Haskell Firemen Win First, Third, At Cisco Meet

Haskell firemen won first place in one contest, and placed third in two others, at the semi-annual meeting of the Mid-West Texas Firemen's Association at Cisco recently.

More than 200 firemen and their wives and guests attended the one-day convention and heard a talk by Olin Culbertson, Texas Railroad Commissioner and long-time secretary of the Texas Firemen's Association.

In the business session, Roby was selected for the April meeting of the Mid-West Association.

In the six-man hookup contest, Haskell was first with 15.7 seconds; Hamlin 2nd in 15.9; Baird third in 16.5. The two-man hookup was won by Hamlin in 14.2; Baird and Snyder tied for second place in 14.7; and Haskell won third in 15.2.

In the six-man pumper contest Baird won first place with a time of 27.5 seconds; Roby was second in 32.4; and Haskell third in 32.7.

He entered the Army in February 1953, completed basic training at Camp Rucker, Ala., and arrived in the Far East during August 1953.

Local Hunters Kill Nine Deer In Colorado

A group of five Haskell men returned Thursday from a successful deer hunting trip in Western Colorado.

The party brought back nine blacktail deer which were killed during the three and a half days they hunted.

In the party were Frank Reynolds, Vernay Burson, C. G. Burson, Jr., Fred Brown and "Sonny" Reynolds.

The area where they hunted was on the slopes of the Rocky Mountains, but weather was unseasonable and warmer than usual at this time of year in that region, they said.

Voters Evidence Little Interest In General Election

Haskell County voters have evidenced little interest in the coming General Election to be held Nov. 2, and balloting will likely fall far below that in the two Democratic primaries.

Through Friday noon, County Clerk Horace Oneal's office had processed only seven applications for absentee ballots.

The official ballot lists a full slate of nominees in the Democratic column for all offices, from State to precinct level.

The Republican column lists four nominees: For Governor, Tod R. Adams; for U. S. Senator, Carlos G. Watson; for Congressman-at-large, Tom Nolan; and for Commissioner of Agriculture, Harry W. Linderman.

The Constitutional Party lists two nominees: Fred T. Spangler for U. S. Senator; and E. E. Wells for Commissioner of Agriculture.

The Independent Party column lists no nominees, while an additional column is provided for write-in nominees.

Voters will face their biggest problem in marking the ballot in approving or rejecting the 11 proposed amendments to the State Constitution.

Many Denied Past Social Security Are Now Eligible

(Ed. Note: This is one of a series of informational articles prepared by Raleigh R. Tuley, Jr., Manager of the Abilene District Office.)

One of the many important changes made in the Social Security Act by the 1954 Amendments recently signed into law by the President has to do with claims by survivors of a deceased wage earner which were denied previously because he or she did not have enough quarters of coverage to be fully or currently insured under the law prior to September 1, 1950, and after 1939.

Widows and children who could not be found entitled to benefits may now be paid provided the wage earner had at least 6 quarters of coverage to his credit at the time of his death before September 1, 1950. A quarter of coverage means being paid wages of at least $50 from employment covered by Social Security Act in a calendar quarter, a 3-month period beginning with January, April, July, or October, after 1936.

Any family or individuals who were denied monthly benefits because the deceased wage earner did not have enough quarters of coverage to be insured under the law as it stood before September 1, 1950 (the requirement then ranged from 6 to 27, depending on the age and date of death of the wage earner), should immediately get in touch with the nearest office of the Social Security Administration. If it is found that the deceased had at least 6 quarters of coverage to his credit, monthly benefits may become payable with the month of September 1954, provided the children have not married, reached the age 18, and the widow still has one or more children entitled to benefits in her care or has herself reached the age of 65 and has not remarried.

This does not mean that every case previously denied can now be paid. If the worker did not have at least 6 quarters of coverage to his credit, then even the '54 amendments do not make him insured. Also, no benefits will be found payable for any months before the month of September. Persons who are in doubt as to whether or not this change in Social Security Act affects their situation should write or otherwise get in touch with their nearest Social Security office so that a check may be made of the facts.

It is estimated that some 300,000 persons were given new entitlement to old-age and survivors insurance benefits by this change, and it is felt that many of them are in the area service by the Abilene office. Look for another article on the 1954 Amendment to the Social Security Act in this paper soon.

H. D. Club Women Begin Tailored Garments

Fourteen leaders have begun work on the construction of a tailored suit or coat from wool and have started teaching women back in their home communities.

The first meeting was spent fitting muslin garments, altering patterns, cutting and marking material and interfacing. For their wool fabrics they are using hair canvas for an interfacing. These women are finding that it is most important to buy patterns by a bust measure.

