High Winds Cause Heavy Damage To Market P. & E. Elevator Saturday

Extensive damage was caused to the grain elevator of the Market Poultry & Egg Company here Saturday by high winds which struck about 4:30 p. m. preceding a hard shower and light hail.

The winds, of almost tornadoic proportions at times, toppled the 65-foot tower section of the iron-clad elevator building, demolishing the tower and wrecking the roof on the west section of the building. No one was in the elevator at the time.

W. A. Beck, Haskell Barber, Victim of Heart Attack

W. A. Beck, 65, resident of Haskell for the past six years, was the victim of a sudden heart attack late Wednesday at his home in this city. His death occurred at 7:00 p. m. Funeral arrangements were incomplete Thursday morning, pending arrival of relatives, and will be announced from Holden Funeral Home. Mr. Beck came to Haskell six years ago from Vernon, and had engaged in the barber business here and in Weinert. He recently sold his business in the latter city.

A native of Texas, he was born Dec. 19, 1885, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Beck. He married Miss Viola Edna Porter of Fargo, Texas, Feb. 7, 1912. He had been a member of the Church of Christ since boyhood. Surviving are his wife, of Haskell; a daughter, Mrs. Gene Burnett of Houston; two sons, Michael F. Beck of M. Carmel, Ill. and C. L. Beck of Enid, Okla.; two brothers, J. W. Beck, and M. L. Beck, Arbun, Ala.; and three sisters, Mrs. Hattie Butler of California, Mrs. Mattie Teel of Abilene, and Miss Isbell Beck.

An accurate estimate of damage to the building was not immediately available, but A. T. Gallard, manager of Market Poultry & Egg Company property here, said it would likely run into several thousand dollars. No other property damage from the winds was reported. Limbs were whipped from large trees in some sections of town, residents said.

Saturday's shower, which brought only a trace of rain here, was accompanied by light hail which fell for several minutes. The showers extended a short distance north of Haskell, farmers in that area reported. In other sections of the county, principally south and extending north across the east part of the county, heavier rainfall was reported ranging from one-fourth an inch upward.

Additional moisture which fell Sunday night and early Monday morning was measured .26 inch here, to bring total rainfall for the year to 27.77 inches, according to records maintained by John B. Martin, local Government observer.

Stressing the things important in the life of every person, Rev. E. V. Becker, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Knox City, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Haskell Lions Club Tuesday in the Club room of the Texas Cafe.

In his talk, the minister urged his hearers: "Learn to adjust yourselves to life; this is not a weakness, but strength, and gives you an avenue of usefulness. Attach your lives to things eternal, and thus you will find that true happiness is internal." Urging selfishness as a requisite for happiness, the speaker admonished his audience to "Do something for others—give your life freely for service to others." Program for the day was in charge of Harold R. Spain. The speaker was introduced by Rev. C. A. Powell, pastor of the First Baptist Church of O'Brien, who was a guest at the meeting. Approximately 40 Lions were in attendance.

Order for a $100,000 Hospital Bond Election in Haskell County, to be held Saturday, May 26th, was passed Tuesday at a meeting of the Commissioners' Court in response to petitions which had been presented to the body previously and asking that the election be called. The petitions were signed by more than 10 per cent of the resident qualified property taxpaying voters of the county.

Representative of OPS To Meet With Local Merchants

Special agents from the Fort Worth District Office of Price Stabilization have begun checking eating and drinking places for compliance with restaurant regulations throughout the 53-county district, which includes Haskell county. Under federal regulations, soda fountains, restaurants and lounges, or any eating and drinking establishment is required to report the base period selected for computing the ratio of food costs per dollar of sales, a statement of gross sales for the base period, a statement of total food costs during the base period and statement of special charges, not as cover and minimum charges, made in the base period.

