The Republican party saddled itself with an immense "old man of the sea" when it permitted the negro as a race to become a member of its body politic. The Republican party would to day be a power in the Southern states, where the negro predominates, were it free from the race. And most fortunately for the Republican party, it is the negro who himself draws the color line.

It has virtually become a negro party, for the interest of negroess, and thus all true Republicans are at liberty to adhere to Republicanism and let the negroes herd by themselve. You have forced the issue, and it is reasonable for the Republican party to accept it when by so doing it can relieve itself of a disturbing and weakening element, which works for what it can make out of Democratic candidates, for influance and votes among its own race, and for that

"By all means form a negro party, organize into clubs, invite condidates gentlemen as candidates to take part in the proceedings, and for the offices mentioned thus you will smoke good cigars, drink good liquor and have money to spend, and the object of your organization will have achieved a brilliant success."

The anti-commssion men are opposed to the section of the law that makes the rate of the commission operative until set aside by a direct proceeding instituted for that purpose. They say that when an injust rate is inforced great damage will result to the railroad before it can be set aside by the courts. This we what as do all the commise? supporters. Now the an amission man would cut short the argument rite here, for they have gained their point and dont want the matter investigated further. This is where Mr. Clark, Col. Nonn and others stop, in their discussion of the subject, and would substituted a provistion which would require a suit in ev ery case before the railroads would be required to conform to the rate fixed by the commission. As the law now is after five months operation, there has been no suits. Change the law to suit Clark and others, let the commission make a just rate, the railroads fefuse to comply. Though the rate is just, the roads go ahead and extort thousands of dollars from the geople until each and every one of the Thousands of patrons of the
