City's Water Supply Adequate, Despite Record Consumption

Haskell residents who have been concerned over the critical water shortage in neighboring towns and virtually every section of Texas, were given assurance today by Water Commissioner Olen Dotson that Haskell's water supply was ample to meet all demands. "There will be no restrictions on water use, and we are in position to continue furnishing out-of-town users, including farmers and the several oil field tank trucks all they need in addition to taking care of water patrons in the city limits," Dotson said. Unseasonably high temperatures in recent days has resulted in record consumption of water, and at times, pressure in the mains in some sections was low during the peak periods of use. "People were using the water as fast as we could pump it," Dotson explained. Completion of three new wells this week, with one being tied in to the mains today, will add an estimated 600,000 gallons and relieve the situation, City Engineer Roy Oliphant said. The wells, drilled by Ree Gardner, of this city, are located in the north and east parts of town, and in the Fairgrounds southeast of the square. Peak daily consumption of water during the recent heat wave has been around one and one-half million gallons. This has included servicing approximately 1,400 connections in the city limits, and in addition many farmers in the Haskell vicinity are securing water for domestic use here. Also, the city is supplying Shell Pump Station north of town two tank cars of water weekly, and recently six oil field tank trucks have contracted for water from the city water department. Another large user is the municipal swimming pool in Rice Springs Park, one of the few being operated in all West Texas during the current drought. City Engineer Oliphant said the water level in city wells is at the average for this season, and on two nights this week, a noticeable rise in the water level was recorded in all city wells. The municipal system is being currently supplied by nine wells. The three new wells being added, each with individual pumping units, will provide an adequate supply for all conceivable needs, city officials believe.

Tomkins, six miles southeast of Haskell, for completion. Casing was bottomed in the test at 4990 feet after recovering 32 feet of rich lower Strawn core from 4958 feet. Two hundred and 65 feet of free oil and 80 feet of oil and gas cut mud were recovered from the first tests. Gas surfaced in 21 minutes in the same tests. However, the test is three miles south and southeast of the Lawson Pools that produce from the Palo Pinto lime. Several twin wells are producing from the Upper and Lower Strawn in the Sojourner Field but no mention was made of findings of Upper pay in the No. 1 Tomkins, located 330 feet from southwest line, J. E. Ellis survey 52, A-127. Thos. D. Humphrey and Sons, Ltd., Dallas, will drill No. C-1 J. M. Collins as a wildcat 10 miles east of Haskell. It flowed 141.17 barrels of 42 gravity oil in 24 hours, with packer one-fourth inch choke with packer on casing and 110 pounds on tubing from open hole at 5252.73 feet, after 80-quart nitro shot. Gas-oil ratio was 690-1. Crown Central No. 2 R. A. Gillespie, section 5, block 3 H&TC survey, is a new producer in the Gillespie-Rockdale Field in southeastern Haskell County. It was completed for 49.16 barrels of 36 gravity oil per day on pump from open hole at 1544-64 feet. Hendrick and Sorrels, Abilene, will drill No. 2 T. N. Gillespie as a project in the same field, 1200 feet north and 150 from west lines of northeast quarter of section 5. It is slated for 1950 test with cable tool. Rowan and Hope, San Antonio, announced location for No. A-3 Anna Mae Hutchinson as a West Judd Field venture, four miles east of Judd. It will be a 5500-foot test 800 feet from north and 1140 from east lines of A. Slaydon survey 5. The Texas Company No. 1 H. D. Bland, section 66, J. Jamison survey, wildcat 6 1/2 miles southwest of Haskell, has been abandoned at 5510 feet. Roark, Hooker, Hill and Perini No. 1 Dennis P. ## Haskell County History

20 Years Ago—June 22, 1913
Mrs. Henry Wilson of Breckenridge is spending the week in Haskell with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Robertson.
A watch taken from the home of Wiley Reid, local druggist, one night last week, was recovered Wednesday by City Marshal Welsh and returned to the owner. No arrest has been made, but the officer has leads he believes will result in identifying the thief.
Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Duncan and son Belton have returned from Mineral Wells, where they spent two weeks.

