However, the Indians are slated to win the game as Archer City's previous games have not been as successful as those of the Indians. Haskell's probable starting line up will be: Left end—Helweg. Left tackle—Bischoffhausen. Left guard—Greenway. Center—Speer. Right end—Stuart. Right tackle—J. Barnett. Right guard—Reeves. Q. Back—Foster. H. Back—Dodson. F. Back—Moffey. This is the best record of collections ever shown in the county, it is believed. "So What"

First of all kids, let's start off with a good cry for Janice (poor thing) Pace because she cut her leg on an ole barbed wire fence. Now then, don't we all feel better? You know the ole saying "Crying makes the heart grow lighter", or do you? Well, you know it now!

What's happened to Ruby Grace? Can it be that another one of our girls has gone ga-ga over one of Weiner's romantic gigolos? Poor boys going around with their hands stuffed in empty pockets wondering if the carnival (or the girl) was worth it all.

Now I know where the Senior Civics Club got its name "Walking Zombies" (the mid-nite show you know) and they certainly picked a name that applied to every one of them: Oh, excuse me I mean every one except Zombie O'Dell.

Good old Raymon—keeps his chin up even when the ex-Seniors come home and he has to play second fiddle.

The Sophs really took in the carnival in a big way after their party Wednesday night. Henry and Doris are getting to be regular gad-about, as well as Jane, Rice, Louise and Jake.

So-o-o-o, that's why all the kids liked to ride the Octopus—you have to hold so tight—to the bar, I mean!

Have you noticed the new swag-gers just added to some of the boys' walk? Reckon you've seen 'em—h—girls had anything to do with it?

The show, "Stage Door Can-teen" gave nearly all the cats of H. H. S. dancing fever. How's about it gang, wouldn't a dance now be super?

—S-W—
 Why??

Did all the Freshmen girls start wearing lipstick?—Growing up? Does V. A. hang out at Perry's every spare minute on Saturdays? Doesn't more of the townfolks attend the Pep Rallies on Thursday night, and the game on Friday night?

—S-W—
 Note to "Curly" Bird and "Deana" Batey:
 There is a shortage of paper,

 Cecil by his big words (he doesn't know the meaning of).
 Deen by her blonde hair and white saddles.
 Lonnie Roy by his limp.

—S-W—
 Uh-Oh
 He felt of the silky stocking around the ankle slim—dare he go farther? Slowly, slowly, his hand creep up to the knee, there he stopped for there was a knock at the door. He knew he must hurry, so up to the top of the stocking he went, as perspiration broke out on his forehead. Then another impatient knock. Quickly and quietly, Santa filled the stocking and stole up the chimney.

—S-W—
Overheard
 Doris: "Are you a hero-worshipper?"
 Royce: "Heck no, why sometimes I hate myself."

Mrs. Byrd: "Do you know what happened in 1066?"
 Joe Bob: "No, I can't even remember what happened last night"

Miss Riley: "Do you type?"
 Tommy Ray: "Yep, I use the Columbus system."
 Miss Riley: "How's that?"
 Tommy Ray: "Oh, its easy, I discover a key and then land on it."

—S-W—
 Well, that seems to be this week's crop, so you be good while I'm doing my bit of harvesting next week. Or we'll be seeing you in "So What" soon.

Our Praises Unto Thee We Sing

Haskell High School in 1943 has the best (and most) spirit and will to cooperate that it has had in many years and we're proud of it.

I have been in Haskell High School for almost four years, and no school or other organization has meant quite so much to me, yet it seems that in the past years, the students have been unenthusiastic and unwilling to do the many little things that go to keeping up the morale of the student body as a whole. Therefore, our school has been lacking in that degree.

But in 1943, the students of HHS turned over a new leaf. For the first time in three years, they have boosted HHS and the representatives of HHS (Pep Squad, Football Team, etc.) to the degree that the whole student body is proud of, and wants to talk about every thing that goes on in HHS.

The pep rallies are more successful now that more students turn out for them. Everybody is willing to do what is asked of him whether it's leading a yell or giving a pep talk.

The football team has more confidence in themselves and therefore more football games have been won. They know however, that whether they win or lose, the "gang" will be backing them and "betting on 'em" in the next game.

