$171,382 In County, State Taxes Paid During October

Approximately 50 per cent of total State and County ad valorem taxes assessed for 1951 in Haskell County were paid during the month of October, Tax Assessor-Collector R. A. Coburn estimated today, based on total payments at the end of last week.

Payments made the first three days this week, and mail remittances sent before Oct. 31 had not been tallied this morning, he explained.

Total tax payments through Saturday, Oct. 27 amounted to $171,382.69 or 55.48 per cent of the assessed total of $308,880.81 for 1951, Coburn reported. The 1951 tax levy is based on total assessed valuation of $13,677,610 on taxable property in the county.

Of the total $171,382.69 paid Oct. 27, State taxes amounted to $26,577.46; County and Precinct Road, $89,384.87; and County School districts $55,420.36.

Property owners who paid 1951 taxes during the month of October were entitled to a 3 per cent discount. On the total amount paid through last week, this discount amounted to $5,139.63, the assessor-collector reported. Dis- count on tax payments during November is 2 per cent, and December 1 per cent, he explained.

A total of 946 poll tax receipts and four exemptions were issued during October, Coburn reported. This is considerably higher than the number issued in October, 1950. Deadline for payment of the 1951 poll tax is Jan. 31, 1952.

Program of Magic Featured At Lions 'Ladies Night'

The introduction of Jim Dalton of Paducah as an "amateur" magician for a program at the annual Ladies night of Haskell Lions Club was an understatement, declared the audience, of approximately 70 guests who were mystified and entertained during the highly enjoyable program presented by the Paducah magician.

With the skill of the professional magician he turned out to be, Dalton presented a bewildering variety of magical stunts that captured the undivided interest and attention of his audience until the last point was registered on an intricate and intriguing "applause meter."

Lions Club president Royce Adkins presided for a brief business session, and introduced out-of-town visitors, after which the meeting was turned over to the program committee composed of Lions Jetty V. Clark and Francis C. Nickerson. Lion Nickerson presided as master of ceremonies and introduced Mr. Dalton as the entertainer for the evening.

Assisting Mr. Dalton on the stage in some of the numbers present were Mrs. Dalton Mrs. Royce Adkins and Mrs. Francis Nickerson.

Meal for the evening was prepared and served cafeteria style by the luncheon staff of the new Grade School, where the meeting was held. More than 30 members of the Lions Club and their wives, guests, and the out-of-town visitors, following out-of-town visitors, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Graham of Knox City, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Weaver and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Furr of Olney.

Rains Halt Cotton Gathering, Provide Moisture for Grain

Slow, soaking rains that began falling early Wednesday morning, accompanied by the first real taste of winter temperatures, brought a total precipitation amounting to 1.23 inches during the day Wednesday. Cloudy over- casts continued Thursday, bring- ing intermittent light mists.

Wednesday's rainfall boosted the moisture total to 2.37 inches received since last Friday, when .77 inch was received, with an additional .37 inch during the week end.

Haskell's total of more than two and one-quarter inches during the week end and to date was the heaviest rainfall in sev- eral months, and provided ample moisture in this immediate sec- tion for planting winter wheat.

Lighter rainfall was reported in some sections of the county, prin- cipally north and west of town, but the moisture received in those areas will be beneficial and will provide some winter season for planting, farmers said.

Slow Cotton Gathering
Rains Friday night slowed har- vest of the cotton crop, and few farmers had sent crews back into the fields before additional rains fell this week.

Slowing of the harvest was re- flected in the ginning reports from Haskell's five plants today. They reported a total of 583 bales ginned since last Thursday. Nor- mally, at this stage of the harvest, around 1,000 bales are ginned here weekly.

Thursday's ginning report boost- ed the season total for the five plants to 4,802 bales processed from the 1951 crop.

Despite interference with the cotton harvest, farmers generally welcomed this week's moisture as beneficial to the small amount of grain already planted, and as providing ample season for ad- ditional winter planting during the next few weeks.

50 Years Ago—Nov. 2, 1901

George B. Pidcock of Portales, N. M., has written Haskell parties that he has a herd of 1,450 good breeding ewes to trade for cattle. He also wants to pasture a few hundred head of cattle at a reasonable figure.