Mesdames Bill Fouts, Gen. Rose, Carl Bailey, M. D. Thompson, J. L. Toliver, Jr., Will Stegmoller, Lator Robertson, T. E. Beason, S. W. Flournoy and Rex Murray are making suits.

Interest was shown in the meeting in the resolutions brought up for discussion. The resolutions favored the continuation of the 4c gasoline tax re-emphasized. Also Farm Bureau favored present laws referring to impounding rights to be repealed or amended to enable the county to impound all vehicles that fall on his property. ### Texas Draft Quota For December Set At 1,037 Men Texas' draft quota for December is 1,037, the smallest since June, director Paul Wakefield announced in Austin.

The June call had been for 965 men. October and November quotas were for 1,122 and 1,062. Wakefield said a sufficient number of men have been found acceptable to omit pre-induction examinations in December.

Report Shows Fire Major Cause of Fatal Accidents

Accidents take a heavy toll of life in every section of the United States. But in some sections the total accident death rate is higher than in others. For instance in 1949-1950, according to the Statistical Bulletin of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, the rate in the Mountain area* was 81.5 per 100,000, or one-third above the national average of 60.7. The lowest death rate (51.6) from accidents, the Bulletin added, is found in New England and reflects that section's generally lower motor vehicle death rate.

Deaths, as a result of fire, comprise the third most frequent cause of total accidents, exceeded only by those resulting from motor vehicle accidents and falls. The mortality from

V8 Power, Complete Re-styling Mark Chevrolets

A styling advance from any point of view is claimed by the company for 1955 Chevrolets. The latest lineup of 14 models has been completely restyled and in addition incorporates the widest array of chassis improvements ever offered by Chevrolet on a new model. Lower, flecter lines are accompanied by new frames, new suspensions, new operating devices and new power. With the optional Powerglide or overdrive and new V8 engine plus two six-cylinder engines, a customer has a choice of six "power packages." The Bel Air 4-door sedan is pictured above.

Rochester Wreck Saturday Fatal To Farm Worker

Amador Salaz, Latin-American farm worker, was killed instantly and two other men were injured when their car turned over on a curve just east of Rochester Saturday night about 8:30 o'clock.

Salaz was pronounced dead by Justice of the Peace Pete Huntsman of Rochester. The other two men in the accident, both in their early 20's were identified as Jose Alonzo Dominguez and Rafil A. Costa. Their injuries were believed not serious.

City Marshal P. G. Beauchamp of Rochester investigated the accident that occurred on the Rochester and Weinert road.

He said the 1947 Ford sedan in which the men were riding rolled over five times.

The injured men were removed to Knox City hospital in an ambulance from Mansell and Smith funeral home of Rochester.

Slip covers can be laundered satisfactorily. While many dry cleaning and laundering companies make such work a specialty this time of year, covers of many fabrics may be washed at home. Iron carefully so the cover doesn't come out of shape.

Mishaps of this type, the Bulletin explains, is the highest in the South, which contains a large colored population among whom the death rate as a result of fire is at least three times that of the white population.

The Bulletin points out that difference in type of housing undoubtedly account for part of this disparity in mortality, and adds that the South also has a high proportion of children at preschool ages who contributes a disproportionate share of victims.

HIGHLIGHTS AND SIDELIGHTS From Your State Capitol

By VERN SANFORD, Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas — Democratic State Committee members, led by Gov. Allan Shivers, have taken steps, some of them unprecedented, to keep Texas politically conservative.

The committee created a special statewide group to keep conservative party leadership active through 1956, added 27 "special advisers" of Gov. Shivers to work over the state, and decided to hold quarterly meetings from the precinct level up, for closer contact with voters.

It also voted to hold a $50-a-plate fund-raising dinner to maintain interest in the off-election year, and increased the committee budget from $12,000 to $20,000 a year.

Shivers emphasized the importance of maintaining political interest over the state. He told the committee that it would determine Texas' role in the election campaign, and said that Texas could be a pivotal factor in 1956 national politics.

UT Growth Suggestions of Dr. Logan Wilson, president of the University of Texas, that the giant college's enrollment should be halted at 20,000 students stirred up quite a ruckus in the state capital.

Wilson made the remark in an explanation of the University's problem of meeting space requirements for an increasing student body. The present "forty acres," he said, were not capable of providing facilities or space for many more than the present 16,000 students.

Opposing the "freeze" were Austin Chamber of Commerce Manager John D. Simpson, Jr., and Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, who urged that other university property in Austin be used for expansion.

After the matter had been discussed pro and con for several days, President Wilson, made a vigorous restatement that "educational excellence"—not bigness—is the number one consideration for the university.

