The grounds formerly occupied by the Church of Christ building before the structure was destroyed Friday night in the city's most disastrous fire in several years, have been cleared of practically all traces of the blaze.

The site will be used for a modern new church building on which contract will be let and work started as soon as architect's plans can be drawn and approved, church leaders said.

Members of the church congregation turned out almost in a body Monday to make quick work of the cleanup job. Trucks, bulldozers and other equipment were

Two Rule Business Concerns Suffer Fire Damage

Fire of undetermined origin caused estimated damage of $15,000 to two Rule business concerns Wednesday evening of last week, and for a time threatened one of the main business blocks in that city.

Prompt work of the Rule fire department resulted in confining the blaze to Williams Grocery & Market and the Rule Florist and Gift Shop. Both concerns were located in the Chas. Davis Building on the north side of Main Street, about midway of the block.

The fire started in the rear of the building, and was discovered about 8:30 p. m. Firemen fought the stubborn flames for more than an hour, then remained on duty another hour in checking against any further outbreak.

The grocery and market was owned by Mr. and Mrs. John L. Williams. Owners of the florist and gift shop are Mmes. Gene Campbell and Stella Steele.

In addition, to the grocery and florist shop, both heavily damaged, the Opry Tailor Shop and Gene Woods Grocery on adjoining sides of the Davis Building suffered smoke and water damage.

Williams, co-owner of the grocery and market, is a veteran member of the Rule fire department. "In my 23 years experience in fire-fighting, this is the first time I ever had to fight a fire involving something of my own," Williams commented.

Response in the annual Red Cross fund raising campaign launched Tuesday by the local chapter, has been exceptionally generous, the Rev. M. D. Rexrode, First Baptist Church pastor and county chairman of the fund drive, reported today.

On basis of partial reports turned in by special group chairmen and community leaders, prospects are good for meeting the county's quota of $7,350. In commenting on the initial reports, Rev. Rexrode praised the scores of volunteer workers who are helping in the drive, along with the donors who are giving so liberally to the work of the local chapter.

First communities to report oversubscribing their quotas were O'Brien, where the first day's drive netted $548 against a quota of $500, and Roberts, where $98 was contributed against a quota of $75.

Rochester with a quota of $750, quickly raised $500 as the drive got underway, workers in that city reported.

Sagerton reported $189 raised as their drive got underway, Curry Chapel had reported $44.50 with more prospects to be contacted, while Cobb community reported their $25 quota raised the first day.

The Pinkerton community had met its quota and was continuing the drive, while Sayles and Center Point reported good progress at the close of the first day of the drive.

Locally, early progress reports from only a few of the special groups and workers showed $1,500 raised in the first phase of the drive.

Commenting on the liberal response indicated in the initial reports, Rev. Rexrode said: "I want to take this opportunity as county fund raising chairman to thank all the people who so graciously helped in the fund-raising drive. Good reports are coming in from all sections of the county, the people have responded in a fine way. Early reports indicate that the drive is going in a splendid way."

"Some communities called in that they have already exceeded their quota and still had not finished their drive. Many of the completed reports were brought to the office the day of the drive. If you have completed your report and have not yet brought it in, at your earliest convenience please bring it in."

"If you were missed in the fund drive and you desire to contribute something to the drive, please mail or bring it to the Red Cross office (Continued on page 12)

Three Hurt When Car Overtakes Near Weinert

A Munday man and two hitchhikers were injured about 7:30 p. m. Tuesday when the car in which they were riding left the pavement and overturned about 1 1/2 miles north of Weinert on State Highway 277.

Passing motorists reported the mishap to officers and summoned a Holden ambulance to bring the injured to the Haskell Hospital. None of the three were critically injured, hospital attendants said.

Paul Lefon, 46, Munday automobile mechanic, who was driving the 1947 Dodge coupe, suffered bruises and lacerations.

John Ivy Beavers, 57, a Pollock, La., painter, received cuts on the nose, face, and left leg.

Mary Sinclair, 43, of Syracuse, N. Y., third occupant of the car, suffered facial lacerations, bruises, and shock.

