HASKELL COUNTY HISTORY

Brief Home Taken from Old Copies of The Free Press

20 Years Ago—Jan. 28, 1932

A six room frame house located in the north part of town was destroyed by fire of undetermined origin Sunday morning about 4 o'clock. The house, unoccupied, was the property of J. A. Barnes of Junction, Texas. It had been occupied until recently by Shelly Martin and family, who moved last week to Strawn, Texas.

Mesdames Courtney Hunt, Virgil Reynolds, Lola Welsh Bledsoe and Misses Marjorie Whiteker, Hazel and Letta Robertson attended a club meeting at Abilene last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. N. I. McCollum and daughters, Misses Nettie and Marguerite, spent Sunday in Cisco with relatives.

A man who escaped from the county jail here on the night of Jan. 16, was apprehended this week by Abilene officers. The escaped man had been convicted in district court here and was awaiting transfer to the state penitentiary when he broke jail.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Smith attended the annual Hardware Dealers Convention in San Antonio last week. They visited in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ragsdale while there.

The Board of Trustees of Haskell Independent School District, have announced that payment of delinquent taxes will be accepted without interest or penalty. Also, all school script of series 1930-31 is payable up to and including No. 397, and series 19-31-32 is payable up to and including No. 193.

The C. P. Woodson Battery & Radio Shop, formerly located on the southeast corner of the square, has been moved to the building just across the street from the Western Produce Co. In addition to battery, radio and phonograph repair work they now have plenty of room for automobile storage in their new location.

40 Years Ago—Jan. 27, 1912

Messrs. Patterson and Curry of Stamford were here Thursday. Mr. Curry is a deep well driller and Mr. Patterson is with the Bunkley Oil Well Company.

P. P. Doss of Denver, Colo., is in the city and arranging to erect a two story brick building on the east side of the square, on the lot owned by himself and R. Callahan.

W. H. Parsons and Miss Rachel Piland were married in this city Wednesday.

Fred L. Cogan, who is one of the contractors of the Bunkley oil well, arrived in the city Friday. Mr. Cogan said all the drilling machinery had been shipped and that he expected to get started drilling in side of two weeks.

Stockholders of the Haskell Co-Operative Gin Company from all over the county convened here Friday and elected officers for the ensuing year. Due to the lateness of the meeting, we were unable to give space for a more complete report.

C. D. Grissom has sold his interests in the business of C. D. Grissom & Son to his son, Hardy Grissom, who will conduct the business in the future. The elder Grissom plans to retire from active business.

The family of Will Marr arrived Tuesday from Aspermont to make their home here. Mr. Marr has purchased the Corner Drug Store and intends to become a permanent fixture here.

Ed Smith of Hawley was here Thursday. He formerly lived here for several years.

R. B. Fields and son George B. Fields, made a business trip to Throckmorton the early part of the week.

P. V. Tanner of Weinert was here Saturday and wanted to buy a load of maize, but failed to find any for sale.

W. K. Whitman of Roswell, N. M., arrived Monday night in answer to a call to the bedside of his father, W. P. Whitman, who is ill with pneumonia.

50 Years Ago—Jan. 25, 1902

Dr. J. E. Lindsey came up from Abilene Monday and has spent the week looking after some business interests. He was accompanied by his daughter, Miss Minnie, who has been visiting with Haskell friends and relatives.

What's the matter with putting a stop to the night carousels, pistol shooting and whiskey drinking of a lot of youngsters in this place who are fast earning a reputation as toughs? Personally we know nothing of the doings of this crowd, but speak only from common report heard around town.

Miss Darnell of St. Jo is here visiting the family of her uncle, C. D. Grissom.

Miss Edith Sowell left Wednesday to visit with relatives near Flat Top for a week or so.

Dr. Griffin, who has been located at Marcy for several months, moved to town this week.

Mr. McElroy of Jones County was here this week and rented a residence, to which he and his family will move within the next few days.

The three prisoners in the county jail had a little fun Wednesday night and gave the officers an uneasy turn. It seems that one of them managed to slip one of the duplicate cell keys in the morning while Jailer Lemmon was giving them breakfast, the jailer locking the doors and leaving without missing the key. That night the man who had slipped the key released the others from the cell and they wrenched off a window sill and with an iron dipper handle and stove poker worked the plaster and brick loose and made a hole large enough to go through. One of the men went to his home here in town, and the next morning came down and surrendered. One of the others sent word to Sheriff Collins that he and the boys were out, and he did not go away. The third man went to his father's about 18 miles west of town, where Sheriff Collins and deputy took him back into custody. This man told officers he had intended to get his horse and come into town as soon as he had breakfast. At any rate they are all back in jail and not likely to get another chance at liberty.

