Haskell had a close call from a serious fire Sunday night. About 9:30 fire was discovered burning at a lively rate under Mr. Keister's store and running up the wall in the narrow alley on the south side. An alarm brought a crowd in a few minutes, including the congregations that were at the churches. A score of men brought water buckets while others took axes and chopped through the floor and the fire was soon extinguished. If the fire had gone unnoticed many minutes more, it likely could not have been controlled with the means at hand and the entire west side of the square would almost certainly have burned out.

FARMERS

In anticipation of a good harvest, we reserved one of our Haskell warehouses for milo and can take care of approximately 100 carloads in the Gov. approved storage. This enables you to get your warehouse receipt and your money the same day.

Five reasons why you should use these Government approved warehouses:

First: In most cases you receive more money out of your grain.

Second: If the market goes up, you will receive a second profit.

Third: If you sell your milo on the market, you lose your chance for a second profit.

Fourth: You receive your warehouse receipt and your money the same day you finish cutting.

Fifth: In view of a light crop, this looks like a good year for a second profit on storage milo.

If you do not care to put your milo in storage, we will buy it... All grades, green or dry.

50% better mileage—

NOT 5¢ FOR REPAIRS IN 34,400 MILES!

Here's the typical performance record of GMC Hydra-Matic* trucks as being reported from all parts of the country

If you'd like an idea of what Hydra-Matic GMC's could do in bettering YOUR trucking operation, take a look at an actual case history.

In this instance, a wholesale baker, who supplies his entire state, put Hydra-Matic GMC's on his longest routes. In racking stop-and-go-work, they're averaging 58 delivery stops per day, 28,000 miles per year.

Here's what their carefully kept records show:

The Hydra-Matic GMC's are getting 12.2 miles to the gallon—50% more than their standard trucks.

In use now up to 34,400 miles, not a nickel has been spent on repairs for any one of them.

Brake linings, usually replaced at 25 or 30 thousand miles, are still in good shape.

Clutch replacement, usually necessary at about 16,000 miles, is completely eliminated.

And the drivers of these Hydra-Matic GMC's are the happiest, most job-contented men you'd want to employ!

Now, how about you? From Pickup to heavy-duty hauler, there's a Hydra-Matic GMC to better any trucking operation. Come in and let's see about yours.

*Standard on many models; optional at extra cost on some others.

Get a modern truck! Be careful—drive safely!

Constable Sterling Edwards, who was placed in the runoff in his race for re-election, said this week that he was still very much in the running and planned an active campaign during the time remaining before the second primary.

Besides the meal ticket, this covers a 50 cent fee for insurance and a $1.50 registration fee to pay faculty expense.

Serving You With Three Generations of Cox's

WHY?

Why did people in Yarborough's home precinct vote

3 to 1 for Shivers?

Why did Yarborough lose every box in Travis County, where he had lived for 20 years, except one, a colored box. Why did the people who lived in Hidalgo County and knew the particulars of the land deal vote two to one for Shivers?

Have the Voters of Haskell County Forgotten

That during the Shivers administration, Haskell County has received over 33 miles of farm to market roads with another approved northwest from Haskell. We had no farm to market roads before Shivers became Governor. Highway 288 was widened and 24 improved. We were the first between Wichita Falls and Abilene to receive work on 288.

Teachers salaries have been increased almost $1200 a year.

The recovery of the tide lands saved the tax payers of Haskell County thousands of dollars in additional school taxes.

Where Will Yarborough Get Money to Fulfill Promises

One-half billion to veterans. (About $750.00 each.)
One and one-half billion in water conservation (more than the entire cost of the Tennessee Valley Federal Program.)
Increase old age benefits.
And other promises.

WILL THE MONEY COME FROM A SALES TAX, STATE INCOME TAX OR WHERE?

After reviewing the facts, how can people of Haskell County expect to benefit more under Yarborough than they have Shivers, as their governor.

Segregation To Be Followed Next Year State Board of Education Rules

Texas will have separate schools for white and Negroes next year and perhaps longer under unanimous action taken by the State Board of Education.

The 21-member state board swiftly approved a resolution saying Texas would follow its present laws and practices of segregation until "they may be changed by a fully constituted authority of the state."

If such changes are made in the future, the resolution further provides, "then each local district should have time enough to work the problem out."

