FSA RE-OPENS LOAN PERIOD

Applications Being Taken For Financing Sound Farm Operation

Applications are again being accepted for rehabilitation loans to eligible farmers who can comply with requirements of the Farm Security Administration, according to R. E. Skipworth, district FSA supervisor for five counties in this area, who maintains headquarters offices here.

The loan period was closed recently, with a total of 225 applications on hand, filed by farmers in the five counties, but these applications have been worked out, Mr. Skipworth said, and a surplus remains in the allocation of funds available for the district, he has been advised.

Rehabilitation loans are available to landowners operating their own farms, or reliable renters who have long-tenure records as competent farm operators but are unable to properly finance an adequate and sound program of farm development. Loans are granted in any sum ranging from $25 up to $5,000 repayable over a period of from one to five years, at a low rate of interest.

"The Farm Security Administration might be correctly termed the loan department of the United States Department of Agriculture," Mr. Skipworth explained, "and distinctly is not a part of any relief agency of the government. Loans are made on a sound credit basis, after careful investigation of the credit risk involved."

Purpose of the FSA is to assist competent farmers in maintaining a sound farm and home management plan, and to promote a long-range diversified agricultural program. Loans can be used for the purchase of needed equipment, development of dairy herds, poultry flocks, and other adjuncts to successful and profitable farming operations.

Major loan requirements include planting of sufficient garden vegetables to provide for a home food supply and a surplus for canning, and for the production of ample feedstuff for livestock.

Community cooperative service loans are also available through the FSA, for the purchase of feed and harvesting equipment for cooperative use, and for the placing of improved breeding stock for cattle, horses, and mules in communities where a livestock improvement program is being carried out.

To date, loan applications have been approved for 171 clients in the five-county district embracing Haskell, Stonewall, Knox, Throckmorton and Baylor counties. In Haskell county 75 loans have been approved, Mr. Skipworth stated.

County Agent's Office Swamped As Farm Allotments Being Determined

In order to facilitate work of determining farm allotments under the 1938 agricultural program, County Agent Schumann in a statement today asked the cooperation of farmers to the extent that they refrain from calling at the office for their allotments until they have been mailed notice that an official individual farm allotment has been determined. The statement follows:

"All farmers are urged to refrain from calling at the county agent's office for the purpose of securing information concerning their 1938 crop allotments as any information we can give to farmers at the present time are ONLY ESTIMATES and are UNOFFICIAL. If farmers will refrain from calling at the office for a few days, it will enable the county agent's force to complete all the data necessary on the work sheets and the farmer will receive his official allotment at a much earlier date.

"As soon as the official allotments have been obtained, a notice will be mailed to each farmer giving him the allotment for his farm. Under existing conditions the county agent's office force is kept busy during the day answering questions, and as a great amount of detailed work is necessary in order to calculate the allotments this work has to be neglected; therefore we are being seriously delayed in getting out the official allotments for this county.

"Farmers are urged to cooperate with us in this matter, because we feel that each farmer in the county is anxious to receive his official allotment."

HASKELL DELEGATION PLANS MOTORCADE TO W. T. C. C. CONVENTION

DATES DRUG STORE WILL INSTALL AIR CONDITION SYSTEM

Latest Type Frigidaire Unit Will Be In Operation In Near Future

As an added convenience for their patrons and in keeping with a progressive program of expansion inaugurated several years ago when their building was completely modernized, Oates Drug Store will install within the next few weeks the latest type of Frigidaire air conditioning equipment.

Announcement concerning the new installations was made Thursday by Hill Oates, manager of the establishment. The contemplated improvement has been considered for several months, and Mr. Oates inspected air cooling and conditioning units in a number of larger stores in several cities of the state before determining choice of equipment for his store.

Installation of the system will be started about May 1st by engineers of the West Texas Utilities Company, and the unit will be ready for operation during the early part of the month.

The equipment will provide air-conditioning for every part of the large building, giving a complete change of air every ten minutes, with temperature regulation at any degree desired. Cooling capacity of the unit will be equal to 10,000 pounds of melted ice daily and the perfect conditioning is insured by filtering, de-humidifying and purifying air circulation, with all excess moisture removed to maintain an ideal humidity reading of 50 degrees.

Operation of the air-conditioning system will not require keeping entrances of the building closed, but transparent composition screens will be installed at all doors.

The installation here will be the only drug store west of Fort Worth with the exception of Lubbock and Wichita Falls using similar systems.

Cheese Plant Receipts Reach New High Mark

Haskell Band To Accompany Caravan Leaving Tuesday Morning

A motorcade of at least twenty-five automobiles is being planned to transport a Haskell delegation of at least 100 persons expected to attend the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in Wichita Falls next week, it was announced today.

Arrangements have been made by the Chamber of Commerce for round trip transportation of the Haskell Municipal Band. The organization under the leadership of Director Joe Meacham, will have a part in several activities of the convention and will represent Haskell in the parade of West Texas bands.

All persons who are planning to attend the convention are asked to register for the motorcade, and those who can furnish transportation for others will be favorably considered. Information will be furnished with the local C. of C. office.

Actual achievements of the Works Progress Administration in Haskell county, and the several projects now being carried out as a result of WPA sanction, will be inspected by a group of representatives from state and district offices of the government agency who will arrive in Haskell Tuesday April 26th. Among those who are expected in the party will be J. C. Douglas, supervisor of the division of operations, District 7, Fort Worth; Dan G. Before starting the trip, the group will visit the sewing room maintained here, which will observe "open house" during the hours from 10 a. m. until 3 p. m., to receive visitors.

Tentative itinerary arranged for the visiting officials, local civic leaders and city and county officials calls for inspection of the municipal park and swimming pool, High School football stadium, Highway 120 east of Haskell, thence to Rule where the High School gymnasium in that city will be inspected, and next to Rochester for a visit to the Rochester sewing room. If possible the group will also visit lateral road projects in several precincts near Haskell.

Local citizens will be urged to accompany the group for the afternoon's tour of the county. The trip will be started from the courthouse at 1:15 Tuesday afternoon.

Tax Suits Set For Hearing In District Court

With the court docket showing more than fifty suits filed for collection of delinquent taxes due various towns and school districts in the county, all contested tax suits have been scheduled for hearing during the week starting Monday May 2, third week of the current district court term. Defendants named in contested actions have been cited to appear on May 2, according to attorneys representing the various taxing units.

Beginning next Monday, April 25, suits for collection of delinquent taxes on personal property will be filed in Justice and County Court here, to recover back taxes and accrued penalties on personal property rendered for taxation in the towns of Rule and Haskell, and also the school districts of the two subdivisions. Citations of defendants will be served, and judgment by default will be sought against all defendants who are not present or represented at hearing of the actions on dates to be set by the courts, tax attorneys warned.