White, Dickey Win Pre-Tourney Fights At Abilene

Jimmy White, Haskell welterweight, defeated middleweight Lacy Boles of Abilene Friday night, in the main event of a high school boxing round-up at Fair Park Arena in Abilene.

The Haskell youth spotted his adversary 12 pounds in winning the unanimous decision of the judges.

Another Haskell youth, Donald Dickey, 135, defeated Jerry Wright, 130, of Abilene, in their match.

The fights were qualifying matches in preparation for the 15th annual Abilene Regional Golden Gloves tournament.

The White-Boles slugfest, was easily the outstanding event on Friday night's boxing card, with the two youths battling strenuously for three rounds. White, working in close and furiously under Boles' longer reach, easily out pointed his heavier opponent.

State Health Officer Outlines Steps In City-Wide Clean-Up Drive

State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox today spelled out in one-two-three order the requirements for a city-wide sanitation drive that will "show results in fewer flies, fewer rats, and less disease."

His plan is brief: Apply the idea of a good spring cleaning outside as well as inside the house.

The long-time exponent of clean environment said the State Department of Health would, on request, send a team of sanitation experts to survey any Texas town for health hazards.

"An untrained person might fail to see the significance of horse lots, surface toilets, or stagnant water holes where flies and mosquitoes can breed. Our people, by training and experience, know how to locate and correct hazards to community health," the health officer said.

The survey would include a check on the manner of garbage storage, collection, and disposal, and a look into foodhandling establishments to see if their foods are coming from safe sources.

The team, according to the doctor's plan, would make a survey of the local water supply. Contaminated? If so, what's the reason and how can it be corrected most efficiently?

They would investigate the sewerage system. Do lines extend into all areas of the city? Are all residences connected? Is the plan itself adequate, to accommodate the city? How is the sewage processed?

Residential and business districts would be inspected for sanitary violations, and each property owner would be strictly accountable for cleaning up his premises, with the city hauling away accumulations of trash.

"If we all begin work right now, using tried and proved methods, we can cut down the incidence of diseases caused by insanitary environments, contaminated water, and improperly handled foods. We can stage a fight against flies and stop them from spreading disease.

"We're here to help," the doctor said.

ESSENTIAL MUTUAL PRINCIPLES

2. Providing Security for the Community

The first demand for insurance in this country was born of a community need for security—the need of every farmer and business man in a particular locality to protect himself against financial loss without having to lay up a great store of wealth.

To satisfy this need, the men who founded the nation also founded insurance companies—mutual insurance companies.

Today, management of, by and for the policyholder is still an essential principle of all mutuals. Inquire today about how your insurance program may be handled by the strong, nation-wide fire and casualty mutual insurance companies which we represent.

Active Program of Home Demonstration Work Carried Out In County During the Past Year

As Haskell county has a bright outlook for the future of home demonstration work, they have a strong past to base this outlook upon. Since 1951 was a typical year it is wise to look back over its accomplishments.

Miss Thelma D. Wirges served as county home demonstration agent during the entire year starting December 1950 and ending December 1951.

The home demonstration agent does work with women and girls. This past year 166 days were devoted to adult work and 112 days were devoted to girls. The agent has worked done in the office as well as that done in the field. She spent 117 days in the office and 161 days in the field in 1951. Part of the field work included 137 farm homes visited, where help was given on new or better methods of homemaking. 139 method demonstrations were given, in various communities, to home demonstration and 4-H clubs, with a total attendance of 2,620.

The leadership training program composed part of the office work. 67 leadership training meetings were given, which were attended by 686 club leaders. These leaders returned to their clubs and gave the information to their club members.

The Haskell county home demonstration council became an even more active group during 1951. There was an increase from 89% attendance in 1950 to 90% average attendance in 1951. These represented 12 of the 13 home demonstration clubs in the county. The following is a brief summary of the committee work done in the council:

The yearbook committee worked up material for the 1952 yearbook, obtained bids for printing and sent the book to the printer.

The finance committee worked with Miss Bonnie Cox, Organization Specialist, Extension Service, to plan the budget and ways for making the budget for 1951.

The education and expansion committees had new report forms printed, which did provide them with more information for their quarterly reports to the council.

The exhibit committee received and reported subjects for fair booths. Since there was no fair they used these as an achievement day program.

The marketing committee ordered dish cloths, plastic goods and rose bushes cooperatively.

The recreation committee had charge of the recreation at the annual Knox-Haskell encampment. The committee also presented recreational activities at council meetings and at the Christmas Party. The committee compiled a game book and gave a copy to each club, to encourage more recreation at meetings.

