MORE FOR YOUR MONEY

EVER buy a telephone? Ever receive a bill for telephone repairs, maintenance, or the many feet of wiring that connect your telephone within the house? The answer, of course, is no. These are items of cost never have to contend with.

Now, ask yourself the same questions about any of your other home appliances—refrigerator, kitchen range, radio, water heater. Original and month-to-month maintenance of such items amounts to a sizeable investment.

But, you don't have to buy the telephone or its wiring—that's part of your telephone company's investment. And, monthly telephone bills take care of all operating expenses, as well as a return to investors. No matter how often you use local telephone service, you pay the same for it each month.

Considering all this, don't you agree that telephone service is the biggest value in your budget?

What's the big idea of DYNAFLOW DRIVE?

THERE are all sorts of "drives" and "shifts" on the market. Some still operate entirely by hand. Some depend on shifting gears, but do this automatically. Some feed the power through oil, but use a lock-out device at cruising speeds. But we still think that Dynaflow* is the best of all for this simple reason: The big idea of Dynaflow Drive is to make life easy for the driver. In traffic, you can start and stop, slow down, accelerate with complete and infinite smoothness—because no gears have to shift, ever, in Dynaflow Drive. So there's no lurch, buck or bobble. Dynaflow always feeds power with a steady, willing swoop—at 3 miles an hour or 30—or as high as it's legal to go. On hills, you get the same sure, steady, unflinching power-feed for the same reason. No gears ever shift. On a long day's drive, you can ride with wonderful freedom from tension—your foot relaxed on the throttle—because you always drive through oil. And at any speed you get a smoother ride, in part because Dynaflow Drive provides such a smooth and gentle linkage between that mighty Fireball 8 Engine and the rest of the chassis. But this is not all. Our service records show that Dynaflow also makes life easier for your bank account. It saves wear and strain on the engine, banishes the cost of clutch repairs, saves strain on the transmission and even on the rear tires.

There are a lot of other good reasons for buying a Buick—its style, its roomy ride, its power, its thrift, its durability and its price. When you can get all this—plus Dynaflow Drive—why be a holdout? Come in and give Dynaflow a try today. Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on Roadmaster optional at extra cost on other Series.

Profit on Poultry Dependant Upon Good Management

The ratio between the price of eggs and the cost of feed for the past several weeks has been rough on all poultrymen, but especially on the less efficient producers. One sure way to cut costs, says W. J. Moore, poultry husbandman for the Texas Agriculture Extension Service, is to remove from the laying flock the non-producers.

Warmer weather usually ushers in the beginning of a slump in egg production and with it a rising market. Low production per hen during the summer season may mean the difference between a profitable year or a loss on the business. Take the non-producers to market, says Moore, just as soon as they are noticed in the flock. Chances are these hens will not come back into production for many months and feeding them is a dead expense.

Hens that show a shrunken dried-up comb, yellow beak, new feathers, yellow shanks and yellow vents should be culled and sold. Hens that lack vigor and spend their time loafing should also be removed from the flock. A good producer must eat good feed and drink lots of clean, cool water and they can't do this unless they rustle. Of course, adds Moore, the poultryman must do his part by supplying the feed and water.

The poultryman who does a good job of culling continuously will be well paid for his trouble. Poultry farm management can not be most efficient unless the non-producers are sent to market and this means continuous culling, says Moore.

Mrs. Bobby Moore, who before her recent marriage was Lennie Lou Martin, was feted with a gift tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Gibson in Rule.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blair of Haskell, and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Dugan of Old Glory.

Maid of honor was Miss Shirley Hiler, sister of the bride and the junior bridesmaid was Elda Mae Dugan, sister of the groom. Miss Blair was dressed in yellow organza and Miss Dugan in blue. Both wore coverages of white.

Leland Rose served as best man and Buddy Bryant as groomsman.