The "High School" has something to be proud of, some thing it hasn't really had, or perhaps I should say, more of what we need this year than it has the whole of my high school career.

We're all proud of you students and I know that you're experiencing a warm glow inside of you whenever you think of HHS. Let's all keep this up and not only make '43 a good year, but all the years to come. We mustn't let little things like petty arguments, disagreements and jealousies make us let our High School down!

Our praises unto thee we sing,
 Haskell High, dear Haskell High,
 Our talents unto thee we bring,
 Haskell High, dear Haskell High.

In friendship, love and loyalty,
 We pledge allegiance now to thee,
 And true to thee we'll ever be,
 Haskell High, dear Haskell High.

"Lets Make Cents"

"It isn't sense to waste our cents while our brothers, friends and relatives are dying so we can still be free to do as we like with our dollars and sense!" The Freshman class president, Huey Bledsoe told to the class Friday. He appointed Floyd Tankersley as chairman of our "Lets Make Cents" committee for November.

We have pledged ourselves to greater effort in our stamp buying.

Stamps will buy his sox and helmet,
 Bonds will buy his gun.
 We will save so Uncle Sam can spend
 Until this war is won.

The idea of "Lets Make Cents" was originated by Grace Desmond Gran. She has written a booklet now sent out by the Treasury Department of U. S. or "100 Ways to Make Cents." Her ideas along with ideas submitted from our school children and high school students will appear in a column called "Lets Make Cents" each week. Let's hear from you through the dope box.

Glimpses of the Teachers

Mr. R. L. Morton, our new agriculture teacher, was formerly a resident of Dumas, Texas. While there, he taught agriculture in the high school two years. Mr. Morton attended John Tarleton Agricultural College two years and afterwards went to Texas A&M where he finished in 1941 with a B. S. degree.

Mrs. T. R. Odell is teaching world history, English and government this year. She moved to Haskell from Throckmorton, Texas twelve years ago. She taught in the school system there two years. Altogether, Mrs. Odell has taught nine years. She received her B. S. degree from Hardin-Simmons in 1940, and in 1941 completed her M. S. degree at the North Texas State Teachers College in Denton. Mrs. Odell is now state chairman of Exceptional Child in the State Congress of Parents and Teachers. She is also a member of the A. A. U. W.

Pep Squad Presents Patriotic Stunt

Friday night during the half of the Anson-Haskell football game, the Pep Squad presented a patriotic stunt. The members marched on the field from the goal posts with half the squad forming a large U while the other half formed an S.

When the formation was completed the spectators in the grandstands stood and joined the Pep Squad in singing "The Star Spangled Banner."

The Future Farmers of America elected the following as candidates for FFA Sweetheart; Senior—Cora Faye Hayes; Junior—Deen Bartlett; Sophomore—Louise Spencer; and Freshman—Sue Sellers. Each of the Ag. classes is working hard to put their candidate in front, and it promises to be a close and exciting race.

The same method is being used for voting this year as was last year—each penny put in the candidate's boxes counts as one vote.

The FFA also made plans for buying some pigs and letting certain boys keep them to raise for the chapter. This breed of pigs is different from most of those raised in this section.

FRESHMAN
 Edward Corzine we know is one day going to be an editor. He puts out his own paper now, we hear.

We wonder who Kenneth Tooley took to the carnival Wednesday night? Did you have a good time, Nancy?

James Alvis sure is stuck up this week. We guess the reason is he got his name in the Abilene paper; in fact all the freshmen did.

Wonder why Giles Kemp sits at the table with Eddie Bess in English. Reason?? or did Mrs. Stockdale put him there?

It's funny Robert Duncan hasn't been out after 10:30 in a long time. Is it because of that little trip to the woodshed? Might do some others a little good we're thinking.

1. Keep away from "track men" usually too fast.
2. Never date a "football man", he will tackle anything.
3. A "tennis man" is harmless, but enjoys a racket.
4. Watch out for "baseball men", they hit and run.
5. Beware of the Journalist, his type is often pried.

Now why in the world does Gerald Bird get such a thrill out of fixing girls' hair? Maybe he is going to be a beautician.