The 4-H committee assisted at the 4-H club Dress Revue. They presented dress revue pins to the girls with the highest scores. The Gold Star award to the Gold Star Girl, and the award to the Public Speaking winner, during National 4-H Achievement Week.

The home demonstration clubs and 4-H clubs had programs on two main subjects. The demonstrations given to both groups, in 1951, were on Bread and other Cereals, and Clothing. This was the last year of the Bread and other Cereal demonstration, for the women, but there was a great interest since this was the desert phase.

Demonstrations on the bread and other cereal demonstration, given by the agent to home demonstration clubs were:

Butter Cakes to 13 clubs with 184 attending.

Pas'ry to 11 clubs with 157 attending.

Angel Food Cake to 12 clubs with 152 attending.

"Boiled Icing" was given as a leadership training meeting to 8 leaders who gave it to 13 clubs with 129 attending. Other leadership training meetings were:

"It's Fun to be Hospitable," given to 11 leaders who gave it to 10 clubs with 99 attending;

"Homemade Cookies vs. Bought Cookies" to 11 leaders who gave it to 10 clubs with 98 attending, and "Chiffon Cake" given to 8 leaders who gave it to 9 clubs with 83 attending.

Miss Wirges gave the following demonstrations to 4-H clubs: Buying Cereals to 7 clubs with 231 girls attending.

Quick Loaf Bread to 8 clubs with 196 girls attending.

Waffles to 7 clubs with 168 girls attending.

Nine adult 4-H leaders received training and gave the following to 4-H clubs: Yeast Rolls to 8 clubs with 199 attending; Coffee Cake to 8 clubs with 188 attending, and Steam Bread.

A bake show was given as an achievement event of the foods work. These 41 entries brought the end of this program with the women, but it will be continued with the girls.

Another main phase of work was clothing and textiles. This was the second year of clothing work for both women and girls.

Home Demonstration clubs had clothing demonstrations, given by the agent on Keeping up to Date, given to 12 clubs with 171 attending; Finish, given to 12 clubs with 178 attending; Care, given to 10 clubs with 128 attending; Designs for Children's Clothing, to 10 clubs with 208 attending.

Leadership training meetings were given for Care of Clothing to 16 leaders who gave it to 13 clubs with 130 attending; Cut and Mark (Stripe and Plaid) to 16 leaders who gave it to 13 clubs with 134 attending; Care of Skin and Hair to 10 leaders who gave it to 13 clubs with 130 attending.

4-H girls trained by adult leaders gave demonstrations on Finish (Hems) to all 13 home demonstration clubs.

An achievement event was held in the form of a county dress revue. Sixty-eight entries were judged and scored. The garments were exceptionally high in score and there was evidence that many of the techniques learned were applied.

The agent gave demonstrations on Join Skirt and Blouse to 5 4-H clubs with 120 attending; Care of Skin and Hair to 7 4-H clubs with 215 attending; Colors For You to 7 4-H clubs with 171 attending.

Adult 4-H leaders who received training at leadership meetings given by the agent gave demonstrations on Know Your Pattern Markings to 7 4-H clubs with 189 attending; Dresser Drawer Storage to 7 clubs with 237 attending; Checking Garments for the Dress Revue to 7 clubs with 54 attending.

The achievement event for year was in the form of a dress revue. Fifty-nine 4-H girls entered garments, which were judged and scored. Pins were awarded the top nine. The overall winner entered the State 4-H Dress Revue.

Plans are being made to carry the third year of clothing and the first Kitchens and Work Simplification for the women. The girls will continue with the third year of clothing and bread and other cereals.

In the Grinding Tests that Won it the Motor Trend Magazine Award, Chrysler proved itself the Best Engineered Car in America

CHRYSLER SURPASSED ALL OTHERS WHEN MOTOR TREND TESTED FOR:

- ★ Average Braking Distance in Feet
- ★ Ton Miles per Gallon
- ★ Average Acceleration in Seconds
- ★ Acceleration Over Standing 1/4 Mile in Seconds
- ★ Average Top Speed in M.P.H.
- ★ Maximum Road Horsepower
- ★ Pounds per Road Horsepower
- ★ Maximum Torque in Lbs.-Ft.
- ★ Maximum Brake Mean Effective Pressure
- ★ First in Total Points

15 different American stock automobiles—equipped as you buy them—were driven by Motor Trend Magazine as hard as steel and rubber can be driven. In these actual road tests of efficiency and performance, measured by the most accurate instruments obtainable, Chrysler proved itself superior to all others. In 13 tests Chrysler was first in 7—tied in 2, making a total of 9 out of 13 . . . and first in total points!

