees (18.1) to hourly wage earners (the general average for all American industry is 12.7 per cent) are other favorable points noted in the report, which urged a conservative state taxation policy toward industry to assure Texas' rightful growth in this field.

Texas is, of course, extraordinarily well stocked with the main raw materials of the chemical industry—salt and liquor, limestone, coal and lignite, petroleum and natural gas, and high cellulose-content agricultural products. From these are made such chemicals as the basic acids, sulphuric, hydrochloric and nitric; the heavy alkalis, soda ash and caustic soda; the amazingly diverse chemical products of coals and petroleum; industrial gases like hydrogen and chlorine — and ammonia, industrial alcohols and other solvents, and plastics and synthetic resins.

These products, directly or indirectly, ramify throughout every fibre of the web of our economic structure," the report quotes from Elmer H. Johnson, industrial geographer of the University of Texas. "The rapid advance of science and the so-called conquest of environment which science has made possible have not diminished the dependence of modern economic life upon natural resources; it has only made that dependence greater in extent and degree, and thereby intricately complex. Nowhere are these scientific and technical advances better illustrated, or the dependence upon natural resources more pronounced, than in the modern chemical industry and its more closely allied industries."

"The vanguard of the third great movement in Texas economic history," is what Johnson sees in the recently developed here in progressive studies, among them a reduction of heavy alkalis using zinc eries of charts prepared by

Blue Bonnet Home Demonstration Club News

Each child should have towels and wash cloths of different color, said Mrs. A. D. Lewis to the members of the Blue Bonnet Home Demonstration club in the home of Mrs. Rufus Warren, Thursday afternoon.

By each child having a certain color towel, you can always tell which one used his towel to wipe his muddy boots. To prolong the life of towels, we should use towel racks or rollers. The worn ends of towels can be cut off and the towels hemmed again, by doing this the towel can be used a little longer.

Mrs. Homer Turner and Mrs. M. E. Carothers were the ladies selected to make a frame garden. Mrs. Ed Conner gave the council report.

Josset Home Demonstration Club Meets in Regular Meeting

"A lot is being said about the ear conditions of today, caused by not properly drying the soap suds out of the ears," said Miss Mildred Vaughan as she discussed Bathing Center to the Josset club women in the club house March 8, at 2:30 with Mrs. Gene Lancaster and Miss Mae Cothron hostesses.

An overhead tank makes a very convenient shower bath for the summer months and very little lumber is required if you will fix the screening of gunny sacks or heavy ducking said Miss Vaughan as she continued her talk.

Equipment cost just what you want to put into it. But start fixing now for starting is half the problem. To attract children who dislike bathing get the little miniature figures of soap. Some times it will cause the child to be more prompt in washing his hands if you will embroidery a design of a cat or dog on a small towel and hand it in its reach and let it know that that's its personal property.

A new member, Mrs. Tommie Jetton was added to our club list.

Refreshments were served to Meses. Clarence Norton, Gene Lancaster, S. G. Pegg, Larry Bass, Jesse Josset, T. J. Jetton, John P. Perrin, C. A. Thomas, J. L. Toliver and Misses Maurine Norton, Mae Cothron, Mildred Vaughan.

Center Point H. D. Club Has Demonstration On Bathing Center

The Center Point H. D. Club met at the home of Mrs. T. M. Morgan March 3, with eight members present. Miss Vaughan gave a talk on bathing center. Every home should have a bath room, stated Miss Vaughan.

If we have a spare room we should fix it up to use as a bathroom only. If it isn't possible to have a room we should use a large closet for that purpose. We learned how we could obtain a substitute at a very low cost if we are unable to have a regular bath tub.

The Foster Home Demonstration Club

Bathing should be very important to every one, stated Miss Vaughan, Home Demonstration Agent, when the Foster H. D. Club met in the home of Mrs. M. G. Martin March 1.

There should always be a place for bathing, continued Miss Vaughan, and also have equipment ready. There are two kinds of baths. First the cleansing, then the rest bath. Homes where there are no bath tubs a large wash tub should be used. The room may be heated with a small oil stove if you have no other way of heating the room. In summer anyone can fix a place for bathing outside if they like. Anyone can buy the folding tub which is made of waterproof canvas and has a drain. It is not expensive at all.