W. J., if I were you I wouldn't sit so close to those girls in the study hall.

It seems that Louise Spencer really got a shock when she tried to bomb Tokyo at the Penny Arcade.

It seems that Cecil Gholson is getting chased quite a bit by a certain soph. Anybody know who? It looks like the sophomores enjoyed the T. J. Tidwell shows this week. Gee, don't you wish it would stay longer?

Any Bonds Today? Haskell Indians Lose To Anson Tigers

In the Indians fourth conference game of the season they lost to the Anson Tigers 7-14. Due to this loss the Indians are out of the race for District Championship, but they still have two more non-conference games and one conference game to play. The two non-conference games are with Archer City and Putnam, the conference is with Stamford.

In the game with Anson last Friday night the first touchdown was made by Haskell. Leon Dodson made the touchdown by a 33 yard run in the second quarter. Red Welch ran over for the extra point. Then Snyder from Anson made a 25 yard run for a touchdown in the second quarter. Bussey kicked for the extra point. Then Snyder made their second touchdown in the third quarter and again Bussey kicked for the extra point leaving the score 7-14 in favor of Anson.

The Haskell Indians play Archer City Friday night on the Indian field in a non-conference game, and despite their recent loss they will be in good fighting shape.

Fight Hitler With Bonds Class Meetings Make News! Freshmen Have Class Meeting

The freshman class had their regular meeting Friday Oct. 29, 1943. Several talks were given by: Roy Glenn Johnston, Nelle King, James Alvis. Reasons for contributing to the War Fund Chest was the topic throughout the meeting.

The class is very proud of their president: Huey Bledsoe. He gave a very good thought "Use your dollars so you may continue to use your sense." Maybe that would apply to the whole High School.

Goal for this week was $15.00 for stamps. The meeting was adjourned by the singing of "Any Bonds Today" and "Remember Pearl Harbor."

What's this we hear about Coach being in his second childhood? Did you know that he rode the elephant down at the carnival? I am not for sure, but did anyone by chance, see Coach Bird with Coach Robertson at the carnival? I thought I did? And where were they? Oh, just around. What has happened to interfere with the Adams and Sellers romance? Could it be another girl, and maybe a boy, has stepped in? Some of the girls are asking Louise S. what is so interesting in a mirror? Come on kid—let them in on it.

What! Do you mean that Joan Berry was with C. W. McKelvain again Saturday? Say, this is becoming a habit, isn't it?

Eddie Bess has finally decided that if she can't rate a senior "Bobby Dulaney", she'll be satisfied with that cute little fish—Kenneth Tooley. Not bad I'd say.

This football business certainly keeps these girls in an anxious spell. What's this we hear about collecting—this couldn't include the girls could it Tommy? If we win or if we don't.

Wilma John Coffield was very silent at the carnival on Thursday night—surely Ervin F. didn't affect her that much.

It seems that most of the girls think Maggie Frerson has a very cute cousin. Name, Address and Phone Number—Please.

From all appearances Nell King isn't doing so bad. Is his name Jack Gaunt? And is he from Rochester?

Will someone please tell us what a letter from Charles S was doing coming to one of our high school girls?

It seems as though Jason, Bobby Jo and quite a few other delight in chasing cars. Especially Snor's. How about it fellows?

Red Welch seems to go into a coma when he walks into certain classes. What's the matter? Is something wrong?

We wonder what was so funny to Cora Faye, Marigene, Doris and Ylene at the carnival the other night. Could it be that they were facing an embarrassing moment just then?

Some of the girls are quoting some of the lines to "Somebody's Taking My Place". But instead it's Mattson. It seems that there is a reason.

In the 33rd chapter we find Hezekiah was sick unto death and Isaiah, the prophet said unto him "Thus saith the Lord, Get thee house in order for thou shalt die. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall and prayed unto the Lord and He wept sore. Then came the word of the Lord to Isaiah saying: "Go and say to him I have heard his prayer and seen his tears. Behold I will add unto thy days fifteen years and I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria and I will defend this city. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of our God shall stand forever."