The action laid the groundwork for possible delaying action on putting into effect the principle of non-segregation written by the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision. This was the first meeting since the Supreme Court decision was announced.

Earlier, Education Commissioner J. W. Edgar had advised local boards to continue on the "as is" policy of segregation pending legal developments. The state attorney general is preparing a brief to be presented the high court this fall. Texas was not a direct party to the anti-segregation suits acted upon.

The resolution adopted without dissent by the board was written by Jack Binion, Houston, and Will Jackson, San Antonio.

It said the board is of the unanimous opinion "that it is obligated to comply with all of our present state laws and practices providing segregation in our public school system" since the Supreme Court's decisions are not final.

The resolution expressed hope that the "calm attitude" shown generally by Texans would continue and that the effort to "seek a satisfactory solution may be accorded intelligent, sober and dispassionate support by all our citizens, white and Negro alike."

In other action, the board checked a Houston textbook dispute to a committee with instructions that it report back at the September meeting.

LETTERS

From Our Readers

(Editor's Note: Letters from readers must be brief and of timely interest. All communications must be signed with the name and address of the writer. Name of writer will not be published if requested for valid reason.)

To The Free Press:
I notice in The Haskell Free Press some of our county commissioners are asking for re-election on their records.

Why not publish the record of each precinct's financial condition at the time they took office and today? How about the debt of each precinct, has it increased or gone down? How much either way? The answer would be a part of the record on which they ask re-election.

What is the approximate total of taxes received by Haskell County each year and how much of that total can be used for operation costs? In my Haskell Free Press on May 17 it said it cost $33,588.67 to operate the county business in March. For a year that would be $403,000.00. Nobody would question that being a record—but is it the one they are running on?

Our County Judge could publish the financial condition of all precincts now and at the time each commissioner went into office. No one would question Judge Turnbow's figures. It would be an impartial service to everyone including the commissioners, the taxpayers and the voters.

A Taxpayer.

Sprinkler Irrigation 1-3 Down

Rain Control

ADVANTAGES OF PORTABLE SPRINKLER IRRIGATION OVER SURFACE IRRIGATION

SOIL ECONOMIES

1. Portable sprinkler irrigation can be used on land of any contour—flat or hilly. Land formerly regarded too irregular for irrigation can be utilized.
2. Expensive land leveling operations can be eliminated. Top soil is not disturbed; no taring of less fertile land.
3. No waterlogging or drainage problems. Water can be applied at any rate, from as low as one-tenth of an inch, up to an inch or more per hour.

INSTALLATION AND OPERATING ADVANTAGES

1. No plowing of furrows to distribute water, an operation that requires great care to get uniform distribution.
2. With portable sprinkler irrigation, time and labor lost in opening and closing borders, ditches, gates, etc., is saved.
3. Nothing to interfere with cultivation. When the sprinkler system is not in use, it may be removed from the field to permit working the land freely.
4. When fields are too dry for plowing, you can save valuable time by sprinkling. This softens the earth and prepares the ground for seeding.
5. You get more good out of your fertilizer dollars. Sprinkling does not disturb the even distribution of dry fertilizers. When centrifugal pumps are used, some types of soluble fertilizers can be economically applied by introducing the solution into the sprinkler line through a hose on the suction side of the pump.
6. There are no ditches or other obstructions to take up crop space, interfere with cultivation, or to harbor weeds. No flooding to distribute weed seeds throughout the field.
7. You actually use less water with sprinklers than you do with surface irrigation. You eliminate the deep percolation that occurs around ditches.

WHY YOU AND YOUR CROPS DO BETTER WITH SPRINKLER IRRIGATION

Plants not only start faster but grow faster because air is not excluded from the roots by standing water which interrupts growth.

The yield per acre and quality of your crops can be improved when you have the accurate control of moisture at the root zone that portable sprinklers give you.

Plants require the greatest quantity of nitrates during their maximum growth period. It is more efficient to apply the required quantities in several applications, through irrigation water, than applying it all at the time of planting and having much of it leached out beyond the root zone before the plants require it.

By having water when they need it, crops mature faster, can be marketed early when prices are high.

Even in years of average rainfall there are often dry spells that slow down plant growth. An inch or two of water at those times may mean the difference between profit and loss.

