Commissioners Renew Tri-County Contract

Haskell Judge, speaking in court said, "this contract that has given us the best service, and we are to be a part of such before the Clinic it is difficult to serve and needed this type of service the Clinic we have received far more service than we ever expected to receive."

The Clinic offers service to those who have a problem whether it be depression, or marriage, or education, or alcohol or drugs, or family. There are groups for self-expression; growth; and volunteers that help in serving other people.

Aubrey Headstream, director of the Clinic thanked the court for their full cooperation, and stated, "we have never worked with nicer people than

Phone Co. Request In Court

Mayors and City Councilmen from Haskell, Rule, Rochester and Weinert were in court Wednesday at press time listening to General Telephone request a temporary injunction which would allow them to raise local telephone rates.

The hearing began at 10 a.m. Wednesday in 39th Judicial District Court.

The hearing recessed for lunch at noon after only one witness had been questioned by Wayne Goodrum, attorney for GTE.

Attorneys representing the four cities were Royce Adkins, Joe Williams and Joe Thigpen.

In his opening remarks, Adkins stated that the cities disagreed very strongly with each part of the phone company petition.

The hearing was to continue at 1 p.m. Wednesday and upon completion of testimony, Judge William P. Ratliff would allow the temporary injunction, disallow it, or take the matter under advisement before making a decision.

Library To Have Special Program

There will be a special program at the Haskell County Library August 30, at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Mary Jane Cunningham, president of the Haskell Young Homemakers, will present the program.

The reading certificates will be presented by the Librarian, Mrs. McGee, and refreshments will be served.

Approximately 125 students enrolled in the Summer Reading Program.

Jubilee Is Well Attended

An estimated 1,000 people attended the First Annual Rule Jubilee last Saturday in the Rule City Park.

The activities began promptly at 4 p.m. and outlasted the beautiful summer afternoon weather.

Mayor Weldon Norman gave the welcome and Novis Ousley served as master of ceremonies. Approximately five different groups entertained those attending.

Entertainment segments of the show included singing, dancing, playing the mouth harp, a puppet show, and medicine show.

Competition sponsored by the Rule Rotary Club included: three legged race for pre-school and grade school won by Debbie Norwood and Lisa Baird, and Mike Rhoads and Albert Buhrkuhl, second; three legged race for jr. hi., Dennis Cloud and Rod Petty, first, and Rock Petty and James Cloud, second; pre and grade school sack race, Zachary Wilcox, first and Lisa Baird, second.

Mike Fouts won first place in the watermelon eating contest. Second place was won by Johnny Naverette.

Members of the Rule Lions Club sponsored a dunking stool, Rule Young Homemakers sponsored a cake walk, Philadelphian Club sponsored a refreshment booth and also secured U.S. Flags which were placed on fence posts around the park. Members of the Rule Garden Club, AARP, and other clubs also participated.

Families from as far away as Ohio attended the activity.

One highlight of the afternoon came when Ousley requested that everyone present who had resided in Rule for five years or more to hold up their hands. Almost everyone's hand went high. The time was increased by five years and when the number of years reached 50 there were still several hands up. At the question "How many have lived in Rule for 70 years?", only one hand, Mr. R. O. Carothers, was up. Mr. Carothers stated that he had lived in Rule longer than 70 years and Ousley asked him to hold up fingers to show how many years over 70 he had lived there. Mr. Carothers stated that he did not have that many fingers. Later he said that he had lived in Rule for 81 years. He was presented an electric ice cream freezer for being the oldest Rule resident present.

A drawing was then held and several prizes were given away.

The Jubilee was originated by the Rule Chamber of Commerce and in a short time grew to involve almost everyone in Rule.

Those working on the Jubilee gave much credit for the success to Chamber president Kenny Tanner and v-p Barry Hobbs.

Plans are already underway for next years Rule Jubilee.

Haskell Bicentennial Happenings
By Rozie Parker

display for the first time at the recent Bicentennial was the official Haskell City-County Bicentennial symbol within the words, "Haskell (City-County) 1776-1976" is the state of Texas, outlined in red, with a square denoting Haskell County. A colorful Indian pipe inside the state's outline symbolizes the first of the land which became Haskell County--the Tonkawa who had their village at Rice Springs. There were also and Apache Indians who ranged throughout this part of the territory and were seen here by early settlers.