Investigators said Lefon apparently lost control of the car as he was en route from Weinert to Munday, and it went off the right side of the road and then overturned. The car was badly wrecked.

Beavers was thrown out of the car as it overturned and the woman was pinned in the car. Lefon got out after it overturned. Motorists who came upon the scene helped get the woman from the car.

Lefon had picked up the two hitchhikers at Weinert, according to investigators. The woman told investigators she was "seeing the country" and was on her way to Wichita Falls.

The accident was investigated by State Highway Patrolmen Arthur Dyson and Billy Davis, both of Stamford.

Farm Home Near Weinert Burns Sunday Night

The 6-room farm home of R. M. (Milton) Walker 12 miles east of Weinert was destroyed by fire Sunday night around 9:30 o'clock. The entire structure was a total loss, together with all household goods and furniture of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker and family were away from home at the time. They had been staying for several days at the home of his mother, Mrs. Glinnie Walker in Weinert, while their son Bob, was in the Haskell Hospital for an appendicitis operation.

Walker had recently sold the farm to Eric Bergstrom; but the family were still occupying the farm home. Illness of their son had delayed their plans for securing and moving to another location.

The fire was discovered by a neighbor, Sargent Lowe, who lives on an adjoining farm. The flames had gained considerable headway before being noticed, and Lowe and others who first reached the place were unable to save anything from the house. They were able to prevent spread of the flames to barns and other small buildings.

Only a small amount of insurance was carried on the house and contents. Combined loss was estimated at approximately $10,500 on the house and contents.

Crews Training at Ft. Bliss To Handle Army's Newest Anti-Aircraft Weapon

Fort Bliss, Texas—Training of crews to handle the Army's newest anti-aircraft gun, the Skysweeper, is now in full swing at Fort Bliss. It was at this post, a few months ago, that the Army officially revealed the new weapon whose list of accomplishments rivals the push-button warfare of science fiction fantasies.

The Skysweeper can locate and track an enemy plane within a 15-mile radius of the gun-site, day or night, regardless of fog, sleet, snow or rain.

Easily maneuverable and almost entirely automatic, the gun can be set up in firing position, with its radar operating, in five minutes.

The Skysweeper is a 75-millimeter automatic cannon — the Army's largest caliber automatic anti-aircraft artillery weapon — and the first weapon to have radar, computer, and gun all on one carriage.

Designed to spot and track with radar and aim and fire automatically at any enemy aircraft flying high, speeds at low and medium altitudes the Skysweeper can also be used effectively against tanks or other moving ground targets. It fires a high explosive shell weighing 2 1/2 pounds, at a rate of 45 rounds per minute.

The Skysweeper has a normal crew of eight men who are trained to work together as a team and in unison with their powerful weapon with the smooth coordination of a fine watch.

Terrace Maintenance Being Stressed In California Creek Soil District

Terrace maintenance is the key to a good terrace system, technicians of the California Creek Soil Conservation District point out. As we know a chain is no stronger than its weakest link, thus a terrace line or terrace system is no stronger than the weakest point in it, the soil experts explain.

A few district cooperators of the CCSD have been doing a good job of terrace maintenance on their farms. Some of these are Berger Haterius, Ericksdahl community; John Grant, Paint Creek; John Roddy, Bunker Hill, and Sam Baize, Tuxedo.

Bruno Kupatt, district supervisor in the California Creek Soil

Conservation District was a delegate to the National Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors to be held in New Orleans, Feb. 22-27. Kupatt replaced Hiram Olson as representative of the district at the meeting.

Winter peas and vetch plantings over the district are still looking good. The last few warm days have caused peas and vetch plantings to start growth again.

Leave vetch and peas on the land as long as possible before turning them under. For those of you who plan to bed your legumes and plant this year's crop on them, leave peas and vetch at least until March 15 or 20th before turning it under to allow more growth to take place.

Terrace lines were completed and checked by technicians of the SCS for payment by the PMA on the following farms: Cleo Jones and Ira Treadwell of the Tuxedo community; John Ferguson and Seth Adams who farm near Hamlin.