Given in marriage by her father the bride was wearing a street length blue dress with white accessories and a white carnation corsage. For something blue was her dress; for something old and borrowed, the bride wore a rhinestone pin that was worn by Mrs. Jack Merchant at her wedding over fifty years ago. She also had a penny in each shoe for good luck.

The bride's mother was dressed in navy accented with white, with a white rose corsage. Mrs. Dugan wore green, sheer with a white rose corsage.

A reception was held after the wedding in the Sunday School Building.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Olton Blair and two sons of Seymour, Mrs. R. H. Davenport and daughter, Sandra, of Comanche; and Mrs. C. M. Lewis, and Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Dugan of Hamlin.

After a short wedding trip the couple plan to make their home in Rule.

Beat bollworm this year

These new steps will help cotton growers kill

CLOSE RIVAL to the weevil as a destroyer of cotton, the bollworm has always been more difficult to control.

The mature bollworm in the illustration has been feeding inside the boll for several days. During this time the boll itself offers the protection that makes it extremely difficult to get a high kill with insecticides. For this reason, proper timing of insecticide applications is essential: Early bollworm infestations must be treated as soon as worms are found; later broods should be treated within a day or two after hatching and while young worms are still feeding outside the boll. A good measure for this is when 4 to 5 small worms (or 10 to 15 eggs) are counted on 100 terminals.

As the bollworm season approaches, every cotton grower wants to know "What's the best insecticide?" Actually, no one chemical so far tried will provide top control of bollworm. But . . . field tests in widely separated areas prove that certain combinations of chemicals (chlorinated hydrocarbons) do give effective control. At the same time, these mixtures kill almost all other insects that destroy cotton.

A mixture of diazinon for example, is one deadly bollworm killer more lethal than any insecticide alone. Used as a spray, the combination offers excellent control with small dosages. The spray gets the bollhoppers, tarnished plant bug, grasshoppers and other pests.