In years of drought, you have "crop insurance" with portable sprinklers. Because the systems can be moved to any location quickly, you can save crops that might be totally lost.

Chances for Farm Accidents Always Present

Experience, as it relates to farm and home accidents, is an expensive teacher. The cost of an arm, leg or life itself is a high price to pay for a lesson in safety and can never be justified by the returns.

Don't forget, cautions W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer, that accidents can happen to you. Faulty equipment or hidden obstructions can and do cause accidents but carelessness, not thinking and fatigue take the heaviest toll. These causes are all man-made and under the direct control of the individual concerned.

Ulich believes if farmers and their families would answer a simple question before beginning each job many accidents just never would happen. The question is: "Can I possibly get hurt doing the job this way?" If the answer is yes, better change method of doing the job or be more careful.

He points to the high casualty rate among children under four years of age resulting from tractor accidents as an example. Fatalities among this group are almost as high for the group between the ages of 15 and 21. "Sure," he says, "a ride on the tractor is fun for the youngster and they love it but children don't do as they are told and a fatal fall may be the sad end of a tractor ride."

National Farm Safety Week is now being observed across the nation but year-long attention to preventing farm and home accidents is the only sure way to cut

Fat Cattle Hit Top of $22 At Fort Worth

By TED GOULDY

Good and choice fed steers and yearlings at Fort Worth Monday drew $18 to $22, C. F. Mock & Son, Oklahoma, had four loads of 1,046 pound steers at $22 and Clyde McClung, Johnson County, Texas, had two loads of steers at $22 that averaged 1,022 pounds and two loads of heifers at 774 pounds at $20.

Fat cows sold from $9 to $12, a few heiferish kinds higher, a load of horned cows from Furd Halsell & Son, Tarrant County, averaged 1,216 pounds at $12.

Canners and cutters sold from $6 to $9.50. Bulls drew $8 to $12.50, some individuals up to $13.

Fat calves of good and choice kinds cashed at $14.50 to $18.50 and common and medium butcher sorts sold around $11 to $14, with culls from $8 to $10.

Stocker steer calves cashed at $15 to $19 when good and choice and the $19 price representing some choice feeding calves like those from J. B. McCord of Coleman County, the 26 head averaging 485 pounds at $19. Stocker steer yearlings sold from $18.50 down, and numerous loads and smaller lots of the plain to medium stocker kinds sold from $12 to $14.50. Stocker cows drew $7 to $12.

The toll, "Agriculture is now rated as the nation's most hazardous industry," says Ulich. "This rating will continue until rural residents, individually and collectively, really make it their business, to see that life in the country is as safe as in any other industry. It can be done," says Ulich, "if farm and ranch families become and remain safety conscious every day in the year."

Retired Workers Compose Largest Group Receiving Security Benefits in County

Mothers and children in Haskell County were getting 26% of the $7,287 monthly total in social security insurance benefits being paid in the county at the end of 1953. Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene social security office, announced today. Total payments to children in children in this county were $1,676 for the month of December. In the nation as a whole, over one million children were getting a total of about $321 million in monthly payments at the end of 1953. Nationwide, over a quarter of a million widowed mothers were paid a total of over $1 million in December.

The largest group of beneficiaries under the social security insurance program, however, continues to be retired workers, Fisher said. In December 106 such beneficiaries in Haskell County were paid a total of $4,301. This was an increase of $1,587 over December, 1952. Nation-wide, the increase in retired worker beneficiaries was 578,416, and the monthly payments to them increased from $130,217,439 to $164,659,061 in the same period.

Fisher said that many of us are inclined to think of old age and survivors insurance under the social security system as a program for retired workers and their dependents exclusively. As the figure relating to mothers and children indicate, however, survivors benefits are an important part of the program, too.

Other beneficiaries on the rolls in Haskell County are wives and aged dependent husbands of retired insured workers, aged widows and dependent widows of deceased workers, and dependent parents who are receiving survivors benefits. The total of all beneficiaries in Haskell County receiving monthly benefit payments at the end of 1953 was 219, Fisher said. The total amount being paid in the county as of December 1953, was 62% more than a year before, and 131% more than two years before. For the 16-county area served by the Abilene Social Security office, the increase was 40% over a year ago before and 90% over two years before. Payments of $249,107 were sent out in December 1953 to 7,055 persons in the 16 counties. This represents an annual total of about 3 million dollars in the 16-county area.