Indians hunted buffalo which were here in great numbers. For many years Miss Minnie Ellis, now deceased, teacher at the old South Ward School, recently deceased. She often recalled seeing from the school window as they came to the springs to get water. Just as in the state heritage, the red man is an important part of Haskell history.

The Bicentennial symbol evolved from a great many discussions and work by different groups and individuals. The Young Homemakers Club began working on the suggestions made by the commission. A member of the club, Paula Everett, sketched a design on paper and Don Comedy, in drawing it to scale, simplified the design somewhat for printing and reproduction, and it was approved by the commission.

Artists Mary Holden and Anita Herren enlarged and the symbol on fabric cut to official flag size. This will be displayed during the year in the Community Room of the National Bank, where club programs with various themes, receptions, luncheons and other activities will be held. Mrs. Holden and Mrs. Herren also painted the symbol on large wooden discs, to be used in other displays.

Permission from county and city officials the emblem will be placed of prominence, after remodeling is completed, in the house and city hall. One will also be placed on the courthouse lawn. Already there are organizations planning to use the symbol on yearbooks and programs.

to the Haskell City-County exhibit at the Bicentennial Fair in Abilene and our own County Fair will note the symbol which will serve as a backdrop for the exhibits.

Orders for the symbol may be obtained from the local office by those within the County who wish to reproduce it. It is unique simply because it is our symbol, and for our use, and it does say something about our history.

also has its own symbol, the state's outline in blue with a wheel stripes in red moving to the white star in the center encircled with the words, "American Bicentennial 1776-1976".

The National American Revolution Bicentennial emblem is familiar to us as it is reproduced in newspapers, magazines and for television spot announcements and programs.

The form of an American five-pointed star in white, outlined in blue, with continuous red, white and blue stripes which form the star. This double star is symbolic of the two centuries that have passed since the American Revolution.

The spirit of festivity is suggested by the colorful stripes which are reminiscent of the furled bunting traditionally used in times of national celebration throughout the nation.

These Bicentennial communities are authorized to grant permission to use these symbols and are responsible for their proper use.

New Food Stamps

Food stamp recipients will be able to exchange old food stamps for new ones after the old stamps expire on August 31, 1975, the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) announced today.

Until Aug. 31, food stamp recipients may use their old stamps in authorized retail food stores. After that date, recipients will be able to exchange the old stamps at local food stamp offices designated by state agencies. The exchange will be dollar for dollar, new food stamps for old.

USDA introduced the new food stamp series on March 1, 1975. The new $1, $5 and $10 denominations replace the $0c, $2 and old $5 stamps.

The amendment to the Food Stamp Program regulations will be published in the Federal Register of Friday, Aug. 22 and will be effective immediately upon publication.

Animal Health Meeting Set... Cattle On Feed Up Slightly... Milk Production Declines... Next Crop Report Due Sept. 11.

A meeting to discuss proposed changes in brucellosis programs for Texas will be held Sept. 4 at 9:30 a.m. in Room 117, Sam Houston Building, Austin. Members of the Texas Animal Health Commission will listen to comments on proposed changes which would realign state regulations to conform with federal rules.

Brucellosis continues to be a major problem for the livestock industry in Texas.

CATTLE ON FEED in Texas as of Aug. 1 totaled 1,331,000 head, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service at Austin notes. This is a five per cent increase over a month ago, but is 26 per cent below a year ago and about 50 per cent lower than 14 months ago.

Nationwide, there were 5,932,000 head of cattle on feed as of Aug. 1. This is down one per cent from a month ago and 15 per cent below the same period a year ago.

Recent increases in feed grains have changed the price outlook for feeders in the coming months. A shortage of feed beef could occur later this year, many feeders warn. This would be caused by a lack of profits among cattle feeders.

MILK PRODUCTION in Texas during July is down two per cent from the same period a month ago and is down one per cent below the previous month. Nationwide, milk production is down 1.4 per cent from a year ago.