Only by taking an engine to the limit of its potential, only by turning the corners at high speeds, applying brakes for emergency stops, torturing body, springs and shock absorbers, can you learn just what performance you can expect from the make of car you drive. The results of the Motor Trend tests were conclusive . . . as Chrysler, again, proved itself the one best car in America.

The Motor Trend Award, like numerous other honors today's Chrysler has won, is both a proof of and a tribute to Chrysler's magnificent Fire-Power engine and master engineering. Each demonstrates why, among men and women who know automobiles . . . Chrysler is always the first choice.

Specialist Advises Scalding Vegetables Before Freezing

Should vegetables be sealed before freezing? This question is the one most often asked of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. Farm housewives especially are interested in simplifying the work involved in home preservation of food. When there is a heavy yield of green beans in the garden, it is all right to package and freeze without taking the time to preheat, cool and drain?

Jimmie Nell Harris, foods and nutrition specialist, answers by saying that scientists have concluded from many experiments that scalding is a necessary step in preparing most vegetables for freezing, regardless of how long they are to be stored. Scalding stops certain undesirable changes such as loss of quality and vitamin content. Heating gives a brighter color, shrinks the food, further cleans the product and stops the action of enzymes.

Scientists of the Minnesota Experiment Station made tests of three vegetables, asparagus, green beans and corn, which often mature at the same time. One lot of each vegetable was prepared by the recommended scalding while another lot was frozen without preheating. Ears of corn were shucked, packaged and frozen, while others were frozen in the shuck.

All vegetables frozen without preheating developed off flavors within a month, but those scalded before freezing showed little or no change. Unscalded and frozen green beans and asparagus lost their attractive color as well as flavor.

During freezing the unscalded green beans showed little change but deteriorated in storage and were unpalatable in three weeks. In four weeks these beans were inedible. Corn in the shuck had an off flavor by the time it was frozen. Corn shucked and packaged but not preheated changed flavor in one week.

The specialist urges homemakers to contact their local county home demonstration agent for information regarding the home freezing of vegetables.

First Baptist WMS Meets Monday For Book Review

The WMS of the First Baptist Church met in the annex at 10 a. m. Monday, January 21, for a book review of Living Abundantly.

The meeting was opened with the president in charge with the group singing "Amazing Grace" with Mrs. J. E. Thompson as piano accompanist. Prayer was given by Mrs. Josselet.

Mrs. James L. Winter, Sr., taught the first four chapters in the morning session. Emphasis was put on three things, "Why We Belong to God"—by Creation, by Redemption, and by Provisional Care. This makes us a steward of God, the teacher pointed out.

At noon a covered dish luncheon was served. At 1 o'clock the assembly was opened by singing "This is My Story," with Mrs. Pierson at the piano. Mrs. Alvis led in prayer.

Mrs. Winter, in an humble, influencing manner continued the afternoon lesson, stressing the thought "We are saved as individuals, everyone has a place to fill. Your good influence flies through the church quickly. If had it creates sin all about you." All have talents. Paul said to Timothy, "Neglect not the gift that is in you." If not in use, it may be taken from you and given to another.

Attorney General Price Daniel In Senate Race
Price Daniel, Texas attorney general since 1947, announced his candidacy for the United States Senate at Dallas Monday night with a promise to do his part in a Washington housecleaning.
Opening his race for the seat now held and being sought again by Senator Tom Connally of Marlin, Daniel made official a bid that had been almost a certainty since Governor Shivers denied any plans to enter the race against Texas' senior senator.

Dashing Around

Today the Reverend M. D. Rexrode is our guest columnist. We believe that he has a timely message for you for he is truly one of those who care for the young people of Haskell. This space is open at any time for any minister of the local churches.

Finding Life's Goal Post
There came to my study one evening this week a group of young people from our church and school. They were greatly concerned about finding a way to deepen the spiritual interest and concern of the teen-agers and young people in the things of greater and higher values of life. Apparently this group had been doing much thinking in the past few days, about such a need in our community. The cause for this serious thinking along this line was caused by the tragic accident, which took one of their beloved friends from their number, and left still others injured. They expressed a sense of feeling somehow that the voice of providence was speaking and it was time for all to stop and listen.
After thoughtful talk and discussion on the part of all, there came a spontaneous out break of this one and the other one saying, "I've not done all I feel like I could have, and should have done in my community and church, for the cause of Christ, that would point all the young people of our community to a higher plane of living for Him."
In a moment it was suggested that the answer to such perplexing problems came through prayer. And for a long period of time one after another raised their voices to God, in confession of sin, pleading for power and courage to give them strength to live a life that would set a better example, as they sought to be of help to others.
Finding God's standard for life is the only sure guide that will take one in the right direction, to find the Goal Post of life. His book says, "heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away."
Frank and Ellen, typical intermediates, were strolling down the lane about sun set, on a cool crisp autumn day. They were recounting the experiences of the past week. Suddenly their conversation shifted from their school football game on Saturday to what their pastor had said in his sermon, on Sunday. They could not get away from the challenge of the subject, "life's most important decision." Ellen finally confessed, "I'm sure I am a christian, but it's difficult sometime to know what is right and wrong. The way some people act confuse me."
Not being a christian, Frank could not answer intelligently, so he remained silent.
After a brief pause Ellen earnestly pleaded, "I wish you were a christian." The boy replied, "I want to be, but somehow something inside me keeps holding me back. Yet, there is a constant urge in my soul to confess Christ, and one day I plan to do so." These young people were truly discussing the fundamentals of life. Every boy and girl, man and woman must soon er or later face and answer these questions. Their answer will determine their destiny and usefulness in this world.

