RULE BUSINESS MAN IS SUICIDE VICTIM EARLY WEDNESDAY

Dependent over continued ill health, L. W. Davis, 51, prominent Rule businessman, ended his life Wednesday morning about 9:00 o'clock with a bullet from a .32 caliber revolver. The tragedy occurred at a filling station and garage owned by Mr. Davis in the principal business section of Rule, shortly after he had come down-town from his home.

Arriving at his place of business, Mr. Davis spoke to two employees, Louis Perkins and Clyde Laughlin and then walked into the rear of the building, closing a door behind him. Almost immediately a shot was heard, and Perkins and Laughlin investigating found Mr. Davis slumped on the floor, bleeding from a wound in the head and the small pistol lying nearby. He was unconscious and died within a few moments before services of a physician could be administered.

At an inquest conducted by Justice of the Peace R. L. Vick assisted by County Attorney Walter Murchison and Sheriff Olen Dotson, a verdict of death from self-inflicted gunshot wound was returned.

Mr. Davis, highly respected resident of Rule for more than twenty years, had been in ill health for two years or longer and had become increasingly dependent in recent months, relatives and friends said. A veteran of the World War, Mr. Davis was a member of the Rule City Council and a trustee of Rule school district. For the past ten years or longer, he had been engaged in the retail and wholesale oil business in Rule.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the First Methodist Church in Rule, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Clarence Bounds. Burial was in Rule cemetery, with Gaunt Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Davis is survived by his widow and a daughter, Margaret, of Rule; a sister Mrs. W. L. Turner and a brother Hubert Davis, both residents of Florida.

FREIGHT RATE REDUCTION IS GRANTED AREA

Freight Rates On Livestock Feed Shipments Lowered One-Third

A reduction of 33 1-3 per cent in freight rates for livestock feeds shipped into Haskell county will become effective October 14, County Judge J. C. Davis and County Agent G. R. Schumann were advised this week by the State Railroad Commission. The reduced freight rates will apply to nine counties in this immediate area which have been hit by drought during the summer, curtailing production of feedstuffs. Application for the lower rates was pressed before the state commission recently by Judge Davis, County Agent Schumann and Gene Overton, Post community farmer, in a hearing at Fort Worth.

Other counties in this section to benefit from the reduced rates include Archer, Baylor, Clay, Jack, Knox, Throckmorton, Wichita and Young.

FAIR BOOSTERS VISIT TOWNS IN AREA THURSDAY

Invitation To Attend 1939 Exposition Extended Neighbor Towns

A delegation of Haskell businessmen, Chamber of Commerce and fair officials accompanied by the Haskell Municipal Band, were given a hearty welcome Thursday when they visited a number of towns north of Haskell advertising the Central West Texas Fair to be held here next week.

First stop of the day was at Weiner, where a brief band program was given and invitation to attend the fair extended to the crowd assembled. A public address system furnished by the Woodson Battery & Radio Shop was used by trip spokesmen at all stops.

Other stops during the morning were at Munday, Goree and Bonmarton, where sizeable crowds greeted the trippers. The caravan spent the noon hour in Seymour, where they were greeted by a large crowd. From Seymour the caravan swung west to visit Benjamin, Knox City, O'Brien, Rochester and Rule during the afternoon, with a good turn-out in each place visited.

Today the boosters will wind up their schedule with a trip carrying them to Stamford for the first stop, Sagerton, Aspermont, Hamlin for lunch, Anson, Albany and Throckmorton. Hatbands and advertising literature were furnished all members of the caravan on both days by the Chamber of Commerce and fair association.

COURTNEY HUNT FAVORS SESSION OF LEGISLATURE

Haskell Solon Believes Emergency Measure Should Be Enacted

State Representative Courtney Hunt of the 113th district, who was one of the 56 members voting against S. J. R. 12 in the last session of the Legislature, Monday issued the following comment on Gov. O'Daniel's call for a special session to enact emergency Old Age Assistance legislation: "I favor a special session of the Legislature immediately. I definitely favor a Natural Resource Tax for old age assistance, but would vote for consumer's tax as a temporary measure effective until August 1941, as emergency measure to finance Social Security."

The Haskell representative wired Governor O'Daniel to the above effect Sunday night, and Monday stated that he was writing the Governor to the effect that he believed a special session should be called now, but Mr. Hunt explained that he was not going into a special session "definitely committed to support any Bill" that he wanted to be free to consider any adequate measure that would properly finance the state's social security program. In the present emergency Mr. Hunt stated that he favored meeting the obligations by statutory action of the legislature which could be changed from time to time.

The legislator reiterated that he was opposed to a "Sales Tax" but favored a tax on natural resources to provide revenue for paying old age assistance obligations.

ADDITIONAL AAA CROP COMPLIANCE CHECKS RECEIVED

Disbursement of $184,650 to Date Covers Two-Thirds Of County Farms

Subsidy checks were distributed to several hundred Haskell county farmers through the County Agent's office this week, for compliance in the AAA program for 1939, and with these disbursements approximately two-thirds of the compliance payments have been made for the current year.

Payments to date approximate $184,650.23 covering 1,572 contracts on Haskell county farms. Disbursements have been made to 2,432 tenants and landowners.

Approximately $92,300 in subsidy payments to Haskell county farmers and landowners is expected to arrive within the next few weeks, to complete this phase of the 1939-AAA program for crop compliance. In this connection, disbursing agents advise farmers and landowners that when each allotment of check is received, cards will be mailed to individual recipients and that there is no need to call or inquire for checks unless a notification card has been received.

