WHIRLPOOL is a tried and tested machine that has always been good. Many Whirlpool Automatics sold just after the war are still running service free.

As the world's largest manufacturer of Washers and Dryers and more than 50 years of Whirlpool experience it is easy to understand why Whirlpool Automatic Washers are "MOST WANTED BY MOST WOMEN."

A Pound of Proof Is Worth A Ton of Promises—

So ask any of your neighbors who own a Whirlpool. Ask her if it cleans clothes and if she has to keep a Service Man fiddling with it to keep it running. This would be a good way to select the Best Washer. Ask the owner of a three or four year old Whirlpool. They all look good when sparkling new and some may stun you with their dazzling beauty, but remember Whirlpool is still the winner of the Fashion Academy Gold Medal Award—and is still "MOST WANTED BY MOST WOMEN."

Godwin-Sherley Nuptial Vows Read In Albany

Pamela Jean Godwin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Godwin of Albany and Johnny Edward Sherley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Sherley of Rochester, were married at 8 p. m. Saturday at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. R. C. Farmer and Mr. Farmer, in Albany.

A green and white background centered with a spreading arrangement of blue carnations in blue containers on the radio flanked with tall floor vases of milkweed and tall Swedish steel candelabra holding blue tapers, was the setting for the wedding in the living room.

Rev. Harold Humphrey, pastor of the First Christian Church, read the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a suit of powder blue velvet designed with long sleeves, roll collar, ripple peplum and pencil slim skirt. Her accessories were black and she carried a white Bible topped with a bridal bouquet of feathered pink carnations. Her something borrowed was a rhinestone choker belonging to Mrs. Jerry Martin. She had a penny in her shoe for good luck.

Mrs. R. C. Farmer, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. Cecil Epley, cousin of the bridegroom, was best man.

At the reception, which followed, the bride's table laid with white net over blue, featured the 3-tiered wedding cake on a reflector at one end of the table and the punch bowl at the other. The table appointments were silver and crystal.

After the bride and groom cut the first slice of cake, Mrs. Sherley served the cake and Frankie Jo Sherley ladled punch. Guests were registered by Barbara Daniell.

For traveling the bride wore her wedding suit, black accessories and a corsage from her bridal bouquet. After a short wedding trip the couple will live in the W. C. Godwin apartment in Albany.

The bride is a 1953 graduate of Albany High School where she was drum majorette and twirler, vice president of the Lyre Club, vice president of the band and a member of the Glee Club and the Home Enocomics Club.

"Cotton Queen" Contest Data Is Presented

With more than twenty contestants entered to date in the Cotton Festival Queen Contest, many queries have been received in regard to the contest. The following brief outline is furnished by the Progressive Study Club, which is assisting the Chamber of Commerce with this phase of the Cotton Festival.

Question: Must the candidate for Cotton Queen wear a floor-length formal?

Answer: No. The committee intention in specifying "formals or semi-formals" was to give each girl a chance to appear at her prettiest and still give her a choice of wearing either a formal in long or ballerina length, or what is popularly known as a cocktail or party dress, which can be street length. The main requirement is that the dress be made of cotton. There will be all kinds of soft, dressy cottons worn, so each entry can choose the style most becoming and available to her. Judges will be instructed not to judge on the basis of costume.

Question: Will there be a rehearsal of the Queen contest?

Answer: Yes. All entries will be asked to appear at the Texas Theatre on Saturday morning, Oct. 24, at 9:30 for a rehearsal.

Question: What about the judges?

Answer: There will be impartial, out-of-town judges. Every angle of fairness is being considered.

Question: Who is sponsoring this Queen Contest?

Answer: The Chamber of Commerce. As is the case in almost every event during the Festival, the Chamber of Commerce is being assisted by some local civic organization. For the Queen contest, the Progressive Study Club is assisting to the extent of securing entries and collecting the entry fees which will be turned over to the Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Jo Ann Winchester of Weinert, Texas FFA Sweetheart, was featured in the silver anniversary pageant Wednesday at the Future Farmers of America convention in Kansas City. A vocalist, Miss Winchester gave several numbers on the program with accompaniment by the Jacksonville Barndusters, a western string band from Jacksonville.

