C. R. Paden To Report On Work In Italy In Talk at Church of Christ

On Wednesday night, April 18 at 7:30 p. m., C. R. Paden of Frascati, Italy will speak at the Haskell Church of Christ to give a report on the work being carried on in Italy. Bro. Paden is eminently qualified to speak on this subject for he has had a leading part in this work from the beginning. In November, 1947, he and William Hatcher of Detroit, Michigan were sent to Italy to investigate the possibility of beginning the work of the church of Christ there. After two months they returned, and throughout 1948 preparation was made for this beginning.

Bro. Paden and 12 other workers entered Italy in January, 1949 and began the work. The teaching program was begun immediately and has been carried forward vigorously since that time. Also, several thousand people were clothed with the approximately 150,000 lbs. of clothing that was sent to Italy by the churches of Christ in America. Unfortunately the Italian Government will no longer allow the church to do this work.

In May, 1949, Franscati Orphan's Home for boys was started. Bro. Paden is the superintendent of this Home. At present 30 boys are in the Home. Nine churches have been established during the past two years with several hundred converts. A Correspondence Course with students in every section of Italy is a part of the work of the church. All of these things will be discussed in the meeting Wednesday night. Bro. Paden returned to America on February 12, 1951 and can give a picture of Italy as it is today; a picture unknown to the tourist or the business man during their brief stay in that country. He will return to Italy to resume his work about the middle of June, 1951. Everyone is invited to hear this young preacher of the gospel make this report.

High Winds Cause Damage At Sky Vue Drive In Theatre

Grand Jurors Will Be Outlined by District Judge Ben Charlie Chapman Monday Morning

Grand Jurors will be outlined by District Judge Ben Charlie Chapman Monday morning, after the court term is officially convened. Judge Chapman will also make the appointment of a member to serve as foreman of the Grand Jury.

Complaints Awaiting Investigation by Grand Jury Range from Assault to Murder and Swindling by Worthless Check, to Misdemeanor Theft, Court Officials Said

The following persons have been summoned as prospective Grand Jurors: Bill Fouts, Haskell. C. A. Jackson, Rule. Terry Robertson, Rochester. Howard Montgomery, Haskell. Sam Cobb, Luaders. Dennis Williams, Rochester. Guy Marshall, O'Brien. Thurman Rhoads, Haskell. A. D. May, Haskell. Cliff LeFevre, Sargent. Milton Rowan, O'Brien. H. W. Smith, Welnet. Joe E. Cloud, Rule. Bert Davis, O'Brien. R. O. Henry, Rule. J. D. Robris, Jr., Haskell.

Petitions bearing the signatures of 417 property taxpaying voters of Haskell County requesting that a $100,000 Hospital Bond election be submitted to the voters, was presented to the Commissioners Court at its regular meeting Monday, April 9.

At the close of the Court session, officials announced that a detailed study of the proposal would be made, and indicated that the election order would be passed at an early date.

County Judge Alfred Turnbow explained that it would be necessary to prepare tentative plans and estimates of the proposed improvements and expansion of the present County Hospital requested by proponents of the bond issue before the proposition can be submitted in an election. He expressed the belief that it might be possible to work out the preliminary details during the next week or ten days, and this would permit calling the election at an early date.

Advocates of the hospital improvement project point out that expansion of the county institution has been a growing need for several years, and that much new hospital equipment is needed at the present time to modernize facilities of the institution. As tentatively planned, the improvement project if authorized by voters, would enlarge the building from a 20-bed to a 35-bed hospital, with addition of at least one or possibly two wings to the present structure. The proposed bond issue could be retired without an increase in the present county tax rate, advocates of the project declare.

Plans Being Completed for 27th Annual County Singing Convention Here Sunday, April 22

Plans are being completed this week for the 27th annual program of the Haskell County Singing Convention to be held Sunday, April 22 in the American Legion Building in this city. Halie E. Chapman, president of the organization announced today.

