

April 20-24 To Be "Parents Week" In Haskell Schools

Parents of every child in public school are receiving personal invitation from the school and the student to come to school for one half day during the week of April 20-24.

Parents are urged to accept the invitation and see their children in operation from day to day. It is from day to day that the child learns to do things. The purpose of this visit is to see the child and the normal operation of the school. Only three children in the school are invited to stay in the school during the week because of numbers.

Parents are urged to stay in the school during the week if it is possible. They will be the same as the other parents who served some previous years.

Sixty-Eight HHS Gridders Report For First Session of Spring Training

Sixty-eight candidates for the 1953 HHS Indians football team turned out Wednesday afternoon for the first session of Spring training. Head Coach Royce Smith and assistants Ray Overton and Thomas F. Jones spent most of the afternoon on the fundamentals of the game and on blocking and tackling.

Twelve returning lettermen and a wealth of reserve material brought smiles to the faces of coaches. "We will have from three to four good reserves for nearly every position on the field and this year's team won't be handicapped in that respect like our bi-district championship team of last year," Smith declared.

Returning lettermen are Russell Drinnon, Bobby Stone, ends; Jackie Cox, Wendell Jones, tackles; Manuel Mullins, Wayne Harris, guards; Don Dendy, center; Jerry Wheatley, Max Johnson, quarterback; Frank Clarkson, Lynn Colson and Mabry Brock, backs.

Jerry Wheatley was hospitalized early this week with a back injury and as yet no decision has been made whether the injury is an old one or one sustained in a practice game of touch football a few days ago.

Of the total number of boys out for the Spring session, 24 are Juniors, some of whom were outstanding in last year's Junior High games, and seven are new boys. One of the new candidates is Kenneth Scoggins who tips the scales at 265, is 6 feet 4 1/2 inches tall, and a Sophomore.

Aldermen Dotson, Walling Begin New Terms; Council Buys New Equipment

Returns of the recent election were canvassed at the regular meeting of the City Council Tuesday night, with Aldermen Olen Dotson and J. E. Walling, Jr., officially declared elected and inducted for new terms on the Council.

The Council also heard a report on progress on the new disposal plant now under construction for the sewer department. Other business transacted included the purchase of a combination bulldozer and loader for the city sanitary department, and a discussion of a new ordinance regulating operation of taxis in the city.

Ernest Yeatts of Abilene, who is employed as City Engineer of Haskell, told the Council that the new disposal plant would likely be completed this month.

After discussion, the City Secretary was instructed to draft a new ordinance regulating operation of taxis, for submission to the Council for later consideration.

Eddie Cockrell of Abilene, representative of Morton Equipment Company of that city, appeared before the Council and proposed to sell the City of Haskell a combination bulldozer and loader at a price of $6,500. Payment was to be $1,500 in cash and $5,000 in five notes of $1,000 each payable annually with interest at 5 per cent.

Kent Courthouse Dispute Headed For Appeals Court

Another court round in the year-old Kent County courthouse election dispute was indicated this week, when District Clerk Jesse B. Smith was instructed to prepare a transcript of court records in the case for submission to the 11th Court of Civil Appeals at Eastland.

The case has been appealed to the higher court by Larry and Dallas Scarborough, Abilene attorneys representing Clearmont parties in the election dispute.

The appeal is from a recent 39th District Court decision declaring an election held in Kent County March 29, 1952, favored moving the county seat from Clearmont to Jayton. Court action stemming from the contested election had been pending in 39th District Court since April, 1952.

Pending final ruling by higher courts, Clearmont will retain the courthouse, local court officials explained.

Chuck Wagon Feed Monday Night Has Good Turn-Out

Sixty-four members and guests turned out Monday evening for the Haskell Saddle Tramps first chuck wagon supper of the season, held in Rice Springs Park in connection with a regular meeting of the club.

The meal was prepared and served under the supervision of Truett Cobb, wagon boss of the organization, and his helpers. The supper had originally been scheduled for April 6 and postponed because of weather.

Following the supper, a short business session was held, with Myron Biard presiding.

Plans were discussed for the Club's trip to the Paducah Horse and Colt Show and Rodeo Friday. Names of members who would transport animals to Paducah were listed and time of leaving Haskell was set at 7:00 a. m. Friday. Approximately 20 members of the local club plan to attend the Paducah show.

Biard urged an intensified effort to secure additional members, and also to do efforts being made to secure use of Fair Park by the riding club.

