To the People of this Community

There will be a feeling of shame in this community if we find ourselves short of the mark when the Fifth War Loan comes to an end July 8.

We will not permit that to happen here, especially if we look around in our homes and our places of employment, and see the shadows of relatives and friends who today are in the midst of bloody battle for us.

We cannot emphasize too strongly that regardless of the size of the over-subscription of our community quota, the Fifth War Loan will be a flat failure for you if you do not exceed anything you have done in the past in War Bond buying.

In this invasion hour our fighting men have a right to demand that you make your record contribution to the success of a war loan.

The slogan, Beck the Attack—Buy More Than Before, is not merely a catch phrase. It expresses the cold facts about invasion. Unless we make the supreme effort to do everything humanly possible either at our work benches or in our homes with our sweat, our blood and our dollars we stand over our share of the burden to our fighting men.

Revised Rules on Hiring Works Is Announced By WMC

Employers in Haskell County will be permitted to hire male workers without referral by the United States Employment Service under authority of the Area Director of the War Manpower Commission and the Abilene Area Management - Labor Committee. This constitutes a special arrangement under the Priority Referral Program of the War Manpower Commission, which goes into effect at midnight, June 30, O. R. Rodden, Manager, said—and is subject to change if operating experience and national manpower needs dictate.

No local office of the United States Employment Service is located in Haskell County, he said, and undue hardship would be imposed upon workers if they were required to make a trip to Abilene to secure a job.

It was emphatically pointed out, however, that while these arrangements permitted a worker to seek employment within the county without having to be channeled through the Employment Service, that the Employment Stabilization regulations were still in effect and that any worker now employed or employed during the preceding 60-day period in an essential industry could not be hired except upon referral by the United States Employment Service or upon the presentation of a Statement of Availability.

Rodden also said that while workers would not be required to go through the USES when seeking a job inside the county that no such arrangement exists in counties in which an office of the USES is located and that in those counties no employer should hire a male worker except upon referral of the USES.

One of the objectives of the Priority Referral Program is to keep essential workers on their present jobs, he continued, and he urged employers to refrain from hiring essential workers pointing out that such practice was in violation of the Stabilization Plan and could, if allowed to reach proportions detrimental to the war effort, be a reason for re-mandating the arrangement on the Priority Referral Program in Haskell County.

No restriction whatever has been placed on agricultural workers, so long as they remain in agricultural work, he said.

Jesse E. Martin Launches Campaign For State Office

FORT WORTH — State Senate-wide tour presenting to the voters his qualifications for attorney general.

"During the next administration of the attorney general," enator Martin, the only ex-service man in this race, is telling the people, "many problems will arise in the attorney general's office that will lead directly with the returning soldier, his widow, his orphans or his dependent parents. I believe an ex-service man, otherwise qualified, will be better able to solve these vital problems than a man who has never been in the service."

Senator Martin, who fought with the Marines in France in World War I, advocated soldiers voting without paying a poll tax. He is serving his second term in the Texas Senate and three times was elected district attorney of Tarrant County after serving as assistant. As an assistant federal district attorney he prosecuted in the United States District Court in 99 Texas counties.

While in the State Senate he worked for and helped pass appropriations for old age assistance, teachers retirement, the needy blind and dependent children.

While still a Marine, Senator Martin won a scholarship in Cambridge University in England where he took a post graduate law course. He previously had obtained his law degree from a Texas farm and worked his way through school.

Workers Urged to Intensify Efforts to Meet Quota In County

With the deadline to be met Saturday night, Haskell county was behind Thursday on its quota of $470,000 in the Fifth War Loan Drive, County War Finance Chairman announced, in urging committeemen and volunteer workers to redouble their efforts during the next two days to put the drive "over the top."

Realizing that workers have been handicapped because of the busy grain harvesting season, capped by the week-end Fourth of July holiday period, Mr. Couch pointed out the fact that American soldiers on the battlefield have not slowed their activities, in urging workers and bond-buyers to shoulder their responsibility in meeting the county's quota in the current drive.

The county chairman met this week with community committees in the various towns of the county for the purpose of outlining an intensive campaign to meet the county's quota of bond sales before the end of the week.

Bond sales to date have barely passed the halfway mark for the county quota, however the total is expected to be boosted by receipt of subscriptions from out-of-town buyers to be credited to Haskell county.

Shell Pipeline Buys $11,500

Substantial boost on the county quota came in the purchase of $11,500 worth of bonds by the Shell Pipeline Corporation, to match 10-to-1 the Bond purchases made by their employees in Haskell county. The corporation, in addition to other activities supporting the war effort, has pledged to purchase war bonds in the ratio of 10 to 1 for each employee purchase, Mr. Couch was advised.