NYA Projects Now Underway In The County

Twenty youths are now being employed on two NYA projects in Haskell county, embracing beautification of school premises in the Mattson and Paint Creek rural high school districts. The work includes building concrete sidewalks and retaining walls, filling and leveling grounds for volleyball and tennis courts, and assisting in landscaping work.

Grady and J. W. Roberts of Monday were visitors in Haskell Thursday.

All Teachers Haskell Schools Are Re-Elected

At a meeting of the board of trustees of the Haskell Independent School District this week, all teachers composing the faculty of the High School, North Ward and South Ward schools were re-elected for the 1938-39 school term. Supt. Breedlove and Principals Geo. V. Wimshill of the High School, Miss Madalin Hunt, North Ward, and Mrs. Irene Ballard of the South Ward were elected at a previous meeting of the board.

In addition to the regular faculty members re-elected this week, Miss Lucy P. Pool, substitute teacher in the South Ward school was named to a regular place on the teaching staff filling the vacancy created by the resignation several months ago of Miss Alma Sprows.

Wycliffe Malphurs, a senior in Sam Houston State Teachers College, Huntsville, spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Malphurs.

WPA Will Furnish Needed Labor To Complete Project

Preliminary work was started Thursday on construction of the final 7.7 mile stretch of highway 120 between Haskell and the Throckmorton county line, which when completed will close the last remaining gap on this important roadway across Haskell county with the exception of a small stretch west of Rule which is now being surveyed.

The highway has already been extended from Haskell east to a point midway between this city and the Throckmorton county line. First construction work will begin at the east line of the county, where a portion of the roadway remains to be cleared of trees and undergrowth.

Construction work will be under supervision of the State Highway Department, with WPA labor being used, the project having been approved several weeks ago. The program initiated Thursday calls for construction of dump, and drainage structures, with a caliche base similar to the portion of the highway already constructed.

Approximately ten months will be required for completion, according to estimates, furnishing employment to between 100 and 150 WPA laborers on the project for that length of time.

L. B. Dean, resident engineer for the State Highway department, formerly stationed at Olney, has established office quarters on the third floor of the courthouse and will supervise construction of the highway. Reynolds Wilson of this city has been employed as office assistant.

CARLOAD BRAN FOR POISONING HOPPERS HERE

Poison to be used with this bran has not been received, but is expected at any time. These materials are being furnished to the farmers of this county by the Federal government, and will be distributed in a similar manner as was the material in 1937.

The Haskell county Commissioner's Court is cooperating in this program by furnishing the mixing station where the materials (Continued on Page 8)

As I sit here, I look back into the days of my youth—the spring days—and remember my yen to go barefoot. I've still got that yen.

A word to some girls. When you were writing that thank you note that told "him" how much you enjoyed the buggy ride the night before, and you generously sprinkled it with a couple of dozen of those specially pretty adjectives, did you ever stop to think just how the note might sound to the friend in glaring daylight? I quite innocently overheard a boy, who had evidently received one of these, and his friends the other day—beta didn't know he let his friends read 'em (and weep?) did you?—An they were not laughing outright, mind you—they were just simply sneaking. So if you don't want everyone to call you a silly little "word-musher," snap out of your dreamy mood as you write and read it over with his friends' view. How does it sound? Well, Eulis doesn't let a little thing like a debt bother his pursuit of life, happiness and Elinor.

Aren't these just heavenly night skies to skate under? (Mush fever's got me too).

Ask three girls what do they know about machinery? They won't tell you their dad had a wheelbarrow.

Bob C. thinks J. C. (Sophomore girls) is good looking. Well—well! How many hearts have you puffed up since you've learned the ways of "shoot-em-a-line" young man? Freshman can get around, can't they?

As we drift hither and yon these days—and nights—we find our fellow classmates interested in various things. Skating, dancing and picnicing are the tops. Well—"Heah come a man" so ill a-b-c'n you all.

P. S. When some of our Indian maidens get off their particular territory and go over to see another Indian of a different feather—they sure learn the rules quick. In other words when some of our Sophomore lasses (and others of course) visit the town south of here (and any other direction) their hosts always seem to pay the visit back, quick.

Books of The Late W. E. Sherrill Are Placed In Library

Several volumes of books concerning birds and bird life and eight volumes entitled "Nations of the World" have been placed in our school library by relatives of the late W. E. Sherrill, a pioneer of this city who died recently. Mr. Sherrill was very interested in birds and had quite an extensive library concerning that subject. In addition to the books there are quite a number of magazines of different interests. Haskell High School is proud to have these books and we are proud to know that they belonged to such a worthy man. We are grateful to the ones who presented us with these books and magazines.

Note of Appreciation

The members of the Gypsy Rambler club, sponsors of the "Cowboy Band", wish to extend their appreciation to the Lions club for helping sell tickets to the program to be given by the "Cowboy Band" Thursday evening, April 21 in the high school auditorium at 8:15 o'clock.

Spring Training Progresses Nicely

The Indian's spring training is progressing nicely with about thirty-four boys reporting for training. Of this group about eighteen are new-comers along with fifteen hold-overs from last season. Coach Mason is interested in getting a larger number of boys to train for next season. The kind of team Haskell will have next year depends entirely upon the boys and their interest in the game. So you boys that are interested in football report for spring training and get into condition for the coming season.

To increase the interest in this sport one game every two weeks will be played between members of the squad. These games will be played at night and the public is invited to attend. There will be no admission charged. Let's get behind this, boys, and make it the best team in Haskell's history.

Apropos To Nothing

From the looks of matters this Monday morning the Seniors still don't have the play out of their system. I suppose such Seniors will have to take castor oil and stay in bed a few days and they will get up feeling much better, as Molly says.

Elizabeth H. is still a little dazed (she thinks) over that little kiss placed on her by an overly ardent lover. But it was all in the play, Elizabeth.

Usually for such a dramatic event it would be in order to list the best performances; but everyone has his own idea, so why not let them stick with it?

If listening to blasphemy against teachers be a crime, then quite a few Seniors will face long prison terms after the lecture by Crockett English last Friday. Everyone of the teachers according to Crockett seemed to have queer names, funny shaped head and was either cold in his manner or absolutely impartial.

"It's An Every Day Affair To See"

LaVerne and Lloyd. France M's. fingers tickling someone. Paul R. flirting with the girls. Joe singing "Hooray for Hollywood." Lon looking for that "red-headed woman." Joyce talking. Paul C. with a pencil in his mouth. Coats coming to school late. Kinzie talking about "the night before." Christine trying to get out of some work. Jack with Gene. Catherine looking forward to Saturday nights. Jerry C. wasting valuable time in the study hall. Odie trying to learn Spanish. Louise, the envy of the Geometry class because she knows all there is to know.