Now is the time to locate Guar seed for the coming season. Planting rate is 6 to 8 pounds per acre. Any information on this new sun-loving, heat and drought resistant legume can be found by seeing your Soil Conservation district supervisor, county agents, agricultural teachers or any technician of the Department of Agriculture.

TEACHER OF THE WEEK

MERLIN JENKINS

Merlin Jenkins, director of the Haskell High School Band, is "Teacher of the Week" in Haskell schools.

A graduate of Comanche, Texas, High School, Mr. Jenkins entered North Texas State College, Denton, in the summer of 1941. Following the entry of the U. S. in World War II, he left NTSC and joined the Navy in June, 1942 and was discharged in the Spring of 1946. While in the service, he was stationed in New Orleans, La., and Miami and Key West, Fla. He was a bugler for three years while in the Navy, then spent nearly a year on a sub-chaser while he was based at Key West.

He re-entered NTSC in the summer of 1946 and was a student there four calendar years, receiving his B. M. and M. M. degrees in 1949 and 1950.

While attending NTSC, Jenkins was a trumpet tutor in 1949 and 1950 for the college School of Music. He also played for two years with station WFAA, Dallas, on the staff radio orchestra, and did substitute work with the Dallas Symphony Orchestra.

He later taught one semester at Midwestern University and in public schools at Wichita Falls. Leaving Wichita Falls, Jenkins played in the Toledo, Ohio, Civic Band and Symphony Orchestra and also played with the Paramount Theater Orchestra in Toledo and Detroit for two years. During this time he also did private teaching for brass instruments.

During the summers of 1952 and 1953, Jenkins taught trumpet at the University of Wisconsin, in Madison, Wisconsin.

He has accepted the job of teaching trumpet at McMurry College, Abilene, this coming summer for the annual Summer Band School at that college.

The Haskell band director feels that a top grade band should be equally good in marching, sight reading, and concert playing, and these phases have been stressed in his work with the band.

During last fall, the Haskell High School Band under the direction of Jenkins played for parades in Haskell, Iowa Park, Wichita Falls and Abilene, in addition to one rodeo. The band performed for 10 High School football games in addition to the Colored Classic game during the Cotton Festival held here.

The band rehearsed from 7:30 a. m. to 9:00 a. m. on the football field, five days weekly, and from 11:00 to noon. The band attended the marching contest at San Angelo Dec. 5 and won a first division rating.

Now that football season is over, the band is working toward its Spring Concert, April 9, and toward the regional contest in concert playing and sight reading, to be held May 1 at San Angelo.

At the present time the band rehearses from 11 a. m. to noon in the Band Hall. In addition to this, there is a sectional rehearsal every morning from 7:30 a. m. to 9:00 a. m. Each section in the band has one such sectional rehearsal weekly. "This extra work enables us to correct minor flaws which are not apparent in full rehearsal and also to work out things which would be impossible in full rehearsal, due to the lack of time," the band director explained.

Fire Alarm Siren Moved to Site In Northwest Haskell

Residents in the north and northwest sections of the city will have adequate warnings of fires and threatening storms in the future.

One of the fire department sirens has been moved from the City Hall fire station to one of the city wells in the northwest part of town. Work will be completed this week if possible, on wiring in and connecting the siren with the central fire station.

After the unit is placed in operation, it will serve both as a fire alarm and as a storm signal during the tornado season, members of the fire department said.

A system will be worked out for using the siren in the new location and the larger one at the City Hall as storm warning signal in a way that will enable the public to distinguish between a fire or tornado warning, officers of the fire department said.

The signals will be well publicized and several tests made in order that everyone may become familiar with them, Fire Chief Ray Lusk said.

Heavy Livestock Runs Result In Weaker Prices On Both Cattle and Calves

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—The thundering hooves of cattle going to market again reached the hundred thousand marker Monday. Twelve major markets reported over 120 thousand cattle and calves, this was 34,000 above the same date a year ago.