SURGICAL DRESSING NOTES

Last week we reported a fine start in folding surgical dressings and the work has continued in a "most satisfactory way", at present "pace" we will complete Haskell's 3-month quota in three weeks. FIFTY-THREE workers had produced 12,552-4x4 sponges since Monday, June 26. Mrs. Bert Orr made 1670, Mrs. J. V. Hudson 1610, Mrs. C. L. Lewis 968, Mrs. Henry Dobbins 850, Mrs. Lanham Williams 622, Mesdames Dobbins and Williams packed all of the dressings which entails much time and work. The greatest number of dressings 2182 were folded Tuesday, June 27. July 4th ran a close second with 2146. We are so pleased to have a number of the "younger set", who make such nice bandages. We hope more of you will make surgical dressings part of your summer pastime.

Supervisors and helpers are—Monday, Mesdames Lanham Williams, H. J. Hambleton, M. D. Richmond. Tuesday, Mrs. Bert Orr, Mrs. H. M. Bledsoe.

Wednesday, Mesdames Lynn Pace, Courtney Hunt and Alva Crandall.

Thursday, Mesdames C. E. Lewis, F. T. Sanders. Thursday Night, Mesdames Henry Atkinson, and George Newby.

Friday, Mesdames Henry Dobbins, J. V. Hudson and R. C. Lowe.

The room is open morning and afternoon. We will begin work on the 4x8 dressings the latter part of this week. More time is required to fold these dressings—but Haskell's quota is only 3,300. We can finish them in two weeks if we have your continued cooperation.

Remember, won't you, that for the want of a few bandages at a critical time some boy's life may be lost. Let us all do our very best every day for the Red Cross, which does so much for our loved ones at home and overseas.

The workers enjoyed the cold drinks sent two afternoons by Mrs. J. M. Diggs and one afternoon by J. W. Gholsen.

Notes from Red Cross Production room: Fifty filled Service kits were shipped last Saturday. Mrs. J. L. Odell contributed $1 to fill a kit.

PLEASE send in all pajama coats and pants finished or unfinished. We are holding up shipment on account of a few garments that have not been returned. We have a quilt top donated by Mrs. Elmora, and the cotton. If your club or church organization can furnish lining and do the quilting we shall be glad to send to you.

—Mrs. Jesse B. Smith, Production chairman.

JEEPS FOR FARM USE

The army jeep promises greater usefulness as an auxiliary work implement on a large farm than for general work on the average farm, according to indications reported by Domestic Commerce, official publication of the Department of Commerce. Tests have been made on jeeps at the Tillage Machinery Laboratory, Auburn, Ala., and in connection with Pennsylvania State College. Perhaps half a million jeeps have been manufactured and more will continue to be made until the war ends.

If the boys who are spending their time working up strikes would practice what they preach and go on strike, the situation would solve itself.

Grandstand View of Normandy Beachhead

This is how the American section of the Normandy beachhead looks, viewed from a bluff where gunners once had a position. As far as the eye can see there are invasion crafts, ferrying fighting and other Allied soldiers as well as munitions and equipment to the beach. Barrage balloons and the transports like lazy cows to protect them against possible dive bombing attack. All is quiet on the beach now, but in the first hours of the invasion death and terror ran rampant here.

...ing weight of evidence, that Mr. Jones and W. L. Clayton, the cotton king who is entrenched now in Washington as arbiter of post-war reconversion, had a hand in the scheming.

...Hovering about the proceedings was a motley crowd of utility and oil men, big enterprisers of one sort or another, some known Republicans, some Garner Democrats—men identified by responsible observers as representatives of the interests of Pew, Sinclair, Standard Oil of New Jersey, Standard Oil of New York, Henry Ford, the Electric Bond & Share Company and others of the groups that have been that way a long time, who were the Liberty Leaguers in 1936, the "free enterprise" crusaders of 1940.

...You have to recall what you know about political conventions and their arrangement to understand the details of the picture as they unfold—how a convention is an assembly of delegates selected by the controlling political machinery, bearing little relationship to the voter, bringing together, at least in a ruling majority, the people whom the boys in power want and who will follow the leader.

...The organization of the convention, according to the accumulating details, had proceeded as secretly as any group requires, and the President's friends apparently awoke too late to find that they could do anything about the fait accompli—the dissemination of a "party program" which included the traditional commitments for white supremacy, return to the two-thirds rule, support of poll tax, and then the sock-dolager's at the end, an un-instructed delegation to Chicago and the Electoral College scheme.

