GIBSON-TERRY TRAGEDY.

It Has Panned Out Fourteen Indictments in Galveston.

SEVEN BILLS FOR MURDER.

It Is Time to Call a Haul and Apply a Remedy as a Prevention of Further Trouble Growing Out of the Fort Bend Vendetta.

GALVESTON, Tex., Jan. 23.—The late Gibson-Terry tragedy assumed a new phase to-day by the grand jury finding seven indictments for murder. It was reported that Vol Gibson had been indicted for murder Mitchell and Ragsdale for assault to murder and for carrying pistols, and Little, Andrus and Blakely for carrying pistols. The bond was fixed in the cases for carrying pistols at $300, and upon furnishing this bond Little and Andrus were to-day released from jail, but later in the day they were rearrested under an indictment for murder and again locked up.

Wm. McFarlane was originally arrested and placed in jail, but the grand jury finding no bill against him he was released and has returned to Richmond. The grand jury to-day has also indicted him for murder, making in all seven who are now under indictment for murder, namely: Vol Gibson, Wm Little, Wm. Andrus, Calven Blakely, Jim Mitchell, Dan Ragsdale and Wm. McFarlane.

Mitchel and Ragsdale have now three indictments each against them for assault to murder and for murder and carrying guns. Little, Andrus and Blakely are indicted for murder and carrying pistols. Gibson and McFarlane are simply indicted for murder. This wholesale indictment for murder doubtless based upon the fact that they were all acting together, hence became accomplices. It further deprives each of the benefit of the evidence of the other on the final trial, as under the law while a party charged with a felony may testify in his own case accomplices cannot become witnesses for each other.

While this looks like straining a point in going to the law's limit, the grand jury was doubtless actuated in their action by the generally prevailing sentiment that it is time to call a haul and apply a remedy as a prevention of further trouble growing out of the Fort Bend vendetta. When the present excitement incident to the Terry killing abates application for release on bond will probably be made through the medium of the writ of habeas corpus.

Kille Terry's Funeral.

HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 23.—This forenoon the funeral of the late J Kille Terry took place from the residence of Major Thomas R. Franklin on Travis street, corner of Walker. The remains were followed to their last resting place in Glenwood cemetery by representatives from nearly every class of people. Among them were several well known business men who had been soldiers under Col. Frank Terry, father of deceased, in the late war, and there was also a bus of colored people who were attached to the family years ago.

Rev. C. W. Beckwith conducted the services at the house and the grave.

The relatives of the deceased who had come to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Moran Smith Mr. and Mrs. William Thacker of Belton and Mr. Dave Terry of California. The last named was his brother and the two ladies his sisters.

THE NATIONAL CAPITAL.

The Murkiness That Hangs Above
the Negro Problem,

After Ingalls has Spoken.

Dallas News.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—About a week ago Senator Ingalls announced that he would make a speech on the negro problem. This fact was whispered around and the day for the important event was thought to be Tuesday and when that time arrived it was then positively announced for to-day, for Senator Ingalls is not an orator or a statesman but he is an advertiser that would be worth a great deal of money to a circus. He likes an audience and obtains them, and he had one to-day.

Long before 12 o'clock when the senate met, the corridors on which the doors are opened were filled with people crowding into the senate chamber in order to secure seats, and when 12 came there was no standing room. Every available place in the galleries had a man or woman in it. The members of the house, clerks of senators and of senate committees and all others entitled to the privilege of the floor were there.

The press gallery, which ordinarily is vacant; because of there being usually more excitement in the house than in this dignified assembly, was filled with newspaper men.

About five minutes before 2 o'clock, the hour set for the speech, Mr. Ingalls emerged from the cloak room. He was dressed as becomes a statesman, and walked as becomes a man loaded to the guards with intellectual freight on an important matter. He has a good voice, rather coarse for a man of his thinness, but is not attractive in his gestures, because being long and thin, when he throws out his arms the spectator is involuntarily reminded of the opening and shutting of a long-bladed knife.

He spoke about two hours, and within that time he gave the world some new expressions but not a single new idea. He declared that he was treating the matter, which was the most grave that had ever confronted the white man, in philosophical spirit, and he proceeded to rail like a fishwoman at the south. This elicited applause from the colored brother, who was in goodly numbers in the galleries. The speaker had all the injudicious expressions of southern papers on file and all the foolish or criminal conduct of southern individuals or communities stored in his memory.