Next comes the importance of soap. Never use a strong, harsh soap that will make the skin rough. Use a mild soap such as Ivory or Camay. Towels and wash cloths are next. There are six regular sizes on the market now. The pile on a towel should never be more than one eighth of an inch long. Good background and small borders are important too. Children need smaller towels than the adult. A good sized wash cloth should be used. Linen towels absorb more water than the Turkish towel. Bath mats are a necessity not a luxury. They may be bought or can be made out of prints, feed sacks or most anything you wish. They can be lined with cotton or pieces of old blankets.

"Why I Like To Bath." We then had our club song. Mrs. M. G. Martin acted as chairman in place of our president who was absent on account of illness in the family.

We had two new members and five visitors. Three were from the Marcey club. Visitors are always welcome to come and visit our club. We welcome new members too.

Refreshments were served to the following members and visitors: Mesdames Bud Clark, E. M. Servey, G. M. Wade, Jim Best, J. O. Yarbrough, H. A. Gauntt, A. J. Oats, M. G. Martin, A. H. Allen, J. R. Wade, J. E. Adams, L. G. Servey, J. M. Harrell, Pat Martin, L. V. Hasty, D. W. Pointer, P. P. Martin, H. P. Pointer and Miss Vaughan.

We adjourned to meet with Mrs. A. J. Oats on March 15.

LOCAL MUTUAL AID ASSOCIATIONS SERVICE SET FORTH IN REPORT

The large service rendered by Texas Local Mutual Aid Associations is clearly set forth in the Annual Report of the Board of Insurance Commissioners of Texas. This report for the year ending December 31, 1936, which is the latest available at the present time, shows claims paid during 1936 of $1,630,779.57. This represents an increase of $149,636.49 over claims paid during 1935.

Local Mutual Aid Associations are shown in this report to have had on hand a combined mortality fund of $832,759.71 on December 31, 1936, which is $184,576.68 more than the corresponding figure for 1935.

During 1936 these Companies, serving a limited territory surrounding their home offices as their name implies, increased their membership by 35,696, the total membership as of December 31, 1936 being 332,978.

The above figures speak for themselves concerning the benefits of insurance in Texas Local Mutual Aid Associations and the soundness of the Companies as a whole. They are also indisputable evidence of the confidence of the people of Texas in local mutual

Bible School—9:45 a. m. Morning Worship—10:45 a. m. Sermon: "Christ's Baptism And Its Significance."

Evening Worship—7:30 p. m. Sermon: "What Christ Teaches About Himself."

Please notice the change in time for our worship services. We meet fifteen minutes earlier than formerly and we will discuss at 11:45. In the evening we will meet at 7:30 instead of 7:15 as has been the custom through the winter months. Please be on time so that we can start on time.

Over fifty people were present at the Mid-Week Meeting last Wednesday night. Most of them had read the fourteen chapters from the gospel according to Matthew, therefore, a very profitable time was had by all. The program committee for the "Christ Centered Crusade" met after the meeting. Sunday morning, we will have special music; and Sunday evening, Mrs. R. O. Pearson will give a reading. We are sure that these special numbers will greatly add to the value of these services. We will have something planned for every service.

More men were present for both the Sunday morning and evening services than were present in the Bible school classes last Sunday. This is very unusual. Furthermore almost twice as many men were present as women. If the men of the church will continue to show such interest, the success of this campaign is assured. This should be a challenge to all the members of the church.

Our gospel meeting begins March 27th. Mr. Thomas McDonald of Borger is to do the preaching. We hope our neighbors will keep this event in mind, and plan to enjoy it with us.

aid insurance and their approval of the plan whereby these companies furnish life insurance protection at a very moderate cost.

These Companies issue policies of small denominations as well as for larger amounts and usually permit payment of premiums on a monthly basis, which places insurance within the reach of all alike. Thus, through these Companies, people in very moderate financial circumstances may receive the benefits of life insurance protection for their loved ones when they might not otherwise have this opportunity. Nearness of the home office to the large majority of the policy holders make possible a more personal service and often a much more prompt payment of claims.