We then sang: "Jesus Is a Friend of Mine" and Mrs. Yantis gave the closing prayer dismissing ten ladies. Those present were: Mmes. Reynolds, Yantis, Crawford, Sides, Merchant, Simmons, Norman, Paxton, Taylor, and Miss Crawford.

Yankees in Germany Fare Better Than Civilians

A visiting delegate of the War Prisoners Aid of the YMCA made these photographs of captured American soldiers at a German prison camp southeast of Berlin. The prison camp fare plus weekly 1 1/2 pound food packages from the American Red Cross give the interned Yankees a better diet than that of German civilians. Soldiers' Allowance Payments

Soldiers' dependents must fill out and return a new, one-sheet dependency certificate to benefit by new rates provided by recent servicemen's allowance legislation, the War Department announced.

All dependents now receiving family allowances are being sent copies of the new form. These should be filled out, witnessed, and returned to the Office of Dependency Benefits as soon as practicable to avoid possible discontinuance of allowances. Until new accounts can be set up, dependents now receiving family allowances will continue to receive their checks in the old amounts. After an account is converted, any sums accrued as a result of an increase allowance will be included in the first check. The conversion from old to new accounts will take several months.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11—More butter and eggs were in sight for civilians today as the Government halted its purchases to end the present scarcity in these major food items.

Military and other government purchasing agencies have agreed to suspend their purchases of butter until next March in order to give the folks at home a larger share. In many places away from centers of production it is impossible to get butter at all now, even when a housewife has the 16 ration points a pound required.

Several million cases of storage eggs will also be released to civilians as a result of action taken last week by the War Food Administration and the Food Distribution Administration. At the same time, the Government announced it would permit cancellation of up to 50 per cent of deliveries of dried whole eggs contracted for November, December and January.

Food Export Up 3 per Cent
The Lend-Lease report showed the exports of food to the United Nations during the first eight months of 1943 amounted to roughly 9 per cent of the nation's total food supply, in dollar value, compared with about 6 per cent last year.

Some of the largest shipments in 1943 have been: Cheese, 11 per cent of the supply; lamb and mutton, 12 per cent; pork, 15; dried fruits, 21 and dried beans and peas 11 per cent.

The British Empire continues to receive the largest share of the food deliveries—69 per cent; North Africa, 7 per cent; and Greece, West Africa, the Netherlands and Turkey combined, 1 per cent. Destinations for United States foodstuffs vary from month to month, it was explained, depending on shipping conditions and other factors.

On another consumer front, Harold L. Ickes, Petroleum Administrator for War, issued a statement describing the amazing job the Government and industry have done in building pipe lines to bring oil to the Atlantic Seaboard.

Two years ago—in July, 1941—the pipe line flow of oil to the East Coast averaged only 66,000 barrels a day; today it has reached 360,000 barrels a day.

North Africa Helps Feed Troops
North Africa new is delivering fruits, vegetables, and meats to Allied Forces, supplying the new French army and feeding essential civilian workers, it was revealed recently. Flour, fruits, and vegetables from North Africa are being used in the Italian campaign, and French authorities are accumulating food supplies for use during and after the liberation of North Africa. Allied authorities supplied carefully budgeted seeds, fertilizers, sprays, binder twine, spare parts for farm machinery, and tractor fuel—supplies which have saved many times their weight in shipping space by enabling North Africans to get quickly back into agricultural production.

More Than Last Summer

Storage eggs are expected to be put on sale in cities throughout the country at a price below fresh eggs and may force the price of fresh eggs down.

As a result of suspension of government butter purchases, civilians will get more butter this winter than at the peak of production last summer. War Food Administration officials estimate that creamery butter production will run between one hundred and ten million and one hundred and thirty million pounds a month during the next five months. All of this will go to consumers, who have been getting only about 100,000,000 pounds a month.

The butter shortage has become so acute that even Congressmen have been interesting themselves in the reasons behind its disappearance from the market and the recent jump in point value ordered by OPA.

Whether the WFA's mercy toward butter-eating civilians was motivated primarily by these protests or by the fact that sufficient stores are now on hand to meet essential military, Lend-Lease and other non-civilian requirements until spring was not stated.

