

Superintendent to Be Named From Five Top Applicants

A lengthy called meeting of the Haskell School Board Tuesday night, the list of approximate applicants for the school superintendent's position was narrowed to five.

At the meeting, the board selected the contracts of two school teachers and one elementary teacher who had been on one-year contracts at an earlier meeting.

Contract of W. P. McColl, high school principal, was renewed from one to two years, and the contracts of Edg Todd, principal of the elementary school, and of Ray Overton, Jr., principal of the high school football team, were renewed.

On all actions taken by the board were unanimous, with members present and voting.

The session, which lasted until 11 p. m., the members of the board reviewed all applications for superintendent and selected what they considered the five best qualified, trained, and experienced prospective successors.

Sam H. Vaughter, who is on a one-year contract, was re-elected to the board, composed of seven members, then assigned the members to two groups with four members each.

W. O. Holden, chairman, Fred Gilliam and Dick leaving Wednesday to the home cities of three of the candidates.

These three places they made a check on the applicants from other cities today. The other candidates were Gaston Hatfield, J. Kemp and Ed W. Service. A similar check was made on the two candidates from other places.

Monday night the board reviewed reports from the candidates and will invite the candidates to make a personal interview with the board.

Meeting Scheduled Saturday To Decide Day For Observing 4th of July Holiday

A meeting of Haskell merchants for the purpose of deciding the closing date for observance of the Fourth of July, has been scheduled for Saturday at 10 o'clock in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe.

Because the 4th comes on Saturday, two suggested closing dates have been advanced. One is to close on Saturday, the date reported as being generally adopted for observance by neighboring towns. Another suggestion is that retail stores remain open Saturday, and take Monday, July 6th as a holiday. This date for the holiday was advanced at a recent meeting attended by six businessmen.

In announcing the meeting Saturday morning, C. of C. manager Rex Felker said that the date chosen Saturday by a majority of businessmen present would be the date recommended for town-wide observance.

Bank, Postoffice, and Oil Industry Firms to Close 4th

Saturday, July 4th will be observed as a holiday by the Haskell National Bank, the Post Office, State Highway Department, and several oil industry concerns, a survey made today shows.

Also, offices in the courthouse will take a holiday on the 4th, which in reality will mean only a half-day, because offices now close at noon on Saturday.

Bank holidays are governed by Federal regulations, as are holidays observed by the Post Office. It was explained. In a general sense, any holiday taken by State employees is designated by executive officials.

Local oil concerns that will observe Saturday July 4th as a holiday include Schlumberger, Anderson Construction Co., and Service Pipe Line. The latter concern will take a holiday on the 4th and also Monday July 6th.

Prospects for County's Cotton Crop Nearing Crucial Stage

Haskell County's cotton crop neared a crucial stage this week.

The weather—or more specifically, rain or lack of rain—during the next two weeks will mean the difference between one of the smallest annual yields of cotton in 54 years of record keeping or a potential "fair" production in Haskell County from the 1953 crop, many farmers were saying this week.

Despite extremely hot weather that has prevailed during June, cotton has held up uniformly well, and sufficient rainfall during the next few days could carry the plant well into maturity. County Agent F. W. Martin said this week. Many farmers report a good stand, but that it is deteriorating rapidly and excessive loss can be expected unless rain comes within a matter of days, they say.

Best prospects for cotton are found in the areas comprising the northwest section of the county, where the plant is holding up well despite the continued drought and hot weather.

Also in that area, some farm irrigation has been developed and an estimated 5,000 acres of cotton is being watered from wells. Cotton in that area is virtually assured a fair yield, but would represent only a fraction of the county's normal producing area.

Record of cotton production in Haskell County, dating back to 1899, shows that 830 bales were ginned in the county that year. Next smallest yield was in the

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

In Washington it is not felt that it was by accident that a horse named Eisenhower was hitched up to pull the Royal State Coach during the Coronation. In fact, betting is even that if the event had occurred a year ago, there would have been a horse named Truman hitched to the Royal State Coach instead.

British wit is noted for being very dry. It is also sardonic, and thus many feel that this aspect of the ceremony was a tacit admission that C. W. Harder the pomp and glitter presented depended upon support from the American government.

And with similar tongue in cheek tactics, the British also launched the grandiose slogan "Trade, Not Aid" in the drive to break down American tariff protection to permit the flooding of the U. S. market.

The great mystery in many circles in Washington is the effectiveness of British salesmanship in selling these ideas to many presumably intelligent Americans, aside from the American businessmen with plants abroad.

But despite their ringing acclaim for the principle of "Trade, Not Aid", British leaders continue to prove that they either have no intention, nor ability to work out free trade even among their own Dominions.

Mutual Security Bulletin No. 317 contains an interesting demonstration of classic British thinking on free trade.

It seems apparent that the cornerstone of their thinking on free trade is first that someone in authority in America make free with U. S. tax dollars. In the bulletin referred to, MSA approved a deal whereby U. S. taxes are being used to buy $625,000 worth of copper matte in a British Dominion, Canada. The authorization further provides that this material can only be shipped either to Norway, or to Great Britain for refining with the delivery of the refined product made to France.