Hellie E. Chapman, chairman of the committee to lease the Central West Texas Fair grounds for the riding club, reported that everything was in good order and only one or two minor details were to be worked out before the riding club takes over the facilities of the Fair Association on a long time lease basis.

Plans call for cleaning up and remodeling the grounds and adding a rodeo plant to be used for annual events.

Under the set-up the complete facilities will be available to the fair association for one week during the fall of each year for its annual show.

Meeting of Merchants Scheduled Friday To Designate Holidays To Be Observed

An important meeting of Haskell merchants has been scheduled Friday morning, April 17 at 9 o'clock in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe, manager Rex Felker of the Chamber of Commerce has announced.

Purpose of the meeting is to discuss national holidays for the current year and take a vote to determine what days will be observed as business holidays by Haskell stores.

The particular day of the week on which some of these holidays fall this year makes it imperative that a good representation of merchants be present for the meeting, Felker said.

The first holiday to be observed is July 4th, which comes on Saturday this year. It is the opinion of the Retail Trades Committee of the Chamber of Commerce that some discussion will be in order to determine the desirability of merchants about observing this particular holiday on Saturday.

Other holidays normally observed by Haskell stores closing are Armistice Day Nov. 11 which comes on Wednesday this year; Thanksgiving day, Thursday, November 26; Christmas Day Friday, Dec. 25; and New Year's Day which comes on Friday.

The People

No county may legally change the salary of any public official or employee without first publishing the intention of Commissioners Court to do so.

Here is the state law on the subject:

"Art. 2812g. Fees of Office—Notice of Intention of Commissioners Court to make change in salaries of officers and employees.

"Sec. 4. Before the Commissioners Court shall be authorized to change the salary of the public officials provided for in this Act, said Court shall publish at least once a week for (3) consecutive weeks in a newspaper in the respective county, notice of their intention to make changes of salaries of those affected."

"So the People May Know" some of the requirements are to the publishing of public documents and reports.

Texas publication laws were enacted by the Legislature to insure that the citizens would have the opportunity to be informed concerning the operation of their local government and the expenditure of their tax money.

Publication of governmental reports will obviously discourage corrupt practices on the part of public office holders. Newspaper casts no reflection on the reputation of any person who is working for any of our local units of government.

We do submit that strict observation of the state publication laws is a healthy practice, is in the interest of good government, and should be a policy to be followed with exception.

March Rainfall Above Normal in State, But Distribution Poor, Report Shows

A flash flood on Middle Concho River and on Spring Creek near San Angelo filled Lake Nasworthy, the source of water supply for the city of San Angelo. As a result water rationing in San Angelo was discontinued. Elsewhere in Texas runoff in major streams was below average except for Sabine and Neches Rivers which were slightly above. Rainfall averaged above normal over the state although distribution was poor.

the Texas Board of Water Engineers report. Average precipitation was 105 per cent normal for March over the state. Excesses up to nearly twice normal were recorded in the central, north central, and northeast section while deficiencies were recorded in the Panhandle and coastal regions. The greatest deficiency was along the east coastal region where only 15 per cent of normal was recorded. San Angelo and environs received 5.00 inches of rain, most of it occurring March 8, 9.

A flash flood on Middle Concho River and Spring Creek March 8 and 9 filled Lake Nasworthy and caused it to overflow for the first time since September 1950. Flow was deficient in all major river basins in Texas except in Sabine and Neches Rivers in east Texas. Sabine River at Bon Weir flowed at about 110 per cent of average and Neches River at Evadale flowed at 117 per cent of its average. However, Lake Fork, a tributary of Sabine River, had less than one-third its average flow, and Sulphur River, just north of Sabine averaged about 60 per cent of normal.

Brazos River flowed at about 35 per cent of average at Seymour (above Possum Kingdom Reservoir), and at 40 per cent of average at the Hemstead gauge. North Bosque River, a tributary to Brazos River, averaged only 16 per cent. In Central Texas, Guadalupe, Lavaca, Nueces and Frio Rivers showed deficiencies, averaging flows of 12 to 38 per cent of normal. However, all were higher this month than they were in March 1950.

There was little runoff in west Texas except for the flash flood in the San Angelo area. North Concho River at Carlsbad, 16 miles from San Angelo, was dry for the entire month—the eighth consecutive month of no flow at this station. The longest previous period of no flow since records started in 1924 was two consecutive months.

The flow of Canadian River near Amarillo was about 30 per cent of average and the flow of Red River near Terrell, Okla., was about 40 per cent.