Miss Winchester, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clovis Winchester of Weinert, was accompanied to Kansas City by her mother. They made the trip by plane from Fort Worth.

The attractive Weinert High School student will be a contestant for the title of Cotton Festival Queen this month as sponsor from Biard's Cleaners.

Paint Creek Cops Homecoming Tilt At Weinert

The Paint Creek Pirates kept their season record intact Saturday night when they came from behind in the fourth period to defeat the Weinert Bulldogs 16-16 in a District 4-B six-man football game.

The contest, played on Bulldog Field as a feature of the annual Weinert Homecoming, was witnessed by a record crowd.

Weinert jumped to a 2-0 lead in the first quarter on a safety, and led 16-12 at halftime as Scotty Oman and Harley Reeves both tallied for the Bulldogs and Kenneth Howard and Rudy Raughton, scored for Paint Creek. Wayne Josselet kicked an extra point (for two points) to give Weinert the 16-12 margin.

After a scoreless third period Charles Shaw tallied for Paint Creek in the fourth quarter for the winning marker.

Livestock Prices Weaker At Fort Worth; Price Support Program Seems Certain

By TED GOULDY
Fort Worth—Some sort of price support program appears certain for livestock. About the only thing that could prevent this would be a turnout that resulted in a sharp rise in cattle and other species of meat animals.

Laest straw-in-the-wind: The House Agriculture Committee late last week called on Agricultural Secretary Benson to extend price supports to cattle immediately to prevent "economic disaster" to producers. Pressure for price supports has been building up steadily despite strong opposition. Recent indications of this trend were a meeting of several hundred at Matador, Texas, where a group was organized and resolutions were passed favoring supports on livestock if they are maintained on other agricultural products. Latest newspaper poll conducted by the Amarillo Daily News netted a majority of votes in favor of supports. The proposal outlined by the House Committee was for support at a certain level for "choice" grade cattle. While there are relatively few "choice" grading cattle produced in the Southwest, the reflected strength that would result from encouraging Corn Belt feeders would help prices here. Secretary Benson has shown no inclination toward support prices for livestock, and in general is dedicated to self-help attitude toward the farm problem. Self-help is increasingly difficult for stockmen.

Most observers feel that when the chips are down the present administration will come out with a program of supports, etc., not too much at variance with programs already established. Right now a lot of fat is being trimmed off Department of Agriculture programs. Along with this fat there are many die-hard New Deal and Fair Deal political appointees being forced to resign or be fired. No doubt about it, the farm program is shaping up as the No. 1 issue in political circles and the next congressional and presidential elections are sure to be decided on that issue.

At Fort Worth Monday the trade on cattle and calves was slow due to the big run. Probably 50 per cent or more of the grown cattle were cows. Prices were weaker, most cows and bulls 50c off, and some bidders trying for bigger reductions. Toppo fat calves were steady, but stocker trade was very narrow again. Good and choice grain fed steers and yearlings were very scarce, selling from $17 to $24, and common and medium grassers drew $9 to $15. Cull yearlings sold down to $17.

Fat cows drew $8.50 to $11 and canners and cutters drew $5 to $8.50, some shells below $5. Bulls drew $7 to $11, a few above that range. Good and choice fat calves drew $12.50 to $16, a few heavier to $16.50. Common and medium kinds drew $9 to $12 with culls from $7 to $9. Stocker steer calves drew $10 to $16, one top load $17. Heifer calves drew $14 down. Stocker and feeder steers and yearlings sold from $9 to $14.50. A few stocker cows drew $7 to $10.50.