A Lend-Lease food report made public today failed to show cause for the butter shortage, for during the first eight months of 1943 exports of butter amounted only to about 1 per cent of America's total food supply. Butter exports to Russia and other nations are known to have in-

Aviation Gas Output Quadrupled

Production of 100 octane gasoline for war operations is now four times greater than in the early months of 1942 and within a few months will be eight times greater, according to the Petroleum Administration for War. To get the 100-octane gasoline required for military operations it is necessary to produce less of the products needed by civilians such as ordinary gasoline and fuel oil.

Predict Ample Coffee for Duration

"Coffee supplies in the U. S. should remain ample for the duration," according to George C. Thierbach, President of the National Coffee Association. Imports into the U. S. this year were in excess of any previous year except 1941. Recently Chester Bowles, General Manager of OPA, said: "There is not the slightest idea of rationing coffee again." Coffee stamps in Ration Book Four were designed and sent to the printer months ago when coffee was still being rationed.

Consumers Get More Egg Products

Consumers will be able to get more egg products since restrictions on liquid, frozen, and dried whole eggs have been removed by WAF. Increase will be reflected primarily in the production of noodles, macaroni, prepared flours, and prepared ice-cream powders and mixes.

GEMS OF THOUGHT

Let us recognize the beauty and power of true enthusiasm; and whatever we may do to enlighten ourselves or others, guard against checking or chilling a single earnest sentiment.—Tuckerman.

A Vast Area to Defend

Some idea of the vast distances involved in the war against Japan is apparent when one notes that American Liberator bombers, flying from India, have opened their aerial offensive against Car Nicobar.

The bombers flew one thousand miles to reach the island which is seven hundred miles south of Burma and about three hundred fifty miles northwest of Sumatra. It is nearly four thousand miles from Car Nicobar to Marcus, which was recently attacked in the North Pacific.

Already, it is plain that the pressure against Japanese positions is being increased. As the forces of the United Nations become stronger, the pressure will grow and, eventually, the Japanese defense will be too thin and the inevitable breakthrough will occur.

Col. Eisenhower Promoted

It will surprise some Americans to hear that General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Commander-in-Chief of Allied Forces in North Africa, has been nominated for promotion from the permanent rank of Colonel to Major-General in recognition of his leadership of the North African and Sicilian campaigns.

While General Eisenhower holds the temporary rank of full general, his permanent rank in the Army is Colonel. His nomination as a permanent

Major-General must be confirmed by the Senate but that body will hasten to vote the honor to this brilliant military leader.

More Deadly Than War

The casualty lists that came from the war front impress upon us the fact that men are being killed and wounded in the fight for our continued existence as a free people.

While we are appalled at the sacrifice of young men engaged in war, few of us realize that more Americans are killed and wounded in accidents than in war operations.

In 1942, 93,000 persons were killed and 9,300,000 persons were injured from accidents in the United States. In 1941, 101,500 persons were killed by accidents.

In fact, motor vehicles alone have caused the death of more Americans since Pearl Harbor than the war. In 1942, they were responsible for 27,800 deaths, but this figure was thirty per cent. reduction from the 40,000 casualties for 1941.

The nation is spending billions of dollars to supply fighting men with ample equipment in order to avoid unnecessary casualties and people throughout the United States are sobored by the thought of young men slain in battle. While no one would suggest that money is not wisely spent to protect our soldiers and sailors, it appears that some money and some effort might be directed to the elimination of accidental deaths.

The average American hardly realizes that in the four years immediately preceding the war, 385,813 Americans were accidentally killed. Of this total, motor vehicle accidents accounted for the death of 139,496. The war toll, grievous as it is, is not the greatest hazard to long life.

Turn Loose the Wildcats

The people of the United States are being constantly told by Washington officials that they must get along with less and less gasoline, fuel oil, etc. Four months ago experts in the oil industry have shown official Washington that our known oil reserves are being used much more rapidly than new reserves are being discovered, because official Washington, in the face of rising costs of production, refuses to grant crude oil price increases sufficient to encourage wildcatting for new oil supplies to replace dwindling reserves.

