Spring Clean-Up Campaign To Be Launched May 1st

Mayor Courtney Hunt, joined by the City Council, has designated the period beginning Monday, May 1st, as Spring Clean Up time in Haskell, and they called upon the entire citizenship of the community to join in a general community-wide observance of the campaign.

In announcing the Clean-Up Campaign, Mayor Hunt and other city officials declared that many factors prompted the necessity for a Spring Clean Up at this time. These were listed primarily as protection of the health of the community during the spring and summer months, and the need for beautifying both the business and residential sections of the city as well. Ridding alleys, streets and vacant lots of trash and rubbish which has accumulated during the winter months will be of value of eliminating fire hazards as well, it was pointed out.

Pointing out that it was the responsibility of every citizen to rid their premises of rubbish, weeds, and trash, Mayor Hunt explained that each homeowner or resident would be expected to have accumulated rubbish hauled from their premises during the Clean Up Campaign, pointing out that the City would not be able to furnish trucks for this purpose.

Stressing the need for cooperation of every citizen in the Clean Up campaign, Mayor Hunt said: "Polio is on the increase, and it is imperative that we clean up our city that we may be able to avoid an outbreak or epidemic of infantile paralysis here. Beginning May 1st, we will begin an intensive campaign to clean up our community, with the drive to continue until the entire city is clean.

"You will be expected to dispose of your own trash as we feel that it is unfair to the man who keeps his own property clean to be required to pay taxes to pay for trash hauling for others. Plenty of trucks will be available, and all rubbish can be hauled away in a short time, at very little expense to the individual home owner," the Mayor explained.

Emphasizing the necessity for cleaning up all sections of the community, Mayor Hunt said the city's fogging machine would not be used until the entire town was rid of rubbish and trash of every description. "It would be a waste of money to use the spraying machine where accumulations of rubbish still exist," he pointed out.

As a preliminary organization for the Clean Up campaign, Mayor Hunt announced that two chairmen had been appointed for each precinct in the city. These chairmen, in turn will appoint street chairmen, and they will name block chairmen in their districts.

Precinct chairmen named by Mayor Hunt are: Precinct 1, R. C. Couch and Bill Richey. Precinct 2, Mrs. Claud Wheatley and Mrs. Dennis P. Ratliff. Precinct 3, Mrs. L. B. Dendy and Mrs. McFarlin. Precinct 4, Mrs. Clarence Taylor and Mrs. Virgil Sonnemaker.

Plans Completed for Annual Singing Convention Sunday

Haskell will be host Sunday to hundreds of singers and music lovers from a wide area, who are expected in attendance at the annual program of the Haskell County Singing Convention, to be held in the First Christian Church Sunday morning and afternoon.

As a prelude to the convention program, the Stamps Baxter Quartet of Dallas will present a concert Saturday evening beginning at 7:30 o'clock, in the church auditorium. The popular quartet, known throughout the Southwest, will give a complete evening program. This additional feature is expected to attract a large number of music lovers.

The convention program will begin Sunday morning at 10 o'clock, and will continue throughout the afternoon, with the exception of a brief business session when officers for the ensuing year will be elected.

Attendance at this year's convention is expected to be the largest in many years, due to widespread interest and the large number of out-of-town singers and quartets who have accepted invitations to attend, Halie B. Chapman, convention president, said today.

In addition to the Stamps-Baxter Quartet, others already listed for the program include the S. E. Clark Quartet from Abilene, the Haskell IOOF Quartet, Tankersly Quartet of Knox City, Throckmorton Quartet, and others from Anson, Seymour, and possibly other area towns.

An outdoor public address system will carry the program to listeners on the church lawn, the installation being through the courtesy of John Kimbrough, local Gulf dealer, it has been announced.

Arrangements have been made for a one hour's broadcast of the convention program over Station KDWT, Stamford, for the benefit of music lovers who are unable to attend the convention.

Officers of the convention in addition to Chapman as president, are T. C. Cobb, vice president, and Mrs. Troy Ash, secretary.

Persons Missed In Census Urged To Contact Enumerators Before May 1

The huge task of census taking in Haskell county has proceeded on schedule, County Census Supervisor R. V. Robertson reported today, and the 16 enumerators working in the various communities and rural districts of the county are well along toward completing their canvass, Mr. Robertson said.