In his annual report to the faculty, Dr. Wilson put the immediate future of the school into the collective lap of the 1955 Legislative session.

"We believe our case is a strong one," Dr. Wilson said, "and that the proper approach should be informative rather than manipulative."

Since the legislature holds the university's purse strings—and with an increasing number of students apparently headed for the state in coming years, the legislative session is the most important in the university's history.

Union Law A member of the law profession is proposed by the University of Texas professor, George S. Williams of the University law school suggested that the National Labor Relations Act be amended to let the federal labor board settle cases involving union discipline.

That would determine whether a member was thrown out of a union for just cause, said Williams.

He said that union officials have been promising for fifty years to set up better methods of handling such disputes.

Gasoline Suits Gasoline wholesalers involved in a state anti-trust suit have asked the Supreme Court to review its charges.

Firms asked the court to write an opinion on certain key questions involved in the case, saying that it would save both money and time for the Austin district court that will be assigned the suit.

Attorneys for the companies argued that the trial court now has insufficient guidance on interpretation of anti-trust laws.

Oil Allowances An increase of 64,300 barrels of crude oil per day in November has been ordered by the Railroad Commission.

The boost will jump total permissive flow to 2,864,749 barrels daily.

Cattle Trade Is Weak, Uneven, At Ft. Worth

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth—Salesmen were asking sharply higher prices at Fort Worth Monday in anticipation of a reaction from the sharp breaks of the previous week. However, the buying side took a gloomy view of the huge runs reported around the 12 major markets (over 152,000 cattle and over 33,000 calves) and they also reported wholesale meat trade was very spotty and weak.

Packers reported beef running into increasing heavy competition from pork and also the low priced turkey and broiler chickens were making beef sales harder. The hunting season was also putting a crimp in red meat sales as it usually does in the Fall season.

Stocker and feeder buyers reported Cornbelt buyers still inclined to resist current stocker and feeder prices, despite some really great improvement in the subsoil moisture conditions at places that had previously been reported dry.

Cornbelt farmers were still preoccupied with the corn and soybean harvest in many areas, too. Result of this was that most slaughter cattle sold near steady with a few spots 25 to 50 cents higher on some cows and bulls.

Slaughter calves of choice kinds were fully steady, but the less-than-choice variety sold on a weaker basis, some 25 to 50 cents lower.

Choice stockers were steady, but those of less quality were weak to 50c lower.

Some typical cattle sales included the day's top load of stocker calves that averaged 530 lbs. and drew $20.50 and were consigned by Mrs. Fayette Tankersley of Irion County. Dutton & Co., McCulloch County, had a load of steer calves at $19 and heifers at $17. Hinson & Sons, Dickens County, had some $17.50 calves; and Arthur P. Henderson, Concho County, marketed a load of 337 lb. calves at $19.50.

Very few cattle eligible to sell above $22 arrived Monday, a few yearlings from Ray Hatter, of Moody, at $21 and $23, and two loads from C. F. Mock & Son, Oklahoma, at $22; Hildreth & Co., Parker County, had a load of around 690 lb. heifers at $21.25.

There were numerous loads and smaller lots of cleanup cows and bulls from Northwest and West Texas, as well as Plains and Panhandle areas. Many Northwest Texas ranchers are just now getting into serious work of shaping up herds.

Fat cows sold from $8 to $12, few over $11. Bulls drew $8 to $12, a few top bolognas to $12.50. Canner and cutter cows drew $5 to $8.

Hogs topped at $19.75 to $20.25 at Fort Worth Monday, this was steady to 25c under last week's close.

Texas hogs again enjoyed a

Beef and Rice on List for November 'Plentiful Foods'

College Station—Beef with rice, turkey and eggs are on November's plentiful foods list.

Broilers and fryers, pork and dairy products, canned tuna, frozen fish and shrimp are other protein foods on the USDA's monthly report.

So many foods are in abundant supply it was difficult to decide which ones rated a place on the November list, says John J. Slaughter of the Agricultural Marketing Service.

Reservoir Storage Only Bright Spot In State's September Water Picture

Storage in reservoirs in Texas at the end of September is cheering in contrast to other aspects of the most wide spread drought of record, according to the Texas Board of Water Engineers. Conservation storage in 29 multi-purpose reservoirs was 7,205,000 acre-feet at month end as compared to a total conservation capacity of 10,500,000 acre-feet—decrease in storage during the month was 3 per cent.

Statewide low flows experienced in Texas streams were equal to or less than those of record. Average daily flow from Comal Springs at New Braunfels was about one-fourth of 26-year September average.

