"Recent Rains" Cause Washington Delay In Placing County In Disaster Area

Inclusion of Haskell County in the Department of Agriculture's drought disaster area, requested at a meeting of representative farmers and stockmen here Sept. 17 and subsequently recommended by Gov. Allan Shivers, is still hanging fire.

Delay has been occasioned by "recent rains in Texas" according to K. L. Scott, director of Agricultural Credit Services in the Department of Agriculture in Washington.

Haskell County farmers and ranchers who have been hard hit by the drought would welcome some of the rain Washington apparently has this area credited with. They point out that rains in Amarillo or Brownsville sectors are of little benefit to this section.

State Senator Harley Sadler, 62, independent oil operator and widely-known former showman, died Oct. 14 in the Stamford Sanitarium after suffering a heart attack on the evening of Oct. 12 in Avoca.

Mr. Sadler was a brother of Mrs. W. A. Holt of Haskell. An old-time tent show owner and actor, Sadler was acting as master of ceremonies for a Boy Scout talent show in Avoca when he was stricken.

Funeral services for Mr. Sadler were held Friday at 10 a. m. in Abilene First Baptist Church. The body was carried to Cameron and burial was in Cameron Cemetery.

Sadler and his wife, the former Miss Billie Louise Messengale of Cameron and a star in his show, established residence in Sweetwater about 20 years ago. From that district, he was elected to the Texas House of Representatives for three terms. He was elected to the Texas Senate in 1950 from the Abilene district, to which he moved in 1948. School Homecoming Event Gains Widespread Interest

Interest in the first annual Homecoming of ex-students, teachers and patrons of Haskell Public Schools which has been set for Friday, Nov. 12 has become so widespread that the event promises to eclipse all expectations of planners, W. O. Holden, chairman of the attendance committee, reports.

Attics are being ransacked for old class pictures, newspaper files are being searched for names and addresses of Exes who attended schools in early 1900, and school officials are getting daily calls for class rolls of 10, 20, and even 40 years ago. First printing of 1,500 invitations was done last week end, and through Tuesday, 22 committees representing as many classes had picked up invitations for mailing to former students.

Tentative program for the Homecoming schedules registration at 9 a. m. on Nov. 12, with the formal program to start at 2 p. m., with Hon. Clyde Grisom of the Civil Appeals Court as principal speaker. Class reunions and recognition of early-day students and teachers will have a prominent part and a chuckwagon supper will be among the highlights. The Haskell-Munday conference football game will be the night attraction.

Main feature which apparently has captured the interest of every ex-student, is the opportunity afforded by the Homecoming for renewing old friendships and recalling school-day incidents.

Final plans for the Homecoming will be completed at a meeting of the planning committee Monday night, Oct. 25 at 7:30 in the Homecoming Building on the high school grounds. Supt. C. D. Allen is chairman of the planning group.

Classes and members already actively working on plans for the Homecoming include: 1930—Curtis Pogue, Raymond Lyles, J. E. Walling, Jr., Henrietta Isbell Sego, Winona Lusk.

C-C Board Hears Report on Oil Progress Week and Plans for School Homecoming

Officers and directors of the Haskell Chamber of Commerce met at 7 a. m. Tuesday in the banquet room of the Texas Cafe for the regular October meeting of the organization.

President Carl Wheatley presided for the business session which included a report from A. C. Pierson, chairman of the committee to select a speaker for the annual banquet. Mr. Pierson stated that he and committee-men, Jetty V. Clare and John Kimbrough had discussed the possibility of securing Ben Wooten, president of the First National Bank of Dallas as guest speaker for the annual banquet meeting of the civic organization.

Rex Felker, chamber of commerce manager, gave a report on the recognition of National Oil Progress Week which was climaxed Saturday with a downtown street parade and the colored football game at Indian Field on that night.

Carl Wheatley explained the action taken by the school board on discontinuing the school supply store at the Elementary School.

A discussion of the Homecoming slated for Nov. 12 for all ex-students, teachers, patrons and their families of the Haskell Independent Schools followed and much favorable comment was made as to its possibilities.