The convention program, which has been held in the First Christian Church in previous years, will be given in the Legion Building this year due to the fact that a revival meeting will be in progress at the church on the convention date, Chapman explained.

The convention program will begin at 10 a. m. Sunday and continue throughout the morning and afternoon.

A brief business session will be held at 1 p. m., at which time the annual election officers will be held. Present officers, in addition to Chapman as president, are Bailey Guess, vice president, and Mrs. Troy Ash, secretary.

The Haskell County Convention, one of the oldest organizations of singers in West Texas, each year attracts hundreds of singers and visitors for the annual program. Plans are being made to arrange accommodations for a capacity audience in the large Legion Building, and a public address system will be installed to carry the program to listeners outside the auditorium.

Due to widespread interest and the large number of out-of-town singers, quartets and other groups who have accepted invitations to attend, the attendance at this year's convention is expected to be the largest in several years, Chapman said.

Among some of the well-known quartets and song leaders who have accepted invitations to attend the convention are the Stamps Ozark Quartet of Wichita Falls; Henry Shipp Quartet from Lubbock; S. E. Clark and his quartet from Abilene, the Tankersley Quartet, and the Haskell IOOF Quartet. A number of other quartets and trios have advised convention officials of their plans to attend the Haskell program. Invitations have been extended to singers and musical groups in a number of area towns and cities, including Throckmorton, Elbert, Olney, Seymour, Stamford, Anson, Spur, Eastland, Aspermont, Snyder and Dallas and others.

Arrangements are being made for a one and one-half hour broadcast of the convention program from 1:30 to 3 p. m. over Station KDWT, Stamford. Quartets, trios, and individual vocalists will be featured in this broadcast from the convention floor, it was announced.

"Chasing Chinks" Towards 38th" Marine Writes

"We're still chasing Chinks towards the 38th," writes a Haskell Marine from Korea.

He is Corporal Howard B. Wilson, son of Mrs. R. H. Darnell of this city. A veteran of World War II, when he served with the Marines in the South Pacific war zone, Cpl. Wilson was recalled to active duty last summer.

He is in a heavy artillery unit of the 11th Marines, First Marine Division. In a letter to his mother, written from Hongchon, South Korea, and dated March 22, Corp. Wilson told that they were pursuing the retreating Chinese Communists in the face of severely bad weather. Snow was falling at the time he wrote, he said.

According to dispatches, the First Marine Division and other U. N. forces have reached and crossed the 38th parallel at several points.

Cooperation Needed In Control of Many Contagious Diseases

Speaking of the precautions that should be taken in households during and at the close of an illness from any of the "catching" diseases which are prevalent at all seasons, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said recently: "Any plan for the prevention or control of this sort, depends upon the intelligent cooperation of individuals and communities with the medical profession and the health authorities for its success."

"Those who are in charge of persons suffering from influenza, pneumonia, tuberculosis, scarlet fever, measles, infantile paralysis or any other of the diseases spread by discharges from the nose or throat, are warned that these discharges are sources of great danger, and are urged to have the patient use paper handkerchiefs or soft cheesecloth, that can be disinfected or burned or otherwise safely disposed of."

"The sterilization of dishes and utensils used in the sick room, by boiling after each use of them, and of the patient's clothing, sheets, towels, and pillow cases, are equally necessary. Then, at the close of the illness, a thorough cleaning of the room, bedding and personal belongings of the patient, scrubbing the floors and woodwork, and opening the place to the fresh air and sunlight, are urged as a final precautionary measure."

"Fortunately, the best disinfectants yet discovered are within reach of everybody. They are plenty of hot water and soap, fresh air and sunshine."

Now is the time to make plantings in home gardens of squash, cucumbers, pole beans, bush beans, cantaloupes, peas, okra, spinach, eggplant and watermelons. Be sure to include in tomato plantings at least a few plants of the varieties that bear well during the hot summer.