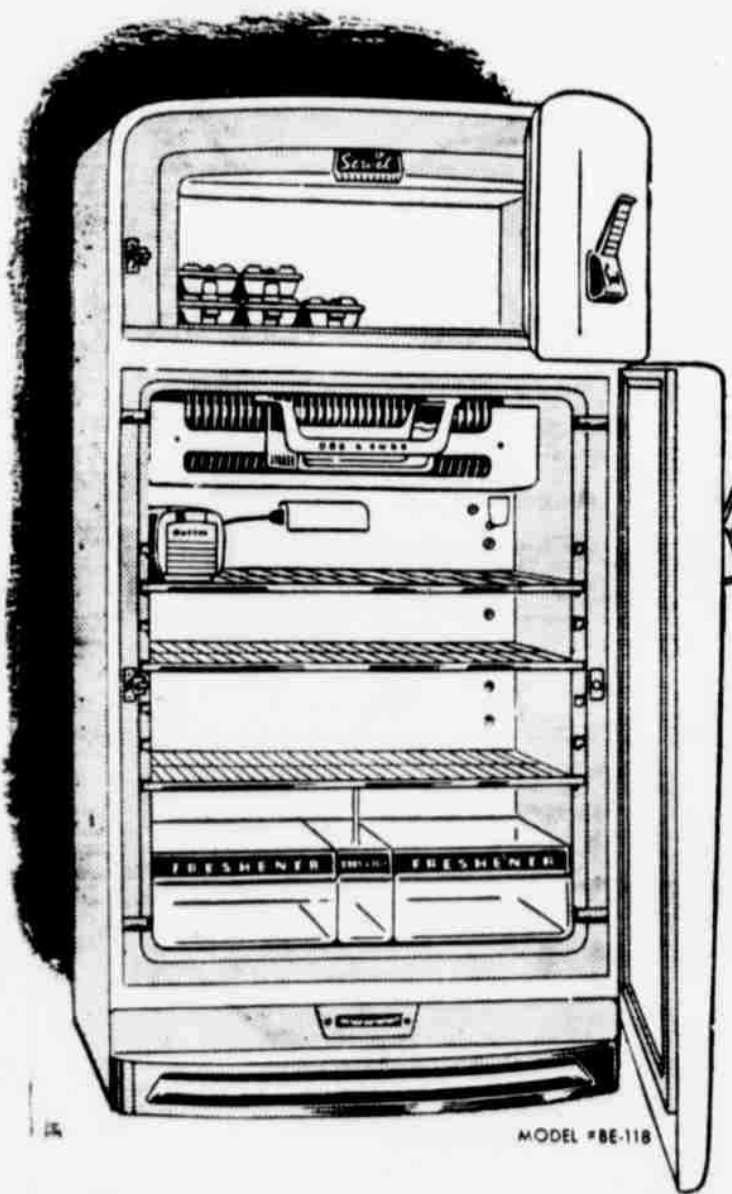

Where large areas must be protected from damage, and low cost is a primary consideration, mixtures provide good control at the lowest cost.

Whichever combination the timing and formation (dust or spray) low the practice procedure.

Your insecticide supply either diazinon, aldrin-DDT in solution for your cotton. Further information obtained by writing to Special Corporation, P. O. Houston, Texas, or to Oliver Building, Atlanta, Georgia, or 1221 Louisiana 3, Mo.

Demo Executive Committee Will Meet June 16 to Estimate Cost of '52 Primaries

The County Democratic Executive Committee will meet in Haskell Monday, June 16 for their first business session relative to the coming Democratic primaries, county chairman John A. Couch said today. All precinct chairmen are expected to be present, he added.

Principal purpose of the session will be to estimate cost of holding this year's Democratic primaries, and to apportion this cost on the basis of individual assessments against various candidates. Also, the order of candidates names on the ballot will be determined by lot.

Last election year, 1950, total cost of the primaries was $2,490. The estimate may run slightly higher this year, and any increased cost will be reflected in a hike in assessments against individual candidates.

After the assessment to be made against office-seekers is determined, each candidate will be notified and the assessment then must be paid not later than June 21.

Assessments against candidates in the 1950 primaries ranged from $10 for some of smaller precinct offices to $250 apportioned against the county superintendent's office.

The assessments are based on the salary of the office, length of term for which elected, and number of candidates for the office. Most elective offices are for two year terms, however, the District Judge and County Superintendent are elected for four years.

For illustration, cost of the 1950 primaries was apportioned among the major county offices as follows:

County Superintendent, one candidate, $250.
County Clerk, one candidate, $200.
Assessor-Collector, one candidate, $200.
Treasurer, one candidate, $125.
District Clerk, one candidate, $85.
Commissioner, eight candidates in four precincts, $50 each, Total $400.

County Superintendent, one candidate, $250.
County Judge, two candidates, $175 each, Total $350.
Sheriff, three candidates, $160 each, Total $480.

Men and Machinery Busy on WTU's Steam Power Plant on Paint Creek Lake

The following article and pictures are from the May issue of the "Electric Times," monthly publication of the West Texas Utilities Company, and deals with the progress being made on construction of the company's multi-million dollar power plant on the Paint Creek Lake southeast of Haskell.

To the casual observer the site of WTU's new power plant on the north shore of the Paint Creek Reservoir is just a "big hole in the ground" in which workmen are building forms for concrete. But out of that "hole in the ground" is rising a modern structure which will house a 33,000 KW turbo-generating unit. To the left of the excavation are a line of concrete foundations on which will rise huge boilers to generate the steam. West of this is a concrete structure in another "hole" — some day thousands of gallons of water will pass into the structure to cool the massive condensers.

Look back to the southwest from the plant site and you will see a broad expanse of flat country not shown in the picture which has been cleared of all vegetation—this is the basin of the new Paint Creek Lake which will supply the water for the operation of the plant.