Deadline for making this report was April 30. Now that deadline has passed, compliance on the part of such establishments is being checked. Ellis H. Boyd, district director, said. Boyd told businessmen that it is their responsibility to secure copies of the regulations and comply with them. Copies are available at the Commercial Office, Fort Worth District Office, Lanester, Tex.

Notice of the election has been posted at voting boxes throughout the county and is being published in this issue of The Free Press. Complete text of the notice appears on page nine of this newspaper.

The proposed $100,000 bond issue would be used for enlarging and making other necessary repairs and improvements and to provide additional equipment at the Haskell County Hospital. The bonds, if voted, would be retired over a period of not more than 20 years and would bear interest at the rate of three and one-half per cent, the election order sets out. The bonds can be retired without an increase in the present county tax rate, proponents of the proposal declare. Facilities of the County Hospital, which was built in 1939, have been overcrowded for several years, and the addition of one or more sections to the building and other contemplated improvements will be necessary to enable the institution to meet present-day needs of the people of Haskell county. Also, consideration is being given to completely modernize the hospital. Proponents of the bond project have pointed out that the improvement program has been given exhaustive study by the Board of Trustees of the hospital, county officials and representative citizens from all over the county over the past several years.

Summer Recreation Program of First Baptist Church Will Begin Friday

Cruch, Jr., as they have been assisted this week by workers in installing lights and playground equipment on the church lawn. The recreation program will be held each Friday evening from 8 to 10 p. m., and this time schedule will be rigidly observed, it was announced. In order that the entire membership might have part in the program information blanks have been distributed to all classes from Intermediate through the Ruth and Fishermen Sunday School classes with the request that each individual indicate the type of recreation preferred. Ladies of the church will be asked to assist in organizing activities for girls after the program is underway. Games and recreation facilities to be included in the program, and committees who will have full supervision in the various divisions, include: Softball—Durwood Jacobs and Olin King. Volley Ball—J. B. Gipson and R. A. Lane. Badminton and Tennis—Joe Williams and Wallace Wooten. Croquet—I. N. Simmons and member to be appointed. Table Tennis and Horseshoes—Royce Adkins and Oscie Renfrow. All those who are interested in the recreation program are invited to attend the first evening's activities Friday. Sponsors stressed the fact that the program would start and close on time.

Sixty per cent of the record $10,500 budget for the current year is in sight, directors were told, and when the membership campaign is concluded it is virtually certain that the budget can be realized. Financing of two C-C projects, the Christmas program and Spring Livestock Show is already assured through the organization's budget, it was announced.

RULE

County Agent Presents Information Concerning K. R. Bluestem Grass

County Agent F. W. Martin has received the following information from Texas A&M College about King Ranch Blue Stem Grass.

Reference is made to your recent inquiry concerning K. R. bluestem. First of all, let me give you a little story, familiar to you, to illustrate K. R. bluestem. Smooth bromegrass, Bromus inermis, was introduced in this country in 1884. One of the first improved strains or varieties selected out of smooth bromegrass was Achenbach bromegrass. A more recent variety of smooth bromegrass is Lincoln bromegrass.

Turkestan bluestem, Andropogon ischaemum, was introduced in the United States in 1926. It was grown on several of the experiment stations in Texas the first few years after 1926. On various occasions of field days and so forth county agents took small supplies of seed from the experiment stations and scattered it in their home county or ranches and farms where they felt that the grass might do well. This happened in connection with Turkestan bluestem which some promise in South Texas and in the gulf coast prairie regions of Texas and for this reason the research men began to do some work with Turkestan bluestem back in the '30's. The first work was to do some plant selecting in the species. The grass had been planted, as indicated above, on a large ranch in South Texas, the King Ranch. Soil conservation service technicians went into the King Ranch area and found a particular strain of this grass and increased the seed supply. This came to be known as K. R. bluestem, referring of course to King Ranch bluestem, and it is quite frequently called King Ranch bluestem as well as K. R. bluestem.