It was all there, signed and sealed, and New Dealers be damned. In it was the admission of readiness thus to betray every citizen who gives the mandate to the electors. It was an underfaking to deny the party's integrity and in effect to strike what might well be a death-blow at the party system. It was a move in opposition to the traditional political system of the United States, and thus an incitement to revolution—not perhaps, revolution by the proscribed "force and violence," but by simple repudiation.

It was in the end, an enterprise born of desperation. Nothing else seems to have worked in the matter of getting That Man out of the White House, and here he is looming again. If you can't beat him with Republican votes, they seemed to say, you might try beating him with the Democratic organization itself. It looked too good to be true. Perhaps, however, it will prove not to be true, now that the modus operandi of the venture is coming to light, and a great many people are concerning themselves with complete illumination and identification of the fantastic picture.

War veterans want facts to make them think as well as "song-and-dance" entertainment. University of Texas extension officials discovered in a poll taken recently at McCloskey hospital. Result: The University this summer is sending a series of forum speakers on topics ranging from air transportation to U. S.-Russian relationships.

A POSTWAR PLAN FOR EVERYBODY
(Farm Journal)

Work, thrift and prodence will be as indispensable to individual postwar plans as they have ever been. The "bright new world" that some of the boys have been dreaming up will still be a tough old earth where nobody gets something for nothing for long. A sound theory to assume is that it may very likely be tougher, and it is time to start preparing right now. War taxes alone will take a slice of every income for years to come. DRIVE IT HOME!

That's the way I like to see them," said Gen. MacArthur when he saw the rows of dead Japs in the Admiralty Islands. In this war—the fiercest, cruellest war of all time—our boys must fight with savage fury. Kill or be killed! And on how well each plays his part depends the lives of many of his buddies.

Here on the home front, too, just when the attack on isn't enough.

That's why there's a Fifth War Bond drive on now, a drive in which you're needed to support the men on the fighting fronts who are facing the most treacherous forces Americans have ever met in combat. We on the home front can't let them down—and we won't. So resolve now to at least double your Bond buying in the 5th War Loan drive. This is the time to do better than your best.

Campfire Girls Attend Camp

The Haskell Camp Fire group, "Cahashi", was represented at the camp fire camp, "El Tesora" by the following girls: Sue Sellers, Nell King, Joan Berry, Kathryn Harrel and Raynell Godfrey.

They spent ten enjoyable days in which they studied the camp fire crafts and especially enjoyed the horse-back riding and the swimming. The girls made a good account for themselves by the fact they held the camp banner for nearest cabin four times during their stay. The girls are looking forward to camping again next year and hope that more of the group may go.

NEW CANTALOUPE RESISTANT TO DOWNY MILDEW AND MELON APHIDS (By A. D. Jackson)

Cantaloupe production in many sections is frequently attended by severe losses from downy mildew and also from melon aphids. Dr. S. S. Ivanoff, pathologist at the Winter Haven Experiment Station, has developed some strains of cantaloupe highly resistant to both downy mildew and melon aphids. Dr. Ivanoff secured some West Indian cantaloupes which were inferior in quality but possessed the highly desirable characters of being resistant to both downy mildew and melon aphids. Recognizing the value of this material for planting purposes Dr. Ivanoff endeavored by crossing to transfer these characters of resistance to downy mildew and melon aphids to some of our best strains of cantaloupes. Out of these crosses he selected from each generation only plants that had a high degree of resistance and approached nearest to the high quality of our high quality cantaloupes. He followed this method for seven generations with the result that he now has established some strains of cantaloupes that are of good quality and possess resistance to both downy mildew and melon aphids. During this year he has increased plantings on which there has been little infection of aphids whereas some commercial fields are so high infected as to be a total loss. Dr. Ivanoff states that these cantaloupes are NOT IMMUNE to aphids or downy mildew but they, nevertheless, possess resistance to such a degree that both better yields and lengthening of the fruiting period will be obtained. The new strains are still susceptible to powdery mildew but work is in progress to secure strains that may reduce losses from this pest also. A small amount of seed will be available at the end of this season for growers.

Evening Worship—8:00 p. m.

Prayer meeting, Wednesday—7:30 p. m.

The members of our church are urged to be faithful in their attendance and to arrive at the services on time if at all possible. Visitors and strangers will be very cordially welcomed. A delightful auditorium, helpful and worshipful services, a cordial spirit will be found at this church at all times. "I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go to the house of the Lord."

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Your presence in Sunday school and church will not only help you, but it will encourage others. You make others happy when you come. You will find a group in every church who never miss except when there is serious sickness. They come. They pray. They pay. They give themselves to the building of the Kingdom of God. Why don't you become one of these? You make these happy when you come.