Water Conservation Practices Increase Cotton Production on Rolling Plains

Water appears to be the limiting factor in the production of cotton on the Rolling Plains.

Cotton yields were increased 24 percent by contouring and 57 percent by using closed level terraces at Spur Experiment Station, while the use of commercial fertilizer, barnyard manure and sorghum litter on small test plots failed to increase the yield.

Three fields with straight rows, contour rows, and contour rows and closed level terraces have been planted to cotton continuously since 1927. The soils on the fields are largely Abilene clay loam, and the slope averages five-tenths percent (0.5%).

An average annual yield of 122 pounds of lint per acre for straight row farming was increased to 151 pounds by contouring. Where closed level terraces were used with contour rows, the yield was increased to 192 pounds, an average of 70 pounds more lint per acre annually than from straight rows.

Average annual runoff was reduced from 2.75 inches to 1.95 inches by using contour rows. There was no runoff from the area with closed level terraces.

Progress Report 1340, which gives a summary of 24 years of water conservation tests at Spur, is available from the Publications Office, Texas Agricultural Experiment Station, College Station, Texas.

Increase In Home Gardens Indicated This Spring

The number of home gardens in Texas is increasing this spring in response to the expanded garden and food preservation program announced by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan.

J. J. Lucy, Rains county agricultural agent, reports that interest in gardening in that area is high as the prices of fresh and canned vegetables continue to rise. He expects the number of gardens in Rains county to be twice the average for the last four or five years.

Garden seed sales from local seed stores in Cooke county have been unusually large, according to County Agent B. T. Haws.

J. E. Hutchinson, associate extension horticulturist of A & M College, points out that April is a good month for planting squash, cucumbers, pole beans, bush type lima beans, cantaloupes, peas, okra, spinach, egg plant and watermelons.

Hutchinson urges all Texas families to participate in the expanded home garden program. Home gardens, he adds, should prove beneficial in three ways. They provide a better balanced diet for families. They help stretch the family food budget. And they provide an outlet for satisfying exercise—thus benefiting health and morale.

Research workers of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station have found that practical control of many poisonous range plants can be obtained by using herbicidal sprays such as 2,4-D and 2,4,5-T.

CARD OF THANKS

Words fail to express our gratitude to all who were so kind and comforting during the illness and death of our husband, father. Your kindness in our time of need will never be forgotten. May God bless all who had a part in easing our burden, is our prayer.

—Mrs. Edwin Heald and children.

Dedication of Trinity Lutheran Church Will Mark Attainment of Long-Sought Goal

Service for the new Trinity Lutheran church will be held Sunday, April 15, at 10 o'clock, marking the fulfillment of a long-sought goal toward which the church congregation has been working for more than a century.

The new church edifice is an attractive in design, not only the general support of members of the church, but the building has gone up and of practically every member of the congregation, much of which was donated by both men and women in the many phases of the construction and finishing of the church.

The church is Tudor Gothic in style, with open beam construction throughout the building, and a parish hall unit. The lighting is used in the Memorial windows.

The nave of the church is finished and every detail of interior construction is in readiness for the dedication service Sunday.

The service will be conducted by the Rev. O. K. Oelke, of Sagerton, pastor.

A Sunday afternoon will be held by two former pastors of the church, Rev. A. H. Priddy, Texas, and A. Hoermann of Knippa.

The evening service will be in charge of musical talent from Protestant churches, and messages from local, county and city officials will be a part of the evening service.

A 30-minute program of sacred music on the Hammond organ will precede the evening service.

Dinner and supper will be served on the ground.

Church Founded in 1917
The local Trinity Lutheran Church was founded in 1917 by the Rev. F. Bracher, Sr., now living at Fredericksburg, Texas, who in that year was the home missionary for West Texas of the Old Iowa Synod, now merged into the American Lutheran Church.