WHILE THE AUGUST CROP REPORT has now become history, don't forget that the September crop report will be out shortly. Sept. 11 is the date for its release, and producers, consumers, and speculators will be watching for it eagerly.

Meanwhile, crop harvesting continues in a big way throughout the state. Cotton harvest is picking up speed and with hot, dry weather it should move along rapidly. First bales have been reported in a number of Blackland counties.

Sorghum harvest is now more than half finished throughout the state. Prospects on the High and Low Plains are considered good to excellent. Rainfall in some parts of the state has caused some slowdown of the harvest.

Corn harvest is underway in the southern half. Yields this year for the state read like a midwestern production report. The estimated per acre yield for Texas is 105 bushels per acre. This is the first Texas crop to exceed 100 bushels per acre in 54 years.

Rice harvest is at the half-way completion mark. Yields generally have been satisfactory.

Vegetable harvest is also making a lot of progress throughout the state. On the High Plains, only a few onions remain to be harvested.

In North Texas, harvesting of peas, tomatoes, okra, squash and watermelons continues. Grape and plum harvest is also active.

Spring and summer gardens are becoming victims of hot weather in the central part of the state, but fall vegetable land preparation is underway.

IT CONTINUES TO BE NECESSARY to submit suspected screwworm cases to the fly lab at Mission.

Screwworm activity continues to increase throughout the state, and officials at the fly lab also urge livestock producers to treat wounds on livestock with approved screwworm-control remedies.

And delay surgery on livestock as long as possible, too.

Burleson Announces Grant

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Omar Burleson announces a $121,204.26 Office of Education grant to the State of Texas for 798 children in Haskell County. These funds will provide services for children residing in low-income areas who have need for special educational assistance in order that their level of educational attainment may be raised to that appropriate for children of their age.

The allotment of these funds for fiscal year 1976 are made available under the provisions of Part A of Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

New Hunting Licenses To Arrive Soon

A total of one million combination hunting and fishing, resident hunting and exempt hunting licenses are winging their way to license sales deputies and Texas Parks and Wildlife Department offices across the state.

Mailed August 8, the licenses should be available for sale to sportsmen during the week of August 11.

They will be valid for use on September 1.

P&WD officials say that the 1975-76 licenses remain much the same as last year's, with buck and antlerless deer tags and turkey tags printed on waterproof, tear-resistant paper.

License fees also are unchanged—$8.75 for a combination hunting and fishing license, $5.25 for resident hunting and 25 cents for a resident exempt hunting license.

There are the usual spaces for white-winged dove and federal migratory waterfowl stamps. New this year is a $3.25 archery stamp required in addition to the valid hunting license for every archer who hunts wild deer, bear, turkey and javelina during any open archery season in which long-bows and arrows may be used. Like the whitewing and waterfowl stamps, the archery stamp must be signed across its face by the person using the stamp.

Department consignment officials said that no fishing licenses will be mailed out to sales deputies at this time since the $4.25 fishing licenses are valid for one year from date of purchase and do not necessarily have to be renewed September 1.

The 1975-76 issue of hunting and sport fishing regulations also is available free where hunting and fishing licenses are sold.

GI Loans Aid Vets

The benefit used by most veterans is the one providing assistance in the purchase of a home. According to C. H. Herren, Veterans Service Officer for Haskell County, more than 9 million veterans have used their loan privileges since the original GI Bill went into effect in June 1944. The total amount of these loans is more than $109 billion, of which the VA has guaranteed some $56 billion. Under the GI loan program, a veteran can obtain a loan for the purchase of a home, with the government guaranteeing 60% of the loan amount up to a maximum of $17,500.

Eligible veterans generally decide to use their GI loan benefits because of several reasons. Included are facts such as a lower interest rate, now 8-1/2%; little or no down payment; and the authorization to pay off the loan in full at any time with interest charged only to the date payment is made. In most other types of home loans an interest penalty is charged when a loan is paid in full ahead of schedule.

Veterans have proven to be very good risks, with almost 5 million, or some 55% of the total loans made in 30 years, already paid in full. Of the 9 million loans made, the Veterans Administration has been required to honor their guaranty and pay claims only on about 325,000 defaulted loans.