He gave the audience the full benefit of his possessions.

He started out by saying the Caucasian had never permitted another rare to live at his side in peace. Then he declared that the Caucasian of the south was a very wicked person for not living in peace with the negro. In fact there are dozens of men in every town in Texas who could take up this effort and tear it into dollars. There was no logic and no consistency about it. It offered no cure for the evils he complained of and consisting wholly of declaring the existence of evils and describing them in a way that would make the Kansans applaud and the negroes in the gallery encore.

The question seems to be, can the negro secure his rights from the Caucasian, and if so how?

This Kansas statesman solves the whole difficulty of the problem by saying give them their rights, and so, sorrowfully, I have to record that the murkiness that hangs about the question today is about as heavy as it was yesterday.

THREE CRIMINALS

Are Arrested in the Indian Nation and Conveyed to Paris.

GRENVILLE, Tex. Jan. 23.—Deputy Marshall Heck Thomas passed through here to-day on his way to Fort Smith having in custody Polly Impson, W. H. Alexander and Jim July, alias Jim Starr, the latter being badly wounded and was carried on a stretcher. Impson is charged with having killed Mike Flynn in the Chicasaw nation two years ago, since which time he has been at large. He is a Creek Indian. Alexander is charged with having killed his companion, Dan Steadman with whom he was traveling in a wagon in the Chicasaw nation a few weeks ago. After the killing, it is alleged that Alexander took Steadman's wagon and team, which was recovered by the officers who made the arrest.

Jim July, alias Starr, is known by reputation throughout the eastern part of the Indian territory. He is a Creek Indian, and a few years ago married Belle Starr, the woman desperado, with whom he was living at the time of her assassination a few months ago. July was found on Caddo creek, two miles north of Ardmore, yesterday by Thomas and posse, and when approached by the latter he jumped in his saddie and began to use his Winchester. The officers followed rapidly bring, and finally July fell from his horse, having been shot with a Winchester in the side, producing what is supposed to be a fatal wound. He is wanted at Fort Smith to answer several indictments for horse-theft. Some months ago he was arrested and released on bond, but failed to make his appearance, and a reward of 200 was offered for his capture.

FURTHER PARTICULARS.

PARIS, Tex., Jan. 23.—Deputy Marshal Heck Thomas arrived here this afternoon en route to Fort Smith with Jim July, alias Jim Starr, charged with jumping a bail bond. The News correspondent repaired to the union depot where the prisoner was lying in agony caused from the effects of a wound which he received while being arrested. July tells the following story: "I skipped my bond last spring and have just had it renewed by Meroban and John and Bill Clements. "While passing a house close to Williams creek, near Ardmore, a crowd of men called on me to halt. I drew reins but before I could speak they fired a volley at me. My horse fell dead, and a bullet passed through my thigh. When I looked up I saw Bud Trainor, one of the Heck Thomas posse, accompanied by three or four of my personal enemies, standing by. I think the shooting was done by them."

The prisoner groaned with pain and called for some medical relief, which was supplied by one of the parties present. Jim July or Starr is a splendid specimen of the half-breed, tall, powerfully built and courteous in manner. He possesses some excellent natural traits.

THE MARLOW FEUD.

Suit for Damages Brought by Them Against Parties in Young County.

GRAHAM, Tex., Jan. 22.—A suit for damages against Sheriff Tom Collier et al. was filed in the district court Saturday evening, at least papers purporting to bring suit in the district court were received by the clerk by mail, but as no bond for cost was received citations have not been issued yet. The plaintiffs are George, Charles and Zienna Marlow and Louis Cliff, each claiming to be damaged in the sum of $15,000 for wounds received by the two Marlows and Cliff, and for the loss of a husband by Zienna Marlow, all of which is alleged to have occurred on the night of Jan. 19, 1889, when the prisoners being conveyed to Dallas by United States officers were attacked by a mob. The "et al" includes every man who has been indicted in the United States court for conspiracy with the mob.

This county is fast settling up with energetic farmers.

Farmers are making preparations for this year's crop, and prospects are flattering for a good one.

The Free Press reports Haskell on a big boom. Now let Haskell boom the Free Press, for it deserves it.—Anson Western.

At the annual convention of Democratic Editors in Indianapolis the other day. Nearly every one of the members were in favor of Grover Cleveland for president.