The 1933 scholastic census of Haskell County has been completed, and shows 5,133 children of school age in the county. This is an increase of 337 over last year, when 4,816 scholastics were listed.
Deputy Sheriff Olen Dotson and Dan Kirkpatrick of this city, and Henry Townsend of Rule, in three raids staged last week secured over 600 bottles of "home brew" and a small quantity of liquor. Officers destroyed about 30 gallons of brew in the making, and arrested two men in connection with the seizures.
A saddle stolen early this month from Glenn Cobb, resident of the Cobb community southeast of town, was located by the sheriff's department at Cisco last week and returned to the owner. Two men believed implicated in the theft were arrested and placed under $750 bond each to await action of the Grand Jury.
Bill Bolin, an employee on the X Ranch east of Haskell, was rushed to this city Thursday afternoon after he had been bitten by a rattlesnake. The accident occurred around noon, while Bill was at work baling hay near the Rose camp on the ranch. Dr. D. L. Cummins of this city administered serum, and Bolin is recovering from the lethal injury.
Mr. and Mrs. Leon Pearsey and children visited with Mrs. Pearsey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. McElroy at Balinger the first of the week.

30 Years Ago—June 22, 1923
Jess Miller was in town Wednesday exhibiting the first cotton bloom of the season, taken from a stalk of Bowden cotton on his farm. He says cotton blooms on the 20th of June are unusual in West Texas, and pretty good for East Texas. He is predicting a bumper crop.

Citizens of O'Brien met Saturday and approved plans for organizing a bank in that community. Application will be made for a charter in the hopes the bank can be in operation by fall. The community has been without a bank since last fall, when the O'Brien State Bank was moved to Knox City.
The new brick home of T. E. Ballard in the north part of town is just about complete, and Mr. Ballard is moving his family back from Mineral Wells to occupy their new home.
John Draper, who has been assistant cashier in the Farmers State Bank for several years, has resigned and will enter business for himself. He plans to open the new filling station near completion on the southeast corner of the square, around July 1.
G. W. Waldrop, who recently sold his interest in Jones Cox & Company Hardware and furniture store here, plans to move his family to Abilene where they will make their future home. Mr. Waldrop has announced he will open a new home furnishings and furniture store in Abilene at an early date.
Byron Glasscock returned from a fishing trip on Paint Creek this week, and as part of his catch exhibited a catfish that weighed 34 pounds. Needless to say, eight of the big fish resulted in an exodus of fishermen from our fair city, anxious to duplicate his feat.
Miss Carrie Sherrill is visiting in Breckenridge this week.
Misses Lelia and Maurine King of Throckmorton are visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry King this week.
Mrs. T. J. Arbuckle and son Carl left this week for Temple, where they plan to spend several days.

50 Years Ago—June 20, 1903
J. W. Wright and several others went out Tuesday to join J. S. Fox in his threshing operations. They say Mr. Fox tried his new machine by running a monkey wrench through it the first thing.
S. W. Scott and G. R. Couch with their families and Misses Leta Simmons, Zora Sanders, and Ola Fitzgerald spent several days on a picnic and fishing trip on Paint Creek.
Mrs. H. C. Scott has sufficiently recovered from the severe injuries received in the recent cyclone, that she and her children left this week for Dallas where they will visit relatives.
Jud Roberson of the Brazos country northwest of town, was here on business several days this week.
G. H. Cobb, leading stockfarmer of the southeast corner, was transacting business here Thursday.
Frank Simmons took a recess from his arduous labors as a farmer, and spent several days in town this week.

The Haskell Telephone Company has acquired the telephone line to Seymour via Throckmorton, which has been out of repair for some time and is having it put in working order.
Two enterprising Haskell boys, Dick and Gurley Carney have gone into business for themselves. They have pigeons, rabbits, bantam and game chickens for sale.
M. A. Lowery, a prosperous farmer of the Knox Prairie country, was down doing some trading with Haskell merchants this week.
Our old townsman, A. W. Springer, now at Stamford with Baker-Bryant Company, was here Thursday. He had just returned from a trip through Stone-wall, Kent and Dickens Counties and reported farming operations very backward in that section.
The fine stallion that disappeared last week from the English Livery Stable, and believed stolen, was found Wednesday in the Whitman pasture northwest of town.