Incidentally, or coincidentally with the finding of the strain on the King Ranch, came the selecting of a strain by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at College Station which the experiment station people refer to as Yellow beardgrass. These two strains have been compared on the experiment station. Taxonomically there is no difference in them. From a standpoint of yield of seed, chemical composition, rate of growth, total yield and all other ways that can be measured there is no difference in the two selected strains or varieties. The seed supply of the strain selected by the experiment stations was increased but it was felt that further testing was necessary before the strain was released. Research work on Yellow beardgrass and K. R. bluestem has continued since 1940 on several different experiment stations in Texas. Most of the results have indicated that Yellow beardgrass or K. R. bluestem were inferior in quality to the good native and introduced grasses.

The grass is easily established, grows rapidly, produces a large tonnage of forage. The chemical composition of the grass is relatively low and thus the real value of planting the grasses is that it is a good soil conserving and soil organic matter building plant. The plant is very aggressive and it has been known to crowd out several species of desirable grasses.

During my travels last year, as pasture specialist, in Texas, I traveled in a large number of counties in Texas and actually the estimated area covered in my official visits amounted to an area about one and a half times the size of the state of Kansas. I had heard both good and bad reports about K. R. bluestem. Thus, during the last year in all of my visits, I was very much interested in learning from county agents, vocational agriculture teachers, veterans teachers and S. C. S. personnel as well as farmers and ranchers, their reaction to K. R. bluestem. I heard all kinds of success stories on the ease of establishment, the big money made from direct seeding and the tremendous growth made during the first year but I did not hear one success story insofar as the production of milk or beef. Of course I heard many stories about a man who heard about a man who heard about a man but I never got an authentic story or what I would consider an authentic story about making gains.

You can check with Woodward, Okla. Experiment Station. They have tried the grass on several different occasions and I understand made some good gains on K. R. last year but at the same time I would not, on the basis of one year's information, knowing what I know about what has been done in Texas, recommend the grass for planting for grazing purposes.

Most any of the large seed companies in Texas are likely to have some of the K. R. bluestem seed. Southeastern Kansas is approaching the northern edge of the limit of adaption according to the information I have.

Haskell Princess To Be Named For Wheat Festival

The Haskell Chamber of Commerce has been asked to pick the loveliest girl in town to be princess at the National Wheat Harvest Festival in Wichita Falls May 17 through 19.

As visiting royalty during the "One Wonderful Week," the princess will compete with other area girls for the coveted title of National Wheat Harvest Queen. Pat Harrison, senior in North Texas College at Denton, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Harrison, was Haskell Princess at the Wichita Falls festival last year.

Princesses from cities in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma will stay in Midwestern University dormitories during their 3-day reign at the festival. Each princess will receive gifts from Wichita Falls merchants, as well as a courtesy card that will enable her to get free soft drinks, meals and free movies while in Wichita Falls. Garden parties, teas and luncheons are on the agenda to honor the visiting girls. Each princess also will be honored May 19 in the gigantic three mile long Wheat Harvest Festival and Armed Forces Day Parade.

The Harvest Queen, to be selected by visiting dignitaries and movie stars, will be feted with her own Coronation show, a complete section in the big parade and will be presented lavish gifts from Wichita Falls businessmen. Among these prizes are furniture, record albums, clothes, electric appliances and cosmetics. The annual Wheat Festival in Wichita Falls celebrates the first wheat harvested in the nation. Other activities of the gala celebration include a downtown carnival day and night during the festivities, a coast-to-coast ABC national radio show and the Western Barn Dance Show.

When son gets near dad's size it certainly complicates the clothing situation.

OPS Checking On Eating, Drinking Establishments

A representative of the Fort Worth District Office of Price Stabilization will be in Haskell on May 16, to assist businessmen with their price regulations and required forms.

The representative will be at the Haskell Chamber of Commerce beginning at 9 a. m. He will be available to answer questions from businessmen and to aid them in making any reports required of their business.