Eligible for GI loans are veterans of World War II and the Korean Conflict who served honorably for 90 days or more, and those with 181 days or more since February 1, 1955. There is no deadline date for using the entitlement, as it remains good until actually used by each individual veteran.

Present Federal laws also provide for veterans to be released from liability when they sell their GI homes and, in some instances, can qualify for a second GI loan. Further information on the entire GI loan program can be obtained from your local Veterans Service Officer.

FEDERAL WATER POLLUTION CONTROL ACT
In the past few years, many of the people concerned regarding the regulation of the Federal Pollution Control Act have indicated the possibility of the Corps of Engineers taking over the control of farming and ranching activities. The following information was received this past week from George R. Bagley, National Association of Conservation Dist-tricts resulting from farming, ranching, forestry activities, such as logging, cultivating, seeding, and planting for the production of food, fiber, and forest products. The requirements under Section 404 of the Federal Pollution Control Act of 1972 (CA) the Corps of Engineers has announced.

Conservation activities such as terracing, dams, and land leveling also are excluded from Section 404 if they occur in navigable drainage and irrigation ditches are also excluded. In addition, maintenance, emergency, reconstruction of existing structures such as dikes, dams, or levees are regulated.

These exclusions are the key features of the regulation published in the Federal Register of July 25 to implement a nationwide program for the Corps to improve the quality of the water of the United States environmentally harmful discharges of dredged or fill materials.

The final regulation was issued in close cooperation with the Environmental Protection Agency, and with input from representatives of the Departments of the Interior, and the Assistant Secretary of

Game Surveys In Route To State Hunters

A select group of Texas hunters will have the opportunity to make a large contribution to wildlife management this year.

Wildlife biologists and data processing experts at the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department have so far mailed out some 57,000 hunter-survey cards to hunting license holders. These cards request specific information on whether the license holders plan to hunt mourning doves, ducks or geese this fall.

Those who respond are the basis for a more complete questionnaire which asks hunters to keep a log during the dove and waterfowl seasons on how many birds they kill, where taken, date of hunt and number of doves or waterfowl bagged.

Later on, a deer and turkey harvest questionnaire will be mailed to another group of hunters.

Statistics from a random sample of licenses hunters are a source of valuable information, say Texas Parks and Wildlife Department officials. The data will help to estimate the harvest of doves, waterfowl, deer and turkey on game populations.

Thus far, 38 percent of those contacted by mail have responded.

A great deal of time and effort has gone into these surveys, say P&WD officials.

Sportsmen who spend a few moments completing the cards will help tremendously in the survey.

The officials suggest: --Don't throw away the questionnaires. Even if you don't hunt the game species mentioned in the survey, fill out the card and mail it; negative responses are just as valuable.

--Return the questionnaires promptly, unless the instructions request that you retain it throughout the season.

--Information filled in on the cards should pertain only to the individual surveyed. If the card is addressed to the lady of the house, she should complete it, not her husband. Do not include volunteered information from relatives and friends as it gives an inaccurate picture of the overall harvest.

--Preprinted numbers on the questionnaire cards should not be torn off or marked through. The numbers are used to identify a rate of response and not individuals.

--Reply forms are postage-paid but Texans can save the Parks and Wildlife Department a sizable amount of money if they use a stamp to mail their cards. Money saved on postage will be channeled to other game management work. P&WD officials say that some 17 percent of those questioned so far have used their own postage.

Effective management of doves, waterfowl, deer and turkey depends on an accurate estimate of the harvest, say P&WD officials. Wardens and biologists are not in a position to make these estimates; only the sportsman can furnish the information.

Public cooperation in game harvest surveys is vital to Parks and Wildlife Department game management programs.

Haskell To Present Program At W-T Fair

Six West Texas communities are scheduled to present special Bicentennial programs to fairgoers at this year's West Texas Fair, Sept. 6-13, Bill Patton, Fair Bicentennial chairman, announced today.

Ten area towns will have exhibits in the Fair's Bicentennial Showcase area.

"We've had very good response from all over the Big Country to our Bicentennial plans for this year's fair," Patton said. "More than ever before, this fair will be from and for people from all over the area rather than just around Abilene."