At 11:00 o'clock the pastor's theme will be: "John and the Three Baptisms." You will do well to study the third chapter of Matthew before attending this service. We will be well rewarded for studying this man—what he did and what he taught. If you will get the real meaning of baptism we will never again make a joke of it. It would be easier to make a joke of the burial of your own child than to joke concerning the burial of our Lord.

At the evening hour the pastor will speak on: "Advertising Jesus." This is exactly what a man did in Mark 1:45. He did a good job of it. It helped the Cause of Christ. We can do the same thing and do it every day. If we do not know anything good to say about Christ it is because the darkness

The guest preacher for the Revival is Rev. Hayden Edwards, Minister of the Broadway-Mulkey Methodist Church in Ft. Worth. He will arrive Monday evening. The public is cordially invited to worship with us in this campaign. If we have ever needed a revival of the message and the power of Christ, both in preaching and in human lives, that time is now. Join us in this mighty crusade!

FIRST METHODIST CHURCH REVIVAL

I am coming to you with the most direct and urgent appeal that it is possible for me to make to you. I speak of our REVIVAL, July 9 to 23.

Our church, our city, our nation, and our world stand in greater need of a revival of Christianity today than ever before. With war clouds hovering over us, with sin and sorrow the order of the day, with so many of our members indifferent and absent from the services of worship, with so many souls lost and out of the church, we can readily see the great need of a great revival.

Rev. Hayden Edwards, Minister of the Broadway-Mulkey Methodist Church in Fort Worth, is to be our preacher for these services, July 9 to 23. Bro. Edwards is a forceful preacher and is much in demand for special services of all types. He had the distinction of preaching the Baccalaureate Sermon for Texas Wesleyan College Fort Worth, before he was graduated from this institution. He is a fearless man of God, and he will be inspiring and uplifting. You must hear him.

Georgia Barnes of Electra has been acclaimed "home front heroine" among University of Texas co-eds, having put in 130 hours of volunteer war service during May alone, an average of four hours a day. Her recognition came a little late, for, due to an error in addition, the title was conferred on Patricia Murphy of Dallas at Swing-Out, ceremony honoring senior girls and all campus war workers. Miss Murphy had worked 92 1-2 hours in volunteer service during May.

All the Andy Hardy stars are back for this one plus twin sisters Lee and Lynn Wilde and Herbert Marshall. It is guaranteed family entertainment.

Who's Who In America Lists Over 1,100 New Brass Hats

With 23 per cent of its new listings Generals and Admirals, that perennial biennial among the best sellers, Who's Who in America, went into distribution throughout the country and to many non-Axis lands Wednesday.

Although only officers above the ranks of colonel in the Army and Marine Corps and captain in the Navy and Coast Guard are Who's Who automatically because of rank alone, over 1,100 new brass hats never before eligible gave its editors one of their toughest biographical reference jobs in many years. And gathering the necessary information about the 957 new Generals and the 147 Admirals by no means completes their task, since the majority of the ranks are temporary and exist only for the duration.

But the editors predict that before these wartime ranks expire the youngest person rating Who's Who will probably be a General, since officers in their twenties have recently been recommended for the rank. However, exceptional accomplishment overrides rank and all other arbitrary qualifications for a Who's Who listing, and as a result the youngest among those added to its pages this year happens to be an Army lieutenant. He is Lt. Marion L. Hargrove, tapped at 24 for Who's Who on account of his book, See Here, Private Hargrove, and the movie based on it, Teresa Wright, 25, whose part in the photoplay, Mrs. Miniver, won her the Academy Award for a supporting role, and Richard Tregaskis, 27, war correspondent and author of Guadalcanal Diary, are also listed.

Oldest in Who's Who.
The oldest person in Who's Who is seventy-five years older than Lieutenant Hargrove. He is Robert H. Richards, the inventor and metallurgist, who will be 100 next month, and was originally listed in the first edition of Who's Who, published nearly fifty years ago. Albert Shaw, the editor, has also been listed continuously in every edition.

In addition to the 1,104 newly appointed Generals and Admirals, 3,522 others are listed for the first time by Who's Who in the new twenty-third edition marking the forty-fifth years of its publication. Among the new names are movie stars, Ingrid Bergman, Garson, Victor Moore and Walter Pidgeon; authors, Betty Smith, Taylor Caldwell and Elizabeth Pickett Chavallier; Ilka Chase, actress and author; war correspondents and authors Cecil Brown and Pat Robinson; artists, Don Herold, Richard Taylor and Rea Irvin; singers, Lily Djanel and Karstin Thorborg; conductor, Desire Defauw; Ver-dent of Montgomery Ward & Company; Ray R. Raush and Mead L. Breiker, ranking officials in the reshuffled Ford corporate line-up; Leroy R. Gruman, president of the Gruman Aircraft Engineering Corporation, and Emerson Foote of Fote, Cone & Belding.