Research Develops Labor Saver for Cotton Producers

COLLEGE STATION — Cotton producers who must apply insecticides to their crops, and most are included, should be interested in the results of a three-year study made by Texas Agricultural Experiment Station workers.

The studies were conducted to compare the effectiveness of insect control obtained by using low, medium and high rates of spray per acre to apply equal amounts of the insecticide. Yields and insect infestation records were used by the research workers E. C. Brown, Jr. of the department of agricultural engineering and R. L. Hanna, department of entomology, both of Texas A&M College, to measure the effectiveness of controlling boll weevils and boll worms. These tests did not include pink boll worm control which may require a higher volume of spray.

Results of the 1950-53 tests show that spraying cotton plants at the rate of 2 gallons per acre is more economical than applying spray at higher rates because of time and labor saved in handling a smaller quantity of water. The research workers also found that the two gallons of spray per acre controlled the boll weevils and boll worms as well as 6 and 14 gallons when measured in terms of yield and insect infestation. They emphasize that the amount of the insecticide used on an acre of cotton must remain the same whether in 2, 6 or 14 gallons of water.

They do point out that the sprayer operator must use extra care in mixing the insecticide to exclude all trash and solid particles which would clog the smaller nozzle orifice openings and the finer mesh screens. The three nozzles per row, one directly above the row and one to each side, must function properly in order to insure a good application job.

Details of the tests are available in Progress Report 1687 which may be obtained from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

Animals were the chief subjects of paintings in prehistoric caves.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS
From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association
Austin, Texas—Both candidates in the Texas gubernatorial second primary campaign are off and running.

Only 6,267 votes short of success in the first race Gov. Allan Shivers was encouraged by apparent control, gained at the county conventions, of the September 14 State Democratic Convention at Mineral Wells.

Shivers promised an "around-the-clock" fight for votes and spurred on his campaign forces over the state in a series of regional pep-talks.

Opening the second primary with a talk on drought and water problems, Shivers asked Texans to write him of their needs, their water problems, and their suggested solutions.

He also campaigned in some cities by shaking hands on street corners.

Yarborough Is Busy
Shivers' opponent, Ralph W.
Yarborough of Austin, also planned to spend much time visiting various parts of the state in a search for votes.

Yarborough said in one speech that "this is the first time in five years that we're going to elect a Democratic governor."

He said he was receiving pledges every day from voters who either opposed him in the first primary or thought his cause was hopeless.

Yarborough scored what he called the "Republican press" for supporting Shivers and accused his opponent of a long list of mis-dealings, including the circulation of false charges.

Wants Water Board
Yarborough has called for the creation of a Texas Water Board, patterned after the Railroad Commission, with members elected by the people.

He said if elected Governor, he would recommend to the Legislature in January that such a board be established.

Continuing on the water and drought theme, Yarborough proposed the construction of 25 dams over the state, "comparable to those built by the Lower Colorado River Authority."

Family Size Farm Important Unit in Agriculture

Is the family-size farm on its way out? Large-scale farming which came in with mechanized production methods caused many people to give serious consideration to this question. But, said John McHaney, extension economist, the 1950 census figures show the family-size farm still very much in the picture after more than three decades of farm mechanization.

The 1950 census divided the nation's 5.4 million farms into two groups, 3.7 million commercial and 1.7 million noncommercial. This last grouping consists mainly of part-time and residential units and they account for only 2.5 per cent of the value of farm products sold in 1949.

Commercial farms were divided according to the amount of sales made, says the economist, and the classes were large, family and small-scale. Farms with sales of $25,000 or more are large sales; those with sales A'tbutia $1,200 to $25,000 family-scale and the small-scale were those reporting sales between $250 and $1,200 unless off-farm work or income was enough to class the operation as part-time farming.

Nearly 80 per cent of all commercial farms fell into the family-scale class says McHaney, and they account for about 70 per cent of the value of total farm products sold. Mighty strong evidence that family-size farms are still the backbone of America's great agricultural industry.

These dams, he said, should be planned and constructed under the supervision of the water board, and be financed like those built by the LCRA—by bonds which "in 30 to 40 years would pay themselves out by the sale of water alone."