Groups from Rising Star, Hamlin, Haskell, Tuscola, Ballinger and Abilene will have musical presentations on the midway stage area during the fair week.

Stamford, Cisco, Winters, Rising Star, Haskell, Ballinger, Colorado City, Abilene and Hamlin are planning Bicentennial exhibits in a specially designated area of the newly named "Big Country Hall" (formerly the Poultry Building).

The Abilene High School Band will present an honorary bicentennial band concert on Thursday. A group of youngsters from Hamlin will present a 30-minute brass and vocal music presentation on Wednesday and Saturday (Sept. 13).

"Kalidscope of Freedom" is Rising Star's contribution to the fair's Bicentennial celebration. This program, approximately one hour long includes 77 flags, a 40-member cast and a community choir. It is scheduled for Thursday and Saturday (Sept. 13).

From Haskell, the "Yankee Doodle Girls" will present a 25-minute program on Wednesday and Saturday (Sept. 13). Citizens of Ballinger are bringing a 5-10 minute musical presentation on Wednesday and Saturday (Sept. 13).

On Thursday, a group of kindergarten children from Tuscola will treat fairgoers to a musical Bicentennial tribute.

According to Patton all the spaces in the Bicentennial showcase have been taken.

Other Bicentennial activities of this year's fair include a giant birthday card to be signed by all fairgoers. At the end of the fair the card will be sent to Washington, D.C.

Burleson's Record Is Recognized

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Congressman Omar Burleson was congratulated today by the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) for his strong voting record in support of small business. Representative Burleson voted 91% in favor of the legislative positions taken by the nation's independent businessmen and women.

Commending the Congressman, Wilson S. Johnson, President of NFIB, praised Congressman Burleson for his "outstanding effort on behalf of small business." He continued, "NFIB believes it is vitally important for Members of Congress to be aware of the important role played by small business in their local communities and in the nation's economy."

In response to the NFIB commendation, Congressman Burleson had this comment: "It is, of course, gratifying to have this recognition. My record in support of small business is no more than it should be. Small, independent business personifies our private enterprise system and serves a vital role in our society."

NFIB's voting record is compiled by comparing "Congressional Quarterly" voting charts with the positions taken by the Federation's member firms on the same issues. Included in this analysis were key small business votes on legislation dealing with pension reform, OSHA, metric conversion and consumer related issues.

NFIB, which promotes the cause of small, independent business, has more than 427,000 member firms across the United States, employing 3.3 million people and producing in excess of $78 billion in goods and services annually.

Dear Editor:

Under the influence of detente, the crimes of collaborating with the Communists become merely cooperating, so all the collaborators in our government can pose as being merely cooperative.

Representative Daniel Flood (D., Pa.) in a House speech during Captive Nation week agrees with Solzhenitsyn that detente helps "imperialist Moscow in its fixed quest for world supremacy."

Those who put detente ahead of Americanism are obviously first class detenters, and only second class patriots.

The Communists do not believe in the freedoms people have in the United States. They believe in a slave system. The main purpose of the Communists is to destroy free America. They mean to have us, Red or dead. Detente speeds up the process.

Sincerely,
Perry Mason

Mayors Proclaim C/F Week

A proclamation officially declaring September 1-6 Breath of Life Week in Haskell County was signed into effect today by Mayors Belton Duncan of Haskell, Weldon Norman of Rule, Alton Byrd of Rochester and Ted Jetton of Weinert.

In signing the proclamation, the Mayors urged all citizens to support the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation's Breath of Life Campaign conducted by the Lone Star Chapter on behalf of children who suffer lung damaging disease.

The 1975 chairmen of the fund raising drive for Haskell County, Mrs. Leland Thane of Sagerton, Mrs. Sam Turner of Rule, Mrs. Alton Byrd of Rochester, Mrs. Vern Derr of Weinert and Mrs. Odell Helweg of Haskell, stressed that parents and prospective parents should become aware of the signs of the lung-damaging disease. Those signs are recurrent wheezing; persistent coughing with excessive mucous; pneumonia more than once; excessive appetite but poor weight gain; and clubbing (enlargement of fingertips). Cystic fibrosis signs may also include salty taste of the skin; persistent, bulky diarrhea; and nasal polyps.