Thus, Canada's copper industry profits, the United Kingdom refining industry will profit, and presumably French industry has a way of making a profit on the deal.

But significantly, the American taxpayer, who foots the bill, doesn't figure in the profit.

On the same day MSA also released authorization for another trade deal between members of the British Commonwealth.

An item of $20,000,000 in aluminum is bought in Canada and sent to Great Britain, in a little inter-family deal, courtesy American taxpayers.

But of course, free trade between Britain and her commonwealth is flourishing today.

And with American dollars furnishing the backbone of the trade, it is easy to see why the British are enthusiastic backers of their own slogan "Trade, Not Aid."

But this big question unanswered is this:

If the U. S. should abolish tariff protection so that cheap imports will close up American factories, depress American farm income, where else on the face of the earth can a group of taxpayers be found both willing and able to compensate the loss to Americans that is incurred by such free trade.

GOBLE'S Dairyland PRODUCTS

This is the 1933 Chevrolet 4-Door Sedan. It's one of 16 Chevrolet models in 3 series, which add up to the widest choice in the low-price line.

Some Chevrolet advantages worth considering when you're ready to choose a car...

Next to a new house, a car is probably your most important purchase. Here are some facts to help you make up your mind about which make to buy.

Don't you agree that it's well worthwhile to weigh all the factors carefully before you buy any new car? Let's consider the major reasons why people choose one make over another and see how the 1933 Chevrolet stands in those respects.

Styling You Can Stay Proud Of

Styling, of course, is a matter of personal taste. Because we think Chevrolet is the best-looking car in its field, doesn't necessarily mean you'll think so, too. But we can tell you that the majority of our showroom visitors prefer Chevrolet styling and compare its appearance most favorably with cars costing a great deal more.

And you might consider this: Chevrolet styling is the newest in its field. It's the kind of styling that stays new, too. For it is based, not on fads or extremes, but on the fundamentals of good, modern design.

The One Automobile Body Almost Everybody Knows

It's not really surprising that so many people prefer Chevrolet's appearance. For Chevrolet is the only low-priced car with Body by Fisher. And Fisher, as you know, is the only automobile body manufacturer with a world-wide reputation for styling, craftsmanship and quality.

The Many Benefits of High-Compression Power

When you drive a new Chevrolet (and we hope you'll do that soon), you'll notice these things: faster acceleration from a standing start; greater passing ability in traffic and on the highway; the new ease with which you climb steep hills.

These are just some of the benefits of Chevrolet's new high-compression power. In gearshift models, there is an advanced 108-h.p. "Thrift-King" engine with a 7.1 to 1 compression ratio. Teamed with the new Powerglide automatic transmission* is an entirely new 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" engine with 7.5 to 1 compression ratio. It is the most powerful engine in Chevrolet's field.

A Great Gain in Gasoline Economy

Along with remarkable new performance, Chevrolet's advanced engines give you far greater gasoline mileage. In fact, this year marks the most important gain in economy in Chevrolet history. And that includes substantial savings on over-all upkeep, as well as on gasoline.

The First Power Steering in a Low-Priced Car

This year's Chevrolet is the only car in its field to offer you the extra ease and convenience of Power Steering, optional at extra cost. With it, you can spin the wheel with the strength of one finger. You can seasaw in and out of tight parking places without the slightest strain. You get an additional cushion against road shocks and jars. Driving is easier, safer.

A Smoother and a Safer Ride

Chevrolet is the heaviest low-priced car. Model for model, a Chevrolet will weigh as much as 200 pounds more than the other makes. You often hear people say they buy high-priced cars because they're heavier, hold the road better and ride better. Well, isn't it logical, then, that Chevrolet's extra weight (which comes from extra strength of body and frame) would result in a better ride?

Chevrolet is the Lowest-Priced Line

Certainly, price is one of the most important factors of all. We're glad to be able to tell you that Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in its field. Now, you might well ask, "Can Chevrolet offer me more and cost less?" There is a simple, logical answer to that.

Remember that Chevrolet has more cars than any other manufacturer. Chevrolet, along with General Motors, has greater facilities, research, for engineering and production. So, isn't it reasonable that the greater facilities bring manufacturing advantages and economies which Chevrolet can pass on to you in the form of higher quality at lower price?

An Endorsement Given No Other Car

Again this year, more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car. Obviously that wouldn't be true unless people liked Chevrolet better. Unless Chevrolet offered more than people want—more value.

So, when you're ready to choose your new car, wouldn't you agree that Chevrolet merits your careful consideration? We welcome your visit any time, so that you can look over yourself and try it out on the road.

*Combination of 115-h.p. "Blue-Flame" and Powerglide automatic transmission optional on "Two-Ten" and "Bel Air" at extra cost.

MORE PEOPLE BUY CHEVROLETS THAN ANY OTHER CAR!

Chas. E. Coombes, Well-Known West Texas Jurist, Dies

Funeral rites were held Friday afternoon at the First Christian Church in Abilene for Judge Charles Edward Coombes, prominent West Texas lawyer and jurist, who died June 17 in a Dallas hospital. Burial was in Cedar Hill Cemetery in Abilene, beside the grave of his wife, who died in 1950.