It is Yarborough's contention that "industries are refusing to build in Texas, and some already here are pulling out because of the water shortage."

What's The Cost?
Shivers' supporters got out their scratch pads and tried to figure out what it would cost to carry out the campaign pledges made by Yarborough, including a veteran's bonus, an elaborate tracery of dams on Texas rivers, vastly expanded highways and huge increases in expenditures for public welfare.

Shivers' calculators contended that the cost amounted to something like $3.5 billion per year in state taxes.

They pointed out that the present total cost of state government is $0.5 billion per year, or 1-7 of the other figure.

Yarborough said he wanted the money to come from a tax on gas pipelines.

Shivers' backers point out that such a tax already has been declared unconstitutionally.

Warning System Coming
Texas soon will have a modern storm warning system to spot danger miles away by radar. Gov.
Shivers announced.

Shivers said the completion of the system, called the most up to date in the world will come in the next six weeks.

Already fuction as part of the radar chain are units in 11 cities.
The radar net ties into the Department of Public Safety system, giving it Weather Bureau radar reports within two minutes after a warning is issued.

Texas Building Booms
Construction in Texas spiraled toward a record high in June, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research.

Reported by the bureau was a predominance of commercial, industrial, highway, church, school and government building.

Building permits issued throughout the state during the first half of 1954 exceeded totals for the same period last year by 6 per cent, the report showed.

Liquor Revenue Up
Texas liquor revenue in June showed a $41,000 increase over the total for the same month last year, the monthly report of the Texas Liquor Control Board reveals.

June revenue this year was $1-425,179.13 with the largest part of the amount derived from beer and whiskey taxes.

The board also noted an apparent increase of moonshining over the state, with seizure of 11 illicit still and arrest of six moonshining charges.

FBI Agent Speaks
Two forms of crime are on the increase: car thefts and swindling bad check passing.

So said Vernon H. Bailey, special agent of the FBI in San Antonio, in an Austin speech.
Car thefts inconvenience more people and cause a greater loss of property than any other form of crime, the agent said.

SHORT CUTS: Americans no longer believe that things are good only if they come from Europe, says Dr. Lewis U. Hanke, University of Texas professor. Now you can break the law by driving too slow. The rule of 40 miles per hour minimum applies on a stretch of the Austin Expressway

... Heroes and heroines of Texas education will be selected by a panel, announced A. Garland Adair of Austin, director of the Texas Heritage Foundation. Selections will be announced on

Wayland College World Missions Team At First Baptist Saturday and Sunday

From four sections of the world have come Katsuro Taura, Honolulu, Hawaii, Misako Hirabe, Yokohama, Jap., Samuel Hernandez, Monterrey, Mexico, and Ethel Marie Goss of Plainview, Texas, who make up the Wayland College World Missions team which will appear at the First Baptist Church Saturday night, Aug. 14 and Sunday at both morning and evening services. Saturday night at 8 o'clock will be for city wide Youth Fellowship meeting.

These college and seminary students are dedicating their summer vacation to carrying a message of missions wherever an opportunity presents itself for their testimony in word and in song. Their testimonies which thrill and inspire other young people.

Leader of the group is Katsuro Taura, who began graduate work at Southwestern Baptist Seminary in Fort Worth last session after having served in the United States Army. He was stationed in Japan for two years and served as a chaplain's assistant and worked with the Southern Baptist missionaries in his spare time. Following his separation from the army, he was education director of Kahala Baptist Church in Hawaii. Katsuro is a graduate of Wayland College, which he entered after his conversion which took place while he was attending the University of Hawaii. His Buddhist family turned against him and refused to send him to college because of his desertion of his family religion. Despite this his happy disposition is a constant testimony to his Christianity and an inspiration to all with whom he comes in contact.

Ethel Marie Goss, who is pianist for the group, has had much experience in church work and youth revivals. Her father is Rev. John N. Goss, pastor of Halfway Baptist Church near Plainview, and his church is actively engaged in a local mission project which deals with thousands of migrant Mexican farm laborers during six months of each year. Ethel Marie has devoted much time to this mission work. When she was a senior in Capitol Hill High School, Oklahoma City, she was given the Mu Phi Epsilon award for outstanding work in music. In Wayland she was chosen as a member of the International A Cappella Choir. She also serves as one of the chapel pianists at Wayland.