The organization meeting was held Feb. 12, 1917, with Rev. Bracher presiding, and the following became charter members of the church: George Moeller, Sr., H. L. Moeller, Martin Rueffer, August Rueffer, Beate Rueffer, H. J. Arend, Adolph Nussbaum, John Steiwert, Charlie Moeller, Fritz Steinfath, Jr., Fritz Steinfath, Sr., Wm. Von Gonten, A. J. Steiwert, Frank Moeller, Otto Moeller, Mary E. Moeller, Charles Druessedow and Henry Druessedow.

Church officers named later that year were August Steinfath, Sr., president; Martin Arend, secretary; and George Moeller, treasurer.

Following organization of the church and adoption of a constitution, the small congregation voted to have regular divine services in the Irby school building, a small frame structure located about 12 miles east of Haskell in the thriving Irby community. There the congregation continued to worship until the Irby school was discontinued and the building razed. Then, through the generosity of the Haskell First Presbyterian Church the Lutheran congregation worshipped in the local Presbyterian Church from October, 1949 until December, 1950.

After the Irby school building was dismantled, the congregation, faced with the challenge of building a new church, launched a building fund in 1945. This fund grew steadily until 1949, when plans were adopted to build the new church on a plot of ground in East Haskell donated by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Rueffer and family.

Plans for the new building were drawn by Rev. C. N. Roth, pastor-architect, and on March 19, 1950, the ground breaking ceremony for the new building was held. Six months later, on Sept. 17, 1950, the cornerstone of the new structure was laid.

Women Active in Church
An organization of women of the congregation has functioned faithfully throughout the years since the church was founded, and to them goes a large share of the credit for the expansion of church influence and attainment of the new building goal. The women's organization has contributed liberally to the new church by buying the three Chancel windows over the Altar and the Altar Dossal for the new building. The flooring for the Chancel is also their contribution.

A splendid and growing Sunday School department in the church is under the direction of a staff of adult leaders headed by Anna Kretschmer.

Building Council
Members of the church council during the building of the new church include Ernest Peiser, Willie Peiser, August Steinfath, Henry Druessedow, and Richard Kretschmer. Pastors during this period have been Rev. M. C. Hoermann and Rev. O. K. Oelke.

Since the founding of Trinity Lutheran in 1917, the following pastors have served the church:
1917-18—Rev. F. Bracher, Sr.
1918-24—Rev. Julius H. Holm
1924-27—Rev. A. Koeppel
1927-32—P. Schranke, student pastor.
1927-32—Louis Hanneman, student pastor.
1932-41—Rev. A. H. Muehlbrad, and supply.
1941-47—Rev. F. L. Bracher, Jr.
1948-49—Rev. M. C. Hoermann
1950-51—Rev. O. K. Oelke.

Dedicatory Booklet Published
A dedicatory booklet carrying an outline of the church history, and illustrated with numerous photographs, has been published in connection with the completion of the new building.

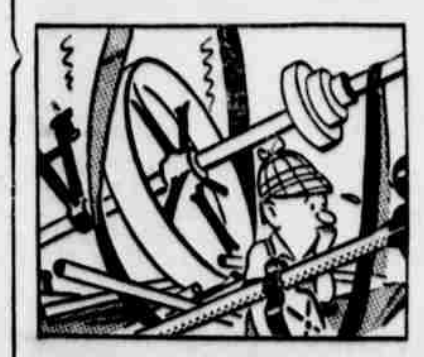

Committee in charge of the booklet was composed of Mrs. Ernest Peiser, secretary; Mrs. Willie Peiser, Mrs. Herbert Fischer, Mrs. Richard Kretschmer, August Rueffer, translator; Henry Steinfath, and Pastor O. K. Oelke, chairman.

oluses. Attendants wore dresses of pastel organza and carried colonial bouquets. All attendants had matching hats of French tulle.