Judge Coombes, a former Abilene mayor and one-time president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was founder of the Texas Coombes Reunion Association of Stamford, and was a prominent civic leader in that city for almost three decades. Judge Coombes was born on Coombes Creek in Dallas County, Sept. 25, 1875, but headed for the northwest part of the state while a boy of 15. He worked as a cowboy on the old A. Spilke Ranch in Knox County. In 1894 he married Miss Nellie Bedford, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bedford, prominent Benjamin, Texas, landowners.

He began the study of law while serving as deputy district and county clerk at Knox City and later was elected Knox County attorney and then district attorney of the 50th District, which encompassed Baylor, Knox, King, Cottle, Motley, Floyd, Crosby, Hale and Tabbcock Counties and the unorganized counties of Cochran, Hookley, and Lynn.

Coombes had been associated with the Fort Worth & Denver Railway as a director - trustee since May 3, 1933.

Gov. Thomas M. Campbell appointed him district judge in 1908. The Coombeses left Benjamin in 1912 for Anson where he formed a law partnership with the late W. R. Chapman. Four years later he began a series of moves which took him first to Stamford, then to Cisco and Abilene, where he served as mayor for two terms from 1923 to 1927 when he returned to Stamford, where he had made his home ever since.

During his long and colorful career, Judge Coombes served as president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce in 1931 and remained a life-time member of the board of directors.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. S. P. Henagan of Abilene; four sons, Charles E. Coombes, Jr., of San Angelo, Joe Coombes of Odessa, Jerry Coombes of Boulder City, Nev., and Zach Coombes of Stamford and two grandchildren.

State Renews 4-H Program Of Special Interest To Girls

The National 4-H Dress Revue award program has been approved for 1953 by the State extension service.

In this program, which is open to all girls participating in the 4-H clothing program, members learn to dress appropriately in keeping with a well-planned family budget, and to develop poise, proper posture and habits of good grooming. The popularity of this program is reflected in the enrollment of girls last year, which totaled 669,259. Simplicity Pattern Co. provides awards of honor medals to the county blue award winners and an all-expense trip to the National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago next November to the state winner. Each state winner participating in the national presentation at the Club Congress will receive a leather-cased scissors set.

County Extension agents will furnish complete information concerning these programs.