Some of our young men started a movement several weeks ago to organize a band or orchestra here. We learned yesterday that several of the instruments ordered had arrived, and that the organization would soon be perfected. Those that have joined so far are Caleb Terrell, C. J. Thomason, Dr. Wood and Dr. Litsey.

Considerable excitement was caused here Thursday when it was learned that the body of a man, shot through the head, had been found several miles from the Davis Store on the Stamford and Rayner road in the southwest part of the county. A brother of the dead man told Sheriff Collins and the sheriff of Stonewall county that he found his brother dead a short time after he heard a shot about midnight Wednesday. The man told officers that he and his brother and another man had an agreement to meet near the Swenson gate that night, and he was at the appointed place waiting for them when he heard the shot fired. Going in the direction of the sound, about 100 yards away, he came upon his brother, lying face down with a bullet wound in his head, and his horse tied close by. After further questioning, the officers took the man in custody and early Thursday arrested the third man he had mentioned. It developed that the shooting or suicide happened in Stonewall county, and officers of that county took charge of the case. The body of the dead man was brought here for burial.

Messrs. McCollum & Cason, our enterprising hardware, furniture and implement dealers, have added an extension of 58 feet to their already commodious building. This gives the building a total length of 158 feet. This allows them plenty of room to display their several lines of wares and makes their store the largest in town.

Rules Can Be Arbitrated

The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed

With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

90% For! 10% Against

Railroad workers are represented by 23 standard unions. By mutual agreement, 20 of these unions—comprising about 1,200,000 men, or more than 90%—are working under wages and rules agreed to by them and the railroads. But leaders of three unions—with only about 130,000 men, or less than 10%—still refuse, after more than a year of negotiations, to accept similar wage and rules agreements. These are even more favorable than the terms recommended by the Emergency Board appointed by the President.

Time to settle...

Yes, it certainly seems to be finally about time that the leaders of the three unions stop their delaying tactics—their quibbling. But the leaders of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors continue to refuse. They continue a course of dillying and dallying. It is definitely time to END THIS QUIBBLING!

On June 15, 1950, an Emergency Board appointed by the President under the terms of the Railway Labor Act—an Act largely fathered by the unions themselves—made its recommendations on certain wage and working conditions ("rules" in railroad language) which had been in dispute between employees and the railroads.

More Than 90% of Employees Accept
Since then, terms equal to or better than the Board recommendations have been accepted by about 1,200,000 railroad employees—more than 90% of the total of all workers. They are represented by 20 of the 23 standard railroad unions.

Less Than 10% Refuse
But three unions—with about 130,000 men, or less than 10% of the total—have refused to accept, even after months of negotiations. These three unions are the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, and the Order of Railway Conductors. These are three of the so-called "operating" unions. Already the highest paid men in the industry, their leaders demand still further advantages over other workers.

In all, there are about 270,000 operating employees. But not all of them, by any means, are represented by BLE, BLF&E, or ORC. As a matter of fact, less than half—132,000 to be exact—are in these three unions. More than half—about 140,000—are in other unions, principally the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. What makes the whole situation so hard to understand is that these 140,000 operating employees are working under wages and rules which the leaders of the other 130,000 say they cannot agree to.

What Do the Railroads Offer?

They offer these three unions the same settlement which was contained in a Memorandum of Agreement signed at the White House on December 21, 1950, by four brotherhoods and the railroads. Later these brotherhoods sought to repudiate this agreement. But on May 25, 1951, the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen signed a complete agreement carrying out the principles of the Memorandum Agreement of December 21. They have been working under this agreement since May 25.

What About Wages?

Under the terms of the agreement, yard engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving a wage increase of $.34 an hour ($2.72 a day) and road engineers, firemen and conductors would now be receiving an increase of 19 1/2 cents an hour ($1.56 per day). Large sums of retroactive pay have already accrued and if the agreement is carried out, will be paid promptly.

What About "Cost of Living" Increases?
The White House Agreement includes an "escalator" clause under which wages will be geared to changes in the Government's cost-of-living index. Two such increases—April and July, 1951—have already been paid to the 90% of railroad employees covered by signed agreements.