Commenting on the seriousness of the situation, the National Petroleum News says: "The need for oil is so critical that there should be a crusading campaign to discover and produce fresh supplies. The Administration is calling upon the people to crusade for rubber, to save their fats, to bring in scrap iron, to provide blood for transfusions. All these are futile if there isn't enough oil to carry on the war. A supply barely sufficient for military needs is of no value if essential civilian needs are not taken care of, and there is a serious question whether we are not already cutting too far into essential civilian needs. It isn't a question of how much it costs to produce oil, it is a question of how to get a maximum number of wildcaters to risk the greatest amount of money in even the most fool places in the country to find oil."

And that is horse sense for the regulators to consider. What good are regulators and price-fixers if the policies leave us with nothing to regulate or nothing to buy?

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE SACREDNESS OF HUMAN LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 20:13, Matt. 5:21-26, 28-31. GOLDEN TEXT—Whoever hateth his brother is a murderer.—1 John 3:11.

Human life is sacred—and there is a very important reason why that is true. It is not because of any law of man, but finds its foundation in the fact that God created man in His own likeness and image. Because that is true, no man has any right to take the life of another for any cause except at the direct command of God. Only by the orderly process of law for the protection of society and in accordance with the Word of God may there be any such action by man toward man.

Both of these truths are declared in Scripture in God's covenant with Noah (Gen. 9:5, 6), which was made possibly a thousand years before the Ten Commandments were given to Moses.

One cannot deny that human life is held rather cheaply in many places today. War helps to create that attitude on the part of nations which makes them count boys and girls, yes, mere babies, as "war material."

But not only in war is life carelessly destroyed. We decry the "slaughter of innocents" on the highway, unnecessary death in industry, yes, even in the home.

I. The Prohibition of Murder (Exod. 20:13). The word "kill" in this commandment is one which means a violent and unauthorized taking of life, and is therefore more properly translated "murder."

Not all killing is murder. A man may kill another entirely accidentally, or he may be the duly constituted legal officer carrying out the law of the land in taking the life of one who has forfeited his right to live because he has slain another.

There is also the right of self-defense, be it individual or collective as in war. But these are the only exceptions; let us not attempt to justify any other.

Murder is more prevalent than most of us suppose. Some years ago we were told that there was a murder every forty minutes in our land. With the general increase of crime, and of drunkenness (which so often incites murder), the current figures would probably show an increase.

Do not forget the deaths, the destruction of life, by avoidable automobile accidents. Some of these were really murder because the one responsible drove with defective brakes, dangerous tires, or while he was intoxicated. Add to these the deaths in industry caused by failure to provide proper safeguards or healthy working conditions, and by the exploitation of child labor, and we say that we should cry aloud, "Thou shalt do no murder."

II. The Provocation to Murder (Matt. 5:21, 22). Murder finds its provoking cause in the heart of man. Our Lord was concerned about correcting the desires rather than to apprehend the offender after the act had been committed. It is the better way, and the more effective one.

In this matter of murder, Jesus cut right through the outward aspects of the matter and pointed out that an angry hatred in the heart is the root of all murder. If we hate, we have murder in our hearts. Circumstances may hinder its fulfillment, but the danger is always there until we remove the cause.

Just being angry—calling our brother "rascals" (the modern equivalent of which is "wobody these"), and calling him "thou fool," which classifies him as "morally worthless"—these are the three dreadful downward steps to murder. And they begin in anger.

May God help those of us who have strong feelings that we may not yield them to the devil in such anger against our brother!

III. The Prevention of Murder (Matt. 5:23-26, 28-31). Prevention with God means more than putting up a barrier to keep us from killing. He deals with the heart, and thus puts the whole life right. It is not even a question of how we may feel against our brother. If he has sinned against us we are to do all we can to win him. He may be unreasonable, grasping, and unfair. However, the spirit that will win him is not that of retaliation or sullen submission to the inevitable, but rather a free and willing going even beyond what is required.

It is clear from other scriptures that our Lord does not mean that wicked and unscrupulous men are to be permitted to defraud and destroy God's people. At the same time, we must be careful not to explain away the heart of our Lord's interpretation of this great commandment.

We who believe in Christ are to be in deed as well as word the sons of our heavenly Father (v. 45), loving not only those who are kind to us, but even our enemies.