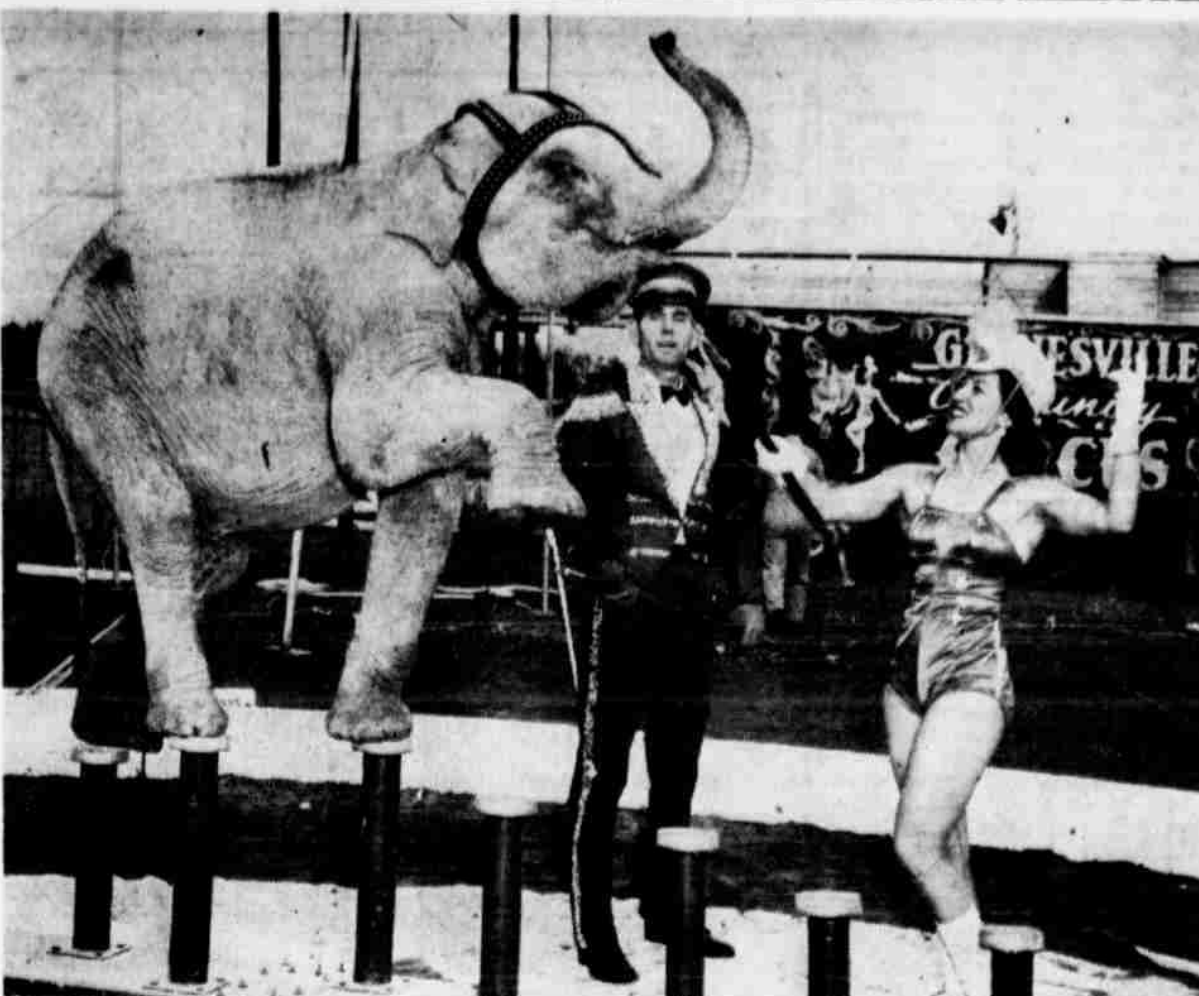

The problem of going to sleep at night is one that bothers millions of Americans. These people suffer from insomnia, a condition doctors describe as one of the most common they encounter. Sleep and wakefulness, says Dr. Nathaniel Kleitman, a University of Chicago physiologist, are governed by two nerve groups in the brain, which he calls the "wakefulness center." Sleep cannot come if this center is disturbed by the activities of the cerebral cortex, the seat of man's intellectual processes of reason, judgment, and the like.

Thus the counter of sheep worries over his inability to sleep, finds this worry itself stimulates the wakefulness center and makes sleep impossible to woe. Of course a person not inclined to chronic insomnia can also be kept awake by unusual fears or cares.

Scientists know that the human temperature rises and falls once every 24 hours. The lowest period is the ideal one for sleep. Since this period can be regulated by the sleeper's habits, it offers a means for the chronic insomniac to cure his condition without recourse to sleeping pills.

To utilize it, says Dr. Kleitman, the insomniac should set a regular hour, whether in the day or night, and retire to bed at that same time every day. Gradually, his body will become accustomed to the habit, his temperature will begin to drop at the appointed hour, and sleep will come with less difficulty.

Several popular acts from the Gainesville Circus will be featured in the Frontier Cavalcade, colorful two-hour show to be presented at Indian Football Stadium Tuesday evening, June 30. Shown above is a midjet elephant from the famed circus in one of the novelty acts that will be presented. Vern Brewer, animal trainer with the Gainesville Community Circus, will also stage two Liberty acts with midjet Shetland ponies in the rings.

Attorney General Shepperd Asks Survey To Determine State's Water Resources

Anahuac, June 20 — Attorney General John Ben Shepperd told water conservationists Saturday that Texas cannot wait the four years allotted by the 55th Legislature for a comprehensive survey of the state's water resources. He urged immediate cooperation of all cities, counties, water districts and agencies to make inventory of needs and speed up a unified water policy for the state.

Shepperd spoke to some 5,000 members of the Fraternity of the White Heron at a ninth annual convention in Anahuac. The group promote the development of water resources in Texas and the Southwest.

In addition to an immediate statewide water inventory, Shepperd named two other urgent needs. "We must have a clear-cut understanding among the various water authorities as to who is going to do what," he said. "There is too much bickering between Federal and State government, and between various river authorities and water districts. Somebody in authority ought to call them together in the next ten days, lock the doors and let them thrash it out."

Second, he pointed out the lack of an agency to act in water emergencies. He expressed the hope that reorganization of the Board of Water Engineers, voted by the last session of the Legislature, will authorize the Board to establish emergency rules on water use.

Pointing out that "every city and county has some kind of constitutional authority to take stock of its needs and deficiencies," the Attorney General called upon all mayors and county judges to form water resources committees on the local and county level.

He urged all water districts, river authorities and watershed associations to work under the State Water Resources Committee in making a prompt survey.

"But let's leave the politics out of it," he said. "Let every water-worried Texan be fact-finder, not a lobbyist. Politics, like oil, will not mix with water."

Pointing up the committee's task of recommending water legislation, the Attorney General said, "When the survey is complete and a water policy outlined, I believe we should ask the governor for a special session of the Legislature to consider nothing but the water problem. It will not suffice to have this question brought up in a crowded regular session with twelve or fifteen hundred other bills."

Shepperd was the first Attorney General to set up a separate water division in his office to study the complexity of water laws. He is a past president of the Sabine River Watershed Association and a long-time member of the statewide Tidelands Committee.

"Our problem can not wait, and neither can we," he concluded his talk. "Let's get Texas back to the point where, when we speak of dry counties, we won't be talking about water."

Potatoes Tried As Cash Crop By Knox County Farmers

The first planting of potatoes as a cash crop in Knox County has been harvested, with good returns realized. An average yield of 110 pounds to the acre was harvested in the Munday area, of which 70 per cent of the crop graded No. 1. The remaining yield was divided about evenly between No. 2's and seed potatoes.

Averages were as follows: Knox Plains Farm, 17 acres; Leroy Lef-flur, 6 acres; Joe Voss, 3 acres.

Potatoes were planted on March 2, and harvested the week of June 8-12. The crops were irrigated about five times, with every other row watered each time.