Hog prices tumbled to the lowest point since last April and top hogs drew $21.25 to $21.50. Sows held steady at $18 to $20.50. Underweights drew $19 to $21. Buyers credit increased seasonal offerings in Corn Belt areas and the abundance of competitive meats for the dive hogs have taken.

Slaughter ewes at Fort Worth Monday were weak to around 50c lower. Fat lambs were steady to weak, however the quality of the run was lower than usual and liberal fills offset some of the lower bids. Feeder lambs drew strong prices.

Slaughter ewes drew $4 to $5.50 and some solid mouthed back to $6 to $6.50 to go back to to the county. Fat lambs of choice grade drew $16 to $17, medium and lower grades sold from $8 to $14. Feeder lambs drew $10 to $13. Yearlings sold around $6 to $11. Old wethers cashed at $6 to $8. Old bucks drew $1.50 to $2 per hundred.

surplus of permanent school interest and sinking fund. It seems to me, we the voters of Haskell County, have only one of two choices to make, concerning the surplus money in the funds stated above. We can only invest this in a new jail or Government G. Bonds. There will be an open house at the present jail, Saturday, October 24, and Sunday, October 25, 1953, from 10:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. each day. Every citizen of this county is invited to go through and inspect the jail. In order to make up your own mind, whether we need a new jail or not.

I have done my very best to explain the proposed new jail deal, and your tax problems, as clearly and truthfully as I know how. If there is anyone that does not understand all, or any part of this proposed deal, will you please come by my office and I will be more than glad to go over this with you, whether you agree with me or not.

Crude Oil Pipe Lines Helped Them Do It

America's farmer is the most efficient in the world. His progress in production has helped build the nation's strength. Time saving machinery has contributed to improved farming methods. Today's farmer operates 4,000,000 tractors and more than 2,400,000 trucks, powered and lubricated with products of petroleum.

Our job is transporting the raw material of petroleum products, crude oil, from well to refinery. Crude oil pipe lines move most of the crude oil produced in the nation. By their efficiency of operation, they help make high quality products available to all at moderate prices.

Sojourner Field Discovery Well Brought In Despite 'Dry' Prediction of Geologist

Drilling a wildcat oil test in unproven territory is an expensive operation involving some hundreds of thousands of dollars—and it is definitely spent if the hole is dry!

And because W. C. (Bill) Sojourner of Abilene was willing to back his judgment against the advice of geologists and risk loss of his investment Haskell has the Sojourner Pool almost at its west city limits, and spread of oil production was speeded with a net result that the county has benefited by millions of dollars.

The picture Bill Sojourner as a typical "wildcatter" of boom days is a common one. His success as one of West Texas' most widely known operators is due to his thorough and practical knowledge of the oil business from every angle. He knows because he's done almost everything to be done in the oil business, from pipeline work to drilling and production.

It was in December, 1949, when Sojourner's No. 1 W. P. Crouch was a rank wildcat. Geologists advised abandonment as a dry hole, but Sojourner ordered operations continued. As a result the discovery well produced 350 barrels from the lower Strawn, which has since been designated as the Sojourner Sand in recognition of the discoverer. Today the Sojourner Field produces 100,000 barrels monthly.

Sojourner, conservative and unassuming, is a self-made oil man, starting in the game early in life. Associates say of Sojourner that he has one of the best minds in the oil business. He knows the practical side of the oil business from the time the drilling bit touches the ground until the oil is in the tank. He is well versed in geology, including recent electronic developments. Sojourner does most of his own geology, and his company is staffed with some of the best geologists in the business.

He has as partners in Sojourner

Drilling Co., Ltd., W. W. Harvey of Fort Worth and A. E. Frazier of Abilene. Abilene is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sojourner and their three children, two sons and a daughter. However, the oil operator might well claim this area as his "home" because he has production interests not only in Haskell, but in Runnels, Taylor, Fisher, Stonewall, Coleman, Callahan, Shackelford and Jones Counties, and in Lincoln County, Okla.