Samuel Hernandez, who is the son of the pastor of First Baptist Church, Monterrey, studied music at the University of Guadalajara and lived at the Baptist Student Home before he enrolled at Wayland College to study music. Last summer Samuel worked in camps and assemblies in New Mexico and appeared on programs at Glorieta Baptist Assembly. As a member of the International A Cappella Choir he has appeared as soloist in his home town of Monterrey and in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Colorado. His picture appears this year in the personality section of the college yearbook as one of the handsomest young men on the campus.

Misako Hirabe, the International Choir's Japanese contralto soloist, is a product of Southern Baptist missions, having been graduated from Sochin Girl's High School and Kanto Gakuin Women's College, a junior college. Her parents are members of First Yokohama Baptist church where she served as treasurer of the Baptist Youth Fellowship and sang in the choir. The 66th Ordnance Battalion and Chaplain Burr Millican made it possible for her to come to Wayland, from which she will be graduated next session. While working as typist-interpreter, she voluntarily assisted with Chaplain Millican's music program and served as interpreter as they went out to talk with Japanese workers about Christ. The GIs raised money for her passage and for things they thought she needed to attend an American college.

Texas 4-H Junior Leader Training Lab Set Aug. 23

Texas will roundup over 100 of its top 4-H Club members when the Texas 4-H Junior Leadership Training Lab is held Aug. 23-28 at the Bastrop State Park. Attending will be 115 4-H Club members and 50 adults.

Floyd Lynch, State 4-H Club leader, says the purpose of the week's activities is to develop leadership qualities in 4-H Club members through actual participation of meeting together, working together, playing together, cooperating and achieving through organization and group action. It is an experience of young people and adults working together.

Dr. Glenn C. Dildine will present the major topic of study, "The Role of the Junior Leader." Dr. Dildine is coordinator, Research Project on Developmental Needs, National 4-H Club Foundation, Silver Springs, Md.

Guiding the group in creative arts of many kinds will be Dr. Kenneth Airmann, Education department, Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. Nature study will be taught by John Twining, University of Texas, Bureau of Economic Geology, Austin. Also working with this group will be C. W. Simmons, Farm Forester, Texas Agriculture Extension Service.

Three boys and three girls from each of the 78 Extension districts in Texas are eligible to attend. In addition, 4-H Club members from two counties with winning records from previous lab at-

Texas Cotton Crop Forecast at 3.4 Million Bales

In its first forecast of the year, the Agriculture Department at Washington Monday estimated the 1954 Texas cotton crop at 3,400,000 bales and that of the nation at 12,680,000.

The Texas estimate is 950,000 bales smaller than last year's bumper yield. The crop this year has been grown under acreage controls and in desperate drought conditions and heat.

The crop for the nation last year was 16,464,000 bales. The ten year crop average is 12,448,000 bales.

The condition of the Texas crop was estimated at 73 per cent of normal. The indicated yield was 212 pounds an acre. For the nation, the crop was estimated at 78 per cent of normal Aug. 1.

The government set its sights tendance will be in Bastrop. Sponsoring the leadership lab is the United Gas Company and the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

on a 12-million bale crop this year. An estimated 9,650,000 bale carry-over was on hand Aug. 1, much of it held by the government under price support programs.

The report said the crop matured ahead of the drought in South Texas and yields have been very good. Central and East Texas crop prospects have been trimmed sharply by the drought. The department said non-irrigated cotton in Northwest Texas has held up well but rain is needed.

By Aug. 1, the Census Bureau said 389,386 bales had been ginned, compared to 345,860 a year before.

AS GENERAL ELECTRIC SEES IT . . .

The atom will produce power for homes in 5 to 10 years

Full-sized plants will generate electricity from atomic energy without government subsidy

Protective plastic suit enables technicians to work safely. 12,000 G-E employees are assigned to atomic projects.