Seniors Entertain With Reception

After their play Friday night, the Seniors entertained ex-students and themselves with a reception. About fifty guests assembled in the Home Economics room and had a very informal good time. A nickelodion furnished the music for the occasion. While the guests were talking and mingling together, a refreshment plate of three dainty sandwiches, iced tea, olives, potato chips, and mints was served by Senior girls. Small rabbits were plate favors. We were very happy to have, as some of our guests, students from college who were home for the Easter holidays; and we were sorry that more of the ex-students here did not get to attend.

Introducing The Seniors

Robert Thompson—better known as "Fat"—athletic—likes football—on team three years—basketball one year—track two years—Haskell's high point man in track meet this year—active in school affairs—member of Senior play cast—has attractive black curly hair—brown eyes—very fond of girls from Weinert and Stamford, so he says—not a victim of the wiles of any girl, so we say.

Geneva Thompson—Three years in pep squad—four years member of Gypsy Rambler club—one year in Choral Club—two years in Home Economics club—friendly—good sense of humor—sees something amusing in almost every situation—friendly—good personality—prefers dancing to any other thing.

Christine Wells—Transferred student from Howard. At that school she played three years on the Howard basketball team—three years on the volleyball team—one year in tennis. She was the reporter of her Freshman class and vice-president the following year—sang two years with the choral club. As a Senior of Haskell High she has transferred her good work here. Has a friendly character and is especially fond of outdoor sports—mainly basketball and tennis.

Senior Play Is Great Success

In spite of the rain the day before, the Senior play was a big success. As we had hoped the auditorium was packed. In fact, several were standing. We felt that we were honored by getting to use the new stage equipment first and we want to extend our appreciation to Jones and Cox for permitting us to use some of their furniture to complete the stage. Even though the cyclorama is not the one we ordered, we are glad that we had it to use and are looking forward to having the real one. We want to thank each person who attended and made possible the success of the play; and we especially want to offer our appreciation to Miss Louise Kaigler who so willingly gave her assistance by offering the music for us.

Freshmen Wonder

Why Parramore S. is dressed up so lately. Could it be Sue Q.? How Roy P. and Bonnie Dell H. are getting along in er-ah, well we could say algebra. How Bob C. and Mildred M. got along at the weiner roast Friday night. Why Dave Breedlove is so late delivering his evening papers. Maybe he's stirred up a romance.

Cowboy Band To Give Program Here

The "Cowboy Band" of Hardin-Simmons University will give a program in the Haskell High School auditorium Thursday evening, April 21 at 8:15 o'clock. This program is being sponsored by the Gypsy Rambler club, and the proceeds will be used as a payment on the new curtain which the club has bought for the High School auditorium. The tickets for the performance are being sold by members of the Gypsy Rambler club and also by members of the Lions club.

Blue Bonnet Home Demonstration Club

Mirrors hung above the fireplace is something new and are very attractive, said Mrs. D. C. Rogers to the members of the Blue Bonnet Home Demonstration club, which met in the home of Mrs. Ed Conner Thursday afternoon, April 14.

Colored mirrors are being used in many places. The blue mirror is very restful to the eyes as well as decorations. A mirror placed on dining table makes a very good centerpiece. Mirrors hung in vacant spaces on walls make the room look smaller. Mirrors hung above small tables make a very useful dressing table for the bedroom.

THE VERSATILE CREAM PUFF

There's more to a cream puff than most people think. They are by no means limited to whipped cream or custard fillings. In fact, it's not even limited to the dessert section of our recipes. Cream Puffs are delicious stuffed with chicken or seafood salad—or with hot creamed chicken or fish. Made very small and stuffed with creamed cheese and olives, they are delicious salad accompaniments.

But like the old recipe for Hare Pie that used to begin "first catch your hare" we'd better first make our cream puff. Cream puffs—as you know—are made from a special kind of pastry known as Choux Paste. In Germany a cream puff is a "windbeutel" which means a bag of wind or air. I like this name because it's so descriptive of just what every cream puff worthy of the name should be—a generous space for custard or cream encircled with a tender, crisp, golden brown crust that is wholly delicious. Here is the recipe:

Cream Puffs
1/2 cup butter
1 cup boiling water
1 cup all-purpose flour
4 eggs

Heat butter and water together to boiling point in enamel saucepan. Sift flour once before measuring. Add flour all at once, and stir constantly with a wooden spoon until the mixture clears the pan and forms into a ball (about 1 minute). Remove from heat. Cool. Add unbeaten eggs one at a time, beating to a smooth paste after egg is added, then beat mixture until smooth and velvety. Drop from spoon on a very lightly greased cookie sheet forming balls the size of small oranges and keeping them at least 3 inches apart. Place in hot oven, lowering the temperature after the puffs have fully expanded. Bake 45 to 50 minutes, depending on size. Use a hot oven, 450° F., for first 15 minutes; then reduce to moderate oven, 350° F., for remaining 30 to 35 minutes. When baked, allow to cool slowly (away from draft). When cool, cut off tops with sharp knife, scoop out any filaments of soft dough with a spoon, fill with sweetened whipped cream, custard, or any desired filling. Replace tops. Dust with confectioners' sugar. Amount: 12 cream puffs.

Fruit-Filled Cream Puffs
You'll find them especially delicious at this time of year with fresh strawberries blended through the cream. Here are the directions:

Fruit-Filled Puffs
Sift cooled Cream Puffs. Fill with whipped cream and fresh fruit. For filling for 8 Cream Puffs, use 1 cup whipping cream and 1 cup cut-up fresh fruit (cherries, peaches, strawberries or raspberries) sweetened with 1/4 to 1/2 cup sugar. Sprinkle the sugar over the fruit and let stand while whipping the cream. Then fold the whipped cream into the fruit.

Puffs filled with vanilla ice cream and served with hot chocolate sauce
Puffs filled with vanilla ice cream and served with butterscotch sauce
Puffs filled with peppermint ice cream and served with chocolate sauce
Puffs filled with strawberry ice cream and dusted with confectioners' sugar

Petits Choux and Chocolate Eclair
These are made from the same basic foundation as the cream puffs. Here are the directions for making them.

Petits Choux
Make tiny puffs by dropping paste from tip of teaspoon forming balls about the size of walnuts. Bake only 20 minutes. Hot oven, 450° F., for 10 minutes; then reduce to 350° F., moderate oven, to finish baking. Amount: 3 dozen tiny puffs. Fill puffs with thick custard and frost tops with chocolate butter icing.

Chocolate Eclair
Force cream puff paste through a 1/2-inch pastry tube. Moving the tube slowly make strips 4 inches long. Bake as Petits Choux. When cold fill with custard and frost tops with chocolate butter icing.

Custard Filling
Mix 1/4 cup sugar with 6 table-spoons all-purpose flour and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Beat 4 egg yolks slightly and add 2 cups top milk or cream. Add slowly to flour and sugar mixture. Cook in double boiler, stirring constantly until thick (about 15 minutes). Cool. Blend in 2 teaspoons vanilla. Amount: Filling for 10 or 12 cream puffs.