Thomas J. Watson, president of International Business Machines Corporation and reputedly the highest paid business executive in the country, has the longest sketch in the new edition of Who's Who instead of President Nicholas Murray Butler of Columbia, who for a number of years has submitted the longest biography. In the new Who's Who the Watson sketch runs to 143 lines, the Butler data twenty lines less.

Since the death of Lawyer Samuel Untermyer, who once one commentator quipped "littered everything but the number of his watch in Who's Who," Educator Butler has been an outstanding user of Who's Who space, and Lawyer Untermyer's 153-line sketch has held the record for length in the companion volume Who Was Who, which lists the deceased notables. However when the new edition had been compiled, the editors made a check-up and found that the data sent to them by Industrialist Watson had set a new record.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

(By Boyce House)

Entering the lobby of the Algerita Inn at Post, I was startled to see a lean, mean-looking cat—the biggest cat I'd ever seen—peering at me from behind a post. Then I realized that it was a wildcat that had been stuffed. The lobby of the picturesque inn is adorned with eagles, owls and other examples of the taxidermist's art. Incidentally, the Algerita was built by the late C. W. Post, the cereal king.

Simpson served two years in the legislature, then was district judge, a position his father once had held. When oil was struck in East Texas, Simpson's law practice grew rapidly and he has had a large appellate practice, including the Supreme Court of the United States.

Recognized for ability and character by his fellow lawyers, Simpson was elected director of the State Bar Association, chairman of the board and, in 1942 president. He found time to serve as Smith County Fair president and as teacher of a Men's Bible Class.

With the entry of the United States into World War II, Colonel Simpson bade farewell to his wife and daughters to re-enter the Army and has been overseas 11 months. The Smith County man's name was filed as a candidate for the State Supreme Court by friends.

We Were Prepared

The progressive peacetime activities of this country laid the strongest foundation on which to build the most up-to-date war machine in the world when occasion arose.
Nowhere has this been better illustrated than in the United States during the past generation outstripped government dominated medical systems of the nations we thought were so well prepared for war.

What Does Freedom Mean?

Early in 1939 an amendment of the Oregon Constitution was proposed to the effect that "any contract of employment which denies to any individual or individuals the right to earn a living without being compelled to be a member of a labor union, hereby is declared to be against public policy and void." The proposal was dropped because of the war.

Do We Appreciate?

Electricity has long been so common in the United States that we are not conscious of its presence. We consider as commonplace, services and products in our country, which would be looked on as luxuries in large portions of the world.

Something To Know

A good many people unacquainted with the situation wonder why thousands of men like to work in coal mines.
For one thing, coal miners are well paid; their average earnings being higher than the average for all industrial workers.

Fire Prevention Lowers Insurance Rates

The city of Hartford, Connecticut, in winning the 1943 fire waste contest of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, sets an example for all cities producing implements of war.

TAKING POSSESSION OF CANAAN

LESSON TEXT—Joshua 14:6-14; Judges 1:20-21.
GOLDEN TEXT—Thou hast wholly followed the Lord.—Joshua 14:9.

Companions in battle usually means friends and comrades for life. Joshua, of whom we studied last week, had such a friend in Caleb. Together they had faced the crises of life.

Caleb is one of the characters about whom the Bible does not say much, but in every case the word is one revealing high and noble character.

The background for our study is the story of Caleb's courageous stand with Joshua when the spies returned from their visit to Canaan, which is related in Numbers 13.

I. Perfect Obedience (Josh. 14:6-8).
I wholly followed the Lord my God. Such a testimony from a man like Caleb is no idle boast, no effort to parade his faith and piety before others.

It is God's will for each of His children that they should come to such a place of simple trust and complete obedience that in every circumstance of life they need know only one thing—God's will, and then in faith to go and do it.

II. Promised Inheritance (v. 9).
"Surely the land whereon thy feet have trodden shall be thine inheritance." Such was the promise of God through Moses.

III. Preserved Strength (vv. 10, 11).
"The Lord hath kept me alive, . . . and I am . . . strong." Here was a man kept of God, in full vigor in his eighty-fifth year.

Election returns so far published show a majority in the senatorial district for Hon. A. S. Hawkins of Abilene for State Senator and to the representative district for Prof. R. P. Dimmitt of Knox county for representative.

J. U. Fields made a business trip to Sherman this week. He was accompanied by Master Lewis Fields, who will visit with relatives and friends in Howe for several weeks.