For several years, Texas' Insurance Laws have been greatly strengthened by more rigid supervision. This supervision caused and operate on what is termed a "Flat Rate" basis, which forces greater need for more careful investigation of each individual risk, before policies are issued. This is responsible for the present stability of Local Companies who operate within a smaller territory where they may know and investigate more thoroughly applications than formerly.

Conced's Sun Is A 'Pretty Fair' Star

Dr. Adrian van Maanen of Pasa- dena, Calif., for whom a star is named cites figures to show that the sometimes belittled sun is really a "pretty fair" star.

Taking an arc of 10 parsecs — 192,000,000,000,000 (192 trillion) miles to you—as a radius from the sun, Dr. van Maanen, astron- omer of the Carnegie Institution's Mt. Wilson Observatory, said he had listed and classified 160 stars. Of these only 20 were brighter than the sun.

Among Brightest Stars

Vega, the brightest, gives off 50 times as much light as the sun. Wol-359, the faintest star known, sheds only one fifty-thousandth as much.

Of course, if anybody wants to go out farther than 10 parsecs, the astronomer said, there is Canopus, 80,000 times as brilliant as the sun. And really reaching out in space to other star systems, there are a couple of super novae, "exploding stars," which reduce the sun to near the insignificance of a tallow candle flame.

On the other hand, by narrow- ing the radius to five parsecs, Dr. van Maanen found 67 per cent of the stars were 100 times fainter than the sun. The astronomer found that of the 160 stars he ob- served, 39 were companion stars—that is, they help make up a sys- tem. He counted 20 sets of twins, or binaries; eight triplets, one set of quadruplets — but no quintup- lets.

Three of these stars are "white dwarfs," only a dozen and a half of which are known. One, the companion of Sirius, is estimated to weigh about a ton to the cubic inch. Another of this group was discovered by and named after Dr. van Maanen.

Emil Great Energy

"Their temperatures are high," he said speaking of the white dwarfs, "hence they send out a large amount of energy per square mile of their surface. Since their luminosities are low, they must be small in size, with diameters only one to three times that of the earth.

"Their masses also are small ranging probably from one tenth of, to equality with, that of the sun. Their densities turn out to be astonishingly high, 50,000 to per- haps 400,000 times that of water."

have found only one star for every 12.5 cubic parsecs in the area ap- proximately two hundred million million miles from the sun, "but we infer that, in reality, there may even be one star in every five cubic parsecs."

Private A. W. O. L.

STATE legislatures are noted for passing "goofy" laws but, con- sidering the haste with which some measures are jammed through dur- ing the closing hours of a session, the wonder is that more such laws don't get on the statute books. One bit of legislation which caused a gale of laughter to sweep across the nation occurred only two or three years ago in Rhode Island.

It seems that "Little Rhody" had never given proper recognition to the World war services of one of her native sons—a certain Private Ev- auel O. W. Tnesba of the Twelfth machine gun company. So when a bill appropriating $100 as a bonus for him was introduced in the sen- ate, there seemed little doubt that the statesmen in the upper house, anxious to show their gratitude to Private Tnesba, would pass the bill.

Just in the nick of time some- body, who was struck by the fact that this was a most unusual name, dropped a suggestion that the senators try spelling the name backwards to "see what they got." They got a shock, for this warrior's name, when reversed, spelled "Ab- sent W. O. Leave." Then it dawned upon them that they had been hoaxed. But they had also been saved from bestowing the taxpay- ers' hard-earned money upon a vet- eran who was not only non-existent but who was A. W. O. L. besides!

Great, New Cave Appears Larger Than Carlsbad

R. P. Burnet, curator of the Carlsbad Museum, has announced discovery of a great, new cave, which may prove even larger than the famed Carlsbad Cavern, itself the second biggest previously known in the world.

The cave, its entrance twelve miles south of Carlsbad, is so vast, Burnet said, that an explor- ing party walked six hours with- out reaching the end of its first huge chamber.

The ceiling of the vault, he said, was so high that it could not be seen, and the width was 700 feet. Thirteen hundred feet of wire was strung behind the exploring party, until the supply was exhausted.