It was enough to weaken prices on virtually all cattle and calves. The continued dry conditions in much of the West and Southwest was putting a damper on the stocker trade, too.

Fed steers and yearlings and stocker cattle and calves wound up around $1 lower, some sales off more and some less, at Fort Worth. Cows were largely steady due to good shipper and small packer demand, but some late sales were 25c to 50c off. Bulls averaged 50c lower. Killing calves ruled mostly steady until later in the day and they weakened somewhat in line with other kinds.

At Fort Worth good and choice fed cattle drew $17 to $22.50, while common and medium kinds drew $12 to $17. Fat cows mostly $10 to $11.50, a few smooth heifers $8 to $10.50, some above and some below that. Bulls mostly $10 to $13.50, though one outstanding bull of near 1,900 pounds topped at $14.75.

Good and choice fat calves drew $16 to $20, and lower grades $10 to $15. Stocker calves and yearlings of desirable kinds $15 to $19 and stock cows $10 to $12, a few higher.

Hog trade at Fort Worth Monday followed another of those weird patterns, where opening sales were just steady and closed picked up and butcher hogs traded 50c higher. Top Monday was $27 and $27.25. Sows drew $21 to $24.

The run of 7,300 sheep and lambs was the largest of the season at Fort Worth. New top price on new crop milk lambs was $24.50. Good and choice milk lambs was $24.50. Good and choice milk lambs at $23 to $24.50, and the lower grades $15 to $21. Good and choice shorn lambs, fat, drew $18 to $20.25, the latter figure a new high for the season on clipped lambs. Woolled fat lambs topped at $22.

Stocker and feeder lambs sold from $15 to $21, latter price on woolskins, and shorn feeders drew $19.50. Yearlings and two's sold from $13 to $18. Old wethers $12 ment group of Oklahoma City is the parent unit of the Haskell Battalion.

A training schedule has been submitted by the local unit but at least a part of the training at Camp Chaffee will likely be in coordination with that of the Oklahoma City unit.

Lt. Col. Henry said that a directive is expected at an early date that all Reservists not assigned to a Reserve or National Guard unit will be assigned to regular units would report to those units on being called. It is hoped local Reservists will ask for assignment to the 375th Replacement Battalion for it would be called as a unit in case of Mobilization Day, Lt. Col. Henry said.

Three Former HHS Athletes on McM Track Team

ABILENE, Texas. (Spl.) Three former High School athletes—Bobby Jack Price, Don Payne, and Ed Ammons—will be among the more than 20 prospects for McMurry College's 1954 track and field squad.

All three are currently engaged in spring football practice at the Methodist college and will report for the track team next week.

Wilford Moore, athletic director and head track coach at McMurry, has only one more week to get his Indian runners and field men ready for their first meet this spring, the March 12-13 Border Olympics in Laredo.

The Indians will compete in six other track meets in March and April. Two final meets on the McMurry schedule are the Texas Conference track meet May 13-14, and the third annual NAIA track meet June 4-5 in Abilene.

Moore will have about 25 prospects from which to build the track squad.

Price, 6-foot, 2-inch McMurry footballer, lettered three years at Fort Haskell and won all-district honors in 1949.

Payne, a 1953 graduate of Haskell High School, lettered two years in football, was chosen on the all-district eleven, and was given honorable mention on the all-state team.

Ammons lettered four years in football at Haskell High. He was captain of the team and made all-district in 1951.

To The Schools of Haskell County

During Texas Public School Week March 1-6

Haskell High School Building

During this week of March 1, through March 7, which has officially been proclaimed as Texas Education Week, when the eyes of the Public is focused upon the Public Schools of Texas, I feel that I should take this means of expressing my appreciation to the lay public for the fine cooperation I have received since becoming your superintendent last July 1. Every undertaking has received the fullest cooperation from you as patrons and citizens of the school district.

My family and I especially appreciate the friendly spirit of all the people of the City of Haskell and the Haskell School District. We have been made to feel that we are part of this community.