John Kimbrough was appointed to investigate a small garment factory which has indicated a desire to locate in Haskell. His report will be made to the directors this week and possibly a committee appointed to meet with executive heads of the company.

Judge Alfred Turnbow told the board that Haskell County was one of the three highest counties in the State as far as Farm-to-Market road allotments for 1955-56 were concerned and that some $276,000 would be spent on roads in Haskell County.

Approximately $600 net was realized from the Texas-Oklahoma Colored Classic played here Saturday night, members of the Quarterback Club were told Tuesday night at their weekly meeting.

From a financial standpoint, this year's venture was one of the most profitable in the four years history of the Classic, Club President Thos. B. Robertson said.

The game itself was rated one of the best ever seen here, and Robertson and other Quarterbackers told of many favorable comments heard from spectators.

Date for next year's Colored Classic was tentatively set for Oct. 22, 1955, and the club voted to invite Dunbar of Lubbock and the Frederick, Okla., team as opponents in the game. Both schools are eager to return to Haskell, officials of both teams told Robertson and George Neely, club secretary, following Saturday night's contest.

During the business session, club members voted to set aside 25 per cent of the net earnings from the Colored Classic each year until a reserve of $600 is built up.

A committee to recommend some project or activity for the Club was named, consisting of Robertson, A. C. Pierson, J. M. Williams, Otis Johnson, Carl Wheatley. Under consideration is the purchase of an automatic washer for the football field house.

Catches Royce Smith and Ray Overton, Jr. discussed the coming game with Anson, and Overton gave a brief summary of the Albany-Anson game which he scouted two weeks ago.

Entertainment feature Tuesday night was a film, with sound, "Highlights of 1953 Southwest Conference," courtesy of the Humble Oil Company.

Indians Romp Over Roscoe, 39-6, In First Home Conference Game

Haskell Indians romped over the Roscoe Plowboys 39-6 here Friday night in the first home conference game and the fourth consecutive win for the Tribe.

Reserve Redskins were prominent in the picture throughout the contest and contributed a measurable share to the crop failure of the visiting Plowboys.

The top-heavy score would have been larger if two long TD runs by Quarterback Glenn Kregger and Reserve Back Bobby Rexrod had not been nullified by rule infractions.

Next game for the Indians takes them to Anson Friday night where they play the 2A Anson Tigers in a non-conference contest.

The Indians scored two TD's in the first period, one in the second, and three in the third, and piled up 218 yards rushing to 76 yards for the Plowboys, in completely dominating the contest.

Haskell's first touchdown came at the end of five minutes in the first period, after the Indians had taken possession of the ball on Roscoe's 33. Sparked by a 14-yard pickup by Tailback Jimmy

Love and 12 yards added by Wingback Clarence Callaway, the Tribe powered to the Roscoe one, where Back Frankie, Don Mullins carried over for the initial marker. Tackle Wendel

Texas Theatre to Install Modern New Cinemascope Equipment at Early Date
Manager B. L. Haley of the Texas Theatre announced today that arrangements have been completed for the installation of Cinemascope, a revolutionary new process by which motion pictures are photographed and projected, and the local show house will begin showing Cinemascope pictures within the next few days.