Producers have announced that they plan to plant potatoes next year and hope to realize even higher yields, provided weather conditions are normal, and they can get an earlier planting. Better seed beds are also to be prepared for the crop.

Varieties of potatoes planted were Red Triumph and White Cobbler. Crop of beans and onions will be harvested at a later date.

Prices on Cattle, Calves, at Lowest Ebb In Decade on Fort Worth Market Monday

By TED GOULDY
Fort Worth—The first marketing day of the summer season at Fort Worth Monday was a typical blazing hot one which saw liberal receipts in the cattle yards off Texas fields and ranges. The sheep run was seasonally large, too.

Trade in the cattle yards was about on par with last week's low close, and prices were at the lowest ebb on most classes of cattle and calves in over ten years. Grained steers were lacking, and creeped heavy calves and a few yearlings made up the choice fat offerings in the cattle division.

Pat and Wren Jackson, Lampasas, had two toppy loads of Good and choice fat yearlings and heifers drew $17 to $22, and common and medium grasses sold from $8 to $15, with minimum kinds in the $5 to $8 field.

Good and choice stocker steer calves sold from $12 to $17, and heifers sold from $14 down. Stocker steer yearlings drew $10 to $14, a few to $15. Heifer mates to steer calves and steer yearlings usually sold around $3 under.

Good and choice fat calves cleared at $13 to $17, a few to $18, and some fancy creeped yearling weights to $20.50, from Lloyd Hanshaw of Iredell. Common and medium kinds sold for $8 to $12, and culls drew $5 to $8. Sheep and lambs were steady, some fat lambs a little stronger.

Vacation Bible School In Full Swing At First Baptist Church; 240 Enrolled

Vacation Bible School is in full swing at the First Baptist Church. Two hundred and sixty-four happy boys and girls and faculty members had a good time in their program of Vacation Bible School work.

Pastor Rexrode says that in his experience in Vacation Bible School work never has he seen a school run with such efficiency and smoothness as the school this year is moving along. Wonderful progress is being made in all of the departments. "In spite of the fact that many of the children have been in summer band practice, some are away at scout camp and there are 24 of our boys at the R. A. encampment at Lueders, we are having a splendid attendance and good interest," he said.

Rev. Rexrode continued: "We are grateful for the splendid work that our fine faculty is doing. This program is designed for the boys and girls to have the happiest two weeks of the year at the church. Our greatest opportunity of real service is through making a spiritual investment in the lives of our growing boys and girls. We must remember that these children of today pass this way but once. What we are going to do for them in the field of character building and Bible study and growth in Christian living must be done now."

The pastor said with this keen sense of responsibility the faculty of more than eighty people are hard at work as they help these boys and girls to have a good time in Bible study, character stories, music, appreciation, and development, salutes to the American flag, to the Christian flag, and to the Bible, mission work, scripture memory work, handwork, a period of play time and recreation with refreshments.

"We are expecting the enrollment to reach 350 by the end of this week. If your boy and girl are not in Bible School they are invited to come to the rest of this school," the minister said.

Pioneer Physicians Will Be Honored At Program In Goree July 4th

DR. E. F. HEARD

DR. W. M. TAYLOR

Goree residents have planned a celebration in the city park July 4th to honor two physicians who have practiced for over a hundred years combined.

Dr. E. F. Heard and Dr. W. M. Taylor, who were graduated together from Georgia College of Medicine and Surgery in Atlanta in 1902; have treated members of three generations in many Goree families.

A program honoring the doctors will be held the morning of the 4th at 10 o'clock. Their friends have been invited to bring an old fashioned picnic lunch to be spread with the barbecue furnished by Goree residents for the noon hour.

Further tribute will be paid the honorees in the afternoon program beginning at 2 o'clock. "We hope to make this July 4th celebration a memorable occasion for the esteemed men and the town," sponsors of the program said.

The two doctors were presented plaques by the Baylor-Haskell-Knox Tri-county Medical Society in May, 1952 in recognition of their long service to people of this area.

"Boy and Girl on the Prairie at Old Fort Griffin" is the theme for the 10th production of the Fort Griffin Fandangle at Albany, to be presented there tonight and Friday and Saturday nights, June 25-27. A cast of more than 200 takes part in the production.

Fandangle Director Robert Nail weaves this theme into romance, singing and dancing of the frontier days for the three evening when the show is produced on Albany's high school football field, under the same stars that shone over lively Fort Griffin town and Army Post nearly 90 years ago.

History of the settlement is retold in each Fandangle story. A new phase, new songs and scenes, costumes of the era—bring out the best and a little of the worst of the "frontier life" that seems so long ago. The symbols of the Fandangle—the Longhorn steer, the fiddle and the bow—are a tribute to the pioneer past and the symbol of merriment of the days gone by.

Nail strives to bring the highest type of entertainment, and with young people of college and high school, some of whom have "grown up" in past Fandangles, he shines in casting and directing. He did drama and playwright as a youngster in his Albany Backyard Theatre, in Lawrenceville School and at Princeton University in New Jersey. He spent two seasons with Fort Worth's Little Theatre before embarking on a series of Fort Griffin Fandangles and on the annual Nativity Pageant in Albany.