Typically an oil man's operator, Sojourner is probably best described in the words of George A. Donnelly, one of the State's most brilliant oil men, who said "Bill Sojourner has more know-how, common sense with scientific ability and practical experience than an man I know and I've been in the oil business more than 40 years."

Elaborate plans for the Halloween Carnival to be held Tuesday night at the Elementary school are being made by members of the Elementary P-TA. A cafeteria style supper will be served beginning at 6 p. m. Other novel features of the carnival include: bingo games, cake walk, fortune tellers, movie for children, auction sale, guessing games, fish pond, dart game and the house of horror plus added attractions. All Haskell merchants will be encouraged to feature cotton-made fabrics and materials during the week in cooperation with the Festival which is paying tribute to the cotton industry of this area.

Decoration of the business district will be under the supervision of the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department and merchants are urged to get into the festive spirit by displaying flags, bunting and banners in front of their establishments.

Half of Haskell high school new grandstand on the east side of the stadium has been reserved for colored people and these tickets are on sale at Cook's Barber Shop. Colored persons interested in securing a seat for the big game are requested to call in person, telephone or write to Albert Sharp at this location.

Mechanical cotton harvesters threaten to make the cotton gins a bottleneck to the cotton industry. This results from the speed up of harvesting and therefore, a shorter harvesting season. Some type of storage must be used to relieve crowded conditions at the gins. Field storage has proved successful on the High Plains.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

Haskell Stone was born and reared on a farm near Haskell and graduated from Haskell High School. After graduating he entered Texas Tech and received a B. S. degree from that college, majoring in Agricultural Education.

He spent his first years in teaching in Haskell county rural schools later teaching vocational agriculture in the Roby High School. He has been teaching in the Haskell High School since 1945. He is a member of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, the Masonic Lodge, the Farm Bureau, Texas State Teachers Association and Vocational Agriculture Association. He is also a member of the Pinkerton Baptist Church in which he is the teacher of the adult men's class, president of the brotherhood and chairman of the board of deacons.

At the State Future Farmers Convention last July, Mr. Stone received the Honorary Lone Star Farmers degree, the highest honor the association can award and under the leadership of Mr. Stone the following boys have received this degree: Jimmy Turner, Glenn Marugg, Tommy Rhoads, Kenneth Lane and Bill Thomas. Awarding of the degree to the boys is based on their supervised projects, their accurate records and their outstanding leadership.

Mr. Stone believes that the Future Farmers, to be successful, must have outstanding leadership and he spends the first month of school teaching parliamentary procedure and leadership. In this work the boys practice by having business meetings based on Robert's rules of order. In this way each boy learns to participate in the business meeting both as a leader and a member.

The Chapter has an outstanding Livestock Improvement program in operation. This program was begun several years ago when Sears-Roebuck donated a registered Jersey heifer to the Chapter to be given to some deserving boy to care for until she produced a heifer of the same age and quality which was to be given back to the chapter, the boy then becoming the owner of the first heifer, and the same procedure began with another boy. Since then, Dave Persons has donated a registered sow on the same basis and Mrs. J. U. Fields donated to the chapter a registered Hereford heifer which is being cared for in a similar manner. Some of the boys who have participated in the above program are: Roy Don Rhoads, Royce Mullins, Daniel Sloan, Bobby Stone and Dan Strickland, Jerry Holt and Dan Grindstaff.

Mr. Stone is now planning on taking about 50 FFA boys to the State Fair Saturday to participate in Rural Youth Day. The following boys will also show their beef calves at the fair: John Stone, Cliff Berry, Jerry Matthews, Bobby Stone, Charles Burnett and John D. Pitman.

 Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas.—Texas politics, long brewing, boiled over with the announcement of Reuben Senterfitt that he intends to run for governor next year. That puts the 1954 campaigning actively in motion. It means that prospective candidates for governor must seriously consider making up their minds now about next year's plans.

Most of them have been waiting for Gov. Shivers to declare his intentions.