"For several years, optical scientists and engineers of photography with radical changes in the old standard form of making and presenting movies," Haley said. "Three dimension movies, requiring the spectator to wear special viewers enjoyed a flurry of interest, but the glasses proved to be somewhat of a nuisance and now the process has been abandoned except for novelty attractions that are definitely enhanced by depth perception." "Out of experimentation costing millions came the Anamorphoscope, a fabulously intricate instrument by which Cinemascope became a startling and practical reality," Haley said. "In simplest terms, Haley explained, the Anamorphic lens 'reaches out' and captures the entire panoramic scope of the human eye's normal range of vision, recording it on motion picture film in a 'squeezed image' in the same way the thin man mirror in a Fun House compresses and distorts a reflection. Then, in transferring the scene to the theatre screen, another Anamorphic lens in the projector 'un-squeezes' the image into the gigantic panoramic screen which extends from wall to wall across the stage. The effect is all-enveloping, creating for the spectator the illusion of actually being a part of the action on the screen, and this is accomplished without special 3-D glasses. Because of the intricate nature of the Anamorphic lens, they cannot be mass-produced and have been extremely hard to get, but Manager Haley states that his pair of the instruments will be on hand for the opening of Cinemascope. With the installation of the Cinemascope equipment, the Texas will be showing a parade of Cinemascope pictures already under contract which are acclaimed the greatest entertainment in motion picture history. Some of the pictures to be shown are The Robe, How to Marry a Millionaire, Rose Marie, The Student Prince, Beneath the 12-Mile Reef, King of Kayber Rifles, Hell and High Water, New Faces, Night People, Prince Valiant, River of No Return, Three Coins in the Fountain, Broken Lances, Demetrius and the Gladiators.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Strain of this city. Fred R. The group is in Dallas today, studying tools and equipment on exhibit at the Texas State Fair. Friday will be spent in inspection of Soil Conservation Flood Control projects near Rockwall, and the district headquarters and parts depot of a national farm implement company in Dallas.

Haskell Soldier With Skysweeper Unit In Japan
Pvt. Nathan K. Patterson of Haskell, who had been stationed in Korea since early in April, recently was transferred to Camp Tokyo in Japan, where he is taking special training. In a letter to his parents, Pvt. Patterson told of a "rough trip" from Korea to Japan last month, when the ship he was on was in the path of a typhoon. The ship left Korea Sept. 10, and when the typhoon struck the ship encountered waves 60 feet high, the soldier declared. It was not uncommon for the ship to sway 20 to 25 degrees, he related. The ship was blown 100 miles off course and did not reach Japan until Sept. 21, he said. Pvt. Patterson is assigned to the 76th AAA Battalion, and is now training on the new 75mm Skysweeper. On completion of his training he will be assigned to duty with one of these units guarding an air base. Pvt. Patterson entered the Army Nov. 17, 1953 and took his basic training at Fort Bliss. He went by transport plane to Oakland, Calif., on April 3 and left for Korea four days later. He was stationed at K6 Marine Air Base for four and one-half months before being assigned to special training in Japan. His wife, Lorneta Patterson, is living at San Angelo, where she is employed.

Judge Ratliff Is Speaker at P-TA Meeting

"The home and the school have a joint responsibility in the education and training of children," Judge Dennis Ratliff told the Junior High P-TA members in their first regular meeting Thursday, Oct. 14 in the Homemaking Cottage.

In requesting a closer relationship between the parent and the teacher, Judge Ratliff stressed the importance of a better understanding and appreciation of our teachers. He said that a greater need in education today, even more than the three R's, was what he called the "by-products" of teaching which Judge Ratliff explained are the love of learning, happiness, burning patriotism, respect for authority, and last but not least, the molding of character.

The director, Mrs. George W. Fouts, introduced Judge Ratliff. Mrs. J. L. Mullins gave the devotional and Mrs. F. W. Martin led the group in singing.

Mr. Johnson introduced the teachers.

In a business session the association voted to send the president, Mrs. James E. Ferguson, to the state convention in Corpus Christi on Nov. 17-19.

Mrs. Norman Nanny, legislative chairman, gave an interesting report on the legislative work shop held at Midwestern University Center Oct. 7.

Mrs. Raymond Davis, membership chairman, reported the result of a most successful membership drive with 257 members. Mrs. Woodson's room won the contest with the largest percent of members.

Mrs. Woodson's room also won the $2.50 this month for having the most members present at the meeting.

After the meeting refreshments were served in the Homemaking dining room. The hospitality committee, Mrs. Lon McMillin, D. V. Helbert, Richard Riley, and Hugh Ratliff served punch and cake squares.

The table was centered with an arrangement of Maximilian sunflowers. Other decorations were a large styrofoam map of Texas and a blue and gold cake honoring the birthday of the Texas Congress of Parent and Teachers.

NEWS OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

New Bulletin Gives Hints for Growing Poinsettias

Tricks of the trade when it comes to growing the popular Christmas poinsettia are given in a new bulletin by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Titled "The Poinsettia," the bulletin goes into methods and time of pruning, tells how to start new plants from cuttings and gives steps in the care of the cut flowers. It also lists two simple soil formulas for potting the plants.

