Mrs. Joe H. Bowers Announces Opening of Nursery School

The "Jack & Jill School", a kindergarten and nursery school for children under school age, opens in the home of Mrs. Joe H. Bowers. Tuesday, Sept. 8. Emphasis will be placed on developing the child as an individual, and discovering talents. Pupils will be introduced to the fields of music, speech and art. A Rhythm Band will be the highlight of programs presented to the public to give the children poise and self-confidence

Through cooperative play the pupils become socially adjusted. Through dramatizations and story telling they enjoy the pleasure of creative work and imagination.

Mrs. Bowers brings to her work a high type of professional background of training and experience. With a degree in primary educa-tion from Baylor University she taught the first grade in public schools for several years, and has since had private kindergarten experience. She plans to hold the classes in rooms of her home directly across the highway from the North Ward School.

All of this scientific information is compiled and used in an effort to further conserve and increase the supply of whitewings. The banding technique has been used for years with bobwhite and blue quaff, turkeys and other bands were removed and thrown away, and this prompted the Executive Secretary to assure all perthe interest of conservation of Department's office.

It has large, shiny eyes that at night blaze, one or two adults. The story ap- like balls of fire or glisten like automobile headlights. Around its neck is a brass collar about four inches in width which leads some of Hamrock, four miles south of of the natives to believe it once belonged to a menagerie. Recently Herman McGuire while out with his greyhounds when it was known to have de- running down jackrabbits, heard one, of his hounds barking as if in entire flocks of turkeys along the distress, and when he entered the thicket he found signs of a struggle and leading away was the tracks of the monster. The dog The last one to see the terror of the neighborhood was Hunt eral weeks with her parents Mr. Dunaway, prominent Italy ginner, and Mrs. J. H. Wolf. who, while in the vicinity Friday inspecting the cotton prospect, saw at least fifteen feet of he reptile across the road in front of him. As he approached, the snake entered the thicket. As Mrs. C. R. Steelman of Paris, locked back over the tall under-Dunaway slowed down, the snake

Farmers on either side of the creek are doubtful if they can keep Negroes in the community to gather cotton this fall. One negro woman has reported that semething has been catching her children and recently the loss of her husband, last seen entering the lowlands two weeks ago. He never returned.

Monday afternoon a man and his wife of that community called Hunt Dunaway to come out to the farm immediately, to see if he could identify the reptile he saw. They had killed a monster that was catching all their fowls. The reptile resembled a snake, according to Rev. Calvin Jenkins who told the story while Hunt Dunaway regained his breath and got back some of his "spunk". It had twelve chickens two pigs, a goat and a white face calf inside when killed, and was longer than Hunt Dunaway's Dodge automobile, but Hunt wouldn't get out of the car to see how much longer. He was positive, however, that it was not the one he saw. It was only a half-pint relative of the reptile that blinked its eyes at him, and he was sure it was not the real reptile he saw cross the road. The monster has been terrorizing the population in that community, and has caused all the livestock to break out of their stalls and lots, the dogs all to crawl under the houses at dark and the roosters to refuse to crow until after sun up. Judge R. E. Sparkman, justice of the peace, whose precinct covers this community. has ordered a strict curfew of all citizens after dark and thus Berley Wiles has not been able to come to town since. That may not be the reason but Judge Sparkman is enforcing the curfew in order to protect the lives of the folk. No one knows what the reptile is, or how it got there except some advance the theory that it is a dragon turned loose by Japanese saboteurs, others say it is a monster water and swamp dinasor run out of Louisiana by the army maneuvers. Regardless of what it is several local men including Claude Wolaver, are now afraid to spend the night on the creek fishing, which has upset Claude's regular schedule, and life. Frank Moore says these fellows are even afraid to go fishing in the day time. This monster crawls like a snake has four legs like a dragon and walks on two hind legs when he wishes. It can stand on its hind legs and pick chickens out of the tallest hackberry tree in the community, kick in the side of a barn, or knock pool dry with one swish of its tail. Attempts to kill the monster have been of no avail. A shot gun blast was ineffctive rolled off his hide just like off the steel roof of an oil tank. It has been impossible to locate its den or hiding place. Since it disappears almost in thin air some some it is some kind of Biblical dragon, Mr. Campbell should be consulted about this. It seems that the monster strikes right out of a clear sky. The whole population in that part of the county s living in mortal terror. Berley Wiles has been organizing the community to fight the monster. A Milford man said Berley told im the reptile was not only tweny feet long but bigger than a apanese submarine. It caught our yearlings, and a big white faced bull on the G. H. Griffin That is according to the best check that could be made. If the cattle were not devoured they were so far down in the creek bottom that Mr. Griffin could not find them from the front seat of his Ford and it was too hot walk, so he presumed the reptile had already captured them and According to Bud Standifer, on came back home and took a drink

Enemy Barbarism

For sheer planned brutality, the Axis leaders have proved themselves comparable to the barbarians of anchient history. In World War I there was much talk of atrocities. But many of the atrocity stories were made up out of whole cloth for purpose of propaganda. Real atrocities were scattered and relatively rare, but they were not done as a matter of governmental policy. In World War II, to the contrary, murder and rape and devastation are pursued by the Germans and Japanese almost as a matter of routine-and that fact has been completely substantiated by reputable eyewitnesses. It makes little difference to the Gestapo whether a man is innocent or guilty, as the mass executions of hostages abundantly testifies. The Axis radio, at times, actually boasts of the wanton slaughter of non-combatants.