However, the county census supervisor emphasized the importance of including any and all persons who might have been missed during the county-wide canvass, and he urged anyone who has not been contacted by an enumerator to notify his office or any census taker in their vicinity.

"We are very anxious that every person living in Haskell county be included in the census count," Mr. Robertson said. "If you know of a person or family who has not been contacted, we urge you to furnish us this information at once," he said.

He pointed out that it was not necessary for each person to be counted in person by the enumerator. One person in each household could give the information for the entire family.

Mr. Robertson emphasized that the count in communities and in the rural areas will continue until the end of the month. For that reason, all persons who have not been contacted are urged to report their names and other information to the enumerators.

The population count and other information being assembled in the census is of great importance to each town or community and the county as a whole, Mr. Robertson pointed out, and for that reason every person living in the county should consider it a civic duty to furnish the information desired, he explained. All information given census takers is treated confidential in the strictest sense, he added.

Persons desiring to contact a census enumerator by mail may write Mr. Robertson at Box 493, Haskell.

Rex L. Johnson, hospitalman second class, USCG, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Route 1, Haskell, is presently serving at the Coast Guard Loran Transmitting Station on French Frigate Shoals, T. H.

French Frigate is nothing more than a piece of sand six feet above sea level, as wide as a football field and four and a half times as long. Located 510 miles northwest of Hawaii's colorful capital, Honolulu, this lonely shoal could hardly be categorized as an enchanting, romantic spot as most of its sister islands in the Hawaiian chain are. But it has served as a guiding light to Pacific navigators for the last few years by

Mild Winter Has Increased Danger Of Hopper Damage

Weather conditions during the next few weeks, may well determine the seriousness of the grasshopper infestations for 1950. More moisture will bring on a big hatch, however farmers and ranchmen should be watching for the early hatches and if and when the young 'hoppers become numerous enough to warrant control measures, action should be taken.

The Texas Agricultural Experiment Station has just released a report covering the grasshopper control work done by J. C. Gaines and H. A. Dean, professors in the department of entomology of Texas A & M College System, during the past two years.

They say that over a long period of years the poison bait method has not been effective in central Texas but that they are effective and are still recommended for use in the arid portions of the state where there is a scarcity of vegetative growth to compete with the poison baits as grasshopper food.

Control tests were conducted during 1948 and 1949 to evaluate several organic insecticides applied as dusts and sprays for 'hopper control. The dusts were applied in the early morning when the air was calm. The spray emulsions, made by diluting oil miscible concentrates, were applied later in the day with a compressed air sprayer equipped with a valve to regulate the pressure at 40 pounds. The treatments were made early in the season when the 'hoppers were small, less than one-fourth grown.

They say that toxaphene or chlordane applied either as a dust or spray emulsion will give good control of young grasshoppers. Either of these materials applied at from a half to a pound and a quarter per acre as dusts should control young 'hoppers, but heavier applications are necessary for controlling the 'hoppers after they get larger. This low dosage may be applied to pastures without causing injury to livestock but should not be used in pastures that are being grazed by dairy cattle. To protect crops from migrating adult 'hoppers, from 2 to 3 pounds per acre of either material must be used.

Results of field tests made in 1949, the entomologists say, show that toxaphene and chlordane were more effective when applied as spray emulsions than when applied as dusts.

Loblolly pine frequently is called oil field pine because of its tendency to invade and reclaim agricultural land in the South.

Home Accidents Take Heavy Toll In Nation Each Year

Home accidents took 30,500 lives in the nation last year and falls are listed as 'public enemy no. 1' so far as the home is concerned for they led the home accident list. Too many home injuries, says Mrs. Bernice Claytor, extension home management specialist of Texas A & M College, are caused by faulty steps and stairs and she offers these suggestions for improving the situation.

She says it is dangerous to build steep stairways to save space, especially if they are frequently used. The treads of steps should be deep enough to hold the weight of the foot securely, and the risers just high enough for comfortable stepping. She says treads 10 inches deep, with a one-inch overhang and with risers seven and one-half inches high are best, but treads eight and one-half inches deep with risers nine inches high are also satisfactory. If space is a problem, she says it may be better to use a pull-down ladder from the attic store room rather than to build extremely steep stairs. Don't forget, she adds, that at least seven feet of space should be left between the stairs and the ceiling.