"Knowing what to look for and what to do is essential in dealing with these problems," they said, "since early diagnosis and treatment of children with lung-damaging diseases are essential to prolonged life." The CFF supports more than 110 Centers throughout the country for diagnosis and treatment of the children with lung-damaging diseases.

Cystic fibrosis, the most serious lung-damaging disease, is inherited when both parents carry the recessive gene for C/F. It is believed that one in every twenty people may be symptomless carriers of the C/F gene, or about 10 million people in the U.S. Other lung-damaging diseases like asthma, chronic bronchitis, bronchiectasis, disorders of lung development, and recurrent or persistent pneumonia can be extremely serious and require specialized treatment.

The Mayors praised the CFF for its role in education of both medical and lay segments of the population and for the tremendous advances effected in patient care. This Martin and one brother, Paul. Pallbearers were: Maurice Gannaway, J. R. Perry, Harold Spain, C. H. Herren, George Fouts, J. B. Gipson, Andy Wilfong and Max Stapleton.

Honorary pallbearers were members of the Board of Deacons of the First Baptist Church.

MAYORS FROM HASKELL, RULE, ROCHESTER AND WEINERT met last week to officially proclaim Sept. 1-6, as Cystic Fibrosis week in Haskell County. Representing the cities were: J. E. Jetton, Weinert, Weldon Norman, Rule, Alton Byrd, Rochester, and Belton Duncan, Haskell. (Staff Photo By Don Comedy) care has helped C/F patients to lead more productive lives and has been responsible for today's outlook that 50% of the C/F patients can expect to live longer than 18 years of age. When the Foundation was founded most C/F patients died in infancy.

"Most of us don't have to think much about the act of breathing, but these children can't take breathing for granted. They need our support and understanding, and we hope every citizen will regard their struggle for breath as a very personal matter."

TSA Urges Rest With Jaycees

What are you planning on doing for the rest of your life? If your immediate future includes a Labor Day weekend highway trip, Texas Safety Association advises that a stop at one of the nearly 200 Texas Jaycee holiday rest stops may just provide you with the "rest of your life"; it can be the pause that defeats driver problems like highway hypnosis, delayed reaction time, and traffic tedium.

For over 15 years, the Jaycees of Texas, in cooperation with the Royal Globe Insurance Companies and local merchants, have provided free coffee and refreshments to highway travelers on long holiday weekends. The campaign was originally begun as the Labor Day Rest Stop program, but with the shift of many major holidays to Mondays, the emphasis was expanded to all holiday weekends by many Jaycee chapters.

Response to the program has been gratifying, even though no real figure on accidents prevented or lives saved is available because you can't count accidents that never happen!

The Texas Safety Association reminds you that a 15-minute break in a two-hour drive can be the difference between a safe arrival and an accident. Drop in at a Jaycee holiday rest stop this Labor Day for the rest that can save your life! (And don't forget to say "thanks.")

The Haskell Jaycees will hold a rest stop on the west side of the courthouse.

We were young. At war. With no experience.

And who knew if we'd ever pay back the money?

Well, 200 years have passed. And the U.S. government has always paid in full. To the penny.

Now that's not a bad record.

In fact, you might say we're now a pretty well-established outfit to do business with.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan and save with today's Bicentennial issue of Series E Savings Bonds. It's easy. It's automatic.

And it's safe. After 200 years, you know we're here to stay.

IN MEMORY OF MY MOTHER
MRS. LILLIAN LEWELLEN RICH

MOTHER
 She's sweeter than the fragrance
 That fill the dell in spring
 A joy she is above the joys
 That all the years can bring
 She's dearer than the dearest friend
 That I will ever know
 Her prayers ever guide me on
 No matter where I go
 At night when kneeling down to pray
 I thank our Lord above
 Who was so good to give me
 My mothers everlasting love.

Beware Of Schemes With Savings Bonds

If someone asks you to join a money-making plan involving chain letters and U.S. Savings Bonds, you'd better refuse. You aren't likely to make any money—it's more likely you'll lose your "investment" to get in on the deal—and it's possible you may be prosecuted for violation of federal, state or local laws.