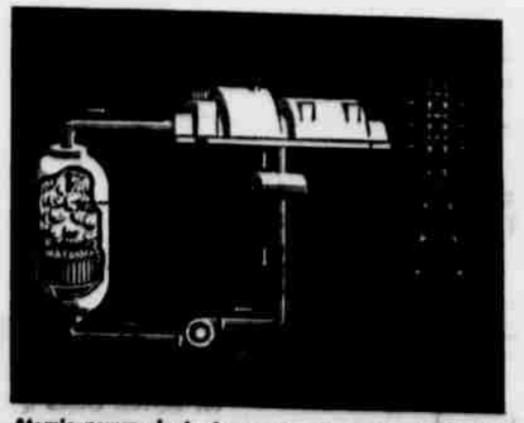

Biggest question in producing electricity with atomic energy has not been: Can it be done?—but: How can it be done economically on a full-scale basis so that many areas and many people can benefit?

America is now very close to a practical answer.

We already know the kinds of plants which will be feasible, how they will operate, and we can estimate what their expenses will be. In five years—certainly within ten—a number of them will be operating at about the same cost as those using coal. They will be privately financed, built without government subsidy.

Developing the right fuel element is still a problem, but the Atomic Energy Commission, General Electric scientists and other experts are all working on a solution. And real progress is being made.

Atomic power plant of type developed by A. E. C.'s Argonne National Laboratory. Fissionable material serves as fuel to produce steam which powers turbine. For more information from General Electric's Atomic Power Study, write Department W, 2-123, Schenectady, New York.

The hit that's changing the sales standings puts you way ahead 3 ways

THIS year Buick has done what no other car has done in more than a generation.

This year Buick has moved into the lofty circle of America's three top sales leaders—a circle once dominated only by the so-called "low-price three." For today, Buick is outselling all other cars in the nation except two of these "low-price three." And each new month's sales figures strengthen Buick's new sales leadership.

You can't do better—if you want the best buy for your new-car money—than to look into the soaring success that is Buick today. You'll find this glamorous new-day beauty puts you way ahead in three important ways—that's for sure. So drop in on us—tomorrow at the latest—and see for yourself that Buick is the buy of the year, hands down.

- 1. More new car for your money
Buick prices start close to the lowest—just a few dollars above those of the traditional "low-price three." But those few more dollars for a Buick get you a lot more automobile—more room, more comfort, more VS power, more ride steadiness, more safety, more durability—plus the advanced styling that has taken the country by storm.
- 2. More money for your present car
With our great and growing sales volume, we can offer you a bigger trade-in allowance on your present car when you buy a new Buick. After all, the more new cars we sell, the better deal we can make with you. So you get the benefit of our great volume in the form of a higher trade-in allowance.
- 3. More dollars when you trade
Because Buick's broad panoramic windshield has started a whole new styling trend, you can be sure that today's Buick will keep its modern look for years to come. So you are assured of a higher resale figure when you trade it in later on.

Farm Machines Help Cut Costs Of Production

Labor is a high-cost item in farm production. Farm wage rates, according to C. H. Bates, A&M extension farm management specialist, are about four times higher now than in the period before 1941.

This fact, points out the specialist, is responsible for much of the shifting to power machinery as substitute for high-priced labor. Such machinery is now only about double its pre-war cost, but there's a catch to the deal.

Just to get a cotton harvester, field forage-harvester or a pickup-baler doesn't mean it will be a money maker. These machines, like the hired man, must be kept busy if they are to return a profit. The less a machine is used the greater will be the per hour or acre cost.

Bates suggests that farmers study their machinery needs and invest only in those which can be kept busy. Acreage allotments should be considered. Depreciation of machinery too is a part of the cost of production. A tractor used 1,000 hours a year will depreciate very little more than one used half as much, and the depreciation charge for the less used tractor will about double the busy one.

If operations aren't large enough to keep machinery reasonably busy, Bates suggests custom hiring might be the answer. He backs up this suggestion with information from a recent Texas Agricultural Experiment Station study made in the blackland area. A study of 63 farms showed $21.35 as the per bale cost of stripping cotton in 1952 with the farmer's own machine. This compares with the custom stripping rate of $20.67 per bale in the same area. Doing custom work in the community will cut the overhead cost of machinery, says Bates.

Finally, he says, unemployed equipment increases expenses and does not cut labor costs. Count the cost before you buy and consult your equipment dealer on the size machine for your operations.

Cotton Insects Are Heavy Eaters

Cotton insects last year destroyed more than $62 million worth of lint and cotton seed in Texas. They are busy now and coupled with dry weather could make the 1954 crop an expensive one.