CARD OF THANKS
We wish to extend our sincere thanks for the thoughtfulness and kindness to all friends of the family during our recent bereavement in the loss of our loved one, Jesse C. Oakley who died June 13, 1933.
We especially than those who brought food to our home and sent flowers. May God bless each of you.—Mrs. J. C. Oakley and girls, the Robertson family. 25p

VISITORS FROM ARIZONA
Mrs. Ralph Stephens and children of Coolidge, Ariz., were visitors last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mack Matthews. They were accompanied home by Tommy Matthews, who will visit relatives in Coolidge.

J. D. Conley, long-time piano salesman and resident of Throckmorton for more than 50 years, died at 11 a. m. Friday in the Throckmorton Hospital.
He was believed to have been in his late eighties. He was a resident of Haskell at one time and also had lived in Breckenridge. In the early development era in this section, around 1910, Mr. Conley was one of the largest piano distributors in West Texas. He covered a territory extending but quail hunters may not have much luck.

That was the word today from Howard Dodgen, executive secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission.
The outlook for mourning and whitewing doves is considered fairly good, said Dodgen. At least part of the Hill Country is considered favorable for deer turkey.

Field reports on quail are orally pessimistic because of drouth.

Pay more? What for?

Fifty Years Forward on the American Road

You don't have to pay costly-car prices for costly-car comforts.
Ford brings you everything [and we mean everything] you've ever wanted in a car, at a price that's well within your reach! And according to recent surveys, a Ford returns more of its original cost when sold than any other car at any price!

Here are a few of the "Worth More" advantages you'll find in the '53 Ford:

- 1. A V-8 engine—powerful and smooth!
Ford's famous high-compression V-8 is a leader in quiet, flexible, economical performance. Ford, remember, has built more V-8's than all other makers combined—over 13 million!
- 2. America's most economical Six engine!
If it's a Six you want, Ford offers you the high-compression, low-friction Mileage Maker . . . the engine which, with optional Overdrive, won over all other cars, regardless of size or weight, in this year's Mobilgas Economy Run! And it's yours for the same kind of money that buys less modern sixes in other cars.
- 3. America's finest and most versatile automatic drive!
Fordomatic Drive is the "automatic" which gives you both the get-up-and-go of automatic gears and the smoothness of a fluid torque converter. If you choose Fordomatic, you will find that it makes all your driving easier . . . more relaxing.
- 4. Automatic gas savings!
Ford's Automatic Power Pilot (on Six and V-8) meters just the right amount of gas, times ignition precisely, burns fuel evenly and completely. You get full high-compression performance from every drop of gas—regular or premium.
- 5. America's newest and finest power steering!
Ford's Master-Guide power steering gives you new ease, stability and safety in guiding your car on smooth roads or rough. Your car gains in sure-footed roadability and you expend up to 75% less effort in driving—and parking.
- 6. Largest choice of models in the low-price field!
Ford alone gives you a choice of 18 different models . . . a SIX or V-8 . . . Fordomatic, Conventional or Overdrive . . . the widest variety of body, color and upholstery combinations. You can practically "design" your own Ford!
- 7. A body that's the style-setter!
Only Ford in its field gives you the advantages of a hull-tight Crestmark Body . . . the trend-maker in design and beauty. Ford's body is the longest and Ford's trunk, the largest. You enjoy more usable space.
- 8. New driving conveniences!
Ford's first in its field with such "Worth More" features as easier-acting, suspended pedals that eliminate floor holes . . . foam rubber cushions on front and rear seats in all models . . . and convenient Center-Fill Fueling.
- 9. An automatically controlled ride!
When you Test Drive this Ford, notice how the wide front tread (widest in the low-price field) takes tilt out of turns . . . gives you a more level ride. With new "balanced suspension," new spring and shock absorber action and new rubber compression bumpers, road shock in the front end alone is reduced up to 80%.
- 10. It's worth more when you sell it!
An impartial survey of used car prices proved that Fords return a greater proportion of their original cost than any other cars in America. It's another fact to add to Ford's reputation as the "Worth More" car. But don't take our word for it. Stop in and Test Drive this Ford for yourself. We predict you'll be sold before you're in second! It was true last year and it's even truer this year: you can pay more, but you can't buy better than Ford.