Burnet said the group contin- ued until a bend in the great vault was reached, but could not learn what lay beyond.

Since only one entrance to Carlsbad Cavern ever has been discovered and much of that fa- mous underground wonder re- mains unexplored, speculation arose over the possibility of the new cave might be an extension of its neighbor.

Rumor said the new cavern is filled with huge limestone forma- tions, larger than those in the Carlsbad cave. Many were snow white, because of the absence of mineral coloring matter, and ex- tremely beautiful.

The bones of two ancient deer and a quantity of Indian pottery were found in the newly discov- ered cave — proof, Burnet said, that it had been inhabited by pre- historic Indians.

G. S. Medford, one of our old stand-bys in the Howard section, dropped in Wednesday to report things "booming" in his section. Construction work has been started on the new Paint Creek rural high school near a corner of his farm, and he states that several new residences and small business houses are contemplated in the community, with reports also cur- rent that a gin plant may be built to serve the vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Keaton and family and F. L. Caldwell of Prairie Lea visited with Mrs. Keaton's mother Mrs. F. L. Caldwell, who is ill, the past week-end. Mrs. Keaton remained at the bedside of her mother.

Mrs. Rae Eastland, Mrs. Jack Silks and daughter Miss Virginia, of Chillicothe spent a part of this week visiting friends and relatives here.

We very surprisingly had a long vacation because of our rain and snow. Due to the condition of the roads, the buses could not traverse them. We were sure after a week's rain that we could come back to school Monday, but we had a big snow Sunday night. It took all week except Thursday and Friday for the ground to dry. We were glad to get the vacation, but we were much gladder to get to school again.

Letters From Our Readers

has vexed the Legislature for years; the sales tax for the past several years. All will admit that the present tax laws are insufficient and inequitable. One of two things must be done, enact new and higher tax laws and rates, or reduce the expenditures. For the past several years the state has continued to increase its debt, and now is yearly taking upon new obligations. The income and expenditures must be balanced, some way must be found to do that. Whether the sales tax would meet the demands; whether it would be equitable, right or wrong, Humphrey does not attempt to say; he only wants the issue settled and settled by a vote of the people independent of the fortunes of any and all political opportunists. He has only offered a plan, and should the people desire it settled that way, tendered his service in presenting the same to the proper authorities. Should a petition be presented you requesting the same be submitted to the vote of the Democrat primary you can sign the petition without binding you in any way as to your vote. The same might be said in regard to your vote. The same might be said in regard to your vote. The same might be said in regard to your vote.

The Civil Statutes of Texas provide that upon presenting a petition properly signed by a certain per cent of legally qualified electors to the Democrat primary Executive Committee asking for the submission of a Constitutional amendment to the voters of that party in its primary election along with its candidates the Committee must submit the same. The result of that vote becomes a mandate to the party, that is, to the Representatives elected by that party insofar as submitting the amendment to a vote of the people as a whole in a special Constitution Amendment election. Should the majority vote against submission, then that would be the end; then on the other hand should a majority be in favor of submission those elected as democrats would be honor bound to submit the issue as a constitutional amendment. A majority vote in favor of submission would not bind a single person other than upon submission. Such a representative would be free to vote upon the amendment as he saw best. This Statute, insofar as this character such as touch the fundamentals, his solution is the proper and correct one to follow. The adoption of the sales tax would require a constitutional amendment. His plan would get the issue before the people for an immediate decision.

The tax question is very vital to the interest of all people. It plan possible to decide the issue.

Deafened in the July primary that would be the end; carried then, the Governor could call the Legislature in special session, frame the amendment, submit it to the people in the November general election, with very little additional cost. The Legislature while in special session could enact all enforcement legislation necessary, should it be adopted, and by that such could be in operation by the beginning of the new year. Why not settle this issue in the proper way?

Are You Happy?

Did you ever feel that there was just nothing to live for? I'm sure that during one time or another you have had that "sickly" feeling. Why feel that way? There is always some place else you are wanted. A little feeling of this kind was overcome by a good friend of mine—let me tell you how it happened and maybe it will help you find your place.