What About the 40-Hour Week?
The White House Agreement calls for the establishment of the 40-hour week in principle, for employees in yard service. The employees can have it any time after January 1, 1952, provided the manpower situation is such that the railroads can get enough men to perform the work with reasonable regularity at straight time rates. If the parties do not agree on the question of availability of manpower, the White House Agreement provides arbitration by a referee appointed by the President.

What Else Do the Union Leaders Demand?
The continued quibbling of the leaders of the three unions has to do principally with rules changes, which have already been agreed to by the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen. Of these, the principal one seems to be that having to do with so-called "interdivisional service"—runs which take in two or more seniority districts.

The union leaders would bar progress and efficiency in the industry, and better service to the public, by maintaining a situation where they can arbitrarily stop a railroad from establishing such interdivisional runs. The carriers propose that if a railroad wishes to set up an interdivisional run, the railroad and the unions should try to agree on such run and the conditions which should surround its establishment, and if the railroad and the unions can't agree, the matter will be submitted to arbitration.

But the three union leaders still refuse. Rules Can Be Arbitrated
The railroads have not only offered these three unions the same rules agreed to by the BRT and covered by the White House Agreement, but have even agreed to submit such rules to arbitration.

The Industry Pattern Is Fixed
With the pattern so firmly established in the railroad industry, it seems fair to suggest that the leaders of BLE, BLF&E, and ORC stop their quibbling and take action to make the railroad labor picture 100% complete. Certainly today's economic and international situation calls for a united front. And certainly no good reason has been advanced why these three unions should be preferred over all other railroad employees.

We are publishing this and other advertisements to talk to you at first hand about matters which are important to everybody.

Service of Dedication at Pinkerton Baptist Church Attracts Large Gathering Sunday

Over 200 people gathered at Pinkerton Baptist Church Sunday evening Oct. 28 to share in the Service of Dedication, setting apart the new baptistry for the purpose intended. The gathering was a joint service between the Sweet Home Baptist Church and the Pinkerton group, and it was well attended despite a drizzly, drizzly afternoon that had brought up to an inch of rain in some parts of the community.

The following program was listened to attentively by the packed house. Both church groups had met in their respective churches for their regular Training Union programs before the joint service began.

Congregational Singing — Directed by Carl Norman, choirster, Pinkerton Church.

Quartet—"Is Your All on the Altar?" — Mrs. Buddy Bishop, Mrs. Gilbert Bishop, Mrs. Frank Forsythe and Rev. R. M. Parsley.

Prayer.
Baptism As Baptist Believe It—Jack D. Wester, Pinkerton pastor, Trio — Take the World, But Give Me Jesus. Mrs. Boyce Foil, Carl Norman and Claude Norman.

Prayer of Thanksgiving—Mrs. Frank (Mother) Norman.
Dedication Message—A Challenge to Go. Rev. R. M. Parsley, pastor Sweet Home Church.

Prayer.
Prayer of Dedication — Mrs. Jess Glover.

Duet—All on the Altar, Otis O'Pray and daughter, Carolyn.

The baptismal service followed this program.

A beautiful floral offering, consisting of Memorial bouquets, made pulpit and baptistry to appear in radiant beauty and centered attention on the beautiful baptistry river scene painted by Mrs. Curtis Gibson of the Sweet Home Church. Giant mums of yellow, white or orchid were arranged in gorgeous array. Select dahlias were furnished by Mrs. Willie Hedgepeth of Rule. All other flowers were from Conner's Nursery and Floral and were arranged by them. Memorial bouquets, honoring members of the church who were once a part of the congregation, were listed as here:

Mrs. Lennie Dunnam, by her son, Kent Dunnam.

Mrs. Ruth Ingram, by friends who cherish her memory.
Mr. Frank Norman, by wife and children.

Mr. J. C. Holt, Sr., by wife and children.
Mr. W. M. Harrell and Ollie Harrell, by Mrs. W. M. Harrell and children.

Besides those present from the two churches holding the service were visitors from First Church, Rule; and from other places. Uncle Joe Smith and wife, and his sister, a Mrs. Brown and her son, all from Knox City were especially honored visitors. Uncle Joe and his wife were married at Pinkerton 56 years ago, and Mrs. Brown, the sister, was one of the charter members of the church, the only one now living. Next oldest in membership at Pinkerton was Mother Norman, who has been a continuous member of the Pinkerton Baptist Church for over 54 years. Also present were Mother Harrell, Mother Lees, Mother Gibson, Mother Carroll, Mother Saffel and other respected and long-time members of the church.