TAX DISCOUNTS ARE LISTED BY COUNTY OFFICIAL

Prompt Payment of State and County Levies Will Earn Discounts

Taxpayers of Haskell county can effect appreciable savings by prompt payment of County and State taxes under a new law now in effect. Tax Assessor-Collector Mike E. Watson announced this week. Schedule of tax payments was explained by the official as follows:

Taxes are payable October 1, 1939 to January 1, 1940. Where taxpayer desires to split payment of taxes first half must be paid by November 30, 1939, and the balance must be paid by June 30, 1940.

Under the new law the following discounts will be allowed on State and County taxes only:

Three per cent discount on all full payments of taxes during October, 1939.

Two per cent discount on all full payments during November.

One per cent discount on full payments made in December. Net amount of tax will be collected on all full payments during January, 1940.

No discount will be allowed on first half payment, but on second half payments of state and county taxes will be as follows:

If paid during the period December 1, 1939 to March 31, 1940, three per cent discount; if paid during April, 1940, two per cent discount; if paid during May 1940, one per cent discount. In June 1940, the net amount will be due.

The Haskell representative wired Governor O'Daniel to the above effect Sunday night, and Monday stated that he was writing the Governor to the effect that he believed a special session should be called now, but Mr. Hunt explained that he was not going into a special session "definitely committed to support any Bill" that he wanted to be free to consider any adequate measure that would properly finance the state's social security program. In the present emergency Mr. Hunt stated that he favored meeting the obligations by statutory action of the legislature which could be changed from time to time.

NON-JURY CASES ON COURT DOCKET ARE HEARD THIS WEEK

Grand Jury Reports Two Bills As Result of One-Day Session

Hearing of non-jury cases occupied the calendar in 39th district court the first half of the week, together with the dismissal Tuesday of 274 tax suits pending on the docket since last year. Two divorce pleas were also granted, and pleas of guilty were accepted in two cases where defendants were charged with driving an automobile while intoxicated, with a $50 fine, five-day jail sentence and revocation of drivers license for six months being assessed against each defendant.

District Judge Dennis Ratliff entered an order dismissing 274 tax suits which had been filed by Vance Swain as attorney for the State and county under a contract made by the Commissioners Court in 1937, which has since expired. Action of the court in dismissing the suits was without prejudice to the rights of the taxing units to press collection of delinquent taxes on which the suits were based, it was pointed out by court officials.

In a one-day session Tuesday, Grand Jury for the term reported two felony indictments after questioning fifteen witnesses, and recessed until later in the month. Indictments were for driving while intoxicated, and for attempted arson, court officials said, but principals named in the bills were not made public pending their arrest.

Scheduled for hearing Thursday were two felony cases. The State vs. W. C. Fitzhugh, charged with forgery and passing forged instrument, and The State vs. Floyd Tidwell, charged with theft of cattle. Indictments against the two defendants were voted by the current Grand Jury. Both men, inmates of the state penitentiary at Huntsville, were returned to Haskell this week on bench warrants issued last week by Judge Ratliff.

AUTUMN DROUGHT ENDED BY 1.02 INCH RAIN HERE

Slow Rain Sunday Night Brightens Prospects For Fall Grain

Ending an unprecedented autumn drought, a one-inch rain Sunday night brought needed moisture to all sections of the county, with beneficial rainfall reported over a wide area of West Texas. Precipitation in Haskell was recorded at 1.02 inch on the government gauge kept by Mrs. F. T. Sanders, and according to reports of farmers and ranchers, the fall was general throughout the county.

Early-planted grain which has already reached a stand will be helped greatly by the moisture, which will also provide ample season for late planting. Ranges will be greatly benefited, and a heavy growth on grasslands is expected to result from the timely rains, in the opinion of ranchmen.

Cotton gathering, in full swing throughout the county during the extremely dry weather prevailing for the past three weeks, was halted for several days following Sunday night's rainfall. The cotton harvest was resumed during mid-week and farmers and ginners said that rains had caused no damage to the staple of matured cotton.

FIFTY YOUTHS ARE ACCEPTED IN CCC FROM THIS COUNTY

Group Sent to Wichita Falls Wednesday For Final Examinations

Fifty Haskell county youths left Wednesday morning for Wichita Falls, where they were to undergo final examination for enrollment in the Civilian Conservation Corps. Mrs. Kate Perdue, CCC selecting agent for Haskell county, stated that all youths accepted would be assigned to camps in New Mexico, Colorado, or Wyoming.

In addition to the group selected this week, another quota of possibly twenty young men will be allotted Haskell county later this month, Mrs. Perdue believes. Eligible young men between the ages of 18 and 23 who desire to enroll in the CCC should file their applications now in order to be included in the next quota assigned Haskell county, Mrs. Perdue said. At the present time approximately 75 Haskell county youths are enrolled in the Civilian Conservation Corps.

The group leaving this week included the following youths from various towns of the county: Haskell—Nathan Lindley, Cecil Suggs, Elmer Dean, Jesse Hillard, Wilford Bischoffhausen, Olen Breeden, John Elmore, James Wright, John Tinkle, Rex Packwood, Alvin Medford, Grady

Lions discussed a proposition advanced to secure honorary members in the club, but definite action along this line was postponed.

Four Days Exposition Will Open Oct. 18 For Four Days Run

With all preparations completed for opening of the fifteenth annual Central West Texas Fair on Wednesday Oct. 18 for a four days run, exposition officials Thursday were expecting all attendance records to be shattered if favorable weather conditions prevail for the show.