School administrators, teachers, members of the school board and citizens alike are faced with the challenge of keeping our schools in such conditions that they can meet the needs of an ever changing society.

We must be able to provide for the growth of our scholastic population. The total enrollment of the Haskell schools has grown from 700 in 1946 to 1004 at the present time. This is a growth of 304 students or an increase of 43% in a period of eight years. We are led to believe that the next decade will find us increasing at a still greater rate.

I believe the time is close at hand when we should take a look at the curriculum of our schools to see whether or not the needs of all boys and girls of our school district is being adequately met. If students themselves are different in aptitudes, abilities and personalities, then there must be a different course of study for some.

Students and patrons of today have a right to expect certain services of their school that they did not expect from those of other days. The science of education is constantly making progress, and if we are to keep abreast we must, then we too are to have to keep abreast of progress.

These are a few of the challenges which we must face in the near future. I have no doubt what we will meet these challenges with vigor, zeal and cooperation because that is the fortune of a community in which it is fortunate to serve as superintendent.

Stonewall Voters Approve Bonds For Courthouse, Jail

Stonewall County residents Saturday approved a $130,000 bond issue for the erection of a new county jail and improvements to the present courthouse.

President and Governor Recognize Work of Texas 4-H Club Members

President Eisenhower and Governor Allan Shivers have issued statements regarding the work of 4-H Clubs. The greetings were made in recognition of the rural youth organization as its members observe another year of progress during National 4-H Week, March 6-14.

President Eisenhower said, "I am delighted to learn that your national theme for 1954 is Working Together for World Understanding. Working together has long been an important feature of 4-H Club work. As you learn new skills, as you test new ideas, and as you find better ways of applying science to agriculture and home economics, you are sharing exciting and valuable experiences."

"To all 4-H members," he continued, "I send my very best wishes for another year of stimulating, enjoyable work in the 4-H Clubs of America."

Governor Shivers in a special proclamation recognized the 122,000 Texas 4-H club members. He said, "Among these young people are many of our State's future leaders, not only in agriculture but also in religion, business, government and citizenship. In our state," he continued, "the 4-H program is directed by the Agricultural Extension Service of the Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College System. County extension agents are key people in the organization and work of the 4-H clubs. They receive invaluable cooperation from thousands of parents, volunteer leaders and other interested citizens, as well as from the young people themselves."

Both leaders urge all citizens to participate in the National 4-H Club week observance and become more familiar with the work of the organization which has a national membership of more than two million. Local meetings or special activities have been planned, largely by the members themselves, for community and county participation and to these the public is invited.

toward repairs of the courthouse and $45,000 for the erection of the new jail.

Many Food Items In Plentiful Supply During March

College Station—Grapefruit, potatoes and onions will earn a position on USDA's March plentiful foods list because supplies are heavy in the Southwest.

Other vegetables on the March list include carrots, cabbage and dry pinto beans, says John J. Slaughter, of the USDA Agricultural Marketing Service.

In the fruit department, economy minded homemakers will find fresh and processed oranges, winter pears and raisins. Canned cranberry sauce is still plentiful.

Judge Chapman Asks Re-Election As District Judge

Judge Ben Charlie Chapman of the 39th Judicial District has authorized the announcement of his candidacy for his re-election, subject to action of the Democratic primary.

In making his announcement, Judge Chapman said he desired to express his sincere gratitude to the citizens of the four counties composing the district for their friendship, confidence and support in the past. He said he had no formal statement to make at this time, other than that he was submitting his candidacy to the people on the basis of his record during the time he has served as District Judge.

Judge Chapman needs no introduction to a majority of the people in the four counties in the 39th Judicial District—Throckmorton, Haskell, Stonewall and Kent. He has lived in Haskell County his entire lifetime and is personally acquainted with most of the residents in the four counties.

Judge Chapman is recognized throughout this section as one of the outstanding jurists of West Texas and a capable and impartial public official.