Fruit-Filled Cream Puffs are an easy delightful dessert — once you've made your cream puffs.

If you worry about what to serve, if you dread to start the next meal, just call at your grocer or the Haskell Free Press, and ask for this week's menus. Complete menus for the week will be given to you at no cost.

Mrs. Jim Baily gave a wonderful report on personal service for the last month and Mrs. Gilstrap in her sweet and impressive way taught our Bible lesson from the third and fourth chapters of Ephesians which was discussed by all ladies present and impressed upon us the much happiness we receive from the right mode of living a true christian life each day.

We were dismissed with sentence prayers by each lady present and a social hour followed in which Mrs. Taylor assisted by her daughter Anne served ice cream and cakes to ten ladies and little Miss Margaret May Morris.

Outdoor scenes are pleasing and provide a means of blending brilliant colors. Some like the idea of selecting pictures suitable for the different seasons of year. Animal scenes are appealing to children.

The Archko Volume

IN 1879 Rev. W. D. Mahan, a Cumberland Presbyterian minister of Boonville, Mo., published a book called "The Archko Volume." It purported to be an official report of the trial and death of Jesus Christ, made directly to the Emperor Tiberius by Pontius Pilate, governor of Judea, which Mahan asserted he had obtained from the Vatican in Rome.

Its authenticity was immediately attacked but Mahan defended his work so vigorously that many people were convinced that it was genuine. Later he expanded the book with the addition of other documents, giving many new "facts" about the life of Christ. These, he asserted, he had obtained in the Vatican and in Constantinople.

Since that time the Archko Volume has been reprinted in many different editions in many different cities; it has been translated into foreign languages and thousands of copies of it have been sold all over the world. Despite the fact that Dr. Edgar J. Goodspeed of the University of Chicago, an eminent authority on early Christian literature, has proved that the book is a fake from beginning to end, many people still believe it authentic. And strangely enough an original printing of this fake is now considered a rarity and a valuable piece of Americana, and several copies have been sold for as much as $50 each.

Spiritual Fellowship Breakfast At The Methodist Church

The Easter season was indeed one of deep spiritual significance for the Haskell Methodist church. Mesdames Patterson and Broedlove gave the children of their department an Easter egg hunt. Several of the adult classes had Easter breakfasts. At the 11 o'clock hour, the pastor being absent Dr. Eratham, president of McMurry College brought the message. The choir under the able leadership of Mr. Lewis Smith gave several appropriate numbers. The special anthem "Glad Easter Bells" was deeply impressive. Mrs. Patterson organist played for the prelude, "The Holy City", for the offertory "The Lord Is Risen", for the postlude "The Palms".

The church was very appropriately decorated. Miss Ruby Fitzgerald, chairman of arrangements had banked the altar with pots of Easter lilies, mingled with those of ferns. The illuminated cross in the background, shedding its soft glow over all made of the altar a sublime picture.

A greeting committee of seven ladies of which Mrs. Irby was chairman met members and visitors in the vestibule. Ladies of this committee were Mesdames Irby, Kimbrough, Fields, Darnell, F. T. Sanders, Ada Rike and H. M. Smith.

SPECIAL SERVICES AT THE PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

A noted speaker from out of town will have charge of the morning services at the Presbyterian church Sunday, April 24. Mr. J. G. Whitten of Austin, Texas is to speak on the work of Synod's Causes. Mr. Whitten has for some years been closely connected with the work of Home Missions in Brazos Presbytery, and was chosen to take the place Dr. B. K. Tenney in Austin three years ago. In his present work, he is in constant touch with our work among the Mexicans, our schools and colleges, all our student work, our summer encampments, stewardship, and Synod's Home Missions.

Mr. Whitten is a most interesting speaker, having a thorough knowledge of all the activities of his committee. This is a rare opportunity afforded the Presbyterians of Haskell, and the public is invited to share it.

Sunday evening the Candle Light Service planned for last Sunday will be held. There will be special music in the form of solos by F. E. Frierson and Ira Hester. The program will begin at 7:30. The public is invited to attend this inspiration service and to worship with us.

CHURCHES

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

There will be a special service at the Baptist church Sunday morning. The service will be dedicated to the boys and girls from the ages of eight to twelve years. We are anxious to have all the boys and girls of this section of the country. An important section will be reserved for them to sit. Some of them will take part on the program. The pastor will close the service with a message on "Remembering God."

We invite the parents to attend this service. It will be helpful to them and all other ages. The service should mean much to the home.

The church was gratified with the splendid Sunday school attendance on last Sunday. There were 518 present. This number and more can be present each Sunday. We have a class for every age and teachers that really teach. Our teachers have worked hard in order to be able to teach the Bible as it ought to be taught. It would be difficult to find a more capable set of teachers in the land. We all need religious friends. Give our teachers a chance to be your friends. They will seek to help you and your family. You always help the church and the classes when you attend.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
J. G. Malphurs, Minister

Our attendance for Bible school last Lord's day was the best for many months, an increase of sixty eight percent. We urge every member to come in time for a class next Lord's day. We'll try to make room for all visitors.

Sermon at eleven and eight o'clock. We urge everyone to hear the evening discourse, which will be one of a series on the history of the church.

Wednesday evening at eight o'clock Mr. A. B. Reese, an African Missionary, will bring us a message on missionary work in Africa. The public is cordially invited to hear him.

BUSINESS MEN'S BIBLE CLASS

You will always find a hearty welcome at the Business Men's Bible Class. There were 152 present last Sunday, but there are still others who need to come. You will enjoy the social life of the class, but above that is the fine religious spirit. We are studying the sixteenth chapter of John. This is one of the richest chapters in the Bible. We do not skip about, but take every word and verse as we come to it. We ought to study and seek to learn some new truth every day. The Bible is the most important book that one can study. We invite you to meet with us Sunday morning 9:45 a. m. on west side of the square.

Prehistoric Race Sought In Texas

Dr. Frank Setzler, archaeologist of the Smithsonian Institution, Washington, has gone to the Texas Big Bend area near the Mexican Border to follow the Pecos River northward in quest of further evidences of a pre-historic race, believed to have inhabited that section.

On three previous Texas exploration trips, Dr. Setzler has made studies along the Rio Grande discovering evidence of a people which, calling them Big Bend Cave Dwellers, he believed dwelt in the area about the beginning of or somewhat earlier than the Christian Era. He found remains with characteristics classified as Asiatic.

Dr. Setzler planned to strike the Pecos near its confluence with the Rio Grande and to follow that stream in his two month's explorations northward toward New Mexico.