Enlarged and added exhibit divisions in both agricultural and livestock departments have been made to accommodate more exhibitors than have ever before shown here, including some of the foremost livestock breeders of this section. Sheep and swine pens have been enlarged, and a surprisingly large list of entries will compete in these divisions, department heads predicted. In the poultry department Jas. W. Pritchett, president of the Jones County Poultry Association and who is assisting with this year's Fair, freely predicts the best poultry show here since 1935 and lists more than 100 birds already entered from breeders who have never before exhibited at Haskell. In the main exhibit building, space will be at a premium to accommodate the many entries in textile, culinary, Homemaking and Home Demonstration Club exhibits together with a varied display of educational exhibits, according to R. E. Skipworth, building superintendent.

On the entertainment side, fair officials have booked and arranged a full slate of events beginning with the opening parade and continuing each afternoon and night during the four days run of the Fair.

First day of the Fair has been designated "Abilene and Wichita Falls Day" and "School Children's Coaches Cooper and Garner of the Moguls will have their entire first string on call for the game, it is reported.

The game will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, Munday school officials have announced.

 Billy Jo Ivy was chosen to represent the band as candidate for the Junior Queen at the Fair.

We plan to make this a very successful and pleasant year for ourselves and for the students of Haskell High School.

Former Student Is Honored

From "Yellow Jacket" Robert Barnett, senior from Haskell, Texas is president of this year's Baptist Student Union Council. Barnett was selected to lead the B. S. U. last spring.

Born in Haskell in 1918, he lived in Cleburne for four years. In Haskell High, to which he returned to complete his secondary education, he played in the band. While attending high school, most of his time was devoted to vocational agriculture. First place in a poultry judging contest held at Texas A. & M. College was a highlight of his activity in this field.

Robert planned to attend the Aggie school, but felt a call to the ministry. As a result he came to Howard Payne in the fall of 1936. He has been a leader in religious activities on the campus ever since that time.

Robert is an ordained Baptist preacher and a pastor of a four-time church, the Hazeldeil Baptist Church in Comanche county.

The vital link that the B. S. U. constitutes between the student association and the church demands an able leader. Such is Robert Barnett, the "Yellow Jacket's" presentation for "Campus Personality of the Week."

Gypsy Ramblers Sell Emblems

The Gypsy Ramblers have found something else to sell. This time they are selling these "dukey" little emblems and caps you see so many students wearing. There are four different types of these emblems, all made in the high school colors, black and gold. Some have the letters H. H. S. others have footballs. If you want to make Haskell High School happy, buy one of these and show us you're right behind us. Of course, if you buy one or some, it wouldn't exactly make the Gypsy Ramblers unhappy.

Patches

May I, on behalf of the entire student body, congratulate the boys who so willingly fought for Haskell High School last Friday night. Defeat was ours but the light of victory shone on every booster's face as he left the grandstand—a proud countenance—proud because our eleven had given their best for the school which we all love so dearly. Perhaps our opponent did have a better team in action, but in spirit, cooperation, loyalty and sportsmanship, the Indians cannot be defeated. Judging by scores we were unable to sing "The Victory March"; we had lost—lost in number, but not in heart. Why? Because the will to win is still with us—We will not surrender but strive even harder TOGETHER until we reach the goal that lies ahead of us—District Championship.

July

Pep Squad Elects Queen

The Pep Squad of Haskell High School was asked to select one of their members to compete with other girls of various classes and organizations of all the high schools in Haskell county for Junior queen of the Central West Texas Fair. We, the Pep Squad feel we are well represented.

Brainless Babblin's

Here is a pathetic attempt at something or other by yours truly: Mary, Mary, quite contrary, How does your garden grow? With tinkle-bells and cockle shells, And one "measly" petunia.

Good Idea: Miss Breedlove—Sure, and I'd have taken a cold shower but there wasn't any hot water.

Overheard: Sure, I know how to use my head but so does a woodpecker.

Certain Proof: Marticia: Where were you? Bernard: I must have been up a tree. Marticia: What makes you think so? Bernard: Cause I was trembling like a leaf.

Short Story: I've just held up one man and stolen his money. You see, I had to have the money to buy gas for the car I stole. This was the car that I had to have when I robbed the bank to get money to get out of town on after I stabbed my mother-in-law. "Why did I stab her?" you ask. "Well, it was this way. She got pretty nasty after I poisoned my wife."

Well, I've got to go scrape up an acquaintance; an elephant just sat on him.

Now I'll leave you with this happy thought: Go soak your head while the water's cheap.

Slightly Sappy.

The Paint Creek High School is offering speech as one of the credits for graduation. Speech is an interesting subject and we have several students in our class. The class contains Sophomores, Juniors and Seniors however we have only five boys. We still expect more to come into the class later. Miss Duff, our English teacher, teaches this subject.

As for myself, I enjoy speech as well or better than any other subject and I have been in this class only a few weeks. So come on students, let's back up a notch and learn to speak the English language before we graduate from any high school.

Mr. Murdock seemed to be impressed in our school plant and seemed to think things in good shape. He made a few suggestions and complimented our school and faculty. The school is eligible for more than three thousand dollars State aid.

F. F. A. BOYS GO TO ABILENE FAIR

Thirty-two F. F. A. boys accompanied by their advisor, W. B. Cowan went to Abilene Tuesday, October 3rd to the Abilene Fair. The boys enjoyed the various crop, livestock and educational exhibits. They had an extra good time and brought back memories that they will never forget.