Pictures were taken by Mr. Blohm of the Blohm Studio, Haskell.

Former Haskell Residents Move To Rankin

Mr. and Mrs. James Erwin Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ray Moore and baby daughter have recently moved to Rankin, Texas. Mr. Moore, formerly of Haskell, is now employed as a switcher for Blackwood & Nichols Drilling Co. while Mrs. Moore is the Rankin High School librarian. Mrs. Moore is a former student of Haskell High School.

Future Farmers Win Awards at State Fair Show

Three calves entered by members of the Haskell FFA chapter in the Junior Livestock Show at the State Fair were award winners, and two of the youths sold their calves after the show.

A steer exhibited by Sid Woodson placed sixth in the class for steers weighing over 1,000 pounds. In the lightweight steer class, 700 pounds and under, the calf shown by Charles Burnett won a $20 premium, and Bobby Stone was awarded a $16 premium on his entry in the heavyweight division.

Both Burnett and Stone sold their calves at 42½ and 47 cents a pound. Don Rhoads and Bill Thomas, members of the local chapter, also exhibited animals in the show. The youths were accompanied to Dallas by Haskell Stone, chapter adviser.

All-Texas Methodist Evangelism Drive Underway In Northwest Conference

By TRUETT G. CRAFT, Minister First Methodist Church

The North Texas, Northwest Texas, and Central Texas Annual Conferences are engaged this week in both Preaching and Visitation Evangelism.

The reports show that an average of a thousand members are being added to the Methodist Church each day. In fact the first two days of visitation have recruited more than five thousand members.

In two days the Northwest Texas Conference alone has added nearly two thousand members.

There were some four hundred people who attended the Stamford District Youth rally at Stamford on last Sunday.

On next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock there will be a Methodist Mass meeting of all the members of the Stamford District. The meeting will be held at the football stadium at Stamford. Should it rain, the meeting will be held at St. John's Methodist Church, Stamford.

We are planning on five thousand people to attend. The First Methodist Church of Haskell is asked to have present at least three hundred members. We would like to have a caravan of at least one hundred cars filled with people to attend. We are asking that the Paint Creek Methodist Church have at least 75 people present.

We have twenty-two charges in the Stamford District, and it is expected that some five thousand people attend. People of other churches are welcome to attend.

Sunday morning will be membership day. On next Sunday morning we will receive all new members into the membership of the church. Our work here is just underway, and we do not know how many new members we shall have to present for membership.

We have a great preacher in the person of Dr. A. Y. Brown, of the First Methodist Church, New Albany, Miss. Dr. Brown is an able minister and is bringing to my people great messages on each evening at 7:30 o'clock. He is also the inspirational preacher at our District Preachers' meeting held at Rule on each week day morning.

We are having a great revival in Methodism these days. It is a Revival of Work which makes people feel good when they do good. We thank God for these days of service.

Pfc. Scotty Helber, Now In Tokyo, Writes Of High Points of Plane Trip Over Pacific

Pfc. Scotty Helber of this city, who recently was transferred from the Pentagon in Washington to a station with General Army Headquarters in Tokyo, arrived at his new station Oct. 21. In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Helber, the Haskell soldier gave an interesting account of the trip by plane from Washington and the long plane crossing of the Pacific, with stops in Hawaii and other island points before arriving in Japan.

In his highly interesting letter, Pfc. Helber described in detail the highlights of the more than 9,000 mile plane trip and his impressions of the major points he visited briefly on the trip. Of Japan, he wrote, "After one day in the heart of the Orient, I don't know where to begin. I'm absolutely amazed, fascinated, and things I have seen already—and this is only the last phase of a very memorable trip that I've just completed."

Pfc. Helber wrote of a brief stay in San Francisco and sights visited there before taking off on the hop across the Pacific. First leg of flight took him to Hawaii, which he described as a place of indescribable beauty.

