ABILENE FAIR—

The Palomino Horse Show opular feature of the West Texs Fair at Abilene for the past two years, will be even more colorful and spectacular at this year's fair, September 28 to October 4, Dr. M. T. Ramsey, show chairman announced today. Entries, restricted to rigistered

Palominos, passed the 200 mark last year, and are running well ahead of 1940 figures today, Dr. Ramsey said. Inquiries, or reservations, or both, have come from 16 states and the Republic

Four Palamino shows will be given this year, with nine or more events, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday afternoons at 2:30 and Monday night at 8, and there no grandstand charge, said Roscoe Blankenship, Fair president. The Texas Palomino Association sponsors the show

"As the word has spread that the first all-Palomino horse show ever held anywhere was held at Abilene, and that it is an annual event at the West Texas Faird, inquiries about it come in almost daily from all over the United States," Dr. Ramsey said.

The show chairman predicted, too, that the Palominos will be more beautiful than ever this year Since the 1939 show, many breed ers have developed and bread their Palominos to a point where types are more definite, and colors are more perfect, he said. The Palominos will participate in SALE IN CALLAHAN COUNTY the big annual parade on Monday the opening date.