But Senterfitt, by his announcement, placed himself in the forefront of gubernatorial candidates—for the time being at least.

What will he do if Shivers comes out for re-election? Said Senterfitt: "I'm just going to wait and see what he does, and then I'll talk about that."

Senterfitt placed himself in this position: If Shivers runs again, Senterfitt can get out of the race—or stay in, depending on how he feels about it. If Shivers decides not to run, Senterfitt has a head start on the other candidates.

Obviously, Senterfitt thinks Shivers will not be a candidate for governor next year.

Reporters asked Shivers for his comment on the situation. The reply was, "No comment."

Senterfitt has served two terms as speaker of the house. Conservative, quiet and an able organizer, Senterfitt, who is serving his seventh term as a representative of the San Saba district, is highly regarded by fellow-members of the Legislature.

Others who have been named as possible candidates for governor include Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, former district judge Ralph Yarborough, of Austin, Senator A. M. Alken, Jr., of Paris, Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, Mayor Roy Hofheinz of Houston, Congressman Lloyd Bentsen, Jr., of McAllen, and secretary of the navy R. B. Anderson of Vernon.

There were developments also in the prospective race for U. S. Senator.

Lyndon Johnson, the incumbent, has visited widely over the state. He said that he expects no major opponent next year.

But Jack Porter of Houston, Republican national committee man, has promised that there will be someone running against Johnson.

Several prospects have been mentioned for the senatorial race.

including Congressman Martin Dies and Robert Stripling, former chief investigator for the House Un-American Activities committee.

Reliable inside information is, however, that the anti-Johnson people have just about settled on their man. They are working behind the scenes and preparing a smash announcement.

They think the candidate is a natural who will appeal strongly to the voters.

Everything is set for the visit of President Eisenhower to the home of Governor Shivers at Sharyland, near Mission.

Arriving Oct. 17, the president will remain there until the 19th, when he will attend dedication ceremonies of Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande.

President Ruiz Cortines of Mexico will also take part in the celebration.

Half million acres of the Texas tidelands will go on the auction block Dec. 1.

Land Commissioner Bascom Giles says that the sale will be bigger than "anything we have ever done before."

Giles asked the oil companies about the land on which they would like to make bids. Fourteen companies responded, asking that 60,000 acres be put on sale.

Giles' recommendation, approved by the School Land Board, was that 500,000 acres be auctioned.

Quit talking about a recession Governor Shivers advised Texans at a speech in Dallas.

There is more danger that Americans will talk themselves into a depression than there is that economy itself will bog down, the governor told an audience of 700.

Texas' industrial growth will continue at ever increasing rates, the governor predicted. The Gulf Coast is becoming the nation's chemical center, and Dallas will be the nation's textile manufacturing center, Shivers said.

He cited other signs to indicate that the state is in good financial condition.

Three new members were appointed to the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

They were Henry Coffield, Marfa rancher; Henry Le Blac, Sr., of Port Arthur and Robert J. Freeseley of Houston.

There were two changes in the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Gov. Shivers appointed Garland A. Smith, who had been casualty commissioner, to be life commissioner and chairman of the board. Smith replaces George Butler, who died recently.

Taking Smith's place as casualty commissioner will be J. Bryan Saunders of Tyler, a practicing attorney who will resign as chairman of the state board of public welfare.

These men succeed Richard M. Kleberg, Sr. of Kingsville, Shelby Kritzer of Amarillo and V. F. Neuhaus of McAllen.

Vaughn Bryant resigned as executive director of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission.

Neville Penrose of Fort Worth, chairman of the commission, accepted the resignation "with regret." Bryant gave financial reasons for leaving the job. He did not announce his plans.

Bryant set up his office so that all correspondence was written in English or Spanish interchangeably. All members of the staff speak and write Spanish.

Former Governor Dan Moody suffered an attack of acute indigestion in Federal Court at Alexandria, Va.

Carried from the courtroom on a stretcher, Moody said, "I've gone out a lot of court rooms, but I've never gone out like this."