The collection of artifacts assembled in Witte Museum in San Antonio as result of research in habitats of the prehistoric cave dwellers of the Big Bend country, was praised by Dr. Setzler as being superior to that in his own institution. However, he preferred not to refer to the aborigines as Basket Maker Indians, as have some Texas explorers, saying there was a definite tribe of Basket Makers in the Arizona-New Mexico region.

Courtney Hunt is transacting business in Dallas today. He expects to return Saturday.

Wreck Weather Coming

Summer approaches, the pulse of nature quickens, life begins, and shortly the country's motorists will start slowing up one another's pulses and ending their lives.

Traffic cops know that good weather breeds bad accidents. The safest time to take a spin is at the height of a rainstorm or the tag end of a thick blizzard. Most people are more than ordinarily cautious then. When the sun comes out and the roads dry off, everybody does a little relaxing, lets it out, and turns his car into a kind of traveling tin house.

The season, therefore, is ripe for taking stock of your own assets and liabilities as a driver, the ones that appear to be those of the average driver you encounter, and those of your car as something to entrust your life to.

How long it will take to make the nation's highways as safe as its sidewalks nobody cares to guess, but the problems of traffic have never commanded such concerted, countrywide study as they are now receiving. National organizations, community groups, city, county, state, and federal officials are going after satisfactory solutions from every conceivable angle.

Highway improvement is one idea. The chairman of Connecticut's Highway Safety Commission has recently expressed a hope, as have others, for compulsory car inspection prior to any transfer of ownership of a second-hand automobile. The imposition of driving tests and other examinations on license applicants is growing.

A Chicago traffic court judge has gone to the extent of having traffic law violators examined by psychiatrists, and induced to take treatments whose purpose is the correction of the "personality twists" responsible for their abnormal behavior at the wheel.

The greatest movement and the most effective one, is the safety education campaign among children and adults. Figures on traffic deaths and injuries in cities all over the country show startling reductions where such campaigns have been pursued.

If present efforts in the direction of highway safety are kept up with continued interest, a traffic death in the future will really be news.

Prestige

How many broken hearts do you suppose there are in the country now because of the decision of Ambassador Kennedy to discontinue the practice of presenting lady visitors to London at the Court of St. James?

There are probably more broken hearts in this democratic country than most of you suspect, and certainly more than their owners would admit. Maternal ambitions to have the daughter kneel before a king and queen seem a little out of character here, but then, there are more than a few proud descendants of several generations of thorough Americans who are sometimes just a little out of character themselves, whether they would enjoy the thought or not.

Almost everybody gets "out of character" briefly from time to time. That's why people sometimes pay outrageous prices for things they don't want. There's no use breaking any more hearts now, so why not suggest a substitute for this court presentation business?

Why not make it some kind of social privilege to be presented, say, to a facsimile copy of the Declaration of Independence? Or make it so that some special distinction attaches to having read some of the pieces by Thomas Jefferson.

But don't put such honors out of anyone's reach. Too few persons have been so honored already.

Chin Music

Two barbers in Twin Falls, Idaho, have figured out that the average man grows about 7,604 feet of hair a year. If the whole country's crop were laid end to end, they say, it would reach around the world 1,728 times.

Something certainly, ought to be done about this. With the world in the state it's now in, you can't just let a thing like this go.

If nobody gets any good ideas, the sheared and razored hair henceforth can be stored away in the halls of Congress during the summer recess until a good use is found for it, but here are some suggestions that might help out:

If the country just can't get along without the customary number of stuffed shirts, why not flood the market with shirts stuffed with the barber shop output and drive the other kind of stuffing out of business.

Put a few of the unemployed to work weaving the hair into a net to keep the French cabinet together.

These days there ought to be a big market among Europe's political leaders for an assortment of hair shirts, if there are any consciences left.

The field of possibilities staggers the imagination. The chances are that right now the Germans apparently the world's ersatz champions are making their old bears into barbed wire.

After all, what's the point of gathering statistics if something worthwhile isn't worked out with them?

A "Witch" Acquitted

Apparently to gain publicity for its 300th anniversary celebration to be held next August, the town of Hampton Beach, N. H., recently staged a witchcraft trial to clear the name of Goody Cole, convicted of being a witch and "in league with the devil" in 1656.

Goody Cole was not hanged for her supposed witchcraft, as were victims of the craze in Salem, Mass., a few years later, but was let off with a whipping and imprisonment. When she died in 1680, friendless and despised, her body was buried in a shallow grave and a stake was driven through her breast to make certain that she would not rise again to work her black magic.

Someone dug up the story of Goody Cole while looking for historical material to be used in connection with the forthcoming tercentenary celebration, and idea of granting a new trial to a woman already dead 258 years was carried out. At a regular town meeting it was voted 300 to 0 that she was not guilty of the crime of witchcraft.

So, next August the supposed ashes of Goody Cole will be exhumed and placed in an honored grave with appropriate ceremony under the direction of the town's officials. The local chamber of commerce denies that all these proceedings are being carried on for the sake of publicity, but Hampton Beach is in the limelight once more, just the same.

Marion Winona Smith of Winnipeg graduate from technical high school at the age of 14, winning the governor-general's gold medal.

Frank Reed of Cincinnati, whose term as purchasing agent was about to expire, persuaded the county commissioners court to make it a civil service job, hoping thereby to hold the place indefinitely. But when the examination was held he failed to pass.

expects to move his family to that city at an early date.

Good rains, accompanied by considerable hail in some sections, have fallen in Haskell county this week.

Last Thursday morning Mrs. J. B. Brewer, living west of Plainview school, was fatally burned when the kerosene lamp connected with an incubator exploded. She had gone into the storm cellar to remove some chickens when the explosion occurred, setting fire to her clothing. Mrs. Brewer leaves a husband and ten children, the youngest being eighteen months old.

The Haskell Roller Rink, under the management of Frank M. Dodson have completed a new portable floor and tent for the rink.

J. F. Kennedy, local agent for the Texas Company, has installed a new Bowser oil pump of 65 gallon capacity at the Haskell garage.

The four candidates for the office of Tax Collector of Haskell county have signed an agreement with each other not to make a house to house canvass during the campaign for various reasons specified in the contract. This is a little out of the ordinary for candidates to make a campaign, but they have signed this contract, which makes it fair to all.

P.S.—The Patient Died

AMONG many ancient tribes the cure for a headache was an operation called trepanning. The primitive "doctor" got out his flint knives and chisels—and cut a hole in the sufferer's skull, so the pain (or evil spirit) could escape. A simple headache, therefore, often proved fatal! Alice LaVarre examines a trepanned skull of a victim of ancient Peruvian surgery. Modern headache powders are really an improvement.

AAA Amendments Increase Cotton Acreage Reserve

Amendments to the new farm act provide a reserve of 4 percent which will be added to the cotton acreage allotment of each state and that farm cotton allotments in necessary cases shall be raised to a minimum level, according to Geo. Slaughter, Wharton, chairman of the Texas Agricultural Conservation Committee.