Poinsettias are full sunshine plants. If grown indoors, give them plenty of light, says the bulletin.

An application of fertilizer will give your poinsettias a boost. Four-12-4 applied about the time the leaves begin to grow will help produce larger flowers. One teaspoon is enough for a 10-inch pot. On outdoor plants, use one-half cup of 4-12-4 for each 25 square feet of soil area.

The bulletin says the loss of sap, which causes undue wilting, can be stopped by sealing the cut stem. Do this by burning the severed end with a match or by submerging the ends in boiling water for about one minute.

Copies of the bulletin, B-235, are available from local county extension agents or from the Agricultural Information Office, College Station, Texas.

HHS Freshman Jo Chamberlain Submits Winning Essay in Oil Progress Contest

Winning essay in the contest sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce during Oil Progress Week was submitted by Jo Chamberlain, freshman in Haskell High School and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Chamberlain of this city.

The second place award in the essay contest went to Robbie Lou Roberson, and third place to her twin sister, Sara Sue, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Roberson; and fourth winning essay was that of Doug Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Doug Brown, all of Haskell.

The essays were on the subject, "How Oil is Related to National Defense." Cash prizes in the contest were: First $10.00, second $7.00, third $5.00 and fourth $3.00.

The winning essay by Miss Chamberlain follows:
Ever since oil was discovered in 1859, America has prospered. Even now peace, or war, depends upon the out come of an oil treaty.

At first, the pioneers cursed this substance with little idea that some day it would be so important to the United States. As we know, our nation depends upon our oil industry for its defense, and our oil industry brings a great revenue into our National Treasury.

Not only is oil important for the money it brings in, but for its products. Oil is definitely a "must" for transportation, and in turn, transportation is definitely a "must" for our defense on either land, sea, or air. The gasoline is important, as is the heavier fuel for the diesel engines. The lubricating oil is most essential to any kind of machinery. Chemicals are also produced, in fact almost fifty percent of the nation's chemicals are made from oil or oil products. Among these are synthetic materials from which synthetic rubber is made, a very important factor of our defense. Also, ammunitions are made from these chemicals, among these is T. N. T.

As we know, oil is used to combat mosquitoes by being spread over water. Thus steps have been taken to spread oil over waste products in places where insects prevail, and have greatly reduced the number of illnesses in our Armed Forces.

The Government contracts manufacturers to construct planes, tanks, guns, trucks, and ships. Oil and oil products are used in manufacturing and in operation of all defense equipment. In fact, without oil and its products the United States would be unable to effectively defend herself and her rights.

To realize the importance of oil to our country, we need only to recall the recent wars. Our entire transportation system is built upon petroleum power and lubricants; to a certain extent, the mills, the mines, the factories, and even agriculture depends upon the light, heat, and power contained in oil.

It would not be absurd to say that everything a civilian or soldier eats, wears, or has anything to do with is related to oil.

The tax on gasoline for cars and trucks, the natural gas for the home, the heavier fuels for diesel engines, lubricating oils and carbon black bring in much money for the treasury helping to make possible our national defense program.

Though it has been nearly a century since oil was discovered, there are still many discoveries to be made. However, the industry has been developed and is being developed to the extent that the United States, Navy, Army, Marines, and Air Force can plan our defense with confidence that the necessary equipment and fuel can and will be supplied for the machines of war.

Oil is still proving one of the most valuable resources in America and vital to our National Defense.

New FORD THUNDERBIRD

A personal car of distinction
...with Trigger-Torque performance

Something totally fresh is here — a bewitching new all-steel beauty that sets the styling keynote for other Ford cars to come.

But, styling gives the merest hint of what the Thunderbird has to offer. For here is a car you can drive with assurance and pleasure . . . for business or for recreation.

In traffic and on the open road the Thunderbird's Trigger-Torque performance is literally a revelation. Here is hair-trigger response . . . fleet, liquid agility . . . backed by a reserve of swift, sure power to meet safety's every demand.