After Hawaii came in rapid succession Johnson Island, Wake, Iwo Jima, and finally Tokyo. Pfc. Helber wrote that he was one of a trio of three traveling together—a Captain, a Sergeant and himself. They were surprised when they learned at San Francisco they had been assigned to a flight to Hawaii in the personal plane of Admiral Hoskins, Pacific Fleet Commander.

From Hawaii, their first stop en route to Japan was at Johnson Island, which Pfc. Helber described as a "tiny pin point in the Pacific." Next, came Wake Island, a refueling stop for airplanes. Then Iwo, Jima, and on to Japan.

The vast distances of the Pacific are almost beyond imagination, Pfc. Helber wrote, and to illustrate he listed the flight time of the various "humps" between stops on the Pacific plane crossing. In all, slightly more than 46 hours flight time was logged, he said, and he estimated average cruising speed of the plane on which he travelled was 185 miles per hour.

Although he had been in Tokyo only one day, young Helber wrote that the city had many fine shops where there were bargains in everything from brief cases to fine china.

Mrs. W. E. Johnson Hosts Annual Dinner Party For Rainbow Sewing Club Members

Mrs. W. E. Johnson was a clever hostess to members of the Rainbow Sewing Club Saturday night at her home when she entertained with an Autumn party. The decorations all carried out the signs of autumn and were lovely.

A large tree with autumn leaves hanging or drifting from its branches was very clever. It was constructed of drawing paper and made to stand upright against the wall, looking very natural and colorful.

The hostess manages to have these annual parties at different seasons of the year and always brings out that particular season's outstanding beauties. Her guests say every party is better than the last, and always marvel at the many artistic ideas she holds and puts into use, bringing out the attractiveness of everything.

This time she had as co-hostess her daughter, Mrs. Orno Riley of Brownfield. They prepared a bountiful fried chicken dinner for their guests, and the dining table was loaded with tasty foods.

As guests served their plates they were directed to tables, then coffee was poured.

When all had again assembled in the living room, a program was directed by Mrs. Flossie Rogers. Each guest told of events occurring in their lives in the month of their birth, and they proved highly interesting. A number brought many laughs. Several songs were sung and numerous games played. Several members won prizes with their skill.

An annual party at Mrs. Johnson's always has an outstanding feature—a Treasure Hunt—which draws interest from beginning to end. This year guests couldn't arrive in time to have it outdoors, so it was directed through the rooms of her home and each one found a lovely gift at the end of her travel.

Farmers Asked to Collect and Sell Scrap Iron

Steel and more steel is needed by industries of the nation engaged in building weapons for defense, as well as items for civilian use. Steel mills can increase their output if greater supplies of scrap iron is made available to them. New steel is approximately half scrap and half pig iron and reports from the steel industry points out that supplies of scrap now on hand at the mills is dangerously low.

During the next month, farmers are urged to collect and sell all scrap that cannot be used on the farm. According to B. F. Vance, chairman the Texas Mobilization Committee, farm scrap is in special demand since it includes some of the heavier scrap iron and steel now needed by the mills.

Vance suggests that farmers check the farm for such scrap as worn-out plow points and shares, cultivator shovels and sweeps, horsedrawn equipment which has been replaced by tractors, unusable wire and cables, old storage batteries and other items that no longer are used on the farm.

Farm machinery or equipment that can be repaired should not be scrapped, Vance says nor should metal that can be used for making repairs on other implements or equipment. Farmers are urged not only to make the best possible use of all machines and tools now on hand but to conserve all essential materials.

Discarded equipment unless collected and sold for scrap usually rusts away and no one derives any benefit from it. Periodic cleanup campaigns covering the entire farm also help to keep the farm tidy and more beautiful, says Vance. And farmers should remember that scrap is also needed to make new steel that is used in making more and better farm machinery and equipment.

You—and the SCRAP METAL EMERGENCY

ANSWERS every farmer should have to questions about scrap iron and steel

Q. Why is iron and steel scrap a matter of importance to farmers?
A. Steel for our Country's defense program and civilian economy is being produced at the highest annual rate ever... and this will be greatly increased in 1935. Farm machinery and equipment must come from this supply. As steel production increases the need for scrap increases.