The total increase in allotments due to the amendments may exceed 2 million acres, he said. The original acreage allotment for 1938 was 26,300,000 acres. In Texas the additional allotment will amount to around 380,000 acres.

The 4 percent reserve will be used to assure minimum allotments to small cotton farms, provide additional acreages for farms on which allotments were materially reduced because of an unusually large number of small farms in the county, and to provide representative allotments to counties or farms which otherwise would receive allotments which are low in comparison with the amounts allotted to producers in similar areas and in comparison with their usual cotton acreages. The amendments also provide that if the allotment to any farm is less than fifty percent of the 1937 cotton acreage plus diverted acres, the allotment shall be increased to 50 percent, provided that the increase does not bring the allotment up to more than 40 percent of the tilled land on the farm.

Chemists' Meet Will Give Texas Chance to Shine

With some 2,000 of the nation's leading chemical industry researchers and technicians "coming to Texas" for the annual meeting of the American Chemical Society in Dallas April 18-22, the state has new opportunities, says the All-South Development Council, for impressing leaders in this vital branch of modern industry with its attractions for plant location.

Representatives of such famous chemical institutions as Union Carbide, du Pont, Allied Chemical, American Cyanamid, Monsanto, Dow Chemical, Mallinckrodt and others will attend the meetings. Vitality concerned with the sources of the basic raw materials of both mineral and plant origin being utilized in creating new products and new processes, these men may be expected to take keen interest in Texas' potentialities for plants utilizing these materials, many of which are produced abundantly here.

That the society is aware of Texas' possibilities as a source of farm and forest products newly utilizable, through chemistry, as industrial materials, is seen in one of its own reports which refers to this utilization as "opening up a vast new field of development." It states that "in East Texas alone there are millions of acres which will produce sweet potatoes and other carbohydrate products convertible into starches, sugars, alcohol, plastics and paper products as well as food for men and animals." The industrial uses of cottonseed are of course already well known.

In connection with opportunities for attracting new industries on the basis of physical qualifications, hand in hand with decentralization trends, the Council's report cites in part the analysis of other factors made by Charles Penrose, famous consulting engineer of Philadelphia:

"Above and beyond strictly chemical considerations, forces of decentralization that are shoving many other manufacturers out of their established locations or inducing them to build branch plants are also influencing the management of chemical companies. Local taxes, notably on equipment and sales; labor supply, and cost of power are factors.

"With the passing of years, progressive development of our natural resources has created a problem of dual relationship between industry and the state, a problem of accepted importance to all states and to every business. Chemical raw materials are found in every state in the Union. Every industry is a customer of the chemical industries. These relationships are notably important.

"It is an exceedingly interesting fact that the cities are much more aware of the value of new industries to their local community than are the states. It would seem that the smaller political units, closer to their people, nearer to the economic battlefield, are more appreciative of the work created and the capital invested, and the effort of innumerable Chambers of Commerce to locate new manufacturing enterprises bear testimony to this conviction. Yet, today, it is often state regulations and state taxes which are the chief stumbling blocks in the road of industrial progress, while in other instances state inspection and state protection are strong magnets for industrial developments. It is my guess that industry, seeking peace, stability, and reasonable opportunity, will flock to that state where it is known that every resource of government will protect the right to work for the benefit of both parties to every labor agreement.

"Were I asked by the governor of any one of the forty-eight states suggest what he might do that would most benefit his commonwealth, I should say to him: 'Do whatever you can to attract and foster chemical enterprises within your boundaries.'

Quite a large party went out on Tuesday on a fishing expedition to Paint and California creeks. As nearly as we could learn it was composed of Dr. J. E. Lindsey and family, Mr. M. S. Pierson and family, Mr. S. L. Robertson and family and Messrs. J. W. Collins, Lee Pierson and Rev. Farmer.

C. M. Featherstone, a prominent lawyer of Rayner, was here Thursday on legal business.

The latest news as to the war situation is a telephone message saying that Spain had replied to the President's ultimatum demanding evacuation of Cuba by her refusing to do so and that our naval fleet was ordered to Cuba on Thursday. Our entire army is being rushed to the coast for an invasion of Cuba. Evidently war is on, unless Spain surrenders Cuba without a battle, which no one expects her to do. A later telephone message at 4 o'clock Friday evening says our "Flying Squadron" had sunk the Spanish armored cruiser Alphonso XIII and captured another vessel.

Local items of interest were an almost unknown quantity this week, due to the war situation, which is the paramount topic with everybody just now.

30 Years Ago—April 18, 1908

Postmaster John B. Baker attended a meeting of the Republican state executive committee at Dallas Tuesday.

Commencement exercises marking the close of the 1907-8 term of Haskell High School were observed this week in the Haskell Opera House. The graduating class was composed of three boys and eight girls: Graydon E. Nicholson, Walter Pylate Davis, Oral K. Jackson, Misses Dora Catherine Bahlew, Annie Juanita Snow, Lela Adelle Sprowls, Lela Rebecca Couch, Ruby Poole, Mattie Friserson, Snydell Wyche and Mabel Claire Baldwin.

Hon. Cone Johnson of Tyle spoke here last Saturday afternoon to an audience that filled the courthouse to overflowing. It continues to rain here. The rainfall since April 1 totals 5.40 inches. During the last three days of March 1.28 inches of rain fell, making a total in twenty days of 6.68 inches.

The El Paso District Presbytery met at the Presbyterian Church in Haskell April 16, with a full attendance of the ministers and a good number of elders. At the same time the Presbyterian Ladies Mission Union met in the Methodist Church.

Rev. and Mrs. D. James visited their daughter, Mrs. John Ellis at this place this week. The following ladies were visitors at Mrs. Theo Wright's this week: Mrs. J. V. W. Holmes and little daughter Catherine of Sweetwater, Mrs. O. W. Dutton and Mrs. Alford Shepperson of Stamford and Miss Lillie Bizzell of Albany.

A cyclone formed east of Throckmorton Sunday evening and swept a narrow path through North Texas. Six persons were killed and property damaged to the extent of thousands of dollars. The Commissioners Court has appointed Clyde F. Elkins as County Attorney, filling the vacancy created by the resignation of Tom Davis, who has enlisted in the Army.

Annual To Be Distributed May 20th

May the 20th has been set as the official date when the Boy Wov of 1938 is to be delivered to students. The dummy is ready for publication. The first annual is to be dedicated to the two Senior sponsors, Miss Louise Wade and Mr. H. T. Sullivan. A few more copies of the book are left and so if you're interested we urge you to bring your deposit before the annual goes to press.