The counselor and lover of youth gave a series of lectures in a high school on the subject of "Vocational Choice" or "Finding One's Place in Life." He was seeking to aid the youth in helping them determine things of real value and make right choices in finding their life's work. A few days later a teacher asked a class of freshmen, what they had gotten from the lecture? One boy answered enthusiastically, "I learned that I'm on the right track."
Young people want and need some safe guide for their lives. They want to be on the right track. They want their lives to be useful, to do things that need something that only God can give them.
God's standard for life is needed. This world is made of people who use different standards in deciding whether an act is right or wrong. Some have lofty ideals. Those who desire the beautiful, the pure, and the clean in life, have high standards for themselves, their children and their associates. They want people to be happy and successful and to make their lives count for the best. These people throw every safe guard that is possible around those whom they touch. Others live on a low plane. Their standards of right and wrong would permit them without hesitation to act, without seeking for God's standard or right.
These two types of people as well as others have different opinions about right and wrong. So it is possible for the human race alone to arrive at an unerring standard for life. Man therefore needs a sure standard of righteousness. Where, then shall we seek that standard?
The bible explains God's standard for life. Man, the climax of God's creation, was to have dominion over the "fishes of the sea, fowls of the air, and every living thing on earth." Is it not logical and reasonable therefore that the creator of man should give him principals for his safety, happiness, and usefulness?
The psalmist testifies concerning this standard of life, "the law of the Lord is perfect, concerning the soul; the testimony of the Lord is sure making wise the simple. The statutes of the Lord are right rejoicing the heart. The commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eye, the fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever, the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired are they than gold, yea much fine gold. Sweeter also than honey and the honey comb. Moreover by them is the servant warned and in the keeping of them there is great reward. Also, wherewith all shall a young man cleanse his ways? By taking heed there to according to thy word."
God's standard for life has been tried and proven, by nations as well as by individuals. There are many who can bear testimony that this is true. He called by name shall humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and heal their land." Consider what would happen if the youth of our world would claim these great promises.
The words from His book, illuminated by the presence of His Spirit, will help the youth to know how and where they are to serve. No man is born into the world whose work is not born with him. He may or he may not choose to do and do it well.
To illustrate the fact that God has a plan for one's life we see Him brush aside Pharaoh's decree, that Moses was to be put to death while he was yet a helpless babe. God then provided 80 years of definite training for Him, that he might be prepared for the gigantic task of leading the children of Israel out of bondage. Of course Moses was willing to endure the hardships and discipline necessary to his training. Are you willing to go through rigid test, and endure hardship, if necessary to receive training for a life of service?
A young person must give God a chance to reveal to him, where and how he would have him invest his life. God does not speak choicest message to a person who has his mind constantly absorbed in social or frivolous affairs. Such a person virtually has his ears, his mind and heart closed to the voice of God. When one earnestly seeks to find the way, many avenues are open for him to find his place and God's purpose of life.
First, Sunday School and church attendance is one of the great avenues open for direction. Second, study of the bible for the definite purpose of finding God's will for one's life. Meditate upon what the Bible teaches, pray that God will give you the moral courage, to do what is right when the temptation comes so strong, for you to do wrong. Surrender your own will, and strive to know the will of God for your life. Earnestly desire to know God's will, then completely surrender your whole life to Him and He will make known to you the way. Your life then will have a purpose and you will be blessed as you realize and carry out that purpose. Many times God opens and closes the doors of opportunity, to reveal His plans to those who earnestly seek His guidance. Watch for these opportunities. Sometimes definite impressions will linger with you after study and prayer, even though you may have tried to cast them aside.