Stair steps need to be uniform. Off measurement steps break the even stride and may cause a fall. Spiral staircases are a hazard because treads are tapered to the turn and two straight runs of stairs set at right angles are safer. Every stairway should have the protection of a handrail, low enough for children. Steep stairways need handrails on both sides. Good clear lighting for stairs, doorsteps and porch steps is a necessity. Cellar steps too often are poorly lighted. Mrs. Claytor says, and she suggests painting them white. It is a good safety measure to keep a flashlight handy for use when climbing such stairways, she adds.

Mrs. Claytor points out that wax should be omitted or used very sparingly on stairs. Loose scatter rugs should not be used at the top or bottom of a stairway. Carpeting is desirable for the stairs but should be fastened securely on each step and kept in good repair to prevent slips and falls. Loose boards or nails in steps and stairs have caused many falls and certainly, she adds, steps and stairs are no place to store toys, boxes, trash, brooms, mops and the many other articles that seem to find a place there. Lastly, she says take it easy when going up or down stairs and never carry a load so large that you can't see where you are stepping.

Gayla Marie Holland And C. D. Nanny Wed Sunday

White gladioluses formed the background for the church altar for the double ring ceremony that united in marriage Gayla Marie Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Holland and Clarence Donald Nanny, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Nanny, all of Haskell.

The ceremony was held in the First Baptist Church Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, with the Rev. Allen O. Webb, pastor, reading the vows.

Bobby Ann Herren played traditional wedding music from the church organ, and Mrs. Roy Everett sang, O Promise Me, and I Love You Truly. She was accompanied by Miss Herren.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with a white fitted bodice of Chantilly lace and a gathered skirt of nylon net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was caught to a tiara of lilies of the valley.

She carried a bouquet of pink rose buds.

Nancy Burton was maid of honor. She wore a dress of pink net over taffeta fashioned after the bride's. She carried orchid gladioluses.

The bridegroom's best man was Glenn Marugg, and ushers were Scottie Helber, Curtis Cox, Wayburn Oats, and J. W. Holland.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church annex with the bride's parents as hosts.

The young couple are both graduates of Haskell High School, and Mr. Nanny later attended North Texas State Teachers College in Denton.

Following a brief honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Wewoka, Okla., where the bridegroom is employed.

Jerry Gannaway, HHS Graduate, Will Be Presented in H-SU Piano Recital Sunday

To be presented in Senior recital by the Hardin-Simmons University School of Music is Jerry Gannaway, piano student of Dean E. Edwin Young, Sunday afternoon, April 30, at 3:00 o'clock, in Behrens Chapel.

Jerry is the son of K. C. Gannaway, formerly of Haskell, and having graduated from Haskell High School in 1946, he has studied at H-S U for four years. Among college activities, Jerry is president of the Beta Mu Kappa, music fraternity of Hardin-Simmons University, student assistant to Dean E. Edwin Young, and official accompanist of Dr. Herbert M. Preston, professor of violin. He is also pianist of North Park Baptist Church of Abilene.

Feather-bedding scheme of Firemen's Union to put an additional fireman on diesel locomotives has been CONSIDERED TWICE!

Fact Finding Boards appointed by Presidents Roosevelt and Truman have said these demands were "devoid of merit" and they were REJECTED TWICE!

Now the Firemen's leaders seek to paralyze railroad transportation to compel the railroads to employ a wholly unnecessary additional fireman to ride on diesel locomotives. This scheme is plain

FEATHER-BEDDING!

LEADERS of the Firemen's union have called a nationwide strike starting with four great railroads on April 26. These railroads are the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Santa Fe, and Southern.

The union claim that a second fireman is needed — ground safety is sheer hypocrisy. Safety has been dragged into this dispute only in a successful effort to give a cloak of respectability to vicious feather-bedding demands.

After a careful study of the first demands of this union, a Presidential Fact Finding Board on May 21, 1943, reported to President Roosevelt that there was no need for an additional fireman on diesel locomotives.

