A MEASURED LIFE-SAVING DIFFERENCE!

More than 3,000 gripping edges hold where tires never held before!

DAY AFTER DAY, YEAR AFTER YEAR, the great U. S. Royal Master holds its undisputed position as top tire of its time.

WHY IS THIS? WHAT CAUSED IT? The answers are plain. The U. S. Royal Master is America's super-tire, of recognized extra mileage, with positive life-saving differences throughout its construction, and in all of its performance.

IN SKID PROTECTION AND STOPPING POWER, the U. S. Royal Master has its own unique tread treatment, continuously renewable, holding peak safety to the last mile of its long life.

IN SIDEWALL CONSTRUCTION and CURB PROTECTION, the U. S. Royal Master is also entirely original and unique. The tire walls themselves are shielded from scuffing damage. The trim, clean whitewalls remain spotless, free from smear and abrasion.

AND WHEN TIRE COSTS ARE ADDED UP, there seems to be nothing to compare with this great tire's year-after-year economy. It rightfully remains America's top favorite in quality, outselling because it deserves to outsell.

The protection that's always with you!

- The Only ROYALTEX TREAD and TRACTION — skid protection and stopping power beyond all previous standards!

Duck Hunting Season Dates Suits Texans

Texans seem generally contented with the 1953 waterfowl harvest regulations, according to the executive secretary of the Game and Fish Commission at Austin. He said the response to the state's season on ducks and geese, running from Nov. 6 through Jan. 4, has been favorable. The fact the season extends through the Christmas holidays has pleased gunners on the Gulf coast.

The executive secretary said north Texas hunters understandably were disappointed again at not being zoned like the mourning dove upper state shot. He said prospects of a late flight from the north as reported in Washington should help compensate for the difference.

The United States Fish and Wildlife Service, which has final authority over seasons for migratory waterfowl, generally followed the request by the Game and Fish Commission for a sixty-day season, a limit of five and ten ducks and a limit of five for geese.

The executive secretary said the barring of baiting for waterfowl will not affect many Texas hunters since the practice has not been widely followed in this State.

The extra hour tagged to the day's shooting period, extending legal gunning to sunset, will have no appreciable affect, he said. "Waterfowl are too smart," he explained. "It will be rough on them for the first few days but they soon catch on. After they get wise, they simply wait around much until after shooting stops. In this case ducks and geese simply wait to delay moving into grounds and back up for another hour."

Feed men are being pilloried by some producers for trying to get a program set up whereby the feed-making industry can participate. Much of this is grossly unfair. After all this program will bankrupt many small businessmen (feed dealers) in its present form. We can hardly blame an important segment of our national economy for fighting for its life.

Rainfall Over State 86 Per Cent of Normal During Month of July

Rainfall over the state was 86 per cent of normal for July, varying from one-eighth normal in the Corpus Christi coastal region to twice normal in the west central region of Texas, according to the Texas Board of Water Engineers.

Substantial rises occurred in the upper watersheds of the Brazos, Canadian, and Red Rivers, and in scattered areas over the state, alleviating critical drought conditions in many localities in varying degrees; however, the drought remains serious in south and west Texas. Small rises occurred in some of the upper tributaries of the Trinity River but were not of sufficient magnitude to relieve the serious shortage in municipal water supplies in that area.

Precipitation

Scattered thundershowers over most of the state during July produced rainfall that furnished welcome relief in many areas. Greater than normal rainfall occurred generally from the Panhandle to northeast Texas, but a deficiency continued south of a general line from El Paso to Houston, even though some localities in that section of the state experienced heavy rainfall. The Corpus Christi area received an average of 0.35 inches of rain which amount is only 13 per cent of July normal. San Angelo received good rains during the month increasing storage in Lake Nasworthy which will be beneficial to local consumers in a continuing drought. The highest percentage of July normal rainfall was in the Abilene area—an average of 4.06 inches (201 per cent of normal) of rain fell in that area.

Ground Water

Water levels in the Edwards limestone reservoir that supplies the larger springs in central Texas, continued to decline.

At Uvalde the water level was 84.7 feet below the land surface on July 19, 1953, a decline of two feet from the level of June 19, 1953. The average water level for July over a 14-year period has been 38.8 feet below the land surface.

Water levels in Edwards wells at Castroville, San Antonio, and New Braunfels, are very near their previous lows of last summer. Many cities in Texas that normally use surface water for public supplies are now drilling test wells to explore the possibilities of underground reservoirs.