Trigger-Torque performance stems from Ford's new Thunderbird Special V-8 — a high-torque engine with 4-barrel carburetor, dual exhausts, wide-opening valves and Ford's famous low-friction design. And to enhance the performance characteristics of this brilliant engine, the Thunderbird provides special rear axle ratio to match the transmission of your choice — Conventional Overdrive, or new Speed-Trigger Fordomatic.

Then, in the ride department, Ford's Ball-Joint Front Suspension really works wonders. It not only cushions your ride, it also allows the Thunderbird to handle with utmost ease — to corner with greatest stability. And when it comes to stopping, brakes are big and powerful.

But, more important is the way the Thunderbird is engineered, designed . . . and built! For it is the product of the same advanced engineering . . . the same manufacturing skills that have made Ford products so dependable, so value-full and so desirable to so many.

NEW SOIL BUILDING IMPLEMENT is the "Harbers Planter" a specially designed planter used in seeding legumes and for applying a band of fertilizer below the seed. At left is Willie Lees, Haskell irrigation farmer, who was planting Austrian Winter Peas on the side of lister beds as a soil-conservationist, supervising the adjustment of the seed and fertilizer plows on the machine, which was bought recently by the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District. Wichita-Brazos Soil District Brings Soil-Building Implement to Area

The Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District, which embraces almost the entire north area of Haskell County, recently purchased a revolutionary soil-building implement. Known as a "Harbers Planter," the implement enables the farmer to apply fertilizer and plant a soil-building legume at the same time.

The new machine was placed in use for the first time last week on the farm of Willie Lees, west of town, and attracted wide interest among farmers, soil technicians, and agriculture leaders.

Bob Cooke, Farm Editor of the Abilene Reporter-News, was among those who came to see the machine placed in operation. The following story by the farm editor appeared in the Oct. 3 issue of the Abilene newspaper.

Not in the last generation perhaps has a single farmer and his accomplishments in conservation farming had a greater influence on West Texas farmers and farming practices as Clinton Harbers of West Point in East Texas. Here in the combination irrigated and dryland farming section of Haskell County a number of farmers are adopting some of the conservation farming techniques employed by the East Texan.

Harbers' story of how he took an old, worn out East Texas farm and built up the land's productivity from 116 pounds of lint cotton to the acre to 738 pounds an acre in seven years has stimulated the interest of Texas farmers everywhere. He did it without irrigation and with scant rainfall.

The East Texan has also extended his influence into the field of implement manufacturing. The Graham-Hoerne Plow Co. of Amarillo and Rahn, Inc., of Corpus Christi are now turning out a special conservation tool generally referred to as the "Harbers planter."

The special conservation farming tool actually is a glorified copy of a machine that the East Texan has perfected for the side application of fertilizer to the legumes he planted for the purpose of increasing the fertility and building up humus in his worn out land.

Harbers' home-made planter was a revolving drum fertilizer applicator, mounted on a regular Graham-Hoerne chisel plow. Seed boxes were mounted on the back of the plow.

The fertilizer delivery spouts fall out immediately behind the opening plow. A foot or so back in a "slip" from the opening plow the seed delivery spouts fall out. The fertilizer is applied in a band at the depth of an inch or more below the legume seeds.

One of these "Harbers planters" has been bought on a special order by the Wichita-Brazos Soil Conservation District. The machine was delivered the first of the week to the SCS office at Knox City.

Willie Lees, a combination dryland and irrigation farmer living about midway between Haskell and Rule, is the first applicant user of the machine. It was put into operation Wednesday on the Lees farm, with Dale Gooch, district soil technician and O. J. Curry, work unit conservationist, assisting in getting the machine in operation.

Lees is plating 30 or more acres of Austrian winter peas on milo stubble that was listed after the current crop was combined.

The peas are being planted on the side of the beds, at the rate of 160 pounds to the acre. The procedure, worked out by Harbers, permits the planting of the next crop, probably cotton, on top of the undisturbed bed. The legume, Austrian peas in this case, sends its roots down to the fertilizer band, and deeper, and the vines spread out over the top of the beds and into the middles.