Moody went to Virginia to be defense counsel for Jack Cowart, former agriculture department official charged with receiving compensation from a company doing business with the government.

Emanuel Coutlakis of San Antonio lost in the state supreme court his efforts to get a union organizers permit.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd obtained injunctions against Coutlakis and the union, preventing attempts to organize tannery workers in San Antonio. Shepperd charged the union was "Communist-dominated."

Cigarette, liquor, and wine tax stamp sales brought the state $4,183,567 in September.

Treasurer Jesse James said the revenue was less than that collected in September of last year, but higher than this year's August revenue.

Jackie Skains To Attend Sul Ross Fall Semester

Jackie Donald Skains, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Skains, Haskell, has completed registration at Sul Ross State College for the fall semester. A major in range animal husbandry, Skains previously attended Sul Ross during the summer session. He is a graduate of Haskell High School where he was a member of Future Farmers of America.

Texans Have Sensible Attitude on Nation's Problems, Sen. Johnson Says

By LYNDON JOHNSON
 TRAVELING TEXAS: Since Congress adjourned and I came back to Texas, I have done a lot of traveling. I have visited in literally hundreds of towns and have talked with thousands of Texans.

I really enjoy this part of my job. It is a great pleasure to travel over our wonderful State. It is a genuine privilege to get to talk with so many of my fellow Texans.

Before the next session of Congress begins in January, I hope to have spent some time in every congressional district. SOUND SENSE: I find that Texans generally have their traditionally sensible attitude toward problems facing our Nation.

They want no backing down from the Communists.

They uphold a strong national defense program.

They want United States aid to foreign nations sharply curtailed.

They favor a non-partisan approach to our international and domestic problems.

They want and need an early lightening of their tax burdens.

They oppose weakening the Taft-Hartley Act.

These are among the subjects on which Texans have very definite opinions. It helps me greatly during this between-sessions period, to get their views.

FARM PROBLEMS: My travels have taken me through many important agricultural areas of Texas. In all of them, I have found a deep uneasiness on the part of the people about the future of agriculture.

Drought and falling prices have put the farmer and rancher between a rock and a hard place. They need help.

The future agricultural program is one of the most important matters that will come before the session of Congress beginning next January. Between now and then, I would like to hear from as many of you as care to write me about the kind of program you think will best meet the situation.

COST OF LIVING: Unfortunately, the fall in farm prices has been of little help or no help to the consumer.

An official Government report says the living costs are now at an all-time high. The food price index is up. One factor behind the increase is said to be higher prices for beef and veal.

The farmer gets less. The cattleman gets less. But the consumer pays more.

SALES TAX: It looks as if the Administration is backing away from the idea of trying to get a sales tax through the next session of Congress. The president has said he opposes a sales tax. He left the way open, however, for possible support of a "manufacturer's excise tax."

I personally think we must make further cuts in Government spending. Economy is not easy for a government or for an individual. But sometimes it is necessary. This is such a time.

THRIFTY MEAT MEALS: The Department of Agriculture has published a booklet containing over 100 recipes and suggestions for the selection, preparation, and serving of the cheaper grades and cuts of beef, pork, veal, and

Range Grasses Making Good Comeback In Pastures In Southeast Part Of County

S. G. Cobb, who ranches in the Cobb community in southeast Haskell County, is mighty proud of the way the grass has come back in his pastures after several months of deferment SCS technicians report. On his east pasture, which consists of 264 acres, big bluestem, little bluestem, Indian grass and side-oats are coming back on the hills in place of weeds and scattered clumps of mesquite grass. In his north pasture, which consists of 495 acres, the buffalo and curly mesquite grasses show a great deal of growth with side-oats grama doing an excellent job of coming back after a hard dry year in 1952.