Dog House Gossip

Seems as if Oleah and Eldon were out to get a co-ed or bust at Denton. They were the only boys to go through C. I. A. The love bug is about to get Huland down, eh Margie? Seems as if Julius can't tell a hen from a rooster. Seems as if Miss Wade is getting in pretty thick. She can't go anywhere without a special escort. Wonder how Rena Tankersly and Foy are getting along, eh Judge. Roman is still in the habit of picking up shorts. What is this affair that Lois Goode had with John Mark? Clara brings a guitar to school so she can get more attention. Geraldine Vance and Leroy Smith seem to enjoy calling each other pet names. Wonder who Clara Sue had a date with the night of the Junior play. Helen is getting jealous of Lois Goode. J. B. must fairly like Helen as he ordered a large picture of himself for her. Edgar Kelso likes an extra period of agriculture. Alton and Inez seem to be in the spotlight this week. We wonder how come Marion got lost in Graham. Was it some dazzling scene. Leroy has got a private minute. Delphia is along every time. We know what two and two was Saturday night. Who is it that Marion has been going around with. Wonder how come John Mark likes to stay in the dark. Red is glad as glad can be Estella is back in school. Wonder what dog tried to bite Marion and Bulah Mae the other night and what car was it that tried to run over them. Mattie is getting awfully popular lately, wonder why?

How To Live To Be A 100 Years Old

Don't chew, don't smoke, don't stay out late, never date anyone, don't drink, don't ever have any fun, don't eat sweets, don't marry, work hard, don't waste. If you don't live to be a hundred years old you'll think you have lived a hundred. Let me know how your health is after 25 years of this.—Edward Havran.

Plans for the Father and Son banquet are progressing fine. The Home Economics girls are to serve.

Mr. Roy Golf, manager of the Conservation Project at Vernon is to be the principal speaker. Mr. Jimmy Bird, who was to speak, will be unable to attend the banquet. Plans for the boxing tournament to be held May 6th and 7th are progressing at a good rate of speed. Several boys have already expressed their desire to enter.

Last week the Weimer chapter received a supply of farm-project record books. These books are being sent to every state in the union. Weimer was the school chosen in area IV to use these books and criticize them if they thought any criticism was needed. Many of the boys say the books are better than the present books. Captioning was taken up Monday and with actual practice the boys are ready to caption cockerels at home. Some plan to have capons for projects.

A trip to the Spur Experiment Station is the next goal of the Weimer chapter. On this trip the fathers are to be invited to go also.

Easter Dinner in Honor of Mrs. Tony Goble

The Home Economics II girls gave an Easter dinner honoring Mrs. Goble. Easter cookies were carried out in table decorations and the menu. Easter bunnies and chicks skipped around and seemed to have as much a time as the other guests. Marian Anderson was hostess and Pauline Zahn was host for the evening. Mrs. Cadenhead gave a toast to Mr. and Mrs. Goble as the cocktail was served. The other guests of the evening were Mrs. Henry Monke, Mrs. J. F. Cadenhead, Mr. Tony Goble, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Foote. Mrs. Goble is town sponsor for the Future Home Makers Club. We certainly will miss Mr. and Mrs. Goble when they move to their new home but we hope they will be happy there.

Our Seniors

Ben is just another one of the dear old Senior graduates. He came from Sunset High School to Weimer High School year before last. This being his second and last year in Weimer High School. He is a boy that is always interested in most all the sports. He always does his best in whatever he attempts to do. Ben is just a real sport and is always ready to help in time of need. He made the second team in basketball last year. He also made this year's team. He can play for his size. If he had more size he would have more fight. He has made Weimer's track team the two years he has been here. This year Ben was fortunate enough to win a place in track which will make him eligible for State B track meet. He is always laughing and has a friendly word or joke for everyone. He is appreciated on trips to tell jokes to keep us awake. He is also a member of the Future Farmers of America club. If we all would enjoy life as Ben does we would get more out of life and the things it offers.

The Seniors received their invitations Friday. The invitations are very unusual in appearance. They contain a class picture and an autograph of every Senior. In a very short time the Seniors will end their high school days.

New U. S. Stamp: The White House

The White House will be pictured on a new postage stamp to be issued some time this year. Postmaster General James A. Farley announced from Washington. A spokesman for the Post Office Department said a 4 1-2-cent White House stamp and a new 22-cent stamp portraying President Cleveland had been suggested by President Roosevelt.

To accommodate them, Mr. Farley announced a number of changes in his plans for a new series of domestic postage stamps to be issued this year. He said President Monroe would be pictured on the 5-cent stamp instead of on the 4 1-2, as originally announced, and President Cleveland would be pictured on a 22-cent instead of a 35-center. The latter denomination was dropped from the proposed series several years ago.

Under the revised plans, the series will be as follows: Benjamin Franklin, 1/2 cent; George Washington, 1 cent; Martha Washington, 1 1/2 cent; John Adams, 2 cents; Jefferson, 3 cents; Madison, 4 cents; White House, 4 1/2 cents; Monroe, 5 cents; John Quincy Adams, 6 cents; Jackson, 7 cents; Van Buren, 8 cents; Tyler, 10 cents; Polk, 11 cents; Taylor, 12 cents; Fillmore, 13 cents; Pierce, 14 cents; Buchanan, 15 cents; Lincoln, 16 cents; Johnson, 17 cents; Grant, 18 cents; Hayes, 19 cents; Garfield, 20 cents; Arthur, 21 cents; Cleveland, 22 cents; Benjamin Harrison, 24 cents; McKinley, 25 cents; Theodore Roosevelt, 30 cents; Taft, 50 cents; Wilson, $1; Harding, $2, and Coolidge, $5. The forthcoming issue already has drawn criticism from some Republicans that members of their party apparently were being slighted by being assigned to denominations seldom sold.

If Electric Service Should Fail...

WEST TEXAS COLUMNIST WRITES AN "AD" ABOUT THE DISCOMFORTS POINTS and PERSONALITIES

by doris pope

(It is through the courtesy of the Hamlin Herald that we are permitted to reprint the following article, written by that paper's able columnist, Doris Pope, which appeared in a recent issue of the Herald. We are deeply indebted to her for so accurately describing the after-effects of this spring's unusual storms.)

Now with everything at our finger tips with just a click of a switch, we are inclined to take too much for granted. However, there are times when we are forced to stop and think what a world it would be without such conveniences—you know, we kinda get a taste of the "good old days" that we hear dad and grand-dad talk about. That's what happened to Hamlin folks Saturday afternoon when the electric current was dead from 2:10 until 5:40.

Low, gray rain clouds made lights almost a necessity in order to carry on business, so when the current went off, the sale of candles increased a thousand per cent. We stayed in the dry goods stores awhile observing the effect of candle lights, and it struck us as rather amusing when people grabbed a bolt of material, a pair of socks or some other merchandise and ran to the front door, holding the article up and squinting, trying to see what color it really was—just like in the "good old days." (Maybe that will account for some of the terrorizing colors people are wearing.)