We have entered into the game of life to win. But if we fail to follow the direction of our great Captain we will fail miserably to attain the goal post He planned for us to reach.
Youth of today... Tomorrow you lead. Millions of people will be waiting to follow the direction you give and walk in the way you go. Youth of today, Jesus the creator of Heaven and earth, the savior of the souls of men, the prince of peace, the judge of all the earth, calls on you. Will you obey Him? Youth, tomorrow is in your hands. What will you do with it? The answer will be determined by the way you make decisions of life today. He said, "seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you."
Go to the church of your choice Sunday and every Sunday. Study the Bible, be regular in Sunday School and church both morning and evening.
George Washington, the father of our country, said, "true religion affords the government its surest support." The security of this nation depends upon the religious training of the Youth. It is impossible to govern the World without the Bible. May God's richest blessings ever be upon the youth of our community.
God Bless you real good today and every day.

Establishment of National Guard Unit Being Studied As Possibility Here

Service to the community as well as the nation, a payroll of approximately $35,000 per year, and opportunity for military training at home.

Those are the major contributions a National Guard unit will make to the City of Haskell and its surrounding area if plans now underway are fulfilled.

Col. Vaiden Hines and Lt. Col. Jack K. Walker, both of the Abilene National Guard unit, the 131st Field Artillery, were in Haskell last week end in the interest of establishing a unit in this city.

The Abilene officers conferred with Mayor Courtney Hunt, the Chamber of Commerce officials and members of the American Legion and VFW post, all of whom endorsed the approval. An information kit is available at the Chamber of Commerce office for all interested persons.

Efforts to secure a National Guard field artillery firing battery—composed of eight officers, one warrant officer and 96 enlisted men—depend on three things:

1. Haskell's ability to get sufficient officers and young men interested in enlisting in the organization. Persons who join the Guard before they are 18½ years of age are deferred from the draft. They may pursue their education or their civilian employment while taking their military training at home.
2. Adequate facilities for training the unit. An armory must be provided for storing a large amount of equipment: 105 millimeter howitzers (artillery weapons with approximately a four inch wide muzzle), jeeps, trucks, radios, telephones, switch boards, surveying equipment and a large number of tools, clothing and other supplies. The armory also must provide classroom space, particularly for use during winter months.
3. Approval by the State Adjutant General. This has already been indicated if the first two items are provided.

Members of the National Guard are given Regular Army pay—one full day's Army pay for two hours of training one night a week.

They also receive retirement benefits and National Guardsmen draw retirement pay just as do Regular Army personnel.

The National Guard provides a town or city with an organized unit able to help in any emergency.

At Fort Worth, Abilene and Amarillo during the past two years National Guard units have been called out to help during floods and tornadoes. After order is restored and local law enforcement agencies are able to maintain control alone the Guard unit returns to their civilian ways.

A guard unit frequently is called upon to help with civic projects, parades and official functions. Some form outstanding drill teams, which perform at ceremonies.

A full-strength Haskell field artillery unit would provide the city with an additional $35,000 payroll or more annually.

Two full-time employees are on duty with the battery—one for administrative duties and one as unit caretaker to handle supplies and maintenance. Both employees must be members of the battery—the administrative assistant as a warrant officer or enlisted man and the caretaker as an enlisted man.

The unit would be commanded by a captain. At full strength the unit will have six howitzers.

Main duty of the field artillery unit in time of war or mobilization is to provide artillery support for the infantry. These

A.L. (Lloyd) Conner In Candidate for Office of Sheriff

A. L. (Lloyd) Conner, well known carpenter and building contractor of this city, has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for Sheriff of Haskell County, subject to action of the Democratic primary in July.

A longtime resident of Haskell, Mr. Conner, 41, is an active church member. He has four children in school, and two married sons, both of whom served in the armed forces during World War II.

Mr. Conner feels that he needs no introduction to many of the voters, and plans, as time permits, to make himself acquainted with as many as possible of those to whom he is not known. He earnestly solicits their continued and favorable consideration of his candidacy if he is unable to see them. He explained that he necessarily would need to devote most of his time to his work of earning a living for his family.

After much careful thought and consideration of the duties of Sheriff, and fully realizing the great responsibility of the office, his decision to enter the race was at the often repeated encouragement from many of his friends throughout the county. He feels that he is not a complete stranger to law enforcement work, having been employed at two different times by the city of Stamford.

Mr. Conner states that if elected he will endeavor to the best of his ability to handle the affairs of the department in a businesslike manner and in a way that would merit the confidence and approval of the people.

Mr. Conner also expressed his thanks and appreciation again to the many friends and supporters who voted for him in the last election.

Bridge Over Brazos Between Olney and Throckmorton Falls

A bridge over the Brazos River between Throckmorton and Olney collapsed Monday. The single span 185-foot steel bridge is on State Highway 79 ten miles east of Olney.