Most of the flow reaching the Gulf of Mexico was used water. Releases from upriver reservoirs sustained flows in the lower reaches of the Neches, Trinity, Brazos, and Colorado Rivers, and in Red River below the mouth of Wichita River.

Water levels in selected observation wells from El Paso to Houston declined in September. Average rainfall for the State was less than one-third normal. Heaviest rainfall occurred in the Corpus Christi and Brownsville areas.

Precipitation Statewide average precipitation for September was 0.88 inch or 29 per cent normal. The lowest average rainfall—9 per cent normal—was recorded in the Brownsville area. The statewide average for the period January to September 1954 is about 50 per cent of normal.

Streamflow Flow from springs, and minor runoff from scattered showers, failed to produce sufficient flow in Texas streams to prevent breaking or equalling record low flow.

Average flow of Canadian River near Amarillo during September was about 2 per cent of the 18-year average. Much of the flow at this station was municipal waste water.

The Red River near Terral, Okla., averaged about 8 per cent of the 16-year average flow for September. Average flow for the last five days of September was about 100 cfs. Most of this flow resulted from releases from Lake Kemp near Maybellie on Wichita River. During the 5-day period, releases from Lake Texoma averaged 2,800 cfs daily to sustain moderate flow downstream. Flow contributed to Red River by tributaries in Texas, with exception of releases carried by Wichita River, was probably less than 20 cfs.

Flow in the Sabine River is the least affected by man-made control of any major stream in the State. Headwater tributaries were dry with exception of Big Sandy Creek—this springfed stream had receded to the record low flow experienced in 1939. Average flow of the Sabine near Gladewater during September equaled the record low of 1938. Flow near Tatum diminished below the 1939 record low. Near Ruliff, where stream-flow records have been collected for 30 years, the average flow from 9,440 square miles of drainage area was less than the instantaneous minimum flow observed in 1939.

Low flows in the Neches River basin were nearly equal to, and in some cases were less than, the record lows that occurred in 1925, 1931, and 1939. Runoff carried by the Trinity River was extremely small, however, releases from upriver reservoirs and municipal and industrial effluents sustained flow in the main river.

Long Range Farm Policy Goal of U of T Economists

Austin, Texas—A consistent, long-range farm policy for this country is the goal of agricultural economists such as Dr. Clarence A. Wiley, a Blanco County farm boy who grew up to be a University of Texas professor.

Dr. Wiley's graduate students in Agricultural Problems and Policies analyze and criticize past U. S. agricultural programs, both Democratic and Republican, and propose possible improvements suggested by their studies. Many of the class members are college economics teachers, and one directs Cuba's national economic research institute.

Dr. Wiley also teaches an undergraduate Survey of Modern Agriculture, which deals with agriculture's place in the total economy. The course includes consideration of ways technical innovations influence agricultural groups and areas.

The University of Texas is one of several leading U. S. universities devoting increasing attention to agriculture's important role in the nation's over-all economy. Dr. Wiley says the problem of adjusting agricultural production of market exchange "is as acute today as ever in the history of the country."

Dr. Wiley says a consistent farm policy can emerge through "the slow, democratic process" of broadening people's understanding so they see the problems clearly.

Dr. Wiley has a Doctor of Philosophy degree from the University of Wisconsin and has held several federal government positions. He has been a University of Texas economics faculty member since 1922.

Brazos and Colorado River flows were in the same category as the Trinity. The average flow for September in the Guadalupe River above Comal River at New Braunfels, 3.8 cfs, was less than the minimum daily flow recorded during the period 1928 to 1953. A new minimum daily flow of this station September 28, 1954. Flow from Comal Springs at New Braunfels averaged 78.4 cfs during the month—the average September flow for the period 1928 to 1953 is 300 cfs. Previous minimum monthly flow was 125 cfs in August 1953. The average flow of the Guadalupe River at Victoria for the last five days of September was about 80 cfs. The minimum daily flow—98cfs—for the period 1935 to 1953 occurred August 9, 1951.

In the lower Neches River basin, the Atascosa River at Whittsett, the Frio River at Calliham, and the Neches River near Tilden were dry near end of month. The Neches near Three Rivers (first streamflow station below those named above) was flowing about 15 cfs. About 65 cfs was flowing by Mathis station (below Lake Corpus Christi) for water supply in the Corpus Christi area.

There was no runoff reported in the Pecos River basin in Texas during September. According to reports from the International Boundary and Water Commission, average flow for the period September 26-30, 1954 in the Rio Grande was about 4 cfs at El Paso, about 200 cfs at the Lower Presidio station, about 2,870 cfs near Del Rio, about 1,780 cfs at Laredo, and about 53 cfs at Lower Brownsville station. Releases from Falcon Reservoir averaged about 1,060 cfs during this period.