And the poor kids, how they did miss the Saturday afternoon picture show! It's really a shame that they didn't have some stereoscopic parlor pictures to look at like ma and pa had—back in the "good old days."

We wandered over to two of our beauty shops and found dozens of women and girls draped on the floor, chairs and stools, literally sticking their heads in the fire to dry that new wave set. That reminded us that back in the "good old days" grandma didn't shampoo her hair in the winter or in rainy weather; she just rolled it up on curlers.

We noticed the barber shops also felt the lack of electricity. You know back in the "good old days" they weren't bothered with all those little electric gadgets 'cause grandpa just turned a bowl down on pa's head and started cuttin'. The finishing touches were accomplished with the old blue and white shaving mug and razor.

We stopped in to see how the drug stores were making out with their Frigidaire motors stopped and their candle light. Somehow or other they didn't seem too happy about it. Now we could rave on and on about this, but what's the use? Printing presses were stopped, bank machines halted, in fact, there wasn't a business house in Hamlin that did not feel great lack of electricity. And when the current finally did come on after three and a half hours, people gave whoops and hollers that made the Indians back in the "good old days" look like sissies. SCOUTING

Along The Chisholm Trail

The question is frequently asked, "Why are funds needed for the support of the seven county program of the Boy Scouts of America", and we asked Executive Ed Shumway to answer this question for the benefit of our citizens.

"The raising of finances for the support of the Boy Scout program is not a hard proposition," said Mr. Shumway, "Once our citizens are familiar with the operations of the Council, funds are raised every year to support the entire program which operates over seven counties. There would be no Scout program if it were not for the National organization which is divided into twelve regions in America, each region consisting of several states and each region divided into Councils, as ours is. The Haskell program is the program of the Boy Scouts of America. Every event on the Council calendar is the program for Haskell and other cities."

"Not one cent," continued Mr. Shumway, "goes to Abilene. All council money raised goes into the treasury of the Chisholm Trail Council which serves every community. Out of these funds are paid, expenses for the Annual Camporee and it is of interest to note that no fee has ever been charged any troop for participation in this great three day event, yet the Camporee expenses run as high as $150.00. Summer camp expenses are paid out of the money paid into the Council treasury, as well as office expenses, travel expenses, salary for council office secretary, publicity, training courses, National Charter fee and National quota."

"The council office must pay telephone, telegraph each month. The recent first air contest for every troop in the Council ran an estimated expense to the Council of approximately $50.00."

"When an Eagle Scout receives his Eagle badge he does so with the compliments of the Council and nearly two hundred Eagle badges have been presented to Scouts of our council by the council, each badge costing the council $1.50. The Council expense in putting over their part in the National Jamboree held last year in Washington, D. C. cost the council more than $150.00. This great event was for Haskell County Scouts as well as other scouts in our council."

"We realize that it costs each parent of a Scout money each year for this Scout but we should all remember that without the National organization and the Council organization there would be no Scout organization."

"Every cent contributed helps in some way your own son and the other Scouts. Sometimes, the remark is made 'I have no boys and I am not interested.' Our reply is, 'Yes you are interested in good things for your community. Good Scouting is good for all boys. Good scouting will prove to be of benefit to your own daughter, your city and your state.'

"Every cent you contribute is well spent. The Chisholm Trail Executive Board, and Haskell has on this board, Supt. C. B. Breedlove and Dave Persons, earnestly hopes that many Haskell citizens will support the seven county program. Contribute cash if you desire but we hope many will join in contributing from one to two dollars monthly."

It is interesting to know that the Scout car, which our Executive purchases with salary and transportation money received now registers 89,000 miles, travel mileage in the Chisholm Trail Council. The Executive pays his own car expenses and purchases his own car to use in scout work and your contribution enables him to serve your city, Rule, Weinert, and many small communities in West Texas, small communities that never contribute to the support of the work yet when a small community in Coleman County, Haskell County, Runnels County or other counties of the Chisholm Trail Council want assistance, desire to organize a Boy Scout troop, the Council office furnishes this help. This week our Executive will assist in the organization of a troop in the Shields Community in Coleman County, will go to Weinert if called, will attend another meet in Haskell next Monday morning which will make three meetings he has attended in Haskell within the past ten days. Contributions make it possible for the work to go on.

Let us all become a member of the Chisholm Trail Council and contribute in cash or on the monthly plan to enable scouting to progress in our own territory as never before.

burglaries and car thefts in which all of the principals named, with one exception, were under bond or in custody of officers. One man named in two theft indictments had not been arrested, and the indictment was withheld from publication.

Available from court records were the following copies of indictments:

John Ray, colored, charged with burglary in connection with alleged theft of a purse containing a considerable sum of money from a housekeeper employed on a farm near Haskell. The money was recovered by officers.

Leslie Odom, Abilene resident, charged in two indictments with theft in connection with the taking of an automobile and a trailer, later found by officers, from two residents of Haskell.

Hollis Brown, Rochester youth, named as principal in a burglary indictment alleging entry and looting of a cash register in a Rochester garage.

Gerard Goeke, San Antonio, charged by indictment with theft of an automobile from a Sagerton resident.

Negro Ball Teams of Anson, Haskell Will Play Sunday

A baseball game between colored teams of Haskell and Anson is scheduled here Sunday afternoon, beginning at 3:30 o'clock, sponsors announced Thursday.

This will be the season's opener for both teams—The Tigers from Anson and the local Black Braves, but managers say that both teams are in fine shape and promise a good exhibition.

New Paint Job For Gholson's Store Recently

Store front of Gholson's Grocery on the north side presents a "spruced up" appearance since the application of a new coat of paint the first of the week, and interior of the building has also undergone a beauty treatment with fixtures, walls and ceiling getting their share of attention from painters. Several sections of worn flooring have also been replaced.

Several members of the local fire department attended an illustrated lecture in Stamford Monday night, conducted by Capt. Frank Williams, state fire prevention specialist of A. & M. College. In the group from this city were Jesse L. Collier, P. G. Kendrick, R. A. Hays, R. L. Harrison, Frank Reynolds, Jess Jones and Bill Johnson.

The grasshopper control program in this county will be in charge of the county agent and a committee composed of P. G. Kendrick, V. F. Bunkley and Rufus Smith.

In order to receive some of this material for use in controlling grasshoppers, farmers and ranchmen must furnish 100 pounds of cotton seed hulls for every 100 pounds of bran furnished by the government, and must agree to distribute the material according to instructions.

A survey of the grasshopper situation in this county made by county agent Schumann and C. H. Gable of the Federal Grasshopper office reveals that about one-third the grasshoppers have emerged and the other two-thirds will emerge within a few days. The grasshopper eggs came through the winter in good shape and the infestation of hoppers will be rather serious this year.