While looking over the patches of big and little bluestem, Indian grasses and side-oats, Mr. Cobb remarked how different the area looked when he was a boy and the way it looks now. He remembers when he worked for the X's Ranch, how the whole area was open with a few scattered trees in the bottoms of the draws and how bluestem grasses grew as high as a man's waist on horseback. By good management and modern stocking Mr. Cobb is guiding his range back to the good condition it once was.

Jimmy West, who lives east of Stamford plans to plant 80 acres of Austrian winter peas for soil improvement. He plans to apply 200 lbs. of superphosphate per acre with his peas.

"Let's roll up our sleeves and fight cotton root rot in our cotton fields," is the advice being given farmers by SCS technicians.

The signs of cotton root rot are well known by dead cotton throughout the California Creek Conservation District. Dead cotton is the "help wanted" sign of soils. It shows the soil is in poor physical condition and needs a summer or winter legume, such as winter peas, vetch, hubam clover, or guar turned under green to aid it in its fight against the fungus. Plan now to plant legumes to help improve soil condition and fight cotton root rot.

Albin Hokanson of the Erick-dahl community has run a diversion terrace to one of his livestock tanks to increase the drainage area insuring him of more tank water when it rains. He was assisted by James G. McCallum and W. L. Steni, technicians of the SCS.

Most-liked low-priced cars

... among people who want more for their money when they buy... and more money when they sell!

There's a big reason why more folks are buying more Fords than ever before. No other low-priced car offers so many of the things people want and need for today's driving. In fact, to get such "Worth More" Ford features as a V-8 engine, completely automatic transmission and fine-car power steering in any other car, you'd have to step well up from the low-price field.

Of course, Ford owners will discover that Ford's worth more when they sell it, too. Surveys of used car prices show year-old Fords returning a higher proportion of their original cost than any other car.

because it's most like high-priced cars

... more and more people are considering Ford as the one fine car in the low-price field!

It's hard to believe that a car which is built like the finest still sells in the low-price field. Yet a Ford with its huiltight Crestmark body, its Full-Circle Visibility (most in its field), its new fine car ride and roomy luggage locker (roomiest in its field) delivers at a figure that keeps it right down in its price class.

Ford's the only low-priced car which offers you a choice of a completely automatic transmission (Fordomatic), Overdrive or Con-tional Drive. And Ford Master-Guide, available on all V-8 models, is the last word in power steering... makes turning up to 75% easier, yet retains the natural feel of the wheel on the straightaway.

Gasoline
for Sunday driving... or Natural Gas to cook next Sunday's roast?

Most people think only of gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils when the petroleum industry is mentioned. The fact is, practically all oil producers are also natural gas producers. So today the driller of a wildcat, or exploratory well, calls his venture successful if the well discovers either oil or gas. If it is an oil well, then he has helped to supply the country's increasing needs for oil and oil products; if it is a gas well, he has discovered additional supplies of an efficient, economical fuel for household and industrial use. The petroleum industry's development and conservation of the country's natural gas resources is a practical demonstration of the progress to which Oil Progress Week invites attention. Beginning with the location of the well, advanced geological and geophysical studies of underground formations aid in the selection of likely oil or gas producing areas, but still the odds against a wildcat well producing either gas or oil are eight to one. If a natural gas field is discovered, reservoir engineers immediately begin their studies to determine the best producing methods to conserve the underground energy and to obtain the maximum production for the longest possible time. If the gas that is discovered is "wet," it is processed in gasoline plants which remove the liquid part and send them to refineries for further processing into motor fuels and aviation gasolines, or to petrochemical plants to be converted into a long list of useful chemical products, among which are the plastics and synthetic fabrics with which you are so familiar. "Dry" gas, the residue from gasoline plants, and sometimes produced direct from the gas field, is the natural gas that burns in literally millions of homes throughout America and under the boilers of thousands of American industries. So, whether a wildcat well discovers oil for gasoline or natural gas for the kitchen stove, it adds to the available energy resources of the most highly mechanized nation on earth; it supplies products essential for today's and tomorrow's high living standards; it gives additional strength to measures for National defense.