W. E. WORTHMAN has faithfully served the people for several years as chief clerk of the treasury. It is now time he should be promoted to the position of the treasurer. Let the people of Haskell county give him a fair consideration.

We don't believe there is a town in the west that has more new houses scattered about over it than Haskell. There are six residences and one business house being constructed at present, and others are expected to build as soon as lumber can be obtained.

THE HASKELL SCHOOL.

NEXT SESSION.

Thinking it will be of interest to its patrons and friends, I give the following estimate of the probable amount of money that will be available from the state and county funds, to run the next term of the Haskell free school, beginning Sept. 1st 1890.

There will probably be enrolled in the Haskell school next term, 135 children within the scholastic age.

The apportionment from the state fund will probably be $3 (the same as the last two years) not more and it may be less, because of the increase of scholastic population. And at $4 per child 135 children would give the Haskell school, from the state school fund, $540.

The county school fund (which comes from the lease of the county school lands,) is $738 a year which has to be divided among all the children in the scholastic age, in the county, which for the scholastic year beginning Sept. 1st, 1890, will probably be 350, which will give each child $2, and to the 135 children in the Haskell school $270. This added to the $540 from the state fund, gives $810, the total amount that will likely be available for the Haskell school for the scholastic year, beginning Sept. 1st 1890.

Out of this $810 will have to be paid a debt of $20 for desks now in the school house, which leaves $790 to improve the school house (if any is made) and pay teachers. 135 children read that many will attend including those over and under the scholastic age, will require three teachers, and if you get good teachers who understand their business, and will take an interest in advancing the children in their studies and building up the school, they will cost, for a principal $75, and two assistants $75 per month, making $150 per month for three teachers. At this rate, if no money is used to improve the school house, $750 will run the school four and one half months.

But can three teachers teach 135 children in the present school house, it only having two rooms? I leave this for you to answer. Do you want a good school house, and longer term of school each year? If so how will you get it? It will take more money than will ever be available from the state and county school fund. How will you get the money? By private subscription, or the adoption of a district school tax?

Which will be the most successful and certain? The value of taxable property in the Haskell school district for 1890 will be about $600,000 a tax of twenty cent on the $100 ($2 on the $1,000 valuation) on $900,000 would raise a fund of $1200, which added to the $730, state and county fund would make $1930 for the next school year. A tax of 15 cents on the $100 ($1.50 on the $1,000 valuation of property) on $600,000 would raise a fund of $900, which added to the $730 state and county fund would make a fund of $1630 for the scholastic year beginning Sept. 1st, 1890 with which to improve your school house, or build another and run your school.

To adopt this tax requires a two thirds vote of the tax paying voters of the district at an election held for that purpose, and to get the election ordered in time to levy the tax this year a petition signed by 20 tax paying qualified voters residing in the district must be presented to the next term of the commissioners court which meets on the second Monday in February 1890. What will you do? Yours Respectfully,

P. D. SANDERS, County Judge.

Texas Matters.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—In the senate committee on commerce today the Coke bill appropriating $6,200,000 to carry out the suggestion of the engineers to obtain deep water at Galveston came up. The committee sat from 10 to 12 o'clock and spent the time in interrogating Gen. Comstock of New York, Col. Casey and Major Ernest, all government engineers, in regard to the report. Their answers were that at Galveston alone could a first-class harbor be obtained on the Texas coast. Their testimony was as strong as the greatest friend of the Galveston harbor could wish.

Mr. Koonitz of New York, who owns much property around Sabine Pass, telegraphed to the committee to hear him in regard to Sabine Pass before it made its report. This was agreed to and the committee adjourned to meet next Thursday.

On motion of senator Coke, before the adjournment was had, the matter was made the special order for the next meeting of the committee and will be then disposed of. Mr. Crain appeared before the judiciary committee and made an elaborate argument on his bill to change the beginning of the terms of the president, vice president and members of congress from March 4 to the 30th of April.

Judge Abbot made an argument before the sub-committee on public buildings in favor of his bill appropriating $100,000 for the enlargement of the Dallas federal building. Mr. Latham, before the same committee, argued for an increase of the appropriation for the custom house at El Paso.

Mr. Culherson goes before the same committee next Saturday for $125,000 for the Paris federal court building.

Mr. Coke introduced in the senate bills appropriating $100,000 for the federal building at Dallas and $100,000 for the federal building at Fort Worth.