The two photos above show some of the work that has been done on the construction job. On the left is a view of the basement floor; the slab in the foreground has been poured; us beyond the workmen are laying steel for the remainder of the basement floor. The turbine foundation will be erected on a spot just behind the two workmen.

On the right, you are looking east toward the plant site. The excavation in the foreground is a part of the inlet canal through which the water will flow from the lake into the crib-house in background. On the left is another excavation in which will be constructed another crib-house to serve another generating unit.

Below, on the right, the last section of the lake basin is being cleared of vegetation. The ends of a huge chain have been hooked to two big "cats" which move along parallel dragging the chain. Nothing is left standing after the chain has passed over.

In this picture the "cat" in the foreground is pushing over a big elm tree with its blade, while behind the chain is clearing what remains. The other "cat" can be seen on the opposite side of the creek. This spot is northwest of the plant site and is known as Horse Creek, a small stream which runs into Paint Creek.

The big chain weighs approximately 16,000 pounds. After the "cats" have done their work, the trees and mesquite brush are bulldozed into piles and burned.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

There is a strong drive in Congress to prevent any renewal of government power to regulate consumer credit, or installment buying, when the present authority expires on June 30.

It is fairly well taken for granted that the suspension of Regulation W was made at this time so that the power would not be taken away from government by Congress.

Government control of installment buying does furnish government with a heavy club to use against industries that depend on consumers being able to buy on a pay as you go basis.

While much has been written on the evils of installment buying, there is one indisputable argument in favor of installment buying which cannot be overlooked. That point is the fact that Americans own more autos, more homes, more radios, more television sets, and more household furnishings than any other people in the world. . . . and more than 80% are purchased through installment buying.

And added to that strong point is the recognition by government itself of the need and value of installment payments.

That is why income taxes are now collected in advance from each pay period.

On the basis of installment tax payments, the government has been able to carry on such worldwide socialistic experiments as the Marshall Plan and its successor, the MSA. In fact, the American installment plan has made it possible for billions of National Federation of Independent Business to be given away to Europe.

For example, according to MSA reports, during the first 96 days of this year, allotments to Europe alone, not counting Asia, averaged $12,866,366 per day. Sundays and holidays included. Some days as much as $45 million have been given away.

So the argument can be pinned down to this point, too.

"If it is economically unsound for American consumers to use free credit, on terms arrived at between seller and buyer, to purchase tangible property for the use of American families and provide American employment, then is it not even more economically unsound to collect taxes on an installment plan to aid European cartels and monopolies?" It is well established, the Marshall Plan and MSA have done little but help cartels become stronger.

There is also the argument advanced that free credit often induces an American family to foolishly buy some luxury on the installment plan.

But on the other side of the picture are facts like this example. MSA Bulletin No. 81 reports the gift of $1,600,000 worth of American coal to Austria. Thus, American taxpayers not only pay for the coal, but also for its transportation from the U. S. to Austria which is just next door to some of the world's largest coal fields. And the taxes supporting such moves are collected on the installment plan.

It is probably the time for somebody to define terms, starting with just what is foolishness.

But an adequate definition of the word foolishness would probably cause too much embarrassment in many places in Washington.

Seymour Rodeo, Reunion Set for June 19-21

Advance information from officials of the Annual Seymour Reunion and Rodeo, the world's largest two-arena rodeo, indicates one of the largest and fastest shows in the 56 year history of the rodeo. Set for June 19, 20 and 21, the rodeo will feature the Lucas Troupe, the Curtiss Candy Co. Six-Pony Hitch, and Delton Galloway and his dancing horse, Prince.

This is the first time the Six Pony Hitch has appeared west of Fort Worth, report Curtiss Candy Co. officials. The demand for the appearance of the hitch has grown so great that three hitches instead of the original have now become necessary.

The Lucas Troupe furnishes many laughs and thrills during the entire show. They have appeared in Seymour before, but have added several acts since their last appearance.