Q. How does scrap figure in the production of steel?
A. One pound of scrap is needed to make two pounds of steel.
Q. Is scrap getting scarce?
A. Yes, the supply of scrap of the steel mills and foundries is not increasing fast enough to meet the needs of expanding steel production. Yet, there are millions of tons of idle iron and steel scrap, in small amounts, on farms throughout the country.

Q. What if the needed scrap isn't obtained?
A. That will mean a serious loss of steel production... fewer products will be made of steel. It will mean more shortages of civilian products. Defense needs come first.

Q. Why not use pig iron instead of scrap?
A. Every ton of scrap conserves approximately 2 tons of iron ore, 1 ton of coal, nearly 1/2 ton of limestone and many other vital natural resources—to say nothing of transportation facilities. Besides, there are not enough blast furnaces to produce the iron needed to maintain production.

Q. How can more scrap be furnished?
A. By everybody pitching in—as we always do in every emergency—and searching out all possible sources of scrap. Manufacturers of all kinds of products are conducting scrap drives. Old ships are being salvaged... scrap is being obtained from countless sources including farms.

jects made of metal. It may be resting and rusting in fence corners, in the fields, the barnyard or the tool shed.

News From Sagerton

Close neighbors here in Sagerton were startled early Tuesday morning about 2 a. m. when they were awakened by the screams of Mrs. C. C. Romero. Then they saw the home of Mr. and Mrs. Romero, a Latin American family, was blazing. The origin of the fire was unknown. The family of seven were lucky to escape through a window when they awoke and found their home in flames. The father returned into the flaming house to rescue his small son and they were unable to save anything. Even their car, which was under a shed joining the house, was completely burned. The house belonged to Oscar Manske and he had remodeled it for the family only last year.

The people of Sagerton donated cash, clothing and household supplies for the family who are now living with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Romero and family.

The Sagerton Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. Will Stegemoller Wednesday afternoon of last week and Wednesday night to make two quilts for Mr. and Mrs. Romero and children. Several other ladies, who were not club members also helped.

The Pioneer Birthday Club met in the home of Mrs. R. N. Sheid Friday, Oct. 26 for an all day meeting. At noon luncheon was served from the covered dishes brought by each member. The members present were Miss Fannie Kay of Haskell and Mrs. J. W. Martin of Haskell, Ewell Kittley, John Clark, Anna Hankins, R. O. Gibson, Sr., Pete Lusk, Ben Hess, and the hostess, Mrs. Fannie Hudspeth. Mrs. Lynn Flowers and Mrs. Ola Hertenberger all of Old Glory were visitors.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lehmann Thursday were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Holle, Mr. and Mrs. Norvell Lehmann, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Lehmann, Adrienne and Willie D. Mr. and Mrs. Sara Lehmann, Mrs. A. Nierdieck, Mrs. and Mrs. August Ender, Ernest Bredthauer, all of Sagerton and Mr. and Mrs. Willie Lehmann, Mrs. Chas. Helm Sr., and Mrs. Emma Holle, all of Brenham.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gay of San Angelo visited in the Jess Thames home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Stegemoller accompanied by Miss Dahlia Knippling went to Lubbock last week end to visit their son, Marvin, who is a student at Texas Tech. They also visited near Slaton with relatives.

A daughter, Victoria Ann, was born to Rev. and Mrs. Virgil Meyers at the Stamford Hospital Oct. 24. Rev. Meyers is the pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church here.

The Sagerton Home Demonstration Club met in the home of Mrs. M. Y. Benton Tuesday, Oct. 23. Miss Thelma Wirges, Haskell County demonstration agent, showed the ladies some tips in making an angel food cake. She made an angel food cake and it was served to the ladies on the refreshment plate with sandwiches, potato chips, cookies and Cokes.

United Nations Day was observed and used as the theme for the program. Mrs. Oelke led the singing of The Song of Peace. Mrs. John Clark read an appropriate scripture and Mrs. Oelke gave a short lecture on "The Meaning of United Nations." During the business meeting a United Nations poster was displayed.

Traffic Crash Fatal To Throckmorton Man Monday Night

Lacie Cochran, 50, of Throckmorton was killed instantly Monday night when the car he was driving sideswiped a truck loaded with feed, went out of control and turned over several times in a ditch about nine miles south of Throckmorton.