Denton Creek near Justin, a tributary to upper Trinity River, was dry for the entire month and there was relatively little flow in Elm Fork of Trinity. Below Dallas several tributaries had bankful stages during the month. Chambers Creek near Corsicana and Richland Creek near Richland peaked at about 12,000 cubic feet per second, these flows combining to put a near bankful stage on the lower Trinity. With this flood passing down Trinity the flow at Riverside was only slightly over half the average March flow.

Stored water in nine major reservoirs increased about 4 per cent during March, most of it due to an increase in Buchanan Reservoir of 62,000 acre-feet. Slight increases were recorded in Lake Dallas, Lake Kemp, and Possum Kingdom Reservoir.

A national cotton crop of from 12 to 12.5 million bales will be sufficient to meet domestic and export demands and leave an adequate amount of reserves. Cotton is a heavy consumer of farm labor and consideration should be given to this part of the cotton production picture.

Dove Outlook Reported Good

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission said reports generally indicate promising hatching conditions for mourning doves in Texas.

He said field studies show a high dove population at this time but added that some of the birds apparently are merely stopping over en route to northern nesting areas.

"The present population of mourning doves indicates that we should have another good hatch of birds, particularly if moisture conditions continue to improve," said the executive secretary. "Of course, there are many deterrents. Any trend toward violent weather would be costly since the flimsy dove nests, containing eggs or young, are vulnerable to the elements."

The director of Wildlife Restoration for the Commission, W. C. Glazner, said field observations "are very promising." He noted one unusually heavy concentration of mourning doves in the Alpine area as described by Flying Game Warden Frank Hamer. The director said it had not been determined whether the doves were transient or part of the permanent population.

The director added that the current healthy condition of the mourning dove flocks has accelerated the banding program. He said an increasing number of individuals are assisting wardens and other field men in this vital routine "since they realize the profound effect banding has on efforts to learn more about migration and other habits of doves."

Proper Finishing Important In Home Sewing

Tailored buttonholes for the best dress is a finishing detail many home demonstration club women are adding this spring. According to the clothing specialists for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, the tailored buttonhole is made on the right front of the dress after interfacing has been attached, and before the front is joined to the rest of the garment. The specialists say begin by machine basting along the center front line, and with the garment fabric next to the feed dog of the machine, stitch along the marked line on the interfacing, using longest stitch and contrasting color of thread. Next, stitch a line parallel to the center front line and about one-eighth of an inch away from this line towards the cut edge of the front, to make one end of the buttonhole. Measure the button, width plus thickness, for the exact length and mark other end of buttonhole. Baste across these lines for exact position of buttonholes.

Then you are ready to cut a lengthwise strip of fabric twice as long as the total length of the buttonholes and one and a half inches wide. If your fabric is gabardine, cut the strip crosswise; if it is plaid, cut to match the design or on the true bias. Fold and lightly crease a center line lengthwise in this strip, then machine baste along the line. Fold under one edge of strip three-sixteenths of an inch from center baste line and stitch halfway, between center basting and fold. Repeat with the other half, and the strip now has two small tucks with a center baste line between. Cut the tucked strip into sections twice the marked length of the buttonhole. Place center baste line of tucked buttonhole pieces over the baste mark of buttonhole.

Shorten the machine stitch and stitch on original tuck stitching, starting and stopping on the baste lines that mark the ends of the buttonholes. Secure each end by pulling threads through to wrong side and tying. Repeat on other tuck. Stitch all buttonhole pieces to garment.

On the wrong side of fabric, cut between parallel lines of stitching to one fourth of an inch from each end. Clip diagonally to each corner. Pull end of strips to wrong side, forming square corners at ends of buttonholes.

On the wrong side, stitch across the triangle at ends of buttonholes after facing has been attached. Cut through the facing the length of the buttonhole, turn under with needle and whip to back of buttonhole pieces.

Farm Bureau Head Says Farmers Being Falsely Blamed For High Food Prices

Record Cattle Run Hits Livestock Markets

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—A record run of cattle appeared at the nation's major markets for mid-April on Monday when an estimated 112,700 cattle and 9,000 calves were reported. This compared with 94,700 cattle and 9,500 calves a week earlier, and only 44,000 cattle and 3,000 calves on the same date a year ago.