Delton and Prince, who both grew up on a ranch near Peacock, have been a regular part of the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band performance at football games and rodeos. Prince, trained by Delton, does a number of trick and dance steps.

The call has been issued for all Baylor County Old Settlers to meet at the Seymour Park at 9 a. m. Thursday, June 19. As no other entertainment has been planned for the day, nothing will interfere with the Old Settler's Reunion.

Parades are scheduled for each day of the show, with cowboys and girls, several high school bands and floats promised. Several prizes will be given in connection with the parades. A dance each night will climax daily activities.

Cowboys and girls desiring to enter any of the various events are advised to write to the Entrance Committee, care F. H. Bunkley. Tickets are on sale at the Seymour Chamber of Commerce office.

FUTURE FARMERS OF DALLAS—Big things are planned for the more than 3,000 Texas Future Farmers expected in Dallas for the state organization's annual convention July 16-18. A full round of entertainment features is being planned for the farm boys who will represent the 35,000 Texas high school boys who are students of vocational agriculture. Scope of the Future Farmer organization will be displayed to Dallas residents with a giant downtown street parade in which the FFA boys will march along with farm equipment and FFA pickups. A special feature of the convention this year will be a banquet at the Baker Hotel, convention headquarters, on July 17 which will honor Lone Star Farmers and at which Lone Star Farmer degrees for 1952 will be awarded. Annual FFA queen contest is set for the last night of the convention. Pictured here, with the Dallas skyline in the background, are members of the Dallas executive committee for the convention and Franklin Brandt of LaGrange, state FFA president. Rural Families Satisfied Through Improved Clothing

The effectiveness of the Extension clothing program is evidenced when appropriately and becomingly dressed 4-H and home demonstration club members gather for an achievement event. This improvement is the result of the adoption of better planning, buying and sewing methods learned through home demonstration work.

Clothing specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service show in their annual report that last year 138,076 women and girls were taught new methods in sewing. They point out that 28,638 families improved clothing through better sewing methods and made 280,638 garments.

The specialists say much credit goes to the 4,772 trained voluntary 4-H and adult leaders for the success of the clothing program. These leaders also were largely responsible for the growth of special programs such as children's clothing and tailoring of women's suits and children's garments.

The children's clothing program commenced in 1949 in five counties. Two years later the work had spread to 15 counties and 128,541 garments made. The specialists feel that homemakers with children are becoming more interested in this phase of the work. They cite as an example Mrs. Wayne West, Tyler County. Mrs. West, mother of two pre-school children, says she did not realize how much time she spent unbuttoning and buttoning clothes until she learned to make self-help garments. Now she can go about her work as the children dress themselves.

By the end of 1951, the fourth year of the tailoring program, 81 counties have conducted this program entirely through leader training and teaching. This past year 16 home demonstration agents and 155 leaders were trained and they in turn taught 357 other women. A total of 529 suits and coats were made at a cost of $11,004.62. These had an estimated retail value of $29,384.14, a saving of more than $18,000.

Accessories are a very important and expensive part of the related wardrobe. The clothing specialists made available to home demonstration agents and leaders material planning and selection of these for individual type, size and costume. This phase of the work resulted in the making of 5,606 purses, 2,672 pairs of gloves and 3,462 hats, a total of 11,740 articles.

The buying of all family clothing falls to the lot of the homemaker. A survey in Brazoria County revealed that 208 out of 324 home demonstration club members helped in the selection of their husbands' suits. The home demonstration agent in this county thinks her demonstration on how to buy men's and boys' suits was a great help to these women. The specialist says this is another special program that will be expanded by trained leaders.

Piggly Wiggly Tops City League; Three Teams Tied For Second

Bill Wilson Motor Company knocked down the Service Pipe Line Monday night to allow Piggly Wiggly to take over the top berth in the City Softball League.