Rearmament Program Brings Urgent Demand for Cotton

Cotton is second only to steel as a vital war material — and even tell must have cotton to function properly.

As the nation rearms to meet the threat of world communism, cotton becomes indispensable to U. S. defense. In addition to supplying fiber and seed for thousands of essential civilian uses, cotton must take on the job of supplying the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marine Corps with their increased requirements.

The cotton needs of the military are immense. A total of 11,000 different items made of cotton requirements are approximately 10 times as great as a civilian's the National Cotton Council points out. Although the American fighting man is cotton clad summer and winter, in the tropics and in Arctic cold, uniforms represent only a part of his cotton needs. The gas mask holder at his side, his canteen cover, rifle sling and field bag, his tent and sleeping bag all require cotton fabric.

Emergency shelters for supplies, plane motors, kitchens and repair units made of cotton duck are part of mobile troops' regular equipment.

Millions of yards of cotton netting are used by a combat army for mosquito nets and insect bars at jungle and Arctic fronts. Cotton duck is the base fabric in rubberized life boats used by plane crews. It also is used in the manufacture of temporary bridge pontoons for moving war supplies.

Cotton is employed almost exclusively for soothing, sanitary surgical dressings. Each soldier's first-aid kit contains a roll of cotton gauze bandage and salta powder.

Cotton is used in self-sealing gas tanks of U. S. planes and vehicles. Gun and searchlight covers use cotton. Cotton is used in aerial targets to train troops in anti-aircraft marksmanship.

Garrison bags, lister bags for drinking water, camouflage nets, parachute packs — these are just a few of cotton's military uses.

Fiber plays only a part of cotton's role in the defense program, for cotton is food, feed, and ammunition, as well as clothing and shelter.

With each 500-pound bale of cotton there are produced 900 pounds of cottonseed, yielding 140 pounds of vegetable oil for food, 400 pounds of protein meal and cake for livestock, 240 pounds of hulls for livestock roughage and chemical uses, and 81 pounds of lint for smokeless powder, plastics, and other essential products.

Cotton linters are the principal source of cellulose for making smokeless powder. Without linters, few guns would be fired by U. S. forces. One bale of linters provides powder for 20,440 rounds of machine gun ammunition; 2,737 rounds of pom-pom ammunition; 100,000 rounds of rifle ammunition; or 85 rounds of heavy tank ammunition.

Air-Filled Tractor Tires Pull Best In Sand

Air-filled tractor tires operate more efficiently and economically in sand and loam than tires filled either partially or fully with water. This was the conclusion of a report made by the Division of Farm Machinery, U. S. Department of Agriculture and a tire manufacturing company says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer of Texas A. & M. College. He says three identical tires were tested under 12 drawbar loads on the two types of soils. All tires carried equal weight, but the method of applying weight differed.

State Homemakers Can Have Extra Vacation Yearly

Each Texas housewife can get an extra vacation of more than a week from household activities this year.

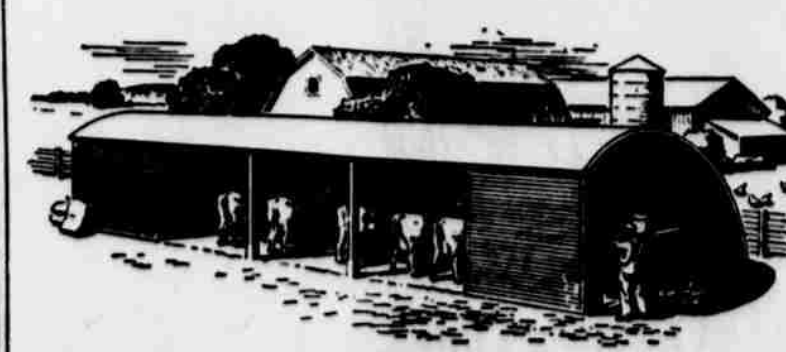

A little more than seven full days in the 365 could be added to the leisure time of every homemaker in the state if she would modernize her food shopping habits, a study conducted by the research.