President Roosevelt, during the course of a recent warning to Axis officials that retribution would come when the war ends, said, "The practice of executing scores of innocent hostages in reprisal for isolated attacks on Germans in countries temporarily under the Nazi heel, revolts a world already inured to suffering and brutality Civilized people long ago adopted the basic principle that no man should be penished for the deed of another." That principle has been entirely abandoned by the Axis.

The Axis is deliberately exterminating entire populations. Hitler himself has said that the Poles must be liquidated-and, according to reports which have seeped out of Warsaw, the death rate has assumed incredible proportions, especially in the Jewish areas. Starvation is rampant in Greece, and some authorities believe that within two years, under present conditions, the Greek people will virtually disappear. Men who have escaped from Jap concentration camps in Hongkong and elsewhere, say that the Japanese are pursuing an almost identical policy. Captured soldiers and civilians alike are given almost no food They are denied all medical supplies and attention. Sanitary conditions are literally horrible. And the people, as a result, are dying like flies.

One of the latest Axis innovations has been to raze entire villages, shoot every male resident. and send the women and children to forced labor within Germany. For every attack made on Axis dozens of

And a long list of Quislings within the occupied Nations who are working hand in glove with the Axis will also have to face judges appoint. ed by the people in whose ruin and torture they have collaborated la the meantime Hitler's barbarous tactics have not broken the spirit of the conquered nations. To the contrary, the flame of revolt burns ever higher. Sabotage goes on Germans are found dead in the towns ano countryside of France, Greece, Holland, the Netherlands, the Balkans, etc. And in all of the occupied nations, amazingly well developed "undergrounds" exist.

The man who belong to these undergrounds are unknown. The names of many of them will never be known. Theirs is the most risky and desperate of undertakings. Every second of the day they must face the specter of death by torture, This is the highest kind of human courage. Life recently ran an article on the French underground which is especially effective. The leaders quietly and continually organize sabotage of the Nazi war effort in French factories. They print little news-papers which are widely circulated and which aring to the enslaved French people news of the free world outside their borders. As part of this work, the French Underground has compiled an interesting "blacklist" of men and women who are marked for assassination. All of the names on that list belong to Frenchmen who have sold out to Germany And some of the names are world famous: Petain; Weygand; Laval; Derain, the painter; Mistinguett, the celebrated music hall star; Carpentier, the pugilist; Maurice Chevolier, the movie actor; etc. etc. The Free French have pledged that not one of the men and women on that list will escape swift justide at the earliest possible time.

To quote the President's warning once again. The Nazis might have learned from the last war the impossibility of breaking men's spirt by ter-Frightfulness can never bring peace to Europe. It only sows the seeds of hatred which will ane day bring fearful retribution." The patriois in the conquered, tortured nations are waiting with grim anticipation for that day.

America's Natural Resources

In the laboratories of America, miracles are in the process of being wrought. New frontiers of science are being explored And old and commonplace materials are being turned to new and marvelous uses.

Coal and oil are cases in point. We think primarily of coal as a substance which provides motive power for industry and which heats homes We think primarily of oil as a variety of liquids which propel our engines and lubricate our machinery But coal and oil are the basis of new materials which serve a thousand other vital pur-

Producers Get Allowance For Cotton Bagging

Texas cotton farmers will receive a 7-pound per bale allowfrom the First Methodist Church ance for cotton wrapped in cotton patterns this year

> The new program, under which cotton is substituted for the traditional jute wrapping, is the culmination of years of intensive action by state and federal agencies to get buyers and handlers of cotton to make allowance for the traditional cotton in a bale wrapped with the fabric.

> Cotton patterns and ties on a 500-pound bale weigh about 14 pounds while the jute wrapper and ties weigh from 21 to 22 pounds, Fred Rennels, assistant administrative officer of the AAA in Texas, said

The cotton bale covering not only gives a neat appearing and Mrs. Nattie Morgan of Long well protected bale, but permits Beach, Calif. and Mrs. A. E the packing of more lint per bale 13 and gives producers an opportunity to use a fabric manufactured from their own product, he explained

The 1942 program provides for production of 4.000,000 cotton patterns which will be sold by mills to producers at a fixed price of

$1.10 and to wholesale distributors at $1.00 per patiern This is close to prevailing prices for jute pat-

Since 11,000 bales are required to make 1,000,000 cotton patterns, it would take about 130,000 bales to make enough patterns to cover a 12,000,000-bale cotton crop, Rennels said.