What is the most valuable thing General Electric ever built?

Is it the jet engine? In 1942, General Electric gave America's air arm its first jet muscles. Would you say that is our most valuable product?

Or would you elect the fluorescent lamp? We placed the first ones on sale in 1938. With the growth of fluorescent lighting Americans are using 3½ times more light than even 10 years ago.

Maybe you would say our star performer is the steam turbine. All you do is flip a switch, and a turbine somewhere instantly responds to provide the power to pump for you, or push or lift.

How about x-ray? Your doctor holds a negative up to the light and peers at bones he says are really yours. Who can say how many lives the x-ray tube has saved?

Important as these products are, more valuable to us—and to you—is something these products have helped to build. Something born quietly in 1878, when electricity was still a curious toy. And something that has grown steadily through the years.

The most valuable thing we ever built is your good will. For your year-after-year confidence in the things we make has given us the means to serve you better. Better engineering, research, manufacturing—all have come from your belief in us. It returns to you in a constantly improving and expanding way of life.

You can put your confidence in—

Farm Bureau Instrumental In Farmers Behalf During Legislature Session

The Texas Farm Bureau Federation lived up to its slogan "Protects and Promotes Agriculture" during the recent session of the 53rd Legislature in Austin, according to Hubert H. Segó, president of Haskell County Farm Bureau.

"For farmers and ranchers the most important aspect of the session was the absence of any real threat to take away the rural road program annual appropriations, the county's share of vehicle registration fees and the county road bond assumption monies," Segó said.

During the 1951 session an attempt was made to take money from these sources, plus the farmer's refund on tractor gasoline tax, for use in the construction of superhighways. The Farm Bureau mustered enough strength to defeat the forays and rallied late in the session to push through a gathering tax on natural gas.

This year at the state capital a bill was introduced to take away one-fourth of the farmers' refund on tractor gasoline tax. The bill was never considered. Also, a bill was introduced to increase the sales tax on gasoline from 4 to 5 cents a gallon. It, too, was never brought up for vote. Both bills were contrary to Farm Bureau resolutions, and the county Farm Bureau organizations over the state rose up to help prevent passage.

Another bill which would have been harmful to farmers had it passed, was the Administration-backed plan to reshuffle the state's school funds and force local districts to bear an increasing share of the Minimum Foundation School Fund. The Farm Bureau was among many civic-minded groups which successfully fought the bill.

Among the most important bills passed this year with Farm Bureau backing, approval or sponsorship included legislation designed to eradicate the swine disease, Vesicular Exanthema, a bill which regulates the sale, use and distribution of hormone-type herbicides, a law which gives grain farmers their best warehouse legislation to date, and better seed laws.

County President Segó said that Texas Farm Bureau opened an office in Austin this year to facilitate the work on its legislative program. The office was staffed by vice president C. H.

DeVaney of Coahoma and State Director Loys D. Barbour of Iowa Park. Both men are farmers and experienced in farm legislation.

"We were going to make sure that the interests of farmers and ranchers were protected this year," Segó explained. "That is why Farm Bureau opened the Austin office. Also, it was easier for the various county Farm Bureaus over the state to coordinate efforts with the state organization. The Austin office kept the county leaders informed on what was happening and what needed to be done in order for a certain bill to be passed or killed. Then it was up to the counties to contact their elected representatives."

The next county Farm Bureau meeting will be held July 7, Segó advised.

Frank J. Schaefer Early Resident In County, Dies

Frank Joseph Schaefer, 74, of Stamford, early-day resident of the Cobb community in southeast Haskell County, died at 10:40 p. m. Saturday in Stamford Sanitarium. Mr. Schaefer suffered a stroke at his home about two hours before his death.

He was born Aug. 14, 1878, in Austin. He and the former Mary Larson were married Nov. 11, 1897, in Austin. They moved to the Cobb community in Haskell County in Nov., 1905. In the summer of 1926 they moved to their home in Stamford, where they had lived since.