A young girl who had found matters at home pretty bad, decided she would run away. She couldn't think of any place to go, so she decided that she would marry the first person that asked her. She was a very lovely girl and looked so well to one boy that he put the question before her.

It happened one night after a dance. They were married and at the time thought everything would be "rosy". Soon afterwards she saw she had made a mistake and was willing to go through anything to relieve her feelings.

An old admirer came back into her life and she thought she had better go back to her aunt's home where she could talk it over with him. They talked it over and decided that she should live with her aunt and tell her husband how it was.

She moved and the past was forgotten. She had found her happiness once more and saw that if you just keep trying you will get what you want.

If this means anything to you will you come to your aunt and forget the past? It may help you.

Speech Department Is Busy All Year

In no previous year has the Haskell High School speech department, under the direction of Mrs. C. M. Kaigler, been busier with more diversified programs, nor have the pupils served more public organizations and clubs. As early as October several of the boys and girls had prepared piano-logs and one act skits that were given for private parties, churches and clubs. While the Magazine Club was studying Japan a group of eight high school girls dressed as Geisha dance girls from Japan, gave a Japanese dance at the Magazine club library. As the auditorium was not ready at that time these girls postponed the chapel program on Japan and this will be given March 14. The stage will be arranged as a Japanese garden and a perfect Japanese tea room will be made possible with fans, parasols and lanterns. Frances Merle Edwards will portray Madam Butterfly who kills herself because she cannot marry the American man. Labry Ballard will be the Japanese, Wattario, who sends the poisoned bracelet for Nara to kill herself with. As Nara dies, Mrs. Wayne Koonce will sing "Poor Butterfly".

This program will be put on at chapel March 14th. Also the Geisha girls have been asked to repeat their dance for the Magazine Club in the evening of March 18 at what time the husbands of the club members will be guests.

Added to the regular speech course this year, Mrs. Kaigler has taught a course on conduct or etiquette as interpreted by Emily Post.

The class is busy at this time on the annual Interscholastic League Declaration contest. Following are the entrants in high school declamation: Senior girls: Madge Reece and Christine Wells; Senior boys: Willie Lee Medford, Jack Morris, Labry Ballard, and John Guest; Junior high girls: Jeffie Maud Tolver, and Betty Ruth Blake; Junior high boys: Only one, Stanley Smith. These selections were chosen because of their good citizenship value and deal with "Loyalty To One's Country", "Every American Should Live In A Good Home", and "Indictments Against War". The league meet will be in rule this year, March 25th.

Assembly Program Has Patriotic Trend

Commemorating Texas Independence Day last Wednesday, several students of Mrs. Wimbish's Economics classes gave splendid talks in assembly on various subjects concerning Texas history. The students had prepared their talks only for class session and graciously consented on a few minutes notice to give them for assembly. The following talks were given: "The Life of Santa Anna" by Roy Wiseman; "The Battle of the Alamo" by Anita Jo Simmons; "The Life of Sam Houston" by Cleo Perdue; and "The Battle of San Jacinto" by Frances Fouts. Interspersed with the talks, patriotic songs were sung by the student body under the direction of Mrs. Wimbish. In conclusion "The Eyes of Texas" was sung with such volume that the hearts of all were filled with love for our state.

'Tis Said'

The Seniors really had a swell time in Wichita Falls. They may sort of brag because they have seen Mrs. Roosevelt and Governor Allred, but we would too.—Some of the senior boys are robbing the cradle by going with sophomore girls.—The seniors got to play "fruit-basket-turnover" in Economics the other day. They went around until told to stop and the seat they were by is the one they have to sit in.—Orchids to Velton Moore for the honors he received in his Boy Scout work. We know he rightfully deserves them and are proud of him.—Louise can drive a tractor; with the help of two others.—Swell kids in H. H. S.: Cleo Perdue, Mildred Miller, Neva Gay, Bonnie Dell Hisey, and Curtis Cross.—Last but not least don't forget the Senior play coming up that will be plenty good.

Moore Is Awarded With Eagle Badge

Because of the student teachers, Velton Moore, was presented an eagle badge by Mr. Breeding to the badge, he certificate and a letter. Mrs. E. West, president of the National Scout Organization were due Culnan the same day, but not present to receive one.