"Practically all types of businesses now are Federal price regulated," Ellis H. Boyd, Fort Worth District Office of Price Stabilization Director, said. Boyd encouraged all businessmen from Haskell County who are interested in meeting with the representative to arrange to see him sometime during the day at the Chamber of Commerce.

"It is the purpose of our office to assist all businessmen in every way possible, so that they can comply more easily with the regulations," Boyd said.

He pointed out that many deadlines have already passed, and that some merchants have not yet complied with the regulations. Boyd said, however, that a majority of businessmen in Haskell County have been very cooperative and he wishes to compliment

It's the only new-type engine in any "new car"!

Chrysler FirePower

Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber... the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness... how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car. The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year... but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924! To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine... the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now... a Hemispherical combustion chamber... the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car. What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas. Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others... and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydraguide power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

County Council Of H. D. Clubs Meets Recently

The regular meeting of the Haskell County Council of Home Demonstration Clubs scheduled for May 5th was held Saturday April 29 in order to avoid conflict with the 4-H Girls Dress Revue on the first Saturday in May. Mrs. O. K. Oelke of Sagerton led Beautiful Texas as the opening song. Mrs. W. D. May, the secretary, read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Alice Dockery of Vernon, District Vice President, thanking the Council for their part in the lovely red lamp presented her by the Councils over the district. Mrs. J. C. Haliburton, Council chairman, urged that Haskell

County be represented at Wichita Falls on May 2 at 9 a. m. for Visiting Day at the State Hospital. A new date for the Recreation School in July will be announced later. Each Demonstration Club in the county is to have two representatives at the Civil Defense School to be held at the First Christian Church in Haskell from 9 a. m. until 3:30 p. m. May 7 through 11. A course in First Aid will be given. The Women's Dress Revue will be Saturday, June 2 which is regular council date and council will meet June 9 next time, as the May Meeting was held in April. Clothing leaders who failed to get the demonstration on the care of Skin and Hair will be given another chance for this demonstration by Miss Wirges at her office Wednesday May 2, at 10 a. m. Three delegates to the District Convention in Wellington on April 12, gave very interesting reports. Mrs. Ted Jetton of the Friendship Club told of "Twenty-five Years of Progress of THDA," as told by Mrs. Harris of Plainview. Mrs. Oelke gave a resume of a talk on Soil Conservation and National Unity. Mrs. Oelke stated, "We, as a nation have had very productive years now for several years, our land needs rest. We are the best fed nation on earth. We are healthy and vigorous. Our food is the best quality. We need to save the soil to retain all these blessings." Mrs. Oelke spoke on Civil Defense during rumors of war to help people not to be jittery. She stated, "If Russia were to bomb the United States only 20 per cent of the bombers can be stopped. We would have only eight minutes to prepare against the attack. When Nagasaki was bombed only 15% was destroyed because it was a military installation while Hiroshima was 50% destroyed because it was unprepared. Whenever a bomb falls fires will be started, water contaminated; there will be bodies to remove and hospitals to set up." Mrs. R. V. Hagle of the Blue Bonnet Club, THDA chairman, spoke in the interest of the purchase of an iron lung and asked that council members take that message back to their clubs. The next council meeting date is Saturday, June 9.

Mrs. J. H. Rutherford Is Speaker At Pledge Service of Wesleyan Guild

By Nancy Pence Painter

Mrs. J. H. Rutherford of Stamford, member of the Board of Missions of the Woman's Division of Christian Service, was guest speaker at the annual meeting and pledge service of Wesleyan Guild of the First Methodist Church, Monday evening May 7 in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe.

Mrs. Rutherford, the speaker of the evening, was introduced by Mrs. Cecil Gregory. Mrs. Gregory told of her friendship with Mrs. Rutherford over a period of years and of her desire to have her speak before the members of the Guild.