Last week the Service Pipe Liners were leading the league along with Piggly Wiggly, the only undefeated contingent remaining in the city's softball contest.

Olen King's Piggly Wiggly soft-balls managed to keep in the top position last Thursday night by trimming First Baptist Church 11-4. The second game scheduled for Thursday night was not played because the East Side Baptist Church did not field a team. However, the Lutheran Church nine was opposed by the Southsiders in a practice game.

Service Pipe Line was dropped into second place tie with Bill Wilson Motor Co. and the Flying Red Horses, the trio having a 2-1 record in the first three games.

Bill Wilson Motor Co. pushed the Service Pipe Liners down a notch with a 3-1 victory that was gained in the final inning, after the pipe liners had scored earlier in the contest. G. W. Mullins was the winning hurler, while Billy Davis was credited with the loss.

In the second game of Monday night's twin-bill, Red Howard's Flying Red Horses trampled the Southsiders with a 21-4 triumph in the seven inning fracas. James Miller was the winning pitcher.

Play will continue tonight (Thursday) with the League-leading Piggly Wiggly nine slated to meet the East Side Baptists at 7:30 p. m. At 9 p. m. the First Baptist Church and the Lutheran Church will battle for their initial victory. Both teams are winless so far.

Monday night at 7:30 p. m. Bill Wilson Motor Co. will contest the First Baptist Church contingent with the Flying Red Horses scheduled to meet the East Side Baptist in the second game at 9 p. m.

The Southsiders will tangle with Piggly Wiggly on Thursday night of next week at 7:30 p. m. with Service Pipe Line and the Lutheran Church rounding out Thursday night's double header.

Edward Ammons Letters In Track At McMurry

Edward Ammons, former Haskell Indian football, basketball, and track star, was among six McMurry College trackmen recommended for letters. Wilford Moore, athletic director and track coach, announced this week.

The others were Bobby Lee Carter of Abilene, the only graduating senior in the group; Wayne Graham, Andrews; F. J. Well Martos, Monahan; Jack Chubb, San Antonio; and Richard Andrews, San Antonio.

Ammons, who completed his first year at McMurry this year, will be lettered in the pole vault and javelin events. He is a 1950 graduate of Haskell High School.

The event in which his five teammates lettered were: Carter, 100, 200 and 440-yard dashes; Graham, discus and shot put; Martin, broad jump; high and low hurdle; Chubb, 440 and 880 yard dashes; and Adams, mile and 880-yard dash.

SPORTS

Black Indians Win 5th; Throttle Quanah, 7-2

The Haskell Black Indians surged through their fifth consecutive victory here Sunday afternoon by trimming the Quanah All-Stars 7-2.

The Black Indians turned the sixth inning into their winning frame scoring three runs. The 3 runs during that inning were contributed by pitcher R. C. Jones of the All-Stars who loaded the bases, walked in one run and then gave up a safety to Ben Lewis that allowed two more scores.

The locals managed to score their first run in the initial inning when Billy Davis got to first on a bunt, stole second, then came home on a passed ball that was thrown by Jones, trying to pick him off second.

But the All-Stars were not to be out done and tied up the score 1-1, in their half of the second.

A strong pitcher's duel kept the fans on the edge of their seats for the next four innings as the score remained deadlocked at 1-1. It was that big sixth that broke the Black Indians out in front to give them a 4-1 margin at the end of the sixth.

Quanah's All-Stars came back in their half of the seventh frame to try and narrow the Black Indian advantage, but they were able to score only one run during the inning.

The Black Indians turned on more steam in the eighth to make a total of seven runs.

Both hurlers went the full route. Tommy Rivers took the mound for the Black Indians with Jones going all the way for the All-Stars.

Manager Albert Sharp said a game had not been scheduled for next Sunday, but he is planning to match a contest before the week is out. It is possible that a game will be played at Fair Park Stadium Sunday afternoon at 3 p. m.