Immediate effect was to slow trade on fed cattle at Fort Worth and other points around the country. Here fed cattle closed 50c to $1 below last week's close, and some points in the North reported more severe slumps before trade was completed. Cows at Fort Worth were fully steady and bulls closed 50c to $1 lower to hit the lowest level for that class in over a year.

Killing calves were 50 cents or more lower. Stocker trade was bearish throughout, prices $1 under last week's best. Hogs advanced 25 cents to sell up to $22 and $22.25, and sows and pigs were steady. Sows drew $17 to $19. Pigs sold from $15 to $17.

Lambs were weak to 50 cents lower, both the new and old crop lambs finding that kind of market. Best milk fed fat lambs topped at $24 and $24.50, with most of the better ones from $22 to $23.50. Shorn fat lambs drew $17 to $19, and shorn feeder lambs sold from $14 to $18. Yearlings and two's sold from $13 to $16 and old wethers sold around $12 down. Old ewes cashed at $7.50 to $10.50. Woolled fat lambs were virtually lacking, quotable around $22 or under.

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings cashed at $19 to $22.25, and common, plain and medium to good fat cattle sold from $13 to $18. Butcher cows drew $12.50 to $14, and canners and cutters sold from $9 to $12.50. Bulls cashed at $10 to $15.50.

Good and choice stocker calves and yearlings sold from $18 to $22 and stocker cows cashed at $12 to $17.50.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Thomas of Denton are the proud parents of a baby daughter born April 4 in the Flow Memorial Hospital in Denton. She has been named Julie Anne and weighed seven pounds and 11 3/4 ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McFarlin of Haskell and 6 great-grandparents.

There is evidence to prove that farm and home accidents can be reduced when rural people attack the problem through organization. Agriculture presently ranks as the third most hazardous occupation in the nation. It's a good time to make a check and then remove the accident hazards around your farm.

Spell petrochemical the easy way...

P-R-O-G-R-E-S-S

Progress in finding and producing oil is an old story to the oil country. Nearly everybody has heard about the oil industry's day-to-day miracles in exploration and production.

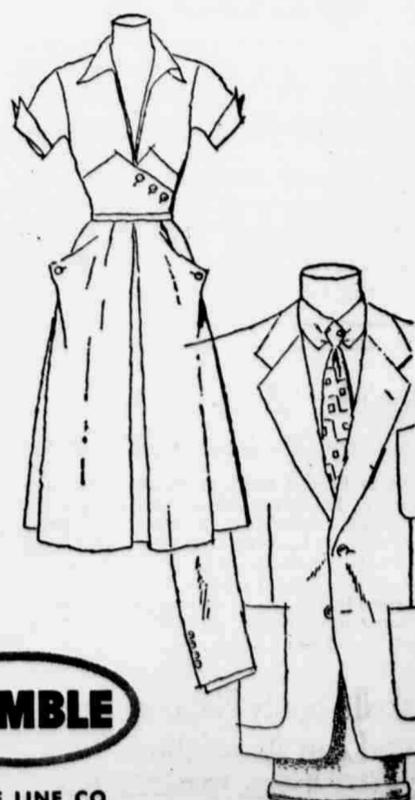

Now we all have a new series of miracles to wonder at—the transformation of petroleum hydrocarbons into chemical products of astonishing variety. These chemicals from petroleum have even added a new word to the American vocabulary—petrochemical.

Progress in the field has been amazing. The capital investment in new industries based on the petrochemicals has mounted to hundreds of millions. The new plants have created thousands of new jobs. And petrochemicals, as an industry, have provided a wider, a more complete, use of the country's oil resources.

Butadiene and butyl for synthetic rubber, toluene for TNT, solvents, aldehydes, and many other petrochemicals—even alcohols—are now produced in oil refineries. For example, the Humble Company, at its Baytown, Texas, refinery, is building facilities to manufacture paraxylene, the raw material for the new fabric called dacron.

The day may come, and very quickly, when you can be clothed from tip to toe in synthetic fabrics derived from petroleum; when petrochemicals provide the rubber for your tires, the plastics for your car's interior fittings, the fabric for the seat covers, the vehicle for body paint and polish.

The petrochemicals spell progress... progress to which the oil industry contributes research, capital, manufacturing facilities and, most importantly, an enterprising spirit.

Study Club Plans Silver Tea and Book Review

One of the program highlights of the current year for the Progressive Study Club will be a Silver Tea and Book Review, Thursday, April 30 in the Bob Herren home, 706 N. Ave. L. at 7:30 p. m.