The couple in 1947 held a golden wedding anniversary.

Funeral mass was held at 10 a. m. Monday in St. Kevins Catholic Church in Stamford. Officiating was the Rev. Francis Loos, pastor, and the Rev. Fabian Diering, pastor of St. Joseph Catholic Church, Rhineland. Burial was in Highland Cemetery.

Rosary was said at 7:30 p. m. Sunday in Kinney Funeral Home chapel.

Survivors are his wife; two daughters, Mrs. E. E. Kirkpatrick of Stamford and Mrs. W. G. Taylor of Wichita Falls; one brother, A. C. (Tony) Schaefer of Cobb; one sister, Mrs. Mary Blumel of Jourdantown; eight grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren.

John Selmon, venerable and grizzled foreman of the Flat Top Ranch, grew up with the cattle country. For 23 years he has led the grand entry into the arena of the Texas Cowboy Reunion. This year's show at Stamford will be held July 1, 2, 3 and 4th.

Local school districts levies in 1952 accounted for 53 per cent of all farm and ranch taxes in Texas as compared with 44 per cent in 1947. Levies for county and special road districts and those for state purposes showed decreases.

Pinch of Salt Will Help Body Combat Excessive Heat

Timely advice for Haskell working people who have sweltered in 100-degree temperatures during recent days is given by Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

If your work is such that it causes excessive perspiration, add a pinch of ordinary table salt to each drink of water you take to help prevent heat cramps. This is advised by Dr. Cox to prevent a possible increase in the number of heat victims as the thermometer continues to hover around the 95-100 mark in the Haskell area.

Laborers, mechanics, farmers and white collar workers whose work causes them to sweat profusely, are in danger of having their body salt content become deficient with resulting heat cramps or heat fog. Salt is a prominent constituent of sweat; the body may lose as high as 40 to 50 grams of salt during hot days.

In industry, a method of preventing heat cramps is to take a tablet of pure salt or a mixture of salt and dextrose with each drink of water. Workmen whose duties require muscular exertion should be especially careful to add more than the usual amount of salt to what they eat and drink.

Salt deficiency may be pre-

Chevrolet trucks must be the best buy!

Fleet operators, farmers, independent truckers—truck users everywhere buy more Chevrolets than any other make. There can be only one reason for that: Chevrolet trucks offer more of what you want.

As the official registration figures keep rolling in, they keep telling the same positive story about truck popularity and truck value: Again in 1953, for the twelfth straight production year, truck buyers show a clear-cut and decisive preference for Chevrolet trucks.

If you're a truck user, this fact is mighty important to you. Why? Well, as you know trucks are built and bought for just one reason—to do a job. So isn't it logical that since Chevrolet trucks outsell all other they must do a better job at lower cost? That's why it will pay you to stop in and see us before you buy your next truck.

of-State Demand, Lighter Supply Improvement on Livestock Sales

By TED GOULDY
Improvements in the activity of cattle and calves, and lighter prices on lambs were the rule at Monday. Stronger demand from outside buyers as well as the local buyers made the difference. Lighter prices of livestock around the state also were a factor.

Agricultural Producers Can Profit From Studying Markets and Trends

Production and marketing are closely related and must be given consideration by farmers and ranchmen in the day to day operation of their businesses. In the recently announced 9-Point Livestock and Poultry Improvement Program for Texas, two of the 9-points emphasize the importance and inter-dependence of production and marketing.

H. Bates, farm management specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says efficient production practices involve the output of commodities desired by the trade and in volume large enough to justify their handling by buyers. Thus, growers should join with neighbors in producing livestock, livestock products or crops of high quality in order to command the attention of buyers. He cites the broiler industry which has grown in recent years to large proportions in areas of east and north central Texas as an example of efficient production which was designed for volume marketing.

Producers, explains the specialist, probably should devote more time to study of market trends over a period of years. It could prove profitable. For example, if market hogs are at peak prices in September and October and again in April, it would certainly be profitable to plan breeding and feeding schedules to catch these markets. Market news information helps producers establish the true value of their products and also reflects consumer demand.