Spring flow in central Texas continued to decline during July at a rather uniform rate. Comal Springs at New Braunfels decreased in discharge from the first to the last of the month from 172 to 125 cubic feet per second while San Marcos Springs at San Marcos decreased from 116 to 102 cubic feet per second and Barton Springs at Austin from 25 to 20 cubic feet per second.

Stream Flow

Runoff corresponded with the rainfall pattern during the month with the second largest flood known to local residents on Salt Fork Red River occurring July 19. The Guadalupe River at New Braunfels repeated the minimum July flow of record, 7 cubic feet per second, in 1951. Red River near Terrell, Okla., flowed about 40 per cent of 27-year average. Excessive runoff occurred in small areas where rainfall was intense. Denton Creek, Elm Fork Trinity River, and Isle du Bois Creek in the Denton area reached medium flow stages while Clear Creek near Sanger and East Fork Trinity River near Rockwall carried no flow the entire month. Severe flooding occurred at Albany following 10.44 inches of rain which overtaxed the capacities of local streams. North Colorado River near Carlsbad was 906 per cent of median flow for July, but the runoff of North Bosque River near Clifton was only 46 per cent median. No heavy runoff was experienced in either the Pecos or Upper Colorado River basins. Neches River at Evadale continued to flow above normal—134 per cent median.

Reservoir Storage

The contents of all major reservoirs in Texas decreased during the month with the exception of Lake Kemp and Possum Kingdom Reservoir on the Wichita and Brazos Rivers respectively which showed significant gains.

Call From Japan Is Happy Surprise To Soldier's Wife

A telephone call from her husband in Japan was a happy surprise for Mrs. Lindo Guess Saturday morning, who had received a letter only a few days before written from Seoul, Korea. Pfc. Guess said he had just arrived in Japan, and would be there a week or ten days before he knew whether his assignment would keep him in Japan or Korea. He went overseas early this year and has been with an Army Medical unit in Korea.

One of the young soldier's first questions was to ask about the couple's 10-month-old daughter, Karen Sue. Mrs. Guess is the former Sarah Sue Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Young of this city. Pfc. Guess is the son of Mrs. R. B. Guess of the Mattson community.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—If you want to accept the testimony of two observers who expressed themselves here, there is going to be a downward trend in business in the immediate future.

That doesn't mean, the commentators agreed, that there is going to be a crash in the 1929 manner.

It does mean that business men are going to sharpen their sales techniques if they hope to get as much business as they have been accustomed to in the last 15 years or so.

One of the speakers was Dr. J. H. Stockton, director of the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Addressing a group of Austin businessmen, Dr. Stockton advised tightening of the belt and holding on for times that may be a little tougher.

"You won't go broke," the speaker told his audience, "so don't get panicky. You might have to polish up your sales techniques, though. You'll have to get out and scramble again."

Business will be somewhat less active than it has been in the period since 1928, Dr. Stockton said, adding, "We've had 15 years of boom. We're not going to bust, but all signs indicate a slight downturn."

As factors indicating the trend, the researcher listed farm income, industrial development, and governmental expenditures.

All of those, Dr. Stockton noted, point to a leveling off in business.

"Watch your inventories," the speaker advised his listeners, "and cut down on your credit a bit. If you keep your business on a sound basis, there's no reason for worry."

Also noting the business trend was Senator Lyndon B. Johnson, who said in a statewide broadcast that, while we are not on the verge of another depression, "certain disturbing signs are becoming evident."

Retail business is off in most Texas areas, the Senator reported, and farm income is down 18 per cent for the first five months of this year.

Home builders' sales are declining, and automobile dealers are finding it harder to move cars, Johnson said.

His answer to the problem of threatening bad times is to line up the full force of the government.

The Senator is up for re-election next year. He opened an office here and announced that he would do quite a bit of traveling over Texas in the fall.

Senator Johnson's is one of the many political races that will be run next year—but the entries are yet to be posted.

People who try to determine the shape of things to come have their eyes on the Democratic State Executive Committee's meeting at Mineral Wells, Sept. 11.

State Chairman Wallace Savage called the meeting, but did not indicate what subjects are to be discussed.

Likely there will be some discussion of National Committee Chairman Wright Morrow, who supported Mr. Eisenhower for president last year.

National Democratic Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, during a visit to Texas, said his committee does not recognize Morrow.