When the cotton or other crop is planted it gets the benefit of any of the unused commercial fertilizer, plus the nitrogen build up induced by the legume. The vines are covered, producing both green manure and adding humus to the soil.

Lees watered part of the area now being planted after completing his maize harvest. He anticipates that there is sufficient moisture to bring the peas up and get them off to a good start. In case there are no winter rains, he can irrigate the peas, boosting the top growth so that it will spread out and blanket the beds and furrows completely.

There is already a long list of applicants for use of the district's "Harbers planter," according to Curry, Haskell work unit conservationist.

Joe W. Cloud, in the heart of the Pinkerton community and a few miles northwest of Lees will be the next user of the planter. Norris Anders, in the same general area, will follow Cloud. Shirley Lees, brother of Willie is scheduled next and Clifford Thomas, Jr., has next call on the machine.

Curry anticipates that the planter will be in constant use the remainder of the fall and early winter. Many of the farmers planning to use it will seed vetch instead of winter peas. Harbers did most of his soil improving, fertility building with vetch.

Warriors Blank Seymour, 14-0; Defeat Throckmorton 27-12 In Games Past Week

Haskell Junior High School Warriors added two victories to their undefeated season record in games played Thursday and Tuesday nights. Coach Sammy Spratt's Warriors blanked Seymour 14-0 on Indian Field Thursday night, then traveled to Throckmorton Tuesday night where they sank the Junior Hi Greyhounds under a 27-12 avalanche. The wins made it five successive victories for the upcoming Indians, and defeat of Throckmorton came at the halfway mark in the Warriors schedule. The Warriors hit in the first and third periods in their conquest of Seymour Thursday night. In the first period, Tailback Pressy Webb went through from the 10 to rack up the Warriors first TD, and for good measure plunged through the Seymour line for the extra point. Second period was scoreless, and in the third, Warrior Fullback Eugene Mullins bucked through the junior Panther line for four yards and a tally to climax a Warrior drive which covered some 30 yards. John Sammy Rike carried over for the extra point. The two teams played a see-saw game in the fourth, with the Warriors staving off the Panthers' attempts to get into scoring range. Tuesday night's game at Throckmorton got off to a bad start for the Tribe. The junior Hounds scored a stunning TD when a fleet safety took Haskell's kickoff on the Throck 30 and returned to the Haskell goal in a flashing 70 yard run. Try for extra point failed. The aroused Redskins came back fighting and in a series of five plays advanced to the Throck five yard line, where Tailback Pressy Webb carried over right tackle for a TD. Fullback 'Stick' Mullins carried the ball over for the extra point. Throckmorton struck back minutes later when they powered from the 50 on successive downs to score their second TD, but could not penetrate the Warrior line for the extra point. Late in the first period, Quarterback John Sammy Rike heaved a 50 yard aerial to Wayne Ammons on the Greyhound 30, and the fleet tailback went the route for the second TD of the game. Webb smashed through the line for the extra point. The second period was scoreless, and in the third, the Warriors marked up their third TD after advancing deep into Throck territory, when Rike hit Ammons with a short pass on the five and on the next play Webb plunged through the line to hit pay dirt. The Warriors tallied again in the fourth after they had powered from their own 40 to the Throck 8 yard line, where Tailback Webb again slipped through for a TD and Jerry Gresham on an off-tackle play carried over for the extra point. The Warriors' next game will be at Roby, Thursday night, Oct. 23.