FOURTH GRADE CHAPEL PROGRAM

The fourth grade pupils had charge of the chapel program on Friday. The Choral Club under the direction of Miss Tice sang "Love's Old Sweet-Song", "White Sail" and "An Apple for the Teacher." Miss Hancock had her pupils read chorally a group of poems they had been studying in their reading class. Alma Burgess played several pieces on her guitar. The fourth grade students put on a play entitled "Columbus." Rev. Clifford Williams, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church at Haskell made an interesting talk to the student body. After the program the school joined together in a pep rally.

Methodist Missionary Society Has Interesting Program

On October 19th members of the W. M. S. met in the Menefee class room and enjoyed a very interesting program of which Mrs. D. H. Persons was director. With Mrs. Patterson at the piano all joined in singing "Wonderful Words of Life."

The director chose as her subject "Life." The choice of this subject was inspired by a visit to Floresville, the occasion being that of a reunion of an Artillery Company belonging to the celebrated 36th Division of which Mr. Persons was a member and which saw service in France during the World War of some twenty years ago. Scripture read was John 12th chapter, 25 and 26 verses; John 14th chapter, 1, 2 and 3rd verses.

Led by the director, the 23rd Psalm was recited in unison. After the singing of "Have Thine Own Way Lord" the director turned the meeting over to the president, Mrs. Guy Mays who conducted a short business session. Mrs. Wallace Cox, recording secretary being absent, Mrs. W. A. Kimbrough read the minutes of previous meetings. Mrs. Patterson, chairman of the Style Show committee, which is being sponsored by the Missionary Society, reported that the work was progressing nicely. This show is to be held in the Texas Theatre on next Friday night. Mr. Leon is showing an unusually fine picture in connection with the style show so be sure to come as you will really be getting two shows for the price of one. The business session was concluded by Mrs. Irby leading in the reciting of the Lords Prayer in unison.

At this time we were invited to the dining room, where Mrs. K. Thornton served hot tea, wafers and the famous "traveling cake". Mrs. Breedlove who was once before lucky (?) found the dime. To receive the lucky piece of cake twice is too much luck for one person, therefore Mrs. Patterson insisted on furnishing the next cake. While in the dining room an informal business session was held.

We are all interested in the lighting of the negro school building. Mrs. H. M. Smith, C. S. R. chairman is working on this and requested the president to appoint a committee to work with her.

All-Electric Kitchen Will Be Shown at CWT Fair by West Texas Utilities

The familiar big blue and gold kitchen-trailer of the West Texas Utilities will be in Haskell for the Fair again this year, according to Henry King, utilities local manager, who said the public address system would be turned over to Fair officials for announcements and musical programs.

"We want to cooperate in every possible way to make it the best Fair Haskell County has ever had," he declared. "The big kitchen-trailer, with its piano-equipped broadcasting studio, has been an outstanding attraction wherever exhibited. For the third straight year, we are bringing it to Haskell so that amateur musicians and entertainers will have an opportunity to perform."

The trailer will be parked near the entrance to the Fair grounds and loudspeakers set up. Parents are urged to instruct children to go to the trailer if they get lost or separated.

"An attendant will be at the microphone at all times and will gladly make announcements so that fearful youngsters can be located," King said.

The all-electric kitchen in the trailer has been overhauled and new electric equipment installed. The kitchen includes every appliance now on the market for the modern home—electric refrigerator, range, dishwasher, hot water heater, mixer, percolator, iron, waffle maker, and other minor items contributing to convenience and comfort. The studio is air-conditioned and the trailer's three compartments all feature indirect light.

The utilities has been active in its support of the Fair since it first was inaugurated in 1925.

"We are home-folks," King says, "and anxious to help promote the best interests of Haskell. We join in the invitation to all West Texas to come to the Fair."

The Rev. and Mrs. A. C. Haynes were in Stamford Tuesday at a meeting of Ministers of the Stamford District. At the noon hour they were guests of the Rev. and Mrs. E. B. Bowen for a turkey dinner.

On October 6, each of the ten girls staying in the N. Y. A. Resident Center took a package of food and trooped off to Rice Springs Park for a picnic.

The picnic supper was enjoyed by all, but the girls were sorry that several of the state supervisors were too late to partake of the food. They hope to be able to entertain the same persons in fine style before their projects are out.

All girls are completely happy over the arrangements in the Resident Center and they would be very happy to have visitors in the home.

Harvest Moon Party Held Thursday Evening

Last Thursday evening October 6 one group of the Senior Sunday School class gathered on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford. Out door games were played such as ball tag, toss ball, and marksmanship. After these games were played the group set out on a treasure hunt finding their clues in various places and driveways, the treasure being a milk bottle with a penny for each guest in a pumpkin lighted with a flashlight hidden out on the waste. They returned to find a large campfire where strip bacon was roasted on poles and marshmallows toasted. This feast consisted of apples, stick candy, buns, bacon, mustard, popcorn, pickles, sandwiches and water, drank with a gourd dipper from an old tin can.

Those attending were: Miss Stella Mae Coburn, game director, Hartsell Johnson, Charles Tatum, Richard Williams, Dean Bartlett, Preston Malphurs, Charles Adams, Floyd Kennedy, Bobbie Jean Reynolds, Jerry Crawford, Jacqueline Reese, Earlene Pearsey and Horace Crawford.

The class presented their host and teacher with a large 17x20 sacred picture, "Rock of Ages."

Oh yes, the prizes they were "booby". You guess?

Magazine Club and Guests Enjoy Chuck Wagon Supper

On Friday night Oct. 6 the Magazine Club met at the handsome country home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Atchison, for the first meeting of the year. The Atchison home is situated on a hill that commands a view for miles around and is about 15 miles east of Haskell.