Velton Moore is an Eagle Scout and it is a distinction. Only one out of a hundred Scouts ever earn an Eagle Scout badge. Haskell High School is very proud of Velton Moore and the other high school boys who hold that rank; and Lon McMillin, and Hassell Hunter and others.

Use To Open Thursday

Seven good games were played between Haskell and O'Brien Thursday night in our gym. Our boys won three of the first four games. The volleyball team played Friday night, Friday night, and won three games. The wing girls played on Tuesday night. The team: Anna Mae Leas, Earline Stodghill, Earline Stodghill, Naomi Edge Reese, Mabel Irene Miller.

Don't Ever Grow Up

The Senior play is here! Everyone knows that the senior play is the most important event in the senior year. This year we are planning to have a very interesting play.

The accent in this delightful new comedy is very decidedly on youth. The author, James Reach, has striking ability for portraying American youth. In Mimi Meadows (Elizabeth Huckabee) the central figure of "Don't Ever Grow Up", he has created one of his most interesting characters. Mimi is sixteen, charming, naive, and unsophisticated. She manages the local football team and has secured the prized services of Hal Kenny (Robert Thompson) third All-American halfback, on his Spring vacation. Mimi has wheeled her mother into letting her use their lawn to celebrate with a "Victory Bazaar" on the night following the big game with the "Bulldogs." Things are somewhat complicated when Mimi falls headlong into the first "crush" of her young life—Hal, Kenny. The latter is being used as a foil by Elaine (Martelle Clifton) Mimi's elder sister, to arouse the jealousy of Glenn Stevens (Virgil Meadors) her wealthy young sister. Mimi is willing to go to any length to save Hal. She makes her sacrifice and much to his amazement, she has saved him from himself. There is a wealth of incident and natural humor and the play affords a shrewd and understanding insight into the lives of our very young generation.

Other interesting members of the cast are: Molly Ruby Sue Persons; Mrs. Meadows, Marvina Post, Cravath, Lynn Pace; Dud, Labry Ballard; Jean, Wilma Whitley; Mr. Meadows, Bob McAnulty; Judy, Anita Jo Simmons; Johnny, Marion Joeselle; Slim, Claude Jenkins Jr. Carrie, Velma, Rae, and Debbie (chums of Mimi) are played by Frances Fouts, Marjorie Ratliff, Melba Cullum, and Hazel Foote.

Keeping Up With The Exes

Thomas Kaigler, a graduate of the class of '37, is a student at Texas Tech and is a demonstration of what Mr. W. B. Chesser, County Agent, told the Haskell High School student body recently in an assembly program—that "any one can get an education if he is not afraid of work." Thomas works for the Jarrett-West Drug store half of the day and goes to school the other half. But then he got the habit of work when at the age of ten he began paying his own expenses while going through grade and high school.

Recently he visited the high school and was loud in his praise of the entire plant, especially the new auditorium, and commented on the lovely stage, the way the ceiling is built to distribute sound, and on the indirect lighting.

As the case should be, Thomas thinks there are no greater men in Texas than some of his teachers at Tech.

But no matter how short a time these ex-boys and girls are home on vacation, they have time to visit the high school.

And So The Coronation

Note: Should there be similar names to the ones used in this play, it is merely a coincidence, and these characters were not meant to portray any living person. (Not much).

Last week a messenger arrived at the Swanky Plaza Inn with an invitation to King Allscarlet's ball. Times: Sixteenth century.