Haskell Indians

The Roscoe 24 set the stage for the Redskins' second tally. A pitchout to Jimmy Love netted 7 yards, and on the next play Indian Fullback John Donald Pitman took a hand-off on the Roscoe 17 and went the distance for TD No. 2. Wendel Jones conversion kick was good with five minutes remaining in the first quarter. Another scoring drive was launched by the Indians after Roscoe had been able to gain only four yards in three plays. A Pitman punt was blocked by Plowman and the Redskins took over on Roscoe's 35, and had moved to the Plowboy 11 as the quarter ended. With Love carrying, the first two plays in the second period netted the Indian's third TD. The elusive Indian tailback picked up five on an end sweep, then went six yards off tackle for the pay stripe. Jones' extra point kick was nullified by an illegal procedure ruling against the Indians by officials. The Indians threatened again in the second when they drove inside the Roscoe 10 with Tribe reserves making up most of the team. With 2:20 remaining in the second, Callaway intercepted a Plowboy pass on the Roscoe 41 and the Indians moved to the Roscoe 4 yard stripe where a fumble gave the Plowboys possession. With two seconds remaining, the Plowboys desperate passing attack was broken up by Kreger's interception of a Roscoe aerial on the visitors 45 yard line. His trip through the entire Plowboy backfield to the pay

Frederick Wildcats Take 19-18 Thriller From Lubbock Panthers in T-O Classic

An extra point kick by Robert Cooks, Frederick Wildcat fullback, might as well have been the only scoring as far as the outcome of the fourth annual Texas-Oklahoma Colored Classic played here Saturday night was concerned. The Wildcats won the contest, played on Indian Field, 19-18 over the Dunbar High School Panthers of Lubbock. The visitors also took home the handsome trophy presented by the Haskell Quarterback Club, sponsors of the annual colored high school football game. In the opinion of approximately 2,000 enthusiastic fans who saw the game, there could well have been two trophies—the hard-fought contest was that close. With the Panthers striking first, scoring alternated during the entire contest, with the Wildcats final TD and game-winning extra point after coming midway in the final period. Lead-off tally for the Panthers was contributed by Halfback Don Billingsley, who went around left end and stepped off 35 yards to the goal. Kick for extra point failed, as did similar attempts after two more touchdowns. The Wildcats retaliated with a determined drive which carried from their own 45 to the Dunbar 2 yard-line as the first period ended. On the first play in the second quarter, Ruzell McCoy, Frederick quarterback went over on a stripe was nullified by a penalty against the Tribe as the clock ran out, leaving the Indians with a 20-0 lead at halftime. Band Sweetheart Crowned In a colorful ceremony at halftime, Betty Jane Melton, attractive HHS senior, was crowned Band Sweetheart by Captain David Calhoun of the HHS Indian Band. Betty Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Melton. Band members formed into the shape of a huge heart on mid-field, and the band sweetheart and her escort were driven in a convertible to the center of the formation. During the coronation the band played "Let Me Call You Sweetheart." Indians Hit Twice The Indians struck quickly in the third period, with speedster Jimmy Love taking a Plowboy kick-off on his own 15 and racing through the entire Roscoe aggregation for 85 yards and a TD. Wendel Jones booted the extra point, to make it 27-0. The Plowboys were unable to gain yardage after returning the Indians kickoff to their own 21. Roscoe's fourth-down punt was taken by Kreger on the visitor's 45 and returned to the 20. A 12-yard aerial from Indian QB Jerry Wheatley was taken by End Jones' McGary who stepped off the remaining 8 yards for the Indians fifth TD. Jones missed the uprights in his try for conversion. The Plowboys, forced to punt after failing to travel enough for a first down, gave the Indians their next scoring opportunity. Love took Quarterback Hastings' punt on the 50, headed for the sideline and a trip to the end zone. Jones' kick for extra point was wide, to leave the score 39-0. Roscoe's lone tally came in the third. Starting on the Haskell 47, a screen pass from Hastings to Plowboy Left Half Kendall Cleckler, who got through the Indian secondary for a trip to the goal. Roscoe End Dale Robinson's kick for extra point was blocked by Indian Guard Wayne Harris. With Indian reserves defending the reservation throughout the fourth period, the Redskins saw another potential touchdown trip cancelled out. It came with 1:30 remaining on the clock, when Bobby Rexrode, Indian reserve back, intercepted a Roscoe pass on the Haskell 44 and scooted down the sideline for the pay-stripe. The play was called back on a 15-yard penalty against the Tribe. The clock ran out with the Plowboys on the Haskell 21. Outstanding for the visitors were Cleckler, left half; Quarterback Hastings, Jimmy Boston, Than Richburg, and Robinson in the line. Indian reserves shared equally with the first string in both de-