Cochran's son, Leroy, 23, a passenger in the car with his father, escaped with cuts and bruises and was later dismissed from Throckmorton Memorial Hospital where he was carried for emergency treatment.

J. E. Davis of Weinert was driving the truck, which was loaded with maize. The truck was damaged considerably. The mishap occurred at the junction of Highway 283 and 183, south of Throckmorton about 7 p. m.

Investigating officers were Throckmorton Sheriff Garland Shaw and Deputy William Halbert, and the Highway Patrol unit from Breckenridge.

Cochran is survived by his wife; the son, and two brothers, Tilton and Acie Cochran, all of Throckmorton.

Mayor Courtney Hunt Voices Opposition To Three Proposed Changes In Constitution

Mayor Courtney Hunt, former State Representative from this district, and former Democratic Committeeman from the 24th Senatorial District, has prepared a brief analysis of the five constitutional Amendments on which voters will ballot, Nov. 19th.

The Haskell city official declared that he was opposed to three of the proposed changes: The pension system for county officers and employees; the rural fire prevention district amendment; and the Old Age Assistance amendment. He favors the U-T bond investment amendment, and the Veterans Land Board amendment.

"Few voters have the time and opportunity to study the full meaning of the Amendments," Mayor Hunt said in a statement to The Free Press, continuing "Here is my version on each amendment in the order they will appear on the ballot, and voters may take it for what it is worth."

His summary follows:
No. 1. This amendment is to authorize a statewide system of retirement and disability Pension for County Officers and Employees.

I will vote against this Amendment, because Texas already has laws adequately providing for setting up of retirement and disability funds for County Officials and employees. It does not provide that both the County and employees contribute to the fund, and does not provide death benefits. Employees couldn't be under the Federal Social Security act if covered by another government retirement system.

No. 2. This is a Bond Investment Amendment permitting the investing of the permanent University of Texas funds in securities other than bonds of the United States, the State of Texas and certain municipal bonds.

I will vote for this Amendment, because it will materially improve the income to the State University, and will reduce the demand of the State's general revenue fund for appropriations, by permitting investing in high grade stocks, returning 4 to 6%, compared to the University's 2 1/2%.

No. 3 Amendment to Authorize a maximum of 50 cents on each $100 valuation of property in rural districts to provide equipment and personnel for fire fighting.

I shall vote against this Amendment because the Amendment does not limit the size or power of such district, or define rural fire prevention. Commissioners courts already have power to purchase county fire fighting equipment.

No. 4. This Amendment permits the total amount of bonds that may be issued by veterans land board to be $100 million instead of $25 million.

This amendment will not cost the State money as the program has proved self sustaining. Veterans can better afford to buy farms and ranches under the long term, low interest program and more idle land will be put into production. I will support this amendment.

No. 5. Amendment to increase from $35 million to $42 million, the limitation in State assistance to the needy blind, the needy aged and the needy children.

This Amendment was not voted out by a friendly legislature. It could wreck the Social Welfare program. This Amendment should be defeated, and concentrate on electing a legislature friendly to Social Welfare. A vote against this amendment is a vote to pay Old Age Assistance funds to only bona fide Texas citizens and not give them to foreigners and new comers. Your vote against the unfair Old Age Pension Amendment will prevent the raiding of our Texas Pension rolls by thousands of Mexicans, displaced persons and others not qualified. If these foreigners are allowed pension, as the amendment provides, present recipients would have their payments CUT, not increased.

With a Desire to Serve . . .

As always it is our desire to be of the greatest possible service to our clients and the general public. Therefore, we offer you the following information which is of importance to every person who owns or drives an automobile in the state of Texas.

Here's What You Should Know About The New Texas "Safety Responsibility Law"

Enforcement Begins January 2, 1952.

1 On this date, the new Safety Responsibility Law, as passed by the Legislature goes into effect. This law was designed to protect you against financially irresponsible drivers and owners of motor vehicles involved in accidents. It affects all drivers and motor vehicle owners (except Federal, State, County and City-owned Cars.)

What Must You Do After An Accident?

2 Under existing laws, you must file a written report to the Department of Public Safety, if your car is involved in an accident where there is a death, an injury or property damage in excess of $25. Under the new law, a written report must be filed within ten days if your car is in an accident resulting in death, injury or property damage in excess of $100.