Game Commission Taking Poll On Dove Hunting Dates

The Executive Secretary of the Game & Fish Commission said close to 1,000 waterfowl and dove hunting date preferences have been received in the sportman's poll.

He said there have been about 700 votes on waterfowl and slightly less than 200 on doves.

The poll was authorized to determine public sentiment as a guide for recommendations for the 1952 shooting seasons which the Commission will make in July. Primary interest is in preferences for opening the mourning dove season and for duck and goose season.

Votes to date on the waterfowl range from starting the shooting on Oct. 1 to starting it on Dec. 31. The early date was given by a north Texas man and the later one by a south Texas man.

The largest vote for any one date was 242 for Oct. 15. One hundred one hunters asked for Nov. 1 and 97 suggested opening the waterfowl season Nov. 20. There was a scattering of votes for December opening dates. One hundred nine wrote that they favored zoning the state.

The largest vote on the mourning dove issue totaled 119, seeking Oct. 15 as the opening mourning dove date for the south zone. Most of these preferences came from Corpus Christi in Nueces County. Sixty seven Harris County persons suggested Oct. 1 as the south zone opener on doves. Fifty hunters from Anderson County. Sixty seven Harris County persons suggested Oct. 1 as the south zone opener on doves. Fifty hunters from Anderson County in East Texas suggested Sept. 1 as the north zone opener on doves.

Rural Homemakers Simplify Work of Housekeeping

Rural homemakers and girls in Texas are finding ways of doing housework more easily and in less time. This is the result of the work simplification program sponsored by the Agricultural Extension Service. The purpose of this program is to encourage interest in management of time, energy and equipment in the home so that work may be done simpler, easier, quicker and safer.

Figures from the annual report of the extension home management specialists show that 83,505 homemakers and 4-H members in 1951 applied work simplification methods to the improvement of their homemaking jobs. The program commenced in 1946 when the specialists held training meetings for home demonstration agents and adult leaders in counties where interest was shown. Due to increased demands, it was necessary to limit training by specialists to two counties in each extension district.

Last year in 134 counties, 28,558 families improved housekeeping methods. For example, it was found that house cleaning could be made easier if all members of the family were trained to hang up clothes; put articles back in proper places; clean washpans, lavatory and bathrooms; clean shoes before entering the house; keep waste paper and trash off the floor and help with all house cleaning jobs.

After the home management specialists gave a two day training meeting in Childress county to 15 leaders, the home demonstration agent reported that these leaders gave 26 work simplification demonstrations to 140 people and helped 75 individuals who were not club members.

The people taught reported that they simplified their methods of setting tables, house cleaning, making beds, washing dishes, producing, preserving and serving food, caring for clothes and shoes; keeping the yard and washing and ironing.

Home demonstration club members have found that every motion counts and that work simplification rules need to be applied to each individual job. Mrs. A. B. Ward, Cooke County, simplified her job of feeding chickens. Formerly, she made a trip to the feed bin for each of the eight pans of feed needed. Her solution of this problem was to fill one large container with feed and wheel it on a small wagon to fill the small pans. She has reduced the trips from 20 to six and takes care of the rabbits at the same time.

The jobs most commonly simplified by 4-H girls are setting the table, preparing and serving meals, sewing, caring for clothes and grooming. The assistant home demonstration agent, Bexar County stated, "Girls just love to learn how they can simplify their jobs and save time for other activities they like to do." The statistical report of the home management specialists shows that 733 junior and adult 4-H leaders trained. They in turn gave 615 demonstrations and taught 49,283 other people the principles of job management.

Mary Loy Fulp, 4-Her from McLennan County, thinks doing your work in the simplest way not only save energy, but time as well. She learned to organize her work and omit all unnecessary parts of a job. Now she correlates work simplification with her active demonstrations in clothing, food preparation, canning and freezing foods, farm safety and home improvement.