Reservoir Storage Although deficiencies in the streamflow were the most widespread of record for the past few months, storage in Texas reservoirs has been ample to meet emergency needs and indicates security for most users of large quantities of water. Diversion from Red River supplemented supply in Lake Dallas, and releases from reservoirs on the Neches, Trinity, Brazos, and Colorado Rivers and the Rio Grande supplied the needs of lower river users. Without conservation storage in Texas, water supplies would have been insufficient to meet statewide demands. An inventory of 29 reservoirs in Texas with conservation storage capacity of 10,509,000 acre-feet indicated that 7,205,000 acre-feet of storage—68 per cent of capacity—was available for use.

Study Reveals How Children Die In Fires Child deaths resulting from fire are increasing. Latest estimates indicate that today fire claims the lives of some 3,000 youngsters under 14. A study of newspaper clippings of hundreds of fires shows an alarming number of children die trapped in burning homes. Commenting on this fact the National Board of Fire Underwriters stressed the need for these important safety precautions:

1. Never leave children at home alone. Many news items mentioned that the children were alone in the house. Youngsters' ages usually ranged from a few months to 6 years. In some cases the older ones had caused the fire, by playing with matches or some other dangerous act. But whether the cause or only the victims, they died because there was no one to save them. Parents who leave children at home alone have only themselves to blame for such a tragedy.

2. Keep your home fire safe. Often the fires started at night when the family was asleep. Smoke and deadly gases killed the children—and sometimes the parents—before the fire could warn them. Only by eliminating the causes of home fires could this be prevented.

3. Teach children what to do in case of fire. Many young victims were found huddled under a bed or in a closet—obviously having had no idea how to save themselves. If they had been trained in periodic home fire drills, they might have been able to escape. Show your children at least two ways to get out of the house from their bedrooms. Wake them up at night to practice this "drill"; they may need to remember the instructions when they are foggy with sleep. If a rope is needed to get them out, provide a rope—and show them how to use it.

Be sure they know how to test a door before opening it in case of fire. They should place their palms of their hands against it; if it feels hot, the hallway is filled with deadly heated gases and the door should be kept shut. If it does not feel hot, open it slightly, head turned away, door braced with foot. Pass one hand across the opening, to test heat of the air. If the hallway appears safe, it can be used as an exit.

President Royall thanked the group for their confidence and loyalty and the fine cooperation of the directors and membership. He reminded them that about 25 more members are needed to obtain the quota of 750 by Oct. 31, 1954, when that number must be in the state office for the local unit's voting strength of eight delegates for the state convention to be held in Galveston next month. Several members planning to attend the convention are: Eddie Kainer, Emil Kainer, H. W. Smith, H. H. Sego, Herman Nauert, A. C. Knippling, Herbert Nierdeck, Fred Brown, Coyt Hix, R. J. Reynolds, W. C. Winchester, C. H. Herren, C. O. Richards, Felix Klose, and S. M. Royall. Mr. Royall has been appointed by J. Walter Hammond, Texas Farm Bureau president, to serve on the state resolution committee this year. The meeting adjourned with prayer by H. W. Smith.

Early Destruction Of Stalks Urged By Entomologists

Need for early stalk destruction was urged upon Texas cotton growers this week. Entomologists of the Texas Agricultural Service advise growers to view their harvest as incomplete until all stalks either are cut or shredded and plowed under. Their call also went to Central Texas, an area free of compulsory plow-up deadlines but where an increase in pink bollworm was noted this year.

Stalk destruction soon after harvest is recognized as an effective and cheap control of cotton insects, especially the boll weevil and pink bollworm. Cotton residues turned under add organic matter and increase the water holding capacity of the soil. Also, this early land preparation readies the land for winter legumes.

Entomologists and cotton specialists alike agree that early stalk destruction, carried out on a county basis, will reduce materially insect pest troubles next year. Insects are deprived of their food supply and forced into hibernation in a weakened condition.

Pounds of Beef, Not Numbers, Is Range Pay-Off

Pounds of meat rather than the number of livestock sound the real goal of properly stocked rangelands. Producers conscious of this goal are faced with poor distribution of rainfall, drought and just plain "habits," says A. H. Walker, extension range management specialist. Walker cites several steps which go to make a "pounds" rather than "numbers" livestock program.