Again, on September 19, 1949, after a second hearing on the union leaders' demands, a second Board reported to President Truman that: "there presently exists no need for an additional fireman... upon either the ground of safety or that of efficiency and economy of operation."

Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good
Although the railroads accepted the Board findings, the union leaders have brazenly rejected them. They represent that an extra fireman is needed for "safety" reasons. Here's what the Board had to say on that point:

"The safety and on-time performance of diesel electric locomotives operated under current rules have been notably good..."

"Upon careful analysis of the data submitted on safety, we have concluded that no valid reasons have been shown as a support for the Brotherhood proposal under which a fireman would be required to be at all times continuously in the cab of road diesels. The proposal must be rejected."

The real reason behind these demands is that the union leaders are trying to make jobs where there is no work. In other words, a plain case of "feather-bedding." The railroads have no intention of yielding to these wasteful make-work demands.

"The Safety Record of Diesels is Outstandingly Good..."

PRESIDENTIAL FACT FINDING BOARD REPORT

Read these excerpts from official reports of Presidential Fact Finding Boards:

"The safety record of Diesels is outstandingly good, and it follows that the safety rules now applicable have produced good results."

"The safety and on-time performance of Diesel-electric locomotives operated under current rules indicates that Diesel-electric operation has been safer than steam locomotive operation..."

Remember! These are not statements of the railroads. They are just a few of the many similar conclusions reached by President Truman's Fact Finding Board which spent months investigating the claims of the union leaders.

More Lives Lost In Traffic Accidents Involving One Vehicle, One Driver According to Statistical Records

"You are the other fellow!" That's the pointed slogan adopted by the Texas Department of Public Safety to emphasize the 1950 traffic safety program. The brief statement, says Colonel Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Safety Department, gives the lie to the false assumption held by many motorists that "it's the other fellow you have to watch to avoid accidents."

N. K. Woerner, Chief of Statistical Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, has predicted an aver-all increase of 6 per cent in Texas traffic fatalities for 1950 which, if fulfilled, will set an all-time high for the State.

THE STATE OF TEXAS TO: A. E. STILLWELL, whose residence, location and whereabouts are unknown, and the heirs of A. E. Stillwell whose names, residences and locations are unknown, and the unknown owners or claimants of the lands and premises herein described whose names, residence and locations are unknown.

You are commanded to appear and answer the plaintiff's petition at or before 10 o'clock A. M. of the first Monday after the expiration of 42 days from the date of issuance of this Citation, the same being Monday the 22nd day of May, A. D., 1950, at or before 10 o'clock A. M., before the Honorable District Court of Haskell County, at the Court House in Haskell, Texas.

The names of the parties in said suit are: James H. Robertson, as Plaintiff, and A. E. Stillwell and the unknown heirs of A. E. Stillwell and the unknown claimants or owners of the lands and premises herein described, as Defendants.

rent year's figures not yet complete. These same figures show that the trend of one-driver fatal accidents is still holding true to form with 60 per cent of the rural fatal accidents, through March, involving a single driver. One phase worthy of a second glance in the 1950 picture, thus far, is the problem presented by motorists in small towns and villages and on unnumbered rural crossroads. In towns and villages with a population under 2,500 an increase in traffic deaths of 55 per cent is noted and the unnumbered rural roads shows an upward trend of 54 per cent. This compares with a 5 per cent increase on rural numbered highways and a 11 per cent decrease in the larger urban areas.

"One thing is made perfectly clear by these rural and one-driver figures," says Garrison, and that is that speed is still the greatest threat to life and property in the field of traffic safety. He further pointed out that there was an increase of 60 per cent in the rural fatal accidents so far this year which carried the mere notation "ran off roadway." In these cases, "the other fellow" was the man at the wheel!

HERE FROM CALIFORNIA Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buchanan of Los Angeles, Calif., visited friends in Haskell during the week-end. They are spending a week or ten days with relatives and friends in Throckmorton. Mr. and Mrs. Buchanan formerly lived here, and he was manager of the Scott Ranch southeast of Haskell for several years. They moved to California in 1923.

Livestock being shipped from the south to northern states should be checked very closely for infestations before shipping. Use the Smear 62 on all animal wounds.

Home accidents took 30,500 lives in the nation last year and falls led the list of causes. It is dangerous economy to leave out of the plans for any farm building safety features that might prevent a serious accident.