Mrs. James V. Daugherty of Nocona will review "The Proud Young Thing," by Helen Topping Miller, a "book of the month" selection by the Book Club for March.

Mrs. Daugherty is a very talented young matron who serves as Music Chairman in the 13th District, Texas Congress of Parents and Teachers. Mrs. Daugherty was the musician during the State meeting in Wichita Falls last autumn. She plays the organ as well as the piano, and is the author of a book of devotionals entitled "From Ashes to Beauty" in which she includes devotionals for every month of the year.

Officers and members of the Progressive Study Club feel they are indeed fortunate in securing the talented reviewer for this occasion, and the public is invited to be guests of the club for the review.

Tea In Bob Herren Home Compliments Wilda Pippen

Mrs. Bob Herren and Mrs. R. A. Lane were joint hostesses for a tea complimenting Wilda Pippen, bride-elect of Edward J. Raye, Friday afternoon April 10 in the Herren home.

Guests were greeted at the door by the hostesses. In the receiving line were Wilda Pippen, Mrs. John Williams of Rule, and Eva Belle Pippen of Haskell, sisters of the bride-elect.

Guests were invited into the solarium where they registered in the bride's book. Grace Bisbee presided at the registry.

Sue Pate served yellow fruit punch from a crystal punch bowl, on a table spread with Italian linen cut work. Plates carried sandwiches, nuts, and cakes decorated with small yellow roses. The centerpiece was a gorgeous arrangement of Tailsman roses and daffodils with two silver wedding bands on a styrafoam base.

The living and dining rooms were decorated with yellow roses, the bride's chosen colors, in attractive arrangements.

Favors were hand-painted yellow bells lettered with "Wilda and Ed, April 10, 1953" and tied with yellow ribbon.

Mrs. Viars Felker and Mrs. Bill Holden assisted in the house party.

At the conclusion of the tea, Miss Pippen was presented a set of hammered glasses and pitcher. The guest list included 127 persons.

Mrs. Wilda Meeford, organist, gave an arrangement of chimes and "Because" as vows were repeated.

The bride wore a navy blue knit dress, completed by a rhinestone trim knit jacket, and pale yellow accessories. Her hat was of perumed iridescent shells representative of the queen's crown. Bridal bouquet was of yellow sweetheart rose buds.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Williams at Rule. Decorations included bouquets of yellow gladioli, orange blossoms and d. snapdragons. The bride's table was laid with an imported grass linen cloth. A two-tiered cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom was served by a sister, Miss Eva Belle Pippen. Coffee was served by Mrs. Ora Pippen and Betty Pippen from a silver service recently brought from Japan by a brother of the bride, Artie and his wife.

Guests were registered in the bride's book by Mrs. Bob Herren. A wedding trip through the Ozarks took the couple to Chicago where they will be at home at 5946 West Rice.

why Smokeless broiling? Here is a simple demonstration that points the way to cleaner, cooler cooking. SEE THAT SMOKE FROM THE CIGARETTE? Smoke also comes from broiling foods. For as they cook, fats burn and smoke. The high heat does it—whether it is flame or non-flame broiling. SEE ANY SMOKE ABOVE THE FLAME? There isn't any because it was consumed by the flame. And you don't have any when you broil with gas. In gas ranges, as in this demonstration, the flame consumes the smoke. Moreover, flame broiling is cooler, for the broiler door is kept tightly closed during broiling process. ONLY GAS BROILS WITHOUT SMOKING... WITH BROILER DOOR TIGHTLY CLOSED!

Bill Matthews, Haskell Senior at NTSC, Has Outstanding Record in AAU Diving

DENTON, April 13 — "Bill Matthews on the high board" is a familiar cry to spectators and contestants alike at diving meets throughout Texas and Oklahoma. From Lubbock to Tyler, from San Antonio to Blackwell, Okla., this good looking senior at North Texas State College has won top honors in such towns as Breckenridge, Lubbock and Blackwell. Matthews, 22, who calls Haskell his home, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews. He has competed in six state AAU championship meets and won honors in each. His array of 14 medals from these meets would make a South American general green with envy.

During the months when the pools are closed, Matthews keeps in shape by working out on the school's trampoline and vaulting with N. T.'s track team. He won third place pole vaulting in a recent tri-college meet between N. T., Oklahoma University and East Texas State Teachers College.

Matthews, who is majoring in health, physical education, and recreation, plans to receive his degree in June. "I would like very much to teach when I get out of college but I imagine the army has different plans for me," he says.