A light truck fell 25 feet to the lower bank of the river when the bridge gave way but its two occupants escaped serious injury.

Oscar Cunkel, 30, and Pete Botelho, 28, both of Olney, suffered only minor bruises in the fall.

Traffic is being routed over State 251 and State 29.

Engineers said they don't know what caused the collapse.

OPS Checks Sales Of Junk Batteries At Illegal Prices

Reports of illegal sales of junk batteries, from which vital lead is extracted, are being investigated by the Fort Worth Office of Price Stabilization.

Ellis H. Boyd, OPS district director, refused to state if any of the reports have been made from Haskell County, but added that the alleged sales have taken place in several counties of the 50-county Fort Worth district, which includes Haskell County.

"We have had several complaints from junk dealers that numerous sellers of used batteries are demanding above the ceiling price for these batteries," Boyd said. He explained that under the Defense Production Act both seller and purchaser can be prosecuted for such illegal transaction.

The ceiling price for junk passenger car batteries is $2.80 per battery on an as is basis. The ceiling does not apply to the trade-in allowance a retailer may grant the purchaser of a new battery.

Reports list some as high as $3.15 per battery, which is 35 cents above the ceiling, Boyd said.

The demand for junk batteries has increased because the batteries are a source of lead, a critical item in the defense program, Boyd said.

"Probably there are many businesses who sell new batteries and receive old batteries in exchange that unaware of the ceiling price," Boyd said. He explained that OPS has a campaign underway to inform battery companies, service stations, auto supply houses, auto parts companies and others who sell junk batteries about the ceilings, as well as those who buy batteries.

After much careful thought and consideration of the duties of Sheriff, and fully realizing the great responsibility of the office, his decision to enter the race was at the often repeated encouragement from many of his friends throughout the county. He feels that he is not a complete stranger to law enforcement work, having been employed at two different times by the city of Stamford.

Mr. Conner states that if elected he will endeavor to the best of his ability to handle the affairs of the department in a businesslike manner and in a way that would merit the confidence and approval of the people.

Mr. Conner also expressed his thanks and appreciation again to the many friends and supporters who voted for him in the last election.

District School of Religion To Be Held at First Methodist Church

With a number of Methodist Churches in the Stamford District taking part, a District School of Religion for both Christian workers and any member of the church will be held at the First Methodist Church in Haskell from March 3 to March 7 inclusive. All sessions will be in the evening from 7:30 to 9:30 and outstanding religious leaders from Lubbock, Amarillo and Abilene will serve as instructors.

Rev. T. G. Craft, local Methodist pastor, is to be dean of the school. "We should have some 200 people enrolled in this school," the Haskell minister said.

The following churches of the Stamford District will participate in the school: Lueders, Avoca, St. John's of Stamford, Rule, Rochester, O'Brien, Knox City, Munday, Weiner, Aspermont, Paint Creek, Throckmorton, and Haskell. Others are invited to attend.

The Board of Managers will consist of all the pastors of the several churches.

The Committee on promotion and publicity is composed of Rev. Clem Lewis of Throckmorton; Rev. J. H. Crawford, district superintendent of the Stamford District; and Rev. Craft of Haskell.

Finance committee: Rev. Oscar Bruce, Knox City; Rev. Harold Morris, O'Brien; and Rev. Aaron Mitchell, Aspermont.

Each church will also have local committees as needed to promote the school interest in the local church.

Instructors for the school and the courses each will teach will be:

"Understanding Children," by Mrs. Uel Crosby, instructor, Lubbock, Texas.

"Christian Homemaking," Dr. George Steinman, professor in McMurry College, Abilene.

"Methodist Youth Fellowship," Rev. James Carter, Amarillo, Texas.

"The New Testament: Content," Rev. Doyle Ragle, professor of Religion, McMurry College, Abilene.

In announcing the school, Rev. Craft said, "All of this is done to help our people better understand the religion they profess, and teachers to become better instructors in their local Sunday Schools."

Youths Becoming 18 May Register With Local Board Member

Boys who reach the age of 18 required to register with the nearest draft board, can register in Haskell with W. A. Holt and Miss Jane Holt.

The nearest draft board is Local No. 77, Anson, which has jurisdiction over Jones, Haskell and Shackelford counties.

Services of these registrars enable county boys to register in their own county without having to go to the expense and trouble of travel to Anson.

A local board is maintained for the three-county area because one board can take care of it under present circumstances and thus help keep down the cost of government.

Brig. Gen. Paul L. Wakefield, state Selective Service director, said today that "people should appreciate the service these registrars are rendering the people of Haskell county. They do this job without pay as a patriotic service to the country."

All males are required to register under the draft law on their 18th birthday or within 5 days thereafter.