Mrs. Rutherford said she had given her life to Christ and after she had been elected to the national board of Missions, she realized fully her responsibility to represent little groups of women, such as the Guild in the state of Texas.

She said in her childhood she was a member of the Junior Missionary Training School. She explained the set-up of the Women's Division of Christian Service. It is the outgrowth of the old Missionary Associations. She added when the National Christian Service met in New York City, they then went to a small inn in the resort town of Buck Hill Falls, Pa. It was owned and operated by Quakers. She said it was ideal as it was between seasons and only their crowd was there. She stressed the Fellowship need in all Methodism was brought out so forcibly at the meeting.

When they returned to New York they went to the United Nations. She said they have 59 flags of various nations flying in the air constantly by a rotation plan so no nation will be slighted in their respective flag's position. Mrs. Bender has charge of religious groups that visit the United Nations.

She pointed out the representatives foreign lands and they had lunch where the various committees met. She said she realized regardless of the remarks made about the failures the United Nations are making, it is still achieving worth while results.

She said the official representatives wear American clothes but the groups and committee members wear their native dress. It was very impressive in seeing the types and colors worn by these peoples. She added that all Christian people should pray for the success of the United Nations.

The foreign missionaries are doing so much for the Hope of the World, which is Christian Peace.

She had some pieces of literature relative to the activity of the Service and she explained some of it to the Guild.

At the conclusion of Mrs. Rutherford's enlightening talk, Mrs. Gregory thanked the speaker. Then Mesdames J. A. Bynum, Brooks Middleton and W. O. Holden gave excerpts from the Bible and sang a song while the members made their pledges for the coming year on cards provided them.

Gifts were then presented to Mrs. Rutherford and the outgoing president, Mrs. Odell Bynum.

The decorations were in charge of Mrs. Billie Kemp.

ALWAYS BE CAREFUL DRIVING

The difference goes more than Skin-Deep

NOBODY wonders what you're driving when you roll by in this one.

In the 1951 line-up, its brand-new front-end styling stands out with a beauty all its own.

You're the proud owner of a Buick—and the whole world knows it.

But you—at the wheel—enjoy a long list of differences that go far deeper than looks.

The ride is different—level and true. You sit the road with special assurance—because Buick's torque-tube drive keeps rear wheels firmly aligned—soft coil springs on all four wheels soak up the bumps and bobbles—honest weight keeps you on a steady keel.

The power is different—eager and sure. Buick's high-compression Fireball engine does wonders with fuel—and no matter what you demand in emergency, there's horsepower to spare.

Handling is different—this car seems to steer itself on straightaway or curve—and swings lightly into parking spots inches shorter than you'd think you need.

Capping it all, there's the silken versatility of Dynaflo Drive,* that takes all the tenseness out of driving—responds to your slightest wish with a surging swoop of power.

No doubt about it, what you get in a Buick is far more than just a new car—it's a whole new experience in getting pleasurable from here to there.

So why not explore this difference? Come, take a Buick over and find out how very much satisfaction smart money can buy.

P-TA Game Night Attracts Record Crowd

A record crowd turned out for the Elementary P-TA Game Night Monday May 7. More than 150 children enjoyed movies while their parents and friends enjoyed games of bridge, canasta, dominoes and 42.

Homemade pie and coffee was served to adults and pie and punch to the youngsters. James Reed, principal of the Elementary school, acted as auctioneer to sell close to 100 cakes.

Mrs. Ira Hester, Jack Orr and J. A. Bynum showed movies throughout the evening. In a ticket sales contest Mrs. Nanny's room and Mrs. Bill Nellum's room tied in amount sold, and will both be given prizes by the P-TA.

The Parent-Teacher Association wishes to thank the friends and patrons of the school for their splendid cooperation for this affair, and for all projects of the year. Because of the interest and generosity of townspeople the P-TA is able to close a successful year free of debt and with enough money on hand to begin next year.