Srta. Riley: I'm thrilled.
 Mlle. de Vick: —beyond words?
 Srta. Riley: Yes!
 Lord Wimbish: Let's into our clothes. We don't have long.
 Von Bank: Servants, bring food and drink for a poor, tired, hungry man—and water for a bath; I'll eat while bathing.
 Servant: It shall be as the poor, tired, thin man desires.
 Von Bank: No remarks about the size. I'll box your ears; Besides, there has been enough talk in this play about my eating and my size. I'll sue someone. Where's my lawyer?
 Lady Wimbish: Please, Baron, we were only joking. You are very portly and distinguished looking.
 All: Oh, yes!
 Von Bank: Well, um-rupt, spitter, sputter!
 (Brief curtain to indicate lapse of time necessary for gentlemen to get into tights, and ladies into dancing frocks).
 Second scene: Ring Allscarlet's palace. (Night has descended and the dream house is aglow with electric brilliance).
 Signor de Mason: Do you all see who I see?
 Baroness Meyer: No. Where?
 Lord Wimbish: 'Pon my word, if it isn't Sir McCollum standing by King 'Scarlet!
 Signor de Mason: (To page) Announce us please—with trumpets.
 (Servant announces them and they all enter.)
 King Allscarlet: Welcome, friends to my humble abode.
 All: Thank you, thank you.
 Srta. Riley: Ah, such beauty, and such extravagance! What will the taxpayer say?
 Mlle. de Vick: Why worry about the taxpayer? This isn't costing us anything.
 Major-domo: May I have your donations for the Care-of-Ex-Kings-and-Their-Families-Fund.
 Count Van Noy: O-oh, I figured there was some catch to it. (All done).
 Count Van Noy: Tell me, your Majesty, how are conditions in your country?
 King Allscarlet: Ahem; extremely good, with the exception of our soil. During the last war there were so many grape vines destroyed that the land is going to waste and drouth is going rampant.
 Count Van Noy: Well, I'll tell you, your Majesty, I have a plan like this: I cross an onion with a weeping willow tree, and use that for irrigation.
 Sir McCollum: Let's dance.
 Count Van Noy: You're just jealous; that's all.
 Sir McCollum: To the contrary, my dear Count; I pity you.
 Lady Wimbish: My jewels — they're gone!
 Lord Wimbish: Oh me! My liver!
 Lady Wimbish: My jewels! Oh, oh!
 (Now what is it now? Wait for the third and concluding act of "And So The Coronation.")

Speaking of The Junior Play

The Juniors wish to express their appreciation of the High School Band and we are sure that every one enjoyed their music.

The borrowed articles from various places were quite a necessity and if it had not been for these things we might not have had a play.

The characters in the play rigged up their own costumes for the most part; some of them were very clever.

J. C. Scott is due a big bunch of orchids for "pinch hitting" in a very necessary part, which had been given to Eugene Rogers in the first place. About the middle of the afternoon it became known to Miss Vick that Eugene was sick in bed with fever and the doctor (no foolin') so J. C. was pressed into service with very short notice and no practice. We think he did "plum good."

"The Babes in the Woods" caused the loudest scream. Well, I guess you would too if you were a boy and dressed up in a dress.

"Mrs. Jarley" was not quite herself Tuesday night for her figure was a little exaggerated, don't you think?

In "Rebecca and Rowena", J. C. didn't seem to know where "Rowena" should be picked up. But he hadn't practiced, that's the reason.

A romance brooded during the play. Didn't you think Louise seemed to like to fall on Quinton?

J. C. and Jack had a time with "The Siamese Twins" especially

Personal

Haskell High School is always ready to welcome new students and everyone should be friendly toward them and help any way they can.

Raymond Jackson from Weldon now lives with his brother at Midway, and is a Junior.

Ovenia Walton is a Freshman from Weiner.

Lois Lackey is a transfer from Old Glory and is classified as a Sophomore.

Gypsy Ramblers Discuss Buying Stage Curtain

In a meeting held last week the Gypsy Ramblers discussed the question of a curtain for the stage of the auditorium.

All of the Ramblers felt that there is a very real need for a curtain. Especially so is this true because this is the first year that we have had such a splendid auditorium. A committee was appointed to investigate the relative cost of curtains to determine just which one would be the most practical for our purposes.

Other committees were appointed to see that a shrub be placed on the grave of Jean Kendall, to work up a chapel program for Gypsy Rambler Day, to rewrite the constitution which was destroyed in the fire, and to compile a list of simple parliamentary procedure. Plans for a hike next week were discussed.

Mrs. Kaigler Presents Program

A very clever and entertaining assembly program was presented last Wednesday, February 23 to the high school student body and several visitors. The program was as follows:

Reading: "Penrod's Letter" by Josephine Parish.