Over Exposure To Sun Is Sometimes Harmful Practice

Summer weather is just around the corner and many Texans will try to acquire a sun tan as quickly as possible. Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, today released a statement concerning the danger of over exposure to the sun.

"Sun stroke is not thought to be due to the heat of the sun, but to certain direct effects of the sun on the human brain. It is likely to occur after the sun has shone excessively on the back of the head and neck," Dr. Cox explained. "This can be prevented by protecting the head and back of the neck from the sunshine," he added.

Dr. Cox asserted that exposure of the skin to the sun has some virtue since the action of the sunshine tends to kill the germs on the skin. Further sunshine produces vitamin D from the fats in the skin and this product is absorbed and used by the body.

"In general the good effects of sunshine are not due to the heat rays but ultraviolet rays," Dr. Cox stated. "It must be remembered, however, that it is these same rays which burn the skin and extensive application of direct sunshine to the skin may produce painful and severe burns which actually may endanger life."

The State Health Officer advises those who wish to obtain an extensive suntan to get it by slow degrees. Expose small portions of the skin to the sun for a short period of time. When tanning is

Research Program of Game Department Will Include Study of Marine Fishing

The new exploration and research program launched by the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission is viewed by the Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission as bearing great promise for the future.

The undertaking will emphasize examination of fish life in commercial and sport fishermen, previously uncharted angling areas in a broad step toward developing new fields of profit as well as of recreation.

For the average Texan, particularly the inland residents, fishing ordinarily means matching wits with a wary catfish or trying to outguess a fighting black or white bass, or even to lure a tasty crappie or other pan fish to the stringer. Expanded fresh water facilities stress the land lubbers needs. But the scope of the game and fish department does not end there.

For, down on the coast, a vast industry is centered around providing boats, tackle and guides for the throngs living in that area and for the visitors from inland Texas and from far beyond. Just as vital and probably a greater economic asset, is the commercial fishing industry which brings in the shrimp, oysters and other marketable salt water species.

The fact that Louisiana, Alabama, Georgia and Florida share the same outlook was a mighty factor in harnessing up the coastal team along with the Fish and Wildlife Service to get the job done.

The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game, Fish and Oyster Commission, who is vice-chairman of the organization, said the marine biologists foresee great new opportunities in the deeper $30,000 BABIES!

Keep your baby chinchillas warm—and they'll grow up and keep you warm in $30,000 fashion! These expensive little rodents must be pampered while they are babies. Temperature in their cages must be controlled within a few degrees if the tiny animals are to grow up into $30,000 fur coats. A new type of heating system made of cotton and rubber is used in this chinchilla home. Called Uskon, the radiant heating system provides uniform temperature with panels of cotton fabric and conductive rubber.

sea areas distant from the shore line— areas which have never been developed for sport fishing or for commercial fishing.

Two vessels obtained from the Fish and Wildlife Service have been outfitted. One will be equipped with all kinds of fishing gear to do exploratory work off the shore. The other will specialize in research—a sort of marine scientist's dream. It will check the water temperature and record currents and other data which vitally affect fish life. It also will be rigged to study the water for microscopic organisms necessary for fish life. The entire life cycle of the denizens of the deep will be charted. The affect of the new trade stimulant will be felt far beyond the coastal boundaries.

Fish Stocking Projects

The Chief Aquatic Biologist of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission has observed that ranchers and farmers, in utilizing all possible resources to better living conditions, are finding wild-life an indispensable factor. To this end the trend is toward stocking ponds and tanks with fish. Some farm ponds that are only an acre in size have produced three or four hundred pounds of fish annually.

Proper management and education have had an important part in this development. The popular opinion of laymen that the more fish planted in a lake, pond or tank meant more fish and better fishing has been discounted by the biologists. They have permitted distribution of fish fry over a greater area, with consequent benefit for all.

There is a definite limitation to the number of fish a certain area can support. If the place is overstocked, and without the proper balance of species, the result is stunted fish and disappointed anglers. Thus when land owners send in their applications, the Game Department judges by the description of the pond, tank or lake what kind and how many fish are needed. The landowner or tenant has a part in this planning, too. He has to describe the area and to be particularly accurate in stating whether his waters are being stocked the first time, or are being re-stocked.