Mrs. Atchison being the perfect hostess was pleased to conduct her visitors through her spacious and well planned home. The rose garden, fish pond and rock garden were all viewed and admired. This is one of the most attractive and up-to-date country homes in west Texas and incidentally some very fine Hereford cattle are grazing in the Atchison pastures.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rike as chairman of the entertainment committee had prepared a genuine "chuck wagon" menu of "mulligan stew" (or as some call it "son of a gun") red beans, pickles, onions, stewed peaches, and apricots, bread and coffee was served to a large crowd.

At the conclusion of the supper Mrs. Rike thanked the members for their good attendance. Also at this time Mr. and Mrs. R. R. English, long-time residents of Haskell but now residing in Plainview were introduced and invited to say a few words. Mrs. English who is an Honorary Life Member of the Haskell Magazine Club spoke feelingly of her years spent with the Haskell club. Mr. English told of his pleasure at seeing so many of his old friends, and urged us to have another chuck wagon supper and to be sure and remember them.

The president, Mrs. Fields in her charming and gracious manner, thanked each one who had in any way, contributed to the success of this affair.

Led by Mrs. W. M. Reid cheers were given for Messrs. and Mesdames Atchison, Coody and Rike. Much credit is due Mr. Reid of the Swenson, Throckmorton ranch who furnished the chuck wagon and tent and superintended the cooking of the supper. Cheers were given for Mr. Reid, Luther Harris and the colored man "Uncle Bud."

Mr. Lewis Smith, an invited guest led in singing some of the old cowboy favorites, "Let The Rest of the World Go By"; "The Long, Long Trail"; "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia"; "End of a Perfect Day"; and "Home on the Range."

The soft strumming of a guitar played by Mrs. C. L. Lewis, the cowboy regalia worn by some and the campfires gleaming at the background caused us to feel that we were indeed "out on the range." We sympathize with the old cowboys, when they dream of the past and perhaps murmur the pathetic wish, "Backward, turn backward, oh time in your flight, and make me a cowboy again, just for tonight."

The following members and invited guests were present for this delightful occasion.

Messrs. and Mesdames R. R. English of Plainview; J. U. Fields, R. H. Darnell, John A. Couch, O. E. Patterson, W. M. Reid, H. R. Whalley, R. C. Couch, R. A. Reynolds, Theron Cahill, R. A. Coburn, Matt Graham, J. G. Vaughtner, N. I. McCallum, B. C. Chapman, N. Thornton, C. W. Williams, A. A. Bradford, Guy Mays, Reynolds Wilson, J. R. Coody, John Rike, Earl Atchison. Mesdames H. L. Lewis, H. M. Smith, O. E. Oates, Wallace Cox, F. M. Robertson, H. S. Wilson, Glenn Gillette, S. Hassen, W. N. Huckabee, J. M. Diggs, Bill Richey, S. R. Rike, T. R. Odell, Irene Ballard.

Miss Eula Lee Carter of Fort Worth was toast mistress for the occasion. Haskell Superintendent of Schools, C. B. Breedlove gave the invocation. Miss Madalin Hunt, president of the local organization welcomed guests by calling on various members, teachers in Haskell County Schools to give definitions and synonyms of the word Welcome. Superintendent of the Rule School, F. B. Hill responded. Mrs. Veola Warren Short gave two vocal selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. O. E. Patterson. Philip Cadenhead Jr. of Weiner sang cowboy songs to his guitar accompaniment. After the introduction of guests, Miss Berneta Minkwitz of Fort Worth gave the main address for the evening. Mrs. Wallace Cox entertained with piano numbers throughout the program.

CHURCH OF CHRIST
J. G. Malphurs, Minister

Our subject for the eleven o'clock sermon will be: "Ye Are The Salt of The Earth." (Mat. 6: 13). Christianity is the only hope for the world in this evil age of crumbling civilization. It is time for the church to awake to her great responsibility.

At the evening hour, 7:45, we will have for our text: "As a Thief in The Night." We are glad to have such good attendance at the evening services. This subject should do every soul good, and you are urged to hear it.

Our mid-week services are well attended. They serve as a bridge to span the long stretch from one Lord's day to the next and those who attend less subject to the attacks of Satan.

Founder of Rubber Industry Observes Eightieth Birthday

A colorful and courageous figure in the industrial world observed his 80th birthday on Oct. 6, according to Jno. E. Robinson of the Gratek Service Station.

He was Frank A. Seiberling, dean of the rubber industry, and now chairman of the board of the Seiberling Rubber Company, Akron, Ohio.

"The silver-haired 'Dean of Rubber' is regarded as the foremost authority on the rubber industry today," Mr. Robinson says. Mr. Seiberling, with his brother Charles, began his career in the rubber industry more than 40 years ago when the first "horseless carriages" were chugging along on buggy wheels.

With borrowed capital he started the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., in an abandoned strawboard factory in East Akron. He continued as President of the company until 1921 when at the age of 61 he and his brother founded the Seiberling Rubber Co.

"Mr. Seiberling is credited with scores of inventions that have resulted in the automobile tire that we know today," Mr. Robinson states. The value of his contributions to the rubber industry cannot be estimated and his founding of the Seiberling Rubber Company at an age when most men are thinking of retirement is listed as one of the most courageous accomplishments in the annals of American business."

Hollywood Challenged On Lack of Faith

WAKE up, Hollywood, you may have every reason to feel proud of your fifty-billion-dollar name, but you lack common sense in the way you make pictures. You have all the talent and money you need, the best writers and directors, but you have no faith—or courage. No faith in the individual man. You're afraid to let one person go ahead and do a job by himself. You reason that six men—by sheer weight of brain, even though they vary in talent, taste and style—can do a better job than one. That's where you err, and your "super-colossal" pictures are pretty good evidence of the fact.