Carry less than the estimated stocking capacity on a certain pasture. Run only 75 instead of 100 head, for instance. Some stockmen may wish to run only dry stock during the winter giving pastures a chance to come back during the spring. Studies have shown that grazing to be best for the soil. At the Sonora Extension "moderately" tures gave more pounds per acre and resulted in greater range improvement compared to heavy grazing. Deferred grazing, however, gained equally as much. About one-half of forage growth should be left for reproduction and one and one-half of the small bunches about five inches of grasses, Walker says.

Thus, fewer insects will emerge next spring. Several type shredders and cutters are available, but the important step is to cut the stalks into small pieces so all residue is covered deeply by plowing. In northwest Texas, however, stalks are left standing until after the first hard freeze. Low temperature kill the bollworms in the exposed bolls on the plant.

Both the men had looked at several jackets, but declined to make a purchase. Then while one of the men pretended to be interested in purchasing shoes, the other remained near where the jackets had been placed until the clerk had time to replace them in their proper place.

The would-be shoe purchaser could not find just what he wanted and the two men left the store. As they were leaving, the clerk noticed one of the jackets missing, George Neely, owner of the establishment, was just returning to the store and he was told of the incident. He saw the men get into the car about a half block from the store but was unable to stop them.

Officers were given a description of the car and the two men, and neighboring officers were asked to keep a look-out for the pair.

Mrs. Howell Green of this city attended the funeral of her grandfather, A. H. Lewis at Sildell, Texas, Friday. Mr. Lewis, 81-year-old longtime resident of that section, died Wednesday, Oct. 28.

The results as reported in the July issue: Mercury beat all cars tested in its class for low ownership cost per mile—beat all cars in the test in every class except for one in the so-called "low-price" field.

What does it really cost to own and operate various 1954 cars? Motor Trend magazine decided to find out—in probably the most detailed study of true car cost ever made.

Salt Supplement Cuts Livestock Feeding Costs

Many cost-conscious livestock raisers will let their animals feed themselves a salt and protein supplement mixture this winter to help cut labor outlays.

Research has shown salt a satisfactory "limiter" in the consumption of concentrates, says F. W. Martin, county agent.

By varying the salt percentages the pounds of supplement consumed by livestock daily can be regulated closely. Cattle will eat the mixtures until they can take no more salt, Martin says.

He says a mixture of 35 lbs. of salt and 65 lbs. of supplement allows animals to consume two pounds of supplement daily. Twenty to 25 per cent salt will allow animals about three pounds while an increase to 40 or 45 per cent lets the animals take about one pound of supplement.

A plentiful water supply is a "must" for cattle using this system, Riggs continues. Ample water must be available to remove excess salt from their systems.

All livestock are assured their share of the supplement and weaker, timid animals get their time at the feed trough, too.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Peavy visited relatives in Abilene last week end.

The Weinert Bulldogs continued to roll on to their Armistice Day game with Paint Creek by soundly trouncing the Mattson Mustangs 56-14, in what was to have been one of the top games of the season. The Bulldogs started the work early in the game, scoring three times in the first quarter, and held a 32-0 lead at halftime. With Bulldogs playing most of the half, the Mustangs continued their just points on a two point safety when Morris Walker was tackled behind his own goal line early in the fourth quarter. Then Gene Mapes went to work and scored the rest of the Mustang's points on two touchdown plunges.

Scoring for the Weinert team included Freddie Wiggins with three touchdowns, Harley Reeves three, Pete Brockett one, and Jimmy Reeves one, and he kicked three extra points. The other two points making up the score were gained on a safety.

The fast Mattson backs, Arlon Alexander and Gene Mapes, were held in check by such defensive stalwarts as End Eddie Swanner who played a whale of a defensive game, and End Wilson Jenkins, Center C. W. Drinnon, Back

New Bulletins on Poultry Available

A chicken farm offers steady income if managed as a business rather than a hobby or sideline. This summarizes, "Planning for the Business of Poultry Farming," a new bulletin by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service. The publication is designed for persons considering going into commercial egg or broiler production and explains in detail many facts of raising poultry for market.

It itemizes equipment, land and buildings needed for a 1,000 hen laying flock and lists equipment necessary for the establishment of a 3,000 bird broiler house.

It points out advantages and disadvantages of cage and floor methods of egg production and touches upon hatching egg production and broiler raising.

This bulletin, teamed with another recent publication, "Poultry Houses for Texas" contains information helpful to all poultry men.

Adequate housing is one of the basic essentials of any poultry operation, it says. Type of buildings, location, foundations and materials to use in construction are covered. The importance of proper ventilation and artificial lighting also are explained.