One Act Play: "An Old School Mate" with Bonnie Dell Hisey, Willie Lee Medford and Joe Maples.

Reading: "The Bald-Headed Man" by Beunis Faye Ratliff.

Skit: "Misfortune Grips Jimmy From Behind" with Jack Morris and Stanley Smith.

One Act Play: "Give Me A Ring" with Christine Wells, Wilma Kuenstler, and T. R. Odell Jr. In addition to these, there were ten boys who made up the "living pictures." Marjorie Ratliff accompanied the living pictures at the piano.

Abusing The Library

Students should not abuse the privilege of going to the library to get books and magazines. I have seen one student make as high as five trips to the library in one forty-five minute period. This person did not read a single story in any of the magazines; nevertheless he disturbed at least thirty other students by his walking to and from the library and rattling papers. Wasting time is how this would be classified. This student not only wastes time but puts extra work on the librarian. Usually the student who does this is trying to attract attention—a thing which no one should do.

The library was installed for the benefit of the student and for convenience; therefore the students should use it to their advantage and to acquaint themselves with the different authors of the past and of today.

The magazines are put in the library to acquaint the students with short story writers of today and to encourage them to read editorials, columns, and not just to look at pictures and waste time. Thus the library, if used right, is a good place to use your pastime and also benefit yourself. Let's all join to make it worth while by not abusing our library privileges.

Better English Club Meets February 25

The Better English Club met February 25. After a business discussion the following program was presented:

Poem—Edwin Jeter.

Song—Orelma Jarman.

Song—Zelma Adkins and Virginia Heath.

Story—James Sloan.

Imitation—W. S. Pogue.

Story—Lorraine Brock.

Jokes—Wayne Dunn.

Song—Desmond Dulaney.

Story—Myrta Bob Branch.

Freshman News—Curtis Cross.

That concluded our program. The meeting was adjourned.

Junior Boys Lose In Tournament

The Junior boys motored to Weinert the last week-end to enter the basketball tournament. They survived the first round by a forfeit from Irbys thus, advancing to the semi-finals for their first game.

The game with Sagerton was packed with thrills from beginning to end. Landess was banished from the game on fouls, with four minutes to go, and the count knotted 12-12. When the fracas ended, however, the Haskell lads emerged on the long end of the score 17-13.

In the final game Saturday night Midway won the coveted trophy by defeating Haskell 25-16.

State Credit Association to Meet In Dallas

Retailers, Credit Managers and consumer credit bureau Secretaries will gather for their Thirty-Eighth Annual Convention in Dallas May 22nd through the 25th, according to information received by Ralph E. Duncan of Haskell Retail Merchants Association.

The most interesting topic to be discussed and perhaps the theme of the Convention, will be the problem of controlling consumer credit sales in keeping with fluctuating consumer income. Consumer credit, so far as the retailer is concerned, has come through all depressions perhaps better than any other part of business. Credit executives are to be congratulated upon their alertness in safe-guarding credit in the field of retailing. Today more than ever before there is more retail business done on a credit basis and the percentage of credit to cash is going to continue to increase for several years to come.

The Convention Committee in Dallas is arranging a very elaborate entertainment program, one that will be of much interest to the delegates, as well as to the visiting ladies. The main banquet will take place on Tuesday evening, May 24th, and the Convention will adjourn Wednesday, May 25th.

Advance registrations so far indicate a record attendance estimated to reach over six hundred.

R. L. Vick of Rule was a business visitor in our city Thursday.

Student Editorial Issue

Often times students need to call the attention of each other to matters which should concern them all. Hence the editorial in a school paper and hence a whole issue of them this week. Fourth year English students wrote editorials last week as a part of a unit in journalism, and some of them give us much food for thought. So we are putting in some serious articles this week, and hope you will be in sympathy with our intentions, and give some consideration to the things that the Seniors wish to pass on to other students.

—The Staff.

Track Practice Begins Last Week

Last week a large number of boys reported for track practice. There were only two workouts last week in which the boys went through light exercises. They will be put through more strenuous exercises this week and next, in preparation for the Invitation Track Meet which will be held in the Haskell football stadium on March 10.