The judiciary committee of the house will probably refuse to take any action on the bill to retire Judge Sabin because there is no one here authorized to say the movement to retire is with his consent, and there is no one to say anything positive as to the extent of his physical infirmities which would prevent him from performing the duties of his office.

Mr. Crain introduced a bill to give the Texas and Mexican electric light company the right to string their wires across the Rio Grande.

Mr. Coke introduced a petition from Chief Byrd of the Chickasaw nation against the various bills now pending in congress looking toward making a territory of the Indian territory and against the effort to disturb the tribal relations of the people. He says they are satisfied with the courts at Paris and Fort Smith. He explains that the legislature of his state is not in session, and he feels that he should enter that protest.

The bill changing the time for holding federal court at Brownsville and Austin passed, and the judiciary committee reported favorably a bill changing the time for holding the court at Texarkana from the third Monday in March to the third Monday in November.

ISLE DE RODRIGUEZ.

New Island Discovered Inhabited by a Lone Shipwrecked Sailor.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—News received by steamer yesterday from San Jose the capital of Costa Rica, says that in a recent return cruise from the coast of Patagonia to the port of Santa Cruz, the Argentine revenue cutter San Juan sighted and landed off an island hitherto unknown fifty miles from shore, three miles long and one mile wide, averaging probably thirty feet above high tide, with a rocky almost perpendicular coast line, extremely tedious of ascent. In the interior, however, it was found to be well wooded, and the captain of the cutter reports having encountered in his rambles many species of wild animals and thousands of birds. A number of clear sparkling fresh water springs were seen. Beside one of these a human foot print was discovered. A search of the vicinity led to finding of a man asleep upon the ground close by the beach. He was perfectly devoid of clothing but a snow white beard and hair reaching nearly to his knees. When first awakened he attempted to escape and acted like a wild man, but being captured soon recovered his speech. He was a native of Spain, 48 years old and gave his name as Mariana Rodriguez. He said he had shipped from Montevideo in 1880 in an American schooner from New York bound round the horn. A violent storm had cast the vessel upon the rocks, and he alone of the crew had succeeded in gaining the shore in safety. No other ship had sighted since the day he landed until the San Juan came. He had lived on raw shellfish and bird eggs, which were obtainable in abundance, but his sufferings from exposure to the weather, at times variable and bitter cold, had been terrible and almost unbearable. The island has been named "Isle de Rodriguez," after this new Robinson Crusoe. Rodriguez was sent back to Spain a few days ago at the expense of the government.

JIM STARR DEAD.

He fails to Tell any of the Secrets of His Notorious Gang.

FORT SMITH, Ark. Jan. 27.—Jim Starr, the desperado and husband of the late Belle Starr, died in the United States jail last night at 11 o'clock of wounds received last Tuesday morning nine miles from Ardmore, I. T., at the hands of Bud Trainer and Bob Hutchins, an posse of Deputy Marshal Heck Thomas. Starr has been under indictment in the Federal court for horse stealing nearly three years, but was out on bond. After the killing of the notorious Sam Starr, Jim married Sam's widow, the famous Belle Starr, and was living with her at the time she was way-laid and murdered. On account of this murder Sam got his trial continued and then jumped his bond and has been constantly on the scout, becoming more notorious every day as a horse-thief and allround criminal. It was hoped he would give away some of the secrets of the gang with whom he has been running, but he died stoically, thoroughly conscious to the last, carrying to his grave all secrets as to his career safely locked in his breast. He was about twenty-eight years old, fairly educated and spoke nearly all the Indian languages fluently. He was a dashing horseman and expert and reckless in the extreme. His remains were buried in the potter's field to-day at 10 o'clock.

A ROBBERS' CAVE.

A Discovery Made by a Hunter in the Cherokee Nation—Three Wagon Loads of Plunder.

FORT TWIN, Ark. Jan. 25.—A veritable robbers' cave has been found in the mountain fastness of the Fiat district in the Cherokee nation, and the robbers themselves are now behind the bars in the United States jail in this city. Country stores and postoffices along the border have been burglarized for years past, and many persons have been robbed on the public highways of the Cherokee nation. All efforts to identify or capture the robbers failed. A hunter accidentally found a cave in the mountains last Tuesday and was surprised to find it well stored with a variety of goods and miscellaneous supplies, guns, saddles, firearms and the like. He saw at once he had stumbled upon a robbers' cave, and so reported to the authorities. The place was searched and nearly three wagon loads of stolen goods were found. Among the plunder was a quantity of postage stamps and a thousand packs of cards. A party was placed at the cave on guard, and captured Gordon Safford and Lewis Maddox when they came to the rendezvous. Both are young white men who stood well in the community where they lived, and were not suspected.