It is worth noting, says Bates, that livestock prices have declined during the past several months, the demand has lessened for the common low-grade animals. Efficient production, he says, also means preparing for the channels of trade, the type and quality of product demanded by the consumers. The penalty for offering products of undesirable qualities is lower prices.

Between Season Shooting Helps Protect Game

Between season shooting that helps keep the hunters' eyes sharp and also helps protect game birds is described in the current issue of Texas Game and Fish magazine.

The article by Edward D. Hyman is entitled "Don't Put That Gun Away."

Hyman tells about varmint shooting which is permitted to varying degrees in most counties and emphasizes the need for cracking down as follows:

"One of the greatest game destroying predators, the wild house cat, can be found in any part of Texas, usually in large numbers. For many reasons, the wild house cat has become a real threat to our game birds. Young quail, being much easier to catch than mice and rats, have made the call of the wild sound like sweet music to the thousands of farm cats which have deserted the barns for the meadows.

"Another reason cats have become so numerous in the field is that many city dwellers, when they find baby with a litter of kittens, take the unwanted new additions of the household out to the country and turn them loose in some farmer's field to fend for themselves.

"This they do very well! The farmer could tell you in a few short and possibly unprintable words, the effect they have on quail population and frequently his young chicks."

Hyman points out that Texans pursuing varmint hunting had better check the local game warden to determine which predators are most prevalent in different areas.

Texas Trends

Vertically placed stripes in the low-set neckband and in the full skirt are slenderizing. Colors are blue, rose and grey, dark shaded. Sizes are 10-20, and the retail price is about $18.00.

Egg Shortage Seen In Fall

This fall it will pay to keep the best of your old hens when your pullets are housed, predicts Capper's Farmer. It looks like there will be a shortage of big eggs from late summer to November, and prices are likely to hold strong.

Here's why the hens ought to pay out: Egg prices held strong even during flush production in spring and early summer. That means there was no surplus of layers. And pullet buyers didn't stock up early this year as they have done at other times. So there is no surplus of early pullets, either. That should mean good prices for hen-size eggs.

The greatest demand for the big ones will be while pullets are coming into production and egg size is small, the farm magazine states. Later in the winter, however, prices may slump. There was a late rush for baby chicks when egg prices held strong in April and May. So profits this fall could bulk larger than those for all the rest of the laying year.

Some poultrymen pull brooder houses up to the laying house, and put yearlings in them until pullets are rolling out big eggs. They decide when to sell the old hens by profits they return. And they usually can count on higher prices for hens sold later in the fall than when hens are flooding the market at pullet housing time.

Texas Farm Income Down 123 Million From Last Year

Farm cash income in Texas for the first four months of 1951 totaled $431,994,000, about $123,000,000 less than the same 1952 period, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports.

Six commodities brought income increases this year. Wheat income was up 44 per cent. Income from sheep and lambs, eggs, poultry and mohair gained from 25 to 3 per cent.

Producers of cotton seed, wool, grain sorghum, cotton, corn, and cattle took the heaviest relative losses. Cotton and cattle producers suffered most in actual dollar losses. Cotton income was down $57,600,000, and cattle, $42,500,000.

Christian Advocate, Methodist Paper, Into 100th Year

Dallas, June 9—The Texas Christian Advocate, Methodist Church weekly paper, is celebrating its centennial this week.

Originating as the Texas Christian Advocate and Brenham Advertiser in 1847, it was published that year at Brenham by Robert B. Wells. In 1848 it was moved to Houston and published as a private enterprise by Oreneth Fisher. That fall it was adopted by the Methodist Conference as the official publication and the name was changed to the Texas Wesleyan Banner.

There were some lapses during the Civil War and after two other changes in name, the original title was restored in 1952.

The present circulation of over 50,000 is the largest ever achieved. The Joint Board of Publication, with J. H. Crawford, Lamesa, chairman, Monroe Vivion, Beaumont, vice - chairman-treasurer; and Gerald P. McCollom, Dallas, secretary, has set a circulation goal of 100,000.

J. Fisher Simpson, member of the Southwest Texas Conference, is the present editor.

Air Conditioning on wheels* comes of age!

