National FFA Week February 19-26 Vocational agriculture students in Baird School will join tention on the importance of agriculture during National FFA

Week, February 19-26. "Agriculture is More Than Farming" is this year's FFA week theme. The boys will undertake a campaign to inform the general public about the importance of the agriculture industry to America, the growing need of agriculture and of the numerous and wide variety of opportunities that exist in the broad field of agriculture for young men who have background of experience and training.

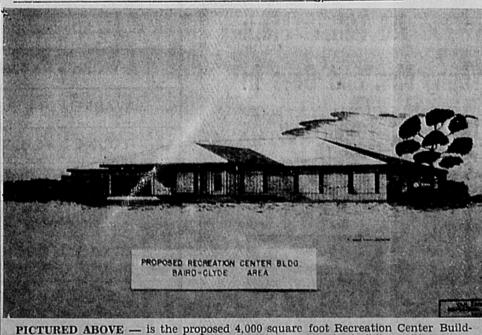

"We have such an abundance of food in America that people are taking farming for granted", said Dick Vestal, Vocational Agriculture teacher and FFA advisor." Actually, farming is now and always has been our largest and most vital industry, and it is becoming increasingly important with our expanding population. In our area particularly, most of the businesses, and most jobs, are basicaly dependent upon surrounding farms and ranches for existance. Take away the farms, and for all practical purposes you would destroy the Membership in the FFA is made up of students of vocational agriculture in high school. The organization's activities are designed to help develop leadership and good citizenship, and to stimulate the student to better achievement in their studies and work toward successful establishment of themselves in life.

The Baird FFA chapter has 38 members, Officers are: J. D. Faircloth President, Allen Lovell, Vice President; Gary Franke, Secretary; Hal Miller, Treasurer; Donald Barron, Reporter; and Pat Sadler Sentinel.

The national FFA organization has 450,000 members, with 9,000 local chapters in the 50 states and Puerto Rico. Membership in Texas is 40,000.

Future Farmers choose the week of George Washington's birthday each year for the observance of National FFA Week. Although usually recognized as a Revolutionary War General and our first President, Washington's first love was the farm, He was one of the first in the nation to practice contour planting, crop rotations, fertilization, and other soil conservation and improvement methods.

to be constructed mid-way between Baird and Clyde. The building will cost an estimated $50,000. In addition to the building, the Center will feature a golf course with instruction, archery range driving range, tennis and volley ball court, picnic and recreational area, miniature golf course, etc. The entire project will cost about $1000,000. ROY GILBREATH

Roy Gilbreath Announces For County Judge

After long deliberation and consulting with friends from over the County, I have decided to enter the race for County Judge.

I feel that my long experience in business has qualified me for this place.

If elected, the only promise I can make to the people of this Pledge to the Flag, led by Mrs. county is to give them the best administration of the county's business of which I am capable.

I will do my very best to see each and every one in the county before the May 7th Primary. I am looking forward to meeting each of you and discussing our mutual problems together. Sincerely.

Roy Gilbreath

Program Presented To Jr. Wednesday Club

"Bells Toll for Child Development" was the title of the program presented to members of the Junior Wednesday Club on Monday, Feb. 7, in the home of Mrs. Pat Garner.

Mrs. James Eubanks discussed "How to Know When A Child is Happy." She pointed out that parents make a child happy and that parents should enjoy parenthood, never be too busy for affection nor afraid of discipline. "Above all," stated Mrs. Eubanks, "parents should remember they are an example to their children."

"A Child's Approach to Religion" was the subject of Mrs. Floyd Smauley. She emphasized that parents should point out now God works in their daily

Mrs. Dick Vestal discussed "Wnat Johnny Should Learn Before School." Mrs. Vestal stated that children do not need to learn A.B.C.'s before the first grade, but they should learn simple things as tying shoes, buttoning buttons and using Kleenex. "Two of the most important things a pre-school child should learn," stated Mrs. Vestal, "are to listen to what others have to say and to play and get along with other children."

Mrs. Mike Young was hostess for the social hour. Present were Mmes. Garner, Eubanks, Vestal the following members: Mr. and Smauley, Ray Black, Wilburn Mrs. Grady Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Carrico, Barnett Cordray, Ed Cotton, Frank Crow, J. C. Earp Jr., Charles Greenway, Joe Harris, Truman Meyer, A. H. Ringhoffer, Emil Ringhoffer Jr., Vernon Townsend and Charles Wal-

Newnham Files For Legislature

Mayor Morris L. Newnham of Ranger formally filed his candidacy Monday for State Representative with Democratic chairmen in the five counties Eastland, Palo Pinto, Stephens, Callahan and Shackel-- comprising the 63rd legislative district.

The Ranger mayor said he had discussed his candidacy with a number of citizens over the five-county area and had spent considerable time and serious thought on his decision to enter the legislative contest.

"There have been rumors relating to my eligibility to be a candidate for the office of State Representative during the term to which I was elected as mayor of the City of Ranger," Newnham said "But there is no question in my mind as to my eligibility to run. "If elected to the legislature," he added, "I will not take office until January, 1967, at which time I will resign the office of Newnham's present term expires in April, 1967.

A provision of the Texas Con-stitution — Section 19 of Article III - reads:

" No judge of any court, Secretary of State, Attorney General, clerk of any court of record, or any person holding a lucrative office under the United States, or this State which he is elected or appointed, be eligible to the Legislature."

"Neither myself as mayor, or any member of the Ranger City Commission receives any pay for services rendered. As a matter of fact, no elected city officials in Ranger have received any financial remuneration since Sept. 15, 1957," Newnham explained. "In my opinion my position cannot be considered a 'lucrative' office as defined in the constitutional provision." The Ranger mayor and businessman, 43, was first elected to the city commission in 1959, and has been serving as mayor since 1961.

This is when you need an insurance agent on your side

If your home were wrecked by a storm, would your insurance agent be ready to give you the help you need? If he's an independent agent, he's already on the job. He was free to make recommendations from among several fine companies when you bought insurance. Now, when you need help, he serves you first because he owes allegiance to no one company. He displays this seal. Better make sure your man does.

As independent insurance agents, we give you the continuing, personal attention you need in insurance protection—The Big Difference in car, home, and business insurance. We'll be happy to give you all the facts about complete insurance protection. Happy to give you service beyond the call

The only thing that looks low-priced on a Pontiac Tempest is its price sticker.