George Sadin of Austin, secretary of the State Democratic Executive Committee, put it this way: "You never can tell what might happen when a bunch of Democrats meet."

That's about the way it is—and that's why the politicians have their eyes on Mineral Wells.

Getting back to the political races of next year, and trying to figure out who's going to run for what—the whole thing depends pretty much on what Governor Wilson Shivers decides to do.

And if he has decided, he isn't leaving.

Some say that the governor will announce his plans at Mineral Wells.

But the best guess seems to be that Shivers will keep 'em guessing.

There is reason in that line of thinking. For example: Should the governor announce that he is going to retire after serving his present term, then his influence with any special session of the Legislature, either late this year or early next year, would be lessened.

As it is, Shivers is in a strong position, whether he intends to run for re-election as governor, seek some other office, or retire from public service.

He can afford to wait. But his waiting bedevils other prospective candidates who will run for one office or another, depending on what Shivers does.

Some business at the Mineral Wells meeting will be plan-making on the part of the Shivers group, as opposed to the so-called Democratic "Loyalists" who have already perfected their organization with Byron Skelton of Temple as chairman.

The loyalists seek to regain some of the Democratic party's glory in Texas by overthrowing Shivers and those who, with him, succeeded in giving Texas to Eisenhower last year.

Not to be overlooked in the political picture are the Republicans, who have been working earnestly toward making Texas a two-party state.

Hearings on ouster charges against District Judge C. Woodrow Laughlin of Alice will delve deep into the dark and mysterious politics of that South Texas area where George Parr is reputed to be the big boss.

District Judge D. B. Wood of Georgetown was designated master in chancery for the hearings, which will develop testimony as to whether or not Laughlin should be removed from his office.

Laughlin's court serves Starr, Duval, Jim Wells, and Brooks counties, where the Parr influence is felt. Parr was a backer of Laughlin at his last election, in which he defeated Sam G. Reams.

Everett L. Looney of Austin, originally listed as one of the attorneys for Laughlin removed himself from the case.

Looney, newly-elected president of the State Bar, is in Boston for a medical check.

SHORT SNORTS: The state has on hand a balance of $199,199,868 in all funds which represents a decrease of $7,900,000 during July according to the figures of State Treasurer Jesse James.

If you have deductible property damage and bodily injury insurance, that's not enough to satisfy the requirements of the driver responsibility law, says Casualty Insurance Commissioner Garland A. Smith.

Representative Phil Books of Bagwell resigned as a member of the Legislature, giving no reason in his letter to the governor.

New hunting and fishing licenses will be ready for sale about August 20. The state parks board is distributing a directory showing the location of state parks and showing how to reach them by road.

Saddle Tramps, Firemen Plan Joint Remodeling of Fair Exhibit Hall

Committees from the Haskell Volunteer Fire Department and the Saddle Tramps riding club met last night at the City Hall for the purpose of discussing the proposed remodeling of the old exhibit hall in the Fair Park to be used by the local firemen in their promotion of Golden Gloves boxing bouts this fall and winter.

Agreements were reached whereby the riding club would paint the inside of the hall, rewire, repair all doors, windows and the roof, and install one restroom. In addition all utilities will be paid by the Saddle Tramps. The firemen will remove the wooden pillars from the center of the hall and replace them with steel uprights and wash the building.

As a consideration to cover the expense of the repair work and the continued use of the hall, the Saddle Tramps riding club will receive the entire receipts derived from the first night's bouts plus an additional 15 per cent of the gross receipts from each succeeding Golden Gloves promotion by the Fire Department.

Members of both organizations are especially interested in the remodeling of the building and feel that it will offer a new medium of entertainment for Haskell and also provide an adequate meeting hall for future use on numerous occasions.

Work is to begin immediately to get the building in first class shape for use in September. It is estimated that when complete, the seating capacity will be approximately eight hundred persons or twice the number which could be accommodated last year during the first session of Golden Gloves bouts sponsored by the local firemen.

Committees are: Fire Department: Ray Lusk, Chief; Walter Gresham, chairman; Jim Byrd and Marion Reeves.

Saddle Tramps: Myron Biard, president; Adell Thomas, chairman; Roy Cook, Dr. T. W. Williams and Jetty V. Clare.

There is still time in most sections of the state to do some fall gardening. Use the varieties of vegetables that are adapted to your section. County extension agents can provide information on the subject.