Last year's loss amounted to an estimated 342,600 bales of lint and approximately 142,600 tons of cottonseed, says Freeman Fuller, Jr., assistant extension entomologist. The figures were developed by the National Cotton Council from basic data released earlier by the USDA, reports the specialist.

The top "culprit in the cotton patch" last year was the boll weevil and was responsible for reducing yields by an estimated 2 per cent. All other cotton insects raised the total loss to 5 per cent for the state.

A review of the figures, Fuller says, shows that Texas cotton producers are doing one of the better control jobs in the nation. Only California, New Mexico, Arizona and Missouri show a lower percentage of the crop lost to insects.

The loss for the nation amounted to almost $261 million in both lint and cottonseed and is slightly

Your Senator Reports

By LYNDON JOHNSON

RED CHINA AND THE UN: The Senate spoke with one voice against the entrance of Red China into the United Nations.

We voted unanimously to write into the foreign aid bill the opposition of Congress to the seating in the United Nations of the Communist China regime as the representative of China.

The amendment we adopted also requests President Eisenhower, in event of Red Chinese admission to the United Nations, to inform Congress "of the implications of this action upon the foreign policy of the United States... together with any recommendations which he may have with respect to the matter."

I know from the many letters I have received on the subject that this will meet with the approval of the people of Texas.

"CATCH-ALL" MONEY BILL: One of the final actions of the Senate Appropriations Committee during this session was to send to the floor of the Senate a $2,015,771,000 supplemental appropriation bill. The bill is a sort of "catch-all" for funds which must be made available before Congress adjourns.

The measure provides extra money requested by President Eisenhower to carry out the programs of scores of agencies in the current fiscal year. It was $162,000,000 less than the total requested.

MILITARY CONSTRUCTION: The supplemental appropriation bill, as reported by the committee, included substantial sums for military construction. Among specific recommendations were the following:

The committee voted $796,000,000 in new funds for Air Force construction at home and abroad. It authorized a total of $907,000,000. The difference between the two figures will come from money carried over from past years.

For naval base construction, the committee approved $114,000,000. For Army construction, the sum of $205,000,000 in new money was approved. Also included was $175,000,000 for 11,000 military housing units.

IMPORTANT TO TEXAS: So far as Texas is concerned, the supplemental appropriations bill also was important for one item it did NOT contain. I refer to the request of the Federal Power Commission for a supplemental appropriation of $300,000 to handle work expected to arise if the Supreme Court decision in the Phillips Petroleum case stands. This is a natural gas decision of such great concern to Texas.

I expressed to Senator Bridges, chairman of the Appropriations Committee, my vigorous opposition to the FPC request for the additional $300,000, making three points: (1) Texas has a motion before the Supreme Court for reconsideration of the decision; (2) I have requested the President to establish a commission to consider the matter and report back with legislative recommendations; (3) Action should not be taken until the FPC has consulted the gas industry and determined the steps it will take once the issue has reached a conclusion.

The gas industry is a Texas asset of tremendous value. The Supreme Court decision in the Phillips case has caused consternation throughout the industry. An appropriation at this time to enforce it would merely add to the confusion. Nothing will be lost by postponing a decision on the appropriation until the next session of Congress.

Naturally, I was happy that the Senate committee agreed with me and refused the request of the FPC for the supplemental appropriation.

PUBLIC BUILDINGS PROGRAM: The Federal Government is about to launch a public buildings program to extend over the next 3 years. It will be the first since World War II and will be carried out under the lease-purchase program recently written into law.

The General Service Administration and the Post Office Department are now compiling a list of priority Federal construction projects for submission to the Budget Bureau and to the House and Senate Public Works committees. As this is written, the priority list is expected to reach Capitol Hill before the end of the session.

A large number of proposed buildings in Texas are included among the Federal building projects listed as eligible for construction. I am hopeful that a fair share of them will be placed on the priority list.

TEXAS ARMY MANEUVERS: It has been announced that the 47th Infantry Division and the First Armored Division will hold special maneuvers in Texas this fall. The ultimate aim is to develop an atomic age army.

The maneuvers will be conducted with a view of shaping practically the entire Army into a radically different structure. There will be smaller divisions but more of them, each independent of the other. A new mobility will be achieved through the use of helicopter and convertiplanes. The convertiplane is a plane which rises like a helicopter but flies close to the speed of ordinary aircraft.