Mary Hamman throws this challenge right in the faces of Hollywood executives, in the October issue of Good Housekeeping. "Things move so quickly in Hollywood that at times panic besets the executive," says Miss Hamman. "He howls for advisers, for panaceas, for more and more vice presidents, for supervisors, for investigators, and statisticians. Jittery about spending so many millions, he surrounds himself with myriads of assistants on the theory that there is safety in numbers."

As an example of what a talented man can do in Hollywood when let alone, Miss Hamman cites Leo McCarey, producer-director-author of "Love Affair," a smash hit. "If you want to get something done, sit down at your desk and do it," is his simple, workable doctrine. "Don't hire eight other men."

There it stands, Hollywood can go to town only when she takes the fetters off her gifted people and lets them go ahead without restraint.

Southern Women Say

"So many women say CARDUI promotes appetite and digestion; builds up physical resistance!" says a Reporter who found that 1206 out of 1279 users queried say CARDUI has helped them. "Thus these women secure relief from the weak, rundown, nervous condition that so often attends functional dysmenorrhea due to malnutrition." 50 years of wide use speak for CARDUI'S merit!

Plymouth Cars

THE DODGE THE PLYMOUTH

The Dodge reputation for building dependable motor-cars, consistently, year after year, has been a tradition of the automobile industry for more than a quarter of a century—a tradition which has often been expressed in the phrase "Only Dodge Can Build a Dodge."

This phrase means that what Dodge engineers conceive is conceived BETTER; what Dodge craftsmen produce is produced BETTER; and what you ultimately get in the finished product is a BETTER value, dollar-for-dollar than you can get anywhere else.

This is why there are more Dodge Cars on the road today than any other fine car in America.

Plymouth for 1940 gives you not only new smartness of design, but a new dignity and character in a low-price car.

People involuntarily turn to watch the 1940 Plymouth pass in the street—gather around it at the curb—and you can see in their eyes that this is a kind of beauty they respect. It is beauty with a different quality. It has flair, but not flashiness—it is grace, good taste, charm, all rolled into one.

Plymouth for 1940 is indeed the low-priced beauty . . . THE LOW-PRICED BEAUTY with the LUXURY RIDE!

"Texas Safety Day"

Notwithstanding all the educational campaigns that have been waged, there has been an alarming increase in automobile accidents during the current year.

In an effort to reach the greatest number of people as quickly as possible, the Texas Safety Council has arranged a "Texas Safety Day" at the State Fair of Texas.

Pierce Brooks, President of the Council, Capt. J. C. Tappe, field man, and others of the Directors will present Safety Programs during the day.

This demonstration is being made by the Safety Council at considerable individual expense to its members, who are working without profit, in the hope that it will be a substantial contribution to the saving of life hereafter.

We are hopeful that school heads, civic leaders and all others will do their utmost to attend the Fair on this date and witness one or more of our programs.

Prominent Texans will participate on the program. The program will not be boring. We hope to greet many thousands on this date. Tell your neighbors.

Industry and Peace

In a recent statement on the attitude of American industry toward war and peace, the National Association of Manufacturers makes an eloquent plea for peace which includes the following salient points.

American industry hates war, which destroys lives and wrecks homes, with economic chaos and crushing depression as its inevitable aftermath.

American industry wants peace, for peace is the life blood of progress and must be the national objective. There should be no misunderstanding of industry's position on this matter.

Industry opposes profiteering—the utilization of war psychology to boost prices for the purpose of making excessive profits.

The use of this crisis to exercise profiteering or to pursue partisan political objectives is not only indefensible and dangerous, but reprehensible morally.

The present situation calls for agreement on common objectives, but the democratic process should be abandoned. The statement concludes: "In a world distraught by force, the best way to preserve representative democracy is to practice it."

Lee Died a "Prisoner"

It may not be generally known that General Robert E. Lee was technically a prisoner of war at the time of his death in 1870, but such is the case, according to a recent writer.

After Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox on April 9, 1865, he was released on parole. President Johnson's amnesty proclamation issued the following month did not include Confederate officers above the rank of colonel.

Johnson provided, however, that those in the excepted classes would have their applications for pardon considered and Lee made application accordingly.

As is well known, after war General Lee accepted the presidency of Washington College at Lexington, Va., and remained in that office until he died when the name of the institution was changed to Washington and Lee.

Big game animals in the United States, once threatened in danger of extinction, are now rapidly increasing in numbers, according to the Department of Interior, which recently completed a survey in which the most accurate count possible was made.

The inventory showed about six million big-game animals, indicating a gain of nearly a million since the nation-wide survey of 1937 was made.

Deer are the most numerous of the big-game animals, numbering more than five-sixths of the total. Others include 228,000 elk, 93,500 black bears, 16,300 moose, besides smaller numbers of wild sheep, mountain goats, grizzly bears and buffaloes.

Least numerous of big game animals are the woodland caribou, only 16 of which were reported, 12 in Minnesota and 4 in the state of Washington.

At one time the buffalo, or bison, seemed in danger of extinction but through the intervention of the government in recent years these animals have been protected and allowed to multiply.

Similar conservation measures have been taken with respect to other native big-game animals and wild life generally, with gratifying results.

Recounting some feats of women aviators, a writer reminds us that the first woman airplane pilot in the world was Harriet Quimby who obtained her license in 1912.