Merit Wins.

We desire to say to our citizens that for years we have been selling Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Dr. King's New Life Pills, Bucklen's Arnica Salve and Electric Bitters, and have never had a complaint that we have not cured. We do not hesitate to guarantee them every time, and we stand ready to refund the purchase price, if satisfactory results do not follow their use. These remedies have won their great popularity purely on their merits, Johnsons Bros. Druggists.

A STRANGE TRIBE.

Eleven People From the Sierra Madre Mountains for Buffalo Bill's Collection.

EL PASO, TEX., Jan. 27.—Lieut. Schanika is in the city, accompanied by F. Howard O'Neill, in charge of eleven cave (or cliff) dwellers to the Sierra Madre mountains. Mr. O'Neill has lived in that country for a number of years, and speaks the spanish language fluently and some Indian dialects. The people they have in charge are members of the Tahuamari tribe, and speak a language of their own. They come from Yuquiva, 200 miles from Chihuahua, and traveled the distance on foot beating their masters who rode mules. One of the men has a record of traveling 100 miles in eleven hours, and the lieutenant offers a wager of $10,000 on the speed of this man. The lieutenant intends to exhibit these strange people in the principal cities and afterwards take them to Europe and turn them over to Buffalo Bill.

Nelson had brought his wife a pair of shoes and lost them on his way home while under the influence of liquor. His wife sent him back to hunt for them and upon his returning unsuccessful, she killed him. A coroner's jury rendered a verdict of death at the hands of unknown parties, the evidence being meagre, but the woman admits the killing. The weapon was a shotgun.

SAN ANTONIO, TEX. Jan. 26—
Tony Wilson and Roberts Miles both colored, got into a heated discussion last night at a negro variety theater known as the Grey Mule, and their friends advised them to go out and settle their difficulty a la Sullivan. Tony Wilson's age is twelve years and Miles was two or three years older. In accordance to the advice of their friends they left the theater at 1 o'clock this morning and repaired to Hay Market square near by and a ring was formed in which they were to fight. The Wilson boy remarked that if he had a knife he would set his antagonist to short order, whereupon Miles handed him a jackknife with a keen-edged blade and said, contemptuously, at the same time barring his breast:
"Here, take this, nobody is afraid of you cutting them." The words had scarcely left Miles' mouth when Wilson sprang on him and lunged
the blade to the hilt in Miles' heart.
Miles dropped dead and Wilson fled to the chopard where he remained until this morning, when he went to his mother's house and on her advice surrendered to the police at headquarters while equals of officers were out hunting the brush for him. The little murderer is black as cerberus and has frequently been before the recorder for various minor offenses.

PEACH TOMATO
Although this unique fruit has been widely introduced to notice, it is a tomato, but so distinct in form and flavor that few can tell it is. It is of medium size, of a deep rose and pink color, with a bloom or gloss like a peach. For eating out of hand it is unrivaled. It is rich, with just a touch of great delicious, slightly tinged with a lemony savour. Indigestion however. A great quantity and source of pleasure are prepared to tell what it is. In England they are delighted with the peach tomato, and many fine specimens of the fruit are sent to the United States. The following catalogue of 25 pages is independent of all other catalogues of the season, and is sent free to all who send for it. It contains descriptions of all the latest and most valuable varieties of Peaches, Apples, Plums, Pears, Grapes, and other fruits. Send for it with every order. Address:

Haskell County,

Her Resources, Advantages, Progress and Future Prospects.

Topography, Water, Soil, Products,
Shipping Points, Railroads, Public Schools and Mail Facilities.

HASKELL county is situated in the southern part of the panhandle on the line of the one-hundredth Meridian west from Greenwich. It is 1500 feet above the sea, and has mild winters and summers. It is 30 miles square and contains 576,000 acres of land. It was created in 1858 from a part of Fannin and Milam counties, and named in honor of Charles Haskell, a young Tennesseean, who fell at the massacre at Goliad in 1836.

It remained unsettled until 1874 when there was one or two ranches established. Other ranchmen followed and in 1880 the county could boast of 15 or 20 inhabitants. There was no further development until early in 1884, when the town of Haskell was laid off and by donating lots a few settlers were induced to build residences, and in January 1885 the county organized with a polled vote of 57 electors.