M. S. Pierson and daughter, Miss Maggie went to Aspermont yesterday.
W. A. King of Big Spring, Howard county, recently purchased 728 acres of good land five miles east of town and has commenced improving the tract for settlement.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Sherrill and Master Lewis left Wednesday morning to see the great World's Fair at St. Louis.
Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Garrett, Ed Whitaker and family and Mrs. Buchanan and family spent several days this week fishing on Elm Creek.

Judge H. R. Jones is holding a term of district court at Anson this week and will probably continue there next week. The Walter Hickey murder case is set for trial Monday.

Henry Alexander is off on a visit to the big exposition at St. Louis.
Hollis Fields, having accepted a position with his brothers in the grain business at Howe, left several days ago for that place, where he will remain for the next month or six weeks.

Miss Fannie Isbell returned a few days ago from Jacobsboro, where she has been visiting with relatives for several weeks.
There's always a bright side! With folks unable to drive to vacation spots, we won't have to look at so many vacation photos this summer.

During my boyhood I knew one typical ante-bellum Negro, a picturesque character born 50 years, you might say, after his time. It was said of him that, with solemn Congo River ritual, he named one of his seldom-used pockets "The World." Promptly then he had his wife sew up the empty pocket.

The Magic Twist
It's uncanny. People pay more for what they get although prices stay the same at all points of sale.

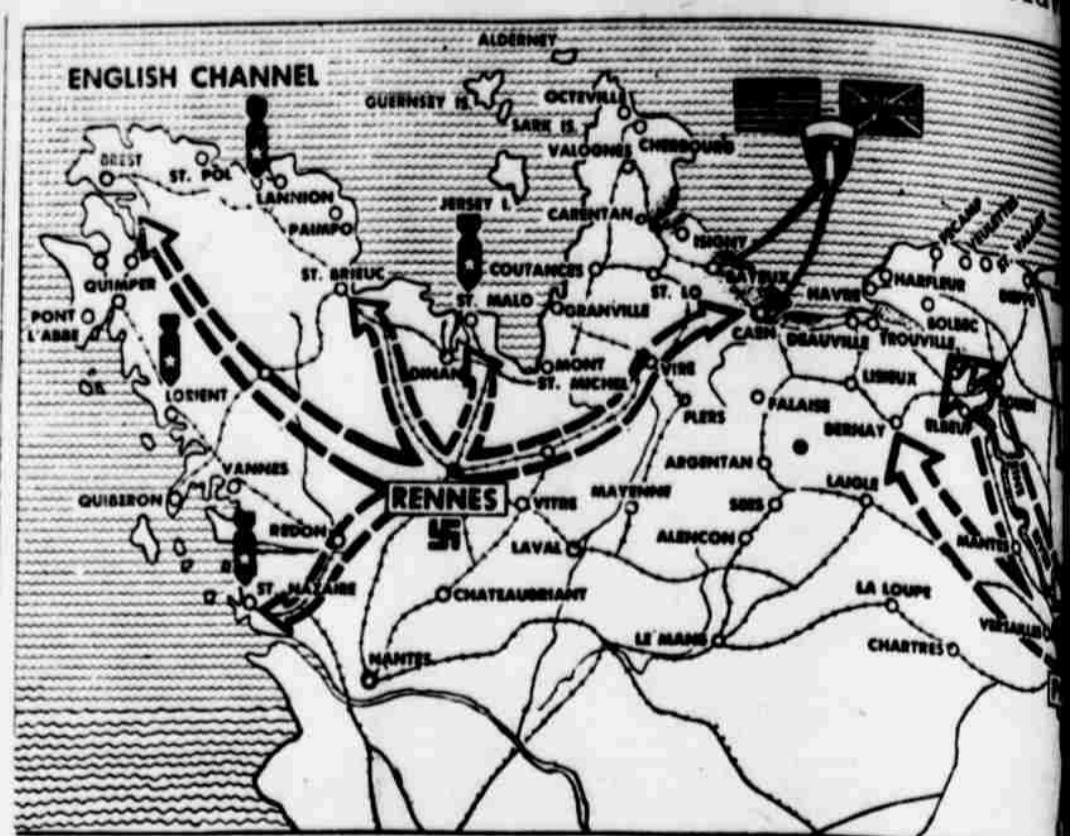

High-Crow Humberg
Nobody is fooled. Effie's highest allowable price for skirts is $4 and she can't get any more $4 skirts to sell.

Who Said Scandal?
A few days ago Effie went to the shoe section of a basement store to buy some cheap oxfords to work in.