Public Schools Set High Standard In Instilling Moral Values In Children

If all other institutions were doing as fine a job as the public schools there would be nothing to worry about so far as moral values of children are concerned. University of Texas Education Dean L. D. Haskew declared.

"Where else is honesty an absolute rule?" he asked. The schoolboy who loses six cents of his lunch money is advised by his teacher to tell the truth about the loss to his parents, Dr. Haskew said. But at home his mother may say, "Answer the phone, please, Johnny and if it's Mrs. Willis, tell her I'm not in."

At the dinner table, Dean Haskew added, the boy may hear his father tell of a business deal in which he made a $1,000 profit because he found a man "out on a limb," and sawed the limb out from under him.

Discussing the school's role in teaching moral and spiritual values, Dr. Hakey commented: "The real question, then," he continued, "is what we can do actually to achieve better the goals we seek." Dean Haskew said teachers can create moral and spiritual values in students by "catching" the values themselves, thus serving as examples; by creating a classroom atmosphere in which values are shown, as well as talked about; by direct teaching; and by a "life-centered" approach—teaching children to use the values as a guide for thinking out their problems.

Social Security Representative To Be Here June 19

Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, will be at the Chamber of Commerce in Haskell at 11 a. m. on Thursday, June 19. Persons wishing to file retirement claims or survivor's claims under the Social Security Act are invited to call at that time.

Fisher in a statement made today, called attention to the importance of the social security card and stated that it is each worker's responsibility to keep possession of his card. Getting a duplicate is simple but it takes about a week or ten days to verify the number and issue a duplicate. If the job seeker has lost his card, he may miss a chance to go to work during this week or 10 days.

Over 100 million cards have been issued nationally since social security began 15 years ago. Another 5 million will be issued this year including those going to self-employed persons and persons in other recently covered groups.

Young people starting on their careers or vacation jobs will need cards soon. Fisher suggests that these young people might follow the example set by workers now reaching retirement age. They have carried cards for about 15 years, and many of them still have their original cards. They recognized that their cards had a definite value to them, and now in their older years it is paying off.

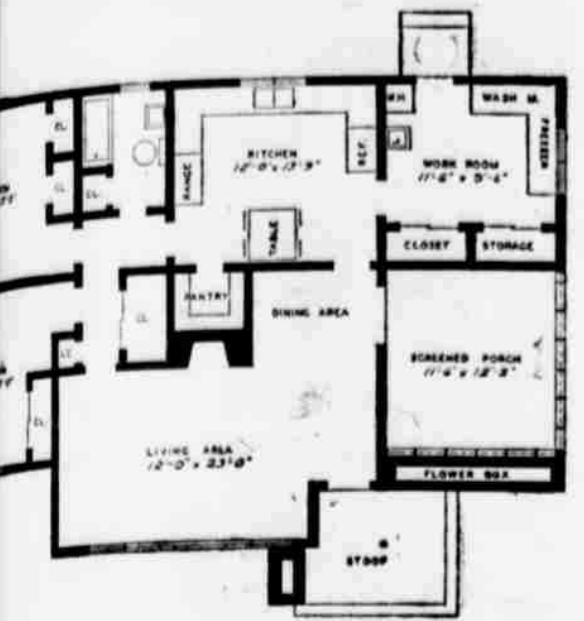

Applications for social security cards may be obtained at the local post office. Completed applications should be mailed to the Social Security Administration, Post Office Building, Abilene, Texas.

Plenty of wall cabinets can be arranged around the double windows over the sink. The kitchen arrangement permits a counter or work surface approximately 18 feet long.

The screened porch is designed to be an addition to the living-dining area when you desire. Large double doors open onto it from that section of the house.

For those who prefer some form of central heating system the hall closet can serve as space for gas heating equipment. Any necessary duct work will be at a minimum. It will be equally feasible to install an attic type furnace. If oils or solid fuels are used, a small basement under the kitchen area will be all that is needed for the furnace.