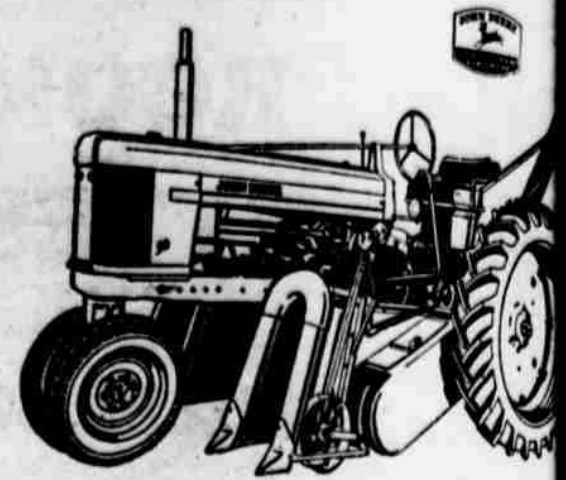

Copies of B-243 and B-240 are available from offices of county agricultural agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

 Mrs. Joe Parsons was hostess in her home for the reception tea following. She, Mrs. McCloud and Mrs. Wadzeck received guests from two clubs in Knox City and local members. The social committee served a refreshment plate of cookies, nuts and hot spiced tea to 45 guests. The refreshment table was decorated with a fall arrangement of pom-pom chrysanthemums in bronze shades. Other house decorations were potted plants and a lovely arrangement of roses and iris in yellow to coral to dark red tones.

 Mrs. J. H. Wolf visited her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Keel and Mr. Keel in Fort Worth last week end.
 Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark were hosts to a group of friends with a Halloween party at their home Saturday night.
 The back lawn had been converted into a spook garden. Being dimly lighted and black cats, bats, a witch and other weird objects in appropriate spots made it a perfect Eden for all spooks. A yellow moon glared through the tree branches on the north side of the garden and gave one a feeling that he was treading the paths of a ghost hangout. Guests lent emphasis to the Halloween garden with their hideous garbs. Dale Graham dressed in a hind part before suit and wearing a false face on the back of his head and wig on his face paced the garden like a spook sentinel until Cecil James Hudson of Weatherford garbed like Ferdinand the Bull, came bellowing into the garden and almost caused a riot among the spooks. Dr. Dose N. Killum with his pill bag was also there.
 A fire burned in the northeast corner of the garden where spine chilled guests could warm.
 After unmasking, games were enjoyed.
 The hosts then invited guests into the dining room and were served pumpkin pie topped with whipped cream and coffee.
 Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Bean, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fletcher, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Graham, Mrs. D. W. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. Palo Speck, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Greer, all of Rochester; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hudson and Phyllis Kay of Electra; Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Hudson, Ronnie Clay and James Chris, and Mr. and Mrs. White Hudson of Weatherford and the host and hostess.
 Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hudson and Phyllis Kay of Electra, Mr. and Mrs. White Hudson, and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil J. Hudson and children of Weatherford spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hudson and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Clark.
 Joe Wallace Cooper of Childress visited his grandmothers, Mmes. D. W. Hamilton and Myrtle Cooper last Sunday.

Voters Will Ballot On 11 Amendments

By VERN SANFORD Texas Press Association

Austin, Texas—Wide spread interest is gradually being developed in the 11 proposed amendments to the Texas Constitution to be voted on at the general election Nov. 2.

No organized opposition has appeared against any of the proposals. However, campaigns are being pushed for several of them.

Reports from over the state indicate somewhat of a draw between active support of various amendments and a general tendency to vote against some or all of them because the proposals are not understood or because of some question as to the results of writing such changes into the Constitution.

Amendments are discussed here in the order in which they will appear on the ballot.

SJR No. 7 Senate Joint Resolution No. 7 authorizes the Legislature to increase State spending for Old Age Assistance, Aid to the Blind, and Aid to Dependent Children by $7,000,000 a year.

Comments from some members of the Legislature and other people familiar with the program indicate that if the Legislature appropriates the additional money, new taxes will be required.

Some say that most of the money would be used to add more people to the rolls, rather than providing more money to those now on the rolls.

This amendment also would require the Legislature to enact laws making names of those who receive such aid available to the public. These are fighting words to some people who claim such action would embarrass those now on the rolls and their relatives.

Proponents of this provision argue no one should be embarrassed except those who have children or relatives well able to support them, and that these people ought to be exposed.

SJR No. 6 Senate Joint Resolution No. 6 permits a person who has served some time as a teacher and accumulated credits under Teachers' Retirement System, and also some time as a State employee, with credits under the State Employees' Retirement System, to count his accumulated credits under both systems in determining his retirement pay.

Apparently but few people would be affected. However some opposition is being expressed by members of both retirement systems to the idea of intermingling the two systems in any way.