Up to 1884 the soil had never been turned by a plow, and the people depended upon raising cattle, sheep and horses as the natural grasses furnished food both winter and summer for immense herds. The poorer people made money by gathering many thousand tons of Buffalo bones and shipping them east to be made into fertilizers for use in the old states.

Experiments were made in 1885 with garden products, corn, oats, wheat, rye, barley and cotton and the yield was bountiful.

In 1886 and 1887 the entire west, from Dakota to Mexico suffered from seasons of unprecedented dryness, but the faith of the few farmers of Haskell county, kept green and in the fall of 1887 farming begun in dead earnest, and the crop of 1888 far surpassed all anticipation, corn made 25 bushels per acre; oats made 60 to 100, wheat from 15 to 25, rye 20, and cotton, one-third to one-half bale per acre, and sorghum, hay and millet was so bountiful it was hardly considered as a part of the general crop and there was no demand for it in the local market. The acreage in farms have been increased to at least 10,000 acres.

TOPOGRAPHY.
The county is an undulated plain with occasional creeks and branches. It is bounded on the north by that picturesque stream the Salt Fork of the Brazos, and on the west by Double Mountain Fork.

There are a few washes and gulches along the creeks and rivers, but with river breaks, rocks and poor land combined, their area in Haskell county would not average over 10,000 acres that would not be a fine agricultural land.

WATER.
It is traversed by numerous creeks and branches besides the rivers mentioned, some of which are fed by never failing springs of purest water.

Besides the numerous branches that afford water for stock all the time, the south half of the county is traversed by Paint and California creeks with their numerous tributaries draining the south half of the county.

The north half is traversed from Southwest to Northeast by Lake and Miller creeks whose tributaries furnish water and drainage for the same.

Besides the surface water there is an abundance to be obtained by digging from 15 to 40 feet, and all of a good quality, some of which is unsurpassed by that of any section in the state for purity and temperature.

SOIL.
The soil is an alluvial loam of great depth and fertility, varying in color from a red to a dark chocolate, and by reason of its porosity and friable nature, when thoroughly plowed, readily drinks in the rainfall and in dry seasons absorbs moisture from the atmosphere; and for the like reasons the soil readily drains itself of the surplus water, thereby preventing stagnation of the water and the baking of the soil, as well as the germination of miasma. It is those peculiar qualities of soil that enable vegetation to withstand all varieties of weather.

Except mesquite grubs and stumps, which are easily extracted, there are no obstructions to plows, and the land being level or generally rolling, and easily worked, the use of labor saving implements at once becomes pleasant and profitable. One man with machinery and a little hired help has been known to cultivate over 100 acres in grain and cotton.

PRODUCTS.
Indian corn, wheat, oats, barley, rye, durah corn, millet, sorghum, castor beans, field peas, peanuts pumpkins, and all the squash family, turnips and cotton are grown successfully and profitably. Also sweet potatoes do well, and Irish potatoes as well as anywhere in the South: Garden vegetables grow to perfection, and melons luxuriate in Haskell county soil, growing to fine size of superb quality. Besides the native grasses that grow on the prairies, sustaining large numbers of cattle, horses and sheep throughout the year, Johnson and Colorado grasses grow to great perfection and the hay made from these grasses form a valuable adjunct to the winter pasture, in keeping stock over winter.

YIELD AND PRICES OF FARM PRODUCTS.
The average yield of Indian corn per acre is about 30 bushel and the price varies from 50c to 1.25 per bushel; the wheat yield for the year '88—a dry year—ranged from 18 to 30 bushels—averaging 25 bushels per acre, and sold in the home market for 90 cents to $1.00 per bushel; oats yield 60 to 100 bushels per acre, and usually sell at 25 cents per bushel; cotton yields a half to three quarters of a bale per acre, but owing to the great distance to market its cultivation is not engaged in to a great extent. Other crops make good yields and command corresponding prices. Home made pork is usually worth 6 to 8 cents per pound; fresh beef 4 to 6 cents; home made butter, sweet and delicious, usually sells at 25 cents per pound, chickens 15 to 25 cents each, and eggs 10 to 25 cents per dozen.

SHIPPING POINT.
As yet Haskell has no railroad, and our people do their principal shipping to and from Abilene, a town 60 miles south, in Taylor county, on the Texas and Pacific Railroad. There is also some shipping done to Albany, a town 45 miles southeast, on the Texas Central Railroad, but not so much as to Abilene, because of rougher wagon roads.