He has been life guard at the college's pool for the past three seasons. He is a member of the Phi Delta Beta fraternity and is doing his student teaching at the North Texas laboratory school.

In the last two years, Matthews has made quite a record for himself in Texas and Oklahoma. He placed in the top three winners in every meet in which he has competed. In these contests he has "lived against such men as "Skip" Browning, world Olympic diving champion, and Bobby Broadnax, top diver in the Southwest Conference.

"My greatest thrill is to hit the water after successfully completing the dive I was trying," he concludes.

Livestock Producers Advised To Watch For Poisonous Plants on Range

Danger lurks for livestock on many ranges of the state among the new and tender growth of certain plants that are poisonous to range animals. Death losses can be prevented, says A. H. Walker, range specialist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, through the use of good range management practices.

The first job is to determine whether or not poisonous plants are growing on the range and if they are present, Walker says livestock should be removed from the areas until the danger period is past.

The buds, leaves and tender shoots of all trees in the oak family contain poisonous substances which cause severe illness in cattle, sheep, goats and horses, says Walker. This condition occurs from the time the buds begin to swell until the leaves become dark green. The low-growing oaks commonly called shin or shinnery oak cause the most trouble because livestock can get to them with ease. Cattle are most commonly affected.

The specialist explains the oak poisoning is more common following drouth periods because livestock are hunting for green feed and too, other types of green forage are scarce. Death losses from oak bud poisoning run extremely high, says Walker and no effort should be made to graze areas where the oaks are growing during this bud period. Either remove the cattle to open grasslands or feed them in a small pasture or dry lot.

Poor grass cover in the bitterweed areas of the state has made many ranges ripe for an invasion of bitterweeds. This plant is especially poisonous to sheep and is a cumulative poison. One to two pounds of dry plants will kill a grown ewe. Deferred and rotation grazing are recommended control practices for this plant.

Loco and peavine are other plants which make a heavy growth in the spring when conditions are favorable and livestock usually graze them only when desirable plants are scarce. Livestock should not be permitted to graze in pastures where these plants are growing until there is sufficient growth of non-poisonous plants to take care of the forage needs of the livestock. The common cocklebur in the seedling stage is very poisonous to hogs and to a lesser degree to cattle.

Good range management, explains Walker, is the key to poisonous plant control. Keep feeding hay or other forage until the good forage plants have time to develop on the range, says Walker. Livestock prefer this good forage and seldom will graze poisonous plants if good grass or legume plants are available.

Film Made By Haskell Girl on European Tour Shown At Lions Club Meeting

A film made by Mrs. Bailey Traylor, the former Nancy Burton of this city, while on a tour of Europe last summer, provided one of the most entertaining programs in months for members of the Lions Club and guests at the regular meeting of the club Tuesday. Program chairman Dr. J. G. Vaughter introduced Mrs. R. L. Burton, who showed the film. She explained that the film was made by her daughter while on tour of European countries with a group of Baylor University students. The film depicted the entire tour, beginning with pictures of the party leaving their hotel in New York for the pier where they embarked on the liner Queen Mary for the five-day trip across the Atlantic. In sequence came scenes on the huge liner and arrival at a port in England. Following were pictures of notable personages including the Queen and Princess Margaret, and many picturesque spots in England. These included the home of George Washington's father, the House of Commons, Buckingham Palace, and a general view of London.

Captured in the film were many historic and legendary spots in England, Scotland, Holland, Germany, the Alps, Italy, Spain and Africa, along with scenes in a part of North Africa and the Island of Capri. Some of the more historic places pictured when the party visited Rome were the Coliseum dating back to 700 B. C., and famous churches and cathedrals. Colorful places visited in France included Paris and Versailles, and also filmed was the home of Napoleon and Josephine. An accompanying tape recording provided an interesting commentary about the scenes being shown.

During a brief business session of the club, Horace O'Neal called attention of Lions to the plight of two Haskell youths whose father had been placed in a hospital this week. Mother of the two boys is dead.

Kendall Henderson reported on the gum machine which the club purchased recently. He said most of the machines were doing well financially and that locations were needed for additional units.

Guests at the meeting included Woody Woodward of Midland, and Scout executive Raymond Davis of Stamford. The Scout committee of the club met later Tuesday to discuss plans for financing the trip of a Haskell Scout to the National Jamboree.

Pupils of Paint Creek School Make Tour Of West Texas Utilities Power Plant

As a part of their studies in learning about the people and industries of their community, pupils in the First, Second and Third Grades at Paint Creek School visited the West Texas Utilities Company's power plant near completion at Paint Creek lake.