How $10 may save you $10,000

Any day you may wake up with a damage suit on your hands. If a postman, milkman or tradesman hurts himself on your premises — if part-time servants hurt themselves in your employ—if your child or dog hurts somebody — if you hit somebody with a golf ball — MAYBE YOU'VE GOT A LAWSUIT ON YOUR HANDS.

But there's a fine new "bargain" America Fore policy which covers just about every damage to people and property for which you're legally liable.

For $10 a year it will protect you up to $10,000, and also insure medical payments up to $250 for non-family injuries even if you're not legally liable. Ask us.

Texas Takes Leading Part In Fight To Conquer Cancer

The American Cancer Society, Texas Division, today reminded Texans that the state is taking a leading part in the nation-wide fight to conquer cancer. The Society listed the following Texas achievements:

Texas has 25 cancer diagnostic and treatment clinics.

There are 13 cancer hospitals in the United States, one of them a part of the University of Texas — M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research in Houston.

Texas has 10 full-time cancer information centers, operated by county units of the American Cancer Society. These are located at El Paso, Fort Worth, Dallas, Texarkana, Austin, San Antonio, Galveston and Houston.

Through contributions to the annual Texas Cancer Crusade the state supplies more than $100,000 a year to the national cancer research program. Several Texas scientists are participating in this program.

Through the combined funds of the American Cancer Society and the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, a young Texas Negro completed a health education scholarship and is now teaching cancer facts to members of his race in the state.

Texas is one of the first states to establish a fully functioning tumor registry, as a means of "following up" cancer patients after treatment.

Texas is one of the first states to combine the efforts of the various agencies fighting cancer under a single working plan. This unit is the Texas Cancer Coordinating Council — composed of the American Cancer Society, the State Department of Health, the Medical Association of Texas, and Cancer Committee of the State University of Texas, M. D. Anderson Hospital for Cancer Research.

Port Aransas is called the Tarpon Capitol of the world.

Members of a Horticultural Club in Wichita Falls, Texas, covered a new way to work to their community. They set up a school of eyes where they assist out magazine pictures and reading classes for deaf children.

Mahogany, walnut, maple are still among the popular woods used for furniture.

Awards Announced For 4-H Junior Leaders

The effectiveness of the Texas Agricultural Extension services Junior Leadership Training program received a boost today. Extension Director G. G. Gibson of Texas A & M College and N. C. McGowan, president of the United Gas Pipe Line Company, announced that United Gas will provide in 1934, 34 scholarships and trips to a Junior Leadership Training Laboratory.

Details of the awards program were worked out at a meeting held recently at College Station between Extension Service and United Gas representatives.

The 84 scholarships and trips to the state laboratory will furnish awards to three boys and three girls from each of the 14 extension districts in the state.

In making the announcement, Gibson stated that more and more emphasis will be placed by the Extension Service on its leadership training program for 4-H members. He said the need for trained leadership is greater today than it has been at any time and that 4-H training can fill a great need by creating a desire within the members, at an early age, that may give them the spark to launch them on a successful leadership career.

The awards program will be handled by the Extension Service as a part of its regular 4-H program. United Gas officials will participate in the award making, provide finances and lend encouragement to 4-H work in general.

The laboratory to be held this summer will feature five days of leadership training. The boys and girls themselves will be given an opportunity to practice what they learn and thus "Learn To Do By Doing."

HHS Band Members Will Attend State Lions Convention

Three members of the Haskell High School Indian Band, and director James M. Hobbs, have been selected to represent District 2-E Lions Clubs at the State convention of Lions to be held in Mineral Wells, Texas, on May 8th.

In the group selected were Sue Busby, Doris Nell Camp and Rose Ann Johnson. They were chosen at the district Lions Ladies Night held in Seymour Tuesday evening where talent was presented from a number of surrounding towns, including Archer City, Seymour, Knox City, Olney and Haskell.

One needy family in Grand Rapids, Mich., thought Thanksgiving was Christmas when they received a basket containing a complete dinner, a bushel of potatoes and two large cartons of clothing. Who gave the presents? Our Camp Fire Girls, of course, who have discovered one way to enjoy life is to share with others.