Now you can have a car that's as comfortable on hot days as your air-conditioned home, office or favorite theater. Now you can ride in draft-free coolness at the temperature level you choose—even when the outside reading is 110° and more. Now you can take a full complement of passengers through the thick of traffic on a sweltering day—and each one of you will keep looking and feeling fresh as a daisy at dewtime.

Air intakes on each side of car introduce outside air into system.

You do this with the compact Buick AIRCONDITIONER—the completely practical unit available at extra cost in 1953 SUPER and ROADMASTER Sedan and Riviera models.

But note this: what Buick put into its AIRCONDITIONER goes beyond the usual. For the advanced design of this Buick unit provides dual roof ducts that distribute up to 300 cubic feet of cooled, freshened, filtered, air per minute to all parts of the car interior evenly and constantly—without icy blasts and drafts on your neck, shoulders, legs.

What's more, these exclusive roof ducts have individually controlled air directors above the side windows. So each window-seat passenger can guide a gentle breeze of conditioned air exactly where he wants it. Of course, the Buick AIRCONDITIONER is automatic. You switch it on, choose the temperature setting you want—and that level of coolness is maintained constantly. It thoroughly conditions the air around you—automatically. It carries off heat, stale air, tobacco smoke—automatically. It continuously introduces outside air into the system—automatically. It's fast-acting, too. Even after an hour or more locked up under summer's hottest sun, the car interior can be brought to a delightfully cool comfort in a matter of minutes. And it's really compact. The cooling unit itself fits neatly on a narrow shelf in the big trunk compartment—leaves plenty of room for luggage and the like. Why not drop in on us and try a demonstration? You'll find that the Buick AIRCONDITIONER with its exclusive dual roof ducts is the ultimate comfort in hot-climate driving. *Buick Airconditioner available in 1953 Roadmaster and Super Riviera and Sedan models at extra cost.

Home Gardeners Are Plagued By Weather

The weather—always a favorite topic of conversation—is playing hobs with home gardeners. A month ago it was too wet in parts of the state and too dry in others and right now it's on the dry and hot side all over. The yields and quality of garden vegetables will both be cut, says J. E. Hutchison, horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, unless steps are taken to offset the adverse growing conditions.

Keep down weeds and grass that compete with the vegetables for vital moisture and plant food. Cultivate just deep enough to get the weeds and break the surface crust. Cultivation, when properly done, leaves the soil in a loose friable condition so that air and moisture from either rain or irrigation can penetrate. Deep cultivation, explains Hutchison, disturbs and may even destroy the roots of shallow rooted vegetables such as squash, cucumber, cantaloupes and sweet corn.

Capt. Cadenhead In Command of Air Force Medics

Capt. James Frank Cadenhead, Jr., practicing physician here prior to his recall to active military service March 16, assumed command June 10 of the 3500th Medical Group at Reese Air Force Base, Lubbock. He will have charge of the group, including the Base Hospital, until late in July. Lt. Col. John P. Harnay, commander for the past year, left last week for a new assignment. Capt. Cadenhead was commissioned Sept. 15, 1942, and became a Captain May 1, 1947. ### Colorful H-SU Band To Have Featured Part In Frontier Cavalcade, June 30

The Harden-Simmons University Cowboy Band probably has played at more national and international conventions than any other undergraduate collegiate band. It will be in charge of the musical program at the Frontier Cavalcade to be presented on Indian Field Tuesday night, June 30 under joint sponsorship of the Haskell Lions and the Saddle Tramps. Since it was organized in 1923, the bandmen are not flashy, mately half a million miles, playing for nearly 30,000,000 persons—an average of a million a year since its inception. Typical of the Lone Star State, the bandmen are not flashy. Their uniform is strictly western—complete with faded levis, battered chaps and ten-gallon hats. The only flashy members of the organization are the flag bearers—co-ed cowgirls who ride six white horses and carry the six flags under which Texas has served. The Cowboy Band is popularly known as a marching band, but it is equally capable of playing rodeos, giving concerts, or presenting stage shows. Always appearing in their colorful western

Bag Worms Can Be Controlled In Early Stages

Bag worms excel in the art of camouflaging. Usually confined to arborvitae, Italian cypress and similar cedar-like plants, this year bag worms are attacking broad leaf plants such as althea, elm, roses, oaks and many others.