You Don't Have To Carry Liability Insurance, But . . .

3 If you are not insured against bodily injury and property damage liability, you must be able to deposit with the Department of Public Safety security equal to the estimated damage, not exceeding $15,000.00, to cover all claims growing out of an accident anywhere in Texas in which you or your motor vehicle were involved. If you cannot establish financial responsibility for the future, your driver's license and your motor vehicle license plates are automatically suspended.

It's Easy to Establish Financial Responsibility

4 with a motor vehicle liability insurance policy. If you do not now have such a policy, call your local insurance agent today. He is a qualified insurance counselor who will be happy to advise you concerning your needs.

What is the Minimum of Your Liability?

5 The law permits each driver to establish the following minimum limits of liability; up to $5,000.00 for injuries sustained by one person; up to $10,000.00 for all personal injuries resulting from one accident and up to $5,000.00 for property damage. You do not have to establish such liability but it is the easiest way.

Select An Established Insurance Agent.

6 An agent should know the insurance business and represent well-known dependable capital stock insurance companies and not an agent that is here today and gone tomorrow. A telephone call will find us ready to serve you—not only NOW—but years from now.

Quarterbackers See Notre Dame-SMU Film Tuesday

Members of the Quarterback Club saw a film of the 1949 Cotton Bowl game between Notre Dame and SMU at their meeting Tuesday night and heard reports on the Throckmorton game and the coming game with Merkel here Friday night.

Coach Royce Smith termed the game Friday with the Badgers as the crucial contest of the season. A win would set the Indians up as distinct contender for the district honors, and despite the fact the Tribe's squad will be small, Coach Smith declared the Indians had the stuff to defeat Merkel if the team is "clicking" Friday night.

Club president Thos. Roberson reported that advance tickets for the Texas - Oklahoma Colored Classic were going fast. Ticket chairman Chas. Swinson only had something like 150 reserved seat tickets remaining Tuesday, he said. A trophy to be presented the winning team in the Abilene-Frederick classic has been ordered. Quarterbackers were told. All Q-B members were urged to attend the pre-game Pep Rally

Supt. Iva Palmer Advised All County Schools Accredited

Mrs. Iva Palmer, County School Superintendent, has been advised that accreditation reports sent by her office for 5 elementary school districts in Haskell County for 1950-51 have been appraised. All of the schools for which the reports were sent have a clear accreditation status.

Schools for which the county sent reports included Weinert, O'Brien, Sagerton, Paint Creek and Mattson. They will be in the list of accredited schools in the Public School Directory for 1951-52.

In advising Supt. Palmer of the appraisal, Lee Wilborn, assistant commissioner for instruction of the Texas Education Agency, said: "You and the teachers in your schools are to be congratulated on your efforts to provide adequate educational opportunities for the children of your county."

Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Crandall of Abilene spent Sunday with relatives and friends here.

to be held downtown Friday at 3 p. m. Dr. Wm. Ponder and Junior High School Coach Jones will make brief talks at the rally.

Training Classes For Area Firemen Being Held Here

Joe Fogaley, Field Instructor in Fire Marshal Training of Texas A&M College extension service, held the first of a series of training classes for area firemen at the City Hall Monday night.

Present for the initial session were fire chiefs and fire marshals from Stamford, Hamlin, Rule Anson and Throckmorton, in addition to 23 members of the Haskell Fire Department.

Representatives from the neighboring fire departments voted to accept an invitation of the local department to hold five nightly classes here. Previously it had been planned to alternate the meetings in five towns, but it was the opinion of those present that Haskell provided the most central point for the area.

Fogaley's instruction for the five-night school will deal with the duties and responsibilities of City Fire Marshals. The first class dealt with public relations, and succeeding classes will take up laws and ordinances, inspections, fire investigations, and records and reports.

In the introductory class Monday night, Fogaley, assisted by Fire Marshal John E. Martin, gave a series of interesting demonstrations on common causes of fires in homes and business establishments. Fogaley, in his introductory remarks, declared that 88 per cent of all fires were due to "faulty human behavior"—a polite definition of carelessness.

Additional classes were held Tuesday and Wednesday nights, and following tonight's session, the final class will be held Monday night Nov. 5. Each class is for three hours.