One morning recently, according to a schedule arranged by Mr. Suss, construction superintendent of the power plant, Mrs. Ballard and Mrs. Owens took their pupils, by bus, to the WTU plant.

There they were met and courteously escorted to every section of the plant from the enormous intake and filter cistern, the size and depth of which awed them, to the immense furnace that heats water and converts it into steam; and then to the huge turbines and generators.

As one child said: "It's so big I'll have to think about it awhile instead of talking." Patiently Messrs. Dickey, Muray, Stewart and Medford pointed out and explained about everything in order to help the pupils understand as nearly as possible, the way by which electricity will be generated for use in homes, business and industry.

They also visited the lake dam and learned what a large project it has been, and how useful it will be to hold water in the lake. Afterward the group had fun and lunch in Haskell Park. Then back to school to talk about everything and write thank you letters to

Local Sportsmen Find Good Fishing At Sugar Lake, Near US Mexican Border

A party of four Haskell and Rule sportsmen returned last week from Old Mexico, where they found good fishing in Sugar Lake across the Rio Grande from Roma, Texas, and 18 miles in the interior of the southern republic.

In the party were C. P. (Parks) Woodson and Oscar Helweg of Haskell, and R. P. (Rip) Carnes and Tommy Hines of Rule.

During their five days stay at the lake, which they termed a "near perfect" fishing spot, they caught between 250 and 300 pounds of fish, mostly yellow catfish and channel catfish. Most of the catch was made on trotlines. The largest fish taken weighed 55 pounds, and several ranging in weight from 20 to 30 pounds were caught, they reported.

The party said that fair accommodations for visitors were available at the lake, but tourists would not find anything elaborate. Three camps are operated at the fishing resort, the largest having about 25 cabins. The people are friendly and all accommodations are reasonably priced, the local men reported. They paid $2 a day for a cabin, and a guide who accompanied them to various spots on the lake was paid $2 daily. Boats are also available, Woodson said.

The lake is easily accessible, although the 18 mile stretch of road in Old Mexico is only a gravelled highway, but can be traveled in all weather.

Plainview Man Suffers Bruises, Shock In Wreck

Odes Aquila Perdue, 43, employee of a Plainview motor agency, escaped with painful bruises and shock Sunday night when his automobile went out of control and overturned several miles south of Haskell on Highway 277.

The automobile, a 1952 Dodge club coupe, was badly damaged. Passing motorists summoned a Holden ambulance and the injured man was brought to the Haskell Hospital. Examination revealed that he had received severe bruises and was suffering from shock, but was not seriously injured.

The mishap which occurred about 9:45 p. m., was investigated by Sheriff Bob Cousins. Perdue is employed by Newman Motor Company in Plainview.

Parrots have no wish bones. During the past two years, approximately one million acres of mesquite in Texas has been sprayed with chemicals. Results have generally been good.

Results of research done by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station indicates that post and blackjack oaks may be controlled by chemical sprays. Trial sprayings are recommended.

Precaution Advised In Home Use Of Insecticides

Use common sense along with insecticide for home safety and insect control. According to N. M. Randolph, entomologist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, insecticides have a place when properly used, to prevent damage by household enemies as roaches, ants, silverfish, flies and clothes moths. Carelessness can cause serious accidents.

The entomologist says insects which bother man, his food or his belongings, thrive especially in cities where households are close together. But generally in homes today, household insecticides have become necessary as cleaning fluids or furniture polish, and should be treated with the same caution. Most insecticides are toxic, but they are no more dangerous than any other commonly-used household items. Safety rules for using insecticides are listed in Federal and State bulletins on insect control. Precautions, as well as instructions for safe use, are given on the labels of insecticide containers. If you follow these instructions, you can feel assured of safe use.

Some specific precautions, the specialist says, are to keep the insecticide away from food, dishes, silverware or cooking utensils. If you spill a concentrated insecticide on yourself, wash it off immediately with soap and water. Don't expose yourself to dust or spray mist in the air. Provide extra ventilation by opening doors and windows when extensive spraying or dusting jobs are done. Don't spray liquid insecticide into electrical outlets or on exposed connections where you might create a short-circuit. Don't apply oil-base insecticides near fire, flame, or sparks, and don't smoke while applying them. When you have finished applying an insecticide, dispose of the unused portions or return them to the original container. Clean the sprayer or duster, then wash with soap and water. Change your clothes if you spilled insecticide on them.