Expressing skepticism about the value of strenuous exercise, George Jessel Nathan, the author and critic points out that the heaviest animals live longest.

He cites the tortoise and elephant, which sometimes reach the age of 200 years, while the dog, squirrel and other active animals die at a relatively early age.

Introducing Saturday's Voices to Followers of Humble Company's Football Broadcasts

Football fans throughout Texas know the voices of this quartet of announcers heard on Southwest Conference football broadcasts sponsored by the Humble Oil & Refining Company.

Best football announcers in the country—many say the best. Next to Tips, on the right, is all-America Cy Leland, who brings to broadcasting not only an ability to make a radio football game lively and interesting but also a knowledge of the game acquired by stellar play in the T. C. U. backfield in his college days.

Mr. H. C. Dozier says he gathered 65 bushels of corn per acre from 20 acres on his place in the sand hills.

The cotton and corn crop in Haskell county has about all been gathered and farmers are preparing their land for the winter rains.

It is reported that wolves and coyotes are becoming a nuisance around Graham, where farmers report the critters are destroying poultry on a large scale.

One white man dead, another mortally wounded and a wounded negro is the result of a miniature war which was waged near the JF ranch in the northeast corner of Throckmorton county several days ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Neal were in Abilene Saturday and attended the Fair held in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ellis of Fort Stockton visited relatives in Haskell this week end.

When a train conductor stops his string of freight cars almost daily and uses the hoboos riding the train to sweep out grain so that wild turkeys may be fed, the Game Department feels that it is getting cooperation of the highest caliber.

That is exactly what is happening in Archer county. The State Game Warden at Wichita Falls recently noticed the train halter near a river and dust flying out of the doors of several cars.

Upon investigation he found that the conductor had about half a dozen hoboos sweeping out grain from grain cars to feed a bunch of wild turkeys that use that area.

Questioned, the conductor said that he had heard the warden's plea, last winter when snow was on the ground, about feeding wildlife and he decided that every time he had any empty grain cars on his train he would make use of the hoboos riding by having them sweep out the cars at a place where he knew turkeys were ranging.

TEXAS OUT-O'-DOORS

AUSTIN, Texas—Whether the cutting of large trees is detrimental to the squirrel crop of Texas will be determined by Regional Game Biologists who have started a squirrel and a squirrel nest count in Robinson and Leon counties, where considerable logging is being started.

The total squirrel populations of these counties will be determined before a large amount of timber is taken and another count will be made when the woods have been considerably thinned by the falling of large trees to be made into ties, crates and boxes.

It is not definitely known whether the cutting is detrimental or is an aid. It is possible that the thinning of timber will increase the available food supply for the little "nut eaters" or again it may be that too many suitable nesting sites are removed and the squirrel population will be hard hit.

Pictured above is a reproduction of one of the brilliant spectacles to be portrayed in the gigantic fireworks display which will be staged Thursday night, Oct. 19, in front of Fair Park grandstand as a night attraction during the Central West Texas Fair.

The flash caught by the camera in the accompanying photograph occupies only one moment's time, while the spectacle to be presented is scheduled to last an hour, affording spectators a spectacular display of pyrotechnics bewildering in color and magnificence.

As a prelude to the display, one hundred large bombshells will be fired, breaking in the clouds and filling the sky with beautiful colors. Following will be the sky presentation of likenesses of Ferdinand the Bull, Mickey Mouse, and the Cat Fight, illustrated with rockets perfectly timed against night's darkness.

Interspersing the presentation will be five "wheel numbers", glittering displays in the sky that will bewilder and amaze the spectators with their brilliance.

Vying with the Northern Lights in colorful outline against the sky will be scintillating displays of American Beauty Rose, Niagara Falls, Alladin's Fountain, Tree of Life, Golden Glory, the American Flag, and "Good Night", climaxed with a gorgeous and colossal presentation of the "Bombing of Canton".

THE BAND

One thing that Weinert High has to be proud of this year is its band. Although this band has not been organized long, they really do well and they all seem very interested. They have played at the other football games, but this Thursday they expect to have suits and will march. Their suits consist of white pants, blue satin capes with white lining and blue and white caps.

Aletha Lises, vivacious, beautiful young senior is the drum major.

Mr. Myrick, the director of the band deserves praise. Mr. Myrick is working hard with the band and he seems to have the co-operation of the students and their parents.

THE SENIOR CLASS

Some of the Seniors have received their Senior rings. The rest of the Seniors are expecting their rings any day.

The Seniors are planning to have a masquerade party Halloween.

Tidwell Shows and Carnival Will Furnish Entertainment Features During Fair

The T. J. Tidwell Shows and Carnival, one of the best known and most popular organizations of its kind in the Southwest, will open a week's engagement on the Central West Texas Fairgrounds Monday Oct. 16.

This immense outdoor aggregation of rides and shows has been in Haskell many times before, and has a host of friends here who enjoy spending days and evenings on the gigantic midway.

This year they bring with them as the main free attraction, "Queen" the world's largest performing elephant, and Capt. Eric Van Der Wall and his six fighting African Lions, features that can only be presented by the larger shows because of the tremendous expense of operation and enormous salary paid to the men who risk their lives for the purpose of thrilling and astonishing the hundreds who watch them from the midway of the Tidwell Shows. These death-defying acts must be seen to be appreciated.