SJR No. 37 House Joint Resolution No. 37, provides that proprietary employees of the State's subdivisions may be covered by Federal Old Age and Survivors Insurance.

Other municipal and county employees may now be covered under that system under an agreement between State and Federal Government, and in many cases have been.

But the Attorney General has ruled that the State has no authority to make an agreement covering proprietary employees without a constitutional amendment.

SJR No. 10 Senate Joint Resolution No. 10, would create a State Building Commission with broad authority, subject to Legislative direction, to erect buildings for State purposes.

A State Building Fund would be created by transferring to it the surplus from the Confederate Pension Fund.

The present 2c ad valorem tax provided by the Constitution, for Confederate pensions, returns far more than is necessary to take care of the Confederate veteran and more than four hundred widows of veterans now receiving such pensions from the State. Therefore the fund is accumulating a surplus of well over $600,000 each year.

It is anticipated that if the amendment is adopted, nearly $6,000,000 will be available for transfer to the new State Building Fund in January of 1955.

This amendment has the support of the State Bar of Texas.

The first building, if the proposal is adopted, must be a Supreme Court building and it must be dedicated as a memorial to Texans who served in the armed forces of the Confederate States.

SJR No. 5 Senate Joint Resolution No. 5, would increase compensation of members of the Legislature to $25 per day for the first 120 days of any session.

Texas Constitution now provides $10 per day for the first 120 days and $5 per day thereafter.

There is strong support and little or no opposition to this increase in pay, which most people think would about cover legislators living expenses while in Austin.

Included in the same amendment is authority for the Legislature to set salaries of the Governor, Attorney General, State Treasurer, Comptroller of Public Accounts, Secretary of State, and Commissioner of the General Land Office.

The Governor's salary is now set by the Constitution at $12,000, the Attorney General's at $10,000, and the other four officials involved are paid $6,000 a year.

Under this amendment the Legislature could not reduce salaries below these amounts, but could set them at higher rates.

Opinion does not appear to be so nearly unanimous about this part of the proposed amendment. Some people are troubled by the apparent power of the Legislature to change the salaries at will, and they point out that the Federal Constitution and many other state constitutions prohibit a change in salary during the term to which an official has been elected.

SJR No. 14 Senate Joint Resolution No. 14, prohibits use of the credit of the State or any other grant of public money for construction, maintenance or operation of toll roads and turnpikes.

Purpose of the amendment is to write into the Constitution a prohibition now contained in the law, but which could be changed by future legislation.

It has the support of the Texas Good Roads Association and many other people particularly interested in the State Highway System, and no opposition.

SJR No. 16 House Joint Resolution No. 16, would require women to serve on juries.

There are only five states including Texas which do not permit jury service by women.

This amendment would require women to serve under the same rules for jury service as apply to men. It has the active support of women's organizations.

SJR No. 4 Senate Joint Resolution No. 4 has to do with the terms of election district, county and precinct offices. It would change all of those which have two year terms into four-year terms.

It has the support of the County Judges and Commissioners Associations of the state, and the organizations of many other county officials.

The terms of a great number of district, county and precinct offices would be changed immediately if this amendment were adopted. Other such offices are designated to change to four-year terms in 1956 so that, while all of them would be four-year terms after 1956, only about half of them would appear on the ballot every two years.

Wording of this proposal has resulted in confusion as to its effect on the terms of representatives in the Legislature. Many lawyers are of the opinion that the proposal would require four-year terms for members of the House and other lawyers have said that at least it presents a problem which can only be solved by court interpretation.

SJR No. 2 Senate Joint Resolution No. 2, would authorize creation of county-wide hospital districts in Bexar, Dallas, El Paso, Galveston, Harris, Jefferson and Tarrant Counties.

The amendment is permissive, and if adopted, would not create any such districts itself. It simply provides that the property-owning taxpayers of the named counties can vote on such a proposal at a later date.

An active campaign for this proposal is being carried on by a statewide committee composed of mayors, county judges, members of hospital boards, and prominent citizens of the counties involved and some from other parts of the state.

HJR No. 10 Members of the armed forces of the United States or component branches would be allowed to vote under House Joint Resolution No. 10.

They would be required to pay their poll taxes and could vote only in the county in which they resided at the time of entering the service.

HJR No. 8 The last proposal on the ballot will be House Joint Resolution No. 8, which is a permissive type of amendment allowing taxpayers in counties of less than ten thousand inhabitants to vote on the question of whether they would prefer to have a separate fulltime office of tax assessor-collector.

Duties of the tax assessor-collector are now performed by the Sheriff in these counties.