Fort Griffin moved to Albany with the coming of the Texas Central Railroad, and this year a working replica of the "Tin Can" "Try Weekly" of earlyday railroading will take an important part in the Fandangle.

Jack Sutherlin, Former Haskell Boy, Has Major Part In Perfecting 'Sandfracing' As New Oil Recovery Process

An oil recovery process developed by Jack Sutherlin, a former Haskell boy, and William B. Harber, both with Dowell, Inc., in Wichita Falls, has resulted in bringing to the surface a vast amount of oil from abandoned wells where orthodox methods had exhausted the supply.

This came to light in a story published in Sunday's Wichita Daily Times concerning current work of the process in the old South Bend pool in Young County.

Sutherlin, one of the men mainly responsible for developing the process, called "sandfracing" was born and reared in Haskell, and attended Haskell High school. His father, Ernest Sutherlin, owned and operated a barber shop here before moving to Wichita Falls a number of years ago.

Jack Sutherlin is district manager for Dowell, Inc., and the company services a number of oil wells in the Sojourner pool near Haskell and the Sid Katz field in Haskell-Stonewall Counties.

The newspaper story concerning present activity in the South Bend pool that resulted from the new recovery process, follows:

Many old-timers of the small village of South Bend, in the southern part of Young County, still reckon the time from, and previous to, the day that Panhandle Oil Corporation's No. 8 McCluskey roared in as a gusher to produce 5,800 barrels of oil per day for eight months.

Completed as it was, shortly after the end of World War I it was only natural that it would be nicknamed "Big Bertha," reminiscent of the big gun that made "no man's land" what it was.

Now, 33 years later, the old-timers and newcomers alike are witnessing another oil boom in the same vicinity—on the same lands. Gone, however, are the days of the earth-shaking, roaring gushers.

Today's boom is made possible by the oil industry's march of progress; its newly perfected methods for oil recovery.

Currently, Rankin-Pitecock, Graham drilling contractors, associated with General Tire and Rubber, A. F. Knappenberger, also a Graham drilling contractor, and others have a total of 16 wells in the old McCluskey field with as many more locations to be made in the 1900 and 3150 foot pay zones. The completed wells are producing from 20 to 90 barrels daily after treatments, mainly sandfracing.

Ben H. Rankin, of Rankin-Pitecock, said "two of our 11 wells are producing from the 1900 foot McCluskey level and the other nine wells from the 3150 foot Bryson series of the Strawn pay."

Rankin added: "A deeper test to the Mississippian level is our immediate objective, and we are optimistic that a commercial producer will result after fracturing."

Several abandonments are shown on the map in the vicinity where the 16 wells are now producing. At least three of these tests were drilled by the Roxana Oil Company.

A large majority of the treatments necessary to make the new South Bend wells produce were applied by Dowell, Inc. The process, trade named sandfracing, was perfected by Jack "Doc" Sutherlin, Haskell native and Dowell's district manager, and William B. "Silver" Harber, the company's North-Central Texas District area manager.

"Basically," Sutherlin said in an interview in his company's office in Wichita Falls new Oil and Gas Building, "the process is simple. Sufficient pressure is applied to force equal units of sand and oil—pounds and gallons—through the tubing to the bottom of the hole where it is widely spread, with terrific pressure, in the potential pay structure of the test."

"Seventy-five thousand units is the largest treatment that we have applied so far," he added. It was also revealed that in some cases chemicals are used, and that the numbers of units used in practically every treatment varies. The oil used in the treatment is recovered.

Thus the "oil patches" of South Bend are reborn. The McCluskey Pool, scene of the "Big Bertha" of a third of a century ago, lives again. An ingenious, ever progressive oil industry evidently took a tip from Longfellow, who said, "all the means of action—The shapeless masses, the materials—Lie everywhere about us." In either event, South Bend is again, today, pin-pointed as one of the important oil producing sections of the nation.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS" BY C. WILSON HARDER

Mutual Security Agency, successor to Marshall Plan, has released a voluminous report many in Washington call "White Paper to Justify Worldwide Cartel Arrangements."

Officially called an evaluation report, it is derived from recommendations of 54 U. S. businessmen who visited a few of the 50 nations receiving U. S. aid.

The roster of investigating businessmen is studded with heads of U. S. firms who occupy near monopoly positions, as well as international financial houses.

For example, a recommendation is made that MSA, which with the Marshall Plan has already cost American taxpayers over thirty billion, and which was set up for emergency conditions, now be made a permanent State Department branch.

And although eleven different study groups composed the report, there was majority agreement on certain points.

A major recommendation was the abolishment of the Sparkman and the Benton-Moody amendments to Mutual Security law, as well as all other regulations aiding small business.

Thus, any regulation requiring small business to share in expenditures for goods given away, should be eliminated.

And, in receiving nations, there should be no regulations preventing U. S. aid being used to build foreign monopoly business.

Reports that MSA employees abroad live in luxury were minimized.

Yet, the report does state that in Paris, for example, MSA employees are paid considerably higher than comparable salaries in Washington, D. C., that employees' standards of living are creating envy and criticism in foreign lands; and that many employees are maintaining large homes staffed with servants.