His thorough knowledge of law, gained during the years he has served on the bench, and previously as District and County Attorney, coupled with a deep sense of fairness and impartiality, eminently qualifies him for the responsible position he holds. During the time he has served as District Judge he has gained the highest regard of fellow jurists as well as the esteem and confidence of the citizenship in his district. Review of his record as presiding judge in both civil and criminal cases shows that Judge Chapman has been upheld by the highest appeals courts of the State in all but one or two instances when appeal has been taken from rulings in his court.

Until such time as Judge Chapman has the opportunity to discuss his candidacy personally with the voters of the 39th Judicial District, we have no hesitancy in inviting your favorable consideration to his claims for re-election on his record in the responsible office of District Judge.

Knox City Bond Issue Approved By 6 to 1 Vote

Knox City voters Saturday approved $125,000 worth of improvement bonds for streets, water and sewage by a ratio of six to one.

Each of the four issues at stake carried at least 125 to 153 votes cast in the election.

- (1) Issuance of drainage improvement bonds—125 for, 28 against.
- (2) Issuance of street improvement bonds—133 for, 22 against.
- (3) Issuance of waterworks improvement and extension bonds—129 for, 23 against.
- (4) Issuance of sewer improvement and extension bonds—135 for, 18 against.

Mayor Guy Glenn of Knox City said that the city hopes to have all preliminaries out of the way, including a 30-day wait for possible election proceedings, so that the started within a

March Is Best Time for Planting Home Gardens

Town dwellers who have a yen to practice the city life in the country can put many recommended farming practices to use in their own home gardens. Pointing to March as garden planting month, John E. Hutchison, extension horticulturist, says yields of many common vegetable crops can be boosted substantially by following a program of garden management.

Certified planting seed which have met certain high standards are recommended and insure against introducing seed borne viruses and other diseases into garden plots. Potato seed pieces weighing about one and one-half ounces should be planted. That's about a quarter of the average size spud, Hutchison says, and blocky seed pieces are recommended over wedged shaped types.

They should be planted 12 to 15 inches apart, three to four inches deep and in rows three to three and one-half feet apart. Deep plowing of eight to 10 inches is essential in preparing a seedbed for potatoes. It loosens up the soil and allows unrestricted tuber growth.

And too, potatoes respond nicely to fertilizers, both commercial and barnyard. Hutchison recommends a complete fertilizer such as 5-10-5 for all home gardens. Barnyard materials should be worked into the soil before planting time, he adds.

More than half a million Texans planted gardens last year and indications point to more in '54. Don't make the garden too large. Stagger the plantings.

The administration expense of the chapter has been greatly reduced. We are grateful for the good work and splendid management of our present Red Cross board and the board which preceded it for making a careful study of Red Cross services and working out a program that would drastically reduce administration costs.

Double forage yields from pastures and meadows do result when fertilizers and good management practices are used. Soil deficient in vital plant food nutrients produce forage low in essential minerals.

Small grain pastures being used for grazing can be given a new lease on life with an application of nitrogen fertilizer. The fertilizer is especially needed if the plants are yellow to a light green in color.

Church of Christ

(Continued from page 1) of help began, to pour in to Minister Custis and members of the Church of Christ congregation. Ministers of all Haskell churches offered the use of their building facilities in every manner possible, as did school trustees and Supt. C. D. Allen of the Haskell school system. Also, B. L. Haley, local theatre manager, offered the use of the Texas Theatre building to the church during the emergency.

Plans were worked out Saturday under which the High School auditorium will be placed at the disposal of the Church of Christ for as long as needed. All regular services of the church were held in the school auditorium on schedule Sunday, and mid-week and Sunday services will continue to be held there until new quarters are available, it was announced.

"We are indeed grateful for all the offers of help that have come to us in this emergency," Minister Custis said. "In no other town could there be found better friends than right here in Haskell," he added.

The period between March 8-14 has been designated as National 4-H Club Week in the United States. It's the time local 4-H members, their leaders, extension agents and friends pause to take a look at the past year's work but mainly to make plans for bigger and better things in the future.

Lice and ticks on livestock may be controlled by the application of two insecticides in combination. Local county agents can supply the formulas.