The research disclosed that most of Texas' 1,643,876 housewives shop for groceries every day, a staggering total of 598,370,864 hours, or approximately 24,658,140 days. By shopping only twice a week for food, which now is possible because modern household refrigerators can hold more than a week's supply of food at a time, each housewife could reduce grocery shopping time by half. Whereas everyday shopping requires an estimated 15 full days a year of each homemaker, the twice-a-week system cuts the figure to 7.5 days.

The Servel study also revealed other flaws in women's food shopping habits. For example, 61 per cent waste valuable energy by concentrating grocery purchases into Friday and Saturday, although they could more easily shop during the first three days of the week when stores are less crowded. One reason advanced for the housewife's adhering to weekend shopping habits is that she has not yet fully realized that modern refrigeration keeps perishable foods many days longer than was possible with the old icebox which long ago made necessary both frequent shopping and "loading up" for the weekend.

The error of every-day shopping is most prevalent among city homemakers, the research showed, because of the around-the-corner accessibility of stores. Suburban dwellers have learned to buy foods twice or three times a week, and the rural Saturday shopping habit is still fairly general in the state.

Mechants Reminded of Responsibility For Compliance With Price Ceilings

Merchants were reminded this week that it is their individual responsibility to secure copies of federal price ceiling regulations and to comply with them.

Ellis U. Boyd, Fort Worth Director of the Office of Price Stabilization, said the deadlines are rapidly approaching for several types of business, and that doing business without complying with the regulations will be in violation of the federal laws.

"Our enforcement staff is being organized and investigators will be sent into our 53-county district to check on compliance with the regulations," Boyd said.

"Each of the regulations has been well publicized through our newspapers, the radio stations and the Chambers of Commerce in most cities. It is now up to the merchant, large or small, to get a copy of the regulations and comply."

"We have conducted meetings in every area of the district, in an effort to assist the merchant," Boyd said.

Boyd said that the Fort Worth office is anxious to help every businessman in the district. He pointed out that most merchants want to comply with the program of stabilizing prices, which is for the benefit of every resident of Texas and the United States.

"There are some chislers, I'm sure, but most of our merchants are good men. We are simply urging them not to delay any longer in complying with these regulations. It's just good business for everyone of them to help us make this program work," Boyd concluded.

The director added that merchants seeking information should write the Fort Worth District Office of Price Stabilization at 2914 W. Lancaster for information concerning the regulations. All types of business and industry must keep all records of the base period, December 19, 1950 through January 25, 1951. These records must be on file in the place of business and available for inspection by a representative of the OPS.

Restaurants, cafes and all types of eating and drinking places, went under special regulations, April 1. They must file a report with the District OPS at Fort Worth by April 30.

Retail and wholesale grocery stores are under special regulations that control 60 per cent of the food items. This regulation became effective April 3, and all grocery concerns, wholesale and retail, must be in compliance by April 30.

Numerous other types of retail firms are under Regulation No. 7, and there are 2,044 such stores in the Fort Worth District, such as department stores, men's clothing, women's wearing apparel, shoe, furniture, household goods, floor coverings and several others. Price charts under this regulation must be filed with the Fort Worth office prior to April 30. Unless these charts have been acknowledged by this office prior to May 30, the retailers under this regulation cannot sell items listed under Regulation 7.

June 1 Deadline To Qualify As Notary Public

County Clerk Horace Oneal has received notice from Secretary of State John Ben Shepperd on the procedure to be followed in the re-appointment of qualified notaries public whose terms expire June 1, and the appointment of new notaries.

The re-appointment of all presently qualified notaries of Haskell County will be made by Secretary of State Shepperd by May 20, and each re-appointed notary must qualify with the county clerk on June 1, file oath and bond and pay the statutory filing fee to the clerk in order to serve as a qualified notary for the new term, June 1, 1951 to June 1, 1953. After all re-appointed notaries have qualified, the clerk will forward certificates of qualification and filing fees to the secretary of state. Individual notaries are not to send money to the state office.