RAILROADS.
There is one road being built from Dallas to this place and one to be built from Fort Worth. The Texas Central will have to extend in a short time from Albany or forfeit its charter, and Haskell is on the line as originally surveyed.

The land men of Austin have organized a company to build a road from that city to this section of the state where they control nearly all the land and one of the principal members owns 150,000 acres in this and Knox county, beside he owns the large addition to the town of Haskell on the south. Haskell is 60 miles north of the T. & P. R. R. and 90 miles south of the Ft. W. & D. R. R. and is situated on the direct line of the cattle trail over which the Rock Land, and G. C. & S. F. propose to extend their lines.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.
Our school fund is perhaps the best of any county in the north-west. In addition to the amount received from the state, about $5.50 per capita, our commissioners court have wisely executed a lease for 10 years of our 4 leagues of school land, situated in the Panhandle, the revenue from which added to the amount received from the state gives us a fund amply sufficient to run the several schools of the county ten months in the year. This fund can also be drawn upon to build school houses in any organized school community of the county.

MAIL FACILITIES.
There is only one post office in Haskell. It has a daily mail, over the line from Abilene via Anson; which line also brings express freight, and proves very satisfactory to our people.

RELIGIOUS ORGANIZATIONS.
The religious and moral status of the people of Haskell county will compare favorably with that of any people. The Methodist, Baptist, Christians, Old School and Cumberland Presbyterians each have organized churches in the town of Haskell, and have preaching on Sundays, also preaching at other points in the county. We have a good Union Sunday School, and weekly prayer meeting that are well attended.

HASKELL.
The town of Haskell is the county site of, and is situated one and one-half mile south of the center of Haskell county, on a beautiful table land, and is five years old and has a population of 600 to 700. Has as good well water as can be found anywhere, which is secured at a depth of 18 to 22 feet. Also has two never failing springs of pure water in the edge of town. Haskell has four drygood and grocery stores that sell goods at prices as low as can be had in railroad towns, with 50 cents per hundred pounds for freight added, and drygoods and groceries as cheap as can be bought any where, one gin and mill. Also has four drug stores one hardware one notion one hotel and one restaurant, both first class, two blacksmith shops; two cabinet and wood shops; one silver smith shop one saddlery shop, one boot and shoe shop; one meat market; two livery stables; four doctors; 10 lawyers and land agents; one first class county newspaper and job office and only one saloon, all doing a very good business. The town of Haskell with her natural advantages, of location, climate, good water and fertility of soil is destined in the near future to be the queen city of Northwest Texas, and railroad connection for Haskell is all that is needed to accomplish these.

ADVANTAGES AND RESOURCES.
In almost every neighborhood of the older states and the thickly settled portion of our own state there are many of its citizens who are contemplating a removal or a change of residence for many reasons. Some to restore lost health, some to make their beginning in the world, others to repair financial losses, others seeking safe and profitable investments of surplus capital. There are many others who have comfortable homes and are well contented, but who have children, whom they would like to provide with lands suitable for home, and assist to commence business in life, but can not do so with their present surroundings, and must seek cheaper lands and better opportunities in other and newer localities.

To such we would say you are just the people we want. Come and see us, and you will find a broad field of occupation and investment to choose from, with chances greatly in your favor. In coming to Haskell do not imagine we are a people wild and woolly

Be enlightened by past experience. Fortunes have been made by the development of new countries, and fortunes are yet to be made in our new and equally as good country.

We have a country endowed with nature with all the conditions of soil, prairie and valley adapting it to the production of all the grains, grasses, fruits and vegetables of the temperate zone. We have a climate which is a happy medium between the extreme cold and extreme heat, a climate which will preserve the strong and robust and strengthen the sickly and weak. We have a country well adapted to stock raising of all kinds. We have a country where no malarial sickness ever comes. We have a country of the best lands in Northwest Texas. We have an abundance of mesquite, elm and hackberry timber for firewood and fencing. We have the most substantial inland business town in the northwest. We have the greatest abundance of the purest water. We have a class of citizens as honest and industrious, as hospitable and good natured, as law abiding, patriotic and religious as can be found anywhere in the United States. We have plenty of room; and invite you and all who contemplate a change to come, all who want good and cheap lands. We have them, and want you for neighbors and friends.