War's Demand for Physicians Places Heavier Burden on Those Remaining

During the first nine and one-half months of this year our local Hospital has cared for 536 patients. 113 have been surgical cases, 163 medical cases and 260 have been maternity patients. Last year for the same period we had only 112 maternity patients.

Much has been said about our doctors who have gone to the army, the sacrifices they have made in leaving their homes and their established practice, but too little has been said about the doctor who has stayed at home. It may not be the choice that they are at home, but from necessity, their work has been doubled and tripled. They are carrying the civilian load for the doctors who were away, and if the truth were known, they are working harder, and their hours are longer than the doctor who is in service, especially those who are still in the states. They have no time for recreation or relaxation for at all hours, day and night they are on call and ready to go when and wherever they are needed.

One of the most perplexing problems your doctors have to face today isn't even mentioned in the medical books. It is the lack of time.

Already many thousands of physicians have left their private practice to serve with their armed forces. By the end of the year thousands more will be in uniform.

All this means that the demands on doctors at home will be heavier than they have ever been before. And since your family physician may have to do the work formerly done by two, or even three physicians, he will need all the help and cooperation you can give him during this emergency.

What can you do to help save his time? A number of things. For example, let us suppose that you don't feel well, but aren't so ill that you have to go to bed. In that case, telephone your doctor and describe your symptoms. He will tell you whether it is better for you to wait at home until he comes, or go to his office.

If you are not able to be up and around, and you have to call the doctor to your home, try to telephone him at a reasonable hour—say before he starts out in the morning. If you and all his other patients do this, he can plan his day's visits more efficiently. You'll not only help him save time, gas, and tires, but because you called him early, he may perhaps get to see you sooner than he could otherwise.

Unless it is absolutely necessary do not call your doctor at all hours of the night. He has worked hard all day and must be up a great deal at night and when his rest is interrupted all hours his efficiency and energy is impaired from loss of sleep.

If you should become seriously ill and your doctor should advise you to go to the hospital, do so by all means. There he can arrange for you to receive the extra care that means so much toward getting you back on the job sooner.

The best way health on the home front can be maintained during the war is for you and your doctor to work together as a team.

Weekly Health Letter By Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer. AUSTIN, Texas.—With the approach of cold weather, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, has issued some timely advice concerning room temperature and its relation to health. "It is very important that inside temperature be maintained at around 68 to 70 degrees," Dr. Cox said. "Thousands of homes are continually overheated in the winter, and a degree of heat is often demanded that would not be tolerated in the summertime." In a room that is overheated, the body pores are open, and the moment that the outside temperature is encountered, much harm may result. Colds, influenza, bronchial troubles and even pneumonia may take advantage of this bodily abuse, and take a serious toll in sickness and even death. "An inside temperature of from 68 to 70 degrees is not only more healthful, but actually more comfortable," Dr. Cox said. "When, added to these factors, the resulting economy is considered, it might be well to check up and see what your thermometer reads. A thermometer kept within the range suggested, plus the careful maintenance of proper humidity, will help to prevent needless sickness and protect the good health of your family."

American Education Week To Be Observed Nov. 7-13

American Education Week is sponsored jointly by the National Education Association, the American Legion, the United States Office of Education, and the National Congress of Parents and Teachers.

It is only too obvious that the youth of our land is our greatest asset when we see them by the thousands leaving to make supreme sacrifice to protect our country, homes and institutions. It is hoped that a special effort at support, thought and cooperation be given by each individual to help in every way he can to improve education in our great country.

Preparation of our boys and girls in our schools lays the foundation of democracy—respect for the rights of others. They learn the 3R's; history of our country and of other countries which will prepare them to extend the good neighbor policy; science, mathematics and physics which will provide basic training essential for work with their hands as well as their heads. They learn what we are fighting for—now and the peace to come.

Each individual is urged to celebrate American Education Week, November 7 to 13, 1943 by doing some serious thinking of how he can better cooperate in this great undertaking and continue to support the school effort.

Mrs. John Hamilton returned this week from Denver, Colorado where she visited her sister, Mrs. Louise Simpson, who had been ill, but is improving at this time.