In Italy, the investigators found an abundant labor supply, which the report states is an attraction to private capital. Military spending in Italy should be continued, it is recommended, with the provision, however, that U. S. dollars should be spent in Italy for Italian made goods.

It is also recommended that the U. S. purchase in Italy autos, textiles, and food.

This last item causes great amusement in Washington.

Facts are—Italy does not produce enough food to feed her own; the U. S. has given millions in food to Italy to prevent starvation. Yet, the "experts" say U. S. should buy food in Italy.

Also significant was unanimous agreement where to cut MSA spending.

The cut, it is recommended, should be made in MSA information services, which report where and when American tax dollars are spent abroad.

Stripped of surplus words, the report recommends:

1. That U. S. permanently continue to spend billions abroad.
2. That no protection be given U. S. small business or agriculture.
3. That no prohibitions be retained barring use of U. S. taxes to build European monopolies.
4. That the public be told less about what is going on.

DON'T GAMBLE WITH WEEVIL KILL!

USE dieldrin . . . the only organic insecticide recommended after weevil migration in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

1952 was the worst weevil year in Lower Rio Grande history, but growers who used dieldrin came out of the season with a profitable crop. Dieldrin's sensational performance last year got official recognition. Put this proven power to work for you!

Top performance—Research and experience at Texas experiment station show dieldrin is superior in killing weevils, particularly under extreme climatic conditions. That's why in the Lower Rio Grande Valley where boll weevil is traditionally tough, dieldrin is the only organic poison officially recommended after weevil migration.

Highest boll weevil kill—Dieldrin gives the highest mid and late season boll weevil kill. From the beginning of the season to the end of the season, no other insecticide controls cotton insects as completely as dieldrin-DDT.

Long residual action—No other cotton poison lasts as long even under normal conditions. Research at Texas experiment stations has proved that no other poison can equal dieldrin's lasting control in hot, dry, windy areas. Dieldrin is effective up to 7 days and even rain has less effect on dieldrin's killing power than on other poisons.

Don't take chances this season . . . be sure your insecticide dollar gets you highest cotton yield per acre. Get dieldrin now!

New Lifesaving Technique Now In Use

NEW ARTIFICIAL RESPIRATION TECHNIQUE, the Nielsen "back-pressure arm-lift" method, which has now been adopted as standard by the American Red Cross, the Armed Forces and the National Safety Council, is demonstrated in these scenes from a new motion picture, "Seconds Count," produced by the Aetna Casualty and Surety Company. The 10-minute movie, which portrays a step-by-step demonstration of the Nielsen method, may be obtained without charge for showings by contacting local Aetna representatives or through the company's public education department at Hartford, Conn. The "back-pressure arm-lift" method increases chances of revival since it pulls fresh air into lungs as well as expelling air from them. In administering it, rescuer rocks forward exerting pressure on victim's back (top photo) and then rocks backwards grasping victim's arms (bottom photo), repeating cycle 10 to 12 times a minute.

Mahon Urges Farm and Ranch Groups To Give Secretary Benson Report on Drought Conditions

Congressman Geo. Mahon advises from Washington that Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson is most anxious to get a firsthand report on the Texas drought situation when he visits Lubbock on June 27 to speak to the American Cotton Congress. Mahon has been working with the secretary on plans for the Lubbock meeting.

In summarizing the situation, Mahon said: "The Secretary, through various agencies of the Department which he heads, has been keeping in close touch with the situation. He has discussed the drought problems with the President and members of the Cabinet. He has called upon me and others to suggest ideas as to how to meet the problem, and he wants to get the considered judgment of the people in the drought areas as to what they think the Government can best do to aid farmers and ranchmen in the drought-stricken country."

Secretary Benson as to the facts of the situation and as to what should be done to meet the problem. It is most important that full information as to conditions be submitted to the Secretary. Mahon and others members of Congress have been holding a series of meetings in Washington with key government officials in an effort to devise methods for Government assistance to the people of the drought areas.

Rex Felker, C. of C. manager, and Myrem Beard, Saddle Tramps president, distributed advertising literature in Stamford, Anson, Hamlin and Aspermont, and extended invitations to attend the event.

Heavy Traffic Expected On 4th of July Weekend Will Hike Accident Hazards

Can you make quick decisions? If you can't you had better stay off the nation's highways and streets over the Fourth of July week end, the National Safety Council said today.

"It has been estimated that the average motorist has to make from 20 to 50 decisions per hour, depending on the traffic," the Council said, "and a wrong decision can be fatal in extremely heavy traffic, like during the holidays, a driver is never more than a second away from an accident."

The Council expects more pleasure-seeking motorists to climb into more cars and roll more miles during this three-day week end celebration than ever before in the nation's history.

Nearly 40 million motor vehicles are expected to jam the highways, and their speedometers are expected to clock close to 4 billion miles. The increasing number of new cars on the road and the substantial rise in gasoline consumption, plus the fact that many summer vacationists will use the three-day week end as the beginning or end of their regular vacation periods, threaten a heavy death toll unless extra care is used, the Council warned.