Cooking competition does not help Mr. and Mrs. Consumer. Truly Effie's prices have not advanced, neither are her competitors' prices lower.

THE ARMY ANSWERS YOUR PERSONAL WAR PROBLEMS

Your questions on allotments, insurance, legal problems or other personal affairs as they relate to the Army will be answered in this column or by letter. Write Headquarters, Eighth Service Command, Dallas 2, Texas.

Q. Will you please explain what the requirements are for a veteran to get vocational training in an Army school for honorably discharged vet-fans?

A. Under Public Law No. 16, 1943, vocational education is provided to applicants who meet these requirements: He must be an honorably discharged veteran of World War II who has been active service since Dec. 7, 1941. He must have a disability incurred in the service. He must have a vocational handicap which is due to his service-connected disability. He must have a need for rehabilitation to overcome handicap.

Q. Three weeks after my husband went into the Army on June 4th I received an allowance check. He told me that I was supposed to get another one about July 1, but it didn't come. What should I do?

A. You are not due to receive another check until the first few days of August. Your first check was an initial payment which was a gift of the government. Enough time has not elapsed for the regular allowance, to which he contributes a portion of his pay, to begin.

Q. My son cancelled his insurance when he joined the Army. He has Army insurance, but I understand that it is straight-term insurance. Does the Army have any other kind?

A. Yes. After one year, National Service Life Insurance may be converted into ordinary life, 20-payment or 30-payment life insurance, which may be paid for in advance annually, semi-annually, quarterly or monthly.

Q. When my husband was drafted he left an $84.00 balance on a note to be paid. I would rather not have my uncle, who signed the note with him go good on it. Is there some way the Army could get the payment postponed until my husband has enough money to pay it?

A. Under the Soldiers and Sailors Civil Relief Act of 1942, payment of obligations incurred prior to entrance of a man into the service may be postponed at the discretion of the court. Your nearest law office will give you the name of a lawyer who will help you obtain the necessary court order at little or no cost.

Q. What is the maximum age for joining the WAC?

A. An applicant for the Women's Army Corps must not have attained her 50th birthday.

"Morte Pour La France," translated means, "Died For France." The French civilians made this grave for a Yank who died in action. He was one of the first to land on the Normandy beachhead during the initial landing stages of the invasion operations.

I have a son in Italy, who is buying a car each month. I bought a car of bonds last year. See where I can do better above average." The Fifth War Loan July 8.

FOR SELLING — Established ceiling prices passenger cars and certain transfer required on used sales may be obtained local War Price Boards or car dealers, Office of Price Administration. Prices vary by geographical zones. After seller and the buyer must jointly fill in certificate giving maximum price, selling price and other details. The purchase is completed with his local War Rationing Board.

BE WARM NEXT — To make scarce fuel go further winter by preparing home for winter now, rather than merely a lease. Federal Housing Administration says; an FHA title loan will enable you to borrow money to pay for both materials and labor needed to improve home, to repair your furnace, to install storm windows, up to as much as $2,000. You can borrow enough for all of these things with a small down payment, without security. FHA says. Get best prices you want done, your local dealer or FHA title loan to cover bill.

GOODS AGAIN — OPA has restored rationing cuts of lamb in order to distribute among consumers, and it has restored rationing to certain types of canned asparagus, tomatoes which were rationed for two weeks because of low stocks on hand.

NEW PRICES — Retail prices have been raised by OPA on watermelon, alfalfa hay, sweet peppers, cucumbers, none of which had been under national price control. Retail watermelon prices should decline substantially from last summer's figures. Alfalfa producers per ton ceiling prices range from $1.25 to $26.50. Ceilings on sweet peppers and hothouse cucumbers represent reductions at retail. OPA also has set maximum prices for the 1944 crop of red and black raspberries, dewberries and blackberries.

NATIONAL RESTAURANT REGULATION — For the first time, public eating and drinking places will be covered by a national restaurant regulation July 31, when they must post their April 4-10, 1943, base period ceiling prices for 40 basic menu items served, OPA announces. However, a cup of coffee with sugar and cream may sell for no more than a nickel at any establishment that did not charge more than a nickel for it October 4-10, 1942.

ROUND-UP — OPA announces that — retail ceiling prices recently established on certain farm tractor tires include—$52.85 for 9-24 10 ply rear; $35 for 7.50-10 8-ply front; and $9.55 for 4.00-12 4-ply front. The stock of 30,000 new cars yet remaining in the U. S. July 1 was the equivalent of a three-day's normal supply, and 7,000 have been allocated for July rationing. "T" gasoline coupon "2nd Qtr.," issued as special ration and which do not expire until after June 30, may be exchanged for third quarter "T" coupons.