And one of the most important precautions—keep insecticides where children or pets can't get to them. Don't store them with foods or where they might be mistaken for food items.

Public Urged
To Keep Hands
Off Wildlife

AUSTIN—The Executive Secretary of the Texas Game and Fish Commission asked the populace to "keep their distance" during the Animal Kingdom's rearing season.

He said Texans can contribute mightily to the wildlife family by not trying to make pets of wild creatures or by trying to domesticate eggs of any kind. "The sad part of the mistake people make in molesting the birds and beasts," said the executive secretary, "is that they are helping out. Well, there are rare cases when they can. I repeat these cases are very rare. "Any baby animal or bird deserves a chance to be restored to its natural protectors, if it actually does get lost or does seem to need help. People see stray creatures, such as a fawn. Maybe they are overwhelmed by an irresistible impulse to 'save' the fawn. Generally if left alone, the animal will be found by its mother. Of course there are extraordinary instances where the mother deer is killed by a car, or some such, where a fawn may be saved. But even then if they do survive and are raised as pets, they usually become a nuisance and sometimes harmful. Furthermore, it is unlawful to pick up fawns."

The executive secretary said taking or handling or even "looking at" wild bird eggs may be disastrous. Some birds, such as wild turkey, will not return to a nest which has even been approached by humans. He added that although eggs placed under a domestic bird to hatch, the incident merely circumvents nature since anything hatched under such circumstances invariably is lost to the cause of wildlife.

Former Sgt. Horace Crawford Awarded
Commendation Ribbon With Pendant

The Army's Commendation Ribbon with Pendant has been awarded to former Sergeant Horace R. Crawford of this city, now a student in the University of Texas, for meritorious achievement while serving as an instructor with the Radiological Defense Branch of the Far East Command Chemical School, Camp Gifu, Japan from August 1951 to August, 1952.

The award, made at the direction of the Secretary of the Army through Headquarters of the Japan Logistical Command, was received by young Crawford recently and forwarded to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crawford of this city. After receiving his discharge in September, 1952, the former sergeant re-entered the University of Texas, where he is majoring in Chemistry.

Citation accompanying the award to former Sgt. Crawford read: "Sgt. Horace R. Crawford distinguished himself by meritorious service from August 12, 1951 to August 5, 1952 while serving as an instructor in the Radiological Defense Branch of the Far East Command Chemical School, 81-47th Army Unit. On his own initiative and in addition to his duties as instructor, Sgt. Crawford worked on the maintenance and operation of radiac instruments. Observing an excessive amount of maintenance in sensitive radiac instruments, Sgt. Crawford compiled a study of their maintenance. Some of his recommendations have already been accepted by the Chief Signal Officer, Department of the Army, and others are still under consideration. In another instance, Sgt. Crawford, observing inaccuracies in publications covering the calibration and use of radiac instruments, analyzed and recommended calibration procedure and publication revisions. These recommendations were accepted by the Armed Forces Special Weapons Project Branch, Department of the Army, and are to be published as a revision of the present formula. Sgt.

Crawford's ingenuity and professional refinement of the instruments and revision of the present formula may be published as a great credit on his States Army."

Tip Edwards, 70,
Former Resident,
Accident Victim

Tilford (Tip) Edwards, 73, of Hobbs, N. M., former Haskell resident and brother of Dr. Arthur Edwards and Constable Sterling Edwards of this city, was instantly killed about noon Saturday at Hobbs when he fell from a windmill.

Mr. Edwards was born in Content, Runnels County, Feb. 28, 1880. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. M. S. (Tobe) Edwards. He lived at Content about 30 years, then moved with his parents to Haskell. He was manager of the old Nolen Ranch near Weinert for a number of years. He had lived at Hobbs the last 20 years and had worked in the oil fields there. He was a member of the Baptist Church.

Mr. Edwards had six sons in World War II at the same time, with all branches of the service represented. Five of the sons served overseas.

Mr. Edwards is survived by six sons, Clarence, Tyson, Elmer, A. D. Dale and Tilford, all of Hobbs; two daughters, one in Chicago and one in Phoenix, Ariz.; four brothers, Alex of Lawton, Dr. Edwards and Sterling Edwards of San Angelo, and Jess Edwards of San Angelo, Midland.

Funeral service for Mr. Edwards was held Monday afternoon in Hobbs, and burial was in the Hobbs Cemetery.