The Council is coordinating a nationwide campaign to hold down the holiday toll, and 161 national organizations have joined in the united effort. The campaign is designed to increase public awareness of the extra holiday hazards and the extra caution needed to overcome them.

It also seeks to help officials, traffic officers and safety leaders in their efforts to reduce traffic accidents over the Fourth.

Urging public support of the campaign, Neg H. Dearborn, president of the Council, said excessive

"Speed control is the personal responsibility of every driver," he said. "A heavy foot on the throttle can mean a heavy heart for someone."

Advising an early start for holiday motor trips to reduce the temptation to speed, the Council offered these tips to drivers:

1. Obey common sense as well as legal speed limits.
2. Keep your car under control at all times, so you can stop quickly if circumstances demand.
3. Keep fresh and alert at the wheel. You can't make decisions if you're tired before turning. Avoid alcohol. Slow down at night and be sure you can stop the range of your lights.

County Would Gain Under New Cotton Control Program

Cotton acreage under crop control allotments for most West Texas counties will be increased if a three-year average on cotton acres in cultivation is substituted for the present formula which is based on a 5-year average. Haskell County would be allotted 166,400 acres on the proposed 3-year basis and 154,000 on the present 5-year basis. Hearings are due to start in Washington before congressional committees during the coming week on House Bill 5655 and Senate Bill 2106, which propose the substitution widely supported by many western cotton growers. Information developed by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce from records published by the U. S. Department of Agriculture show that all but 20 of 117 cotton growing counties in West Texas would gain acreage by passage of these bills, largely because of new acreage put into cotton production during recent years. The law now provides that allotments be based on an average acreage of five crop years—1947, 1948, 1950, 1951 and 1952. The year of 1949 was specifically omitted. The new proposal would change the basis to the three years of 1951, 1952 and 1953. West Texas as a whole would gain 688,900 acres for 1954 if the new formula is approved by Congress. The WTCC urges every grower to give his Congressman his opinion of the more desirable formula.

Rousetts Win One, Drop Two, In Out-of-Town Contests Past Week

Haskell girls' softball team, Anson Rousetts, took a win and two losses in three out-of-town contests which took them to Paint Creek, Byers and Rule.

In a game at Paint Creek last Thursday night, the Rousetts lost a well-played contest 11-7 to the Pirates girls team. The game, witnessed by a good turn-out of enthusiastic fans, was one of the best of the season. Marilyn Smith went five innings on the mound for the Rousetts, with Darlene Dunnam relieving in the last two frames.

Saturday night the Rousetts travelled to Byers for a return game with the Doughmixers, who took their second win of the season over the locals with a 12-6 score. Rousetts' battery for the Byers game was Onal Dunnam and Dorothy Knippling.

Monday night the Rousetts hit a winning streak to plaster a lopsided 17-1 defeat on the Rule girls softball team in a contest played in that city. Doing mound duty for the Rousetts throughout the seven-inning game was Doris Knippling, with Dorothy Knippling behind the plate.

Tonight—June 25—the Rousetts will go to Anson for a scheduled game with the Anson Girls Softballers. They will play the first game in a double-header offering which sees Burton Chevrolet Softballers vs. Anson All-Stars in the second game on the Anson diamond.

school was reinstated the following year with sixteen affiliated units.

Since that time Supt. Norman, with the wholehearted support of a strong faculty, a cooperating school board, and unexcelled community spirit, has succeeded in establishing an ideal educational program for the small rural high school, comparable to any in this area, with 20 accredited units. The curriculum is strong in vocational units such as secretarial training, bookkeeping, shorthand, business arithmetic, commercial law, and agriculture. Supt. Norman said a survey showed that over 70 per cent of the graduates went into secretarial work, and less than 10 per cent attended college.

The Douglas common school district was added to Mattson in 1948 and the Irby district in 1949 to bring the district up to 165 square miles of sparsely settled territory which had been previously served by nine common school districts.

Although the well-appointed, cream brick building with adjoining gymnasium at Mattson was completed in 1937, it was completely renovated in 1948. As a part of the $15,000 building program a pressure water system and butane heating units were installed to serve the entire school plant. Three teacherages were enlarged and modernized. The lunchroom was refinished and a large food locker was installed. A five-stall school bus house, with workshop, was constructed and new school buses purchased. In addition to the plant improvements, a public address system, new science material, bulletin boards, and various teaching aids were provided. A new central high school library with over $400 worth of new books as well as $300 worth of new film for a visual aid program was added as supplemental teaching aids.

In announcing his resignation, Supt. Norman said that his plans are uncertain at present, but that Mrs. Norman has her future employment settled. She will take care of their new son, Warren Craig, the lively youngster indicating that he will demand her undivided attention for the next few years at least.

In announcing their resignation, both Supt. and Mrs. Norman expressed their appreciation to the entire Mattson community for the splendid cooperation extended during their tenure with the school, along with their best wishes for success in the future school program.

Summer weather means more and more families will be going to lakes and streams for outings and picnics. Favorite forms of recreation are boating and swimming and both can be dangerous if the rules of water safety are not observed at all times. Don't, says the state Farm and Ranch Safety Committee, become a statistic by being careless while around, or on water.