The T. J. Tidwell Shows carry 30 rides and shows, several of which have never been presented here before. The press reports which have preceded the Carnival on this year's visit to Haskell have nothing but praise for the clean, modern and variety entertainment to be presented.

will be on a large scale more pretentious than ever before attempted, according to W. O. Holden, who has charge of this feature. Headed by bands and pep squads from Haskell and a score of other schools in this section, special divisions of the parade will include a decorated float section led by the Fair Association float carrying young women sponsors from neighboring towns and communities. Other divisions of the parade will be assigned to commercial floats, Progress in Transportation, Horse and Riders, Clowns, Bicycle, and miscellaneous entries.

Afternoon attraction Wednesday will be Automobile Races on the five-eighths mile Fair Park track south of the exhibit grounds, in which some of the fastest drivers of the Southwest have entered.

Most spectacular and outstanding feature of opening day will be the Pageant and Queen's Coronation Ceremony at the High School auditorium on Wednesday night, when the young ladies chosen as "Queen of the Central West Texas Fair" and "Junior Fair Queen" will be introduced. Selected at a pageant held at the Texas Theatre this week, identity of the young ladies and their attendants will remain a secret until the coronation ceremony is held.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by Jack Ambling and his Crazy Hotel Orchestra and "Sugar and February", well-known radio characters. Following the coronation pageant, the orchestra will furnish music for a "Barn Dance" in a downtown building. Dance sponsors stress the fact that the event will be strictly informal—a real "barn dance" in every respect.

Carnival attractions during each day and night will be provided by Tidwell's Shows and carnival on the midway.

Automobile races will again be featured Thursday afternoon, with a gigantic fireworks display scheduled Thursday night.

On Friday afternoon horse races will be the major attraction, with five events arranged on the afternoon program. Football fans will have their lining Friday night, when the Anson Tigers, traditional foes, clash on Indian Field in conference play.

Horse races will again be staged Saturday afternoon as the closing day's feature.

Admission charge to the exhibit grounds has been set at 10c for both children and adults, and this lowered price is expected to contribute to an increased attendance.

Interesting Jewelry Objects Will Be Exhibited at 'Ye Old Curiosity Shoppe' During Fair

Some old jewelry owned by Mrs. H. S. Wilson has an interesting historical background. A gold and jet breast pin has a heart dangle with hair of her great, great grandmother's inside. Another piece is a daguerreotype within a solid gold frame. This being worn as a breast pin. Each of these pins dates back to the days of Thomas Jefferson, George Washington and Patrick Henry.

These pins accompanied their owner to functions that saw early America emerge from the Revolution and the declaration of independence become a reality. The political parties that held sway were the Whigs and Tories. In the life of these pins came the "era of good feeling" (1830) when our nation numbered ten millions of freemen who elected their president (Andrew Jackson) by a practically unanimous vote. These pins in 1835 saw the world treated to the spectacle of a nation without debt. This country had prospered greatly and to avoid the danger of an immense surplus, part of the national revenue was distributed among the states for internal improvement. If these pins could talk! How delighted we would be to listen.

Other pieces of old jewelry which will be on display at Ye Old Curiosity Shoppe Oct. 20, 22, are some ruby cuff links, a Masonic charm (1854), gold and jet ear drops for pierced ears, and picture breast pins fashionable at the time wives used to wear their husbands' pictures in pins.

Sunday Oct. 22 at 3 o'clock a program of sacred songs will be heard by those gathered at Ye Old Curiosity Shoppe. There will be some wearing costumes of old days and organ music will accompany the singing. A few of the favorites include: "O Bear Me Away on Your Snowy White Wings", "My Mother's Hands", "Amazing Grace", "On Jordan's Stormy Banks".

Mrs. C. L. Lewis will be glad to know of other old songs any one might wish to sing.

shaw, quarterback, ripping off 30 yards to be followed by halfback Cousins with a run of 40 yards to advance within the scoring zone. Henshaw carried the ball five yards for a touchdown and Cousins' kick for extra point was good.

In the second quarter Yancey scored his fourth touchdown to push the Moguls score to 26, and in the fourth Jack Pippen crossed the stripe for the visitors' fifth marker. J. Pippen's toe also accounted for two extra points in place kicks after touchdowns.

Yancey, J. Pippen, Thompson and C. Pippen, Mogul backs were outstanding ball carriers for Munday behind almost perfect blocking. Runs of 28, 35, 20 and 21 yards by Yancey were a contributing factor in amassing the top heavy score.

The starters: For Haskell—Jordan and Thompson, ends; Patterson and Marion, tackles; Gholson and Griffin, guards; Buford, center; Henshaw, Laird, Cousins and Holcomb, backs.

For Munday—Broach and Blacklock, ends; Stephens and Walton, tackles; McCarty and Denahan, guards; Kitchens, center; J. Pippen, Yancey, C. Pippen and Thompson, backs.

THE RECORD... Facts That Concern You

ONE INCOME THAT'S INCREASED MIGHTILY SINCE 1932!

IN 1932 (last year before repeal) BEER'S TAXES WERE PRACTICALLY NOTHING!

*Data from Liquor Control Board, includes beer license fees and estimates (not official) of mixed license fees.

BEER helps even those who do not drink it! To the tune of a million dollars a day nation-wide, beer tax revenue reaches back into every community, to help pay for relief, for public works, for education... and to lift a burden that would otherwise rest directly on the taxpayers.

To this, add a million new jobs made by beer. And a 100 million dollar farm market.

How can we keep these benefits... for you and for us? Brewers of America realize this depends on keeping beer retailing as wholesome as ever itself. They want to help public officials in every possible way. They cannot enforce laws. But they can—and will—cooperate!

May we send you a booklet telling of their unusual self-regulation program? Address: United Brewers Industrial Foundation, 19 East 40th Street, New York, N. Y.

BEER... a beverage of moderation