A few months ago, a number of endless-chain schemes were launched in Southern California. The intermingling organizations were active under several misleading names—"Your March of Bonds", "Inflation Defense Foundation", "Century Club", "Exclusive One Million, Inc.", "Uncle Sam Investment, Inc.", "Six-Pack Club".

The scheme most often used worked this way—the victim became an "active member" by paying $37.50 to a "sponsor". In return, he received a membership list of 10 names and a $25 Savings Bond, recently purchased for $18.75, made payable to the first person on the list. The new "member" made two new membership lists, crossing off the top name on the original list and adding his own name at the bottom. He then purchased two $25 Bonds, payable to the person who was then first on the new lists. He delivered the Bond that came with the first list to the person named—personally or by mail.

As a "new member", he was required to pay annual dues of $3 and to purchase membership books, at $1.50 each, to give to the two "new members" he brought into the scheme. The victim had spent $81, but was told he would recover most of his investment when he sold his two lists. He did, in fact, recover $75, if he was able to do so.

However, for one member to receive $19,200—the promised windfall—1,024 new members would have had to join after he did, without the chain's being broken. To achieve "optimum success", the schemes required a membership of 250 times the entire population of the world.

Since the membership lists were originally prepared by the promoters—with their names and addresses or those of their associates heading the lists—the scheme would provide Bonds for the promoters long before—if ever—new members reaped any harvest.

The promoters of that plan used two variations—the "Six Pack", involving lists with only six names, and the "Century Club", which used $100 Bonds, in lieu of $25 Bonds.

The California Attorney

General, Los Angeles County District Attorney and the Los Angeles City Attorney cooperated in the investigation, arrests and convictions of the promoters, who were held in violation of the California Penal Code concerning endless-chains and lotteries.

Rather than circulate the lists or the Bonds through the mails, those promoters relied upon meetings in private homes to further their schemes. Had the mails been used, the promoters would have been in violation of the U.S. Code, Title 18, Section 1302—the "lottery" statute—which proscribes the mailing of material concerning a lottery promotion. It establishes criminal sanctions of a $1,000 fine or imprisonment for not more than two years, or both, upon conviction. They would also have been in violation of Section 1341—the "mail fraud" statute.

Most of the "bottom-liners" involved in such schemes are relatively innocent of wrongdoing. They have no intention of perpetrating a fraudulent scheme or otherwise using the mails illegally. In addition to the promise of a dollar award, they are often persuaded that they are being "patriotic"—helping their government's Savings Bonds Program.

Over the years, the Department of the Treasury has advised the public that chain-letter schemes involving Savings Bonds—which are essentially get-rich-quick endeavors—do a distinct disservice to the Savings Bonds Program. Instead of encouraging individuals to develop genuine savings plans, they create the illusion that participants are both aiding their government and themselves. Even in the rare case where an individual receives a large return, it is likely that he would quickly redeem the Bonds, thereby placing a further burden on the Treasury.

From time to time, the Treasury's Savings Bonds Division distributes news releases warning of the illegality of chain-letter schemes involving Savings Bonds. When a specific instance is brought to its attention, special releases are distributed to news media in the areas involved.

Individuals who purchase Savings Bonds for such chain-letter schemes, and who discover that participation may violate certain laws and regulations, may request a refund, using Treasury Form PD-2966. This form is available at many banks; it may also be requested from the Bureau of the Public Debt, 200 Third St., Parkersburg, W. Va. 26101.

REDDY'S REFRIGERATOR SAVINGS TIPS

- Return fresh foods to the refrigerator and frozen foods, such as ice cream, to the freezer as soon as possible. Measure and remove the quantity needed for cooking or for the table, and refrigerate the remainder at once.
- Use cold controls efficiently by selecting the settings that provide about 36° F. in the refrigerator and of F. in the freezer.
- Fill the refrigerator with food, but be careful not to overfill. Make sure that food packages don't block air vents in the freezer or refrigerator section.
- Clean the condenser surfaces of the refrigerator; dirt restricts air flow and acts to insulate the condenser, forcing the refrigerator to work harder and longer to maintain proper temperatures.