Sadie Hatfield, homestead improvement specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service says now is the time to begin your campaign to destroy the bag worms. When first hatched, the bag worms are so little and well covered, it is difficult to see them. They spin a cone-shaped, waterproof silk cover and conceal the cone with bits of bark and green leaves. As they grow, the bag worms add to this tent-like home, only sticking their heads out long enough to feed on the tender tips of plants. The cone-shaped cover grows with bag worms and may be as large as three or four inches by August.

The specialist says the bag worms should be killed now before they reach a mature stage. A lead arsenate spray, applied once a week, will kill them before the bag worm destroys or seriously damages a plant. To make the spray solution, mix 3 tablespoonsful of lead of arsenate in a gallon of water. If it rains, spray more often because rain washes the poison off the plant. Usually two sprayings are enough. These pests die slowly, often taking more than ten days. When dead their well-built protection will cling to the limbs for months and even years.

It is a tedious job to pull the bag worms off by hand when they are full grown. Spraying the plant with lead arsenate during June and July while the insects are young will keep them from injuring the plants seriously. Old ones may escape to produce eggs for next year's pest crop.

THE ONLY ORGANIC BOLL WEEVIL POISON THAT:

- (1) is officially recommended—the only one— in the Lower Rio Grande Valley after migration. Last year when weevil migration was the worst in this area's history... dieldrin saved many acres of Texas cotton from total destruction.
- (2) gives the highest boll weevil kill during mid and late season. Not only that... dieldrin is deadly against weevils and most other cotton pests all season long; dieldrin-DDT mix is the superior commercial control for both boll weevil and bollworm.
- (3) has long residual action. No other cotton poison lasts as long even under normal conditions. Research has proved that no other poison can equal dieldrin's lasting control in hot, dry, windy areas. Even rain has less effect on dieldrin's killing power than on other poisons.
- (4) represents top performance. Research and experience show dieldrin is superior in killing weevils, just like dieldrin-DDT is tops in controlling bollworms, particularly under extreme climatic conditions. That's why in the Lower Rio Grande Valley where boll weevil is traditionally tough, dieldrin is the only organic poison officially recommended after weevil migration.

Roustetts Take No. 2 Over Lueders; Lose to Snyder

Behind perfect twirling of Darlene Dunnam with Matilda Ejam receiving the Haskell Roustetts administered their second defeat of the season to the Lueders Girls Softballers Monday night at Lueders. Pitching a no-hit game, Darlene led her team mates to a 7-1 victory over their opponents.

Roustetts were tagged as winners early in the game when they took a commanding lead that was never threatened. In a previous game here, the locals defeated Lueders 18-6.

At Fair Park Field Friday night, the Roustetts lost a closely-contested game to Fikes & Grimmert Girls Softball team from Snyder, 8-6, before a large crowd of fans. A tough holding the edge in experience and games played, the Roustetts were threatened throughout the entire seven innings with the outcome undecided until the final stanza.

Winning pitcher, for Snyder was Toby Lee Medford, a former Haskell girl.

For the Roustetts, Darlene Dunnam turned in a good mound performance for five innings, with Opal Dunnam going in for the final two frames. Matilda Ejam was receiver for the Roustetts throughout the contest.

The Roustetts will be away from home on their next two games. They go to Paint Creek tonight for a return game with the Paint Creek girls. Saturday night they travel to Byers for a game with the Doughmixers of that city.

Haskell Teenagers Wallop Lueders Monday Night

Monday night the Haskell 14-and-under softball team avenged the 8-3 defeat given them in a previous game by Lueders, by walloping the Jones Countians 14-3 in a base-running frolic at Fair Park Field.

The Haskell lads were slow in starting, but caught fire in the third and sixth frames.

The Lueders team jumped to an early lead of 3-0, but were overtaken in the third when the Haskellites unleashed a hitting and running attack that netted seven scores to take the lead for good.

Sam Rike, who went the route on the mound for the locals, was backed up beautifully in the field.

Dr. Gertrude Robinson returned this week from Beaumont where she attended the 38th annual convention of the Texas State Chiropractic Association.