WPB says — two-tone shoes with other than leather soles may be made beginning September 1. Shortage of workers, and no material or machines, is holding up production of farm radio batteries, but production is expected to be improved by fall. Full responsibility for rationing and distributing new trucks, truck tractors, trailers and other commercial vehicles to essential users has been transferred to the Office of Defense Transportation. The linen toweling and sheeting situation continue to grow tighter. Dry cleaners report urgent need of wire garment hangers because paperboard hangers have proved costly and impracticable.

WFA says—farmers and dairies may now purchase new milk cans for handling milk and milk products without purchase certificates. Government reserves of canned fish from the 1944 pack have been increased because of increased war requirements.

Before DDT, the new insecticide, may be recommended for general use for agricultural purposes many more tests must be completed as to its effects on insects, plants and higher animals. The Department of Agriculture says. Despite shoe-rationing, the American people have bought an average of 3.2 pairs of rationed and unrationed shoes annually, more than consumers in any other country, the Department of Commerce reports.

The Texas market for ceramic goods is estimated at $20,000,000 by a University of Texas ceramics expert after a market survey in about two dozen trade areas of the state, or double his pre-survey prediction. Almost all of this demand could be met by Texas-manufactured wares made from native Texas clays, he declares.

Weekly Health Letter

By Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer

AUSTIN, Texas. — Millions of flies help to cause the illness and death of thousands of children and adults each year in the United States. Hundreds of these casualties may be in the State of Texas this year. If residents fail in their responsibility for developing the best possible sanitation measures in the area where they reside, Typhoid fever, summer complaint, and other intestinal diseases can be traced to the common fly as the carrier of infection.

Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, speaking in this connection recently said: "Be sure that your windows and doors are tightly screened so that stray flies from a careless neighbor will not endanger your family."

Be sure that flies are kept away from food, drink, and utensils used in the preparation of food. Make sure, if you live in rural districts, that outside privy vaults are tightly covered so as not to permit the entrance of flies. Infections from this source can be picked up and spread to human beings through contact with food, drink, and utensils. Keep all garbage covered until collected or buried. Eliminate all breeding places for flies and you will be helping your community in its work of controlling communicable diseases and preventing unnecessary illness.

Dr. Cox said that the State Health Department would furnish upon request a pamphlet outlining safe and practical methods recommended for use in fly control.

Fault is one of the easiest things in the world to find, and yet too many people keep on looking for it.

Taking Special Course at Armored School

Fort Knox, Ky.—A new class of soldier students had reported at the Armored School today to take a special course in the Wheeled Vehicle Department.

New students include: Pfc. Arlis L. Raynes, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike L. Raynes of Weibert.

The Armored School, of which Brig. Gen. P. M. Robinett is commandant, trains the thousands of officers and enlisted technicians who perform the specialist tasks in the Army's mobile, powerful armored divisions and tank battalions. One of the largest technical schools in the world, it graduates several times more students each year than the average civilian university.

The Wheeled Vehicle Department trains the student mechanics in the intricacies of keeping peeps and jeeps, trucks and scout cars rolling in combat.

A total of 306 courses — from the Russian language to mathematics for the home economics student, from radio speech to aerodynamics, from problems in music education to short-term finance — will be offered during the four-months' summer-fall semester at the University of Texas, beginning July 6. An additional 366 courses of eight-weeks' duration will be given during the summer term which opens the same date.

Congressman Visits District

Congressman George Mahon is taking advantage of the recent recess of congress to visit among the people of the 19th District. Mahon is a candidate for re-election and this week he issued the following statement to the people of Haskell county: "Congress is in recess and I have returned home to visit among the people of our Congressional District. In our District there are 25 counties, dozens of towns and more than a quarter-million people. Naturally, I will not be able to see a large proportion of the people between now and the Primary, July 22. This is meant as a personal word to the people of Haskell county. You have been generous to me beyond measure in the confidence you have shown in me and the support you have always given me. I have aggressively championed the rights of our people, seeking in every possible way to serve our people and our nation well in matters great and small. "Our problems and difficulties have been many. I know that you are interested in many matters but that the war and the welfare of your sons in the service are your greatest concern.

"Our country's progress in the war has been amazing. I join you in the hope and prayer that victory will come sooner than we can now foresee. I have great faith in the stability and future of our country. Victory, peace for the longest possible span of years, and a better America for all our people are uppermost in my thinking in my service in Congress.

"I warmly thank you for the opportunities for service which you have given me and I pledge my best in the difficult and tragically important days ahead."

Could there be some relation between the urban varieties of juvenile delinquency and too much freedom from work?"