Maximum penalties that can be applied for failure to register is $10,000 fine, or five years in prison, or both.

WEEK END GUESTS IN D. P. RATLIFF HOME

Judge and Mrs. Dennis P. Ratliff had as their guests last week end her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Golden, Seymour; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Emmitt Golden, Seymour, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Golden, Vernon, and their daughter, June. They also had as their guest, Will Price of this city, who is the twin brother of Mrs. A. H. Golden.

Stamford To Vote On Putting Police Under City Council

Stamford police department will be placed under City Council if a city charter amendment is approved by Stamford voters April 1.

Petition bearing more than the necessary 10 per cent of voters' names were submitted to the council in regular meet last week by Earl Cotten and E. V. (Shorty) Chasstein.

The petitions were circulated asking the change in the charter when the council in its Jan. 4 meeting invoked the charter provision placing the chief of police under the supervision of the city manager.

The petition submitted substantially propose that the charter be changed to place the city police department under the chief of police with the right to hire and fire his own men. The chief in turn, would be responsible to the council.

At the present time city employees are hired by the city manager with the advice and consent of the city council.

The fireworks started over the question of cooperation between the police department and departments of the city with both the council and the chief claiming non-cooperation. This precipitated the council action in invoking the charter provision.

Mayor Clyde Westfall cited provisions for the charter which say that policies of the police department shall be determined by the city council and that supervision and control of the police department and all departments of the city are under the city manager.

Grady Bowdry is city manager.

The office of the chief of police is elective and Bob Miller, present chief, was elected last April for a two-year term.

April 1 is the regular date of a city election.

"We did it Again!"

That's the jubilant news that comes from Flint to every Buick dealer—and here we pass the thrilling story on to you. It sure is true for '52 that better automobiles are being built—and Buick is building them. Read the good word and you'll agree.

Let's pare this down to plain statements of fact and let them speak for themselves:

The dynamic darling pictured here is the 1952 ROADMASTER.

It has the mightiest engine in Buick history.

It has the biggest brakes of any postwar Buick.

It is the quietest car that Buick ever built.

It has the richest fabrics and smartest tailoring that ever graced a Buick's interior.

It has the greatest trunk space since spare tires moved off the front fenders.

It has the most superb ride in Buick history.

It has the finest carburetor that Buick research has ever devised.

And with all its new power, it delivers more miles per gallon.

But that is not all.

For those who wish it, there is a brand-new version of power steering that works like a helping hand—gives you the same sure feel of control you always know in straightaway—takes less than one-fifth the needed to turn the ordinary standing at curbside.

Sure, we're putting our best forward when we talk about ROADMASTER.

But you'll find a host of notable features in SUPERS and SPECIALS too—make them, as always, the standard in their fields—for ride, for comfort, style, for room, and for power.

Come in—look this triumphant Buick— and you'll know why every dealer from coast to coast is around with a smile on his face.

Get a long-term Federal Land Bank loan

The old fashioned farm mortgage came due all at once. Time was always squeezing folks to pay. If you're building or remodeling . . . or buying land or want to refinance other debts . . . SEE US NOW for a Federal Land Bank Loan.

Say "When" for a Ford Tractor
Demonstration that can mean a Lot to You

★ Behind the Ford Tractor's great popularity in TEXAS are reasons vital to every TEXAN who farms for profit!

Yes, it could easily mean a lot to find out, first hand, how much more you could get done and how much hard work you could save if you owned a Ford Tractor.

It's something you need to see in order to believe—the way the Ford Tractor does field work—the ease and speed with which Dearborn Implements go on and off (most can be attached or detached in 60 seconds), the great number of hand-labor jobs that can be handled practically and economically with this tractor.

You can see this for yourself, just by taking a little time out for a Ford Tractor demonstration on your land.

And, remember, you save money when you buy a Ford Tractor as well as when you use it.

Your nearby Ford Tractor dealer invites you to say "when" for a demonstration.

Soldier In Korea Expresses Thanks To Blood Donors

Haskell donors to the Red Cross blood program this week were sent a message of thanks from a Haskell soldier in Korea. In a letter from Cpl. Leroy Medford to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Medford, the serviceman had the following message for Haskell County citizens who donated blood when the Red Cross Bloodmobile unit was here early this month: "Tell the Red Cross I'm proud of the people back home for the blood they gave for us soldier boys. No one will ever know how much we appreciate and need it. I'm not right on the front, but I've seen them brought down wounded and bleeding to death, and your blood might save their lives. May God bless everyone who gave blood for us. We will never forget you. All we soldiers from Korea thank you—Leroy." If all state highways in Texas were destroyed in one day and had to be replaced at current dollar value, it would require $2 billion.