Terms of all presently qualified notaries expire on June 1, and a notary cannot qualify for the 1951-53 term before that date, irrespective of re-appointment or new appointments.

Persons applying through the county clerks for notary appointments for the first time will receive appointments, effective on the date of qualification. A certificate of appointment on each person applying for the first time will be sent to the secretary of state for approval and then returned to the county clerk, after which the person will be notified to appear within 10 days to qualify before the clerk.

In the instructions received from Shepperd, he stated, "An applicant must be 21 years of age or older and a resident of the county in which he intends to act as a notary. It is important that the exact name of the applicant be given and that his name be used on all documents signed by the person. He must also give his correct mailing address."

The first application of spray to control the plum curculio should be made when most of the flower petals have fallen. These insects attack peaches as well as plums and due to the expected short peach crop, peach growers are urged to check their orchards now for this pest.

Three Corners Of Square To Have Traffic Lights

Relief for one of Haskell's most pressing needs, the regulation of traffic at three busy street intersections on the square, will be afforded around May 1st, according to B. R. Lusk, Haskell county maintenance supervisor for the State Highway Department.

Three traffic lights are to be installed by the Department, at street and highway intersections on the northeast, northwest, and southwest corners of the square, under an agreement made with the City some time ago.

Approval of the installations was made following a traffic count conducted by the highway department several months ago. Because of Government priority requirements, delivery of necessary equipment cannot be made by the factory until May 1. Mr. Lusk has been advised. However, he expects no further delay, and the lights will be installed immediately after they are received, he said.

The traffic light on the northwest corner of the square, at the intersection of North 1st and Avenue E, will replace the old traffic light installed originally by the City, and which has been out of operation for several months.

The other two traffic control units will be new installations, one at the intersection of North 1st and Avenue D, or Postoffice corner, where both pedestrian and motor traffic is unusually heavy.

The traffic light, on the southwest corner of the square at the intersection of South 1st and Avenue E, will provide safer regulation of a heavy flow of vehicular and pedestrian traffic.

With the installation of the three traffic lights, additional restrictions on parking in corner zones will likely be placed in effect.

Watch the little lady park the beautiful, big car... a single finger on the steering wheel can do it now, with Hydraguide!

Beautiful to look at Beautiful to drive

Now Hydraguide Steering does four-fifths of the work for you!

THINK of the easiest steering car you ever drove... then imagine one five times easier to steer! Chrysler's new Hydraguide power steering... regular on Crown Imperials and optional at extra cost on all New Yorker and Imperial models... gives you exactly that. Here is by far the greatest single change in handling ease—and safety—you ever found in any car. At your touch on the steering wheel, the car mechanically provides four-fifths of the energy to turn the tires on the road! Like so much in these new Chryslers... Hydraguide is so basically new, so basically better than anything before, that only when you try it can you ever know what it really does!

The longest day's drive you ever made... without arm-and-shoulder fatigue at the end. Around the curves... over the hills... Hydraguide does four-fifths of the work!

In tight city traffic... on awkward driveways and roads... Hydraguide means new safety, new ease, new swiftness of steering control!

The Most Basically New Cars of All!

Beneath the rich new beauty of these Chryslers for 1951 are 73 different improvements and advances. Among them are the most basic new ideas in any cars for many years! Like the revolutionary new FirePower engine, of 180 horsepower, which gives owners of Chrysler Imperial and New Yorker cars the most powerful, most efficient, most all-around economical powerplant in any car today! And like the amazing new Chrysler Oilflow shock absorbers, which give every new Chrysler car riding ease with twice the shock-absorbing power of any other cars at any price. And with all their newness, they're built to stand by you like no car you can buy!
